The Win-One Movement

The Union Committee in its recent session voted to approve the plan of the "Win-One Movement," and in harmony with the suggestion from the Home Missionary Department to designate Sabbath, January 6, 1940, as the "Win-One Day;" that on this day we ask all our workers to present the importance of personal soul winning.

We fully believe in the plan. Certainly we can do no less than to try to win at least one soul to Christ next year. Sometimes we designate it "personal work," and by that we mean individual effort to lead another to our Saviour. It is individual effort distinguished from a united effort in a public way by the church. It is the aim to reach one person, and to persuade that person to accept Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour. What a wonderful blessing it would bring to us individually if we could do this! Our own souls would be watered with the dews of heaven, and it would bring rejoicing to our hearts. The greatest joy that can come to us in this life is to lead someone into the light of this message, and have them accept Christ as their Saviour.

Our Master often used the personal evangelism method in His work. He called Zaccheus and went home with him. He talked with Nicodemus, with the women at the well, and many other examples might be cited.

In Isaiah 27:12 we read: "Ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel." This brings to our minds immediately the "Win-One Movement." Think what it would mean to the membership of our churches in this union if each member would win one soul to Christ. If this could be done we would see the fulfillment of that statement made by the servant of the Lord: "The work of God in this earth can never be finished until the men and women comprising our church-membership rally to the work, and unite their efforts with those of ministers and church officers."—"Testimonies," Vol. IX, p. 117.

We have certainly come to the time when the work of God should be finished quickly. Conditions about us on every hand tell us that the great day of our Lord draws on apace. We need to tell those about us of His coming, and urge them to be ready to meet the Lord.

"God calls upon every church-member to enter His service. . . . Every addition to the church should be one more agency for the carrying out of the great plan of redemption. The entire church, acting as one, blending in perfect union, is to be a living, active missionary agency, moved and controlled by the Holy Spirit."—Id., Vol. VII, p. 47.

We who know this message have a definite responsibility to do all that we can to carry it to those who do not have a knowledge of it at the present time. There are at least two things that stand out in this plan of each member winning one. It is a method of work that will save the church, for as we try to save others our own souls are watered and we are drawn nearer the Lord and have a deeper and richer experience that will fit us for the coming of our Saviour. Then it is one of the greatest methods by which we can reach the lost. With many it will be the only method.

We earnestly pray that 1940 may be a great year in the winning of souls to this message, and that we may do our part to "make ready a people prepared for the Lord." E. L. NEFF.

Gem State Academy

Last week it was the writer's privilege to spend three days at Gem State Academy. I'm sure our parents would have been happy to have been with me and to have seen the good spirit among the students.

Our teachers are putting on a strong program inside and outside the classroom. We have a nice group of young people we are all proud of.

Gem State Academy was established to be a city of refuge to our youth in these days of ungodliness. I'm glad to report that Professor McCready and our teachers are doing a very nice piece of work in leading our boys and girls to Christ.

Elder Palmer, our Bible teacher, has organized a ministerial band, and our young men are holding an effort at the present time; and another effort is planned to start after the holidays. At the ministerial band Sabbath morning, some thirty young men and women were in attendance, studying how to present the message to others.

Our Missionary Volunteer Society is starting a good class in the Master Comrade work. This is a class to prepare our youth to be leaders of our juniors in their home church.

Sister Easter is teaching a class in directing that should help the singing in our local churches. As these young men and women learn to direct others in singing at the academy, it will help back in our home churches when these youth return.

Brother Louis Matthews, of Boise, is conducting an advanced Red Cross course with our students. This is a good course to have all through life. In these war days, this course would no doubt help our boys to get in the Red Cross department.

Whenever you have the opportunity to visit our school, do so. It's your school, and we want you to get acquainted with it. G. S. BELLEAU.

Idaho News Items

We appreciated very much Elder D. A. Lower's visit to our field last week-end. Elder Lower has charge of our Pacific Press Branch in Portland. He and Brother Waters visited Rupert,ocatello, and Boise. His pictures on Africa were appreciated by our people. Elder Lower will be back in our field with his pictures during the last week of March.

The conference committee and the Gem State Academy board met last Sunday in Caldwell.

