No. 24

The Northwest Youth's Congress will be one of the denomination's great gatherings for youth during 1948. Thousands will be in attendance. The three-day inspirational program planned will be one that will be long remembered, full of strength, confidence, and encouragement for greater service.

Young people of today will be the leaders of the church tomorrow. Upon you will be placed erelong the responsibility of carrying the burdens from where those long in the way have laid it down. Plan now to be at Gladstone Park from July 28 to 31, with the youth of the Northwest for an inspiration of a lifetime. We shall be looking forward to seeing you there.

CHAS. J. NAGELE.

You Are Wanted at Youth's Congress If—

Because accommodations are limited at Gladstone Park, we will not be able to care for all who would like to attend this great meeting. Because we are anxious that all who are eligible be given ample opportunity to attend, we shall indicate who these individuals are. You are wanted at Youth's Congress if:

- 1. You are a delegate selected by your Missionary Volunteer Society or church to attend the Congress.
- 2. You are of Senior Missionary Volunteer age.
- 3. You are an officer of a Senior Missionary Volunteer Society.
- 4. You are a parent or chaperone who is to accompany a group of Senior Missionary Volunteers.
 - 5. You are a conference worker.
 - 6. You are a teacher.

We would be very happy to welcome all, young or old, who would like to be present at the Northwest Youth's Congress if there were ample room for all. However, we can think of nothing more tragic than for hundreds of eligible individuals to be turned away because their places were filled by other people, who, while good loyal members of the church, did not meet the qualifications described.

The Youth's Congress is a meeting for youth, and for those interested in working for the youth. Youth will be given priority.

The only way by which we can plan intelligently for those who are eligible to attend is for them to sign registration cards and return them to the union conference office. These cards will soon be sent to the churches.

If you meet the above qualifications, you are wanted at Youth's Congress. As soon as the cards reach your church, sign one and mail it to the union conference office.

A Typical Colporteur Experience

Brother C. C. Mooney has been colporteuring around Dallas, Oregon. Not long ago he called at a certain home where he found a lady who stated that it is very difficult for her to understand the Bible. Brother Mooney persuaded her to purchase some of our literature. He writes his experience as follows:

"I had a nice experience a week ago in Dallas. I called at a home in the morning and a lady met me at the

Then the other lady said, 'You must be a Seventh-day Adventist.' Anyway, I got in and after a few words I asked if she were interested in Seventh-day Adventists in any way. She said, 'not exactly,' so I dropped that subject and started talking to the sick lady about the Bible. Then the other lady said, 'I have a hard time to understand my Bible.' I told her that many people have, and I showed her Bible Readings. I told her, 'If you get it today, you two ladies can read it while you are here.' She decided to give me a check in full for the book. I gave her a late Signs of the Times and she said, 'I always get one of them at the bus depot at Salem.' She said there is a little tract rack right by the door where you go to get on the bus. I then told her I put from 130 to 150 papers there every week. Then she asked me if I would please put my name in the front of her Bible Readings."

Never should we permit ourselves to let pass an opportunity to speak a word in favor of the truth. By freely using our publications, both by free distribution and selling, we are doing one of the greatest works that can be done at this time. The situation in the world indicates that troublous times are just ahead of us. What we fail to do during 1948, may never the accomplished. As Seventh-day Adventists, we can well ponder the slogan of the publishing department in the North Pacific Union,—"It may be too late after '48."

The Draft and You-5

The draft, if and when it becomes operative, and if and when it includes you, will put you in a place where you will have numerous opportunities to witness for your faith and for your Lord.

Prepare yourself now to take full advantage of these opportunities when they come. Be ready to carry out what God has in mind for you to do.

Be sure you know what your rightful relation to government is, Acquaint yourself with the Bible teaching on this important point. Make sure that you know what your obligation to government is, as well as your obligation to God.

