They Were Twelve

They were not imposing by their number, this little Seventh-day Adventist group at Carlentini, Sicily. They were just twelve—like the apostles; and, like the founders of the Christian Church, they had decided to follow their Master whatever the cost.

They had come together through various avenues of providence. For some, the printed page had brought them a knowledge of the Advent message. For others, the "preaching of the word" through personal witnessing had been the way of salvation. Month after month they grew in number and continued faithfully to attend church services at Lentini. Every Sabbath they traveled, most of them on foot, to this neighboring village.

Now they were twelve, and they had decided to organize themselves as a church and to search for a meeting place in their own town. The undertaking was no small one in Carlentini. Would it be possible to rent a meeting place? Could prejudice be overcome? It was doubtful. And they had no money to purchase a hall.

A brother—one of the twelve offered his dwelling. This was gladly accepted, and each Sabbath the furniture was moved out of the dining room, so as to make room for the twelve and the many interested friends.

The brother's apartment was on the second story, and the floor was not very strong. With the growing attendance, the floor became so shaky that it was no longer safe to continue the meetings.

There was much prayer and searching, until finally a modest little hall was found that could be rented. The twelve worked hard to renovate it. In the end it served its purpose well as an attractive, comfortable evangelistic center.

The little church was happy and prosperous. The attendance continued to grow, and the number of members increased, until a major difficulty appeared on the horizon. This was a summons from the chief of police to close the meeting hall.

"What crime was committed?" protested the church elder.

There was no crime nor misconduct. The order had come from superior governmental authorities. Steps were taken to find the reasons that had motivated the order. Very simply, the town priest, fearful of the growing influence of the Adventist church, had intrigued and connived so that the authorities would close the church. He thought this would discredit the Advent message in the eyes of his village parishioners.

The church was closed and remained closed for two years. The conference organization, with the support of the Southern European Division Religious Liberty Department, worked hard to enlighten the authorities and to obtain the re-opening of our hall. So far these efforts have not been crowned with success, though God is doubtless working in a wonderful way.

Meanwhile, the church at Carlentini is meeting again in its hall. The authorities have not opened the doors, but in an act of faith our members have returned to their church and are again meeting unmolested.

Apostolic witnessing has come to its own in this sector. The members of this little church have adopted as a motto: "We seek our brethren." The result is encouraging. Little groups now are meeting in neighboring localities. The light of the everlasting gospel shines brighter in the darkness and superstition which still envelop so many of Sicily's four million people.

Shall we not remember daily these faithful witnesses in Sicily. Let us pray God to send His angel hosts to their rescue, and then let us give generously for the development of this work when we bring our Thirteenth Sabbath Offering to the Lord's treasury on June 7.

W. R. BEACH, President,
Southern European Division.

Let's Give Them Leadership

"Since today's children will be tomorrow's leaders, the only way to make sure that they will lead well is to give them good leadership today."

These are the words of Dr. Buel Gallagher, president of the College of the City of New York, as quoted in the April, 1953, issue of The Child.

"We must work very hard on today's adults," Dr. Gallagher continues. "There is no other way to make sure that those who today lead tomorrow's leaders will not corrupt and ruin the bright hope on which mankind must rely."

"Each older generation piously hopes that its successors will be able to avoid the mistakes of its forerunners and triumph over the legacy of difficulty bequeathed to it," he states. "Yet each oncoming generation is forced to grow up in a world where adults set the patterns of control and determine the possibilities of growth."

The above thought-provoking words should stop each parent, teacher, and potential leader of youth in his tracks. If those who know not the tremendous events which lie in the near future are concerned over the future of today's youth, how much more concerned should be those who know that earth's race is almost run, and that Jesus soon will appear!

We owe much to the army of consecrated, self-sacrificing teachers who have cared for and instructed our boys and girls during the last school year. However, our schools have closed now. What kind of training will be given during the summer months to "tomorrow's leaders"? Will they lose much of the benefit of the character-building leadership given them by Christian teachers because we neglect them during the summer, or will they be given proper leadership by those who are both willing and able to help them? The answers to these important questions rest with each pastor, each district leader, and each church board.

What can—and should—be done for our youth during the summer? Here are some suggestions:

1. Organize Pathfinder Clubs in each church.

2. Select as leaders for these clubs a young man and a young women, preferably those who are Master Guides.

3. Encourage both leaders and Pathfinders to get uniforms.

4. Assist the Pathfinder leaders and their groups in planning a full and happy summer which will include MV Class work, hikes, over-night camps, and excursions to points of interest.

5. Urge every boy and girl to attend summer camp. Assist those who are unable to pay their way.

6. Provide well-planned social activities at least once a month for the youth of the church.

7. Support the youth of the church in conducting successful MV and JMV meetings, and lead them into some type of missionary activity.

Your conference MV secretary will be glad to assist you in working out the details for the above plans.

Give them leadership now!

A Message to Sabbath School Superintendents

Apparently there is a little misunderstanding as to the conducting of the ten minute church missionary service each Sabbath. Some superintendents have evidently assumed that this service is a part of the Sabbath school. Frequently we observe that the superintendent introduces the church missionary leader and after the missionary service, the superintendent announces, "We will now close our Sabbath school with a hymn (or prayer)." This is the wrong procedure.

The missionary service is a separate service and is not under the direction of the Sabbath School Department. A Sabbath school superintendent is entirely out of place in assuming that this service is a part of the Sabbath school. The missionary service is a separate and distinct service under the direction of the church missionary leader. The missionary leader, not the Sabbath school superintendent, opens, conducts, and closes the missionary service.

