

SPECIAL "SIGNS" PROJECTS

By D. E. CASLOW, Home Missionary Secretary
North Pacific Union Conference

The 1964 Signs Crusade is climaxing. Naturally the members in our churches have arranged for Signs subscriptions to reach relatives, friends, and neighbors. We carry a burden on our hearts for those close to us. This is as it should be!

But what about the other people around us? Are we concerned for their salvation? Our outreach to spread God's last message must extend beyond the inner circle of our acquaintances. Seventh-day Adventists have the responsibility to proclaim the everlasting gospel to all people. This is where the Signs can fulfill a vital role in our soul-winning program.

What are you and your church doing in using Signs to reach the public with the message of a soon-coming Saviour? Have you built some special Signs projects into your pattern of Signs evangelism?

Here are some special Signs projects worthy of sponsorship:

1. AIRPORTS—People are traveling as never before. Racks containing Signs of the Times can be placed in strategic places where travelers who are looking for something to read will find it.

2. COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES—Many of our churches have such schools in their city. Numerous youth of today are seeking religious knowledge; and they need the gospel. Signs subscriptions for college libraries, fraternity and sorority homes, and to student union buildings are excellent. More of this Signs work needs to be done.

3. PRISONS—The Bible teaches a spiritual work to be done for those in prison. What about your city and county jail, or the state prison in your area? A club of Signs will be appreciated by those who have much time to read during long, dreary days. Lives will be transformed!

4. SPECIAL NAMES—There are individuals in every community in whom an interest should be taken. Signs are ideal for imparting our message to ministers of other faiths, city and county officials, and other names deserving special attention.

5. PUBLIC PLACES—Signs are certain to be read by scores of people when placed in such places as laundromats, beauty shops, and doctors' and professional offices.

6. SHIPS—The Northwest has several ports where ships call regularly. The sailors and ships' personnel of these vessels gladly receive Signs of the Times. Here is a splendid project for someone seeking souls to be saved. Sailors do read!

Have you done your part in using Signs to spread the message? Has your church attained the Signs subscription objective for 1964? Now is the time to successfully complete the Signs Crusade by swelling the subscription list with Signs special projects.

Act now, before the Signs crusade closes, to widen the circles of Signs evangelism. Let us climax the 90th Anniversary Crusade with the best Signs soul-winning program ever.

Miss Helen Hyatt taught in our church schools in Africa and the United States for many years. She writes: "When I was teaching at our elementary school in Lincoln, I never thought I would need Christian Record services. Now that I have lost sight in one eye and have almost lost all sight in the other eye, I thank God every day for the wonderful help I receive from the Christian Record. I especially find a great deal of comfort in getting the Sabbath School lessons on tapes and the truly marvelous Talking Magazine on records."

IN HIS STEPS

By C. A. SCRIVEN
President, North Pacific Union Conference

How grateful I am this morning that the Lord has spared my eyesight so that I can look out upon the beauties of nature and enjoy them, that I may see the faces of my friends, that I may read the messages found in the Scriptures, the Spirit of Prophecy and our good denominational literature, as well as the privilege of perusing other publications.

Are you aware of the fact that there are almost one hundred and fifty million people in the world who are completely blind, or partially so? While we cannot touch their eyes, as did the Saviour, and cause them to go forth with renewed eyesight, it is our privilege to join in His ministry of love by helping to give added hope to this group. The Christian Record was established by this denomination for that very purpose. The funds which are solicited from the general public must not be used in the type of ministry of the blind which is of a sectarian nature. In order to carry on direct soul-winning service, and to provide denominational literature for our own blind, it is necessary that funds for this be furnished by our own people.

Every two years an offering is taken to meet this need. The funds are not adequate at the present time. May we appeal to you to join with us in making this a real offering when the opportunity is given on Sabbath, June 13? Surely we will be blessed of heaven as we endeavor to bring an added ray of light and hope to those who sit in darkness.

Birthdays Should Remind Us of God's Care

By KENNETH H. EMMERSON

Assistant Treasurer, General Conference of S.D.A.

It is impossible to have a birthday and not be reminded of our dependency on the Lord for every year of His life-giving care. Birthdays give us an opportunity to express our appreciation to God for the many blessings we receive from day to day.

K. H. Emmerson

As early as 1890 Ellen G. White wrote: "On birthday occasions, the children should be taught that they have reason for gratitude to God for His loving kindness in preserving their lives for another year. . . . These birthday gifts are recognized in heaven."

Later in 1894 Mrs. White stated: "Do not let the day pass without bringing thanksgiving and thank offerings to Jesus."

