

A MESSAGE FOR SABBATH SCHOOL TEACHERS

B. M. PRESTON

Secretary, Sabbath School Department

There are over 3,000 earnest, consecrated Sabbath School teachers in the North Pacific Union. We realize that all of our teachers are anxious to make their teaching ministry as effectively soul-winning as possible. They want to do everything they can to improve their teaching technique.

The year 1963 has been designated by the General Conference Sabbath School Department as Better Teaching Year. Hundreds of our teachers have taken the Teachers' Training Course where they have had the opportunity. It has not been possible to conduct these Training Course classes in all of our churches this year. However, provision has been made whereby every Sabbath School teacher in our Union can improve the quality of his teaching by taking the Teachers' Reading Course. Principles of Teaching for Christian Teachers, by Dr. C. B. Eavy, has been selected for this Teacher Reading Course. An attractive certificate is presented to each Sabbath School teacher who completes the reading of this splendid book. Hundreds of our teachers have read this book and have expressed their appreciation for the excellent help they received in their teaching technique as a result.

Most of our teachers purchased their own copy. Some Sabbath Schools purchased one or more copies to make available to their teachers on a loan basis. Our Book and Bible Houses, by purchasing a good supply of these books, have been able to make them available to our teachers for only $2.50 which is about half price. If you are a teacher and have not yet read this Teachers' Reading Course book, by all means either purchase a copy or borrow one and read it. Some teachers may have started this reading course but never finished. By all means, we would urge any such to finish reading this good book as soon as possible. You will feel well repaid. Your class members will even notice the improvement in the quality of your teaching. Place your order for this book with your church missionary secretary. When you have finished reading the book, tell your Sabbath School superintendent, who in turn will send your name in to the conference Sabbath School secretary. You will then receive your attractive reading course certificate.

As Sabbath School teachers who recognize the solemn responsibility resting upon teachers of the Word of God, we may be assured of God's special blessing in our teaching ministry as we avail ourselves of every opportunity that comes to us to improve the effectiveness of our work. We thank God for our faithful, self-sacrificing, devoted Sabbath School teachers.

Our Paradise Home

On the back page of the Review of September 19, there appears an article, "After Many Days," by Brother Huse of our General Conference Publishing Department. The story of how people became interested, and then accepted the message, to me is the most thrilling that appears in print. This story reminds me of the first Seventh-day Adventist book I purchased—Our Paradise Home. What a captivating title! First printed many years ago, it is still in print at 75 cents.

I once asked one of the leading ministers in Bozeman, "What is your concept of heaven?" Imagine the reply, "I must admit that it is very vague." Millions of Christians can answer the same question only in about the same words. My reaction to the book after I finished it was something like this: "If the Adventists have such wonderful insight into the truth of heaven of which the rest of the Christian world knows so little, they may well have a more correct understanding of other Bible questions, and the windows of my mind opened just a little bit to some other things they may have to say."

According to this story in the Review, that is how this book led one of our teachers, now at Middle East College, to a further investigation of the truth. An Adventist girl of about 13

"The Time Is Ripe"

An official of the California Department of Education made this statement to a representative of Listen, "The time is ripe for the use of these materials." This experienced educator was impressed with Listen, Smoke Signals, and other materials that are available. He knows the problems faced by administrators and teachers in public schools. Boys and girls are learning to smoke at an earlier age today, and drinking of alcoholic beverages is increasing among teen-agers. Yet materials telling of the dangers resulting from smoking and drinking are very scarce.

Now is our opportunity. The time is ripe. Every member should recognize his responsibility. The youth can be saved from these evil vices. The best plan is prevention. Certainly we have a moral obligation to the youth in our communities. They need the help that we can give.

Be generous in your giving to the cause of temperance. With your gift, submit the name and address of a person to whom Listen should be sent. If you do not know a person who would benefit personally by receiving Listen, select someone who can use the facts and information in instructing or counseling, such as a doctor, teacher, or civic leader.

Just this week a nationally known leader asked if he could have 100 copies of Listen to include in a packet he plans to give to leading physicians. The other day one of our Listen representatives visited a public school in the interest of Listen, and the administrator was very responsive because he had been receiving this magazine for several years. His subscription was sponsored by our representative and his church members.

It is very important that every member give an offering Sabbath, October 26, and submit at least one name to receive Listen. The time is ripe!

ANDREW ROEDEL

AN OPEN LETTER

To Elder G. R. Nash, Secretary
Sabbath School Department of the General Conference

Dear Elder Nash:

When I returned to my office a few days ago, after a long absence visiting our overseas fields, I found your letter of September 9 awaiting me. Before I deal with it, let me tell you just a little of how I feel after this recent inspiring experience in some of our mission fields.

I was gone two months, and visited in four of our overseas divisions. I have always known, of course, how closely together our people are bound by our common faith, but every trip to "foreign" lands brings home to me anew the miracle of unity which God is performing for His people, day after day, around the world. The languages may be different, the foodstuffs may be very strange and unusual at times, styles of dress and national customs may vary—but underneath it all, our people are one in all the world! Believing the same truths, sharing the same hopes and aspirations, and giving of their means for the support of the same grand objectives—what a miracle it is, being wrought before our very eyes!

So much for that—I just had to unburden myself of this overflowing sense of wonder and joy before I turn to the matter in your letter. You ask me to tell you something about the statistics on our Sabbath School offerings, and that I shall be glad to do. Not about the wonderful things these millions and millions of dollars are doing all over the world—you have seen these accomplishments, as I have, in every remote corner of the world, but about another aspect of Sabbath School giving, one that deserves the attention of you as leader of the Sabbath School work, and of our people here in North America.

In the preparation of our annual Statistical Report the past few days, I have been taking a close look at some of the comparative figures of recent years, particularly as they relate to the giving habits of our people. Adventists are known the world over for their open-handed giving, and well they might be. 'Way back in 1930, when the great depression was just getting a good start, our people had a burden for evangelization of the world, and they evidenced that concern by contributing, every single one of the 117,000 of them in North America, an average of $33.51 in tithe. In that same year, the average gift to the Sabbath School was $11.85—just a little over one-third of the tithe.

