Home From General Conference

The great conference is now over, and the workers are back at their posts of duty. Truly it was a wonderful meeting. As one sat in the balcony looking down upon the vast throng of 12,000 Seventh-day Adventists, and listened to the peals from the pipe organ as it mingled with the voices of the choir and congregation, it made one think of that day when the redeemed hosts shall stand before the throne on the sea of glass, and heaven's arches will ring as all unite in singing the song of Moses and the Lamb.

There we could see them from all corners of the world. Fijian chiefs, dark skinned people from Africa, others from India, China, and the uttermost parts of the earth, all rejoicing in the blessed truth of the third angel's message. In the vast throng we could meet individuals we had not met before for years,—those who had been brought into the truth under our labors, still happy and faithful, and always so glad to meet again. To meet such groups it was well worth the effort that has been expended in the years gone by when the strain and stress of the tent meeting was on, and the workers labored almost day and night under the blessing of God, to reap their harvest of souls.

But what a day of rejoicing it will be in the kingdom, when we shall meet those for whom we have labored personally, and others who have been won to the truth as a result of the funds we have given, and have them tell us it was through our efforts that they were eternally saved. As we listened to the appeals of those who had been won from heathenism, as they pled for more workers, and more funds to quickly carry the gospel to their fellows who were still in darkness, it made us feel somehow that we must redouble our efforts to quickly push the triumphs of the cross to earth's remotest bounds, that all these hungry hearts may be fed from the Lord's gospel table, and thus be prepared for a home in the kingdom.

We trust our workers will all be able to give good reports to the churches, to add a little personal touch to the inspiration that all are gathering who have read the good reports in our denominational paper, the Review and Herald.

We now have the summer's work before us, and while it is not the plan of the conference to hold a regular camp meeting this year, we do plan for some general meetings in various sections of the conference when we hope to have Union and General Conference help. In our next week's issue, we will state definitely the time and place of this first district meeting. We are quite confident now that the date will be July 10-13. We have not yet fully settled on the place, but will in just a few days.

Some changes were made in our working force at the conference.

Brother Roberts, our home missionary secretary, received a call to labor in Alaska, and Brother G. E. Johnson, now located at Grants Pass, will exchange fields of labor with Brother Emery, from the Alberta Conference. Brother Emery will come to us as our conference secretary and treasurer, probably about the middle of August or the first of September, thus giving Brother Johnson ample time to bind off his work thoroughly in the Grants Pass vicinity.

We are glad to have Elder Iverson with us again in the conference. He is now located at Cottage Grove.

We hope that every church will begin soon now to get thoroughly organized and lay definite plans to push the Harvest Ingathering campaign through in quick order. And while last year's records were fine, we hope this year's will be better.

Praying that God will richly bless all the members of our conference family, I am,

Yours for continued service,
T. B. WESTBROOK.

Good works can never purchase salvation, but they are an evidence of the faith that acts by love and purifies the soul. ## Oregon Juniors! Attention!

The Oregon Conference is anxious that its Juniors go behind in nothing that is good. We are hoping that every parent that possibly can will take advantage of the summer camp for the Junior M. V. boys and girls at Cle Elum Lake, Cle Elum, Washington.

Here at the office we have been trying to do everything possible to make it convenient so that the cost would not be too high for the Juniors who would be able to attend the camp, and we hope that there will be a goodly number from our conference that will be in touch perhaps for the first time with a summer camp.

Next year it may be possible for us to have an encampment right here in Oregon Conference. We are hoping so and are planning to that end; but we are sure that those who can possibly get away this summer and meet with the many Juniors from the other conferences that will be there for this union camp for the North Pacific Union Conference, will enjoy it.

I wish I might be with our Juniors and all others that will be there to enjoy the camp, but our busy program here and preparation for camp meeting will make it impossible.