The Sabbath school is desirous of cooperating with the missionary leader in every way possible. It is a General Conference recommendation that to avoid unnecessary confusion that there be no regular dismissal of the Sabbath school with a song or benediction, but at the close of the allotted seventy minutes for the Sabbath school, both the superintendent and the missionary leader go on to the rostrum together. The superintendent merely calls the school to order, makes any closing remarks he deems necessary, and without song or benediction, turns the time over to the church missionary leader. Sabbath school is then closed. The superintendent has no further responsibilities as far as the service for that Sabbath is concerned. The missionary leader, not the Sabbath school superintendent, closes the missionary service with prayer, possibly preceded by one stanza of a song if there is time.

We are confident that all our Sabbath school superintendents will gladly cooperate in following the recommended procedure.

B. M. PRESTON.

Student Scholarship Campaign

Beginning early in June a large number of students will go out from our academies and Walla Walla College for the purpose of placing our message-filled publications in the homes of non-Adventists, and also to earn scholarships with which they will return to our schools this fall and continue their program of Christian education. Approximately fifty students will enter the field, and this will afford our brethren and sisters throughout the Union Conference territory an opportunity to aid these students in their work by inviting them to their homes and supplying them with board and room where facilities are available.

The student colporteur campaign is not an easy task. To spend approximately forty weeks in college or in academies during which time they are on constant expense requires that the student put in long hours at canvassing during the twelve weeks he can be in the field. To be successful our students must work long hours and visit many homes with our message-filled publications. Let us pray for these workers. Let us encourage them and invite them into our homes for the week ends and help them in every way to be successful in the summer's campaign.

M. V. TUCKER.

New Junior Sabbath School Lesson Medium

We hereby call attention to the fact that the Sabbath school lessons for juniors, which for many years have appeared in the Youth's Instructor, will in the near future be transferred to the new junior journal. The publishers are planning to have this new junior paper in our churches and homes by October. After October the Instructor will no longer carry the junior Sabbath school lessons. Just to make sure that no one misses out on the lessons during the transition period, the junior lessons will be carried in both the Instructor and the junior journal for the month of October.

Every Sabbath school with junior members should be alerted to this change-over, so that an ample supply of junior papers will be on hand for distribution beginning with the first issue in October. We suggest that Sabbath school superintendents ascertain the number of copies of the Youth's Instructor that are now going to the junior division and instruct the church missionary secretary to order this same number of junior papers to replace the Instructor. In other words the standing order for the Instructor, so far as the number being used by the juniors is concerned, should be transferred to the new junior journal. It is our understanding that the publishers will make an equitable adjustment on unexpired Instructor subscriptions if the request is made before August 20. Orders placed before October will be filled at the pre-publication price of $2.95. After October the price of single subscriptions will be $3.75, and the club price will be $2.95. So take advantage of this saving, and order now.

It may be found that more junior papers are needed than the number of Instructors now going to the junior division. In that case, additional subscriptions should be ordered. Let us make sure that all juniors, so far as possible, have their junior paper in ample time for the first lesson in October. And at the same time, let us be sure that the youth in our Sabbath schools are supplied with the Youth's Instructor, which will continue to carry the youth lessons in their new and improved style.

The Right Arm in Action

Recent word from Dr. John E. Potts informs us that the attendance at the meetings referred to in a recent GLEANER article has grown so that Elder C. C. Rouse, pastor of the Walla Walla church, has found it necessary to conduct two meetings a week! There was not room in the parlor of the nurses home for the 112 people who came one night. Now meetings are held Sunday and Monday nights by Elder Rouse and his corps of workers.

This wonderful interest was aroused by the harmonious action of the members of the Blalock Memorial Foundation and the pastor of the church. The full membership of the Blalock Memorial Foundation is as follows: Ivan C. Bohlman, M.D.; John E. Bohlman, D.M.D.; Harlan P. Kahler, M.D.; C. Don Platner, M.D.; Melvin Binder, D.M.D.; Cpt. Wilbur H. Goertz, D.M.D.; Laura M. Miller, M.D.; Oscar H. Neumann, M.D.; Elder C. Lester Bond; Dr. Wilbert Schneider; Harold Shryock, M.D.; Mr. Jack Hubbs; Orville E. Eros, D.M.D.; Glen V. Axford, M.D.; Allan B. Cafferky, M.D.; Oscar Lundeen, M.D.; Jack A. Woodhall, D.M.D.; Alfred N.

Boyd, D.M.D.; T. R. Thompson, D.M.D.; Lawrence Miller, D.M.D.; John E. Potts, M.D.; Dr. Ernest Booth.

We hope that more medical groups will team up with our ministers so that the mighty "right arm" of the message will have full freedom of action.

G. W. CHAMBERS.

Tune In—Adventist Mission Activities Featured

The mission work of Seventh-day Adventists is being depicted on the National Council's "Let There Be Light" radio series, released on 250 stations in North America, for four consecutive weeks—June 15, 22, 29 and July 6. Most of the stations will air these programs on those dates, but check your local newspaper to be sure. The first release, called "The Silver Star," tells the story of a Seventh-day Adventist medic in Korea. Other programs feature the Montemorelos Hospital in Mexico, our work on the Amazon, and a leper hospital in Africa. We are grateful to the National Council for this free time and feel it is a fine opportunity to present the mission activities of Seventh-day Adventists to neighbors and friends.

The "Let There Be Light" series is broadcast in the North Pacific Union over the following stations. Where time of broadcast is not given, be sure to check your local newspaper:

Idaho: KIFI Idaho Falls (10:30 P.M. Tues.), KBIO Burley, KBLI Blackfoot (4:00 P.M. Sun.).

Montana: KXLJ Helena, KOOK Billings (9:15 A.M. Wed.).

Oregon: KWRC Pendleton, KOAC Corvallis, KWJJ Portland (6:15 P.M. Sun.), KTIL Tillamook.

