Colporteurs' Rally Day

"The canvassing work is an important field for labor; and the intelligent, Godfearing, truth-loving canvasser occupies a position equal to that of the gospel minister." T. M., p. 317. Great care should be exercised in selecting men and women to carry the printed page from door to door. Church elders and leaders should give prayerful study to the publishing work. God calls for consecrated men and women who can go to work and explain the Scriptures. The angels of the Lord will accompany them if they put their trust in God. Many despondent and discouraged souls have received light, hope, and courage through the effort of faithful colporteurs.

Sabbath, November 12, has been set aside as Colporteurs' Rally Day. Conference workers, church elders and leaders should appeal most earnestly to those among us who are qualified for the sale of gospel literature. These recruits should be encouraged to enlist in the colporteur army and hasten the day of the coming of the Lord. "Were it not for the work of the canvasser, many would never hear the truth." These God-fearing workers scatter the seeds of truth in the places which the minister can never reach. I appeal to you leaders most earnestly, to give study and prayerful consideration to the call of the hour. Do your best to make the day a real Rally Day for God. The end of all things is right upon us. The angels of the Lord have been commissioned to hold the winds of strife a little longer until the work of God is finished in the earth. We must work while it is day.—"The night cometh, when no man can work." E. H. Oswald.

Appeal of the Budget Committee

We are in the midst of the biennial session of the Autumn Council. This is the Autumn Council midway between the sessions of the General Conference. To these meetings come our representatives from mission fields to report on the progress of our worldwide work, to tell us of the wonderful providences of God in the spread of the advent message, of the many open doors of opportunity beckoning them to enter, of their great desire for help in the way of missionaries and missionary money to supply these needs. They come to us with their hearts greatly burdened. They have been given a vision of a lost and dying world such as we, in more favored lands, do not possess. They see yearly, thousands going down into their graves without a knowledge of Christ, and the great burden of their hearts and of the hearts of their associates is to rescue these men and women from the pit of sin and destruction.

The Budget Committee has been appointed by the Autumn Council to listen to the appeals of these mission field representatives. The committee is made up of fifty five leading and representative men, including the home officers of the General Conference, union and local presidents from the North American field and representatives of institutions. None of the mission field representatives are on this committee. As far as possible, the committee is impartially constituted in order that it may weigh equitably and without bias the various calls that are presented before it.

We wish you could listen to these appeals from the mission lands. We are sure they would deeply stir your hearts and lead you, as never before, to realize the great and important work that God is doing among the nations of men.

The needs presented to the Budget Committee are many and varied. These missionaries plead earnestly for evangelists to be sent to their fields. They want strong, devoted young men and women who can go to the various countries of the world, learn a new language and devote their manhood and womanhood, their strength and energy to the giving of the gospel to those who know it not. There are many open doors anxiously waiting for their coming.

The appeal is for medical missionaries, for godly physicians and nurses, who can show the people better ways of living, who, in their ministry to the physical needs of those in darkness, can reveal to them the Saviour of their souls, and thus lead them to Christ the Lord.

The calls are for teachers, for those who can instruct the youth and the children and turn their young hearts to the Lord, and through them reach their parents who are in heathen darkness.

The appeal is for money with which to erect school buildings, small hospitals and clinics, where the sick can be treated. The appeal is for money to erect church buildings, houses of worship which will give stability to the work—a rallying place for worship from day to day. The appeal is not only for money to sustain the work already established, but to answer the opening calls from every quarter.

There also come appeals from such lands as China and Spain, where some of our workers have sacrificed their lives in behalf of this message, and where some of our buildings have been destroyed. In these war-stricken countries there must be carried on a work of rehabilitation. Tens of thousands of dollars will be required to restore that which has been destroyed.

