THE NORTH PACIFIC UNION YOUTH CONGRESS

Memorial Coliseum, Portland, Oregon — April 3 to 5

We live in an artificial world of beatniks, beatles, hot-rodgers, jitterbugs, and twisters. This is a world where the mood of the day breeds rebellion, contempt for authority, law and traditions, where moral laxity and Christian standards are on the decline, where honesty and integrity are forgotten attributes. It is in this kind of world that God sees youth.

The leaders of the church look to you to arise to the mighty task of carrying the gospel of Jesus Christ to a last-day generation described by the prophet as "only evil continually." God is counting on you—the righteous, God-fearing, standard-bearing youth of the Advent Movement to finish His work. We salute you. We welcome you cordially to this time of spiritual commitment in preparation for the task that lies just ahead.

E. R. WALDE, President
North Pacific Union Conference

We welcome you to the "City of Roses" and to the Congress. The vital church life of this denomination is best expressed by the voices of its youth. It is for you to apply the gospel of Christ to the issues of our times, and to stand straight and be counted among the soldiers of the cross. May the Lord bless as you lay your plans to be in attendance.

1969 CAMP DESMOND T. DOSS

C. D. MARTIN

Associate Director, National Service Organization

Just what the future holds for young men facing military service remains a question. There are many ideas being circulated. We hear of an all-volunteer army, a random-type or "lottery" selection of draftees, 19-year-olds being taken before 25- and 26-year-olds, draft deferments for college education and employment being greatly restricted, and other possible changes. This is a time of uncertainty.

One thing is sure, however—our young men need preparation for whatever is ahead. Vietnam is still with us. Draft quotas are still being met. The pressure is still on for our youth as they reach military age. We must care for our men now, before they are inducted.

This is where the Medical Cadet Corps is needed. Camp Desmond T. Doss will be held again this year at Grand Ledge, Michigan. The dates are June 3-15, 1969. This annual National Cadet Corps Training Camp, with its military setting and fast-moving program of classroom work and outdoor activities, is a real opportunity for all young men 16 years old and above.

Every Adventist youth should know the Church's position regarding Sabbath observance and noncombatancy. Even more important, he needs to do some real serious thinking to be sure he has a clear understanding and a personal conviction concerning these vital issues. He needs to know how to approach an officer and make his conscientious requests known. He can profit by learning basic principles of drill, first aid, and other related subjects. These things and much more are included in the Camp Doss program.

We would urge all eligible young men to take advantage of this training and to remember the date, June 3-15. Camp Doss folders are being supplied to all pastors and MV secretaries. This folder contains complete details of the camp and an application form.

(Please Note: All evening meetings begin at 7:00 o'clock sharp.)

President John Kennedy, Senator Robert Kennedy, and Dr. Martin Luther King, church attendance slipped to 43 percent on an average week and 67 percent of all Americans were of the opinion that religion's influence was declining in the nation.

Something has shattered this generation's belief in religion as a force in the nation. In Mr. Gallup's report he reveals that in the grade schools only 18 percent felt that religion's influence was declining, and only 3 out of 10 felt this way in the public high schools, but by college age, more than half of all that were polled felt religion was losing its influence, and then finally as the poll was taken among young adults 77 percent regarded religion as a sick society; but with this, accept the fact that 98 percent of all Americans believe in a God, Gallup reports. Could it be that they still cling to the motto on the coins in their pockets, "In God we trust"? How do the above events affect our relationship to our God? Surely these happenings are but harbingers of what is yet to come. Let us draw closer and study more as we see the day approaching.

Pathfinding Is to Save Youth

We are very glad to see new Pathfinder clubs start in the Washington Conference. A small club can be operated in just as sharp a manner as a large club, if you can get good leadership to help you.

Is It the Coin or the Motto We Trust?

In a recent Gallup Poll in this country, it was revealed that 7 out of 10 agree that religion is losing its influence on the life in this nation.

In church attendance and religion's influence, 1958 was a high year. Ten years later after the Russians had exploded a 50-ton megaton nuclear bomb and Castro had ascended to the political throne in Cuba, after the United States supreme court twice had ruled that prayers cannot be required in public schools and after the assassinations of Friday's workshop dialogs offer opportunity for discussion in a choice of eight contemporary youth concerns: Military service, modern morality, recreation, Christian witness, careers, science and the Bible, space-age significance, and purposeful prayer.