After reading these quotations from Mrs. White, I began to wonder just how far back the Birthday-thank offering idea goes. I find that at the beginning of the 1900's the birthday offering slogan, "a penny a year," became popular in our churches.

In 1905 birthday boxes were promoted.

In 1908 J. N. Loughborough championed the Birthday-thank offering, not only for children but urged it for adults as well.

In 1917 the first birthday offering envelopes were printed.

In 1919 these envelopes became so important that the Birthday-thank offering became one of the official sources of mission income for the Sabbath School and was reported separately. By this time the total birthday offerings amounted to $4,019.76. Work was rapidly expanding into new areas, and Birthday-thank offerings were sacredly set apart for new work and new workers in the mission fields.

We find in the records that in 1927 the Birthday-thank offering went for new work in Russia and Turkey. In 1928 this offering went to Malaysia. By this time the Birthday-thank offering had passed the $25,000 mark. In 1934 the Birthday-thank offering amounted to $28,997.14.

As the work progressed it became more and more difficult to tell in advance just what new work should benefit from the Birthday-thank offering. Because of this, special projects are not presented for this portion. Instead, these offerings go into the regular mission budget. However, each year the amount budgeted for "specials" including new buildings, new equipment, new lands, etc., is from four to ten times larger than our Birthday-thank offerings.

In 1927 the following account appeared in the Ministry magazine concerning a Brooklyn Sabbath School:

"One church member made a thank offering because of a definite answer to prayer; a sister has given an extra dollar every week for a year in gratitude to God for the conversion of her husband; a sister and her husband took a long auto trip, and were so grateful to God for His protecting care over them that they gave a liberal offering; the unconverted husband of one of our sisters sent a dollar each week because he believes that he is placing the money where it will do good; a brother on his spiritual birthday gives one dollar for each year he has been in the truth. . . . And it is not all dollars which make up the thank offering. People who have financial difficulties to meet still put in something every week. People give because the love of God constrains them."

From the small beginning of $4,019.76 recorded in 1919, the Birthday-thank offerings have grown to $313,268.90 in 1963. We most certainly are living in the last hours of this world's history. There is a loud and true call to a renewed dedication and effort to take the Word of Truth to this sin-filled world. The goal for the Birthday-thank offering for 1964 is $350,000. This goal will be reached! Will you have a part in it?

HELP THE BLIND TO SEE

By THEODORE CARCICH, Vice President, NORTH AMERICAN DIVISION

Recently five blind children came to the Arlington National Cemetery to see President Kennedy's grave. The schoolteacher, who accompanied the children from Massachusetts, personally collected 300,000 trading stamps to make the trip possible. Watching the children grope in their effort to reverently feel the wooden fence surrounding the grave—for this was the only way they could "see" the grave—caused the eyes of observers to mist and strong men to look away. The experience helped all to appreciate the blessings of sight and to strengthen the hands of any who labor for the blind.

As a church we have the responsibility of helping thousands of blind people in North America to see God's truth for these last days. The sightless, as the children at President Kennedy's grave, can only "see" God's truth by feeling it with their fingertips on the Braille publications prepared by the Christian Record Braille Foundation of Lincoln, Nebraska.

On Sabbath, June 13, an offering will be received in all churches to make possible the Braille publication of such books as Desire of Ages, Steps to Christ, Great Controversy, et cetera. If a schoolteacher was willing to collect 300,000 trading stamps to bring five blind children to see the president's grave, what should God's people give to help the great number of blind to "see" their way out of the grave?

Whether you give $1000, $500, $100, or $1.00, mark your offering "Christian Record" or just "Offering for the blind." We are counting on you to do your best for the blind on Sabbath, June 13.

"There is no lovelier way to thank God for your sight than by giving a helping hand to someone in the dark."—Helen Keller. Give compassionately on June 13

ARE YOU GOING TO BE SORRY?

By B. M. PRESTON, Secretary

Sabbath School Department, North Pacific Union Conference

Camp MiVoden, Hayden Lake, Idaho, site of the Child Evangelism Workshop and Senior Teacher's Convention, August 2 to 8.

If you are a Sabbath School children's division leader or teacher—or a Senior Division teacher—or a Sabbath School superintendent or officer, we do not want you to go through the unhappy experience of deep regret that you did not enroll for the Child Evangelism Workshop or the Teacher's Convention at Hayden Lake, August 2-8. This disappointment can come on two scores—first, by really intending to go but neglecting to send in your application until after the attendance quota has been reached. Secondly, by waiting until after the meeting has been held when you will talk with some who were there. They will tell you of the wonderful time they had and about all the help they received. Then, when it is too late you will wish that you had made the effort and whatever sacrifice that was necessary to attend. We just do not want you to be sorry.