These appeals bring sore perplexity to the Budget Committee. The mission funds are limited. There is scarcely enough to sustain the work that is now going forward, practically nothing to answer the calls for new work. Shall we send these missionaries back to their fields disappointed and disheartened? Shall we say to them, we can not aid you in this hour of great need? We cannot feel that this is the message God would have us return to our brethren and sisters out on the firing lines. They are our representatives. We have sent them out in our stead to carry the gospel message to those who know it not. We have lowered them into the pit of heathen darkness and superstition, and we must stand by and hold the ropes. We must furnish the sinews of war that the work may go on and not languish. We can answer these calls and render this help only as you who read this message sustain us in our efforts.

In some of our mission fields, our workers are living on a reduced wage. Our mission funds have not permitted us to restore the cut in salary given them several years ago in the depression period. This inequality must be remedied and relief furnished to some of these devoted and faithful missionaries.

In this hour of need in our missionary operations, the Budget Committee appeal to the rank and file of our people. Will you not come to the aid of our missions in this great hour of opportunity, in this crisis hour in our work? You have faithfully done this many times in the past. You have loyally stood by and have sacrificed and toiled that this message may be carried to the world, but there can be no cessation in our warfare. It must go on unceasingly until the final victory, until the day of harvest when the Lord shall come to gather His children home, and what joy will then be ours to see in the kingdom some who have been brought there through our efforts, through our sacrifice.

We must give and give again to the support of this work. We must give until it hurts. We must sacrifice, even of our penury, in order that those who have nothing may receive the gospel of salvation. We must bind about our supposed wants, economize in every possible way that this message may be carried to the world. We know that we can depend on you. We know that you will not disappoint us in supplying the calls which our missionaries are now making.

We appeal especially to the men and women of wealth among us, who possess a comfortable competence. Can you not turn some of your possessions into money in such an hour as this? Christ exhorted the disciples "Sell that ye have, and give alms." In this time of great world crisis, when we know not what a day may bring forth, has not this message "Sell that ye have" an application to some who read this appeal? We believe it has. Will you not earnestly pray that God will reveal to you what you should do?

The Budget Committee, with greatly burdened hearts sends out this earnest appeal to our brethren and sisters. The Mission Board in this hour needs your aid. Our missionaries need the encouragement which you can give by your prayers and by your gifts, and may God lead you to do the best you can to enable the advent message to enter the open doors now awaiting it.

The Budget Committee
W. E. Nelson, Chairman.

What Did You Do?

Some few weeks ago Uncle Sam's mail service brought to your home an opportunity to engage in a pleasant and profitable employment for your spare time. This beautifully illustrated announcement gave full detailed information as to what may be done, —the need, lateness of the hour, and both present and eternal rewards for those taking part, but may I ask just what did you do with yours? Did you lay it away on some shelf or in some basket for future reference? If such has been the case, will you not get it out and look it over today? Possibly there will be no better time than the present. Consider prayerfully what you might do, and then write your Book and Bible House at once.

With the approach of Christmas, the time is opportune for large sales with the home workers' kit; for never before have we offered such beautifully illustrated and attractively bound books at such low prices. There will never be a better time to decide than today, and if you will consent to devote some of your time, we will help you to succeed and you will be surprised at what you can accomplish.

Elder Bond's Itinerary

We are indeed happy to have Elder C. Lester Bond, General Conference Associate Secretary of the Missionary Volunteer Department, visit in our conference for a few days. I know that all of the young people, as well as older ones, will want to enjoy his inspiring messages at one or more of these services listed below.

A great number of our young people, as well as older ones, are vitally interested in our progressive class work, our junior camp work, of others.

Elder Bond leads out in this phase of the work for our world field, and I am sure he will have some interesting information for us.

We invite our isolated believers and near-by churches to join us in these services. Let us plan now to give Elder Bond a hearty welcome to our field and show him we are proud of his leadership.

Week of Prayer at Maplewood

A season of great spiritual blessing was enjoyed at Maplewood during the recent Week of Prayer. Elder C. H. Lauda sounded a definite keynote to deeper consecration in his vesper and Sabbath morning services of October 7 and 8; and it was felt at that time that God's Spirit would strive mightily with souls during the week of special endeavor.