Directing the discussions will be Richard Fearing, Gordon Balharrie, Eugene Winter, Jim Roberts, Larry Lewis, Joe Barnes, Robert Brown, Donald Rigby, all of Walla Walla College; John Hancock from the General Conference; N. A. Lindsay, Seattle; and Reo Clyde, Tacoma. This will be Elder Clyde's last meeting with Northwest youth before leaving for his new assignment in Saigon.

ATTENTION: SERVICEMEN

We would like to ask that all U.S. Service personnel, who have been ETS since 1967, please wear dress uniforms for the Patriotic Program, Saturday night, April 5, 7:00 o'clock in the Memorial Coliseum in Portland, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Little (left) are the organizers and directors of the new Blue Heron Pathfinder Club in the Raymond church. Right: Elder Don Blehm introduces the new Raymond Pathfinder Club.

It was a privilege to help inaugurate the enthusiastic Raymond club, under the direction of John and Cozy Little. Several of their members are not Adventists, and the new club, called the Blue Herons, has already gained much public interest as the result of local newspaper coverage of their planned activities and current fund-raising projects.

The Seventh-day Adventist denomination is confronted with the very urgent responsibility of conserving the resources of its young people. Pathfinder clubs are a part of the conservation movement and are organized to reach our junior youth wherever they are, lead them to Christ, help to fix their ideals, make the Christian life attractive, and teach certain basic skills.

Pathfinder club staff leadership must be prepared to give spiritual guidance to the boy and girl. The supreme purpose of all our activities is to lead the sons and daughters of the church to accept Christ and remain loyal to the Seventh-day Adventist message. The peak age for decision for Christ and the church is about 12 years. As this period of life passes, the prospects of favorable action diminish.

Pathfinding, admittedly, does not meet the needs of everyone. However, it is needed and appreciated by most juniors. If your church is in need of a club, or in need of more leadership for its present club, and you are qualified to teach basic skills, why not give of your time to your juniors.

Plan now for this anniversary event.

Stewardship Drive at Choteau

On February 15, the Choteau church, under the leadership of Elder Norman Graham, met for their first study of the "Concepts of Stewardship." A large representation of the church was present. A wonderful spiritual blessing has come from these meetings. We learned about the definite program God has given to us and the real opportunities we have to serve Him.

The stewardship program as given to the ancient Israelites was ordained to prevent selfishness and covetousness from gaining a foothold in their lives. It is well that we have the opportunity to gain from their experiences.

The local elder, Richard Harris, made a few remarks to the people of the church regarding the importance of each becoming an active part of this program. We feel that this leadership and the real spirit of fellowship which prevails in the Choteau church, will bring them to a successful conclusion in meeting the responsibilities of a Christ-filled life.

Sabbath afternoon we all gathered together for a fine potluck dinner, in which a real fellowship was enjoyed. This gave an opportunity to many to speak their thoughts with regards to the Stewardship Emphasis program. As sundown came, we finished the worship of the day with a few chosen thoughts from Pastor Graham, and after this there were more presentations and discussions regarding the Choteau program.

From the inspired pen of Sister White in Testimonies, Vol. 1, page 221: "I saw that in the arrangement of systematic benevolence hearts will be tested and proved. It is a constant living test. It brings one to understand his own heart to see whether the truth or the love of the world predominates."

Each of us must, as God prospers us, remember Him who has so freely given to us the many blessings that are ours in this life and in the life to come.

May the work of the Choteau District continue to be blessed as the good folk there lead out for their Saviour, Jesus Christ.

What God Hath Wrought

"Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for Me?" Jer. 32:27. This text was demonstrated most wonderfully in the Ingathering program this last year when the Butte district far exceeded doubling what was done the year before.

Butte and Anaconda were in the midst of a crippling strike lasting nine months during the 1967 campaign. During this time the image of the church was much enhanced by the welfare work done.