Elder Munro is returning to Arock this week to baptize the new believers there from his effort.

Word from John Day and Burns is encouraging. We should have a church organization in both of these towns soon.

We hope that all our churches will be over their Harvest Ingathering goal by the end of the year. A few still have work to do. If your church is not over yet, do your best to get all to rally and reach their goals.

Mrs. Ladd, our matron at the academy, spent the week-end in Boise last week.

Good Books Make Good Boys

A letter just received from Sister Bessie Love of Payette is worth passing on: "Am sending in an order for two copies of 'Uncle Ben's Cobblestones' and would like for you to rush the order as the party wants them for Christmas presents. I did not know we carried such a book until this lady came to my home asking me to order them for her. She happens to belong to the Nazerene church. She said that she had a wonderfully good son who had read this book when a boy and that she believed that this had much to do with his being the good man he is today. She now wants two copies for her two grandsons."

Gem State Academy News

The students of Gem State Academy were fortunate in having Elder E. D. Dick, secretary of the General Conference, spend about two days with them. Among the things he mentioned in his talks were the monstrous rocks he saw in the Holy Land which were used for building in Bible days.

Elder and Mrs. Belleau were with us for a special Week of Prayer. Elder Belleau spoke at the chapel hour and again in the evening. The Spirit's quiet working on hearts was definitely seen; and the students, almost one hundred per cent, renewed their consecration or took their stand for the first time. Twelve were baptized last week and several more are in the baptismal class, looking forward to baptism in the near future. It was a very profitable week, and was enjoyed by all.

The First Aid class, which is being conducted by Mr. Mathews, has finished its standard course work but is now giving the Progressive Class Work. This class may prove of benefit to its members in time of war as well as aiding in every day accidents.

We have a Gem State quartet this year. Its members are: Frank Munsey, Billie Butler, Chester Porter, and Reuben Gessele. As yet, they haven't given many numbers but we are hoping to hear more from them in the future.

The annual Thanksgiving banquet was sponsored by the associated students in the school dining room. The theme of the banquet was in commemoration of the American Indians. A tepee was fashioned over the entrance to the kitchen; through this the waitresses and waiters came dressed in Indian costumes. Cornstalks, pumpkins, autumn leaves and a small forest of pine trees completed the decorations.

A ministerial band has been organized this year and the members are holding a series of meetings in a school house in a small community near the Academy. The meetings are held at 2:30 each Sunday afternoon.

The business of the Academy bakery has increased and outgrown the present oven capacity. Therefore, an electric oven has been installed to take the load off the present fuel oven. The bakery is now operating seven trucks which cover thirteen routes.

The Associated Students are sponsoring a campaign for school improvement. The purpose is to raise enough money to build a fire place on the campus and to purchase some new equipment for the kitchen. The seniors seem to be in the lead now.

With the purchase of two good Holstein cows, we now have plenty of milk to supply the kitchen.

Everyone seems to be anxious for Christmas to come. Christmas vacation starts December 21 and at that time most of the students plan to spend the vacation with their parents. School bells will ring again January 2, 1940.

News Notes

Elder and Mrs. Reiswig and Brother and Sister T. C. Nethery attended a Sabbath school convention and Union Committee meeting at Walla Walla, returning to Bozeman December 7.

A very profitable and interesting time was enjoyed by those attending the Sabbath school convention at Billings December 8 and 9. We were very happy to have with us at this meeting Eiders J. A. Stevens and R. Ruhling from the General Conference and Elder T. L. Oswald from the Union.

Elder J. J. Reiswig is spending the Week of Prayer with the Hardin and Billings churches. Elder H. L. Rudy from the General Conference will speak in the Great Falls church on Sabbath, December 16, and also hold meetings on Sunday. We are sure our people in that section will want to hear the timely message that Elder Rudy will have for them. Elder D. E. Collins from the Union Conference will spend some time in the Kalispell and Lonepine churches during this week. We hope that all of our people will join in this Week of Prayer and receive the blessing that is in store for them.

Brother Arthur Knauff reports a good interest in his meetings at Jordan. The attendance thus far has been very good. Elder Jackson, too, reports a good interest and he hopes to have several take their stand for the truth.

