Unkind Words

MRS. M. C. SOLLARS

Be still! your cold, unfeeling words Sink like a poisoned dart Into a heart already sad,-Nigh breaking with its lot.

Be still! he has enough to bear, Forsaken and alone; His daily life, a struggle hard,

Where human hearts seem stone. Although a wanderer, from God,

A sinner he may be; God loved a world of sinners lost, And gave all heaven to free!

Be still! a holy one stands by; Your record, foul or air, Must reach the great white throne tonight

And pass inspection there.

Oh cruel, heartless, unkind words! How oft we let them pass;

How unlike him whose life is love! How like the "sounding brass"!

IN carrying forward the work of God on the earth many and various agencies must necessarily be employed. We would not discount any one of these, for they each have their part and place; but we desire to speak particularly regarding one of the most effective agencies. A most effective way of using periodicals is in connection with missionary correspondence. A letter should be written explaining that a paper is being sent free of charge, and a copy of the weekly Signs of the Times, or some other missionary periodical should be mailed with it. Another reason is that a letter warm with the love of Christ will be likely to incline the receiver to read the paper. The personal interest shown is likely to have a good effect. Still another reason is that it opens the way to get into personal touch with honest seekers after truth.

The letters should be written with care and prayer. Every letter will make some impression, favorable or unfavorable. It has been said of one of the successful missionary workers in the early days of the message, that she would write a letter, pray over it, rewrite it and pray again, and perhaps repeat this several times before she felt that the letter was what the Lord wanted it to be. When finally ready to go, it would be such a letter as might appeal to even a heart of stone. As in all missionary work, there must be a deep burden for souls, and much prayer, in order that the letters and papers may be used by the Holy Spirit to win souls.

In writing to strangers care should be taken to state in some pleasant way that the paper is being sent free of charge and that other copies will follow. Attention may be drawn to some article of special interest. The address should be plainly given, and the signature should indicate the sex of the writer, and if a woman should indicate whether single or married. The papers should be neatly wrapped, as all these details make an impression on the receiver.

Care should be taken to avoid the use of expressions not generally understood, such as "present truth," "third angel's message." Expressions should not be used that would imply in any way that the writer considered himself wiser, or in any way superior to the person addressed, or that he regarded him as a subject for missionary labor. It is better to approach a person as a fellow-seeker after truth, rather than as one to be instructed.

FROM July 30th to August 8th we had the privilege of having Elder Flaiz with us here in our conference. He and the writer visited twelve churches during that time. Elder Flaiz preached, some excellent sermons and the Spirit of the Lord was present. We found, however, that but few had money for the work in The hard times make it foreign fields. difficult for many of our brethren to do very much; but we all know that the gold and the silver is the Lord's, and he can give it to whomsoever he will. If he who knows our hearts, sees that we will use it to his glory, he will entrust us with it: but if he sees that we will set our hearts upon it, or that we will use if for selfish purposes, he may withhold it from us, because then it is not a blessing to us. My daily prayer is that he will make us faithful stewards, to whom he can entrust much.

All our seven tent companies have a good attendance and a good interest, and souls are under strong convictions that they should leave the world and follow Christ. May he give many victory and set them at liberty, that they may rejoice in the salvation of our Lord.

Aberdeen

MANY months have passed since you received a report from this part of the field but we have not been idle all that time. During the winter we gave a Bible study in the church every Sunday evening, as a result of which we have one new Sabbath-Missionary correspondence has been keeper and several others who are more

Last December, on account of faithful missionary work done by Bro. S. H. Smith and family, an interest was created at the "Gardens," and we took advantage of the opportunity to give a study on the Eastern Question. The school house was well filled with attentive listeners. At the close of the meeting we learned that there were several young people in the room who had never before attended a religious service. Soon after this the way opened for us to hold a meeting each week, and for about eight months we have had a Bible study in this place nearly every week. After we had presented the Sabbath question we found some who were ready to obey. Four weeks ago five of them attended our Sabbath meeting here in Aberdeen, and the next Sunday Elder Flaiz and Elder Johnson went out with us and talked to them. The following Sabbath we organized a Sabbath School of 27 including about a dozen who went up from our own school. We believe there are six who are keeping the Sabbath as a result of this work, and there are others who have acknowledged that it is right.

This district is ten miles north of Aberdeen on the Wishkah River. Elder Nellis organized a church at this place about 20 years ago, but nearly all who accepted the message at that time have moved away and new people have come in, so the field is quite new. No religious meeting had been held in the district for more than fifteen years, except a family Sabbath School last year. The average attendance at our meetings was from thirty to forty each evening, the majority of which were Catholic. We shall try to hold another series of studies with them this fall and winter and hope to see others accept the truth for this time.