I sincerely hope I will be able to spend a day or so with you. Even if I am not there I will be thinking of you every day as you go through your program and shall hope that every Junior Missionary Volunteer of Oregon will do justice to the good name our Juniors in this conference have received by their good behavior and prompt attention to all the details that will be outlined for the camp. This I know you will do in order to uphold the good name of our Junior boys and girls of Oregon.

I. J. WOODMAN, President.

News Notes

Portland and vicinity are having a feast of good things with the missionaries and others passing through on their way from the General Conference. Among those who have visited us during the last week are: Elder and Mrs. L. G. Jorgensen from Brazil,—Elder Jorgensen and son are receiving medical care at the Portland Sanitarium; Elder A. W. Anderson from Australia; Elder A. J. Clark of the Columbia Union; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hoskin and Herbert Griffith from the Brookfield Press, and numbers of others of General Conference delegates.

Elder Cormack of the Southern Asiatic Division spoke in the Sunnyside church Sunday night.

We are expecting Elder A. E. Nelson, secretary and treasurer of the African Division, to visit some of our churches during the first and second weeks in July. He will have with him Elder James Malinki, a native of Nyasaland and a very interesting speaker.

We have the promise that the two Fijian chiefs with Elder Stewart will be with us around the middle of July. Announcement will be made later and we will try to have a large meeting of our churches at the new camp ground at that time. Preparations are speeding up and the workers will be on the camp ground June 30 to assist in getting the grounds ready for camp meeting which opens July 31. Begin now to plan.

Order blanks for tents will be put in the mail this week and each family will receive one. So send in your order early. We are hoping for the biggest and best camp meeting Oregon has ever enjoyed. Come and help us dedicate the new camp ground.

Don't forget to send in your pledges made for Big Week so that they will come in on the June remittance.

We are glad to note an increase in our tithes over last year of nearly $800.00, but sorry that there is a loss in mission offerings. Let us try to make it up before our camp meeting.

Junior M. V. Camp

Only $15.00 takes care of your boy or girl while at the junior camp for eleven days—traveling expense, meals, and everything.

The boys will leave for their camp July 6. It you haven't sent in your boy's name yet, why not do so right away and have your boy receive the inspiration and help that will mean so much more than figures and words can express, both to your boy and yourself as a parent?

If you have a girl, why not send in her name immediately so that she

The Old Clock On The Wall

I am listening to the ticking of the old clock on the wall,
As it measures off the moments into years,
And its silvery bell is chiming out a message for us all,
As we're passing down the vale bedewed with tears.

O, the happy hearts that listened to the ticking of that clock
When the evening shadows grew longer in the street,
And the sparkling eyes that glistened when was heard that gentle knock,
Or the echo in the hallway, of his feet.

O, the sad hearts that have listened to the throbbing of its bell, Thru the long and lonely watches of the night.
And the weeping eyes that's glistened with the bitter tears that fell O'er the loved form now all robed in stony white.

But the old clock still is ticking as it did in days of yore,
And its hands point out the moments as they fly,
And its solemn bell is tolling out the sad words,
"Never More,"
For our fairest earthly hopes must droop and die.

Like the faded leaves of autumn as they flutter in the breeze,
As they drop to sleep on mother earth's cold breast,
While the solemn winds are chanting a sad
requiem thru the trees,
Where the tired hands and feet are laid to rest.

Elder McConaughey and Professor Bradley will be at both the boys' and girls' camps, besides others such as Professors Colcord, Guderian, Weaver, Miss Graham, Miss Grandy, Mrs. Van Ausde, and Miss Nord.

You should send your boy and girl.

Laurelwood Academy News Notes

We regret the departure of our science teacher, Professor Knowlton, who is taking the principalship of Intermountain Academy in Colorado.