All of this you will find explained in the War Service Commission leaflet entitled, "Seventh-day Adventists and Civil Government." You may have one for the asking. Master its contents. Know what the Bible teaches. Know what your church teaches. Know what you believe. Know how to explain it. Be ready to give every man a reason for your faith. This will stand you in good stead in these coming

It is the man who is able to explain why he takes the noncombatant position who is most quickly placed in that position.

Your claim to a noncombatant status may be denied because of some error in filling out your questionnaire or your conscientious objector form. It may be denied because of some error on the part of your local board. In that case you will need to appeal the decision of your local board. You may face an inquiry by the Department of Justice before obtaining your rightful classification and assignment. such an investigation you will be asked why you take the noncombatant position.

So be sure to read and thoroughly digest the War Service Commission leaflet entitled, "Why Seventh-day Adventists are Noncombatant." It will be sent to you free if you will ask for it.

Even when you are rightly classified and rightly assigned as a noncombatant you will still need to obtain your Sabbath privileges. These are not provided by law as your noncombatant rights are. You must know how to go about getting them. In doing so you must be ready and able to explain why you observe the Sabbath.

Consequently you will need the War Commission leaflet Seventh-day Adventists Observe the Bible Sabbath." You may have it without charge. Just send the request for

Summer Session

The first convocation of the summer session was held June 9 at 8:30 a.m. with Dean Henry L. Sonnenberg, Director in charge. The number attending this convocation was larger than last year indicating a good enrollment. Registration was nearly completed by the end of the day. Educational secretaries George S. Belleau and assistant Ethel Johnson of the Oregon Conference, Vernon S. Jewett of the Washington Conference and H. S. Hanson of the Upper Columbia Conference assisted greatly in the registration of their respective church school teachers.

The summer session consists of two terms, June 9 to July 16 and July 19 to August 24. The session is conducted from the campus and also from Anacortes, Washington, where the Puget Sound Biological Station is located. With the enrollment of approximately 190 on the campus, the total enrollment will be about 230.

Plan for the Autumn Quorter Now

There are many applications in hand for the next school year. It is expected that many others will be received during this month. It is well to plan on having applications filed with the registrar by the first of July, although our plans call for the enrollment of all eligible students who sincerely desire a Christian education. Write Mrs. Irene Black for an application blank, or obtain one at camp meeting time.

The Lord's work needs all the consecrated young people in the North Pacific Union Conference. Plan now for enrollment September 22.

Power House

On Monday morning following June 6 commencement, some thirty men reported for work on the new power house. The first part of the work consists of building a large steam tunnel which will be under the building, and the relocation of sewer lines. The concrete mixer and gravel hoppers are being relocated. In a few days cement will be poured for the tunnel and the footings.

WEDDINGS

On Sunday evening, June 6, Mr. Delbert Gennetten and Miss Dorothy Virginia Gardner both of Portland were united in holy wedlock by Elder D. L. Olsen in the Montavilla church. May heaven's choice blessing rest upon this new home.

On Sunday, May 23, Ronald Parrish of Sequim and Jeanette Fox of Montesano were united in holy wedlock. Elder D. L. Olsen officiated May God bless this new home.

Colporteur Efforts at Burley

The following experiences bring to my mind the text in Isaiah 55:11, "So shall my Word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.'

While Brother Henry Ford was canvassing in the Burley district, he and Sister Ford called at the home of a young married couple. It seemed that this family was unable to buy the literature that was offered them for sale. However, they manifested a very definite interest in the truths of the Bible. The lady stated that although they were members of a church, they were not wholly satisfied and were seeking one that taught the whole truth.

After quite a lengthy discussion, Brother Ford asked if they would not be willing to have Bible studies. For this she was very happy and arranged for the first study the following Friday, and would have her sister and family from across the road and a sister and family from town, her mother and other relatives to attend the study.

For the first two studies, there were about twenty in attendance. The studies were greatly appreciated, but as Brother Ford was leaving the district, he arranged for the district pastor to continue the Friday evening meetings. When I was at this pastor's home, after he had held a few Bible studies with this group, he told me there were five families attending the meetings and all manifested a very definite interest. One party was coming seventeen miles to the study.