Under the able leadership of Dr. Richard Price, local lay activity leader, and nearly 100 percent membership cooperation, the Butte church raised a total of $2,190.63 which was $1,101.89 over last year. One member drove and directed every night, and another member (who went out when she could) loaned her car every other night of the campaign.

Anaconda, whose active membership is composed of four elderly ladies and the local elder, Brother Nystrom, and his wife, with the assistance of a few members from Butte, raised a total of $823.26 or $716.26 over last year.

Boulder, with a working membership of three and the pastor and his wife, raised a total of $91.50 which was $55.78 over last year's total.

The Helena church members rallied to the cause raising $802.10 or $361.37 over last year. Much of the success was due to the efforts of the Pathfinders under the able leadership of Mrs. Morris Brusett, and Mrs. Glen Parker.

Due to inclement weather the victory celebrations were not held until February 1 for the Butte and Anaconda churches and February 15 for the Helena and Boulder churches. Elder Don MacIvor, Montana lay activity director, was present in Helena to give the Ingathering awards.

Baptism

Another inmate of Montana State Prison surrendered his heart to the Lord and was baptized January 18, 1969.

The spiritual work in the State Prison has been largely due to the untiring efforts of Brother Harry Gregg. A branch Sabbath school is regularly conducted by Brother Gregg who has had the joy of seeing many souls baptized during the last eight years.

Brother Gregg has a unique privilege that is granted to no other person. When a person is first sent to the State Prison he is assigned to what is called "Fish Row." For a week or two he cannot receive any outside mail or any visits. Brother Gregg can and does visit these men regularly. He always has handy a supply of Voice of Prophecy enrollment cards. Many of these men when they are first sent there are tenderhearted, probably as a result of the shock of what their course in life has led to. Most of these men are glad to sign up for the Voice of Prophecy correspondence course. Brother Gregg has enrolled more than 50 men in the last few months and into the hundreds through the years. The results of these faithful efforts will only be known in heaven. May we who are on the "outside of the walls" determine that we will do more to share our faith with those locked in the prison house of sin.

Five-Day Plan for Anchorage

The beautiful Kenai Room, of the Anchorage Westward Hotel, was used for the third Stop-Smoking Clinic held in Anchorage during the past twelve months. A record attendance was experienced each evening.

Dr. L. David Ekvall, Anchorage church member, graphically presented the physiological aspects, while Pastor J. Lynn Martell considered the tobacco problem on a psychological basis.

Of the eighty-five in attendance, several were able to stop smoking from the first night. It was interesting to observe that the group averaged 29 cigarettes a day and had smoked an average of 17 years. One individual had smoked for thirty-eight years, and another smoked nearly 80 cigarettes a day!

The American Cancer Society gladly provided all the advertising for the clinic. The Anchorage Daily Times sent a photographer to interview Dr. Ekvall and Pastor Martell regarding the Five-Day Plan. Pastor Martell spent 30 minutes on the Norma Goodman Show on Channel 11, explaining how the clinic worked and demonstrating "Smoking Sam." Several people registered for the clinic as a result of the interview on television.

During the session the people were told that the local church plans to have a cooking school in May. Several expressed a desire to attend. It is hoped that some will attend the evangelistic meetings in April.

Many cards were received in appreciation for the work the church is providing for the community. A letter was received from a lady who attended the last clinic. It read in part as follows: "I'm writing this letter to thank you with all sincerity for the marvelous program you people have devised. I surely hope many people will kick the habit in this series of classes. May God bless your future efforts."

Nursing Home Branch Sabbath Schools

The College Place Village church has a Branch Sabbath School program serving a total of 80 to 100 members at the Whitman Manor, Monte Vista, and Smith Nursing Homes and Sunny Valley Sanitarium.

Under the supervision of Miss Joy Uehlin who is the co-ordinator, leaders at the respective locations, Miss Clao May White, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schroeder, Mr. David Hoffman, and Mr. and Mrs. David Mandigo, arrange separate programs each week. Mission stories, special music, lesson study, and features are all included. The leaders and their assistants sing, pray and fellowship with these Senior Sabbath school members. And the members, who are not all Seventh-day Adventists, respond to this sharing and caring.