Our rather serene existence has been enlivened recently by the presence of several visitors, most of them returning from General Conference. Among these have been President and Mrs. Smith of Walla Walla College, Elder Ernest Oberg and Brother F. W. Schnepfer, both of the Union Conference office, Professor Wallace of Columbia Academy, Mr and Mrs. Alvin Meiklejohn, former graduates, and Austin Butler, editor of the Rainier Vista. Professor Steen of Broadview Theological Seminary also stopped in to see our school and his former pupil, Professor Westermeyer.

The academy has work which it can furnish to someone entering school in the fall. This will be in the line of inside painting, and of building a concrete reservoir near the spring to conserve the water supply for dry seasons. This is a fine opportunity for some one who has had experience in this type of work to get a good credit balance on the books, and thus assure for himself, or son or daughter, a good start on next year's expenses. Anyone who wishes to avail himself of this opportunity should communicate with Mr. Janke, the farm manager.

On a wonderful moonlight night last week, the summer workers took a ride out to the school spring, where they roasted marshmallows over a cheerful Indian-style campfire. Most other evenings are spent in music and in studying various courses which will make next year's quota of subjects lighter.

We thought that almost everyone had left when school closed, but when the Missionary Volunteer Society was reorganized under the leadership of Violet Caviness and Russell Hackett, eighty-five were present at the first program, and ninety-four at the second. Elder Carter, a missionary from the Caribbean Union and a relative of Mrs. Rusch, spoke last week. The climax of his intensely interesting talk was reached when he told of the angel who was giving the gospel message in the islands, because there were not enough human beings ready to do it. Hearts were stirred with the deeper consecration not to fail the Master in His commission to "preach the gospel to all nations."

Thus we find Laurelwood quite a lively place even in summer.

I Came To Be Baptized

Recently we were reminded of the foreign fields where people come to our mission stations pleading for workers to come and teach them and in some instances to baptize whole companies of believers.

A sister from a community miles off the railroad came to this office and announced that she had come to Billings to be baptized. A worker was in her neighborhood over a year ago with no apparent results, but some faithful laymen have been fostering the uncompleted interest and now they are asking for some one to come and baptize several adults.

Shall such calls as this from our own state have to go unanswered because there is no worker to send? Our answer depends largely upon the faithfulness of our Montana people in tithe paying.

The foregoing is only one case. We could place an evangelist in many communities where the message has never been preached. School houses and community churches are open to our ministers and the people are inviting us in. This situation may soon be changed. Shall we have to reduce our small force of workers at this time?

We watch the mails for your answer in tithes. Our conference committee awaits with eager interest each monthly report from the conference treasurer and their action has to be based upon the amount of money on hand.

MONT. CONF. OFFICE.

"It Led Me To Christ"

The little Mexican wanted some Spanish literature. Glancing through our English titles, his eyes fell upon "Steps to Christ" and eagerly he seized the booklet. Although unable to read more than the title, yet it seemed to have a fascination for him as he caressed it almost lovingly. He wanted it so he could read it and give it away. Someone had given him a Spanish copy in Chicago. "It led me to Christ," he softly said and as he left the office, he begged, "Please pray for me."

We have in mind one sister who buys and distributes quite a little of our foreign literature. God may have sent the strangers to us for that purpose. Look in the back of your 1930 catalog and make up an order for some of the foreign language people near you. It will pay.

MONT. BOOK & BIBLE HOUSE.

It Pays

Far away from any town in the pasture lands of Montana, lives Sister Alice Penrose with her family. This sister accepted the challenge of literature evangelism of her community. The neighbors are few and far between, but this sister saw to it that they were supplied with message-filled literature.

With other Christians in her neighborhood, a small Sunday school was organized and this sister was asked to take the Bible class. Soon the Spirit of God seemed to indicate to her that something more ought to be done, so she wrote to the office and asked for a worker to come and hold meetings in the school house where the Sunday school was held. The writer accepted the invitation and held meetings from June 6-15, fourteen meetings in all.

The Sunday school superintendent with several others have accepted the message and expect to be baptized at the Miles City regional meeting. It was indeed a pleasant experience. The Spirit of God was present at our meetings.

