Re: Testimony Countdown

Pastors—Attention, Please!

Hundreds of churches will begin Testimony Countdown classes early in the new year, 1970. If you plan such a class, make sure you have supplies for yourself and your class members.

1. The Pastor's Kit of teaching materials, FREE (Available through your Conference Ministerial Secretary)
2. Sets of the Testimonies, guidebooks, registration and record cards, etc. (Available through your Book and Bible House)
3. Tapes with stories and questions and answers from the Takoma Park pilot meetings (Available from the White Estate, Washington, D.C.) $9.00 for 6 tapes. Speed 3½.

A SPECIAL REMEMBRANCE FOR YOUR SERVICEMEN

On behalf of our young men in the service, I want to make a special appeal to all church members to get your packages and letters off as soon as possible to the servicemen. You can still send small packages to them and they will go airmail, if you keep them under five pounds, for overseas mailing, New York or San Francisco APO or FPO.

Last Christmas we mailed two evergreen trees to our son, Mike, who was in Vietnam, and they arrived in very good condition, as did the decorations which were sent in a sturdy box.

More than just the recipient enjoys these holiday treats, as the men share with their buddies who might not receive much. This year, as members did last year, the Scappoose-St. Helens church will be sending large-size Christmas cards and packages of goodies to their young men in the service.

A "Remembrance Sabbath" was held last year, and special music and message were given for servicemen. Oversized cards had been purchased, and during the special service the youth class was in charge of having each member sign his name. Parents of the servicemen were honored also. Packages with many varieties of treats were made up by members who contributed to make this project successful. An offering was taken to pay for the cards and mailing of the packages.

This year the writer has made an appeal through the local newspapers to anyone who knows of a serviceman who may need hometown friends to keep in touch with him and to send cards and treats to him, to send her the serviceman's name, rank, and address, and she will see that he receives a Christmas package. This invitation has been extended to any fellow, regardless of church membership, county residence or out of county. The boys appreciate these thoughtful things, and they need to be remembered—not just at holiday time, but each day throughout the year. They need our prayers, too. This is the most important thing to remember. Pray for him daily, write to him regularly, and think of him constantly, and you will receive a blessing.

Join the Christian Stamp Marching Band

The little girl turned around, a big smile on her face and the sun glinting on the big, bright, yellow button on her sweater. "I belong to The Voice of Prophecy's 1970 Christian Stamp Marching Band," she grinned.

She and a rapidly increasing number of youngsters from throughout the North Pacific Union are becoming members of The Voice of Prophecy's newest—and boys and girls say "best"—organization, the Christian Stamp Marching Band.

To be sure, it's not a real band that goes marching down the streets of the city, but it is a band that in the months ahead will help thousands of boys and girls start on their march to the Heavenly Kingdom of Jesus!

What is the Band? How can you become a member?

Well, first of all, only youngsters ages five to twelve can become members of the Band. Older and younger people are welcomed as associate members.

Here's how it works: You start collecting (and ask Mom and Dad to help) trading stamps of the kind used in your area. When you have one full book of stamps, send it to: Band Director, The Voice of Prophecy, Box 55, Los Angeles, California 90053.

That full book of trading stamps entitles you to membership in the Christian Stamp Marching Band. By return mail you will receive: 1. A big, shiny, yellow button which you can wear to tell everyone you are a member of the Band. 2. A colorful membership card signed by Pastor H. M. S. Richards, Jr., director of the Band. 3. An attractive letter from Pastor Richards telling how you can have a further part in the Band.

In addition to all this, the name of everyone who joins the Marching Band will be printed in The Voice of Prophecy's 1970 Christian Stamp Marching Band Banner, a newspaper to be published just for those who join the Band.

The book of trading stamps you send in? It will be used to purchase equipment needed at The Voice of Prophecy—like microphones and radio tapes—thus releasing more contributor dollars for the purchase of more radio stations over which the story of Jesus can be told. That is how other boys and girls will be started on their march to the Heavenly Kingdom through your membership in the Christian Stamp Marching Band.

Through the Sabbath school and at church school, boys and girls in the North Pacific Union will be hearing more about the Christian Stamp Marching Band. But you can start today to fill up your trading stamp book.