Mrs. Belle Hoagland, a 77-year-old resident of Monte Vista, is evidence of this response. Mrs. Hoagland has lived in Walla Walla since she was a girl. After graduating from Wa-Hi, her career days included clerking at Hooper's Department Store, making hats for the millinery department of

Gardner and Co., and assisting in the Swedish Massage Parlor of the Marcus Whitman Hotel. Her husband, Harley Hoagland, was employed by the OWR-&N railroad for approximately 25 years. Together they operated two Walla Walla Hotels for a total of 28 years.

How many series of evangelistic meetings have there been in Walla Walla since Mrs. Hoagland came about 70 years ago? We do not know. But we do know that the Branch Sabbath School has been bringing a message to Mrs. Hoagland each week since she came to Monte Vista two and a half years ago. Daily Mrs. Harry Matthews has cared for her, weekly the Schroeders have shared with her, and March 8, in spite of confinement in a wheelchair most of the time, Mrs. Hoagland was baptized in the College Place Seventh-day Adventist church.

"By Him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name. But to do good and to communicate, forget not, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased."

The Branch Sabbath Schools are a weekly experience in doing good and communicating, and a weekly cause for nursing home residents, and those who visit them, to praise God.

Mike E. Rettig of Spokane, a Vietnam War hero, returned home on March 8. He served as an army medic and has been awarded the Silver Star, Bronze Star, Purple Heart, and Army Commendation medals. He has been called a "Heroic Objector" and is quoted as saying: "I only object to carrying a weapon, not to serving my country." He served one year overseas as a combat medic attaining the rank of Specialist Fifth Class.

Army citations state that the artillery battery with which Rettig was serving came under heavy rocket attack on

Church Grows as Result of Evangelism

February 15 was a very important day in the lives of 16 individuals of the Hermiston church. The baptism of these people climaxed a series of evangelistic meetings held by the Carney-Purdey team. In this series 23 people took their stand and are preparing for baptism.

The witnessing of laymen through Bible studies, visits and prayer played a major part in the decisions made.

These meetings are being followed up by personal Bible studies in the homes of those who came forward in a call for personal surrender to Christ.

Big Lake Scholarship Plan

For several months the MV Department of the Oregon Conference has been working on a plan to upgrade the effectiveness of Big Lake Youth Camp in the lives of youth.

The heart of a successful camp program lies around the ability of the staff to present Christ in a recreational setting to the youth who come as campers. Although well over 100 each year make decisions for Christ while at camp, there are many more who could be influenced to commitment through the help of staff members who have spiritual depth as well as skill training.

In order to be able to attract the counselor with more mature judgment, two things seemed imperative. In the first place, more financial help must be offered so that college students could earn a scholarship, and secondly, the camp must be reorganized to grant a longer total period of employment for both men and women.

To implement these ideas, two things have happened. A scholarship plan has been inaugurated which makes it possible for both men and women to earn $70 a week for the time of employment. This plan will place the total earnings in a scholarship fund with Walla Walla College. Contributing to the plan will be: Big Lake Youth Camp and the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Mr. and Mrs. Al Paulson of Springfield, and Walla Walla College.

To make the plan more effective, the period of employment had to be lengthened from the one or two weeks of the past several years. In order to do this all camps have been made co-educational, and the age limit extended to 16 years. This will give five full weeks of camp employment to all counselors and staff members. In addition to this, young men will have the opportunity to start employment on the campgrounds at Gladstone, June 1, which could give a total period of employment of up to 13 weeks.

This new scholarship plan will make it possible to secure the very finest help for the entire camping season. Already we have received an excellent response from the Walla Walla College campus. The counselors and staff members at Big Lake Youth Camp this coming summer will be the finest youth leaders available in the Northwest.

This new program will not only provide many young people with summer employment, but it also will strengthen greatly the skill and character building ability of Big Lake Youth Camp.

'Countdown' Makes Its Mark

This could well be the deciding year for thousands of smokers. Never before have Seventh-day Adventists had such an opportunity for health evangelism as the current struggle over smoking is providing.

Three copies of the new film, "Countdown," have started to work in the Oregon Conference, and one more is on order. These films are currently booked well into May.