The Flathead Lake District

Following camp meeting the conference committee invited us to return to Kalispell and supervise the work of this district. The Flathead Lake District includes two churches located at Kalispell and Lonepine, and a number of Sabbath schools in such places as Troy, Ronan, Polson, Pablo, and Apgar. We are glad to report that the work in this district is moving forward.

Definite improvements have been made on the church property in Kalispell. An addition has been added to the church building which will provide a church school room and a small apartment for a church school teacher. This addition is now being used for the children's department of the Sabbath school. The entire exterior of the church has been given two coats of much-needed paint. This has added materially to the appearance of the building.

An intensive literature program is being carried out in Kalispell under the leadership of Dr. Anna Farnsworth. A definite effort has been made to place the Review and Herald in the homes of our believers. In addition to this the church is using sixty-one Signs of the Times each week and many copies of Present Truth and other literature. We believe that definite results will come as the result of this program.

Much favorable comment has been received on the devotional broadcasts over station KGEZ during a recent week. The Frances Willard W. C. T. U. also paid for time for the writer to speak on the liquor situation over the radio. The response to this broadcast has been most gratifying.

About two years ago it was our privilege to organize a new Sabbath school at Troy. This organization has grown. A lot and some lumber have been purchased, and no doubt by now a church building is under construction there. It is certainly encouraging to see the devotion, zeal and faith of these new believers, most of whom are young people.

This summer we have been successful in organizing a new Sabbath school at Ronan. We would like to see all of our isolated believers in Sabbath schools. On November 5 we began a series of meetings in the North Crow Creek Club House. Our believers in Ronan, Pablo, and some from Polson have attended these services. In addition quite a number of people not of our faith have shown a deep interest. We have greatly appreciated the good work done by our faithful colporteurs, and we expect to receive a harvest of souls from the combined labors of the colporteurs, the laymen, and the minister.

Other interests are springing up. For a number of years Sister Alice Wiles has been holding up the standard of truth at Apgar on the shore of Lake MacDonald in Glacier National Park. She is conducting an interesting and profitable Sabbath school there. We feel confident that her labors will be rewarded with souls.

Our believers in Lonepine are of good courage. Plans have been laid for improvements on that church property.

On November 25 a baptismal service was conducted in Kalispell for this district by Elder William Lay. Ten precious souls were buried with their Lord in baptism. Several others who had planned to be baptized at this time were unable to be present.

We expect to have another baptism early in the spring. Some are already laying plans to be baptized at that time.

The conference committee has voted to give us a twelve weeks' leave of absence from this district to attend the Theological Seminary in Washington, D. C. We are grateful for this opportunity and hope to be better fitted to accomplish our work in this district when we return the first of March.

Elder E. F. Hackman, president of the Southeastern California Conference, was a caller at our office Wednesday, December 13. Elder Hackman was formerly associate Home Missionary secretary of the General Conference.

Be sure to send in your subscription to the Review and Herald before January 15, as the price will advance at that time. The rate at the present time is $2.25 for a year's subscription.

Christian Home Calendars and Morning Watch Calendars for 1940 are in stock at the Bible house and should be ordered at once so you will be sure to have them at the beginning of the new year. Those Morning Watch Calendars make very fine Christmas tokens when used in place of the conventional Christmas cards.

The sale of 1940 M. V. Reading Course books started off with a rush. If your society has not ordered these sets you should do so at once so you can read the books and get your certificate early.

Yakima Valley Academy

A heating plant for the academy gymnasium is soon to be installed. The recent campaign sponsored by the Associated Students had as its aim the realization of this project.

The members of the Pitcanook staff have been elected with Esther Devoir as editor-in-chief. Plans are under way and the annual "sub" campaign will soon be launched under the management of Anna Weir, circulation manager.

A new set, 1939 edition, of Encyclopedia Americana has been added to the academy library. During National Book Week a campaign for new books was sponsored by the English class, and many volumes were added to the library.

Our mid-year vacation will be from 10:30 Thursday, December 21 to Sunday evening, January 7. This is three days longer than the usual time, and is because we had no Thanksgiving vacation. One extra day will have to be made up later.