Since those gloomy days of 1930, God had visited His people with unparalleled prosperity here in North America. We have 343,664 members now, and the annual reports show a constantly increasing level of tithe per capita; $88.84 in 1950, $138.15 in 1960, and—the highest ever—$143.15 in 1962.

Sabbath School offerings have gone up too! From the $11.85 average per year in 1930, I note that the figure was $15.94 in 1950, $19.84 in 1960, and $20.08 in 1962—again the highest in history. But wait! I sharpened my pencil, did a little dividing and multiplying, and a good deal of thinking, and this is what I came up with:

Between 1930 and 1962, tithe increased about 4¼ times—427%, to be exact. In those same 32 years, though, offerings for the Sabbath School went up just 1.7 times, considerably less than half as fast as the tithe. In 1962, Sabbath School offerings in the North American Division amounted to just a bit less than seven million dollars. Wonderful!—and you and I know from observation, what tremendous things that amount of money does somewhere over on the other side of the world. But supposing the Sabbath School offerings had increased as fast as the tithe, since 1930; how much would we have had? Maybe you won't believe it but instead of seven million dollars, we would have had—from Sabbath School offerings alone—about 17½ millions! Why, that's almost as much as the total base operating budget for the General Conference last year. The extra ten million dollars could, I am convinced, have had an important part in bringing the coming of Jesus just a little bit closer. And after all, that's what we're all hoping and longing for, isn't it?—you and I, and all those dear folk I have just visited in Australia and Africa and Europe, and our people here in North America, too.

So there's the answer to the questions in your letter. We've done wonderfully well in tithes and offerings, and God is blessing us for it. But tell the people in our churches here in North America how very, very much remains to be done, and how important it is that they put everything they have into this great effort. Not tithes alone, but free-will offerings as well. And one of these days soon, our believers all around the world will be one, not alone in doctrine and hope, but one in fellowship—in God's great kingdom to come!

Yours in the Blessed Hope,

Adventist Social Workers

Preliminary proceedings for the organization of an Association of Adventist Social Workers was held at Worthington, Ohio, August 2-4, 1963. A formal charge and initial finance toward organization was initiated by the Battle Creek Health Center and supported by the Harding Hospital, Worthington, Ohio, both of which are self-supporting institutions currently employing professional social workers.

The purpose of the Association will be to promote Christian fellowship and constructive activity among widely scattered persons of similar spiritual and professional interests.

Adventist institutions offering medical and psychiatric care are asking for an increasing number of trained social workers. Since there are few Adventists now in the field, recruitment at college and academy levels will be sponsored by the Association. Information concerning employment vacancies within the denomination will be available through the Association.

For further information or application for membership write Association of Adventist Social Workers, 227 West 46th Street, New York 36, New York, attention, Miss Grace Fields.

Bible Society Offers

New Scripture Selection

The latest in an increasingly popular series of Scripture Selections was recently issued in English by the American Bible Society.

The new Selection, in leaflet form and titled "Lost and Found," contains the parables of the Lost Sheep, the Lost Coin and the Lost Son from the 15th chapter of Luke. Each narrative is accompanied by a large, full color illustration. The text is that of the New English Bible, printed in large, clear type.

"Lost and Found" is intended primarily for widespread use in evangelism. It is especially well suited for introducing the Scriptures to those who may not already be familiar with them. It may be given, for example, to an unchurched neighbor, or to the postman, the grocery clerk and others who serve the public. It is ideal for the school population who may not have any other access to the Scriptures.

A closing paragraph urges every reader to obtain and read a copy of the entire New Testament.

Copies of "Lost and Found" may be obtained for $1.25 per hundred from the American Bible Society's headquarters office at 450 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10022, or from its regional offices in Chicago, Los Angeles and Washington, D.C. Smaller quantities are sold by the Society at the rate of 4 copies for 5 cents.

This is the fourth Selection in a program that began in 1946 with the publication of the "Sermon on the Mount," followed by the Christmas Selection and the Easter Selection. One free copy of any of these Selections will be sent on request.

Gem State Academy Building Fund

Idaho Conference October 11, 1963

September's income rate for Gem State Academy's Building Fund slowed a little. Perhaps, many of us had extra expenses getting the young folks back to school. October should be a better month.

You will notice by the report that thirteen churches did not report anything for the entire month. We are looking for a 100% participation month for October. Many members are giving each week or each month. This will help swell the total amount and make it possible for the Conference to meet its financial commitments.

"And They Knew Not"

I turned on the radio a recent Sunday morning and heard a familiar theme. It was on the second return of our Lord. I thought surely this was one of our broadcasts, so I left the program on. Here is what the speaker emphasized: the majority of people are going to be taken by complete surprise. Then he made reference to Noah's day and how the antediluvians "knew not until the flood came." Life seemed to be going on as usual, people were marrying, eating, drinking, etc. Farthest from their thinking was the thought that all this would end suddenly. There was no escape then.

Thousands of years have passed since that terrible, destructive flood. Today most people even question its actuality.

Once again almost identical events are taking place. Everything seems to be life as usual, only with a lot of extras that make it seem even better than ever, but, and this may startle you,—the end is in sight. Life as usual will suddenly be unusual, for time will have run out.

The final movements will be rapid ones, but too many will be taken by surprise. For just 25¢ you can alert some soul by letting him read Time Running Out, the new book on the second coming. Would 10 books be too many for you to distribute? Order now—just $2.50 for 10, plus 20¢ postage. Join your fellow church members in one of the most important literature adventures ever. Time is running out, and we want everyone to help spread the news.

There are two ways you can help,—one, active participation, or two, by providing the books for evangelists, colporteurs, or ministers. Just fill out the coupon and mail it to your Book and Bible House.

Ron Cochran

Nationally known TV news commentator, Ron Cochran, has been named narrator for the "Becky" film, soon to be shown in the North Pacific Union.

