Sabbath School Investment Offering

We trust that every Sabbath school in the North Pacific Union is making plans for a large Investment offering this fall. Thousands of our dear members have been working on Investment projects for the Lord during 1951, and from reports trickling in to us from various parts of the field, this will be the largest Investment offering ever given to the Lord.

Oregon has set a much higher goal this year than last year for Investment. Their goal is $20,000 and they confidently expect to reach it. Each of the other conferences likewise are strongly promoting Investment and are aiming at higher goals.

The Investment offering is a big event in every Sabbath school and it is getting bigger each passing year. More and more members are participating. Once they get the thrill of making a special investment for God, they make larger plans each year. Last year our Sabbath schools around the world gave $382,115.08 to the Investment offering. It gets bigger each year, under the blessing of God. We hope over half a million can be sent to mission lands through the Investment this year.

We trust each Sabbath school appointed an Investment secretary early in the year. Our Sabbath school officers will provide time in their program each Sabbath between now and the time the Investment offering is taken up for the Investment secretary to bring this to the attention of the Sabbath school, thus encouraging every member to participate in the Investment offering. All of our Sabbath school officers and teachers should speak of it frequently too.

There are many and varied offerings through the year, but Investment is just different than all other offerings. One might say it is a miracle offering, for it represents hundreds and thousands of divine miracles performed by God in all parts of the world to strengthen the faith of God's people in what He can and will do for those who truly love and serve Him. A tree that has never borne good fruit is dedicated to God for Investment and a rich harvest of splendid fruit is grown on the tree. Garden areas dedicated to Investment thrive while gardens all around may be poor. Literally hundreds of miracles can be cited in connection with the Sabbath School Investment offering.

Some may not have entered into a special project for Investment, but it is not too late for every member to begin right now to plan for a large Investment offering for God this year. God has been so good to each of us, surely we can show our love and appreciation by investing a good amount in the bank of Heaven through the Investment offering this year. Begin now, if you have not already been working on Investment, and plan something big and grand for God in 1951. Such an investment will pay large dividends throughout eternity in souls saved.

B. M. PRESTON.
Sabbath School Secretary.

October 13-20

October 13-20 may prove to be a week of far-reaching consequences with results that will be realized throughout eternity.

Your personal response during this week may be a definite contributing factor in making it fruitful in souls won for the kingdom of Christ.

This is the special week which has been officially designated by the denomination as the time when The Message and These Times magazines are to be featured in all our churches. As we consider how we should relate ourselves to this soul-winning endeavor, let us ponder the following:

"We are living in the most solemn period of this world's history. The destiny of earth's teeming multitudes is about to be decided. Our own future well-being, and also the salvation of other souls, depend upon the course which we now pursue."—The Great Controversy, p. 601.

As we keep this thought-provoking statement in mind, may the solemnity of this awful hour and the Holy Spirit impress us as to the course we should now pursue. May we take the course that will lead us into a deeper experience with the Master. May we choose the course that will enable us to be more fully used in bringing salvation to others.

The regular reading of these excellent monthly evangelistic journals will bring much spiritual help to Adventists as well as to those not of our faith.

Let us be prepared during the week of October 13-20 to bring this additional help and blessing into our own homes and to share these gospel-bearing journals with many others.

God bless you as you consider your response to this appeal. May this special week prove to be a time of far-reaching consequences and produce results that you will delight to meet in the kingdom because of your personal response.

Ask your church missionary secretary for details and a subscription envelope. New subscriptions as well as renewals are invited. Read and share The Message and These Times journals. You will receive a blessing and impart a blessing.

Health Evangelism in New York City

A series of health lectures are being given in New York City in connection with the Faith for Today evangelistic effort in Carnegie Hall under the leadership of Elder R. A. Anderson of the General Conference Ministerial Association. Dr. Clifford Anderson and the writer are giving this series of health talks devoted to Better Living, each Wednesday evening, continuing to December 19.

Many times individuals can be invited to health lectures and these serve as stepping stones in learning the three-fold message of our remnant church.

Should you have friends in or near New York City who are interested in the subject of health, we urge you to write regarding them to Elder R. Allan Anderson, Box 93, Old Chelsea Station, New York City.

What Can A Man Believe?

To some people religion is more mysterious than a way of life. It is more a ritual than a sincere worship of a kind and loving Heavenly Father. Sometimes it appears that even many religious leaders do not know the meaning of real Christian living. How thankful we Seventh-day Adventists may be that our belief is based on sound and true doctrine! How ready we should be to answer concisely concerning our beliefs!

From the rich experience and able pen of Elder M. L. Andreasen, come words to guide the newer sheep of the flock and to challenge those longer in the way. What Can a Man Believe sets forth a common sense religion in a way that is easily understood. There are many human interest stories and the author tells of his own search for the right way.

Every Christian can well profit from the reading of this comprehensible, forthright volume. And because of the sensible way in which our doctrines are presented, we know that you will want to give and to loan this book to your friends.

What Can a Man Believe is one of the handy sized Christian Home Library Series and is available in the cloth binding at $1.75. The de luxe binding is $2.25. Order from your Book and Bible House.

Welcome to Elder R. R. Cronk and Family

We extend a most hearty welcome to Elder and Mrs. R. R. Cronk and their two boys, Ronny and Jerry. Elder Cronk is in charge of the Pocatello district. They arrived in the field about two weeks ago.