Prof. H. E. Weaver and Elder A. Kruger, members of our faculty, attended the Sabbath School Convention at Spokane Dec. 10.

Notice

There will be a constituency meeting of the First Seventh-day Adventist church, corner of Spofford and Lincoln, at eight o'clock Sunday evening, Jan. 7, 1940.

Object of meeting, election of a Board of Trustees, seven in number, for the year 1940, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting at that time.

The "Quiet Hour"

Each week we hope to report to the readers of the GLEANER some items of interest concerning the "Quiet Hour" broadcasts. We are made to rejoice and thank God as responses come in from the new stations that have been added to our list. We believe that you appreciate our sharing portions of these letters with you, because it is your prayers, your loyal support, and your sacrifices that are helping to make this radio ministry possible. We pray that as you read these excerpts, a burden for souls will take possession of you as never before.

Here is a letter from radio station KMED. "Dear Sir: May I say that in this time of worldly strife—this day of uncertainty—that the 'Quiet Hour' has been a help, a comfort to me. In this day of jazz, how blessed are the words spoken, the songs sung, that lead one away from this world and lift the mind to a holy quietness. I have been blue and discouraged and after listening to the heartfelt words of your 'Quiet Hour,' I am lifted up above the clouds of despair to look on the silver lining of His love. May you continue on your God-inspired way to reach those who need Him most. May God help you to do this is my prayer."

A portion of a letter from station KFJI brings us courage to go onward. "After listening to the jazz music, what a joy comes into our hearts when your program, 'Quiet Hour,' comes on the air with the good old gospel songs and message. How we do enjoy it. I had prayed that we might have just such a program as this one, something that would pertain to the things that are everlasting."

One from station KBND: "I would surely like to enter the contest you are giving over the radio. I surely enjoy your 'Quiet Hour' very much. I only wish it lasted longer and came on more often. I used to be a lot better Christian than I am now, I know, and I would like to get back in the good old track again. Your sermons have helped me more than I can tell you."

Then we want to share this letter from one whose heart is in God's work. "One morning while I was doing the dishes a thought came to me to make a plan with the Lord that if He would give me the opportunity to take care of children in the evening while the parents went out, I would give half of what I made to the 'Quiet Hour.' Has He blessed me? Well, accept my $1.00 and look for more next week.

Let us all work and pray together for the finishing of His work.

J. L. TUCKER,
ELMER WALDE,
Box 5155, Portland, Oregon.

Elementary School Offering

The church offering on Sabbath, December 30, is for the elementary schools. This is the fourth such offering scheduled for the year 1939. We hope this offering will be a very substantial one.

From the proceeds of the elementary schools offering the Conference has been enabled to assist in the building up of greatly needed equipment in our church schools throughout the Conference. Year by year the schools are becoming better equipped. Our assistance has been in excess of the amount contributed for this purpose.

We hope that each church that is not conducting a church school will think of the burden many of our churches are carrying in endeavoring to operate schools for their youth and will have an active share in the forthcoming offering. We are sure that the churches that have been receiving material aid will recognize that the assistance given is in excess of the amount contributed by their church for the Conference offering and will be glad to join in making the elementary school offering as large as possible.

H. C. KEPHART.

Agriculture at Laurelwood

Realizing that "Students should be given practical education in agriculture," and that "this will be of inestimable value to many in their future work," Laurelwood Academy carries on quite an extensive agriculture program.

Our laboratory consists of over 400 acres of fields, woods, and pasture lands.

We have been blessed with a wonderful fall and our 150 acres of winter grain are fast greening the hillsides and valleys around us.

A large number of boys have already earned a goodly share of their tuition while learning to cooperate with nature in getting a fine stand of grain. Yet, those grain fields still hold out a challenge for more skill and effort for those boys who will be staying by next summer to help with the harvest while building up credit for next year's schooling. Most of our crop is vetch and oats seeded for hay with which to fill the spacious hay mow in our new dairy barn.

Soon the main part of our new barn, built mostly by student labor will be ready to accommodate seventy-two cows. We are going to have a building for our leading industry that will be a real credit to the Oregon Conference.