Elder E. H. Oswald, president of the Northern Union Conference, spoke to the student and teachers at the chapel hour Monday morning. Tuesday morning Elder C. Edwardson directed the attention of the school to the beauty of a closer walk with God.

Thus was the way prepared for Elder D. E. Reiner, home missionary secretary of the Northern Union, to lead out in a strong appeal, beginning Tuesday evening and continuing through the Sabbath. Twice daily the school family met in the chapel and heard the beautiful gospel story presented as a call to greater devotion, deeper consecration, and wider service. The results of these appeals were far-reaching in the hearts of all. Seasons of earnest prayer were in constant evidence. Students and teachers prayed because they felt a great need of Christ in their experience. A spirit of prayer and reconciliation to God gripped the institution. Seventeen individuals joined the baptismal class and openly pledged their lives to Christ's service in a covenant with Him. These students are to be presented with a copy of the booklet, "The Impending Conflict." This will give them greater strength and assurance in their new walk, and also prepare them more fully for the conflict through which the saints of God must shortly pass.

Professor Heim and his associates are greatly cheered by these manifestations of God's Spirit at work. Surely our schools have been established for no other purpose than to draw precious souls to the foot of the cross.

Elder Reiner is greatly beloved of all at Maplewood. The memory of his work here will linger through the years. The many hearts yielded to the Lord Jesus is an evidence of what the Holy Spirit can accomplish through the concerted efforts of a consecrated ministry and a group of devoted Christian people. Thus the primary objective of Christian education continues to be realized—winning souls for the kingdom of Christ.

Roseau Union Meeting

Sabbath, October 22, our little church at Roseau was full to overflowing. The church members of Middle River and a number of our isolated believers joined in the Sabbath services. The Lord blessed our services together and all dedicated their lives to the finishing of this great work.

The evening service was one of interest to young people as well as the older ones, for this was the first investiture service in that church. Miss Ethel Brandt presented a class of four girls to be invested as Friends. These girls demonstrated that they had met the requirements and promised by the grace of God to abide by the Junior pledge, "By the grace of God I will be pure and kind and true. I will keep the Junior Law. I will be a servant of God and a friend to man."; and to abide by the Junior Law, "Keep the Morning Watch. Do my honest part. Care for my body. Keep a level eye. Be courteous and obedient. Walk softly in the sanctuary. Keep a song in my heart. Go on God's errands."

As a result of this service, others became interested in our progressive work and we are looking forward to a larger investiture service at Roseau in the near future. We encourage our isolated young people to order a "Junior Handbook" from the Book and Bible House at only 35 cents, and enjoy working out the requirements for these different progressive classes of Friends, Companions, Comrades, and Master Comrades.

A number of our people in this section of our conference urge that we have another union meeting such as this, and we will plan with the district pastor for such a service sometime in the future. C. H. Lauda

Minneapolis First English Church

The Minneapolis First English church had a Victory Day October 15, such as they have never had before. The church had put in faithful work in singing bands, field days and solicitation on the street corners et cetera. One group called on the business men for merchandise and this was sold at auction.

On Sabbath, October 15, each Sabbath school division but one, had a part in the program. The church treasurer gathered up a basket full of money that was turned in on Victory Day and when this was all counted and added in, the grand total was $3032.00.

The church was overjoyed when the announcement was made by the conference missionary secretary, who was in charge. The singing band brought in $850, which was a new high record. God has surely blessed the concerted effort of the church, and the writer wishes to thank each band leader and each member for the excellent cooperation evidenced throughout the pleasant campaign. J. C. Christenson

Victory

Victory is in the air. Last week we celebrated the reaching of the Minnesota Harvest Ingathering goal, and today a loyal people have rolled in an additional amount and we celebrated another and greater Victory—the reaching of Minnesota's super goal. A telegram was sent to the Fall Council, and our conference president sent back the message that he was receiving many congratulations.

Now will you keep a little secret, if I let you know that half of what is raised above our goal will be returned to Minnesota to be used in holding efforts for bringing in new members over here?