To initiate the new film depicting a lung cancer operation in a modern setting, Elder Ed Wilson and the writer spent two days in two large high schools in the Medford area. All day long the film was shown, contacting over 1,600 students throughout the day. "Smoking Sally," with her dark lungs from smoking nearly three packs of filter cigarettes, made a profound impression on the students. A kit showing eight of the poisons found in cigarettes was viewed by all.

Of special interest was the lung capacity test administered by Mr. Jeff Belden of Valley View. Throughout the entire day students who smoked were compared with those who did not. In every case, the lung capacity of the smoker was down considerably. Students were impressed with what only two or three years of smoking would do to young lungs.

A new day has presented itself. In the schools visited so far, it seems that smoking is not the popular thing. In every showing, opportunity was given for those who determine not to smoke to raise their hands. The response was great.

The new film, "Countdown," has since been shown to every high school student in the Medford-Ashland area by the pastors concerned. Other reports from pastors using the film indicate a great response. Thirteen 5-Day Plans have already been scheduled this year, and the films are working every day throughout the schools in the Oregon

With Pathfinder Fair less than two months away, clubs all over the Conference are putting forth special effort for displays and competitions. Hood River Pathfinders, under the direction of Mrs. Fay Ziegele, are especially eager to add to their trophy case—begun with organization of the club in October, 1953. Achievements in soul winning and recreation have netted 18 trophies, 68 blue ribbons, 29 red ribbons, and 11 white ribbons. While stress is placed upon character building, the Pathfinders still like to accentuate their efforts with medals shown to parents and leaders who spend so many hours in this unique soul-saving evangelistic area. Parents are hosted each year at a banquet displaying Pathfinder skills.

Working with Mrs. Ziegele are Berniece Hutson, deputy director; Madaline Hutson, girls' counselor; Mark Thomas and Edward Helt, boys' counselors; and Dick Seeley, instructor.

Conference to present to youth a better way of life. Let us all work these films to make 1969 a banner year for temperance.

Corvallis Ingathering Victory Banquet

That there are "as many shapes of hats as there are people" was everywhere in evidence at the "Hats Off" Ingathering victory banquet of the Corvallis church held at Central Valley school last month.

Over 100 persons found their way over snow-blanketed streets and highways to the school where the only admission was the wearing of a hat. On-the-spot creations were required of those who came unprepared, and it was after noting the gamut of "styles" displayed that Miss Shirley Burton, Conference Public Relations director, made the above observation.

Conversation was lighthearted as guests partook of the tasty meal prepared by the foods committee, but the tenor changed as remarks from Pastor Frank B. Phillips brought moments of reflection and thanksgiving for the blessings of God so evident during the Ingathering campaign.

Involvement in an already heavy church program and adverse weather conditions had brought participation in the nightly caroling to a telling ebb; business solicitation seemed harder and slower than in past years; the basic goal of $1,600 was a long way off and only a small portion of the city covered when a letter from the Conference office during the week before Christmas reminded Elder Phillips, new in the district since September, of his church's standing.

So it was with deep concern that he stood before his congregation on Sabbath morning, December 21, and with a prayer in his heart and an urgent plea on his lips called for a concerted effort of the church to meet its heavenly ordained expectations.

He was admittedly not disappointed! A crisp, star-studded evening, just right for caroling, brought out a record-setting eight bands which resulted in another record of $234—and a rewarding number of experiences that only eternity can fully reveal.

This all-out thrust, the remaining two nights of caroling, continued business contacts, and donations from members totaled a treasurer's report of $2,078 when the campaign ended Jan-

Singing in the happy Morton style under the "hat drop" of the stage is Barbara Morton, wearing a flower cage with a perky, minute bird sitting atop.

Shirley Burton appears to be waving at the cameraman, but is actually gesturing dramatically in presenting a reading. A frilly, wide-brimmed number featuring a handmade newspaper "flower" was Miss Burton's millinery choice—naturally for a public relations person.

A ten-gallon hat tops, and all but hides, pint-sized Mark Madarash who is being served punch by Sheryl and Karen Inaba.

uary 11; a three-star victory! Pastor Phillips reminded banquet guests that the praise belongs to God with Whom all things are possible.