Younger children, and even grown-ups, can become associate members of the Marching Band by sending a full book of trading stamps. And the associate members will receive everything the members do, but in the Banner newspaper they will be listed as "associate members."

Today is the day to start becoming a member of The Voice of Prophecy's 1970 Christian Stamp Marching Band! Join the great march to the Heavenly Kingdom!

W. E. Hartman Invited To White House Conference

WORTHINGTON, OHIO (November 17)—Warren E. Hartman, vice-president of research and development at Worthington Foods, Inc., has been invited to participate in the White House Conference on Food, Nutrition, and Health. The meetings will be held December 2-4 in Washington, D. C.

The White House invitation read: "The President of the United States requests the honor of your presence at the White House Conference on Food, Nutrition and Health at nine o'clock on the mornings of Tuesday, December second, Wednesday, December third, and Thursday, December fourth, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine at the Sheraton Park Hotel, City of Washington in the District of Columbia."

The conference is scheduled to discuss such subjects as the state of nutrition of our citizens; how to improve the nutrition of more vulnerable groups such as the poor, the aged, mothers, children and adolescents; and how to maintain the combined wholesomeness and nutritional value of our foods.

"Worthington Foods, Inc. is honored and pleased to participate in this important conference," said J. L. Hagle, president. "We know that the vegetable protein foods, which Seventh-day Adventists have pioneered in developing, make a vital contribution to a well-balanced dietary. We are happy to note that these foods will be discussed at the White House Conference."

Hartman has headed Worthington's Research and Development division for 21 years. He is a much sought after speaker by technical and scientific groups throughout the nation.

Operation Drug Alert

The increasing use of the various drugs and narcotics, not only in the world but among SDA young people as well has prompted the printing of the center pull-out in the GLEANER. This document is primarily intended for parents and adults working with young people.

Walla Walla General Hospital's latest clinic to the Life and Health Forum has already had the largest attendance and interest. As Mr. Jack Engeln, hospital pharmacist, puts it, "We've had great success with our anti-smoking programs, why not be a leader also in Drug Education and Prevention?"

Extra copies of this brochure may be obtained by writing Mr. Jack Engeln, Pharmacist, Walla Walla General Hospital, 933 Bonsella, Walla Walla, Wash. 99362.

ASDAN News

The recently organized Association of SDA Nurses continues to grow in interest and attendance. Do you know someone who should belong? The only requirements are being an SDA RN or LPN whether working or not. Hospital, nursing home, or private practice types of nursing are welcome.

Our December program will be on the evening of December 1. A potluck will start at 6:00 p.m. with the meeting at 7:30 p.m. If for some reason you cannot make the potluck, still feel free to make the meeting. Both functions will be held at the Walla Walla General Hospital, the potluck in the dining room and the meeting in the chapel area.

Dr. Virchel Wood, who specializes in hand surgery, will speak and show slides on modern hand surgery. Plan now to attend and tell a friend.

lowing many long hours of last winter's chilling weather.

In September, Pastor Richardson was transferred to the West Virginia Conference. To fill the vacancy, Pastor J. D. Bolejack was called from the Colorado Conference to take over the responsibilities. Pastor Bolejack's loyal support has added strength to the building program.

To further facilitate the donated labor by the church membership, Clarence L. Boyd, building contractor of Walla Walla, is now in charge of the construction. It is hoped that within a few weeks the construction will have progressed sufficiently so that the membership may begin meeting in the new edifice.

It is the sincere prayer of every member that this new temple may be an additional monument to the glory of God and a sanctuary where all races and creeds may find a haven and worship together.

Gift Bible Evangelism

Wins Souls

Gift Bible evangelism is winning souls in the Hermiston area. On Sabbath, November 8, three individuals were united to Christ and the church through baptism.

Dr. Wendell Ford, first elder of the church, had the happy experience of seeing Mr. and Mrs. Gene McConnell baptized. Dr. Ford had been spending one night a week for the past six months studying and correcting the Bible study guides in their home. They had many questions that needed to be answered, but as a "thus saith the Lord" was given for each question, the power of the Holy Spirit brought conviction.

Last spring Laura Hasse attended the Carney-Purdey evangelistic series. Her interest was followed up with the Gift Bible Plan. As she studied, the Holy Spirit brought the transformation of the new birth into her heart.

