THE NEW MILO ACADEMY

We are approaching the thrilling moment when students and teachers will meet for the first time at the new Milo Academy. The buildings are rapidly taking shape and we have faith to believe that the money will roll in to provide the furnishings and equipment for the opening of school in September, 1955. Our people have been wonderful in their support of the Academy Building Fund. Over $210,000 has come in and the goal of $250,000 should be reached shortly.

In providing this new school, and improving the facilities at Laurelwood and Columbia, we have endeavored to follow the admonition of the Lord: "So far as possible these schools should be established outside the cities. . . We should choose a location for our school apart from the cities, where the eye will not rest continually upon the dwellings of men, but upon the works of God. . . It would be a great aid in educational work could every school be so situated as to afford the pupils land for cultivation, and access to the fields and woods." These words came to us about the turn of the century. There were no automobiles, movies, or radio. The social, recreational and business activities were geared to the horse and buggy and the slow trains and primitive street cars of the time.

During the intervening years great changes have swept over God's people. Daniel twelve, verse four, is no longer prophecy; it sounds more like history. Rapid transportation by every means, time-wasting electronic gadgets, the increase in crime and the consumption of nicotine, alcohol and narcotics, have reached proportions beyond the wildest imagination of a half century ago. "But," says one, "these things will not overpower my boy or girl; they have had good training in our Christian home." Don't be too sure, dear ones. "It is those who have had the most light that Satan most assiduously seeks to ensnare." Through the years our footsteps have been directed to many a boy and girl who has strayed far away from the precepts of the parental fireside. Indeed we must do our very level best, under God, to protect our precious children from the drivel and twaddle and the sin and wickedness with which they are so closely surrounded in these portentous times. To do one whit less is to be criminally remiss in our God-given responsibility.

From the pen of inspiration we quote: "As a safeguard against evil, the preoccupation of the mind with good is worth more than unnumbered barriers of law and discipline," and, "as a shield from temptation and an inspiration to purity and truth, no other influence can equal the sense of God's presence." These protective influences and qualities of character are not realized on the city streets, in the schools of the world, or, we fear, not always in the home. Let us plan for every boy and girl of the Oregon Conference to be in one of our Christian schools in 1955.

LLOYD E. BIGGS, President,
Oregon Conference.

February 6 Silver Anniversary Broadcast of H. M. S. Richards

Commemorating a now completed quarter century of unbroken broadcasting by Elder H. M. S. Richards, the Voice of Prophecy radio group is to record a unique 25th Anniversary broadcast at the large Los Angeles Shrine Auditorium, Jefferson near Figueroa Streets, on Sabbath afternoon, January 29, at 3:30.

On Sunday, February 6, this special program will be released coast-to-coast over the two networks of Mutual and ABC.

We urge you to make use of this unusual broadcast to invite your loved ones and acquaintances to listen to The Voice of Prophecy, perhaps for the first time, on Sunday, February 6. Such an invitation on your part could well be the beginning of a new interest and the turning of a heart to Christ.

The Big "MV Five" For Fifty-five

At the recent MV Secretaries' joint council of our youth leaders from the North Pacific, Pacific and Western Canada which was held in Portland, December 7-11, a five-point objective was adopted for our MV societies for the new year.

These objectives, known as the "BIG MV FIVE" for FIFTY-FIVE, are vital to the growth and development of the young people's work in every community, and we appeal to the new MV officers in each local society to give careful study to each of them.

(1) IN '55—REVIVE our youth. "A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work," says the servant of God. There must be no dead formalities in our MV program, but a deep spiritual awakening in every society which will instill purity, chastity and primitive godliness into the lives of our youth. Revivals, religious emphasis weeks, and a renewal of greater Bible study, will be a vital part of our MV program for 1955.

(2) IN '55—ARRIVE at new Share-Your-Faith heights. This is a call to renewed youth evangelism in which every society has an outpost and every Missionary Volunteer is assigned to a post of duty in the vineyard of God. Every MV society is to be a lighthouse of salvation during 1955, with youth efforts, MV service bands and personal evangelism carried forward by the young people. No society is to be a medium for entertainment on Friday night or Sabbath, but rather an organized soul-saving unit in which "Missionary" is spotlighted in the words Missionary Volunteer.

(3) IN '55—MAKE ALIVE every MV society. Realizing that every MV officer is anxious to obtain the best information on how to make his MV society the most efficient, and that our MV program will be no stronger than the strength of the local MV society, plans were laid for special institutes and training courses for our society officers during 1955. The following conference-wide MV officers' institutes are scheduled for the beginning of 1955:

Washington (Seattle) January 7-9

Idaho (Caldwell) January 14-17

Montana (Bozeman) January 17-22
(includes Pathfinder training course)

(4) IN '55—STRIVE for stronger JMV leadership. We have been thrilled with the rapid growth of our MV Pathfinder Club organization, which provides our junior-age boys and girls with a church-centered recreational program. In 1955 we need more trained leaders for these Pathfinders so that every boy and girl may have the thrill of belonging to a club. Master Guide and Pathfinder leadership training courses will be held in every conference during 1955. Consult your local MV secretary for the time and place.