Clothing and Food Received Overseas

During 1952 the General Conference World Welfare and Relief Depot, located on the campus of the Monterey Bay Academy in California, shipped clothing and food to a number of needy countries. Korea, Pakistan, India, Africa, the Philippines, Haiti and Italy were among the countries to receive help. Dr. G. H. Rue, medical superintendent of our hospital at Pusan, Korea, writes as follows:

"We are in the process of clearing customs for the last shipment of 50 tons of food that has come from your Depot. It will not be long before this large shipment will be going out to our people and to others who are in need. "The two previous shipments (about 100,000 pounds) of clothing have been distributed. Some of this clothing was given to needy people not of our faith. It has created a very good impression. This last winter has been a severe one, and the food and clothing that has come has helped out in a marked way.

"We deeply appreciate all the help that you have sent us. Our people at home surely are generous and it is remarkable what has been done."

In a letter from Mrs. Shirley C. Johnson, Dorcas Welfare secretary of the West Pakistan Union, to the welfare and Dorcas leaders and workers in America, she expresses the great satisfaction and joy that was brought to many thousands of the poor people of that large field through the gift of clothing sent to them during 1952.

During 1952 we received at the World Welfare and Relief Depot over 402,000 pounds of clothing. This clothing was sent here from nearly every state in the United States and even from Alaska. This either has gone to needy fields or will soon be on its way, with the exception of the amount we must stock to care for emergencies. "He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord."

WEDDINGS

On Sunday evening, March 29, a beautiful candlelight ceremony took place in the Columbia Auditorium chapel, when Millie Sweitz became the bride of Dale Folkes. The ceremony was read by C. G. McKeown. May God richly bless this young couple as they establish their home in Oakland, California, where he is employed.

On Sunday night, May 3, in a service in the Salem Seventh-day Adventist church, Bernita Burgess exchanged marriage vows with Allwin F. Kenfield. Both young people live in Salem and will make their new home in that city. We surely wish them well in life's journey. The service was read by Elder R. G. Schaffner.

On the evening of March 28, a beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Music Conservatory auditorium on the campus of Walla Walla College when Miss Marilyn Ann Bruset of Bruset, Montana, became the bride of Orville H. Schultz. The ceremony was read by Elder H. A. Schultz of Kalispell, Montana. We pray God's richest blessing upon them as they walk life's pathway together.

Jaunette Wright and Dale McVay were united in marriage by Elder Leon Robbins, May 24, in the College Place, Washington, church. Mr. and Mrs. McVay will make their home at Loon Lake, Washington. We invoke the Lord's blessing upon this newly established home.

Commencement Week End

June 5 to 7 is commencement time at Walla Walla College. About 135 seniors expect to receive degrees June 7 including 5 master's degree candidates. The Friday evening consecration service will be conducted by Elder LeRoy E. Froom, General Conference field secretary, who lives in Washington, D.C. Elder Froom studied here in 1911. The college will award him an honorary doctor of laws (LLD) degree in recognition of his monumental four volume work on the Spirit of prophecy which will soon come from the press. Elder Arthur Roth is secretary of the Inter-American Division with headquarters in Miami, Florida. He completed a B.Th. at WWC in 1934 and is returning to his alma mater to give the baccalaureate sermon at 11:00 a.m., June 6. The commencement address will be given at 2:00 p.m. Sunday, June 7, by Doctor Philip S. Nelson of Seattle. He graduated with the class of 1924 and his son, Martin, is a member of the class of 1953. These programs will be held in Columbia Auditorium and the public is cordially invited to attend them.

Alumni Activities

It is traditional for the alumni to take charge of Sabbath school graduation week end. In harmony with this plan President Harold Schwartz and his executive committee are preparing the program for June 6. Be sure to attend this annual alumni feature. If you know of alumni planning to be present please notify Principal Schwartz at the academy or at his residence. Social Vice President Kathleen Keen-Zolber announces that the annual alumni social and business meeting will be held in Conard Hall dining room Sunday, June 7. Breakfast will be served from 8:30 to 10:00 and the business meeting will be called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Schwartz. In addition to the election of officers, a number of other important business matters will be considered and appropriate actions taken. A special invitation is extended to all 1953 seniors, graduates, staff members, and former students to attend this meeting. Come and enjoy a visit with friends whether you care to eat or not, and be sure to be on time for the business session. Ivan C. Bohlman, M.D., will change from president-elect to president and other officers will be inducted into office.

Band Programs

The Walla Walla College concert band will give a full evening program at 8:30 in Columbia Auditorium, June 6. The numbers include several well known marches such as Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever." A first presentation of Fauchet's second movement of "Symphony in B flat" for band will be given. Senior majors Sydney Stewart, Leland Quinn, and Don Latsha will each direct the band in the presentation of a number. A trumpet trio, Tom Steele, Sydney Stewart, and Melvin Warnock will play the "Three Trumpeters" by Agostini. David Grauman, Wallace Platner, and Ed Burnett will play "The Blind Mice" as a clarinet trio. Avonelle Brown, senior soprano major, will sing the aria, "Cara Nome" from Rigoletto by Verdi and will be accompanied by the band. For this program the band cordially invites all former members to return and play with it during the evening performance.

The college band will join the A Cappella choir in a sacred concert Sabbath afternoon at 4:30 in front of the music conservatory. In addition to the regular band numbers, solos will be played by Sydney Stewart, Leland Quinn, and Don Latsha. Other numbers to be furnished by band members include a clarinet trio for the Friday evening consecration service, and a brass quartet for the Sunday afternoon commencement service.

New Dietetics Course

Endeavoring to meet a real need in our schools and sanitariums Walla Walla College is offering for the first time this fall a four year course in dietetics. Previously we have offered a two year course in pre-dietetics, the students completing their course on the campus at Loma Linda. With the added courses in the Home Economics department it will be possible for a student to complete the four years here receiving a bachelor of science degree with a major in Foods and Nutrition. Following graduation, a year of internship at Loma Linda or an approved hospital training course will qualify the student for active membership in the American Dietetics Association.