What a change would be seen in our churches if every member would take a Gift Bible and a set of lessons to a friend. There would be a large harvest of souls for Christ's kingdom and the soul winner would find his own faith greatly increased.

Small Engine Repair At Upper Columbia Academy

Small engine tune-up and repair is a new part of Upper Columbia Academy's automotive program this year.

The Briggs and Stratton Corporation has donated an engine as well as several repair manuals to the program. With these and six additional engines purchased by the school, a very practical subject is well underway with

After the students disassemble and study all the parts of the engine, they reassemble it and start it again. Repair of lawn mower engines and other types of small engines is taught. Reconditioning of motors is done after the student learns to identify bad or worn parts while he compares them with the new engine he originally studied.

The Upper Columbia Academy industrial arts department feels that all young men should take part in these and other industrial arts classes since students will always be able to use this type of training, possibly even as a livelihood.

In addition, 13 students attained perfect attendance records with no absences or tardies in the same period. By class, the perfect attendance record included one freshman, one sophomore, seven juniors, and four seniors. Five of the students with perfect attendance were also on the honor roll.

Renton Sanctuary Opening

Bite off more than you can chew, and chew it.

Plan more than you can do, and do it!

The Renton church has been doing this since 1963 when they sold their old church and built an educational wing, and then planned and completed a new sanctuary.

On Sabbath, November 15, at 9:20 a.m. Bill Kernan, the building committee chairman, officially cut the ribbon opening the new sanctuary. Jim Farnsworth, Sabbath school superintendent, led out in that department. We were favored with a general Sabbath school lesson by retired Elder J. H. Laurence.

At the eleven o'clock hour Pastor E. E. Wellman, who has worked hard for the completion of the building program, gave the first sermon. Sharing the platform with him were: former pastor Robert Skinner, Pastor W. L. Luttmann from the Lutheran Church across the street, Elder B. L. Cook, secretary-treasurer of the Washington Conference, and Elder Don Blehm, Conference MV Secretary. All praised God for the lovely sanctuary and welcomed all members and friends to share it.

A delightful potluck dinner was served right after church for our members, friends and many guests in the social hall.

At 3:30 p.m. there was a special "Praise Service" and many friends from surrounding churches came to see our new sanctuary and joined with us in giving praise and thanks to our Lord. We were pleased to have three charter members of the Renton church present: Mrs. Georgia Shepherd, Mrs. Georgia Rupert, and Mr. Arthur York. Also attending were former pastors R. C. Skinner, J. G. Ziegler, C. Shepherd and Roy Henneberg.

The afternoon sermon was given by Elder Henneberg, presently pastor of the Wenatchee church.

Interns Are Assigned

Three new ministerial interns began their work in the Washington Conference in August of this year. These, who have been sponsored at Andrews University for the past two years by the Washington Conference, received their Bachelor of Divinity degree in August.

Pastor and Mrs. Don Scully.

Pastor and Mrs. Don Scully have been assigned to the Bremerton-Port Orchard and Poulsbo district. Pastor Scully graduated from Walla Walla College in 1966 and served in the Washington Conference for one year before proceeding to Andrews University. Pastor Scully is the son of Elder James Scully, Associate Secretary of the Religious Liberty Department of the General Conference.

Pastor and Mrs. Ernest Furness.

Pastor and Mrs. Ernest Furness are serving in the Monroe-Snohomish-Startup district. Pastor Furness and wife, Edith, are both 1967 graduates of Walla Walla College. Mrs. Furness is the daughter of Elder and Mrs. Stanley W. Hiten, who served in the Washington Conference from 1960 to 1967. Pastor and Mrs. Furness have an infant daughter, Jeanine Elizabeth.

Pastor and Mrs. Tony Henneberg are working with Elder L. E. Lyman in the Puyallup-Orting district. Pastor Hen-

We are very glad to have these well-trained, dedicated young people join the ministerial staff of the Washington Conference. We wish for them the rich blessing of the Lord as they contribute to the advancement of God's work in this field.

National Achievement Scholarship Program

Ned Lindsay, Auburn Academy senior and religious vice-president of the Associated Students of Auburn Academy, is one of three Seattle area high school seniors named semifinalists in the sixth National Achievement Scholarship program for outstanding Negro students. These semifinalists are named by virtue of their scores on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test which they took last spring.