Buhl, Idaho

ON Sabbath, Aug. 14, six souls were buried in baptism in the pool at the city park. These are part of the first fruits of the effort which we are still continuing in Buhl. A few others are obeying and will be baptized later, or are satisfied with former baptism.

We are taking steps towards the organization of the Buhl church, with a prospective membership of thirty or more. Ten, at least, of these will be new members; the rest by letter from churches both from this conference and others, Plans are being laid toward completing the church building, which was started about three years ago.

The prospects are good for a church school at Filer, a small town a few miles from Buhl. This will be the place of our next meeting, also winter headquarters. The Filer people will unite with the Buhl church, so we hope that the membership may be increased before the winter is over.

Upon the completion of the plans laid, the work in this part of the country should be well started.

Calls are coming from other places, where faithful Sabbath-keepers are upholding the truth. Brother Sooter writes from Sublett that there is an interest in his neighborhood and he is holding some meetings with his neighbors.

A blessed feature of our last Sabbath's meeting was the quarterly services. Twenty-five took part a number for the first time. While but little excitement has attended the effort here, yet a real interest has been shown by some from the start.

The churches of the town combine for Sunday night meetings, and are pursuing the usual course in their attempts to keep people from hearing or obeying the message. While these efforts seem to be sometimes successful, yet we know that nothing will prevent the honest in heart from finally embracing the truth.

As the days of probation are swiftly drawing to a close, we solicit the prayers of all that we may faithfully do our part in the warning and winning work of the MR. and MRS. B. M. GRANDY. Lord.

Ontario, Oregon

ONTARIO, Oregon is located on the line of the Snake river that divides Oregon from Idaho. It was thought best at our camp meeting to hold a tent effort at this place. There is a small company of our people here and they are very desirous of seeing some new believers join them. ъ.,

We began our meetings July 29, with Elder R. W. Airey, of the Southern Oregon conference, assisting in the effort. He has recently united with this field, and his help is greatly appreciated. Since starting the meetings we have realized it in another column.

that in some ways it is a very unfavorable time for holding a tent effort. The weather is very hot and dry, with high winds that keeps the dust constantly mov-"God's work knows no haste and ing no delay." From the first up to the present, in spite of inconveniences of weather and wind, our tent has been filled.

The tent would not hold all that came the first few evenings. A deep interest was manifested in the prophecies of Christ's second coming. Since coming up to the testing truths our attendance has fallen off, but a goodly number continue coming from night to night. We are now in the testing part of our effort by giving the Sabbath and other kindred truths which brings people to a decision. A number are interested and we are praying that God will move upon their hearts to take a stand for the truth. We are having opposition from the Baptist and Methodist ministers. Both of these ministers have attended a number of the meetings, and judging from remarks made by them they are afraid we will get some of their flock.

The work is the Lord's and we have dedicated our lives to his service. We believe he will save some souls in Ontario as a result of these meetings.

Caldwell Church School

As it is drawing near the time for school to begin, probably there are parents in Southern Idaho who are wondering where to send their children to school.

At Caldwell there is a large, new school building where students can be received up to and including the tenth grade. Last year we had two teachers. O. C. Durham, the principal, worked hard for the upbuilding of the school. This year we also have two teachers engaged, - Mr. and Mrs. Hartley, who come to us highly recommended. We hope for a successful year.

School is to begin the 6th or 7th of September. Perhaps a limited number of students could find a home with some of the patrons.

In many respects our meetings here have been remarkable. This place is considered one of the modern Sodoms, but as the last message of warning had never been given here, we decided that it was "high time" that this place should be worked. We are confident that the Lord led us here, for we found the field ready for the message. Our attendance has been good and mostly of the better class.

After presenting the "Seal of God and the Counterfit," about 25 arose signifying that they believed the message as far as they had heard. Last evening, that many or more said they were going to forsake all for a home in the new earth.

A number are already keeping the Sabbath and we hope to see many in this place accept fully of the third angel's message. It is our desire that a good strong church may be raised up here, but in this we may be disappointed in that it being a railroad and milling town the families who accept the truth will be compelled to give up their work, and that means to look elsewhere for a livelihood.

We are glad to have with us in our work here this summer Bro. F. A. Bower and wife who are planning on remaining to follow up the work, and we are sure that with the earnest, consecrated efforts of these devoted workers, the cause will prosper in this part of the Lord's vineyard.

-----Canvassing For Subscriptions.

WHILE good results will be obtained from the regular sale of periodicals from house to house, attention should also be given to obtaining subscriptions for them. Once paid for, the periodical will go to the home for a period of time, during which there will be given considerable light on this message.