The demand for these professionals far exceeds the supply of qualified applicants. So great is the need that it is safe to say that nearly all of our academies and colleges are deplorably short of dietitians. At the rate openings are occurring in our hospitals and sanitariums many years will pass before all positions will be filled.

A full description of the course will be published at a later date. For further information write the Home Economics Department, Walla Walla College.

Summer School

June 9 is the date for the 1953 summer session at WWC. Plan now to attend and be sure to be present at the 8:00 a.m. convocation in the library chapel since class offerings will be decided at that time. A strong staff and wide variety of offerings has been arranged by Dean Sonnenberg, who is director of the summer session.

Alumni at San Francisco

Elder Eugene Sample, president of the Mountain View chapter, invites all graduates, former staff members, and former students to join its members in an alumni supper at the Clinton Cafeteria Wednesday evening, June 17, from 5 to 7. Come and eat whatever you like and meet as many friends as possible. President G. W. Bowers and Dean H. L. Sonnenberg will represent the college at this important meeting. Recent kodachrome slides of the college buildings and campus will be shown. The notice did not specify the location of the cafeteria, but it is assumed to be at the corner of 7th and Market.

More Alumni

Lloyd Reisinger of Sunnyside, Washington, is sponsoring a meeting to be held in the Wapato church school hall Sunday, June 28. It tentatively is scheduled as a pot luck supper at 7 p.m. All alumni, former teachers, staff members, and former students from Pasco to Ellensburg and Golden-dale to Omak are invited to attend. Details will be given later.

Gem State Academy Graduation

Eighteen fine young people were graduated from the Gem State Academy over the week end of May 22-24. Elder G. W. Chambers, MV Secretary of the North Pacific Union Conference, delivered a challenging consecration service on Friday evening. The entire class responded to the call for a complete consecration to God and to His cause.

Sabbath morning, several of the seniors participated in a fine Sabbath service. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Elder A. J. Gordon, president of the Idaho Conference. A full house was in attendance.

At 3:30 P.M. Sabbath afternoon, our outstanding a cappella choir gave a beautiful sacred program which all enjoyed.

On Saturday night the Seniors gave their class program, which was outstanding. Every part was nicely given.

The final service came at 10 A.M. Sunday morning at which time Dean Fabian Meier gave the commencement address. His message was very practical and timely and greatly appreciated by graduates and audience alike.

The school and the graduates are to be highly commended for an excellent week end, which was well planned. The music was very lovely indeed, and most inspiring.

All eighteen graduates hope to be in Walla Walla College next year. May God bless these fine young people as they further their training for greater service.

We wish to thank Professor and Mrs. G. L. Beane for a job well done and to wish them God's richest blessing as they leave us for the Oregon Conference. Parents and students desiring information regarding school next year should address Elder B. M. Kurtz who will be taking over the principalship of Gem State Academy about June 7.

Our Summer Camp

"The test of the pudding is in the eating." The test of a camp is in the response of the campers.

Campers talking:

"This is the best time of my life."

"I wish we could have two weeks, or even a month wouldn't be too long."

"I'm starting early to earn my money next year."

"M-m-m-m, this sure tastes good." (Heard in the dining room.)

"I'm bringing my brother next year."

Mother speaking:

"Really, Mr. Werner, Fred is a different boy!"

"I want the boys to go again."

"Dad and I would rather miss our vacation than to have the girls lose out on camp."

"I was afraid they'd get homesick but they didn't. Camp has done something for the children." Etc., etc., etc.

On April 26, 1952, you responded heartily to an invitation of the Conference Committee and your MV Secretary to donate for MV Camp improvement. How was your money used? We tore out the wreckage of the 10-year-old bridge that had been crushed by the winter's snow. We put in two reinforced concrete piers, 30 feet apart which we spanned with six large, peeled, and creosoted logs that were covered with heavy plank-ing. We hauled in 200 yards of "fill-in" on both ends to improve the approaches. The road into the camp was leveled and the entrance improved with a good gate that can be locked. Two sanitary rest rooms were built. All of this was done with your help, at a cost of only $850.

This year, we invite you to help liberally again. June 27, the last Sabbath of the month, has been designated by the conference committee. We must restore the infirmary that was torn down because of a falling tree. It should be built as a duplex with accommodations for the nurse and the patients. The decaying refrigerator must be replaced. We again need your help. Make your offering for MV Camp on June 27 a liberal one.

A. J. WERNER.

Gem State Academy Bakery

"True education . . . is the harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual powers."

—Education, p. 13. We are most grateful to God for this wonderful instruction. It is the purpose of our Gem State Academy to carry out this counsel and to give to our students a complete training.

Our believers in the Idaho Conference will be happy to know the part that the Gem State Academy Bakery is having in bringing about this goal. In summing up its activities we are happy to report the following:

In the past five years the bakery has provided $20,000 in student labor. During the summer months the pay roll includes 12 to 15 students. The winter pay roll is 25 to 30 students. The bakery offers a baking class where students receive the fundamentals of baking as well as other practical experience. You will be happy to know that at least three of our young men who have been called into the service of our country are baking for Uncle Sam. One young man recently wrote to his parents telling them how thankful he is that he attended Gem State Academy and took classes in baking.

A fleet of nine modern Chevrolet trucks are maintained to feature house-to-house retail bakery service in the Boise Valley. The bread that is used in the school dining room, as well as baked goods sold in the vicinity, is made at our bakery.

Nine full-time salesmen and two full-time bakers contribute to the church, the church school, and the academy from salaries paid by the bakery.