Anchorman of ABC-TV's "Ron Cochran with the News," Cochran also serves on major event telecasts such as election night returns. From 1945 to 1954 Cochran was a CBS correspondent in Washington. He transferred to CBS News in New York in 1954, and built a huge following with his "New York Report" and "The Late News."

"Cochran not only narrates this film, but also appears personally in it," said Michael A. Jones, Temperance Department coordinator of "Becky." He said "Becky" will be released for national television by December 15.

"I can still see those legs dangling from the tree in front of the house (upper left) where she used to be perched eating green oranges," says Becky's mother, Mrs. Virginia Crawford.

When you drive out Old Dade City Road you soon come to the Brooksville Cemetery (upper right) where Becky is buried. It is pretty as far as cemeteries go—well shaded with conifers, palms, and Spanish moss.

John Turner, actual driver of the ambulance who took Becky to the hospital, re-enacts his role in the tragedy with an assistant. (lower left)

Nurse Abbott, actually involved in the tragedy, plays herself in the film (lower right). "My invalid mother received a Christmas card from Becky on the day she was killed," she says. "She was such a sweet little girl."

"Becky"

"If just one other mother can have her little girl as the result of someone's having seen this film, it will be worth all the torture it took to tell the story."

So stated Mrs. Ed Crawford about the poignant documentary safety film being produced by the editors of Listen which has been titled "Becky" after Becky Crawford, her 13-year-old daughter who happened to be bicycling in the path of a drinking driver and was killed. She died three years ago this Christmas.

The editors of Listen have produced this film for use in national television just prior to the Christmas holiday. A newsmen of national repute has been selected to do the narration. "Becky" runs about 15 minutes and was filmed in full color in Brooksville, Florida, the actual setting of the tragedy.

The ambulance driver and the nurse, both of whom tried to help Becky when she was hurt, play their own parts in the film.

Although "Becky" will not officially premiere until December on television, our people in the following churches will be able to see what is known as a "sneak preview" on these dates, when Temperance rallies will be held, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Evangelism in Oregon Conference

Reports of the various evangelistic efforts in the Oregon Conference indicate that the Holy Spirit is working mightily in turning many sincere hearts heavenward.

The effort in the Tabernacle church covering the West Portland area has already netted 82 baptisms with more than one hundred enrolled in the Bible

Although thoughtful four-year-old Greg Wibe cannot read words, he can interpret pictures—pictures which remind him of Bible stories and memory verses. Hearing him and other children at the 13th Sabbath program, Portland's Sunnyside church members gave $827.81 for the world's oldest city in the Middle East Division.

Class now being conducted by Elder Duane Corwin and his associates.

From West Portland the Detamore team went to Vancouver, Washington. The attendance at the first meeting on Sunday, October 13, was very gratifying. In fact, every seat was taken, including the choir loft and there were chairs in the aisles and lobby, and an overflow crowd downstairs in the church building. Doubleheader meetings are planned for next Sunday—one at 5:00 p.m., and the second at 7:00 p.m.

In Eugene and Springfield the Knowles-Hiner evangelistic team have had two baptisms, leaving many interests for the pastors and laymen to follow up.

We solicit the prayers and faithful support of our people throughout the Conference on behalf of these and other evangelistic efforts being held in the Conference.

OREGON BOOK AND BIBLE HOUSE

If you know someone in the Sutherlin area who has shown an interest in the teachings of Seventh-day Adventists by taking one of our Bible courses, reading our literature, listening to our programs, or attending our services, please send the name, address, and information to us. We would also like the names of persons having Adventist relatives. Finally, we want the names of all former church members in the area whether or not they have any interest in the church at the present time.

Please send any information that you might have for us to: It Is Written Crusade, P. O. Box 633, Sutherlin, Ore.

Vancouver Effort

The attendance at the Vancouver, Washington Evangelistic effort conducted by the Detamore team has far outgrown the seating capacity of the church. Providentially, the Fort Vancouver High School auditorium has now been made available. Beginning Friday, October 18 through October 27, the meetings will be held in the High School auditorium.

Please note the location—Fort Vancouver High School, West 26th and Main, Vancouver, Washington.

This auditorium has a seating capacity of 1,400 or about twice that of the church. Please notify your friends or interests of this change and continue your good support of these wonderful meetings.

Ribbons for Milo

Milo Academy is justly proud of its Holstein dairy, not only for the delicious milk that it produces, but also for the splendid herd of 60 registered cows.

Mr. Lloyd Scherer, manager of the dairy, entered eight fine Holsteins in the Roseburg and Grants Pass Fairs, and won a grand prize, a reserve grand prize, and seven first-prize Blue Ribbons.

At the present time the Milo dairy sells 2,200 pounds of milk a day, in addition to taking care of the school and faculty. The dairy plays a vital role in contributing to the industrial program of the school, and presently provides employment for 17 students.

A Unique School

Fifteen W's and no H make a new journalism formula for education reporting this year.

The Who are 12 students named Woodruff; the where is a mountaintop community near Wahkiakus, Washington. The when involves Mrs. Nina Williams every morning at 8 when she calls to order the 12 children of Lawrence, Melvin, and Norman Woodruff. Why is the wish for Christian education. And Teacher Williams adds a what—workout daily for physical fitness.

The school, opened in 1948, is not the most modern in design, but the building is not important when there is a consecrated teacher with space-age ideas. Though she has no degree, Mrs. Williams never misses an opportunity to learn up-to-date methods and try them. A mother of sons in their '20's, Mrs. Williams personally leads her brood in a daily calisthenics program outlined by the President's committee.

Located at an elevation of 1800 feet (4½ miles or 20 minutes up), Wahkiakus school is in the midst of God's nature. Deer feed in the play area; black bear frequently show themselves; pine squirrels "talk" to the teacher as she walks to her classroom. Only occasional rattlesnakes disturb the tranquility "out in the hills with God."

Woodruffs' Wahkiakus community is practically self-contained. They drive a school bus which has a radiophone; they operate a mill; they have a family garden; they have their own store; they carry water from their homes to the school which has no satisfactory well; they pay the teacher; they transform the school building into a church each week end.