Brother Ed Nelson and family came fifteen miles to attend the meeting, also Sister McCune and her husband with their neighbor came a long distance to enjoy the blessings of the meeting. May the Lord bless these faithful ones that live out in this large territory of Montana.

It pays to use our message-filled literature among our neighbors. What this sister has done, many others can do as well. Be willing to do for the Master and expect great things from Him and you will not be disappointed. Remember the Miles City meeting, beginning the evening of July 3, and continuing all day and evening the 4th, 5th, and 6th.

Junior Camp Leadership Personnel

Applications are still coming in every day for Junior Camp enrollment during July at Cle Elum Lake, Washington. For the benefit of parents, we are taking this opportunity to list information concerning the camp leadership personnel and organization. Those who will be regularly connected with the camps throughout the whole time are as follows:

J. L. McConaughey will be the camp superintendent and directing head of both the boys' and girls' camps. Miss Genevieve Graham of Portland will act as assistant superintendent and general leader of the girls' camp. She will have charge of the devotional interests and act as physical director of the girls' camp. Mr. Strauss Cuble of Yakima Valley Academy will be in charge of the business and financial affairs of the camps.

Douglas Westerhout, an experienced swimmer and certified Red Cross Life Saver and Examiner will teach swimming, life-saving, resuscitation, and be in charge of all swimming, water sports, etc., at the boys' camp. Mrs. Dan Palmer of Coeur d'Alene, who is also a certified Red Cross Life Saver and Examiner will teach swimming and life-saving and be in charge of all swimming and water sports at the girls' camp.

Elder Fred Guderian will supervise and direct the devotional interests of the camps. Prof. H. E. Weaver, of Western Washington, will have the direction and oversight of the various industrial interests of the camps. Elder D. E. Venden of Oregon will be in charge and direct the activities and recreation features of the boys' camp, and Miss Georgiana Grandy of Spokane will direct the activities and recreation features at the girls' camp. Prof. I. C. Colcord of Portland will, in camp council talks, interpret in boy and girl terms the Junior Pledge and Law; he will also give a series of twenty-minute inspirational character talks on "Growing Into a Man," covering things boys should know about themselves. Miss Graham and Mrs. Colcord will give talks to the girls along the same line. Professor Colcord will also have charge of and direct the music of the camp and assist in the campfire programs.

Professor Harold W. Clark, a Pacific Coast nature authority, as guest instructor, will direct studies in nature, nature hikes, etc. This will be one of the most inspirational features of the camp this year.

Miss Alpha Nord, an experienced graduate nurse of Spokane, will be in charge of the health of the campers. She will give studies and direct practical demonstrations in first aid, bandaging, health hints. She will have a hospital tent well equipped for any emergency. Doctors Plumb and Orr, two Seventh-day Adventist physicians located in the community where the camp is to be held, will be in daily touch with the camp and at the call of the camp at all times. They will assist in the physical examination to be given each child. Reports of these physical examinations will be made to the parents.

Mrs. Anna VanAusdle, the matron of Walla Walla College, will be in charge in the kitchen and dining room, thus assuring the boys and girls of plenty of well-prepared, wholesome food.

Aside from these regular camp workers and leaders, the camps will be visited from time to time by Elders Woodman, Peterson, and Neff, the presidents of the Oregon, Washington, and Upper Columbia Conferences respectively, and President Weaver of Walla Walla College. Professor Bradley, the Union educational secretary, will spend some time at both camps in assisting in campcraft instruction.

If the personnel of the camp leadership, as outlined above, is not large enough to provide a personal counselor for every group of ten juniors in the camp, then others will be added so that this plan of personal supervision can be carried out. These persons will be known as "unit counselors" and will have two units of five juniors each under their personal charge, thus giving us an adult supervisor for at least every ten juniors in the camp. The aim of these unit counsellors will be the development of desirable attitudes, skills, abilities, appreciations, purposes, values, and habits, in growing juniors.