Only thirteen churches in the conference have not yet reached their goal, and they are going right after it, so we can visualize as nice sum to be used for the conversion of the honest-hearted people of Minnesota who have not as yet heard the truth.

News Items

We are glad to welcome Elder H. A. Vandeman to our field. He comes as pastor of the Minneapolis First English church, and is devoting some time this week to getting located here in the city.

Word has been received that the crowds have been increasing at the Mankato Fort which is being held by Elder C. L. Smith, assisted by Brother H. V. Reed. We are glad for this good report and hope we will have good results from this effort.

Brother Cross has been busy getting colporteurs lined up for the coming union institute which will be held at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, November 7-17. Sunday night, October 23, Elder A. L. Bietz spoke on the Sabbath question at the auditorium. It was necessary to have two meetings again in order to accommodate the crowd. The house was packed at both of these meetings.

Elder G. E. Hutches is starting a series of meetings at Tamarack on Sunday night, October 30.

Elder V. A. Lidner recently arrived in Minneapolis and is now located in that city. He comes to us as the pastor of the Minneapolis Swedish church. We welcome Brother Lidner back to Minnesota.

Forty-eight of our churches and companies show a slight loss in their tithe for the first nine months of this year. We trust that our people will check up on their personal tithe and see that all tithe is paid before the close of 1938.

What a Campaign This Was!

We are glad to report that North Dakota is over the top, and what a campaign it has been. We have been watching the reports coming in from the field for the last eight weeks, but the one that came from Brother Rustad brought the most joy. It not only put his district over the top, but at the same time put the conference over the top. He was first to go over the super goal with his district. But other districts are coming along nicely. Elder Seibel's is only $2.25 short of its super goal. I am sure his district will be glad for you to come and see in touch with him if possible.

We are now headed for the conference super goal. If we all stay by, we may reach it. We think of these faithful district leaders. Oh, how they have stood by so faithfully! The elders of the church have worked as real generals in the Lord's army. We don't want to forget the home missionary leaders and secretaries who have cared for the correspondence, also the treasurers of the churches who reported the amount raised each week. Then last, but not least, we do not want to forget the young people's leaders and the singing bands. They all did their part.

96 members received "minute man" pins.

6 members received five-year "minute man" pins.

18 members received $25.00 ribbons.

11 members received $50.00 ribbons.

9 members received $100 ribbons.

Yes, what a great campaign, and it is not finished yet. None of us will think of quitting until we have reached our super goal. Remember, there is a real surprise for every district leader who reaches the super goal and finishes well. We say "Thanks" to all.

I Must Fortify Myself

While soliciting for Ingathering at Sioux Falls a few weeks ago, I approached the manager of a business firm and without many details or remarks, I began to explain the purpose of our call and asked him for his donation. He said that he would not be able to give that day. "It is not that I am against your teaching or doctrines of faith," he said. "I admire you people for the firm stand you take on the Sabbath question. You seem to stand alone in the world on this point." He further stated, "I do not see where you get the authority to teach as you do on this point. I would like to have it explained." I said we could do that right now. He interrupted by saying, "I do not have time today. But sometime I would like to have a discussion with you." I said, "I will be at the hotel tonight, and will be glad for you to come and see me, or I will come and see you." "Well", he said, "Let me fortify myself on this subject, then I will see you." I have tried to see this man several times, but have not been successful in doing so. I plan to keep in touch with him if possible.

Harvest Ingathering Tour

It was a real pleasure to join with Elder J. H. Rhoads on an Ingathering tour. We worked in towns where we have no one to represent our faith. We went in as strangers, but the Lord went before us and prepared the way, and the people responded with their gifts for the Lord's work. As a result of two and a half days Ingathering, we were able to bring in $74.35. Besides the financial gain for the cause, we were able to speak words of comfort to those that were in sorrow and distress.

We would encourage our isolated believers to work every town, and even the country territory will yield good returns for Ingathering. This also affords you an opportunity to speak to your neighbors and friends about the truth.

Notice the admonition of the Bible in Zechariah 8:16. "These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates." The Lord will bless you.