(5) IN '55—THRIVE in the out-of-doors. Next to the Bible, the book of nature is of most importance. In 1955 new emphasis will be placed upon the study of nature, camping and outdoor living in all our societies. Plans are now being laid for two nature-leadership training camps at our new biological field station at Rosario Beach during June and July. Watch the GLEANER for further announcements.

Let us make 1955 the best year for our wonderful young people of the North Pacific.

JOHN HANCOCK.

CME Celebrates 50 Years of Service

Nineteen fifty-five marks half a century of Christian service of the College of Medical Evangelists, and throughout the year significant historic events will be celebrated.

The first major event will be the February 14 opening ceremony for the new main building of the White Memorial Hospital and will be followed by a Founder's Day celebration on May 26. Founder's Day commemorates the 1905 purchase of Loma Linda, or "Hill Beautiful," by Elder J. A. Burden, acting as representative for the denomination.

It was here that CME's first educational venture, a school of nursing, began at the Loma Linda Sanitarium. Since then the College has developed schools of medicine, dentistry, and related sciences and has spread its interests to the White Memorial Hospital and the Los Angeles campus.

Throughout its fifty years, CME has emphasized physical medicine and the wholeness of man as a physical, mental, and spiritual being. The school is deeply rooted in the Scriptural doctrine of expressing and practicing compassion for mankind, and in the Gospel traditions as emphasized by Seventh-day Adventists. College trustees, officers, faculty, students, and employees are rededicating their lives, during this year, to the service of the Great Physician. The historic aim of the College, "To Make Man Whole," has been adopted as the theme of this year's anniversary commemoration.

CME administrators, students, graduates, employees, and SDA constituents will have brought to their attention during the coming year the debt of gratitude the College owes to its countless friends whose gifts and services have made possible the progress of the school.

At present, CME has 700 students enrolled, employs 1,700 persons, and has graduated more than 5,000 young men and women during the past fifty years.

Adventists in the News

As the Old Year tottered out Adventists could look back on recent major news breaks that were far-reaching in their impact on the public.

The story of Operation Survival, a bivouac by Washington Missionary College students and faculty families, hit front pages with pictures from coast to coast. A scientific attempt to live for three days under "bombed out" conditions in a Maryland woods ceased to be an isolated experiment as millions read about it in their newspapers.

At one time seven writers and photographers were observing, interviewing, and taking pictures in the bleak woods. A Washington, D. C., reporter camped out with the group, sleeping at night by an icy stream.

Civil defense officials, who visited the bivouac at the invitation of the Church's public relations office, were loud in their praise. Wrote one after it was all over: "It is deeply felt that your efforts most certainly helped to bring to the attention of the general public, the great need for preparation for survival in the event we are attacked. . ."

Life magazine gave the story a religious emphasis, pointed to a cardinal doctrine: "Adventists, who hold that the second coming of Christ is near, believe it will be preceded by apocalyptic troubles," then added, "They have accordingly been leaders in civil defense work."

Following closely on this burst of news, the completion of Elder L. E. Froom's twenty-year research project caught the interest of the Associated Press and swept the country. So elated was a St. Louis press secretary when she saw the long story in her newspaper, she secured 100 copies and passed them out to fellow church members.

The monumental work of Elder Froom in writing the four Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers volumes is well known to theologians throughout the world. Now this remarkable story has been shared with the mass public.

What does all this mean? Once again countless persons have gained some new impressions of this denomination. If they did not know it before, they must now realize that Adventists, for all their emphasis on a better world to come, are good citizens, interested in helping their government as it attempts to overcome apathy toward civil defense. If they did not know it before, they must now realize that Adventist theology cannot be brushed aside lightly.

Without some effort by the denomination's Public Relations Bureau, Operation Survival and the Froom project would be little known. And the stories were told, not to boast, but simply to let our light shine, as Christ instructed us.

News of this kind lays a foundation for greater evangelism. Who will deny that the literature evangelist, ringing a doorbell in a little Ohio town, or the lady in Los Angeles inviting a neighbor to church, can expect a more receptive attitude toward the Adventist message because of what these people have read in newspapers and magazines?

DONN THOMAS.

New Religious Liberty Recording

Another interesting and informative religious liberty program has been recorded on tape for use in our churches. The recording has been made by the personnel of the Religious Liberty Department of the General Conference. One side discusses basic principles of religious liberty, and the other some of the current problems of the Sunday law issue. The tape provides excellent material for two separate services.

Orders may be sent with a remittance of $2 direct to S.A.V.E., 2512 Bryant Ave. S., Minneapolis 5, Minnesota.