Ned is one of 1,500 such semifinalists nationwide, whose names were announced October 2 by Edward C. Smith, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which administers the program.

Next March 325 semifinalists will be awarded scholarships.

In addition to serving as religious vice-president, Ned is president of the Temperance Club, a member of Sylvan Chorus, saxophonist in the band and orchestra, and an active participant in sports. His main academic interests are science and psychology.

Ned Lindsay

Ned is the son of Elder Ned Lindsay, pastor of the Spruce Street church in Seattle, and Mrs. Lindsay, instructor at Green River Community College in Auburn.

Evening VBS Proves Successful

"Chairs, get more chairs!" The Bible School's director stared in astonishment as more and more children poured into the French Creek Grange on opening night, July 28, 1969. Seating arrangements for ninety had been made the day before and all was in readiness. What a scurry as leaders and helpers hurried to set up more chairs! When the last ones had filed into the room, 125 boys and girls eagerly awaited the opening exercises for the first night of Vacation Bible School.

This is the second year we have had an evening school and no one ever anticipated the attendance we were to have. The most was 136, with never under 120. This is a rural school, the Grange Hall being located about six miles between Snohomish and Monroe. We opened at 6:30 and closed at 9:00. The hours between were filled with busy activity and many things to help the leaders develop patience.

The cost of the Bible school, naturally, was greater this year than ever before. However, we received over $75 in offerings which helped to defray the expenses. We were blessed with plenty of helpers, and since this was in the evenings we had men who were available to help in crafts, games, and wherever they were needed.

Our Bible school ran for nine evenings. The closing program took place Thursday evening with parents and friends enjoying the accomplishments of their boys and girls. From the abundant success of the Vacation Bible School, it would appear that evening hours are excellent and there are boys and girls outside the towns and cities who should be reached and who are eager to learn of our Lord and Saviour.

Their prize was an 80-pound pumpkin which was made into pies for Thanksgiving baskets. The seeds will be saved for growing more king-size pumpkins for an "Investment for God" project by the class.

Bernadine G. Mooers

The Meadow Glade Pathfinder clubs, under the direction of Deputy Director Harold Marshall, collected around 300 cans of food this year on Halloween to be used by the Battle Ground Welfare Service Center for Thanksgiving food baskets.

Leona Atkins

Molalla Pathfinders carry some of 283 cans they collected into Yoder school. Home-baked goods and fresh produce supplemented baskets which were distributed November 26.

Thelma Wilbur

Tiller, who also has received special training in nuclear science at Oak Ridge, Tennessee, world-famous atomic research center, brought an exhibit unit, such as is used in hundreds of high schools throughout the United States each year.

"This Atomic World" is concerned with the basic principles of atomic energy and its beneficial applications. The role of the atom in agriculture, industry, and medicine was explained. In addition, the growing importance of atomic research was stressed.

Even though no reference to spiritual subjects was made during the actual demonstration, the impact of what had been witnessed was a strong reminder to all that science is proving more and more that the works of creation testify of God's power and greatness. "The invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead." (Romans 1:20)

Mr. Tiller, who holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern Oregon College, presented a program entitled, "This Atomic World." It is sponsored by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission and presented by the University of Oregon in cooperation with Oak Ridge Association of Universities. Mr.

Weddings

The wedding of Gloria Grilley and Jim Thompson was solemnized on August 10 in the Hermiston, Oregon, Seventh-day Adventist church. The ceremony was performed by Elder R. W. Heinrich. We wish God's richest blessings on this dedicated young couple as they set up their new home in Hermiston.

John Edward Draeger of Lodi, California, took as his bride, Lonnie K. Feyen of College Place, Washington, on October 5 in the Village church in College Place. Dr. Joseph N. Barnes performed the afternoon ceremony. The couple will make their home in Lodi where John will continue his studies to become a dental laboratory technician.

Betty Coleman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Coleman, and Roger Wayne Cox, son of Mrs. Lucretia Osen, were united in marriage August 17 in the Yakima, Washington, Seventh-day Adventist church. Betty and Roger exchanged their vows in a beautiful candlelight ceremony performed by Elder R. W. Heinrich, cousin of the bride. The couple will make their home in Oxnard, California, where Roger is working as a physicist for the U. S. Navy. May heaven's blessing rest upon this new home.