W. H. Hanhardt

Custer

Many readers of the OUTLOOK are no doubt awaiting word regarding progress of the work at Custer. It will be remembered that Professor L. W. Welch with the writer, pitched our gospel tent here last July. Though the nights were so cool it was necessary to have fire in one or two stoves each evening, the hearts of the people were warmed as the burning story of salvation was unfolded to them. The crowds were not always large, yet there wasn't an evening when we didn't have a good group of interested listeners. As far as we can determine, this is the first work done in this place. Brother Welch and I are glad for the privilege of pioneering our work here.

I am sure you would enjoy visiting our Sabbath school. Though but a babe in the great Sabbath school family, we are grateful we can become a part of so great a world movement. The last two weeks our Sabbath school enrollment has been around forty, the greater number of whom are new believers. Both children and adults enter heartily into each weekly program and feel justly proud of their Sabbath school. The weekly offering is around $2.00. Our last thirteenth Sabbath offering amounted to $9.76.

At this writing the tent has been taken down and stored. We are renting a hall at considerable expense in which to carry on with our Sabbath school and Sunday evening services. We are planning for a baptism soon. Perhaps our greatest need at Custer now is a building of our own in which to worship. Won't you remember the work at Custer in your devotions?

A Pleasant Trip

Sabbath, October 15, it was my privilege to be with the Bowdle church for services, and the Sabbath of October 22 to be with the Tolstoy church. While I was unable to be with the Greenway believers over a Sabbath, I met most of them on Sunday, October 16, at the baptism following Elder Reile's effort at Eureka. In spite of the cold, raw weather, six souls were baptized in an unsheltered outdoor lake. It is a blessed privilege to visit in the homes of our German brethren and worship in their churches. The abundant manifestation of the Holy Spirit in the meetings I attended, is evidence of the faithfulness and deep devotion of these people.

During the week I canvassed with Johathan Brenneise of Greenway who is just entering the literature ministry. In spite of heavy responsibilities with his farm, Brother Brenneise has heeded the call to service. We worked in a section which is probably the hardest hit in the state, yet by the rich blessing of God we sold $30.25 worth of message-filled literature, receiving about $5.00 cash during the three days time we worked. This provides ample proof that God stands back of His promise to give success to those who take up the literature work in the proper spirit.

While in Aberdeen with Brother Orville Poore, I was able to attend one of the regular Sunday evening meetings Elder Lauda is holding for the public in the S. D. A. church. Elder Lauda has had the church filled to capacity for nearly every one of these meetings. Extra chairs are necessary some nights. The work in Aberdeen is progressing very well.

Measuring Ourselves to the Task

A growing realization of the magnitude of the world task solemnized the Fall Council. While cheered by the glowing reports of progress and thrilled with the news of opportunities for great advance, the Council was keenly conscious of the need of divine power to meet the demands of the hour. Though a budget in excess of four and a half million dollars was voted, though the message is now being heralded in more than seven hundred tongues in 385 countries and major island groups, and by a working force of more than twenty-eight thousand, there is much that remains to be done. There is a sore need for more men and more means.

Iowa will respond—in our Sabbath school giving, in the Sabbath school Investment plan, in the special fall offerings, and in a large overflow Harvest Ingathering offering. Let us now glean in the vineyard and gather up the fragments that nothing be lost. The churches are particularly urged not only to reach their full super goals, but to provide a generous overflow, that the cause of missions may be blessed and Christ's coming hastened.

DeWitt S. Osgood

United We Press Forward

That blessed oneness and unity which prophecy says will characterize God's elect in time's last hour, was in a measure fulfilled at the 1938 Autumn Council. Ephesians 4:3: "Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." Isaiah 52:8: "Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye when the Lord shall bring again Zion." These passages describe the harmony of the deliberations.

The brethren were unanimous in their determination to reduce the burdens of debt that retard the work in our institutions and hinder progress in our conferences. Definite action was taken to reduce the indebtedness at least 10 per cent each year.