A Busy Mother's Preparation Day

Recently there came in the mail a very interesting letter—a letter from a Seventh-day Adventist mother, a mother much engaged in the daily activities, and especially on the preparation day. Let me share this with you just as it came in to the Review and Herald Publishing Association.

"From the enclosed account of happenings at our home last Friday morning, you will know how much we appreciate the Review and Herald.

"Very truly yours,
"Mrs. W. E. W."

Her account is as follows:

FRIDAY MORNING—Mother is eating breakfast after children have gone to school. (She was too busy to eat before.)

Baby, almost two, is having another drink of juice. Mailman arrives.

Mother glances quickly through the mail. In the Review she notices the third article on Palestine and Syria by S. Horn.

Answers telephone.

Starts breakfast dishes—keeping one eye on the open Review beside her. Baby needs constant supervision too.

Mother gets beans ready to cook. Baby helps sort them and keeps a small white bean for a pretending "egg" to feed her dolly.

Mother thinks, "Isn't it amazing that those pieces of manuscript and papyrus have been preserved so a person can see them there in Jerusalem, cleaned and under glass. How is "papyrus" pronounced anyway—I forget. I must tell this story to the children tonight at bedtime."

Mother looks up "papyrus" in the dictionary.

Mother puts more food on to cook as she says to herself, "I wonder how many years before Christ it was when Samuel and Eli lived." Looks it up in the Bible. "I must finish getting ready for Sabbath. My, I am so thankful for the Review! So many good articles. This one alone is worth a year's subscription to the Review."

There you have it, brethren and sisters. An Adventist home, a busy family, a busy preparation day, and the authentic voice of the church meeting first at the breakfast table, and then amidst the busy activities of the day, and again at bedtime, providing the story on which the children will go to sleep. And the mother, well, in quiet meditation we leave her with the thought in her heart, "My, I am so thankful for the Review! So many good articles. This one alone is worth a year's subscription to the Review."

Yes, brethren and sisters. Let the Review come into your home, or the homes of your loved ones or children.

Cheer them on the way as they march toward the heavenly city. Order through your Book and Bible House, remembering that the senior Sabbath school lesson helps appear only in the Review and Herald for 1955.

R. J. CHRISTIAN.

WEDDINGS

Kathleen Ritchie and Jerald Humbert were united in marriage in the Montavilla Seventh-day Adventist church on Sunday evening, November 28. The ceremony was read by Elder W. D. Blehm. They will make their home in Coos Bay, Oregon. We wish the peace of heaven to rest upon this new home.

Eleanor Kahler and Samual Vigil were united in marriage at the Seattle Central church, November 27. R. W. Engstrom officiated at the service. We wish these young people the blessings of a happy home as they plan for the future while Samual finishes his work in the service at Fort Lewis. The couple are living in Tacoma, Washington.

Pathfinder Training Course

We have good news for you in this announcement.

A training course for the Montana Conference Pathfinder Directors and Deputy (assistant) Directors, and all engaged in youth work, is to be conducted January 17 to 22 in the Seventh-day Adventist church at Bozeman, Montana. This news is good because it means a "come and do" program for our youth and boys and girls, with better trained leadership.

Inasmuch as this is a Conference-wide training course requiring 30 hours and will be the only opportunity that our youth and junior leaders will have to study the Pathfinder leadership program for sometime, we have obtained the services of those technically trained and best qualified to instruct in Pathfinder, Nature and Campcraft.

Elder John Hancock, Missionary Volunteer secretary of the North Pacific Union Conference, will be present the entire time to give interesting and thorough instruction in Pathfinder leadership.

Doctor Ernest Booth, head of the Biology Department of Walla Walla College, will have charge of the nature instruction and will show two or three outstanding colored moving pictures of our wild nature friends in their natural habitat—taken during his extensive studies in the United States, Canada, Alaska and Mexico. These films will be of special interest to all.

Professor Eugene Winter, head of the Physical Education department of Walla Walla College, will give excellent direction in Campcraft and Outpost camping.

We are delighted that we can offer the very best and something really worth while to the delegates and those attending this course.

Where a Pathfinder Club is organized and conducted properly by competent, well-trained leadership, the church has found that there are very few drop-outs among the youth and boys and girls, and strong, active memberships are developed as a result. For years we have prayed for the answer to this greatest of problems—the drop-outs—and to a large degree, God has given us the answer in the Pathfinder Club; for it takes up that slack time in interesting and character-building pursuits and ties to the church with strong cords that are not easily broken.

We are happy that we can start the new year with a strong, well organized, soul-winning program for the youth and boys and girls of the Montana Conference, and that with your self-sacrificing cooperation and earnest prayers, 1955 will be the greatest and most far-reaching in active soul winning we have ever known.

So, plan to take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to become better prepared to lead the boys and girls in your church.

STEWART EMERY.