Enrollments for these two very important Sabbath School meetings are coming in every day from all parts of the Union, including Alaska. When the total reaches approximately 325 for both meetings, due to limited facilities at Camp MiVoden, we are going to have to stop receiving enrollments. We want each one of those who can possibly go to have that privilege, but we must know soon if you anticipate coming.

Those who had the privilege of attending any of the three former Union-wide workshops held at Hayden Lake are still talking about what wonderful help they received and the pleasant time they had. This coming Child Evangelism Workshop promises to be the best yet. And this time, the Teacher's Convention feature for the Senior Division teachers is the first such meeting ever to be held in the North Pacific. It, too, will be good from start to finish. We hope that there can be one or more delegates from each of our Sabbath Schools.

A number of our Adventist businessmen, physicians, dentists, teachers ministers and others, with their wives, are planning to take some of their vacation time and attend these meetings. After all, in what better way, or in what better place, or in what more inexpensive way could people take their vacation? The daily schedule provides for plenty of time for swimming, boating, hiking, games, etc.

Division leaders and teachers—do not miss this opportunity! Senior Division teacher—you cannot afford to miss this wonderful meeting being planned especially for you. For those who may not yet have been informed on the expense involved, it is only $19.80 per person, including registration, lodging and meals from Sunday afternoon, August 2, to Saturday night, August 8, including breakfast Sunday morning, the 9th. You can hardly live at home that reasonably these days. Those who have their own camping equipment, we would encourage you to bring it. This will make it possible for us to accept a few more enrollments than we could otherwise.

Now is the time to make your plans to attend, so be sure to fill out the application blank immediately and send it in now. Then you will not be sorry later on that you did not go.

May we ask all of our Sabbath School workers and members to remember in prayer these important meetings, asking God's special blessing and help, that from these special meetings there will result a tremendous advance in every phase of Sabbath School evangelism.

Sabbath School Child Evangelism Workshop and the Senior Division Teacher's Convention Enrollment Application

Those who plan to attend either of the above meetings at Camp MiVoden, Hayden Lake, Idaho, August 2-8, 1964, should fill out and send in this blank with a $5 deposit to the Conference Sabbath School secretary as soon as possible. Enrollments are being accepted on a first come, first serve basis.

Thank You for the Bible Course

"We thank you very much for the Bible course. These wonderful words would soften any stony-hearted man." This message was not written in English, but in Hungarian. The man and wife expressing this thought live not in Europe, but in the western state of Arizona. The letter came not to The Voice of Prophecy office in Glendale, but to the Hungarian Department of The Voice of Prophecy, at P. O. Box 323, Loma Linda, California. The recipients of the letter were Elder and Mrs. Gabriel Varga, who for more than a decade have directed a constantly-growing Bible correspondence school for Hungarian-speaking people around the world.

During the past ten years, more than 5,000 applications have been received for the free Hungarian-language Bible courses. There are four of these for non-Adventist students—Faith; 20th Century; Light of the World, on the life and teachings of Christ; and the advanced course, on the prophecies of Daniel and the Revelation. Also offered to Seventh-day Adventist members is the Prophetic Guidance Course in the Hungarian tongue.

Some might wonder, Does all this effort really pay off in souls won for the kingdom of Christ? Our answer is that during a recent visit to the Hungarian school, Mrs. Pond and I discovered a much higher percentage of baptisms among the graduates of the Hungarian courses than from among students of the English Bible courses. One of every five graduates of the Hungarian Bible courses is baptized, whereas the English-language schools average one baptism from every fourteen graduates.

Hungarian Voice of Prophecy students have been baptized in eleven nations across the world: Canada, Brazil, Hungary, Australia, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, Peru, Germany, Yugoslavia, and the United States. United States areas with the heaviest concentration of Hungarians are: Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Indiana, and California.

When Hungarian-speaking people learn about these free Bible correspondence courses in their own language, they are grateful to all who make it possible to get these lessons into their hands. You will enjoy reading some of their responses:

"I learned much from the Bible, and received answers for many questions I did not understand before."—Canada

"We thank you with love for the studies of the Holy Scriptures. By this Bible course I would like to understand all the teachings of the Bible."—New Jersey

"To God be the glory forever. Thank you very much for the Bible studies. I am very happy to study them."—Canada

"Thank you very much for the studies. I understand now the Bible. Nobody explained the Bible this way to me before."—California

Supporting literature in the Hungarian language includes ten books and a good variety of tracts in various subjects. Three of the books are used specifically as supplementary reading along with the Bible courses.