Elder Cronk and family are former missionaries, having recently returned from South America where he served as home missionary secretary of the North Brazil Union Mission.

J. O. HANSON.

Nampa Tabernacle Effort

We are glad to announce to our readers that the tabernacle effort planned for Nampa got off to a good start Sunday evening, September 30. Elder Don Duncan is leading out in this series of meetings. He is being assisted by Brother Gordon Geer, who for the past two years has been located at Weiser, and Brother Kenneth Mittleider, who has recently accepted a ministerial internship in our conference.

The tabernacle was filled with a very attentive audience as Elder Duncan spoke on the topic "World Peace or Atomic Pieces." At the close of the service nearly every one in the audience stood signifying their desire to be ready for the future. The message was well given and received.

If you live within reasonable driving distance of Nampa, why not plan to attend the meetings as often as you can. For the present the meetings are held on Sunday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday evenings at 7:30 p.m. The location of the tabernacle is 8th Ave. S. and 2nd St. S. You will be pleased with the attractive appearance of the tabernacle as well as be inspired by the good sermons.

We solicit your prayers in behalf of this effort that many precious souls may be gathered in.

Elder Duncan and his corps of workers are also conducting a radio program known as "Quiet Meditations" over Station KFXD every Sunday at 10 a.m. Invite your friends and neighbors to listen to this broadcast. Write the studio expressing your approval of the program.

Youth Rally

On September 22, Margaret Ausmus, the North Pacific Union Conference delegate to the Paris Youth Congress, gave her first report to a large congregation in Frazier Auditorium at Caldwell. Miss Ausmus' carefully planned report was presented to the attentive audience in a way that brought expressions of "Wasn't that inspiring?", "Isn't it wonderful what European youth are doing?", "How happy we are to learn that the Bible truths are penetrating the Iron Curtain!"

The speaker told of her trip by air to Paris and the slower but interesting returned by S. S. Volendam, which was crowded with immigrants from Europe. The sixty delegates aboard the vessel, with hundreds of immigrants, had the opportunity of sharing their faith. Meetings were held each day and special meetings were conducted for the Russians aboard. Miss Ausmus told how Seventh-day Adventists in Russia are witnessing for Christ in spite of restrictions. She appealed to the youth of Idaho to share their faith. "We know Jesus is coming soon and that means the destruction of the earth by fire," she said. "If we knew that Caldwell would be destroyed by fire next week would we hurry out of the city without telling the inhabitants? Would we not quickly tell everybody of the impending disaster? Shouldn't we be even more concerned over the spiritual welfare of the people around us than we would be over their physical safety?"

All young people in the Idaho Conference should respond to this earnest appeal by doing everything possible to share their faith. For suggestions, order today from the Book and Bible House the book Youth and Share Your Faith Evangelism, by Elder Theodore Lucas. This manual on the "how" of "Share Your Faith" has been prepared with the idea of keeping step with the mighty march of Missionary Volunteers. For only 35c you may have this handbook of suggestions and helps as to how young people can share their faith. Order today. A companion book was written by Elder D. A. Delafield. It is entitled Share Your Faith. The price is only 25c. Let your light shine. "Carry light wherever you go."

Change of Office Hours

Until further notice the office hours of the Idaho Conference and Idaho Book and Bible House will be 8 to 5:30, Monday through Thursday, and 8 to 1 p.m. on Friday. The office will be open on Sunday by appointment.

Camp Meeting Evangelistic Pledges

At the time of our camp meeting a number of pledges were made for evangelistic work in our conference. If your pledge is unpaid, kindly turn it in through your local treasurer as soon as you can do so.

Idaho News

Elder Wayne Scriven spent Friday and Sabbath, September 28 and 29, with the folk of the LaGrande church. He was especially happy over the wonderful reports of the Ingathering work from the LaGrande church. They more than doubled their goal. Elder Bartholomew reports that they hope to have at least another $100 to turn in for Ingathering before the end of the year.

Ingathering is getting a nice start at Enterprise. At Wallowa they received $100 more than last year. "We are looking forward to big things up there," reports Elder Scriven, the home missionary secretary. A fine report is also anticipated from the Gem State Academy field day which will be held on October 15.

Brother Charles Allaway spent Sabbath, September 29, at Ontario. He reports a fine enthusiastic group there. The folk there are interested in spreading this message among their neighbors and friends. Several soul-winning kits were left in that area which means more "message-filled" books put into the homes of the people.

Word has reached our office that the church school at Cove, Oregon, is getting started in a good way. They have twenty-one students directed by their teacher, Miss Shirley Stewart, who is doing a good job. They have completely renovated the school room: new lighting, new paint, a new floor, and a new stove; also new lavatories for boys and girls in the building and a drinking fountain. They are anticipating a very good school year.

Brother J. O. Hanson spent Sabbath, September 29, at Payette. They had a very interesting Thirteenth Sabbath program put on by the Primary department of the Sabbath school. The folk there are hoping for a new church building soon, and are laying definite plans along that line.

The Payette-Weiser Associated M.V.'s held a meeting at Vale on Sabbath, September 29. Elder Cole was the guest speaker at this meeting.

Elder A. J. Gordon was in Portland last week attending a union conference committee meeting.