The Camp Council is the assembly of the entire camp which shall meet at least once during the day and around the camp fire at night. Attendance at this council is required, exception being made only at the discretion of the camp superintendent or camp nurse. The session of this camp council will be of an inspirational or educational nature, instruction being given in the following:

- Progressive Junior plans.
- Nature—trees, birds, flowers, insects, etc.
- Health hints and demonstrations.
- Inspirational character talks.
- Campercraft.
- Etiquette hints.
- Open forum discussions.

The prayer band or morning watch devotional circle will be observed every morning for a brief look into the Sabbath school lesson and a Scripture verse, and song, then dividing into prayer groups according to units.

There is still time for applications to be received for both the boys' and girls' camps. We expect to hold our enrollment down to one hundred in each camp, but at this writing there is still room for a number more in each camp.

The boys' camp is July 6 to 17, and the girls' camp is July 17 to 28. The price is $11.00 for the ten days, one dollar to accompany the application. Transportation is being provided by each conference at a minimum rate not to exceed in any case $4.00 for the round trip.

Get in touch with your conference Missionary Volunteer secretary for further information.

Good Help Coming

We are pleased to announce to our churches at this time that word has come to us that the following workers will attend our conference session to be held at College Place, June 25 to 29: Elder I. H. Evans, formerly of the Far East, now one of the general vice presidents of the General Conference; Elder A. W. Cormack, vice president of the General Conference for the Southern Asia Division, taking in India and Burma; Elder M. C. Warren, of the West China Union Mission, taking in the provinces in the western part of China and also Tibet; and Elder G. A. Grauer, of California, for our German members. Very likely other missionaries and outside workers may be present, besides the union conference staff who will be with us to assist in making the meetings a success.

Elders Cormack and Warren attended the meeting held at Spokane which closed last Sunday night. We appreciated very much their presence with us. We are looking forward to a spiritual refreshing at the College Place meeting and trust that all of our members in the region with the delegates from all the churches in the conference will make a special effort to attend and receive the blessing God has for them at this time. Let us pray for the success of this important meeting in this field.

E. F. PETERSON.

J. M. V. Camp

Here is the last call to our Junior boys and girls for the summer camp which is to be held at Cle Elum Lake, the boys' camp beginning July 6 and the girls' camp July 17. On our return from San Francisco, we find that there is still room for others to apply for a place in the Junior camp. Previous announcement stated that May 15 would be the deadline for applications, but we are glad to say that we can still receive applications and we sincerely hope that many others will take advantage of this opportunity.

Plans for transportation have been developed which will make it possible for children living in the Spokane district to be transported from Spokane to the camp site for $4 round trip, Wenatchee district $2 round trip. A truck will also leave from College Place. Transportation from that point will be $4 round trip, and all points west of Granger $2 round trip. The truck will leave from the Spokane Seventh-day Adventist church at 7 o'clock in the morning, July 6 and 17, going by way of Wenatchee, leaving from the Seventh-day Adventist church in Wenatchee at 2 p. m. The truck leaves College Place at 7 o'clock in the morning, July 6 and 17, reaching Granger at 12 o'clock and Yakima at 1:30.

Anyone in these districts may make connection with the truck at the hours stated above. We urge that anyone wishing to take advantage of this transportation would send us word as soon as possible so that we can have a place for your comfort.

Considerable time has been spent in preparation for this camp and we feel that every parent should make a real effort to make it possible for their children to attend. Many of the children are earning their own way. We feel that this is a good education for our boys and girls, and if they are properly encouraged, they can do much to solve the problem of expense.

We solicit the prayers of our dear people throughout the conference for God's blessing to attend the coming camp. We realize that the camp may be a great inspiration and blessing to our youth, and again it can be a failure. So we earnestly crave your interest and prayers for this endeavor for our youth.