Gratefulness for help received from the Bible lessons is often expressed to the Bible school by those who are studying, many of whom have not yet actually received baptism.

Many of these students become enthusiastic in inviting others of their countrymen to share the blessings to be received from a study of the Hungarian Bible courses.

Broadcasts in the Hungarian language from the great centers of Hungarian-speaking people could soon swamp the facilities of the Hungarian Bible school. Elder and Mrs. Varga would welcome this experience! Thus far however, the lack of funds for payment of station time has frustrated broadcasting efforts. There are those among the Hungarian ministry who would be capable of carrying the work of speaker if station time could be purchased.

Thousands of these wonderful Hungarian people truly love the Lord. Many of them have come to the United States within the past decade, and they should be quickly contacted with the vital message of Christ's soon return. We should take advantage of the opportunities offered by this great influx of people in recent years.

Please pray with us that a much greater work may quickly be done among the Hungarian-speaking people here in the United States and Canada, and in other parts of the world as well.

M.E.A. THANKS YOU!

Yes, if it was not for your wonderful help, we would not have accomplished the goal of 150 place settings of Twin Star stainless steel table service in less than a year. It has been quite impossible to answer all the letters and to thank you personally. I have received 36,455 coupons and nearly $100 in cash and stamps. The most received in one parcel was 2,420 coupons from Great Falls. Several hours were spent trimming, counting, sorting, and packing all these coupons, but it was very exciting and enjoyable I can assure you.

If you are not saving coupons for yourself or someone else, please send them to me. Our Home Economics Department and the little kitchen in the girls' dormitory could use things which are obtainable in the same way as table service. Remember the outdated coupons are accepted from Club Groups, so we can use every one.

May God bless you abundantly for what you did to help. The expressions of students and teachers alike would make you glad that you, too, had a part. A thousand thanks.

Mt. Ellis Academy Voice of Youth

The young people of Mt. Ellis Academy, Bozeman, Montana, under the direction of the academy pastor, Elder Larry Lewis, have been very active during the last two school years in sharing their faith in nearby communities. During February and March of 1963 meetings were held in Belgrade, Montana, with the majority of the academy students from all the departments helping to prepare the city for the meetings. Preparation included distribution of literature, baskets at Thanksgiving time and a Branch Sabbath School conducted each week. The preaching for the meetings was done by ten academy students with other students leading the music, presenting specials, ushering, et cetera. As the school year drew to a close, three adults and several children attended church every Sabbath; they have since been baptized.

Spring, 1964, found many of these same young people together again in a new campaign at Three Forks, Montana. These meetings have moved from a home into a rented hall and are being conducted three nights a week and a service on Sabbath. Every indication points to a good harvest of souls from this series of meetings also.

Wherever our young people share their faith, souls are helped toward the kingdom—including their own. Has your society conducted its share-your-faith campaign yet?

Last Call to Camp Meeting

In just a few more days many of you will be meeting with us on our campground at Walla Walla College. Your camp meeting committee and others working with them are putting forth every effort to make your stay comfortable and enjoyable.

Through the media of this paper I would like to urge every member of this conference to attend camp meeting this year. Many good things are in store for you. The Voice of Prophecy group as well as many other interesting and inspiring guest speakers will be with us. The first meeting is scheduled for Thursday evening, 7:15, June 11.

"An High Day"

Sabbath, June 13, is going to be an high day in the Upper Columbia Conference. For months now our Operation Orion program has been pointing forward to this Sabbath afternoon program at camp meeting in College Place. We would like to urge all of our church members to be in attendance and to bring to camp meeting with them any converts which they may have made during the past months of Operation Orion. We believe this program is ordained of God, therefore, it is ultimately bound to succeed. In proportion to the enthusiasm and effort put into this program, coupled with the blessing of God, will results be seen. Let us all plan to be in attendance for this inspirational and instructional service. Let us all pray that Operation Orion will succeed in all its soul-winning endeavor. If God be on our side who can be against us?

Which Goals Are Important?

"He aimed at nothing and hit it with amazing accuracy." This familiar quotation says a lot in a few words. Most of us are well aware that aims and goals in life are necessary. But when we set some for ourselves and someone sets some more for us, how do we know which ones are important?