C. O. NOBLITT.

Christmas Celebration

Another annual holiday season is before us. Festivity will mark the closing days of the year. How should Christians relate themselves to the Christmas holiday? In the festivities attending the celebration of this day in the world, we need to avoid the general practice of bestowing lavish gifts upon one another, spendthrift giving, or riotous living.

Years ago the servant of the Lord recommended that simple exercises be arranged in the churches, not to honor Christmas, but to direct the minds of the believers, and particularly the youth, to God and to His great work. We believe the presentation of a few quotations from articles by Mrs. E. G. White will encourage the conducting of exercises in our churches, presumably on the closing Sabbath of this year, that will exert a commendable influence and result in large gifts for the work of God.

"Not only on birthdays should parents and children remember the mercies of the Lord in a special way, but Christmas and New Year's should also be seasons when every household should remember their Creator and Redeemer."—Review and Herald, Nov. 13, 1894.

"As the twenty-fifth of December is observed to commemorate the birth of Christ, as the children have been instructed by precept and example that this was indeed a day of gladness and rejoicing, you will find it a difficult matter to pass over this period without giving it some attention. It can be made to serve a very good purpose.

"On Christmas, so soon to come, let not the parents take the position that an evergreen placed in the church . . . is a sin; for it may be made a great blessing. Keep before their minds benevolent objects.

"Christmas is coming. May you all have wisdom to make it a precious season. Let the older church members unite, heart and soul, with their children in this innocent amusement and recreation, in devising way and means to show true respect to Jesus by bringing to Him gifts and offerings.

"Let the several churches present to God Christmas trees in every church; and then let them hang thereon the fruits of beneficence and gratitude,—offerings coming from willing hearts and hands, fruits that God will accept as an expression of our faith and our great love to Him for the gift of His Son, Jesus Christ. Shall we not have such a Christmas as Heaven can approve?"—Review and Herald, Dec. 9, 1884.

H. C. KEPHART.

The Dalles District Meeting

The Dalles-Hood River District also includes two churches on the Washington side of the Columbia River, White Salmon and Trout Lake, also two companies, B. Z. Corners and Stevenson.

Nearly the entire membership of the district came together December 2 for a Sabbath of meetings. At 9:30 Sabbath school was opened by The Dalles superintendent. The secretaries from the various Sabbath schools read their reports. All the parts of a good Sabbath school were carried out. As many were used in the program as possible.

Elder V. G. Anderson, our Conference president, preached for the eleven o'clock service. God's spirit was felt in the service and many received the definite inspiration and help for which they had come.

The juniors were called together at 2:30 for a fifteen minute meeting of singing. Following this short song service Elder D. A. Lower of the Pacific Press gave the early afternoon study on Sin, based on Isa. 1:18.

At 4:00 p. m. Elder J. R. Nelson talked to us concerning our relationship to war. Truly we should know our Bibles and what we believe if we are to remain true in times of war.

With Our Missionary Volunteers

Upper Columbia Missionary Volunteers

Missionary Volunteer activities in Upper Columbia are carried on by forty societies and more than thirteen hundred members. We should expect from this large group very fine accomplishments, and such is the case. We feel that our young people are to be congratulated for their warm missionary zeal.

The Harvest Ingathering campaign which has just recently been brought to a close demonstrated once again that the young people are having a large part in the finishing of the work. While all of the young people of the conference did excellent work, some groups deserve special mention. Twelve girls from the Wenatchee society raised considerably more than $300 in the campaign. The Juniors of the Colville church raised $95. The boys and girls of the Training School raised $260.97. The singing band, composed of young people of the Lewiston church, raised well over a hundred dollars towards their church goal. While it is customary to take it for granted that the young people of the college and the academies do their part in the Ingathering campaign, yet we feel that they should be congratulated for the large amount of money and the fine missionary work done year by year in this campaign.

The Master Comrade work, in its training for Junior leadership, is capturing the enthusiasm of many young people of Upper Columbia. In the college society 170 young people have joined this class and the influence of this organization is bringing an added missionary spirit into the college. Yakima Valley Academy has more than 30 young people preparing for Investiture. The Walla Walla church has a class of 22. Young people are also preparing for Master Comrade Investiture in the Colville, Wenatchee, Yakima, Spokane, Coeur d'Alene, Moscow, Winona, Hermiston, and Pasco churches. We trust that other young people will organize classes so that we will have a Master Comrade class in every church.

