INGATHERING CAMPAIGN OPENS AUGUST 12

A Tremendous Responsibility

Upon Seventh-day Adventists rests the tremendous responsibility of making known to the entire world the last gospel message of a soon-coming Saviour. This responsibility is not limited to workers and church officers, but each individual member shares in the burden of this enormous task.

The annual Harvest Ingathering effort presents one of the very best opportunities of individual contact with people who need the light of present truth. Calling at the homes of the people and soliciting their interest and personal investment in missions, affords an unusual opportunity to talk with them about the marvelous truth God has given for these last days.

Many people are longing for light, and if we are but prepared "to give an answer to every man that asketh . . . a reason" for the hope that is within us, the Lord will use us as effective witnesses for Him. Let Harvest Ingathering visits be made to count more and more in this endeavor of personal witnessing for the Master. "Many are on the very verge of the kingdom, waiting only to be gathered in." — "Testimonies," Vol. VI, p. 71.

It is impossible to get an accurate report of the number of people who accept the message as a result of Ingathering contacts but it runs into the thousands. Therefore as we go from house to house, let us watch for souls as those who must give an account of their stewardship, improving every opportunity to speak a word in season for our Lord.

Our business is to sow the seed. There our responsibility rests. God has promised to give the increase. So let us all unite in making this, the thirty-second Ingathering endeavor, the greatest soul-winning enterprise which has ever been launched in North America; and then the means so greatly needed will flow into the treasure house of God, and workers will go out to earth's remotest bounds to gather in the ripened grain.

It is Time to March

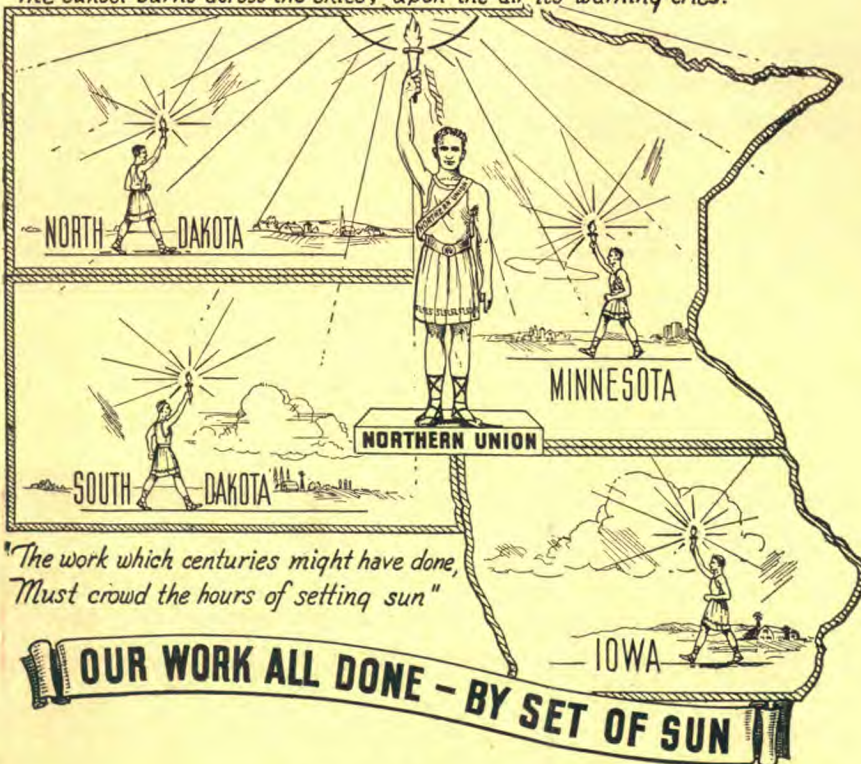

No one who loves God supremely, feels with lost humanity, and hears the heart cries of the millions who are still without God, is sorry that we have come to the opening of another Ingathering campaign. While we do not relish the idea of going out and are a bit nervous when we begin, we are inwardly glad that we can have a part in this wonderful work.