The new Boise church is near completion. They met for the first time in the new church for prayer meeting on Wednesday evening, October 3. While the church has been in the process of completion they have been meeting in a rented church, and in order to save this expense they have moved into the new church although the flooring has not yet been laid or the church completely finished on the inside.

We would like to remind our people to save their Quarterlies, Workers, children's quarterlies and papers, as well as other missionary papers, and send them to Box 401, Manila, Philippines. These papers are put to good use in this mission field.

Evangelistic Efforts

The Bellingham evangelistic effort opened on Sunday evening, September 30, in the Whatcom Junior High School Auditorium with an interested and representative audience. Elder F. G. Roper delivered a sobering and hopeful Bible message and was ably assisted by his helpers and church members. Associated with Elder Roper are Pastors Winders, Hall, Walter, and their good wives.

The Osgood-Spindle evangelistic team will open their Tacoma meetings on Sunday evening, October 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Crystal Ballroom of the Winthrop Hotel, located at the corner of Broadway and Ninth Streets. Associated with and assisting Elder Osgood in this endeavor will be Pastor Thomas Spindle, song leader Roy Pendleton, and organist Mary Green.

If you have friends or relatives living in either Bellingham or Tacoma, please write and invite them to attend the services. Besides this, remember these meetings and workers in your devotions. As other workers initiate their evangelistic programs, we will report their progress in this column.

THEODORE CARCICH.

Bellingham Effort Uses New Plan

The Lending Library Plan has demonstrated its value as a pre-effort interest builder to the workers in the Bellingham evangelistic team.

For more than a month before the opening meeting, workers and lay members called on Bellingham residents, offering them the Free Lending Library Service. These seven little books proved to be very popular with scores of honest-hearted men and women. Some liked the books so well after reading them that they did not want to give them up. These very willingly paid the purchase price so as to have them in their own library. Between seventy-five and one hundred people are now reading these truth-filled books.

This group of readers will no doubt prove to be a strong nucleus in the public meetings. Many of them will bring others with them because of the enthusiasm generated through the reading of these books.

For those looking for an effective medium of soul-winning, we suggest that you acquaint yourself with the Free Lending Library Plan, introduced into this conference during the camp meeting by Elder DeWitt S. Osgood.

Olympic Peninsula M. V. Rally

The Associated M. V. Rally for the Olympic Peninsula was conducted at Nordland on Sabbath, September 22. All the churches of the district were represented and a very encouraging response resulted from the meeting. The rally was combined with a Home Missionary meeting where a brief report of the Grand Ledge Session was presented. Elder Neufeld and the writer report an excellent spirit of enthusiasm and cooperation on the part of loyal believers among the churches of the Olympic Peninsula.

T. W. WALTERS.

Everett Evangelistic Campaign

At the close of a ten-month evangelistic campaign, fifty-one people were baptized in Everett. Others will be baptized later. Twenty of these obtained victory over tobacco and three over alcohol. A total of twelve couples were baptized.

Associated with the writer in this effort were Elder and Mrs. E. N. Sargeant, pastor of the church, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fletcher, who led out in the music, Mrs. Sine Hansen, Bible instructor, and Mrs. F. G. Roper.

Auburn Academy News

The reconstruction work at Auburn Academy is going forward smoothly. The concrete for the footings and foundations will be poured this week and shortly thereafter the erection of the metal buildings will begin.

Plans are being laid for the preparation of the fields on the farm for crops for next year. These plans include the planting of fruit trees and berries.

Auburn Academy will soon have its own dairy to supply milk for our kitchen and dining room. The generosity and faithfulness of our church members is making this possible. One brother has given two registered Guernsey cows. Perhaps there are others who wish to make a contribution by giving a cow or heifer to the dairy.

The student officers for the first semester have been chosen and have assumed their respective duties. These officers are: Sabbath school superintendents, Gloria Kerley, David Peters; secretaries, Delight Kiehm and Denny Simpson; chorister, Clyde Mundy; pianist, Naomi Boesen. M. V. officers: leaders, Winona Moore and Tom Stafford; secretaries, Ellen Gerard and Ronald White; chorister, Lorraine Osborn; pianist, Nancy Jacobson. Officers for the Associated Student Body are: president, Larry Lewis; vice-president, Lorna Purdom; secretary, Gloria Kerley; treasurer, Duane Campbell; chaplain, David Decker; sergeant-at-arms, Max Banner. The social committee members are Nancy Reel and Jerry Jepson. Marilyn Roesler is the editor of the Rainier Vista for 1951-52.

September 25 was Ingathering Field Day at Auburn Academy. Elders Neufeld, Walters, and Ruddle joined the students and teachers in this activity. After the produce had been sold the returns for the day amounted to $1,480.07. In addition to this amount, $20.04 was given by students in labor, bringing the total for the day to $1,500.11.

Elder R. W. Engstrom, pastor of the Seattle Central church is conducting the fall Week of Prayer, October 5 to 13. The prayers of our people are solicited in behalf of the work of this important week.

Pathfinder Trip

The Centralia-Oakville Pathfinder Club recently spent four days camping and hiking in the Olympic National Forest. The group of six boys and five girls was accompanied by Mrs. DeLong, Chehalis, counselor for the girls, Elder Frank Phillips, Otis Cleary, principal of the S.D.A. Union Junior Academy in Centralia, and Bruce Johnston.

Friday, September 21, the hikers packed in six miles from the end of the road on the Big Quillicene River to Shelter Rock Camp, where they set up camp for the Sabbath.