Take the Signs goal for instance: 2 subscriptions per member. Where or how this goal originated, we have no idea. Some churches reach 5 subscriptions per member; some seem to have trouble getting 1 per member. If there are four church members in your family then your family should order 8 subscriptions in order to meet the goal of 2 per member. But there is a much more important goal than this.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

OPERATION ORION RALLY

On Sabbath afternoon, June 13, from 2:30 to 4:00 p.m. there will be a mass meeting on the campus of Walla Walla College because no building is large enough to hold the expected crowd. Of necessity we are holding this meeting out on the campus so that everybody may be in attendance at this one meeting. If you care to bring chairs or blankets, it would be in order. This is one meeting that every Seventh-day Adventist in the Upper Columbia Conference should plan to attend during this camp meeting season.

R. C. Remboldt, President

How many of your loved ones should be reading the Signs? How many of your friends should be reading the Signs? How about a club of Signs for the Voice of Prophecy or for some very needy overseas field?

It is good to try to help your church reach its goal of 2 per member or 5 per member, but your personal goal should be based on the questions above. Earnest prayer and a little meditation will help you to set your goal.

The campaign prices are still in effect. Do not be a procrastinator. The sooner your list comes in, the sooner the messages of hope and salvation will be going to those that mean so much to you.

The Best MV Meeting of The School Year

Many excellent MV meetings have been experienced during the past school year, but Sabbath, May 16, was the best. It was dedicated to a baptism of six of our MV members.

No one influence can be cited as being responsible for the decisions of these youth to dedicate their lives and talents to Christ. There were, however, youth in the dormitories who have been studying with and praying for these youth. In addition, the pastor had a baptismal class.

Our MV society has a goal of 25 souls that they accepted at the MV council held at Walla Walla College last year. They rejoice that they saw fruitage from their labors.

If you had been visiting with us that Sabbath, you would have experienced a thrill of your spiritual emotions.

The MV leaders in charge planned their program stressing the importance of baptism. A student read the scripture record of Matt. 3:13-17 which gives the Lord's example of baptism. Elder V. E. Berry, our campus poet, had composed a poem, "Baptism," that described the experience of accepting Christ. This was read and presented to the candidates as a memento of this day to which they shall always look as the beginning of a new life. The prayer called upon God to seal this experience and the believer till Jesus comes.

After the young people were officially accepted into the church the congregation was invited to express their joy for these decisions by coming forward. It appeared as if the whole student body rose up to extend their happiness by the hand clasp of Christian fellowship.

During the baptism, principal, deans, teachers, family loved ones, and close student friends stood with the candidates as a sign of their spiritual support now and for the years ahead.

Charles and his wife (Ruth Emery), former students of Walla Walla College, received their Master's degrees at Loma Linda University in June 1963, specializing in Public Health Education. They received their appointment last November to the special Heri project initiated by the School of Tropical Medicine of LLU, replacing Dr. Bill Dysinger who returned to LLU in January.

Ruth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Emery, of Bandon, Oregon, left Portland on April 8 by jet, to join the Staffords and assist as they can in the work at the mission. They plan to remain for the five-year term as self-sustaining workers. R. M. STAFFORD

Federal Way Church Under Construction

July 15, 1965, was set as the target date for completion of the first phase of the new Seventh-day Adventist church building under construction at 810 South 312th, Federal Way, Washington. However, the first meeting was held in the new Sabbath School wing of the church on Sabbath, February 22, 1964, with Elder Glenn E. Patterson, district pastor, preaching his farewell sermon.

This portion of the church provides class rooms for Cradle Roll, Kindergarten, Primary, Junior, and Youth divisions, plus a main auditorium for the regular Sabbath morning church service.

The Federal Way church was organized in July, 1960, while Elder Thomas Spindle was district pastor, with a charter membership of 37. They met in the Steel Lake Elementary School while raising funds to construct the new church. The church now boasts a membership of 96.

Including the cost of the land, the present construction cost approximately $60,000. A good share of the work has been done by donated labor, with members taking time from their regular employment and donating time after work.

The new pastor is Elder W. C. Risley of Escondido, California, with Norman Versteeg, assistant. Earl Henderson, Alden Burman and Vernon Jennings serve as church elders.

"Liberty" Editor Speaks To Law Students

Willamette University Seventh-day Adventist law students and their wives met in the Blue Room of the Oregon State Capitol for a noon luncheon recently. Elder Roland Hegstad, editor of Liberty magazine, was the speaker.

Elder Hegstad discussed recent political developments and their relationship to Scripture and the Spirit of Prophecy.

Representing the conference were Elder H. A. Peckham, religious liberty secretary Oregon Conference; V. J. Jester, conference treasurer; and Elder J. D. Trude, Salem pastor.