Parents at Wahkiakus follow the Spirit of Prophecy injunction to educate their children at home until the age of seven. They supply their teacher with maps and other aids, play equipment, the latest materials. They inspire their children to learn from all of God's lesson books.

Students, ten of whom are double cousins, study respectfully together and sing sweetly of the "Sweet By and By."

And we're sure it's the only school in the country which closed entirely when "grandpa" died—and teacher went along to the funeral to care for the pre-schoolers during the service.

True Education

"True education is missionary training. Every son and daughter of God is called to be a missionary; we are called to the service of God and our fellow men; and to fit us for this service should be the object of our education."—The Ministry of Healing, p. 395.

Roxie, Anita, Marvin, John, Nancy (first row), Lynn, MerrieBel, Patty, Teacher Nina Williams, Betty Judy, and David (second row) Woodruff were "first for once" in line of conference visits, despite the late-alphabet initial. Janice was absent.

One In Eight

As we boarded the sleek Jet for our cross-country trip and were fastening our seat belts, an announcement came across the P.A. system:

"Welcome aboard flight 301. This is your X airline. Before we take off, just this last minute reminder—one out of every eight planes goes down."

How would you feel—go on with the flight or unfasten that seat belt and walk? Yet that is the exact chance every cigarette smoker takes. One in eight goes down! The risk is pretty high; too high for comfort.

You can help these bewildered folk by telling them about the harmfulness of smoking, and seeing that they get the facts. Just off the press and ready for use is the revised edition of Mind if I Smoke, by Dr. Harold Shryock, at just 50 cents per copy, plus 5 cents postage.

In addition to this, we also stock the book published by Consumer's Union, Smoking and the Public Interest. This contains a complete report on the cigarette problem from its beginning. Price $1.50, plus 5 cents postage per copy.

Christian Stewardship

Time truly is running out. Events speak out with unmistakable clarity that the end of all things is at hand. Great interest is shown by our people in the question, "What does the Lord require of me?"

By means of a question-and-answer series enlightening answers from the book Counsels on Stewardship will be quoted, with the hope that this wonderful book of inspired counsel will be secured and made a subject of intensive study.

Q. Who is it that attempts to influence God's people to ignore God's claim on the money and property in their possession?

A. "Satan is much more vigilant, keen-sighted, and skillful in devising ways to secure means to himself than our brethren are to secure the Lord's own to His cause." p. 323.

Q. Do prayers or other pious acts substitute for obedience to God's invitation to faithfulness in material matters?

A. "Prayer is not intended to work any change in God; it brings us into harmony with God. It does not take the place of duty. Prayer offered ever so often and ever so earnestly will never be accepted by God in the place of our tithe. Prayer will not pay our debts to God." p. 99.

Q. What is the warning the Lord has given concerning our ability to convert property into money in the last days?

A. "The time is coming when we cannot sell at any price. The decree will soon go forth prohibiting men to buy or sell of any man save he that hath the mark of the beast." p. 59.

Q. Wherein lies spiritual and material security?

A. "Would you make your property secure? Place it in the hand that bears the nail prints of the crucifixion. Retain all in your possession, and it will be to your eternal loss. Give it to God, and from that moment it bears His inscription." p. 49.

Q. Are the leaders of God's cause out of place in urging our people to consider their responsibility to God in things material?

A. "There are aged ones among us who are nearing the close of their probation; but for the want of wide-awake men to secure to the cause of God the means in their possession, it passes into the hands of those who are serving Satan." p. 323.

Q. Is a profession unsupported by action pleasing to the Lord?

A. "When the cases of all come in review before God, the question, 'What did they profess?' is never asked, but, 'What have they done?'" p. 129.

Excelsior Musicale

As exciting as the opening of Seattle's new Evergreen Point Bridge, the "Excelsior Musicale" (Sunday, September 22, 1963, 4 p.m.) at Spruce St. SDA church was an impressive demonstration of Christian fellowship through music. Under Mrs. Mary Belle Sterling's inspired leadership, the concert held all enthralled from the marching in of the joint Senior Choir (under Mrs. Sterling, choir director) and some members of the Plymouth Congregational Church Choir, and the Youth Choir (under Mrs. Mildred Tuggle) to the tune "We Have This Hope." Mr. Edward A. Hansen (Plymouth's organist) played the organ and Mrs. Portia Morrow the piano. Mrs. D. L. Crowder was the mistress of ceremonies. Doctor E. F. Ching gave the invocation. Pastor D. L. Crowder gave a brief word of "Welcome!"

Among those participating were Ralph McGann, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Elsie Harley, Don Gullickson, violinist, accompanied by his eight-year-old daughter, and Shirley Williams on the organ. The Auburn Academy Band, under the direction of Leland Quinn, made a big hit on trumpets and trombones. Appreciation goes also to the Conference Quartet—Ralph McGann (who traveled from Chehalis), Larry Kurtz, Ray Schoepflin, and Robert Seamount (from Oak Harbor, via his plane). "Autumn Leaves" was played by Elsie Harley. A real treat was hearing harpist Verna and her sister, soloist Meredith Frees, accompanied by James Clifton (from the Assembly of God). Thanks also to lovely soloist Mrs. Helen Grauman and her husband, Doctor Grauman, who accompanied her. The Youth Choir sang a spiritual and "The Last Words of David." The senior joint choir gave two spirituals and their final number was Mozart's "Gloria in Excelsis." Elder M. J. Perry gave a fine talk on "Philosophy of Education," as the program's funds were for the school. Mr. Edward Hansen's noble organ renditions will long be remembered. Pastor Hokama gave the benediction. Refreshments followed, headed by Mrs. Otelia Harris.

Auburn Academy Ingathering

The Ingathering Field Day at an academy is always approached with fear and trembling. The Field Day at Auburn this year was no exception to the rule. Monday, October 7, was the date chosen by the Academy as "I" Day.