The Pastor Smiled Broadly

The Pathfinders were selling Life and Health magazines "hand over fist," but they had a few left Friday afternoon. The pastor was concerned lest some good ambitious boys who were Pathfinders but not Seventh-day Adventists might take their remaining magazines out to sell on the Sabbath. You see, they were brand new to the Pathfinder club. They did not go to the church school and were hard to locate. The pastor picked up all the magazines in the church school and discussed Sabbath observance briefly with the loyal troopers there. He asked them to tell those boys who might not know that they must not sell magazines on the Sabbath. The pastor's remarks drew this reply from one of the boys, "Man! They won't sell magazines tomorrow. They are coming to church to hear you preach." The pastor smiled broadly.

Montana Conference News

Elder L. L. McKinley met with the Havre church on Friday evening, December 31. On Sabbath January 1, he spoke in the Great Falls and Choteau churches.

Sister Myrtle Krejci spoke to the members of the Great Falls church on Sabbath, December 25.

Brother E. H. Tucker and Elder L. L. McKinley attended the North Pacific Union Colporteur Institute at Portland, Oregon, held December 31 to January 6.

Word has been received at the Montana Conference office that Elder J. L. McConaughy, one of our former presidents, passed away in Illinois as a result of a heart attack. We felt this item would be of interest to his many friends in our conference.

Tobacco and Horror

The December 27, 1954, Time magazine carried an article on page 52 called "Cancer and Horror." A more fitting and truthful title would have been "Tobacco and Horror."

This article very boldly calls a certain movie sponsored by the American Temperance Society; namely, "One in 20,000," a "horror movie." We agree whole-heartedly! This movie, with pile-driving force, presents the "horrible truth" about tobacco and its relationship to lung cancer, which causes 20,000 people to die every year with "95 per cent of the cases . . . traceable to smoking."

In the light of extensive and current research it is very clear that cigarettes may now be rightly called coffin-nails. Furthermore, there is no doubt that the tobacco companies have proved the truthfulness of their own advertising: that they are not "medicine men," but tobacco men. Yes, smokers are now discovering that every cigarette has "got everything!" and that they are not getting a "treat" when they smoke their favorite brand of cigarette, but inhaling and consuming deadly poison which spells "treatment" or death.

Surely the time has arrived for each one of us to strike with every bit of propaganda we have against tobacco.

Scatter "Like Leaves of Autumn"

During 1954 the Washington Conference members purchased 20,346 copies of Great Controversy. This is an average of 3.53 books per member. These books are not stored in the Book and Bible House office. They are in the homes and churches of the conference.

During the next few weeks these books should be moved from the homes of our people into the homes of friends, neighbors, and relatives. Pastors and church leaders should assist in forming small companies to systematically distribute and lend this truth-filled book to all who will read. Now is the time to work fearlessly for God.

"Let every believer scatter broadcast tracts and leaflets and books containing the message for this time."—Colporteur Ministry, p. 21.

"The night of trial is nearly spent. Satan is bringing in his masterly power because he knoweth that his time is short. The chastisement of God is upon the world to call all who know the truth to hide in the cleft of the rock, and view the glory of God. The truth must not be muffled now. Plain statements must be made. Unvarnished truth must be spoken, in leaflets and pamphlets, and these must be scattered like the leaves of autumn."—Testimonies, Vol. 9, p. 231. (Italic ours.)

The book Great Controversy contains the truth, plain statements and unvarnished truth for this time. Let youth and adults see to it that the 20,000 copies in the Washington Conference are placed in the hands of 20,000 interested readers.

"Great Controversy" Landslide

Not since the days when the "widow gave her two mites" and Jesus walked the temple square has there been such an outpouring of God's Spirit in the lives and hearts of His people to arise and finish His work through the literature ministry as was felt throughout the Washington Conference this past December.

Beginning December 8, with 8,100 Great Controversy, or 1.40 per member, the highest in this country, the rank and file of our people responded to the appeal to remember Christ while buying gifts, and all records were broken, and orders were closed on January 1 with a total of 20,346 purchased, or a conference-wide per capita of 3.53.

† Short of goal.

Several thousand books were ordered by individuals, one to several books, which have not been credited to his or her church because of lack of necessary information.

1800 and 2000 orders. Sabbath night, January 1, the Western Union operator said, "Great Controversy must be a very important book." And expressed a desire to have one.

Our duty is to sow the seeds of truth. God has promised to carry on from there.

Spillman-Lyman Meetings

The first half of the Spillman-Lyman evangelistic effort has closed. Meetings were held 38 nights in the Palomar Theatre, with the result that so far 112 people have accepted the message during the meetings. Another baptism will be held January 22. These results were accomplished because of the intensive hard work of all workers associated in the evangelistic company. Some of the brethren who worked with us were carrying heavy burdens as district pastors, and still found time to visit in the homes and attend our workers' meetings and assist in every way possible.