A delightful program of music by Barbara Morton and daughters, and readings by Shirley Burton, who also emceed this part of the evening's entertainment, concluded a night of "food, fellowship, and fun" described by Miss Burton as only happy Christians can know.

Banquet participants re-entered the chill of the winter elements filled with a warm glow of satisfaction that comes in experiencing God's presence and leading through past achievements for Him, and in anticipation of His continued blessings for gaining greater heights to His glory.

Of Sewing and Reaping

Fifty quilt tops in 1968 sewed for Dorcas is the record of Lucinda Reap of the Montavilla church. Needle, thread, and thimble have accomplished great things for the Lord.

Sister Reap, who celebrated her 81st birthday, November 20, 1968, has been a faithful Dorcas member for twenty years, and a Seventh-day Adventist since she was five. Her native state is South Dakota. She treasures her Conference award for continuous service for Dorcas which indicated twelve years of service in 1957. She was pleased when a General Conference official bought one of her quilts on his way through Portland a few years ago. However, her greatest enjoyment comes from having a part in the Lord's work, and she looks forward to His soon coming.

After the quilt tops are finished, the Dorcas provides a blanket and lining to complete the quilt. With these and

Remembering Our Servicemen

Servicemen are always remembered at Christmas time with cards, cookies, and an occasional letter. However, Mr. Ivan Lemke, the servicemen's secretary of the Salem Central church thought these men would like to know they are in the hearts and prayers of the home folks all year long.

Following this thought, Mr. Lemke approached Mrs. Perry Rudd and asked if her Sabbath school class would like to volunteer and make some cookies. As a result, about 25 dozen cookies were packed in three-pound cans and prepared for shipping by the youth class.

Seven such packages were sent. Salem Central church has nine men in the service at the present time, but two were en route home so will receive theirs later when they return to their post of duty.

These nine men scattered throughout the world in the Army, Navy, and the Marines are as follows: Jerral Harchenko, Jack Wentzel, Harvey Hochstetter, Glen Fox, Tom Gerberding, Fred Graves, Dave Lawson, Harry Mason and John Sproed.

We sang our favorite choruses, including "Joy, Joy, My Heart Is Filled With Joy," "When the Devil Comes A-Creepin'," and "V-I-C-T-O-R-Y." These were accompanied by Gretta Clark at the piano. Miss Burton talked to us about rewards of setting our standards high.

Our special thanks to Miss Burton and Mrs. Morton for coming. The student body and faculty at the school also thank Ross Mathews of Mathews, Donelson and Sewell Mortuary in Hillsboro. Mr. Mathews presented the school with a beautiful walnut conference desk with four matching chairs. He also gave a printing press to Laurelwood Academy, sister school of TVJA. was frozen with fear. One of the rockets landed in the ammunition bin which started to burn and explode. The man, exposed to exploding rounds of ammunition, would have been killed except that Rettig picked him up bodily and carried him to safety. Neither man sustained injury.

On November 13, 1968, Rettig was working with a different artillery battery and again found himself in the midst of the barrage. He was wounded in the upper right arm from exploding mortar but, disregarding his own wounds and safety, moved among the other wounded binding up their wounds and offering them calm assurance. He then assisted those who were loading ammunition enabling them to fight off the attack. Helicopters finally reached the stricken battery and evacuated them. At this time Mike was given a Silver Star and a Purple Heart. His wounds were not serious and he suffered no permanent impairment, but he bears scars.

Mike E. Rettig.

Mike is a graduate of Upper Columbia Academy, class of 1966, with one year of college. His attitude toward serving in the U. S. Army is summed up in the following quote: "The United States has given us so much, we owe at least two years of service."

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Waggoner, residents of north Idaho for the past 50 years, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a reception February 16. The event was planned for the Waggons at their home at Post Falls by their sons and daughters, Mrs. L. E. White, Saugus, Calif., Harold J. Waggoner, Coos Bay, Ore., Mrs. C. H. Lang, Sacramento, Calif., and Dr. Gay D. Waggoner, Post Falls.