Last fall during "Big Week", I sold a set of books, including Medical Counselor, Bible Readings, Life and Health, Our Times, Cigarette, and a copy of Radiant Religion to a husband and wife. I stayed with these folks over night, so had the opportunity to have a nice visit that night, as well as before leaving in the morning.

The first copy of the Signs that was received contained an article on the Sabbath. The lady, wanting a more thorough understanding on the subject, went to the only Adventist in the district for more information, which resulted in Bible studies and the lady keeping the Sabbath.

M. V. and Educational Gleanings

The Great Northwest Youth's Congress to be conducted at Gladstone Park, Portland, July 28-31, will be the greatest convocation of the young people of the union ever attempted in the Northwest. Every Missionary Volunteer should make plans now to attend this unusual session. Many thrilling plans are in the making now. and prospects are that this will be a wonderful occasion. Youth inspiration and fellowship, thrilling sermons especially for young people, youth participation, and many other special features will highlight this feast. Plan your vacations now and encourage your friends to be there without fail! Cafeteria service will assure us good and reasonable food, and your only other major expense will be the room and registration fee of $3.50 which will take care of your room for the entire session, and provide you with the Congress folio which will have pennants, sticker, souvenir booklets, and many other things you will want to have.

All the young people of the Idaho Conference are cordially invited to attend our camp meeting which will convene June 16-26 at Gem State Academy. Special youth meetings will be conducted for the young people in the church, and junior meetings in the chapel for the juniors. You cannot afford to miss this great event. During the last week end it is planned that many will be invested and set apart to carry definite responsibilities in behalf of their fellow youth. The Voice of Adventist Youth broadcast will also be made during this great gathering. Come prepared to enjoy the spiritual refreshings, inspiration, and cutstanding things at camp meeting!

Time is passing rapidly, applications are rolling in speedily and your chances to attend the greatest camps ever attempted in the Idaho Conference are getting smaller and smaller, unless you rush your applications to us now! Tomorrow may be too late. Accommodations are limited, and you know the story about the early bird that was lucky in getting the worm.

The Voice of Adventist Youth broadcast conducted by Pastor M. J. Perry and the Missionary Volunteers of the Idaho Conference is receiving favorable letters of appreciation and congratulations. Many outsiders are enjoying these youth programs, and, according to the letters received, are really thrilled with it and look forward to each succeeding program. Keep praying for its success, and keep listening, and keep writing regularly to M. J. Perry in care of your station telling him how you enjoy the broadcast. This will continue to encourage the stations to carry this worthwhile program. Many remark in their letters, "We want many more programs like that." "May God bless you for bringing to us such wonderful radio programs." "I have enjoyed your programs so much that it makes me thrilled to be an Adventist!" Yes, we are thrilled to know that many people are receiving spiritual help from the Voice of Adventist Youth.

A letter received today brought real inspiration to Elder Perry. It stated that the writer had felt so uneasy lately because of her spiritual condition, particularly since she had fallen away from the church, and she felt burdened to turn on the radio. She happened accidentally to locate the Voice of Adventist Youth program from Caldwell, and was thrilled to receive such wonderful spiritual help. Elder Perry plans to contact her and help renew within her heart the love for Christ she once had. Let us pray that God will use this youth undertaking to the fullest capacity in bringing the light of truth to not only the people of our churches, but to many who have never heard this blessed truth.

Keep listening to M. J. Perry and The Voice of Adventist Youth over the Gem State Network, KGEM-Boise, KBIO-Burley, KEIO-Pocatello regularly. The next broadcast is June 27, at 9:30 a.m.; also over KLBM-La Grande on the Fountain of Youth broadcast. at 10:15 a.m. However, those in the vicinity of La Grande should listen to the Fountain program each week.

Investiture at Salem

"The Lord has appointed the youth to be His helping hand."-Testimonies. Vol. 7, p. 64.