Elder McClain and Elder Anderson had spent many hours arranging for cars and territory. As the sun rose, the valleys of Western Washington were shrouded with fog. However, this did not dampen the enthusiasm of 200 students who were waiting to participate. By 8:30 a.m. 31 cars were traveling to their territory to begin what was to become the best Ingathering Day in the history of the school.

It was thrilling indeed to see the smiling faces of students, faculty, and conference workers (ministers from nearby churches helped by driving their cars for the day) as they returned in the evening.

Everyone waited eagerly for the evening sale when the totals from the day's activities would be known. The reports were filled with stories of interesting experiences and reports of good offerings. Following the reports of the various cars, Elder A. R. Lodahl and Brother Lewis Banek conducted an old-fashioned auction sale of the products brought in. When the last can of food and the last pie had been auctioned, the total for the day stood at $17,000 plus a large amount of good clothing turned over to the Dorcas to be used in health and welfare work.

It was with a feeling of quiet satisfaction that we closed the day's program, thankful to our Father in Heaven for His wonderful leading and for the splendid response on the part of all who shared in the day's activities.

Evangelism in Kalispell

As a result of the recent evangelistic effort held by Elder G. D. O'Brien of the Upper Columbia Conference in the Kalispell church, seventeen precious souls were baptized by the pastor, Elder Charles Allaway.

For three weeks, meetings were held nightly except Monday nights. Elder O'Brien used the "Friendship Bible" plan and it was interesting to watch the pleased reaction of those not of our faith when the usherettes, each night, placed a Bible in their hands. There were several who won Bibles for their good attendance records.

Usherettes were Mrs. Robert McCormick, Mrs. William Osborn, Mrs. Bernie Brown, Mrs. Ron Birnel, and Mrs. Charles Allaway. Jack McClarty and Mrs. Bonnie Craft arranged for special music. Mrs. Glenn Ford was organist and Patricia McCormick was pianist.

Elder O'Brien and Elder Allaway did much personal work, at times visiting in homes until late in the night. There were many victories gained.

Crucifixes and rosaries were handed over to the ministers. Rings, earrings, and other jewelry came off. One of the candidates for baptism had a problem with alcohol, another with the use of sedatives, and others had a struggle with tobacco.

Several members of the church did outstanding work in bringing interested persons to the meetings. One member who had been giving Bible studies to his caretaker and housekeeper brought them to the meetings. As a result, this fine young man and wife were both baptized. They have a nice little growing family.

One family from Whitefish came in as a result of a Welfare Center contact and the ministry of Sister Opal Lull, the welfare director. The father and mother, a married daughter, and another married daughter and her husband were all baptized. Not long after the close of the meetings, the fifty-seven-year-old father became very ill as the result of a stroke and passed away.

A long-time member of our church is rejoicing to have her husband now united with her in the "blessed hope." Here, too, great victories had to be won. Another family was made complete when the wife and mother decided to make a full surrender.

The Kalispell church, because of the effort held here, has a new awareness of the precious souls in this area that the Lord would have them to seek out. The church members have a challenge before them that calls for them to live lives that will be representative of this wonderful message. To love, as Jesus would have us love, these new lambs of the fold who, without doubt, will be the object of Satan's fierce attacks, will be the objective toward which our church must work in its program of saving souls.

The Kalispell church solicits your prayers that as they seek the lost, the honest in heart in this Flathead Valley of the large state of Montana may all soon be led to a knowledge of the third angel's message.

MRS. VERA JOHNSON FOLKES

Week of Prayer at Mount Ellis Academy

Elder Don Spillman, pastor of the Missoula District, was the speaker for the fall Week of Prayer, held September 29 to October 5, at the Academy. Meetings were held each day at 7:30 a.m. and at 7:00 p.m.

Elder Spillman, an evangelist of wide experience, always began his meetings by directing a rousing song service of choruses, ably assisted by Mrs. Spillman at the piano.

Challenging his student listeners to dare for Christ, the speaker presented throughout the week practical suggestions for victorious Christian living. Among the searching questions he asked and enlarged upon during his studies were: Why are you here? What shall you seek for? Are you half-baked? How many of you are tramps? Are you a thief? Are you a hitch-hiker? Are you a vacillator? Where will you spend eternity? What do you want, a golden mansion, or the devil's junk heap?

Friday morning when a call was made for those to accept Christ and take their stand for Him for the first time, along with those who wished to reconsecrate themselves for fuller service for Him, the greater proportion of the student body accepted the invitation. At the Friday evening vesper service opportunity was given for audible testimony.

At the Sabbath morning service, Elder Spillman showed how weak were the excuses presented by those remaining outside the church because of the hypocrites inside by asking, "Would you say, I'll not be an American citizen because some American citizens have become traitors? Or would you say, I'll no longer use a car because criminals have used cars to make their escape from the scenes of their crimes?"

At the Missionary Volunteer meeting that afternoon, Elder and Mrs. Spillman, assisted by Dr. and Mrs. Belko and their two children, Bunny and Bobby, presented a musical and reading variety program.

Elder Spillman was available all during the week for regular counseling periods. Faculty and student prayer bands were also organized. Many expressed their appreciation for the blessings that the week had brought during the Friday evening testimony service.

CLYDE W. SMITH

UPPER COLUMBIA

Smoking Clinic Follow-up

(As told by Dr. Walter Hart of Fairfield to Mrs. Roger Wickward, Fairfield Church Press Secretary.)

Following an initial trial run of the five-day smoking clinic in our locality, it became obvious that follow-up contact with these candidates was desirable. For this reason, three successive follow-up clinics were scheduled centering primarily around the weight problem and weight control using diet instruction, exercise program, and one clinic demonstrating low calorie healthful foods.

The response at this clinic was so good that it was decided primarily at the request of the individuals concerned that a regular five-day weight reduction clinic program be scheduled. This was done starting in the latter part of June and going through to the last of July. The program followed somewhat the plan of the smoking clinics, except that it was scheduled one day a week instead of five successive nights since this seems to work out better in this type of problem.