In a beautiful grove of giant hemlocks, Sabbath school was held, and the young people were thrilled by the theme of creation as they viewed, first-hand, the works of God in nature.

A Sabbath afternoon hike into the mountains gave the Pathfinders opportunity for real nature study, since many wild flowers are in bloom in the high country and there is an abundance of wild life. The hikers inspected an old abandoned mining project called the Tubalcain Mines, apparently named after the Bible character who was an instructor of the artificers of brass and iron.

Sunday morning Elder Phillips and Bruce Johnston took four of the older boys over Marmot Pass and down the Dungeness Trail to Home Lake, where they camped over night, coming out over Constance Pass and down to the Dosiewallips River where they were met by the others who had hicked back to the cars and had driven around to meet them.

The Pathfinders saw marmots, deer, bear, and elk, besides many other smaller animals and birds.

Washington News

Elder Alfred Peterson, M. V. secretary of the Australasian Division, recently visited the conference office and spoke to the Auburn Academy church on Sabbath, September 29.

Elder Theodore Carcich talked to the Washington Conference colporteurs at their rally Friday evening, September 29, in the Green Lake church. Sabbath morning he preached at the Enumclaw church, and that afternoon to the Rainier View Associated M. V. Society at the Kent High School. On Sunday evening he and Elder D. A. Neufeld attended Evangelist Roper's opening meeting in Bellingham.

In connection with the week end colporteur rally, Elder M. V. Tucker spoke to the Seattle Central church and Brother Wesley Siegenthaler preached at the Green Lake church on Sabbath, September 29.

Elder T. M. Walters, our M. V. and educational secretary, and Miss Kathleen Kachuck, our elementary school supervisor are busy promoting the interests of youth activities and the successful operation of our church schools.

News Notes

It has been quite awhile since we have said anything about the people that come and go through Juneau. We are happy to have our people stop over at the office on their journey to or through Juneau. Or better yet, if you know that you are going to have a stop over in Juneau, drop us a line, and we will be most happy to meet you, whether you are coming in by boat or by plane.

Office visitors in the past month or six weeks have been: Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Leno and their little daughter from College Place. They were on their way to Golovin to teach in the Alaska Native Service school.

The Zipprick sisters, Lottie from White Memorial and Elsie from Takoma, Washington, with their traveling companion, Leona Bowers, who lives at Glendale, California, suprised us with a nice visit while their boat was in port. They were on their way to Fairbanks and around, just seeing the country.

Mrs. J. H. Shrock, who has been in Florida for a year or more, stopped in on her way home to Wasilla in the Matanuska Valley. She was accompanied by her daughter Delores, who is a nurse and has been working around Los Angeles and White Memorial, and little granddaughter, also a sister from Florida who was seeing Alaska for the first time.

Miss Lewis of California stopped in to pay us a brief visit while her boat was docked at Juneau.

We were very happy to have Brother Campbell and another brother from Yakima drop in for services one Sabbath. We have been hoping to hear more from these brethren.

Brother Olmen Owens of the Owens Brothers' Logging Co., who for many years have been working here in Alaska waters but who recently moved to British Columbia, was a visitor at the office.

Brother and Sister Brennen and their two children from Ketchikan stopped in Juneau over night on their way out to the Mission School at Aleknagik. Sister Brennen is doing the cooking for the Mission School and Brother Brennen is working on the building that we were unable to complete this summer.

Brother Clair Terwillegar, our pastor-teacher of the native group at Craig, stopped in over Sabbath on his return from the Mission School where he had been assisting. We were glad to have Brother Terwillegar spend the Sabbath with us and bring a message to us at the eleven o'clock hour.

Mrs. Nick Riederer, who has been out on the fishing grounds all summer with her husband, flew in to see the new baby of one of her friends. And by the way, this baby was Elder Zumwalt's granddaughter. The Riederers by now have returned to college.

We are happy to have Brother and Sister Edmund Jones and little daughter Anita with us. These good folk come from Oklahoma. Brother Jones is teaching here in the school in Juneau. We are happy to have these talented young people join our group of Sabbath-keepers in Juneau.

We are most happy to welcome Sister Broder and two girls, Paula and Pamela, back home. They have been out in the States all summer while Brother Broder was up at the Mission School helping there. They are getting settled in the home where the Griffins lived. They are planning an energetic and larger program for the church and community in days ahead.

It is always pleasant to meet people and greet them, but it is never pleasant to say goodbye. Brother Olef Larsen and Brother Lindtner Skeie have been fishing in Alaska all during the season. The last of the season Mrs. Larsen joined her husband. It has been a pleasure to have these good people with us here. It seemed almost like old times to see their faces at church. It will be remembered that up until two years ago they had lived here in Juneau a good many years. They have returned to their homes in the States; the Larsen's to Edmonds, Washington, and Brother Lindtner Skeie to Paradise, California.

On September 25 Brother and Sister John Turner and Mrs. Turner's mother, Sister Bayers, left on the Turner's fishing yacht the Cheerio for Seattle and other parts of the States. While in Seattle they plan to avail themselves of some needed medical attention and then they plan to visit friends and relatives and do a bit of traveling before returning to Juneau.

The Ingathering reports are coming in from the churches, and they look most encouraging. We believe we will have a good increase in our Ingathering this year.