Twenty-nine of the young people of the Livingstone church school at Salem, Oregon, were invested in an impressive investiture service on Sabbath, May 29. Eider A. J. Reisig was present and gave the investiture address in which he told of the value of building genuine Christian character.

The service was held in the Johnson Memorial S. D. A. church at Salem with the young people presenting an interesting program. Those invested ranged in grades from one through ten, and Busy Bees through Comrades. The teachers, Mrs. Griffin, Miss Wells, Mrs. Wolcott and the writer, helped these fine young people to successfully complete another step in their preparation for the Master.

Baptisms

Reports continue to come in of baptisms recently conducted in the Washington Conference. Elder M. M. Mohr baptized 10 and took one in on profession of faith on Sabbath, May 29: Elder Glenn Patterson baptized three on May 15; Elder F. G. Roper baptized six on May 30, one of these as a result of the Orting effort conducted by Alexander Snyman and J. G. Ziegler; Elder W. I. Unterseher baptized three more during May. This makes a total of 205 baptized and one on profession of faith since April 1, or the beginning of the second quarter.

We feel that the Lord surely has blessed our workers and we know that they have all worked hard to make this wonderful record possible. Other baptismal services are planned soon.

Washington News

We were pleased to have as recent visitors Elder T. Asheim from Norway and Elder Gidlund from Sweden. Elder Elder Asheim spoke in the Greenlake church Sabbath morning at the 11:00 o'clock hour and in the afternoon, Elder Gidlund was also to have spoken Sabbath afternoon but arrived too late for the services.

The Washington colporteur evangelists, under the leadership of Frethren Coy and Tucker, continue to lead the union both in total sales and in gains for this year over last. We are glad for the splendid work our colporteurs are doing.

These who plan to attend camp meeting please note that there are no more rooms for rent. We have been out of rooms for some weeks now and the only thing left are tents; however, we are sure that many of our people will want to take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to attend camp meeting and will be willing to take a tent rather than not come to camp meeting at all. In some places in the North American fields there are no rooms available and every one has to live in tents, and we are very fortunate to have as many rooms as we have available at Auburn Acaden,y.

In addition to the General Conference help that was mentioned in a recent issue of the GLEANER at our camp meeting session, there is a possibility that Elder McElhany will be able to be with us for one or two meetings. An invitation has been extended to him by Elder Scriven, our union president, and it is possible that Elder McElhany's busy schedule will permit him to make a short visit to us here in the Northwest. Elder J. E. Weaver, from the General Conference and Brother Chapman, of the Loma Linda Food Company, will also be with us. We have asked Dr. Philip Nelson, our conference medical secretary, to give three lectures on healthful living and these will be given on three consecutive days in the big tent. Mrs. Edyth Cottrell will conduct meetings every day in the chapel beginning on the first Sunday of camp meeting in the interest of healthful cooking. The chapel will seat about 340 people and we know that many of our ladies will want to take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to hear one of Mrs. Cottrell's experience and ability. There will be many good things for young and old alike at camp meeting, so plan to be there on time and stay through for every meeting.

Radio Group on Tour

The Voice of Prophecy broadcasting group, including Elmer Walde, the announcer; the King's Heralds Quartet; and the writer, have begun an evangelistic circuit of eighteen or twenty camp meetings and youth's congresses in North America.

We regret that we cannot visit all the camp meetings and meet all our fellow believers who have so loyally supported the message over the air. But we are asking a place in the prayers of our people that our itinerary may be blessed and that the radio work of The Voice of Prophecy and all our radio-broadcasts may be built up this summer and—Go Forward in Faith!

We also hope that the friends of the work will not forget our mailing address, which is still The Voice of Prophecy, Box 55, Los Angeles, California.

H. M. S. RICHARDS.

Letters From Bible Students

SATISFIED AT LAST

"I used to be a Catholic, but about eight years ago I read in the Bible that we should not worship images, and I knew that I was in the wrong church. I joined several Protestant churches, each time finding that they were not teaching the truth. I felt disgusted with religious teachers, but since I studied

When You Move

When you change your place of residence, please notify us beforehand of your new address, also giving the old address, so that the change can be made in the Gleaner list and you will not miss any copies. It usually takes a week or two from the time you send notice until the paper is received at the new location.