Recently, the plant installed nearly $5,000 worth of modern baking equipment. This has greatly helped to put out even a nicer product, and has increased our output.

From the bakery earnings last year, nearly $1,200 was contributed to various purposes including $765 toward the purchase of the new folding chairs used in the auditorium at the academy.

Let us pray for our school. Plan for your boy or girl of academy age to be in Gem State Academy next year to receive an education that includes the head, the heart, and the hand. A training that "prepares the student for the joy of service in this world, and for the higher joy of wider service in the world to come."—Ibid.

Church Effort Proves Successful

Evangelistic services in the Eugene-Springfield area, conducted in the new Eugene church, have reached a fruitful conclusion. The October-through-May effort was concluded on Sunday, May 3, and a baptism of 12 more precious souls was conducted by Elder D. D. Doleman on Sabbath, May 9. This brought the total of individuals baptized during the effort to 62.

We are grateful to God for the blessed privilege of introducing men and women to the Saviour, and trust that this "church effort" will be only the beginning of an increasingly rich "church experience" to those newly baptized. We pray that they will continue faithful until the time when the church, as the bride of Christ, shall enter into the marriage (supper) of the lamb.

Civil Defense

The Federal Government has advised that "these are the gravest days of our history, and we must realize that we are up against the grimmest problem we have ever faced, or ever may face. As individuals and as a nation we must learn to save ourselves, and we must learn it fast."

The Government calls for twenty million Americans to undergo volunteer training in first aid, home nursing, disaster relief, fire fighting and other services for the saving of life and property.

"Civil defense is a way of saving life and property. It is a way of protecting you and your family in case of enemy attack on the United States. It is a way of helping you to keep going in spite of attacks with modern weapons of warfare, including the use of bacteria, chemicals and nerve gas; and particularly in rural communities it is a way of helping others."

It has been voted that we look with favor upon plans herein recommended by the Oregon Conference Civil Defense Committee, and urge our conference, church, and school leadership to lend their hearty support to the carrying out of the plans outlined below:

I. Church buildings have been designated as emergency public lodgings.

A. The local church group is expected to conduct the lodging during its occupancy.

B. Church board should appoint a committee, in cooperation with the welfare service of the local Civil Defense organization, to study how and to arrange for organizing the different services required, such as the following:

1. Director and assistant director. (These persons will be in control of all essential services and will need the following assistants:)

a. Cooks who can do mass feeding.
b. Police to maintain order.
c. Medical personnel to provide for first aid, nursing, obstetrical, and other medical services.

d. Fire protection.
e. Truck service to maintain supplies.
f. Motor service for emergencies.
g. Spiritual ministrations.
h. Child care.
i. Entertainment.
j. There will be other services needed according to local conditions.

II. Schools located in strategic areas have been designated as emergency hospitals, and will be taken over by the local Medical Organization.

A. School board and P.T.A. should study the Civil Defense Manual for Oregon schools and adopt a plan of action under emergency conditions.

B. Children should be drilled to know how to act in an emergency and thus avoid panic and unnecessary injuries.

III. Household Preparation.

A. Every family should prepare a first aid kit and learn how to use it to meet emergencies.

B. As far as possible it is advisable that one member in each family take the first aid, home nursing, and disaster relief instruction.

C. Persons living in metropolitan areas should locate the safest place in their home, to be used for an air-raid shelter. They should equip this shelter with supplies which might be used during an emergency, such as shovels, flashlight, portable radio, first-aid kit, food supplies, blankets and fire extinguisher.

D. Every home should contain a five days' food supply for use during emergencies.

E. The public should know how to get official civil defense information during an emergency. They will be requested to remain at home, stay off the telephones, and to listen to the radio for authentic information. Only frequencies to be used by radio broadcast stations before and during enemy attacks are 640 and 1240 on the home receiver dial.

F. While various organizations including church groups form their own rescue and protective organization, they are an integral part of the community civil defense provision, and during an emergency would function in cooperation with such government directed defense program aimed at providing maximum protection during any large scale disaster.

IV. Government Information Bulletin M-28 contains the following words: "One of the basic principles upon which Civil Defense is built is 'self-help.' This means the individual, the family, and the office, the factory or the church group, is each expected, in event of a large-scale incident, to take care of itself to the limit of its ability and resources. This includes being able to give first aid treatment to those injured, and this in turn requires a certain amount of first aid supplies. It should be noted however, that first aid materials are already in short supply and this situation will probably not improve for some time. The solution, therefore, is to purchase a minimum amount of material and improvise the remainder."

For further information regarding Civil Defense preparation as related to your group, address H. C. Menkel, M. D., 614 E. 10th Street, McMinnville, Oregon.

New Publishing Secretary

*Some time ago Brother Eugene Tucker accepted a call to the leadership of the Publishing Department of the Montana Conference. Since that time the conference committee has been seeking for someone to give leadership to this important phase of our work.

I am pleased to report to our constituency that we have been led of God to select Brother C. P. Lampson of South Lancaster, Massachusetts, as our Publishing Department Secretary. For the past five years Brother Lampson has given strong leadership in the publishing work of the Southern New England Conference. He is recognized by all as a spiritual and efficient worker. We are happy that Brother and Sister Lampson have decided to accept our call. We also feel confident that our members will give them every support in the great task of placing truth-filled literature in the homes throughout our conference territory.

L. E. Froom Evangelistic Series

Elder L. E. Froom, General Conference Field Secretary, and author of The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers volumes, will present six prophetic messages in the Seattle Green Lake church, June 9 to 14. Meetings will begin nightly at 7:45. The exception to the schedule is Sabbath when the meeting will be held at 11:00 a.m. and omitted in the evening.