Box 2000—

The Doorway to a New Life

Just the other day my wife asked a new believer, "How did you first become interested in the Seventh-day Adventist Church?" The lady replied, "It was through Box 2000."

Box 2000, Portland 14, Oregon, is the address of the TV Bible Class. This lady had written to Box 2000 to request the free Bible Course. As she studied the lessons many of the traditional beliefs were disturbed. She found herself feeling confused. Fortunately she sought out the local Adventist pastor. Elder Kenneth McVay was happy to help this dear soul find her way out of confusion. He kindly led her through the study of the Bible right into the church.

When this new member heard that our evangelistic team was going to hold meetings in Ashland, she immediately thought of her sister and brother-in-law living in Ashland. She arranged to be with them during our meetings in Ashland so that she could see that they got to attend. At the end of the meetings the sister and her husband were baptized.

When we moved from Ashland to begin meetings in Klamath Falls these three new members moved to Klamath Falls to take in the meetings there. They needed transportation to the meetings and a non-Adventist man who was attending church offered to bring them. At the close of these meetings the man who provided transportation and his wife were baptized.

Thus the chain reaction continued. It all began with an enrollment card addressed to Box 2000. Box 2000 continues to be an open gateway to a new life.

As you invite your friends to view the TV Bible Class it may be that some of them will find the truth for our day through the lessons that come from Box 2000.

If Box 2000 has had a part in your finding the true church, please write and tell us about it so we can share the story with others. Write to:

Full of Years

This has been a memorable year for two conference members who both became centenarians.

Mrs. Mary Cowell

During the winter Mrs. Mary Cowell was honored by a group of Hood River members and their Pastor T. O. Willey. A native of Wisconsin, Mrs. Cowell has lived in the Hood River area most of her life.

Mrs. Lillian Shierk

Mrs. Lillian Shierk celebrated her 100th anniversary in the spring. A member of Tabernacle church 40 years, Mrs. Shierk has lived in Portland the past 80 years. Originally from Nebraska, she moved to Portland from California. Mrs. Shierk's daughter, Mrs. Gueyrieno Seger, is also a Tabernacle member.

West Portland Evangelism—Voice of Youth

Ever since Elder F. W. Detamore began his evangelistic work in the Portland area in the new Tabernacle church, this lovely sanctuary has been the center of evangelistic endeavor. Elder Detamore's immediate series was followed by a Revelation Study Class conducted by Pastor W. R. Riston and the writer.

The youth of the Beaverton and Tabernacle churches after an enthusiastic Ingathering program in December, rallied with their MV leaders to conduct a Voice of Youth meeting for a six-week period at nearby Tigard in January and February. This presently is being followed by a weekly branch Sabbath School conducted each Saturday at 3:00 p.m.

When our scheduled full-scale effort opened at Tabernacle in March, the youth took a leading part in the various phases of the meetings. One lady who began attending the Tigard meeting was baptized and her husband is presently attending church with her.

The 25-night series which was just concluded at Tabernacle has resulted in 16 baptisms so far. The laymen are to be commended for their support in attendance, offerings and assistance. The church attendance and tithe show favorable gains as the normal result of evangelistic work.

The writer would like to express his appreciation to Ed Turner who led out in a fine musical program and to Pastor Riston who tirelessly visited interests and also attended the meetings. The Beaverton and Milwaukie pastors helped prepare interests for baptism who attended and united with their churches.

As our family leaves Oregon to be at Andrews University for a year, we solicit your prayers for God's guidance. We will be located in Wagoner, Oklahoma, to hold a tent effort in June and July while en route. If our readers have loved ones in that area, please send their names and addresses to us in care of 1103 S. E. 11th Avenue, Wagoner, Oklahoma 74467. We solicit your prayers that God will bless with souls in this formerly dark county. May His work soon be completed everywhere that we might go to our permanent Heavenly Home.

Weddings

Miss Sharon Rae Craig of College Place, Washington, became the wife of John W. Unterseher of Harrisburg, Oregon, at the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Bellingham, Washington, on Sunday, May 17. Elder Andrew Dahl performed the service. John is completing specialized training for the Army in San Antonio, Texas, where the young couple will make their home for the next three months. He will then be assigned to permanent duty at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C.

Friday afternoon, April 24, in a modest and tastefully arranged setting at The Dalles, Oregon, Seventh-day Adventist church Linda Elizabeth Curl became the bride of Arthur William Durbin. Elder Letcher Huntington officiated at the service. May the Lord's rich blessing attend these young people as they establish this new Christian home in The Dalles community.