The couple's daughters were hostesses; Mrs. Harold Waggoner opened the gifts, Mrs. Arnold Waggoner, Metaline Falls, Ore., a sister-in-law of the couple, cut the cake and Miss Debra White, Saugus, a granddaughter, was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Waggoner.

Several musical selections reminiscent of the past were presented by Arnold Waggoner. A pictorial display recalling events from throughout the years was arranged by the Waggons' sons.

Brother and Sister Waggoner joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church in 1925 and have served the church in many capacities. Presently Brother Waggoner is a lay elder in the Coeur d'Alene church.

In addition to the immediate family, nearly 65 friends and relatives joined the Waggons for the celebration.

Science Teacher Is Awarded Fellowship

A National Science Foundation fellowship has been awarded to Joe R. Young, Jr., science teacher at Gem State Academy, for graduate study in earth science at Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Arizona.

Mr. Young was one of 32 persons selected from 600 applicants for the fellowships.

The fellowship is for a sequential summer institute on earth science, and will include sessions during the summers of 1969 and 1970. Course work will apply toward the Master of Science degree in geology.

This summer's eight-week session, beginning June 23, will include specialized study of earth history, paleontology, mineralogy, petrology, and volcanology. Of particular interest will be study of petrified forests in Arizona as well as study of the stratification of the Grand Canyon.

Four professional geologists led by Dr. Stanley S. Beus will comprise the faculty for the institute, with additional guest instructors supplementing the teaching staff.

Mr. Young received his M.A. in biology from Walla Walla College in 1965. He is completing his third year of teaching earth science and biology classes at Gem State Academy. His plans are to complete the Master of Science program in geology followed by study toward the Ph.D. degree in biology.

The Reviewer

Looking backward isn't always a good idea, but it is sometimes interesting to see where we've been and what we've accomplished. So just for the record, here's a brief summary of denominational publishing for 1968:

The three publishing houses in the United States (Southern Publishing Association, Review and Herald, and Pacific Press) released a grand total of 115 new titles last year. Of this number, more than half (61) were paperbacks. There were 54 hard bound titles published, and the average price of a hard bound book was $4.09.

For the sake of comparison, let's take a look at the nation's list of best-sellers. In January, 1969, the average price of a fiction best-seller was $6.81. Non-fiction average was $8.67, which adds up to an overall average of $7.74. That makes $4.09 look pretty economical, doesn't it?

What can we look forward to in 1969? For one thing, the paperback boom will be at an all-time high. Pacific Press already has 40 titles in their PANDA-DESTINY Series. Southern Publishing Association's new CROWN Series currently has 12 titles, with another six scheduled for release by late summer. The new PENGUIN books from Review and Herald are similar in format and will doubtless give an added boost to paperback popularity.

* * * * *

Starting the new year right is important to any publisher. The 1969 Missionary Book, Though the Winds Blow, by Elder Robert Pierson, is setting the pace for Southern Publishing Association this year. It's a hard act to follow, but other new releases look equally attractive. Of special interest this month is a brand-new collection of stories for juniors, The Walking River, by Mary Branch. Each story has an unusual twist or a unique setting. Clever line drawings by Jim Padgett add special interest. This attractive hardback sells for just $3.95.

Of the 115 new titles which the denomination published last year, how many did you read?

Spring Registration

The year's enrollment at Walla Walla College passed the 1,700 mark as 51 new students registered for the spring quarter, bringing the cumulative total to 1,705.

English Department Staff

Miss Ellen Dunston, Willamina, Oregon, will join the WWC faculty for 1969-70 as instructor in English, according to Dr. Helen Evans, department chairman.

With B.A. and M.A. degrees in English from PUC, Miss Dunston has had 10 years of experience teaching English on the secondary level, having taught at Lynwood Academy, Napa High School and Laurelwood Academy. Miss Dunston will teach Freshman Composition and English Literature Survey.

Two English department faculty members, the Misses Judy Komen and Andrea Downs, are leaving the staff. Miss Komen will teach in the Seattle area and do some graduate work at the University of Washington from which she holds the M.A. degree in English. Miss Downs plans graduate study in speech.

Gary Wiss, assistant professor, will be on doctoral study leave at the University of Oregon 15 months. He is specializing in creative writing.