Besides our regular evangelistic team, consisting of Elder and Mrs. L. E. Lyman, the writer and his wife, there were associated with us in the meetings Elders R. W. Engstrom, Edward Graves, William Dopp, J. H. Laurence, V. K. Inoue, and Brethren Duane Anderson, Don Parks, and Ronald Spear. We were also happy to have with us Elder A. H. Warner, who was loaned to us from the Upper Columbia Conference for the duration of the effort.

Mrs. Doris Batchelder, Mrs. Mary Green, and Mary Belle Coleman rendered valuable service as Bible instructors, with Mrs. Batchelder also assisting in the Bible card program each evening, and Mrs. Green giving a fifteen minute organ concert preceding every evening meeting.

The flower committee deserves special mention, consisting of Miss Katheleen Kachuck, Mrs. Mary Green, and Brother L. E. Tesarik of the Central church.

The usherette corps rendered very valuable and faithful service night after night. They were under the direction of Mrs. Don Parks, and their work will be long remembered by those of us in charge of the meetings.

Many victories were gained over the tobacco habit, homes were united in the message, and couples were baptized. Practically all of the churches in the area received some new members as a result of the meetings, and it is hoped that they will be a blessing to their new church homes.

The offerings amounted to over $4,000 for the 38 nights, which is an average of $109—one of the best averages I have experienced in a series of meetings.

There were a number of folk who did not miss a single night. Some missed one night, and some two, and there were over 90 people who received free Bibles for attending 30 out of 35 nights over a specified period.

We wish to thank our heavenly Father for all of His blessings to us in this series of meetings, and to thank also most sincerely our group who were out day after day, evening after evening, praying and working with the people, and getting their decisions. It is a distinct pleasure to be associated with such a fine loyal group of Christian men and women.

The second half of our evangelistic campaign here in Seattle will open at the Masonic Temple, Harvard and E. Pine Streets, Sunday night, February 6. We will again show the marvelous moving picture, "I Beheld His Glory," in color, as there were over a thousand people turned away on the opening night, and many of these were unable to return for the second service. Our subject for that Sunday evening will be, "Armageddon."

We earnestly invite all of our people living in the Seattle area to make a circle around this date—February 6—on their calendars, and plan to be with us on that evening.

Meetings will again be held Sunday, Tuesday, and Friday nights. We have lined up some very beautiful educational moving pictures, many of them in color, and new lectures will be given making this an interesting series to which we can invite our friends and neighbors. DON H. SPILLMAN.

1955

We have entered a new year—the successes and failures, joys and sorrows of the old year are past and we have a clean page upon which to write the events of 1955.

The officers of our churches are also beginning a new year. Some of them will be continuing on from the old; others will be taking up duties as new officers. We can truthfully say that those who held offices during 1954 did a good work. What about 1955? Are we satisfied with the accomplishments of 1954 and have we done our best? Was there some task left unfinished at the end of the old year?

There are many good things to be accomplished during 1955. First of these is our annual Signs of the Times Crusade. Now is the time to be thinking of those friends, relatives and neighbors who should be receiving the Signs. Make your list early—then when the time comes you will be ready. There is wonderful news for you about the Signs for this year. Be looking for it when it comes.

Second, we think of our Home Visitation Day on March 5. Many churches have ordered their supply of literature. If yours has not been ordered, see that it is ordered now. On Sabbath, March 5, we will be visiting over 50,000 homes in Upper Columbia. This should mean fifty thousand missionary visits with many Bible studies lined up and hundreds of people enrolled in the Bible Correspondence School. But, if "Home Visitation Day" is to be successful each one will have to do his part.

Other good things will come later, each of which will open up new opportunities to tell some one about the plan of salvation and the return of Jesus. Why not plan now to make 1955 a banner year in Upper Columbia by finding at least one soul for Christ before it closes. WAYNE A. SCRIVEN.

Spokane Valley Church Reaches Goal

There was rejoicing among the members of the Spokane Valley Seventh-day Adventist church on Sabbath, December 25. On this Christmas Day the Valley church had raised more than their goal for the 1955 Ingathering. The goal set was $1500 and the amount raised was $1521. Most of this amount was raised by Christmas caroling.

Peter Momb, home missionary leader, offered $100 in prizes at the start of the Christmas caroling program. This money was to be used for two prizes, $50 for the most time given to caroling, and $50 for the most money solicited. Lola Currie, one of the young ladies of our church, won both prizes. Lola handed out 747 tracts, put in 58 hours, and solicited $243.22. Lola's sister, Floy, also did a fine job. Floy handed out 275 tracts, put in 35 hours, and solicited $100.16. These two young people of our church should be an inspiration to all of us, young and old alike. With the able help of these two young people, our home missionary leader, Pastor and Mrs. George Knowles, and a very faithful group of our church members, the sum of $1144 was raised. Lola Currie donated her $100 prize to the caroling project, making a total raised by caroling of $1244.