The first clinic centered primarily around the weight reduction problem. Statistics furnished by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company showing the decreased life span in the overweight individuals were presented together with a film furnished by the American Medical Association entitled "Weight Reduction Through Diet." The second clinic stressed an exercise program in which exercises were demonstrated by our physical therapist followed by a demonstrated travelogue, Hiking as a Hobby, featuring a three-day hiking trip in Glacier National Park. The third program centered primarily on diet, eating habits, and means to control the caloric intake. This was also followed by another film furnished by the American Medical Association entitled Facts on Figures.

The fourth clinic was centered on the psychosomatic aspects of overeating and obesity. The medical lecture was accompanied by a lecture by Elder Clements of the Conference office bringing in something of the spiritual aspects in this problem.

The fifth lecture and program was again a demonstration of low calorie foods coupled with a lecture given by Mrs. Dorothy Hart on preparation of healthful low calorie foods, including vegetables, salads, and fruits, primarily.

This met with a very excellent response and because of this, one follow-up clinic has been given, this time utilizing considerable new material which has been published as a summary of materials recently presented at the American Medical Association meeting in Atlantic City in June of this year.

The response has been great enough to indicate that this problem is one that is appreciated by the people and it would seem to serve as a real lead in the public relations work of our denomination.

"Five-day Plan" Clinics in Wenatchee Area

What a thrill it is to have a part in helping people throw off the chains of tobacco and begin a new life. A team made up of Doctors Earl Bolton and Lloyd Smith of Wenatchee; and Elder R. L. Badgley of Wenatchee, Pastor Don Bauer of Cashmere, and Herman Bauman, Conference evangelist, has recently completed four successful "Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking" clinics. Two clinics were conducted in Wenatchee, and one each in Cashmere and Leavenworth, between the dates of August 18 and October 2.

A total of 100 people responded to the invitation to attend. As the doctors and ministers met with the people each evening to endeavor to help them stop smoking, the church members met for a prayer meeting to plead for Divine assistance and direction in the program, and for superhuman strength to be given those who so desired to break the defiling habit. God certainly heard and answered those prayers, as approximately 64 people were victorious in their battle against the cigarette.

Ministers came, observed, and marvelled at the success of the program. Doctors, teachers, salesmen, newspaper reporters, and many business people attended the program and broke the habit. Even a beer truck driver enthusiastically bade farewell to cigarettes for the rest of his life. People who had smoked four packs of cigarettes a day, and some who had smoked for 55 years came and conquered. Many Catholics, as well as Protestants, attended; colored as well as white; and God heard and answered the cry for help of each one. A lady named Mrs. Schmoker (a Catholic, incidentally) was one of the most enthusiastic and zealous participants in the entire program. After her ardent fight in breaking the habit, we jokingly told her she would now have to change her name to Mrs. Non-Smoker.

It was truly a wonderful and rewarding experience to have a part in these "Five-Day Plan" clinics and we praise our Heavenly Father for His marvelous blessings in making them so successful.

Farewell to the Northwest

We express through the GLEANER our deep appreciation and joy for the 17 years of fellowship and service in the Pacific Northwest. During those years we were associated with Idaho, Washington, Montana and Upper Columbia, and many are the bright memories that we have and hold.

As we now engage in pastoral responsibilities at our church in Berkeley, California, we bid an endearing farewell to the Northwest. We earnestly pray God's abundant blessings at the Union office and throughout all the conferences and churches, especially Upper Columbia, our last field of labor.

Wherever we may be, may we daily walk close with the Master, receiving to impart. May His strength and tact possess us as we live to encourage others in the Christian way. Soon Jesus is coming again, and may we all be ready and prepared.

Tri-City Area Holds Successful Smoking Clinic

A successful stop-smoking clinic was held in Pasco, Washington, September 8-12, by the pastor and medical personnel of the Riverview Seventh-day Adventist church. In a survey conducted by the Tri-City Herald, the area's only newspaper, it was reported that 70 per cent of the serious participants claimed victory over the smoking habit.

On the opening night, Pastor H. A. Welklin, director, greeted 40 smokers at the ultra-modern Pasco Public Library Auditorium. The attendance gradually increased during the five evenings, until approximately 70 were present for the final meeting. Doctors Cleve Henriques, Glen Axford, Orval Patchett, Robert Dunlop and Lois Dunlop, our local SDA physicians, presented their lectures and conducted the group dynamics in an effective manner. The president of the Benton-Franklin Medical Society, together with two other prominent local physicians not of our faith, responded to our invitation to participate on the panel and gave valuable help.

It was interesting to study the faces of the men and women as they entered the auditorium. One could detect the struggle within, the curiosity, and on the part of some even skepticism, but 'most everyone was in earnest. They wanted victory. Each evening the warmth of friendship and confidence deepened until on the final evening scores expressed their disappointment that the clinics had to come to a close.

A follow-up session was held on the evening of September 22. Present for the occasion was a patient of one of our doctors with cancer of the lung, the result of 40 years of smoking. He is a brilliant engineer at Hanford. Six months ago this man was robust, weighing 175 pounds. Today he is a walking skeleton, emaciated, and speaks with faltering breath, with only a few months to live at most. He spoke to the group for about 10 minutes, warning that they could very well suffer the same fate if they continue the use of cigarettes. His presence and testimony were electrifying.

The clinic received high billing as news in the Tri-City Herald. A staff reporter covered the story, giving it 158 inches of copy, with five pictures, much of it appearing on the front pages as headlines. Reports that keep coming to us reveal that this publicity has caused a tremendous stir on the smoking issue here in Washington's fourth largest metropolitan area. Several people have reportedly stopped smoking who did not attend the clinic, due to the influence of the clinic.

The response of one graduate of our clinic is typical. When interviewed by the Herald reporter, she admitted that on the seventh day following the clinics she had three cigarettes. "They tasted," she said, "like the bottom of a bird cage." She is determined to stop altogether now. "I was curious—but no more," she said. "I have proven to myself I can stop . . . that I am the captain of my ship. I should have stopped a long time ago."

To the ministerial-medical team this has been a rewarding experience. Another clinic is planned for the near future.