Juniors Share Their Faith

A group of live-wire junior boys and girls from the Bend church are giving a good account of their faith. This active group of four juniors, including Bobby Ivy, Dale Beaulieu, Harold Aime, and Nancy Ivy, have been giving studies in two homes twice each week—every Tuesday and Friday night—for some time.

They have been taken to their place of meeting and sponsored by Brother R. O. VanTassel. However, the speaking and singing has been done by this group. Harold Aime has been in charge of the singing. Bobby Ivy has been the main speaker, although others have alternated with him. They have covered nearly an entire series of studies on our message. I am sure that the two homes that have been visited will be greatly influenced by the ministry of this quartet of juniors.

Bobby Ivy, at the age of 10, got up before a large M. V. rally in Redmond and gave a most remarkable testimony for the Share Your Faith activities of himself and his group of juniors at Bend.

Let us share our faith—not only every junior boy and girl, but every senior young person and every adult so that the work may be finished and that it can be said of us, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Portland Evangelistic Series

Several months ago the Oregon Conference called Elder A. O. Sage from California to give us the benefit of his many years of experience in the field of evangelism. After much planning and diligent prayer, Elder Sage and his corps of workers were able to secure the Playhouse Theater at Southwest 11th and Morrison, with a seating capacity of 1,371.

The meetings began with a double session on Sunday evening, September 16, and the house was filled to capacity and hundreds were turned away at each of the services when Elder Sage presented to the listeners a well-studied message on "Armageddon," delivered in a manner well fitting the hour in which we live.

A fine, loyal, hard-working group of workers are assisting in these meetings: Sister Mildred Ford and Sister Florence Backstrom as Bible workers; Clare Bishop, Adriel Chilson, Floyd Bresee and Richard Schwartz lead out in various phases of the effort, such as the book stand, ushering, visiting and ministering in the churches from Sabbath to Sabbath. We are also grateful to a loyal group of lay workers who unselfishly give of their time and effort night after night.

At the conclusion of our first meeting over 500 names of non-believers were received, and though the meetings have been going for several weeks the attendance and loyal support of our own people is very encouraging. Special emphasis is placed on working for those who have dropped by the wayside, and also with our young people, and plans are now being formulated to have the Associated Missionary Volunteer Society take an active part in these meetings, and also go into the homes for private study and prayer.

It is a special privilege for me to be assisting Elder Sage as his music director, because as a young lad I attended many of his meetings in California and received many blessings and much inspiration from them, which helped influence me to choose my life's work.

We solicit your prayers for a rich harvest of souls.

Klamath Falls Meetings Open

Sunday, October 7, Brother Lyle Cornforth and I began an evangelistic effort in the new Seventh-day Adventist church in Klamath Falls, Oregon.

We urge everyone who has relatives in or near Klamath Falls to write to us immediately giving names and addresses. Write to them too inviting them to attend our meetings.

Pray for the work in this mission field of Oregon.

Portland Federated Dorcas

The Portland Federated Dorcas Society will meet Tuesday, October 16, in the Sunnyside Methodist church, 3520 S. E. Yamhill Street, at 10 a.m. We are going to have as a special speaker, Elder J. H. Apigian. We are very anxious to have all the members of the Federated Dorcas present with a short, concise report of the work they have done since the last meeting of the Federation. We have a fine program outlined for the day and we hope all will respond.

Columbia Academy Ingathering

On September 20, twenty-two carloads of students and teachers from Columbia Academy went out on their annual Ingathering Field Day. The Lord blessed their efforts with many interesting experiences and good donations. As a result of the day's efforts $1,090.17 in cash were received. Besides this, a considerable amount of produce was collected, which was sold at auction on Saturday night September 29. This and other sources, brought our total Ingathering funds to $1,412.00. We praise God for blessing our humble efforts in behalf of His great cause.

At the present time we have 185 students enrolled in the academy. Of these 140 are dormitory students.

We are endeavoring to maintain a strong spiritual atmosphere at Columbia Academy. Mr. Donald Wesslen and Mr. Ira Jackson were chosen to lead out in the Sabbath school work. The student superintendents are Harold Eslinger and Ramona Homann and the secretaries are Nytta Pyke and Bob Heisler. The faculty members who are sponsoring the Missionary Volunteer work are Mr. Clyde Smith, Mr. Archie Devitt and Miss Delores LaPier. Assisting them are Jerry Rogers and Phyllis Edwards as M. V. leaders and Otis Lee and Rita Dykes as secretaries.

We are happy to have such a fine group of students here this year. It is our earnest desire that each student at Columbia Academy be drawn closer to his Master and receive that training which will prepare him for a place in the Lord's vineyard. Pray for us that we might attain to the high calling to which He has called us.

Oregon News

Elder V. T. Armstrong, president of the Far Eastern Division of the General Conference, spent a short time in Portland visiting his daughter, Mrs. Paul Stuart, and family. On Sabbath Elder Armstrong gave an interesting report to the Sunnyside church concerning the progress of the work in the Division. Elder Armstrong is in the United States to attend the session of the Fall Council.

During recent months the Rose Lodge church has completed a very fine remodeling program. They have carpeted the building and installed new seating. A dedicatory service was held Sabbath afternoon, September 29, Elder C. J. Ritchie preaching the dedicatory sermon.

Elder Ralph Gladden tells us that the new church school building at Newport has been finished and they have an excellent church school in operation.