On Sabbath, December 25, through pledges and donations, our Ingathering goal of $1500 was reached. When the Ingathering program for 1955 is started in the spring, all money taken in will be overflow.

We know that the success of our program was due not only to the faithful and sincere efforts of all those who took part but also to the sincere prayers that went along with all.

As an inspiration and encouragement for others, everyone concerned with the caroling is enthusiastic about this kind of a program. The solicitors who were questioned said, "There were many who had the money all ready when they opened the door." There also were expressions of appreciation for the beautiful music played. The Spokane Valley church believes this is an ideal and God-inspired way to raise part of the Ingathering goal.

IRVEN RATLIFF.

Farewell

We bid farewell to Dr. and Mrs. Herschel Lamp and family. Dr. Lamp has been working with the Indians at the Colville Agency Hospital near Grand Coulee.

The Lamps have worked faithfully to aid the small church in Grand Coulee, and they will be missed by all the members. They have answered a mission call to Nigeria, West Africa, where Dr. Lamp will take over a clinic. They left Spokane on the first lap of their journey on January 2.

May God's blessing go with this family and keep them as they work for Him.

ROBERTA YAW, R.N.

Christmas Caroling in Upper Columbia

The caroling season is past and the final tabulations will soon be finished. As we look back over the caroling program in the Upper Columbia field our hearts are gladdened to see the fine response which we received. Those who engaged in caroling this past year all agree that the work is much easier during the holiday season and that the offerings are larger. We wish to say "Thank You" to each one who took part.

All who participated in the caroling are to be commended for a work well done. We think of the enthusiasm in the Spokane Valley church, which raised $1345.10 during the season with only one caroling unit and in scattered country territory. Then, there is Moses Lake and Ephrata with their 1955 goals already reached. We think of the Moscow district where Elder Willey and his faithful workers almost tripled the results of a year ago; and we also remember the Wenatchee district, Pasco-Kennewick, Yakima and others who entered wholeheartedly into the caroling work. Altogether they have swelled the total until at present $10,635.91 has been reported for caroling. Others, we know, have been working and their reports will help to swell the total still more.

While we are happy with the results of our caroling program we cannot say the program is complete for we still have over $58,000 to bring in before we reach our annual Ingathering goal for 1955.

The work is moving forward in Upper Columbia and when all the records are in, our Conference will be able to report a task "well done" just as we do in respect to the caroling program.

Ritzville Christmas Offering

The members of the Ritzville Sabbath school are very thankful for the promise that "where two or three are gathered together in my name there will I be also." Even though our Sabbath school membership is only 38, and on the Thirteenth Sabbath of this last quarter of 1954 there were 33 members present and 14 visitors, we were very happy to report an offering of $444.32.

We brought our gifts to Jesus in the form of one-dollar bills hanging from a Christmas tree. While a very impressive program was rendered by the children of the Junior and Kindergarten division our hearts were filled with joy and thanksgiving to God for His many blessings during the past year, and we determined to share our blessings with those who are reaching out their hands to us begging for knowledge of the living God.

Announcing Two Important Temperance Institutes

Grants Pass Church, January 15,
3 p.m.-5:30 p.m., 7 p.m.-9 p.m.

Stone Tower (Portland), January 16,
3 p.m.-5:30 p.m., 7 p.m.-9 p.m.

All church temperance secretaries should attend one or the other of these institutes. It would be most beneficial for the church if an elder or two, the church treasurer, the missionary leader and the church school teacher also attended. Let the church temperance fund or special help be provided for those who might need help in travel.

The fact that no conference help is being provided for travel or meals in no way detracts from the great need of a revival of the temperance work in the Oregon Conference. These are the first temperance institutes in this field in five years and by following the new plans and using the new materials provided, our churches could be used of the Lord to stem the tide of intemperance in the church and save scores of our neighbors and friends from a drunkard's grave or a lung cancer death.

Special Features

A full coverage of our entire temperance program by a representative of the General Conference—Elder W. A. Scharffenberg, Secretary of the American Temperance Society.

Complete displays of all our temperance material.

Evening Meeting

Temperance Rally for all church members

The stirring new tobacco lung cancer film, "One in 20,000," will be shown at the evening meeting.

Smoke Signals, the new denominational paper on tobacco, will be distributed.

All our church members in the vicinity of Grants Pass or the Stone Tower are urged to attend.