Iowa's 1938 Institutional Relief goal has not yet been reached. The call to rally during November and December and to swing on toward victory is now being sounded. Many have given; a number have pledged and will now pay their pledges; some have waited and will now place their gifts on the altar; a goodly number will join in helping to reach the goal by giving again. These who go the second mile will surely receive a double reward.

DeWitt S. Osgood

Harvest Ingathering

The following churches have reached their super goals in the Harvest Ingathering: Nevada, Sidney, Sioux City, Atlantic, Ames, Wellman, Ottumwa, Onawa, Ute, Mason City, Sigourney, Iowa City, Perry, Terril, Birmingham, Ladoga, Albia, Ruthven, Lake City, Castana, Spirit Lake, Jacksonville, Fairfield, Hawarden, Riceville, Boone, Liberty Center, Glenwood, Hawkeye, Centerville, Audubon, Mt. Pleasant, Knoxville, Harlan, Fort Dodge, Brighton, Sharpsburg, Humboldt, Cherokee, Oskaloosa, Carroll, Clinton, Muscatine, Smithland, Sioux Rapids, Guthrie Center, Waterloo, Fort Madison, Burlington, Des Moines, Village Creek, Grinnell, and Fontanelle.

The following have reached their goals: Clarinda, Keokuk, Algona, and Mount Etna.

We are happy to announce that the Northern Union Conference was the first to go over the top in North America in reaching their goal. We are proud to be in Iowa as a part of the Northern Union. It was your assistance, dear reader, that helped to make this possible.

We are still perplexed, however, as we have over a thousand dollars to raise in order to reach our super goal, and we are asking the churches that have already gone over the top to give us just a little boost and see if we cannot reach our super goal by December one. I would also like to ask if we could not have Thanksgiving Day as a special day set aside by our people for thanksgiving to God for His wonderful goodness in making possible such a large amount of money for missions. May we ask every church to try and get some extra Harvest Ingathering money by that time and have it sent in as a thank offering for foreign missions? We do not have to tell you about the great needs in foreign lands today, especially in countries like China.

We want to tell you some of the news and show you how our people are still working to reach this super goal. Des Moines reports that they now have $930.00 and are over their super goal. Every boy and girl in the church school received a minute man button and they have raised more than $200.00. We sent 27 minute man buttons and 7 five-minute man buttons to the Des Moines church. They have now set their goal for a thousand dollars and intend to help the conference reach their super goal. Nevada also has gone beyond its goal and we are hoping that all of the churches in the conference will do so, as long as there is territory to work and money to get. Let us help our church to reach the forty-cent-a-week per capita goal by bringing in extra Harvest Ingathering money. So, do not stop working as long as you have a chance to get money for missions.

Burlington and Fort Madison have joined the list of churches over their super goals and we congratulate them for their achievements. Algona is now over the top and is soon to reach its super goal. Brother Hudson, of Des Moines, has $64.87 towards his $85.00 goal. The conference church members are now around the thousand-dollar mark and we thank our isolated believers. If you happen to be one, dear reader, who has not done his part as yet, will you please do it before Thanksgiving Day? We want to thank you in advance for the extra Harvest Ingathering dollars. Will you help us?

An Invitation

We want to extend an invitation to all the church members and isolated believers in the vicinity of Nevada to spend Sabbath with us, on November 12. News Items

According to word just received, the address of Brother E. T. Gackenhimer, new leader for district No. 2, is 303 Pleasant St., Rockwell City.

Elder W. A. Howe has been active in the field during recent weeks, visiting among churches, conducting M. V. rallies, etc. Several days were spent at Ruthven recently in the in-

The last order to reach the office for one thousand each of the "New Era" tract series came from Waterloo. In filing this order, Elder C. H. Miller, the pastor, has the following to say:

Elder B. A. Scherr, home missionary secretary, left the office recently on another itinerary in the interest of the Harvest Ingathering work. Among other important points, he planned to visit Council Bluffs, which is one of the churches not yet over the top in the Harvest Ingathering campaign at the time of this writing.