"A mistake has been made in soliciting will reach some people that could be subscriptions for our periodicals for only a few weeks, when by a proper effort much longer subscriptions might have been obtained. One yearly subscription is of more value than many for a short time. When the paper is taken for only a few months, the interest often ends with the short subscription. Few renew their subscriptions for a longer period, and thus there is a large outlay of time that brings small returns, when with a little more tact and perseverance, yearly subscriptions might bave been obtained. You strike too low brethren, you are too narrow in your plans. You do not put into your work all the tact and perseverance that it deserves. There are more difficulties in this work than in some other branches of business; but the lessons that will be learned, the tact and discipline that will be acquired, will fit you for other fields of usefulness, where you may minister to souls. Those who poorly learn their lesson, and are careless and abrupt in approaching persons, would show the same defects of manner, the same want of tact and skill in dealing with minds, should they enter the ministry.

While short subscriptions are accepted, some will not make the necessary effort to obtain them for a longer time. Canvassers should not go over the ground in a careless, unconcerned manner. They should feel that they are God's workmen, and the love of souls should lead them to make every effort to enlighten men and women in regard to the truth. Providence and grace, means and ends, are closely When his laborers do the connected. very best they can, God does for them that which they cannot do for themselves; but no one need expect to succeed independently and by his own exertions. There must be activity united with firm trust in God."--Testimony, Vol.V, page 399. This work of soliciting subscriptions for periodicals may be taken up in connection with the house to house sale of the papers, or may be made a regular business. There are workers who take a few sample copies with them and devote their efforts to securing subscriptions. They say it is almost as easy to obtain a subscription as to sell a single copy, and much more profitable, for then the visits of the paper are ensured for a length of time. The Young People's Society on Norfolk Island

BROTHER A. H. Ferris sends a very interesting report from Norfolk Island: "We have a nice little church of about fifty members including a live Young People's society. We hold our young people's meetings Sabbath afternoon. The interest taken in the doctrinal study, and the reports of missionary work done are very encouraging. Last week, on the subject of 'Righteousness by Faith' twenty-two passed the examination receiving one hundred per cent each.

"Old and young take doctrinal studies. together. It is quite interesting on examination day. We have a long veranda at the mission house, and we place tables at intervals where all who can write the examination receive paper and write under the strict supervision of the deacon, Brother Sidney Nobb, a grandson of the old Pastor Nobb of Pitcairn. The children, and those who can not write pass into a school-room where I examine them. One little girl who was regarded as mentally unable to acquire knowledge, has passed five doctrinal examinations without one mistake. Each month she takes twelve papers to her part of the island and distributes them among people who a short time ago were very prejudiced. Each time she reports twelve papers given away and twelve talks."

Rome's Plan to Make United States Catholic

IT has long been the aim of the papacy to make the United States Catholic, and in evidence to this I wish to submit the following extract from "Popery as It Was and as It Is" by Wm. Hogan, formerly a Roman Catholic priest. The edition from which this was queted was printed in 1856 and it speaks for itself without any comment.

"Among the instructions which I received from my bishop in Ireland, when he sent me out to this country as a Catholic priest, was one to which I beg to call The same is given to your attention. every priest in the United States. 'Let it be your first duty to extirpate heretics but be cautious as to the manner of doing it. Do'nothing without consulting the bishop of the diocese, in which you may be located; and if there be no bishop there advise with the metropolitan bishop. He has his instructions from Rome, and he understands the character of the people. Be sure not to permit the members of our holy church, who may be under your charge, to read the Bible. It is the source of all heresies. Whenever you see an opportunity of building a church, make it known to your bishop. Let the land be purchased for the Pope, and his successors in office. Never yield or give up the divine right, which the head of the church has, by virtue of the Keys, to the government of North America, as well as every other country. The confessional will enable you to know the people by degrees; with the aid of that holy tribunal, and our bishops, who are guided by the spirit of God, we may expect, at no distant day, to bring over North America to the bosom of our holy church.'

"This needs some explanation. By extirpating heresy, he meant the conversion of heretics to the Romish church, without violence, if possible, if not, by such means as the Romish church has adopted in all ages. You have already seen what these means were—I need not now repeat them; but you shall see them more plainly, when I lay before you, as I intend to do hereafter; the ways and means which the church has adopted, to bring over the Huguenots from the darkness of Protestant error, to the glorious light of Popish truth." pp. 110, 111.

It is a well known fact that the Catholics are doing all in their power to advance the Catholic religion in this nation and they hope some time to succeed to that degree that they will have the controlling influence in our nation. And they are succeeding remarkably well.

O. A. JOHNSON.