Fearing Accepts College Pastorate

Richard D. Fearing, pastor of Hinsdale, Ill., Seventh-day Adventist Church for the past six years, has accepted a call to become pastor of the Walla Walla College Church, and is already at his post of duty.

Elder Fearing went to the Chicago area about six years ago from Williamsport, Pa., where he served two churches for four years. He also pastored churches in Reading, Fleetwood, and Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He is a 1950 graduate of Columbia Union College, Takoma Park, Washington, D. C.

Pastor Fearing was ordained to the gospel ministry in 1954. He is married to the former Claoma Suhrie, of North Haledon, N. J., and they have four children, Richard, 11; Joy, 7; George, 6; and June, 4.

During his pastorate in Hinsdale the church increased in membership by 65 percent. Two new churches were organized in the immediate area, Downers Grove and Elmhurst, and most of the charter members of the new congregation came from the parent Hinsdale church. Major additions were made on the elementary school sponsored by the church and all state-wide church projects were met with success.

We welcome the Fearings into our family and fellowship and know their ministry will be an inspiration and blessing to all they serve.

Upper Columbia Academy

◆ The Seminar group on the campus is off to a good start with plans for soul-saving activities on the campus and in the surrounding community. Two of the students, Mike Osborne and Robbie Ramsey, who had a taste of evangelistic exercises this summer working with Elder O'Brien, the conference evangelist, are laying plans for the conducting of Sunday night meetings in the nearby town of Waverly. Other Seminar members will be participating in the branch Sabbath School to be conducted in the college town of Cheney. Dr. Hassey, who has just set up his practice in the town, is the active sponsor and supporter of the branch Sabbath School program there.

◆ The week end of September 27 to 29 was rather a one-sided affair on the academy campus. The boys of Sigma Kappa Sigma took advantage of the lovely weather to enjoy a week-end campout at Camp MiVoden on the shores of Hayden Lake. This left the girls and a few faculty members the sole residents of the academy for the week end. The boys' duties of milking, nightwatching, firing the boilers and similar responsibilities were assumed by the faculty men.

Weddings

David Phillip Williams and Shirley Ann Coleman were married in a lovely candlelight ceremony in the Auburn Seventh-day Adventist church on September 22. Elder Roy Henneberg conducted the ceremony. They are making their new Christian home in Kent.

On September 8, in the Mountlake Terrace church, Melvin J. Poradum and Linda Gayle Fitch were united in marriage by Elder E. W. Striplin. May God bless this new Christian home which is being established in Bellingham, Washington.

On the afternoon of September 15, in a lovely candlelight ceremony in the Greenlake church, Robert Dale Davies and Karen Francine Habersetzer were united in marriage. Elder E. W. Striplin officiated at the service. We wish heaven's blessing upon this new Christian home which is being established in Seattle where Dale is attending the University of Washington.

On Sunday afternoon, August 4, Margie Shannon and Thomas LePique were united in marriage at Centralia, Washington, in the Seventh-day Adventist church. The LePiques are making their home in Tacoma where Tom is continuing his education and Margie is teaching at the Junior Academy. May heaven's every blessing rest upon this newly established Christian home. Elder Danny Matthews officiated.

September 1 the Stateline Seventh-day Adventist church was the scene of a lovely fall wedding uniting in marriage Wanda Lee Wilson and Darrell Gene Johnson. Elder Estel Richardson performed the ceremony and asked God's blessing on this new home.

On Sunday afternoon, June 2, in the lovely setting of the Pioneer Memorial church in Berrien Springs, Michigan, Patty Lee Bee of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and Verne Hyland of Grants Pass, Oregon, exchanged their marriage vows. Elder Bruce Johnston officiated. We wish this fine couple God's richest blessing as they give themselves to His service.

On August 25 in the Eugene Seventh-day Adventist church, Herbert Blaine Hanson and Janet Lee Aaen were united in marriage in an evening ceremony performed by Elder K. H. McVay. This new Christian home is being established in Bend, Oregon.

James Harvey Duer and Bonnie Ruth Polsfuss were married September 7 in the Cottage Grove Seventh-day Adventist church by Elder K. H. McVay.

This young couple is at home in Springfield, Oregon, where the groom is employed.

Sunday afternoon, September 25, Gary Dean Higgins and Velma Elaine Epperson were united in marriage in the Adventist church of Baker, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins will make their home in College Place where Mr. Higgins will continue his training for the ministry at Walla Walla College. We wish God's richest blessing on this newly established home and on the future plans of these young people. Elder R. E. Parks officiated.

Saturday evening, September 7, Harold C. Miller and Rachel R. Wareham were united in marriage at the Toppenish, Washington, Seventh-day Adventist Church. Elder Letcher Huntington officiated. Brother Miller is a licensed mariner and Sister Miller has served many years on the nursing staff of the Portland Sanitarium. This dedicated couple will soon be leaving the States for work among the Cuna Indians of the San Blas Islands off the east coast of Panama. They will operate a new mission vessel, the Esperanza, in opening new work among the over 360 islands of that needy field. We wish for them the Lord's richest blessing.

On September 15, friends gathered in the Moses Lake Methodist church to witness the marriage of Felicia Joan Riter and Ronald E. Carman. Elder H. A. Welklin officiated at the beautiful candlelight service. The couple will be at home in Portland, Oregon. We wish them much happiness and divine guidance as they establish a new Christian home.

The Pasco Riverview Seventh-day Adventist church was the scene of the marriage of Janet Louise Smith and James Phillips on the evening of September 26. The ceremony was read by the pastor, H. A. Welklin. Janet and James are temporarily making their home in San Antonio, Texas, where the groom is serving his country at Fort Sam Houston.

Eva Johnson, formerly from Vale, Oregon, and Jon Gibson from College Place, Washington, were married in the beautiful new College Chapel on August 18. Jon graduated this summer from Walla Walla College and Mrs. Gibson has been assistant Food Director at Walla Walla College during the last school year. They have moved to Caldwell, Idaho, where he is teaching and she is Food Director at the new Gem State Academy.