F. W. GUDERIAN.

Fawcett-Ferguson

At the Walla Walla Adventist church, May 21, 1930, many relatives and friends witnessed the marriage of Miss Vera Fawcett and Matthew Ferguson. Elder G. E. Langdon read the ceremony. Both the bride and groom are former students of Walla Walla College. They will make their home at College Place, Washington.

"Ious"

Years ago a young man knocked at the doors of a large university north of the thirtieth parallel. He had little clothing and less money. To "off set" his lack of finances he had a grim determination to study medicine. With no chance for a room he got permission to live in a hay mow during the long winter months. You are beginning to wonder if he died of exposure aren't you? No, he became one of the most noted surgeons in one of our metropolitan cities. His vision of service kept him so busy that he kept warm. This man succeeded with little or nothing.

Many loyal Seventh-day Adventist boys and girls have endured privations to get an education and their ability to serve has far surpassed their fondest hopes. In every case that I have observed they met the qualifications of Samuel's definition of a student when he said they should be industrious, studious and pious. What a world of service lies before any boy or girl who fulfills the demands of the definition.

Yakima Valley Academy has been the gateway of service for many missionaries and workers. Send for a catalog at once.

Notice

During the time of the conference session at College Place June 25-29 our conference office and Book and Bible House will be closed. During these few days any communications of importance should be mailed to College Place instead of to Spokane. If those ordering supplies or writing on general matters of business have to wait a few days for their response, it will be because of the office being closed and our workers all occupied with the work of the conference session.

Our Work For The Blind

There are one hundred thousand blind people in the United States, more than sixty per cent of whom are twenty years of age or older. They are a considerate, thoughtful people, for they are largely shut in to themselves, living their lives in one long, perpetual night of Egyptian darkness. They have no hope of the dawn. They see not the budding shrub, the green sward, the blooming rose; all is dark to them. They see not the gay crowds, the gilded automobiles, the fast flying planes. They see not the bow in the painted heavens, the fire of the setting sun, the storm cloud's silver lining. The hand of destiny has sealed their eyes. The starry heavens, the scintillating Pleides, bold Orion, the Milky Way, all are blank to them. And saddest of all, they cannot look upon the faces of those who are nearest and dearest to them by the ties of nature. Such are the people who, groping in their darkness, are searching for some ray of light, some guiding truth, some Christian warmth and sympathy.

The only way to show true, practical Christianity is to do some unselfish service for others. The great Master taught: "For I was hungry, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me: . . . Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

The Christian Record, our journal for the blind, published at College

View, Nebr., is doing a wonderful work among the sightless of the United States. This magazine, filled with good cheer and the truth of the message goes out free from month to month to the blind in all parts of the country. The accompanying cut shows just one issue of the journal on the way to the post office. More than three tons of embossed printing for the blind go out from the Christian Record office each month, all sent free by the Christian Record Publishing Association and carried free in the mails by the government.

Union Office Notes

Elder M. Lukens, Elder E. M. Oberg, and Professor W. P. Bradley attended the Upper Columbia Conference regional meeting which was held in Spokane over the last week-end.

C. R. Morris, union field missionary secretary, spent a few days the past week in the Idaho Conference, assisting Paul Bartholomew, the newly elected field missionary secretary of the conference. Prospects are looking bright for Idaho to do its share in the colporteur work this year.

We are glad to be back at the office again to enter upon our usual duties, after having spent a pleasant two weeks at San Francisco attending the General Conference. We appreciate the faithful and efficient service of Miss Helen Burch and Miss Ethel Martin who had charge of the GLEANER and other office details during our absence.

Mr. S. J. Lashier made a trip the first of the week to Mt. Ellis Academy, Bozeman, Mont., to audit the academy books.