A special evangelistic series June 9-14

Elder L. E. Froom of the General Conference will present the series speaking nightly at 7:45 except Saturday, and on Sabbath morning at 11:00. Write to and invite or bring your non-Adventist friends and relatives to this prophetic series entitled:

terpretation will show that the Adventist presentations of the great prophecies belong to the historical school. He will point out that we are not nineteenth and twentieth century innovators, and that we have not departed from the ancient standard interpretations of the early church or of the great reformers. Rather he will present evidence that modern churches have departed from the teachings of their founders. This is exceedingly valuable information to have in presenting these prophecies to those of other faiths who are teaching such doctrines as a temporal millennium or the secret rapture and a doubtful anti-christ.

We invite all who are in the Seattle vicinity to share these good things with us and especially to bring their non-Adventist friends. We can assure you of a new appreciation of the solidarity of the foundations of our faith. A filled church is anticipated each evening. Every church member needs this vital information and will appreciate the informative and intensely interesting style of the speaker.

The research of Elder Froom has earned the acclaim of many non-Adventist students of prophecy and their appreciation is reflected in scores of book reviews and letters. We are honored to be his host and to present this unusual evangelistic series in the Seattle Green Lake church. The address is 6350 East Green Lake Way.

Camp Meeting Reservations

The Washington Conference camp meeting will be held this year from July 24 to August 1. The biennial conference session will precede the camp meeting, the first meeting being Wednesday evening, July 22; but the camp meeting proper will begin Friday evening, July 24.

We are now ready to accept reservations for tents and dormitory rooms for our camp meeting. Because of the number of students who will be working in the wood shop during the summer, less rooms are available than in past years. No rooms will be available in South Hall. Sixteen rooms are available upstairs in Gibson Hall, none downstairs; 11 rooms downstairs in Manous Hall, 22 upstairs.

In order to be absolutely fair to everyone, all reservations must be made by letter. No telephone orders will be accepted. It has been called to our attention that the GLEANER does not reach all the field at the same time, so we have decided to set a date when we know the GLEANER will have had time to reach everyone, and specify that no reservations may be made prior to that time. We feel that this will be fair to everyone. Therefore, NO reservations will be accepted which are postmarked BEFORE Monday, June 8. Reservations will be accepted in order of date of postmark. Should more requests for rooms be received, bearing the postmark of June 8, than we have rooms available, we will select one from each district, repeating this as many times as we have rooms available.

Tent orders may be sent in at any time. For your convenience we are listing below prices on rooms, tents and equipment available:

Washington Summer Camp

Young man, young woman, do you wish you were a better Christian? Do you desire to appreciate the natural world as the creation of a Supreme Power, and see phenomena there which the ordinary youth might pass by casually? Do you thrill to meet the challenge of trail and stream, and can you cope with the unexpected as you live in the out-of-doors? Are you discontented with ordinary living and long to know better means of employing leisure time in Christian recreation; heart culture, mind discipline,

There is but one place in the Washington Conference where you may realize all of these aspirations, and the teen-age camp is made for you.

Features arranged to date include a campcraft class which will emphasize a practical means of living in the out-of-doors, using that which the woods affords to construct camp furniture and prepare camp meals. Professor Eugene Winter of Walla Walla College, Mr. Ernest Waters, and Mr. Jan Doward, assisted by Mr. Horace Gates, of the Washington Conference will combine their efforts in this program.

We have recently secured Mr. Ome Daiber, a nationally known leader in mountain rescue work, recently featured in an article in the Saturday Evening Post as a campfire speaker for our young men's camps. He will thrill us with his personal experiences and also explain mountain rescue techniques.

The amount of swimming time available to the camp has been doubled, so each camper should be able to secure swimming honors or put in as much recreational swimming as he desires.

The wide range of new nature classes to be offered include mammals, insects, fungi, and alpine flowers and ferns, in addition to the regular offerings in trees, birds, and flowers.

Teen-age camp is a potential highlight in the summer experience of every youth. We would like to meet all of you in the light of the magic glow of the campfire circle.

Reserve a space by clipping the accompanying application and send to your conference office.

Peninsula Youth Congress

Sabbath and Sunday, May 16 and 17, were two grand days, filled with activity for the youth of the Peninsula. Sabbath morning saw three hundred gather at the Roosevelt High School auditorium in Port Angeles as Brother Harold Dawson led out in the Sabbath school. Each part was dominated by young people. At the church hour Elder Chambers brought a stirring challenge to the youth to form habits that will place them in the kingdom of God. The senior class male quartet from Auburn Academy thrilled us with their singing.

In the afternoon 25 were invested, including 2 Master Guides. There followed a panorama of youth activity, featuring four ways to share our faith.

Dr. R. W. Fowler led us to a wider vision of responsibility. The afternoon closed with a challenge and consecration by the pastor.

The evening saw the Sequim church filled to capacity to witness the first eighth grade graduation exercises from the Olympic Peninsula S.D.A. School. Eight graduates: Arlene Cline, Melvin Cline, Ann Emmert, Nancy Grant, Sharra Gort, Eldon Spady, Bill Keller and Charles Anderson listened to Elder Chambers deliver the commencement address. Their aim: "A Better Way of Life"; their motto: "Not the Sunset but the Dawn."

Sunday morning at ten saw everyone meeting at Sequim Bay Park for a full day of planned recreation under the capable leadership of Brother and Sister Stokes. The ladies filled the tables with an abundance of good things to eat and spread it out under the canopy of heaven. What a joy it was to fellowship with the people of God! The day was climaxed by a trip to the beautiful Olympic Hot Springs, where aching muscles were relaxed in the warmth of the pool.

Pan-American Youth Congress Delegates

MV Societies in the Tacoma, Olympia, and Puyallup Districts

All Washington Conference delegates to the Pan-American Youth Congress are to meet at Tacoma on Sabbath, June 6, at the 11:00 o'clock morning worship hour. Elder Chambers will be the speaker with a message addressed particularly to congress delegates.