In a recent letter from Prof. Claude Thurston we quote, "Last Sabbath we had 95 attending the mission bands, 100 in working bands, and 700 in the M. V. meeting." We feel that this is a splendid record. We appreciate greatly the fine leadership that is being given to the college society by Prof. Claude Thurston, faculty advisor, and Mr. Ronald Drayson, the leader.

The young people of the conference are now being organized for a winter lay evangelistic campaign, and by spring we hope to be able to report many souls won to this message as a result of the work done this winter.

C. A. SCHUTT

Tools for Society Officers

We are sure you are eager to learn about your duties and opportunities in the M. V. work, and to have the tools and devices with which you can do the best work while you are an officer in the Missionary Volunteer Society this year; therefore, we are herewith listing briefly those articles of equipment which will be helpful to you during 1940.

1. Church officers' Gazette, (At least two copies, and more if necessary. Contains society program outlines prepared in cycle, and suggestions to officers.)

2. M. V. Leaflets. (One complete set for use as samples from which to order. Sufficient number on organization and work to supply officers. Quantities of special numbers for the members; e. g., M. V. Leaflet 19, "Morning Watch," and 18, "Bible Year.")

3. M. V. Record Blanks and Pledges. (For society and personal use. Some conferences have a year's supply of record blanks bound together for sale to each society.)

4. Morning Watch Calendars. (One for each member. Quantities sufficient to supply projects determined upon.)

5. Bible Year Chart.

6. Set of M. V. Banners or Charts.

7. The Youth's Instructor. (Club for society, or single subscriptions to each home.)

8. Study and Service League material. ("The Great Advent Movement," by Emma E. Howe; "Senior M. V. Studies in Bible Doctrines"; "Fishers of Men.")

9. Advanced Study and Service League material. ("Outline for the Advanced Study and Service League;" textbooks for classes organized, class and individual record cards.)

10. Junior Progressive Class material. ("Junior Handbook;" Friend, Companion, Comrade charts, and individual record cards.)

11. Master Comrade material. ("Master Comrade Manual;" chart, and individual record cards.)

12. M. V. Reading Course books.

13. Notebook. (For recording names and addresses of society members, pages for ideas and plans, for dates of coming events, for book lists, and, in short, anything of interest to the society which would be lost but for the notebook.)

14. File of past years' Gazettes, Youth's Instructors, and *Review and Herald*s. (Drawing upon articles for extra program material.) Or,

15. Clipping File. (Articles from our various publications and others filed topically, which may be used as extra material in arranging programs.) Or,

16. Scrapbook. (Which may be arranged and used as above.)

17. Constant contact by letter and by person with the conference M. V. secretary.

MARJORIE W. MARSH.

The Dalles District Meeting

The four o'clock service was followed by baptism.

The evening service was one in our regular series of meetings, which was then in its tenth week. Elder J. R. Nelson was our guest speaker for the evening. December 2 will now be remembered as the first district meeting to be held in The Dalles. The day's program was held in the Bible Auditorium where we are conducting our winter series of evangelistic meetings. Many of our interested friends dropped in for one or more meetings during the day. The district is now looking forward to the next district day to be held in Hood River about six months later. There is no question in the writer's mind but that this kind of gathering pays. The fellowship and reconsecration more than repay for all efforts necessary to have them.

H. A. PECKHAM.

On the evening of November 4 a group of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Hoffman in Portland to witness the marriage of Dorothy Clewell to Odell Hooper. Elder J. L. Tucker officiated. These young people will make their home in Portland.

Another Sabbath School

I know you are all interested in new Sabbath schools, so I am writing to tell you of the one we are conducting in the little mill camp a few miles out of Woodland, Washington. We are about sixteen miles from any church, so in order to give us all the privilege of Sabbath school we meet each week in various homes to worship our Master. At present there are quite a number of outside children coming regularly, and how they love to sing. We are hoping the parents will come in the near future. We solicit the prayers of our people for our little band.