Miss Judith Bakke of Sandy, Oregon, became the bride of Mr. John Thompson, of Seattle, at a candlelight service conducted by Ralph D. McGann, in the Chehalis Seventh-day Adventist church, Sunday afternoon, May 3. An interesting feature of the service was that the groom was assisted by his triplet brothers. May God richly bless this newly founded Christian home in Seattle.

Dean of Boys to Take Up Duties in August

John L. Hamilton, newly appointed dean of boys for Gem State Academy will be on campus August 1. Mr. Hamilton is a graduate of Walla Walla College (1961) and is an experienced teacher. He is currently principal of the Boise Intermediate School. His acceptance of the responsibility of dean of boys at the Academy assures the young men of continued strong leadership in the dormitory and further sponsorship of improvement plans for their residence home.

John L. Hamilton

Mr. Byron Bradley, the current dean, will serve as assistant on occasion to "spell" the regular dean. His new assignments include additional teaching load in the expanding health and physical education program for the coming year.

Mrs. Hamilton is the former Arlene Gildroy. The Hamiltons have two children: Louis age five, and Lynnette age four. Mr. Hamilton will teach several subjects in the Bible area, and of special interest to hobbyists is the consideration at present of a plan to provide a "hobby hour" for those who have special interests in arts and crafts next year with Mr. Hamilton in charge. His college major in industrial arts will serve him well in this special work. The addition of the Hamiltons is a further evidence of a growing Gem State Academy curriculum and an expanding school family!

TITLE: Ye Shall Reap

AUTHOR: Virgil Robinson

Paperback, 3 color cover, 196 pages. Price: $1.95

The contemporary African is daily becoming a more dominant force in the world political picture. Today's African is educated, cosmopolitan, aware.

In the Africa of yesteryear it was not so. The Dark Continent was shrouded by the mystery of impenetrable jungles and devil dances. Rutted, winding footpaths connected remote mission outposts where today modern highways make intracontinental travel an everyday thing.

Ye Shall Reap demonstrates the powerful effect of Christianity on the mind of the African individual. In a country where vastly different ideologies struggle for supremacy, the reality of God's love assumes increasing importance. Men's minds are seeking the assurance of its power.

Africa today is being shaken by the internal struggle of nations being born. Even so, as the author puts it, "This is the day of opportunity. This is the day we have looked forward to for preaching the gospel in Africa. Never have the opportunities been greater. The African is naturally religious. Where hundreds of millions of people belonging to the great false religions of Asia are perfectly satisfied with their spiritual condition, the African today is definitely looking for something better than what he has."

The challenge in Africa is the challenge of the entire world. "This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come."

"Children's Offering" Adds TV Stations

As a result of this year's "Children's Offering," WNBE-TV in New Bern, North Carolina, has been selected as one of the "children's stations" which will telecast Faith for Today during the coming year. This is the sixth station to be so designated since this plan started in 1960 giving church school children this opportunity for an offering on Valentine's Day.

At this time the children's offering has reached nearly $6,700, an increase of approximately 25 percent over last year. All funds are expected in soon and it will be possible to select a second children's station for 1964 based on the amount of money on hand. This will be announced in the union papers.

Church school children in the North Pacific Union have given $1,127.41 to date. Fifty-nine classrooms or schools sent offerings to Faith for Today running from a few dollars to a high of $198.35 from College Place, Washington.

Pastor and Mrs. Fagal and the entire Faith for Today organization wish to thank our boys and girls for this fine contribution to the work of saving souls through the medium of Tele-Vangelism.

an inspirational Sabbath School, and to the loyal supporting church members.

As the College Church advances to meet its continuing and increasing responsibilities on the campus, in the community, and around the world, it must not forget Elder Figuhr's challenging statement: "It is God's desire that this house be a place where men and women can find satisfactory answers to life's questions."

Walla Walla College

Awards Assembly

New and traditional honors at Walla Walla College were presented in an Awards Assembly, May 25, with P. W. Christian presiding.

Loren Dickinson, instructor in speech and director of the college's educational FM radio station, KGTS, presented achievement and service awards to three students representing, he said, some twenty who serve the college and community unselfishly. To Bob Dietel, Santa Cruz, California, went the miniature microphone signifying the first annual achievement award. Ken Hart, Roseburg, Oregon, and Charles Kirkpatrick, Bozeman, Montana, received technical service awards.

Newest award went to Laurice Porter, junior from Hermiston who will become next year's first graduate of the new journalism department. A summer journalism internship from the Pacific Press Publishing Association, Mountain View, California, was presented by Miss Roberta Moore, department chairman.