Last week Professor Nathan Moore passed the qualifying examinations for the doctoral degree at the University of British Columbia. He will start work on his doctoral dissertation during summer quarter's study leave.

Don French, assistant professor who completed master's degree requirements in January, 1969, at WSU, and began a doctoral program, returns to the campus in September, 1969. His area of specialization is American literature.

Correction

The Air Force Band will NOT be appearing on the WWC campus in April as erroneously advertised last week. One of the national military bands is being scheduled for spring quarter of 1970.

Wanderlust

Wanderlust, Alumni Association extravaganza in the new Walla Walla College gymnasium seating more than 2,000, will be presented Saturday evening, April 12, at 8 o'clock with Dr. Lynn R. Callender, AA president, as director, Dr. Malcolm Maxwell as narrator, and Elder Larry Lewis as coordinator.

The cast is complete. Solos, vocal and instrumental ensembles, and readings set against backdrops enhanced by unusual colorful lighting are promised.

Scheduled groups are the Upper Columbia Academy Choralliers, WWC Band, Walla Walla Symphonic Choir, Speech Choir, Rogers Elementary School Choir, and Whitman College Choir.

Vocal soloists to perform are Norman Skeels, Mrs. Lorraine Payne, Professor William Murphy, and Professor Harold Lickey.

Other attractions are a harp duet by Marcia Ham and Connie Bradshaw; vocal duet by Marlene Bourke and Danny Oh.

Readers include Dr. Helen Evans, George Graf, Cherry Callender and Jeannie Smith. Dr. Loren Dickinson, Dr. Callender and Professor Gary Wiss will be featured in a humorous presentation.

Tickets, all reserved by sections, are available by writing Grover Rose, Box 457, College Place, Wash. 99324, or at the WWVA and WWC business offices, or at the door April 12.

Ticket prices are: $3.00, $2.25, $1.50, according to location.

'Spectrum' Is Available

The first issue of Spectrum, Journal of the Association of Adventist Forums, is now available. In 80 pages it includes articles, book reviews, and art work. Among the contributors are three Walla Walla College alumni and one faculty member. The WWC forum officers anticipate that many may wish to subscribe to the Journal. This may be done either with or without Forum membership. Contact Dr. Donald Hall for more information.

Professor Presents Paper

En route to the American Astronomical Society convention in Honolulu, Dr. Donald Hall, assistant professor of physics at WWC, presented a paper for a seminar at the NASA Ames Research Center, Mountain View, Calif., March 27.

The faculty member, who received his doctorate from Stanford in 1967 where he was a research assistant, spent Friday in research on the University campus and the weekend in the Bay area.

Dr. Hall joined astronomers for the Honolulu flight Sunday and is attending the Astronomical Society convention March 31 to April 2, remaining another day for a tour of the Haleakala Observatory on Maui.

PUC Alumni to Hold Breakfast

Northwest Pacific Union College Alumni are invited to come prepared to stay after Youth Congress for a Benefit Breakfast at Portland Union Academy, 1500 SE 96th Avenue, at 8:30 a.m. Sunday, April 6.

Featured on the program will be Soloist Barbara Morton; Professors Emeritus H. W. Clark and G. F. Wolfkill; Elton Wallace; and Alumni President Bob Olson.

Make plans now to stay in Portland for this fellowship breakfast.

Enterprise Academy

Enterprise Academy will celebrate its 50th Anniversary at the alumni meeting scheduled for April 18 and 19, 1969. Honor Classes will be: 1924, 1929, 1939, 1949, 1959, 1969.

Guest speakers for this special event will be Elder Robert H. Pierson, president of the General Conference; Evangelist Robert M. Whitsett, and D. J. Avey, alumni president.

NOTICE

1969 marks the 100th anniversary of the organization of the Minnesota Conference. A special celebration is being planned for during camp meeting at Hutchinson June 20-28, 1969.

If you have any information, books, or experience relative to camp meetings in Minnesota and more particularly those in the 1800's, would you please forward this information to R. L. Warner, 850 Oak St. North, Hutchinson, Minnesota 55350.

Thank you for your cooperation.