Another thing we are doing is meeting each week to piece quilts and do fancy work to be sold, the proceeds to go to help the "Quiet Hour." If there are those who would desire to help us by sending us quilt scraps, we would put the material to good use and would appreciate their kindness.

We are about nine miles from Woodland, and sixteen miles from the Cedar Creek church. Pray that we may win souls in this place.

MRS. J. A. COLE,
Box 912, Woodland, Wash.

Laurelwood Academy

The new barn being erected on the farm at Laurelwood is a credit to the Conference. Our brethren throughout the field have long felt the need for such a building. For this reason many have cheerfully assisted either by helping with the work or by furnishing means.

The barn is nearing completion, but we do very much need more funds to finish the task. It may be that some have not yet paid their pledges which they made toward this project.

The money should either be paid through the local church treasurer, or else sent direct to the Conference Office.
G. H. SIMPSON, Principal.

Columbia Campus Chronicles

H. L. Rudy, president of the European Division, Section II, visited us last week. Wednesday evening he spoke in the church and Thursday he spoke to the students at chapel time. He told us of interesting experiences in the Holy Land, of the staunchness of Adventist young people in Europe.

Our Student Association campaign for auditorium chairs closed last Friday, December 8 with the girls, airplane in the lead. The girls will be entertained by the boys as a reward. Much school spirit was in evidence during the contest.

The students surely do appreciate the new gymnasium floor. We want to say "Thank you" to you who helped make it possible for us to enjoy this splendid improvement.

Columbia Academy will start its Christmas vacation on Thursday, December 21, at noon. All students should return by six o'clock, January 2.

For the second six week period we were glad to have the following honor roll, listed in order of points: Loraine Beane, Margaret Tinlin, Violet Budd, Don Jutzy, Roy Jutzy, Wanda Miles, Eugene Davis, Ray Wilson, Latimer Booth, Donnie Mack, LeRoy Ammundsen, Bette Hackett, Ellen Waters, Hazel Waters, Marvin Zirkle.

Mr. McCoy has, with the assistance of some of the boys been digging our well deeper. It seems that now we will have an ample supply of water for all our needs.

Tuesday we were favored with a visit from Elder Anderson, Mr. Kephart, and Elder Hanson. While here they gave study to ways in which we may improve our school. The bakery will be getting a new coat of paint, and other improvements were planned.

There are a number of young people who are already making plans to enter Columbia the second semester. If you are interested in a Christian education, come to Columbia. A letter to the principal will receive a prompt reply. The second semester begins January 15, 1940.

News Notes

Omicron Pi Sigma president, Wilmer Eiseman, officially announced the third annual amateur contest to be held in Columbia auditorium, the evening of Feb. 3, 1940. Prizes totaling over $50 will be given to the best amateur performers. The tentative date for auditions and tryouts has been set for Jan. 18. Mr. Richard Lewis, chairman of the program committee has been voted master of ceremonies.

A big two-color issue of the Collegian will appear Tuesday, December 19. The issue will contain the prize winning articles and poems gleaned from the recent Collegian contest. Winners were: Leonard Horning's, "From Christmas to Xmas," Arline Gilbert's "No Room at the Inn," and "The Star of Today," a poem by Hildegard Siemsen.

Organ Moods V was presented by Dr. Merlin Neff of the English Department and Mr. Stanley Walker of the Music Department as a Christmas feature of the Missionary Volunteer program, December 16. Featuring music, poetry, and slides of famous paintings of the life of Christ, the program entitled, "From the Manger to the Throne" depicted the story of Christ.

The new Sabbath school officers for the winter quarter will be Harry Johnson, Hazel Meyer, and Calvin Russell, superintendents; Virginia Green and Frances Mohr, secretaries.

"The Amazon by Clipper and Canoe," a full length, natural color film, considered by the Pacific geographic society, as "one of the most outstanding color films ever shown," was presented as the second of the lyceum series, in Columbia auditorium, Saturday night, December 16.

The annual Theology banquet was held in the Rose room, Thursday evening, December 7, commemorating the forty-seventh anniversary of the founding of the college. Guests were President G. W. Bowers who spoke on the "Gateway to Service" and Elder F. M. Burg, Dean Emeritus of the School of Theology. Eugene Sample, president of the Paulist sodality, spoke on, "The Theological Student Faces a Paganistic Society."