After lunch an organizational meeting of PAYC delegates will be held at the church at 3:00 p.m. It is very important that each representative be present for instruction and a discussion of the responsibilities of the delegation.

The church services at Tacoma are conducted in the Congregational Church at Division and J Streets.

At 4:00 p.m. a meeting of representatives from the surrounding societies will consider the organization of an MV association. MV societies from the Olympia and Puyallup districts are especially invited to join with Tacoma in this meeting.

Auburn Academy Students Receive "Instructor" Pen League Honors

Auburn Academy is justly proud of the accomplishment of members of the English III class under the direction of their instructor, Mrs. R. W. Fowler.

For a number of years the Youth's

Instructor has sponsored a contest in writing stories and articles for the Instructor, and those who are in the English III and English IV classes are eligible to participate in the program. The contest provides for four types of articles with a first, second and third award in each type. In addition to these awards, there is a grand prize, twenty honorable mentions and an additional twenty usable articles.

This year 282 students from 27 academies participated in this interesting program. Members of the English III class of Auburn Academy submitted nineteen papers and received two first awards, two third awards, three honorable mention, with two additional articles judged usable. The first awards were received by Marian Martin and Betty Young; third awards by Ralph Anderson and Glenn Audferhar; honorable mention by Robert Beldin, Betty Colvin and Walter Grant; usable by Doreene Castle and Roger Swanson.

This achievement is a real honor to our school and it represents many hours of hard work by the students, by Mrs. Fowler, their instructor, and by Mrs. Hagele, who typed the articles to be sent to the editor of the Instructor.

It is our hope that these young people will continue to use their talents in service for the Master. Watch the Youth's Instructor for the articles written by these boys and girls.

Church School Ingathering

A wonderful work has been done and a remarkable record has been set by the church schools of the Washington Conference in the 1953 Ingathering campaign. Teachers and students have demonstrated their faith in this missionary program by faithfully canvassing the territory around their schools.

The twenty-five church schools with 900 pupils have raised a grand total of $11,519.24 to date. This amount will apparently reach $12,000 when complete reports are in. The present figure makes an average of $13 per pupil, a junior minuteman goal for each student in our schools.

Every schoolroom was encouraged to set its own goal and, without exception, all increased the one of a year ago. Results show an increase of $3,059.34 over the figure raised by the same schools last year. Credit is due the excellent leadership and the sense of responsibility demonstrated by our Christian teachers, and the enthusiasm of nearly all of the youth. A good job was done by all.

It is understandable that location is accountable for some differences in the amount gathered, and we salute all who participated and list for special honors those schools or rooms that solicited at least $250 or $10 per capita.

	Total	Per Cap.
Tacoma, 9th and 10th grades	$478.74	$36.83
Seattle, 5th and 6th grades	1057.28	32.04
Olympia	1600.00	29.09
Jackson Prairie	284.58	28.46
Tacoma, 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades	384.27	20.22
Centralia	929.46	19.36
Cedar Home	423.06	19.23
Monroe	1200.00	17.14
Kirkland	509.97	15.45
Tacoma, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th grades	269.36	14.96
Seattle, 7th grade	278.20	13.25
Seattle, 3rd and 4th grades	371.30	11.98
Port Orchard	274.17	11.42
Bremerton	354.69	11.08
Bellingham	673.20	11.03
Seattle, 9th and 10th grades	368.78	10.85
Clear Lake	340.00	7.39

Congratulations! Youth are an integral part of the missionary work done in the Washington Conference. May the Lord continue to bless their efforts and those of our Christian teachers and other youth leaders. Youth work is challenging, we invite others to join present workers in developing opportunities for youth activities in our churches.

Notice is hereby given that the Fifty-fifth session of the Upper Columbia Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, will convene in Columbia Auditorium of Walla Walla College, College Place, Washington, at 8:30 a.m., Thursday, July 2, 1953, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing term, and for the transaction of any other business that may properly come before the Conference. The Constitution provides for representation from the several churches comprising the conference on the following basis: one delegate for each church organization and one additional delegate for each fifteen (15) members or major fraction thereof.

C. Lester Bond, President.
H. J. Perkins, Secretary.

UPPER COLUMBIA MISSION SOCIETY

The Upper Columbia Mission Society of Seventh-day Adventists, a corporation, is called to meet in biennial session at College Place, Washington, in connection with the fifty-fifth session of the Upper Columbia Conference. The purpose of the meeting is to elect a Board of Directors for the corporation, and to transact any other necessary business. The first meeting is called to convene on July 2, 1953 at 11:00 o'clock a.m. The delegates to the session of the Upper Columbia Conference are likewise considered delegates to the meetings of the Corporation.

C. Lester Bond, Chairman.
H. J. Perkins, Secretary.

Three year old Bonnie Burke ingathered $10.25 in a little over three hours in Grandview, Washington. Her mother knocked on the doors and told the folk Bonnie was soliciting funds for missions and that she had a little song to sing for them, and then she sang right out "Jesus Loves the Little Children of the World." Bonnie wants to go ingathering again.

UPPER COLUMBIA MEDICAL MISSIONARY AND BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION

Notice is hereby given that the regular business session of the Upper Columbia Medical Missionary and Benevolent Association of S.D.A., for 1953, will be held in connection with the business session of the Upper Columbia Conference of S.D.A. on the camp grounds at College Place, Washington.

Instruction Concerning "Look" Reprint

June 6 has been set aside as the date for the distribution of the Look reprint article, "What is a Seventh-day Adventist?". This article also offers a Bible Correspondence Course and a free three months' subscription to the Signs of the Times. The Pacific Press has graciously footed the bill on this offer of the Signs of the Times on the condition that these offers be made available to non-Seventh-day Adventists.