The Tillamook church school has an enrolment of 50. Several years ago the church built a two-room school building. They find this building inadequate for their needs and are planning an immediate enlargement.

Mrs. Grace Jordon who was formerly connected with the Missouri Conference as an office secretary has joined our office staff to serve as secretary in the Missionary Volunteer Department.

Brother G. T. Chapman, manager of the Loma Linda Food Company, together with Brother Dwight Reck, sales manager, were in Portland recently planning with Brother Ralph Marshall, who is in charge of the Oregon sales, regarding expansion plans to care for the business in this territory. They report an excellent increase in the business of the food factory.

Elder E. F. Coy is planning to hold a series of meetings at Sutherlin and is arranging to erect an evangelistic tabernacle which can be moved later to another location in the district.

The Review

Next month a supreme effort will be made throughout North America to place the Review and Herald in every Seventh-day Adventist home. We know that those who read the Review from week to week are strong in the faith. The sermons, the mission reports, and material that comes through the columns of the Review is the very best that our denomination leaders are able to give to our people.

The Spirit of prophecy is very definite in its counsel concerning the Review being in the homes of all our people. We read, "Our people should make greater efforts to extend the circulation of the Review. If our brethren and sisters would only manifest greater earnestness and put forth more persevering efforts to accomplish this, it would be done. Every family should have this paper. And if they would deny themselves their darling luxuries, tea and coffee, many who do not now have its weekly visits might pay for the messenger of light to come into their household. Almost every family takes one or more secular papers, and these frequently contain love stories and exciting tales of villainy and murder which injure the minds of all who read them. Those who consent to do without the Review and Herald lose much. Through its pages, Christ may speak to them in warnings, in reproofs, and counsel, which would change the current of their thoughts, and be to them as the bread of life."—Testimonies, Vol. 4, p. 599.

If you know of someone who is not reading the Review, would you appoint yourself a committee of one to make a visit and see that the Review is placed in that home. Let us have 100 per cent reading the Review and Herald in Montana.

O. T. GARNER.

A Wonderful Experience

"I am sending in an order for my first books, and it has been a wonderful and happy experience. I sold $17 worth on my first three calls." So writes Sister Swanson of Pocatello who has just started out with her new soul-winning kit. If you have not gotten yours yet, send in to the Book and Bible House at once. You too will have a happy and wonderful experience. Little do we realize the blessing we could have if we would only try.

These fine books under God's blessing have a definite influence for good. As I worked with Brother John Hays the other day, going from home to home where he has sold many books in the past, it was thrilling to see this influence on the people's lives. Some talked just like Seventh-day Adventists as we enrolled them in the Bible Correspondence Course and knelt in prayer with them.

What a great harvest there will be some day from this work. Are you one whom the Lord is calling to this joyous work? Let us hear from you.

CHARLES ALLAWAY.

Literature Wanted

Mrs. Agnes Sage, 715 Turner St., Missoula, Montana, desires to receive copies of Our Little Friend, My Bible Story, tracts, also magazines and books suitable to use for missionary work.

Mt. Ellis Academy News

The staff of The Ellisonian, Mt. Ellis Academy year book, was chosen during a special meeting of the student body Wednesday, September 19. The following were elected: Carmen Miller, editor; Merna Yeatts, associate editor; Pauline Anderson and Rheta Woodland, advertising managers; Earl Witzel, snap editor; Duane Schaak and Marilyn Miller, typists; Dean Flint, recording secretary; Melvin Hayes, circulation manager.

Student body officers for the first semester include Marian Holman, president; Mary Nell McDowell, vice president; Rheta Woodland, secretary; Jack Blevins, chorister; Joe Humble, chaplain; Johnny Nystrom, treasurer; Marion Wold, sergeant-at-arms for the girls; Luther Harris, sergeant-at-arms for the boys; Don Holman, athletic secretary; Yvonne Badgley, pianist; Jean Kurtz, recording secretary.

The symphony orchestra, its instruments, and manner of presenting its music, was the theme of a study by Mr. Claris F. Way, instructor in music, for the chapel hour on Monday, September 24.

The regular chapel time on Tuesdays is reserved for the showing of an educational film. On Tuesday, September 25, a sound film in color was presented by Dean Wesley Parker which showed the various steps in the planting, cultivation, harvesting, and canning of the Hawaiian pineapple.

At the meeting of the Demosthenes Club on Thursday morning, September 27, Joe Humble was elected president, Mary Nell McDowell, vice-president, and Jean Kurtz, secretary.

The Missionary Volunteer meeting Sabbath afternoon, with Johnny Nystrom in charge, presented a program entitled, "Christian's Life in Song."

The Saturday night program consisted of a number of short films, among which was "Defense Against Atomic Attack," a community sing, and explorations in Alaska.

Brother J. W. Griffin spoke in the Livingston and Big Timber churches the last Sabbath in September.

It is a pleasure to have Elder G. W. Chambers, Missionary Volunteer secretary of the North Pacific Union, visiting Montana during the month of October. This past week end he and Elder S. H. Emery were in Missoula, Hamilton, Darby, Anaconda, and Butte.

Elder C. A. Woodland has been assisting colporteurs at Missoula and Kalispell.

Evangelistic meetings have been started in Big Timber by the men from the Conference office. Elder O. T. Garner was the first speaker on Sunday evening, September 30. Brother Claris Way was in charge of the music. We appreciate his good help. At the first meeting Misses Pauline Anderson and Arlene Gildroy helped with the music. We are happy to report a good attendance.