Dr. P. W. Christian, associate professor of history, was designated as head of the College during the summer session, according to action taken last week by the school board.

Student non-commissioned officers were selected by stiff examination by Captain O. L. Brinker, commander of the Walla Walla College medical corps, last week. "The student officers must be of good moral standing, fully in accord with the principles of Seventh-day Adventists, and in complete harmony with the rules of the college; as the officers exert a great deal of influence, they must have a positive influence for good."

The Associated Students passed a recommendation of the spiritual committee to donate a set of denominational books to the City of Walla Walla public library.

The following telegram was received December 12:

"Mr. Peterson and Mr. Sittner,
Walla Walla College
College Place, Washington

"Alumni banquet will be held in W.O.W. hall, 615 S. E. Alder Street, Tuesday, December 26, at 7:30. President of Linfield College to speak. Invite all students, alumni, and everyone with present or former connections with the college. Definitely expecting you. Many thanks."

(Signed) "Bill Cavanaugh, M. D."

Obituaries

Jones.—James Calvin Jones was born at Randle, Washington, November 24, 1919, and was living with his grandparents, Brother and Sister C. S. Jones, near Napavine at the time of his accident in the woods October 23. He was taken to the St. Helens Hospital in Chehalis, and all was done for him that loving hands could do until he passed away October 30, 1939.

His aged grandparents and his mother, Mrs. Goldie Birchet, in their sorrow feel their loss very keenly.

A glorious hope is before us when "there will be no more death."

The funeral service was conducted by the writer in the Methodist church in Napavine.

H. A. Fish.

Halls.—Mrs. William G. Halls was born in Wisconsin, September 19, 1878, and passed away in her home at Kelso, November 14, 1939. About thirteen years ago she came from Wisconsin to Washington where she has since resided.

Among those who mourn her: her husband, William Halls of Kelso; her mother, Mrs. Julius Nelson of Minnesota; and two sisters, Mrs. Olive La Fave of Portland and Mrs. Celia Rockwell of Minnesota; her daughters, Mrs. Ted Dykster and Mrs. Norman Halls of Kelso, Mrs. Cora Espeseth of Alberta, Mrs. Alice Iverson of California, and Mrs. Irene Fouracre of Australia; her sons, Earl Erickson of Kelso, Vernon Erickson, and Archie Erickson of Alberta.

Her life was a beautiful testimony to the power of Christ living within the human heart. She will always be remembered as one who lived a true Christian life.

G. T. Dickinson.

Christopherson.—Jacob William Christopherson was born in Senderby, Denmark, May 14, 1865, and died December 2, 1939 at Portland, Oregon. When he was three years of age his parents came to America. They were among the early pioneers of the Seventh-day Adventist church, and Brother Christopherson grew up in the atmosphere of this message.

In 1889 he was united in marriage to Anna Marie Olson. To this union eleven children were born, six of which survive. Brother Christopherson has been a loyal leader in the various local churches where he has had the spiritual leadership. Many have found their way into the fold through his devotion and service. On October 28 of this year a large group of relatives and friends gathered at his home to celebrate the couple's golden wedding.

He leaves to mourn his wife, four daughters, Alice White, Myrtle Calkins, Clara Miller, Laura Pierce, and two sons, Ernest and Clifford. Words of comfort and hope based on Job 14:14, 15 were spoken by the writer.

J. L. Tucker.

The Thirteenth Sabbath

The thirteenth Sabbath offering will be taken on December 30, this year. It will be the last opportunity for united giving during 1939 for the cause of missions. Shall we not take advantage of this chance, and make this offering the largest thirteenth Sabbath offering the North Pacific Union has ever received. Surely the situation in the world, with the needs of all our mission fields, places before us a reason that should move each one to make this offering one that represents real sacrificial giving.

A glance at the statement of Sabbath school offering receipts during the first eleven months indicates a situation that none of us wish to see exist. There is an actual decrease in the amount raised in this Union of $654.58. And this in spite of the fact that we have a constantly growing membership. Let us carefully consider this situation, and each one save some of the money that might otherwise be spent during the holiday season to make this a memorable thirteenth Sabbath offering.