This notice is to inform Seventh-day Adventists in the Upper Columbia conference that they are not to ask for a free three months' subscription to the Signs as a result of the offer on the Look reprint article. We are anxious to reach millions of non-believers in the Advent Message. In all fairness to the Pacific Press and for the good of the overall program, Adventists should not ask for the Signs offer.

Also, Seventh-day Adventists are requested not to send in lists of friends or relatives that they would like to see included in this special offer. Naturally, the interest and heart burden of our believers and the salvation of their friends and relatives is appreciated. If Adventist believers have friends and relatives they would like to see subscribe to the Signs for three months, place a Look reprint in their hands and let them personally make the request. Thank you.

JAMES E. CHASE.

Following the Blueprint

"One of the objects of our annual gatherings is that all may gain a knowledge of practical methods of personal missionary work."—Christian Service, p. 195.

Especially during the first three days of camp meeting, the following will be stressed:

- How Laymen can discover good interests.
- How Laymen can follow through with their interests.
- How Laymen can obtain decisions for Christ.
- How Laymen can help to establish new converts in the faith.

Plan now to attend the Laymen's Congress, July 3 to 5, at College Place, Washington.

Upper Columbia Academy

A most inspiring and interesting week end began on Friday evening, May 22, for Upper Columbia Academy students, their parents, and friends, and continued until Sunday noon, May 24. The graduating exercises were held for forty-eight seniors. The meetings began with the consecration service Friday evening at eight o'clock. Brother George Knowles gave a most inspiring sermon and presented a challenge to the class to which they responded in individual testimonies.

On Sabbath morning at eleven o'clock Elder James Chase gave the baccalaureate sermon. A large congregation was present to hear this timely message.

On Saturday evening a splendid program was given by the graduating class. In a very beautiful way the members of the class honored their parents, and during an organ medley of mothers' songs each one of the graduates presented corsages and bou-tonnieres to mothers and fathers.

The climax of the week-end services came on Sunday morning with the commencement exercises. Elder Leon Robbins gave an inspiring message in song, and Elder Paul Heubach of Walla Walla College delivered the commencement address. Mr. Walter Werth, senior class sponsor, presented the graduates to Principal E. E. Bietz who presented the diplomas. He was assisted by Miss Joy O'Neil, registrar.

May God bless these forty-eight graduates as they go out to fill their places either in continuing their education or in whatever field of service they may find a place.

Special Ingathering Offering

In the Oregon Conference, Sabbath, June 6, has been set aside for a very special offering for the Ingathering. Our campaign officially ends on that date. The workers and people will gather every possible dollar for the VICTORY moment on Sabbath, June 6. It is fitting that we should give liberally of our means upon this Sabbath morning for our dear mission projects the world around. By united effort, "together through labor" we can roll up the greatest Ingathering overflow ever in the history of the Oregon Conference. We are inspired by these lines from "Freedom's Plow":

Free hands and slave hands,
Indentured hands, adventurous hands,
White hands and black hands
Held the plow handles,
Axe handles, hammer handles,
Launched the boats and whipped the horses
That fed and housed and moved America.

Thus together through labor,
All these hands made America."

Let us who enjoy the liberty and blessings of America unite our hands now in supporting our brethren across the seas. Many are hungry and cold. Many are suffering imprisonment and persecution. Some have given up their lives for the cause of Christ. Could we do less than bring an offering of real sacrifice? In anticipation of your great Ingathering victory and your liberal offering on June 6, we thank you, and God bless you!

LLOYD E. BIGGS.

Golden Flashes

Ingathering News

Congratulations to Elder H. A. Schultz and the churches of the Kalispell district. You have continued to work toward a grand overflow.

We wish to give honorable mention and grateful thanks to the churches listed for having gone beyond the call of duty to produce a fine overflow for this special Ingathering year.

Church	Goal	Raised
Kalispell	$695.00	$901.77
Troy	160.00	218.72
Lewistown	250.00	319.72
Big Timber	170.00	212.18
Antelope	775.00	991.15

Hot Springs, Choteau, and Great Falls are over the top.

The Bozeman, Mt. Ellis district under the leadership of Elder K. Eldon Baker will soon be singing the victory song. Mt. Ellis is already over the top!

The churches of the Missoula, Havre, Helena-Butte, Livingston, Billings, Miles City, and Fort Peck districts are out after it.

There are two more weeks before Victory Day, June 6. It is not too late yet to reach the goal. After all, it is not so much how we start but how we finish. What we have failed to do in the past weeks is water under the bridge. What we do in the next two weeks will determine how we shall stand at the Victory celebration. There is no easy road to success in anything worthwhile. It is organization, inspiration, and work, work, work. Success is in our minds. If we think we can, we do. If we think we can't, we don't. Let's do!

STEWART EMERY.

Victory in Sight!

The conference office workers were thrilled last Tuesday, May 26, when the Ingathering reports from the churches showed $53,000 of our $57,000 goal already raised. This is a splendid accomplishment and I wish to congratulate Elder D. A. Neufeld, the ministers, the church officers, the church members and the boys and girls for making this amount possible. With only $4,000 more to raise, I know that each church member will give every cooperation to insure the full goal.

The raising of the full goal will bring great encouragement to our mission fields. Equally as important, the raising of our goal has brought us into contact with thousands of people. As we have opportunity, let us remember these kind donors throughout the year with our books, pamphlets and tracts. Many of them should be placed on the Signs subscription list. Let us be interested in the souls of these men as well as in their gifts.

I wish it were possible for me to thank each member for his or her part in this wonderful endeavor. Since that is impossible, I trust that those who read these lines will pass on my sincere appreciation to all Ingathering workers for a task well done.

THEODORE CARCICH.