Advancement

We were made glad in the Educational Department this week to learn from the opening reports that we have a gain of more than one hundred and fifty students over last year. This is a larger gain than we have ever made in one single year. It is wonderful, and something to thrill the hearts of each of us; the spirit of Christian education has truly swept through the Upper Columbia Conference.

Several new schools were opened, and already some are planning to open next year. Pray that our mothers and fathers will be located and situated so that every child will have the benefits of a Christian education. Hundreds will be baptized as a direct result of the church schools. This new army of one hundred fifty, gained over last year, will be future workers in the cause of God. Let us work and strive that they may receive the very best possible training for their important work.

W. C. LOVELESS.

Ritzville Evangelistic Effort

With a rousing song service and a soul-stirring sermon on "Jesus Our Only Refuge," by Bill Loveless, the Ritzville, Washington, campaign was under way Sunday night, September 23. Sunny Liu opened the service by singing as his theme song, "Jesus Is The Sweetest Name I Know," with Clarence Klopfenstein at the console of the new Hammond organ. Then one hundred forty voices blended in singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and many other gospel songs.

The beautiful new American Legion hall has been acquired for these meetings and is very representative of God's work. We pray that God will send a great revival in this staunch Lutheran community.

Bill Loveless and Sunny Liu held a spring series in the little town of Washtucna, twenty-eight miles from Ritzville, and it is the plan to conduct meetings three nights a week in Ritzville and two nights a week in Wash-tucna. There are between fifty and seventy persons present every Sabbath at Washtucna now, and while the company has not been organized yet, a church building program is planned very definitely in the spring.

We are very grateful for the addition of Brother Clarence Klopfenstein and his family to the team. We know that God will bless, as His message is preached in word and song. We ask a sincere interest in your prayers that God will lead and that His work will be firmly established in this area.

Dorcas Societies Respond

Upper Columbia Conference Dorcas societies are responding generously to the appeal from the Kansas flood-stricken area. Word has just been received that the Pasco Dorcas Society alone has shipped 482 articles of clothing, bedding, etc., to that area.

If there are other Seventh-day Adventists who would care to send help to this needy place, the address is: Flood Relief Division, Seventh-day Adventist Welfare Society, Topeka Branch, Corner Fifth and Western, Topeka, Kansas.

The articles requested are: blankets, sheets, pillows, pillow slips, comforters, hand and bath towels, dish towels, clothing for over 90,000 children, 5-15 years of age, and clothing for infants 1-4 years of age.

Upper Columbia News

On Sabbath, September 29, Elder M. J. Perry was the speaker at the Golden-dale church service, and from there he continued to Walla Walla College to consult the officers of that M. V. society regarding plans for the school year.

Elder H. J. Perkins conducted the ordinance service at the Orchard Avenue church on September 29, and Brother R. S. Dexter visited the various divisions of the Veradale Sabbath school that Sabbath.

Elder W. C. Loveless spoke to an unusual audience at the eleven o'clock service at the Washtucna church last week. Of sixty persons in attendance, just twenty were members, the remaining being interested persons—results of the evangelistic effort conducted by William Loveless and Sunny Liu.

The mail response to "The Bible Man" radio program has been very encouraging. As many as 76 pieces of mail have been received in one day. The 20th Century Bible Course has been announced only once thus far on the broadcast, and over 30 people have requested the course from hearing that

The prayers of all Seventh-day Adventists for the work of this broadcast and other broadcasts by our ministers are appreciated.

It has been found necessary to change the time of "The Bible Man" program. Beginning October 1, it is being heard at 7:45-8:15 a.m., Monday through Friday, instead of 8:00-8:30 a.m.

En route to the Autumn Council in Cleveland, Elder F. A. Mote, acting president of the Australasian Division and former president of the Upper Columbia Conference, visited at the conference office, and the Spokane church was delighted to have him as their speaker at the church service on Sabbath, September 29. Other visitors to the office about the same time have been Elder V. T. Armstrong, president of the Far Eastern Division, Elder W. L. Pasco, treasurer of the Australasian Division and Elder H. G. Moulds, president of the Trans-Commonwealth Union of that division.

OBITUARIES

Wall—Marjorie Louise Wall, infant daughter of Brother and Sister Ernest Wall, passed away at Salem, Oregon, on June 29, 1951 in the fourth year of her life. Her father is a ministerial student at Walla Walla College. Our hearts go out to them in their bereavement.

Maxson—Services were held in Colville, Wash., for Mrs. Clara Belle Maxson who passed away in that city. Sister Maxson was married in 1898 to E. D. Maxson who is serving as local church elder in Colville, and to this union were born two daughters and one son. We extend our sincere sympathy to Brother Maxson, Mrs. Verna Wise and Mrs. Francis Hagar of Colville, Wash., and L. E. Maxson of Spokane, also to Mrs. Della Whiting, a sister of the deceased. Left to mourn also are nine grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Teachers' Convention

The 1951 educational convention of S.D.A. college teachers was held on the beautiful campus of Emmanuel Missionary College, August 20-28. Elders Cossentine and Reynolds of the General Conference Department of Education had charge of the convention and led out in the morning devotional periods. A spirit of Christian fellowship and friendly cooperation was manifest throughout the meeting. The section meetings included scheduled lectures, formal papers, and round table discussions with emphasis placed on the latter. Walla Walla College had four representatives as follows: Business Administration—Dr. Wilbert Schneider, Secretarial Science—Miss Myrtle Walker, Home Economics—Miss Daisy Schluntz, and Industrial Arts—Mr. Jake Walcker.