The nip of Autumn is in the air! And cold-weather appetites grow heartier every day. Help your family to rib-sticking nourishment by using one of the recipes below for your entree. A crisp salad, rolls and beverage will round out most menus. These casseroles are good, too, for children home from school for lunch. #### MacKintosh Wins

Best Print of Show Award

The Muth prize for Best Print of the Show has been awarded to Kenneth MacKintosh, associate professor of art at WWC, for one of three wood engravings accepted in the 36th Annual Exhibition of the Miniature Painters, Sculptors, and Gravers Society of Washington, D.C.

The coveted award was made for the engraving entitled "Christus" which measures approximately two by three inches. To execute the wood engravings, Mr. MacKintosh works with an engraver's burin on end-grained English boxwood which is the most even-grained wood available and the finest for wood engravings.

The other two engravings accepted for the show which ran from November 10-30 at the Arts Club in Washington, D.C., were "Blue Mountains" and a smaller "Christus." The WWC artist has previously exhibited in the same juried show as well as in regional, national and international shows.

WWC Concert Band Program

The Walla Walla College Concert Band program Saturday evening, December 6, in Columbia Auditorium, will feature not only the entire band but the Wind Ensemble, the nine-member Clarinet Choir, and the Percussion Ensemble, says H. Lloyd Leno, assistant professor of music and band conductor.

A fanfare on the herald trumpets will open the concert in which music will range from the serious "Overture to Nabucco" by Verdi to the colorful "On the Trail" from the Grand Canyon Suite.

The Clarinet Choir, made up of five different instruments: E-flat and B-flat soprano clarinets, E-flat alto and B-flat bass clarinet and the double B-flat contrabass will play "Autumn Leaves" arranged by Alfred Reed.

In the Percussion Ensemble the interest is kept alive by rhythmic as well as melodic phrases, says the conductor.

J. Melvyn Clemons, associate professor of religion, is narrator for the complimentary program to which the public is invited.

Professor Leno returned to the WWC campus this fall from a five-quarter study leave at the University of Arizona where he is a candidate for the doctor of musical arts degree.

Lay Advisory Committee Meets

On Sunday, October 26, 19 churches were represented at the Lay Advisory meeting at Gem State Academy. Members of the Idaho Conference committee joined them in several hours of discussion.

Reports of several phases of the work in Idaho were presented. Recent Autumn Council items and their significance for Idaho were discussed.

Brother Art Nelson, principal of Gem State Academy, gave a fine summary of the school's current operation, future plans and needs.

Elder M. E. Smith, manager of the Bake N Serv and Champion Bakeries, presented the story of the growth and operation of the bakeries.

The day closed with a tour of the Academy campus. It is always a blessing to the Conference when our interested laymen help us in providing solutions to difficulties.

Continue to join us in prayer for the blessing of Heaven on His program.

GEORGE W. LISCOMBE
President

Welcome! Welcome!

On Tuesday, November 18, the Conference office staff was all expectancy because our Book and Bible House manager and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sayles, received at their home a fine baby boy. They are calling him Wally Douglas and he has already made himself at home and very much a part of the family.

Mrs. Sayles has been working in the office as secretary to Elder Schaak in the MV and Educational Department. Mrs. Delmarie Null, who has been in the treasury department for the last year, will be transferring to the MV and Educational Department.

We know you will join us in wishing much of Heaven's blessing on Mr. and Mrs. Sayles and the little one.

GEORGE W. LISCOMBE

Richland Cooking School

The Richland church sponsored a school in Nutrition and Healthful Cookery in October in the Pine-Eagle area.

Under the direction of Mrs. Lavonne Bierwagen, home nutrition instructor, four classes were presented to the group that met in the New Bridge Grange Hall. About 35 people attended the series in all and 15 of those were not Adventist church members.

This community service project was appreciated by the friends of the Adventist church who attended, and church members were faithful in assisting in this project.

Mrs. Bierwagen took a "post graduate" course this summer from Mrs. Alice Garrett Marsh, professor of Home Economics at Andrews University, while attending the Lay Home Nutrition Instructors' Course at Walla Walla College in August as a delegate from the Idaho Conference.