Miss Moore presented to Ila Russell, Puyallup, a senior and editor of the Collegian, the first annual award for the best news series, a four-part story on high school dropouts.

Professor K. A. Aplington, chairman of the department of English, presented cash awards for manuscripts published in the Youth's Instructor Pen League Contest. Barbara Parmele, Sandy, Oregon, won $50 second award, Tom Calkins, College Place, the $35 third award, and Ruby Stahlnecker, College Place, honorable mention in Advanced Writing. Two freshmen won writing awards: Lorraine Mittleider, Bellingham, a second, and Reginald Hansen, Anchorage, Alaska, a third in the freshman contest.

Robert MacLean, Forest Grove, Oregon, was honored as grand award winner for the student publication, the Gadfly. A tuition scholarship award also went to him in recognition of his selection by the National Council of Teachers in English for high achievement in creative writing.

Dr. Frank Meckling, chairman of the department of history, announced two departmental awards: the history of civilization award to Richard Ford, Moscow, Idaho, and a U. S. history award to Charles Scriven, Lynwood, Washington. Houghton Mifflin Company makes the awards possible. Both Upper Columbia Academy students, they are continuing a tradition for high scholarship in history, said Doctor Meckling. For the fourth consecutive year the civilization award has gone to a UCA graduate: Arnold Renschler, 1961; Alden Thompson, 1962; Dick Hart, 1963; Ford, 1964; Scriven (U. S. history) also from UCA, 1964.

Ford won two additional awards: the Chemical Rubber Company 1964 Freshman Achievement Award in mathematics presented by Dr. Gordon Hare, chairman of the mathematics department; and the same company's freshman chemistry award presented by Dr. Carl T. Jones, chairman of the chemistry department.

Gordon Johnson, Portland, received the Handbook of Chemistry and Physics for high achievement in physics from Dr. C. C. Barnett, chairman of the department of physics.

Dr. Eugene Winter, chairman of the physical education department, presented awards for skiing to Norman Tang, Kaneohe, Hawaii, and Arlene Ausmus, Lawen, Oregon.

Anita Lenz, senior foods and nutrition major, College Place, won the Proctor and Gamble trophy for outstanding achievement in the home economics department. Miss Evelynne Wright, chairman of the home economics department, made the presentation emphasizing scholarship, cooperation, enthusiasm and leadership as qualities considered in making the award.

Professor J. G. Mehling, chairman of the business and economics department, presented to Joyce Bentz, Everett, Washington, the silver medal Wall Street Journal Award and a year's subscription to the Wall Street Journal. Given by the Dow Jones Publishing Company for the 16th consecutive year, this award went to a young woman for only the second time, according to professor Mehling.

Professor E. F. Cross, chairman of the department of engineering, presented to Ron Johnson, Portland, senior in electrical engineering, the Handbook in Electrical Engineering for consistent high scholarship and leadership.

Vice President R. H. Brown, presented certificates to those chosen last fall for this year's publication of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. They are: Dave Claridge, Jeanette Clark, John Griffin, Beryl Johnson, Rosemary Kellogg, Don Murray, George Nordby, Ken Ogden, Ila

College Church Dedication

"My house shall be a house of prayer for all people."

All aspects of the services marking the dedication weekend for the College Church were planned to harmonize with the preceding text.

Friday evening's message by former Pastor P. C. Heubach called for and elicited a consecration; the Sabbath morning worship hour message by Elder Walter Beach, secretary of the General Conference, was a challenge to accept God's way even though at the time it might seem like "Life's Second Best."

As president of all Adventists around the world and as an alumnus of Walla Walla College, Elder R. R. Figuhr spoke of the dedication of the church edifice—The Place, of the congregation—The People, and of life's goals—The Purpose, leading the huge audience to the rich joy of dedication.

A history of the College Church by Dr. G. W. Bowers, first elder, preceded the thrilling dedication anthem composed by Dr. Blythe Owen, WWC's composer in residence, and performed by choirs, organ, brass, and percussion instruments.

Following the sermon, Pastor R. D. Fearing led the people in the act of dedication and Elder C. A. Scriven, union conference president, offered the prayer of dedication.

All details contributed to the happy occasion: messages from denominational leaders and WWC alumni around the world, the full pulse of loyalty evidenced by visiting alumni, leadership and participation of students in conducting tours for over 600 guests, perfect May weather, and the beauty of floral arrangements.

Appreciation is due to church and college administrators and committees, to all who provided the "music which lifted," to alumni of 1934 who brought