A Word From the Pettits

The nearly fifty years we spent in the Oregon and Washington conferences are a very pleasant memory which shall never be forgotten. Though now living over a thousand miles from these fields of labor, these memories are still a source of personal inspiration. We miss our dear people and the wonderful camp meetings held there.

We have lived in southern California a little over a year, and have enjoyed our association here, but the wonderful Christian cooperation enjoyed both on the part of our churches and the conference officials in the Northwest makes them a part of our daily prayers.

In this field we find the same spirit of loyalty to the message and sacrificial efforts for the extension of the local work and that in the world field. To hasten the glad day when the message shall have been given to the broad world, we find our people everywhere liberal in the support of the cause. The work is very strong in California and great strides are being made in all sections of this great Pacific Union Conference.

We are just a few minutes' drive from one of our large world centers, our Loma Linda University. This is one of the largest Christian universities in North America, it is claimed. We enjoyed attending the last graduation exercises, where some 5,000 were in attendance. The Chancellor of California State Colleges gave a wonderful message exalting the great work carried on in our own University. The daily papers in this section give a great deal of space to the University.

We have been happy to keep in touch with the work in our "home states" through the weekly visits of the GLEANER. I had my eighty-eighth birthday last July 5, and we pray that the day may hasten when we shall all live in the country where no one shall grow old, and there shall be no more separations.

Amateur Hour, November 2

Plans for the 27th "Our Amateur Hour" with two former OPS men as masters of ceremonies promise fine entertainment with both former and new students being auditioned, says Dave Claridge, OPS president.

Viewed against a New York skyline as seen from the harbor, the program will proceed through classical, semi-classical, light, and novelty numbers, according to OPS men.

Guest artist coming from California is Calvin Moses, marimba soloist, who has appeared in concerts throughout the Southwest. Currently a student at Pacific Union College, the youth has studied marimba since he was five years old.

The program beginning at 7:30 Saturday evening in Columbia Auditorium will have master of ceremonies Elder Ed Webb, Missionary Volunteer Secretary of the Washington Conference and WWC alumnus. Many college youth know him as former Week of Prayer speaker, as Outdoor Club enthusiast and sponsor of worth-while recreation as well as a religious leader.

At the Youth Center, SW, Eighth Street, beginning at eight o'clock, an identical program will have as master of ceremonies Verlin Coleman of Kendon Advertising Company, Portland. Using the Youth Center instead of the Library Chapel will make an additional 500 seats available, says Claridge.

An unusual part of the program this year will be participation by winners of academy Amateur Hours. Three academies have indicated that they intend to send their winners: Milo, Auburn, and Upper Columbia.

OPS officers and their responsibilities are: Claridge, general chairman; LeRoy Fish, stage settings; Bob Sutton, publicity; Dave Lomeland, staging and lighting; J. B. Rupert, ushers; and Barry Randolph, tickets.

Tickets may be ordered from Randolph, Sittner Hall, College Place, for $1.50 or $1.25, reserved; $1 general admission.

Alumni Homecoming

Alumni Homecoming, November 1 and 2, will feature WWC graduates in the Sabbath School, in the church service, in Friendship Hours in the afternoon, in the la carte supper and Alumni Association meeting in Kellogg Hall, and, as masters of ceremonies, in the 27th annual "Our Amateur Hour," says Fred Bennett, general vice president of the Alumni Association.

Tuesday, October 29, 8 p.m.

Sabbath School superintendent will be Donald Eichner, assistant professor of political science, acting for Paul Gordon, instructor in Bible at WWC Academy, who is the newly elected spiritual vice president but cannot be present November 2. Assisting Professor Eichner in planning the music is H. Lloyd Leno, assistant professor of music.

Dr. E. Willmore Tarr, public relations secretary for the General Conference, will give the message at the worship hour. He will be on the campus for the Public Relations Seminar, October 28-November 7.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Bowers will host the Friendship Hours in the Student Association Center from 1:30 to 3:30 Sabbath afternoon.

At 4 o'clock an Evensong in the College Church will feature organ music by Dr. Melvin K. West, chairman of the department of music, with the spoken word by Loren Dickinson, instructor in speech.

Alumni will gather in the Alaskan Room of Kellogg Hall at 5:30 for the a la carte supper, says Mrs. Paul Hellic, social vice president of the Association. An Alumni Association meeting is called by President Raleigh Hardin from 6:20 to 7 o'clock.

The Amateur Hour begins at 7:30 in Columbia Auditorium and at 8 p.m. in the Youth Center.

Alumni will want to arrive Friday and be present for the MV society meeting, also. Russel Thomsen, student missionary, will relate experiences of his past summer on a mission launch.

Nurses at Monument Valley

Three students in the WWC School of Nursing learned this summer the requirements of mission service as they shared staff duties at the Monument Valley Mission Hospital, Mexican Hat, Utah.

To Jean Hecox the experience calling for quick decisions, tact, persuasive powers and nursing ingenuity were not new. Her college study for a degree was preceded by four years as supervisor of nursing at Bella Vista Hospital, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico.

During her June-to-September Monument Valley stay, she participated in all the many mission activities: twice-a-week clinic in Mexican Hat, branch Sabbath Schools, and relief work. Members of the hospital staff took their cars to transport the Indians to religious meetings. Miss Hecox remarks that 21, including children, was the largest number she took in one trip. The average was eight or nine. She also recalls that a baptism of 22 was a rewarding experience.

Myrna Shultz and Marlene Dalke spent a month at Monument Valley relieving regular nurses for vacation. The nurses found the Indians still under the influence of the medicine man. Superstition and magic hold sway. In fact, shots are considered "magic." In the hospital, says Miss Hecox, quantities of vitamin B are kept to administer if no other medication is needed.

The contribution of the three student nurses to the mission program is another link which binds Walla Walla College to the work at Mexican Hat. King Hooper, business manager, is a WWC alumnus. Mrs. Hooper is active in giving Bible studies and leading children's divisions in Sabbath School.