C. J. RITCHIE,
Temperance Secretary.

A Message From Bible Lands To Oregon Sabbath School Members

Our Thirteenth Sabbath Offering this quarter goes to Bible Lands and to Elder George Appel. Elder Appel has charge of this large territory. He and his wife are Oregonians and graduates of Laurelwood Academy. I wrote and asked him to write a letter for our Sabbath school members. Elder and Mrs. Robert Skinner are also in this Division. Here is a personal letter to you:

"Come with us for just a little while this morning as we take a hurried trip by plane over some of the areas of the Middle East to get a little glimpse of the needs of God's work. How different it is to travel now from what it was when Abraham, with his family and flocks, spent four months in traveling from the Euphrates valley to the land of Canaan. Now we can cover this distance in only three hours. We take off from the modern airport on the outskirts of Baghdad. Below us, nestled among thousands of date palms, is this modern city with its population of over half a million souls. One just wonders if it was under one of these palm trees that Abraham pitched his tent on the banks of the Tigris River as he prepared to rest for the night. Land has been purchased on which to erect an evangelistic center and church for the fine group of believers in this city, but they must continue to worship in the basement of a dwelling house until funds are available to erect a building.

"Two hours later, after crossing the northern arm of the Arabian desert, we can see to the west the anti-Lebanon mountains. Soon below us is the Oasis of Damascus. Here some one million people live in numerous villages and towns, the largest of which is the city of Damascus, the oldest constantly inhabited city in the world. What would Naaman think if he could step from his chariot and travel in one of the modern vehicles over the paved streets of this capital city of Syria. Here each week our believers meet in the parlor of a rented building, for they have no house of worship of their own.

"Our plane flies on. In twenty minutes we have passed Mount Hermon and are over Beirut, the capital of Lebanon, on the eastern shores of the Mediterranean Sea. Here three church families have outgrown their meeting places. In this cosmopolitan city there is an urgent need for an evangelistic center that would exert an influence all over the Middle East and which would also provide a training center for prospective evangelists and Bible workers who are in training in Middle East College. Our work has been limited here because evangelistic efforts can be held only in mission-owned properties.

"Hardly before we realize it we see that we are over Port Said, a city located on the northern entrance to the Suez Canal. This city and two others, Ismahli and Suez, have been entered by our colporteur evangelists. Men and means are needed to water the seeds already sown, for there are many honest souls to be gathered in from this important lifeline between the East and the West.

"As the plane turns west, in just a few minutes we see Alexandria, the large port city of Egypt, which is located on the delta of the Nile River. There are between one and two million souls who must be warned in this center before Jesus can return. For many years a light has been kindled here, but due to opposition and prejudice the work has made little progress. However, recently a change has come, a number have been baptized, interests are springing up not only in the city but in the surrounding villages, all of which give promise of a harvest of souls. Here a suitable meeting place is needed for a church home for those being gathered in.

"As we fly across the rich delta area, scores of villages and towns can be seen where thousands of people are studying the message through the Bible Correspondence lessons. Opportunities for raising up and establishing churches have never been so great as they are today. The need for church buildings or meeting houses has gone far beyond our budget. In most places there are no rooms, halls, or meeting place available. Yet there are whole companies pleading for a church to be established in their midst.

"Cairo, with its teeming millions, the metropolis of North Africa and the largest city on the continent, lies at the head of the Nile River Delta. One must view it from the air to appreciate its size. In the suburb of Heliopolis, near the Nile Union headquarters, we have a large church building. The Lord has wonderfully blessed us in securing a lot in the very center of Cairo for an evangelistic center, but there are no funds with which to erect a building. When it is possible to provide this center, the million of that city, among whom there are scores of graduates from the Voice of Prophecy Bible School, will have an opportunity to hear the gospel.

"In our trip today we do not have time to follow the Nile to view the thousands of villages along its banks, where some twenty million souls live in dire need of help. Although funds have been scarce and workers few, the Lord has not failed in His promise that out of Egypt a remnant shall be saved. During 1953, from these villages alone, one hundred forty-seven precious souls were baptized. Our Sabbath school members throughout the world are being invited to have a part in providing a medical launch so that trained medical personnel can more fully gain the confidence of the people by ministering to the sick and needy, that the last gospel message might be preached to these needy millions.

"We, your representatives in the Middle East, plead with you on this Thirteenth Sabbath to remember in a special way the needs of the work in the Middle East. With your prayers and support we can arise and put forth greater effort and sacrifice to quickly warn the more than one hundred million in these old Bible lands."

Your quarter savers are for this Bible Land offering. Let us plan to bring a large offering for the Appels on March 26. GEORGE S. BELLEAU.

Self-supporting Institutions Conference

Yes, we are calling a conference of the self-supporting institutions of the Oregon Conference in the Eugene church Sunday, March 6, at 1 o'clock p.m.

We have some fifty self-supporting institutions in our conference and for over a year we have been trying to get help from the General Conference secretary for this department, Elder Wesley Amundsen. He will be with us for this meeting. We are asking Brother Ralph Nelson, of the Portland Sanitarium; Brother E. R. Sanders, who is now the secretary-treasurer of the Oregon Conference and one who has had experience with sanitarium management; and Elder John Hancock, of the North Pacific Union, to be with us and give us help.