Do not ask the post office to notify us as we do not make changes in our mailing list from post office notices. A penny postcard is sufficient for you to use in giving your change of address. Send it to North Pacific Union Gleaner, Drawer 248, College Place, Washington.

r Bible lessons, I feel satisfied at last. I want to be baptized and become a member of the true church. I do thank God and The Voice of Prophecy for the help I have received."—California.

PLEASE HELP US

A NEW JOB

"I tried to get my boss to let me have the Sabbath off but he refused. So I found another job, which is much better. I am starting tomorrow morning. I am to be baptized next Sabbath."—Oregon.

FINDS SABBATH-KEEPING

"Rejoice with me, for I have found a group of Christian people who are keeping the true Sabbath! I have been meeting with them for the past six weeks. I am so eager to learn all I can, for I feel that I have waited too long to start."—Arkansas.

WANTS TO START A CHURCH

"I am trying to start a Seventh-day Adventist church here, for I have changed, and now I have no church to attend. Please remember our minister in prayer that he may see the light, and remember the other people, too."—Pennsylvania.

SURPRISE

"It comes as a surprise to learn that we have been keeping the wrong day. I have wondered about it but never seriously. I would like reading matter that will help me to a better understanding of this subject and I ask your prayers that I may be a true commandment keeper."—Louisiana.

LETTER FROM A JUNIOR STUDENT

"I thank you very much for the book, The Marked Bible. I haven't read it yet, but I have heard that it is very interesting.

"Someday soon I hope to be baptized. I work for some Adventist people and I believe every word of the Advent message. I am going to try to persuade my mother, sister, and brother of the true Sabbath and God's Word.

"About five years ago many questions used to puzzle me, such as when the world is going to end. I asked many people, but they just told me to forget it. Now I know the true answer, and I know the Lord is coming very soon. Please pray for he that I may be able to be baptized soon and that the rest of my relatives will accept this wonderful message."—Massachusetts. (From a 16year-old boy.)

SELLING OUT FOR GOD

"It is through reading your books and other literature, and listening to your program that we have come to believe in the seventh-day Sabbath. We have a business that requires work seven days of the week, and we have put it up for sale. Will you pray for us that we may dispose of this so that we can unite with the Seventh-day Adventist?"—Connecticut.

IN NEED OF A CHURCH

"I cannot tell you how much the Junior Bible Lessons have helped me. I have accepted Jesus as my personal Saviour and will endeavor to follow Him. I am wondering if you could send someone to talk to the people of this community about having a seventh-day church here. If I could attend a church of this kind, I feel that I would be ready to meet Jesus when He comes."—South Carolina.

DIVIDED HOME

"Your letter of March 11 helped me a lot, but there are still many questions in my mind. I know God will straighten them out for me sometime. My husband and I were both raised Lutherans and he says he will never change. but I have been keeping the Sabbath for some time now. I can't get to church, but keep the Sabbath at home. I have talked to my husband about it but he doesn't read the Word of God. so he doesn't understand. I have tried to have family worship in my home, but the family is so divided it doesn't seem to work. We need your prayers."-Minnesota.

CONCERNED

"Thank you for your letter about the seventh-day Sabbath. I have been very much troubled about this question, and I wonder who is responsible for the churches worshiping on Sunday. I've asked several pastors, who are supposed to be living according to the Scriptures, but they haven't given a satisfactory answer. If you can give me further information on this vital subject I would appreciate it very much. I am indeed concerned because of my family and myself."—Rhode Island.

LED TO LIGHT THROUGH ILLNESS

"I thank God for the strength to complete this course. My home is in Bermuda, and I came here for my health, and I thank God for the chance I have had to study the Bible. I hope to return home soon, and I want to become a member of the Sabbath church. If possible I would like to meet some members of this church while I am still here."—North Carolina