Business Administration

This section was under the chairmanship of Dr. Wilbert Schneider of Walla Walla College and it held joint meetings with the Secretarial Science group. One such meeting was the panel discussion on current educational problems conducted by Mr. Ludwig of the South Western Publishing Company. Group discussions centered around two basic considerations: how to train young people to assume responsibility more effectively, and how to improve teaching methods, as well as techniques of instruction.

Secretarial Science

This section made a perfect score in having a representative from every junior and senior college in both the United States and Canada. This provided an excellent opportunity to consider mutual problems such as a closer harmony in the offerings among our various schools. Definite progress was made toward the production of material to be used in specific training for denominational offices. A profitable day was spent at Gregg Teachers College in Chicago, where two leaders in the field, Mr. Leslie and Dr. Rowe from Columbia University, were conducting a seminar in shorthand and typing. Later Dr. Rowe spent a full day with our group where he gave much valuable help. On a tour of the campus he was not only surprised but greatly impressed with the size and efficiency of the school plant.

Home Economics

Twelve of the eighteen members of the College Home Economics section were present at this convention. They considered it to be one of the best and most profitable meetings of its kind ever held. Miss Beatrice Holquist of Emmanuel Missionary College was its chairman. One of the main burdens of the group was meeting the great need for home economics trained young women qualified to serve both at home and in mission fields. Much study was given to the training of cafeteria managers for both academies and colleges. College syllabi and curriculums were discussed and revised. New methods of teaching were demonstrated. Suggestions were made for gaining better nutrition in the home. A high light of the convention for this group was a field trip to the research laboratory of the Evaporated Milk Association, as well as the University of Chicago.

Industrial Arts

This group met for the first time this year and was under the direction of Professor Fischer from Pacific Union College. There was inspiration in the great interest and fine cooperation the men manifested in their attempt to bring about coordination and standardization of both course and subject matter. The group was asked to establish a set of objectives in harmony with the Spirit of prophecy which would serve as a criterion in the applied arts phase of our educational program. A few field trips were arranged and on these several industrial areas near the college were visited. All present found the meetings wholesome, helpful, and inspiring. The members left with great confidence in the hope of accomplishing the high objectives of Christian education. They were encouraged by the parting words of Dr. Keld Reynolds who said, "This group is making history for the denomination."

A. T. S. Temperance Booth

The W. W. C. chapter of the A. T. S. was successful in getting space for a booth at the Southeastern Washington fair August 31 through September 3. A novel exhibit was arranged consisting of a huge beer bottle from which a continual flow of colored liquid poured down over a glass jug full of beer bottle caps and into a large box on the face of which appeared pictures of the results of drinking. Observers were reminded that one out of sixteen who start to drink end up in the hopeless condition of the alcoholics and drug addicts pictured there.

As a method of making sure that people stopped and looked at the exhibit, a prize was offered to the one guessing the number of bottle caps in the jug. A total of 1503 guesses were received and Mrs. Jeanette Blize of 510 S. 2nd avenue, Walla Walla, won by guessing the exact number. Double reply type post cards are being sent to all participants telling the winning number and the name of the winner and offering free temperance literature to all who reply. In this way a mailing list of interested people will be developed.

The theme of the booth was told in a large banner announcing that beverage alcohol is our worst narcotic problem. A display case contained many of the tools of narcotic addiction including authentic Chinese opium scales with a bamboo case, an opium pipe and other articles. Each piece was properly labeled as to its use including a beer mug, a wine glass and a whiskey glass which were labeled as "containers commonly used in taking the narcotic drug ethyl alcohol." Attention was called to an article in the current Reader's Digest which stated that most dope addicts start by drinking.

About 6,500 pieces of literature were given away. These were about half Listen magazines and the rest were anti-narcotic numbers of Our Little Friend, and our own leaflet showing the activities of the college chapter.

Ralph Hartnell of Universal Arts worked closely with President Harold Dawson in setting up the exhibit and did the sign work. Drapes from his portrait studio helped to make the booth outstanding for its attractive beauty.

Helping as attendants and in preparing the booth were Bud Cummings, Clarabel Nobbe, Lynn Goyne, Harry Parks, Donald and Joyce Lund, Ruby Knapp, Stanley Shaber, Melvin and Darlene Wolford, and Estel Richardson.

The floor lamp which helped to light the booth and served as the prize was donated by Stateline Furniture Company, the lights were furnished by John's Electric of College Place, and the pump which kept the liquid flowing was loaned by Harold Electric of Walla Walla. Paul Johnson of Walla Walla College was the photographer.

WEDDINGS

On the evening of September 5 in Shelton, Washington, George Purvis and Hazel Scott were married in a lovely outdoor garden setting at the home of the bride by Elder Glenn E. Patterson.

Betty Marlys Horn became the bride of Leon Kurtz in the Seventh-day Adventist church in Austin, Minnesota, on February 18. Elder M. C. Horn, father of the bride, performed the ceremony. The couple are living in College Place where Mr. Kurtz is attending Walla Walla College as a theology student.