This conference is for doctors who have clinics or sanitariums, for rest home managers, and managers of health food stores. You are all invited to meet with us if you are in the Oregon Conference.

If you have any special topic or question that you want discussed at this meeting that will be of help to you, please send it in to me at the conference office immediately.

GEORGE S. BELLEAU.

Laurelwood District Starts Three Sunday Schools

Elder Harry Hempel, who has charge of the Laurelwood-Yamhill district, has organized his district and has plans to have three Sunday Schools going by the time you read this report.

One at Silverlake school house and one in Gaston have already started, and the third is to start next Sunday.

Sister Jones has charge of this Sabbath school evangelism and has three sets of teachers and Sunday school superintendents under her direction. At a business meeting last Sunday, the Laurelwood church council raised the money among themselves to pay for Sunday School literature that will be used the first quarter.

We solicit your prayers for these missionary workers in their enterprise. Why not a Sunday School in every church organization in the Oregon Conference. It is the easiest soul-winning method and brings results when followed through.

GEORGE S. BELLEAU.

Exclusive Seventh-day Adventist Garden in Sunset Hills Memorial Park

Our churches of Portland and vicinity will be interested to know that there is an exclusive Garden in Sunset Hills Memorial Park, 6801 S. W. The sprinkler system has already been installed and it is expected that this garden will be one of the most beautiful in the Northwest. It has perpetual care, giving owners the assurance that their family shrine will always be kept beautiful.

be leaving the campus for their homes during the spring vacation.

Several interesting chapel programs are planned for the next few months and the officers of the society are looking forward to the chapel period of January 14 when R. W. Dinslow, of the Washington State Patrol and District Commander with headquarters in Yakima, will speak to the student body.

Temperance Day, October 30, was the high light for our society. Twelve students conducted church services in the various churches. Each speaker pointed out the great need of our special work in helping the youth in our communities. The facts should be clearly presented so that not one might be trapped by the twin evils of tobacco and liquor.

In view of our loss of the coveted A.T.S. plaque last school year, Mr. Haynes declared that this year's A.T.S. officers have planned their activities so that a large enough accumulation of points will be claimed by the spring quarter to assure victory for Walla Walla College in next year's competition. He assured: "We are voluntarily bent on 100 per cent student membership, and it appears that we can sing the victory song by January 15, 1955."

God has surely blessed the A.T.S. activities and the many churches that have worked with the Walla Walla

Home Economics Department Reports

Some of our friends have asked if we are still saving Queen Bess coupons. Yes, indeed we are! We have been so pleased with the response from our many friends. We now have ten complete place settings of Queen Bess silverware. Since we are using the thrift plan (for obvious reasons) that represents over 4000 coupons collected. However, since our goal is 28 place settings you will see we still have a long way to go. These coupons are found in any General Mills products or appliances.

For a limited time only Betty Crocker is offering to Home Economics Departments and organizations a teaspoon for every Soft-as-silk cake box top. Just slip it in an envelope and send to the Home Economics Department, Walla Walla College.

The interest in dietetics is growing. We feel very optimistic about the future. The need for this type of worker is so great at home and abroad that we solicit your help in directing the attention of young people to this professional field. More and more food companies are wanting trained individuals to do research work and give public demonstrations. Food editors are needed to give the newer knowledge of nutrition to the public. There is a big work to be done in the fields of radio and television. The doors are wide open for our health message to be given to those who are eager to know the better way of living.

WWC Temperance Activities

Paul Haynes, A. T. S. president, announced recently that over 250,000 people were introduced to the activities of the local American Temperance Society at eight Pacific Northwest county fairs during the first month of the present school year.

Kendall Noah, exhibit chairman, along with David Watts and Merle Tiffany, personally visited local Washington and Idaho fairs which included Colfax, Colville, Ellensburg, Lewiston, Moscow, Pomeroy, Walla Walla and Yakima. The fairs ran a total of 26 days, and these brethren report that 25,900 people actually entered competition for prizes at the various booths while at the same time they accepted over 28,000 pieces of literature. The literature used was the temperance journal Listen and the anti-narcotic issue of Our Little Friend. Many requests for copies of the next issues were received because of the offer of another copy to anyone who would write in for it. Featured in the fair booths were unique visual aid exhibits designed and built by Charles V. Temple of the art department of Walla Walla College and Kendall Noah.

The winter quarter will feature the oratorical contest under the direction of a member of the speech department. Another popular contest sponsored by the activities committee will be the jingle contest. Horace Shaw will direct the cartoon and poster contest. From the many expected entries that will be coming in fresh ideas will be assembled for new exhibits and display units for future use.

Dr. W. Bevan, educational director of the National American Temperance Society, visited the campus November 23 and spoke during the chapel period on behalf of local temperance work. His talk on the relationship between lung cancer and smoking presented a challenge to help those who are victims of a deadly habit.