We were pleased to greet the following visitors in our midst during the past few days who were en route home from the General Conference: Mr. and Mrs. Burton Castle, Professor and Mrs. James, and Mrs. Byram of Nashville, Tenn.; Professor and Mrs. Leo. Thiel of Huntsville, Alabama; Elder and Mrs. S. N. Rittenhouse of Springfield, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Green of Missoula, Mont.

Every day our mail, which is usually very heavy, brings us word from our readers of the courage, cheer, and gospel light the magazine is bringing to them. Here are a few sentences from recent letters:

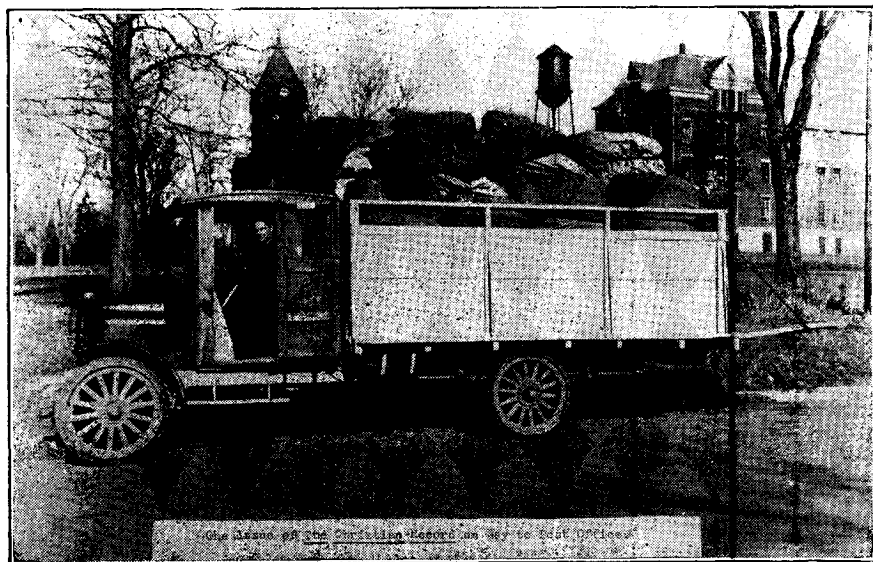

"We have been keeping the Sabbath for over a year, having come to that conclusion through the agency of The Christian Record."—"I enjoy the cheer and the spirit which radiates from cover to cover, and your words of faith have made darkland a brighter and happier place for me."—"I never was satisfied until I found the truth of Adventists in The Christian Record. It was what my soul had been calling for all my life."—"I am a most sincere reader of the magazine. It played a great part in bringing me into the truth."—"I have accepted the Sabbath, and now my only wonder is that I have never done so before."—"I could not think of being without the Record. It would be like losing a lifelong friend."—"I am a home teacher and come in contact with the most of the blind of the state, and am glad to be able to tell you that The Christian Record is the most enjoyed of all periodicals for the blind."

It is good to know that these sightless readers appreciate the efforts we are putting forth for them, and if we can bring a little cheer and sunshine, a little comfort, a little knowledge and inspiration to them, our efforts are not in vain.

To me, this is a wonderful work. It is wonderful because the cry of these needy people grips my very soul. They do not ask for sympathy, but only a heart of adamant could remain untouched when 100,000 people, shut up in earth's blackest night, are struggling for our very existence. Our sympathy must go out to them. Our hand must reach out to them in proffered help.

No doubt there are many good, honest intelligent blind people whose names are not yet on The Christian Record mailing list. If there are blind people in your neighborhood, or blind people whom you know, who are not in touch with our office, we should like to have their names. It would be good missionary work for each church to search out all the blind people in its territory and have them visited by a representative brother or sister. In case they are already receiving the Record, much additional courage and light could be given them by the visitor; and in case their names are not on our lists, we should be glad to receive them that we could take up correspondence with them. Here is a good work and a fruitful field. Let us not neglect it. D. D. REES.