So out with the torches we go!

Every man in the ranks will be given one of Gideon's pitchers, and assigned a place to stand as the moment for the battle draws near. Soon we will again hear the shouts, soon the army of God will march on to victory. August 12 is the grand opening day.

Our part may seem very small, and at times we feel it doesn't matter much whether we help or not; but, dear Christian friends, we must depend on every one of you again this year. God expects every man to do his duty. Nickels and dimes count up into dollars, dollars into tens, and tens into hundreds and thousands;

"The sunset burns across the skies; Upon the air it's warning cries."

"The work which centuries might have done, Must crowd the hours of setting sun"

1939 Ingathering Goal

Conference	Basic Goals	Super Goals
Iowa	$11,000	$12,500
Minnesota	16,000	18,000
North Dakota	6,000	7,000
South Dakota	6,000	7,000

that is the way we will reach our goal and finish the work.

There is no need to spend many weeks at it. If we settle down to hard work right from the beginning, put in good time, and stay by it, we can have it out of the way quickly and sing the victor's song.

We received so many compliments from the field on the goal device we used in the Outlook last year, that we are willing to try it again. I like to think of our union and local conferences standing there on top of everything in the land—farms, factories, and mountains—with torches in their hands, ready for the march. Throughout all these years, we have never failed God nor His work; and we don't intend to do it now. Over 11,000 believers going out in this grand campaign in the Northern Union Conference alone,—what a picture! God bless such a faithful people.

Right here and now we join hands and hearts, and pledge our continued allegiance to God and our most hearty support to His unfinished work.

Fragrant With The Presence of God

During the next six weeks Seventh-day Adventists will, in a special sense, become a "spectacle unto the world," as they take part in the Harvest Ingathering work. Regardless of the financial returns, it is earnestly desired that Christian principles of earnestness, sincerity, courtesy, gratitude, truthfulness and faithfulness be manifested.

The eyes of the world are upon us. Some will donate to God's cause because they are approached in a Christian business-like manner; others will give because their hearts are touched by the Ingathering appeal. Still others will respond because they know Seventh-day Adventists and believe in their work and are sure that the money is rightly used; or it may be that the donation is forthcoming because the solicitor manifests a sincere interest in the spiritual welfare of the person interviewed and inspires new hope and courage to trust in God. Every Ingathering worker should bear in mind that his words, his conduct, his actions are witnessing for or against the cause he represents.

In one of the cities of the middle west the Harvest Ingathering singing band had been hard at work. One morning a letter came to the office of the conference headquarters, enclosing a fifty dollar bill. The letter was brief, but clearly told its story in the following words: "Last evening your singing band was on my street. I gave a small sum to the middle aged lady who solicited. Your work is done in such an orderly way, and the cause you represent is such a worthy one, that I wish to pass on this fifty dollars as an expression of my deeper appreciation. (Signed) The Solicited." Many very small initial donations have been followed by generous amounts, because of the Christian conduct of the solicitors and the impressions made by the Holy Spirit.

"It is the purpose of God to glorify Himself in His people before the world. He expects those who bear the name of Christ to represent Him in thought, word, and deed. . . . The religion of Christ is to be interwoven with all that they do and say. Their every business transaction is to be fragrant with the presence of God." "Testimonies," Vol. IX, p. 21.

Union—My Life

Some interesting letters are at times received from the field. A short time ago a letter came from a young lady making application to Union this fall. Last winter she wrote about the possibility of coming, but at the time circumstances made it advisable that she not come. Now, however, these barriers have been removed and she writes with a determination that is commendable. In her letter she says that her coming to Union is to her a matter of life or death. That may be particularly true in her case, but isn't that true of most of our young people of college age?

So much depends upon such a decision. To say "yes" or "no" seems a little thing in itself, and yet the results of that decision may be eventful and far reaching. Such a decision may change one's whole course in life even though at the time of decision the ultimate may not be apparent. Much depends upon the right choice of a school.

To some of our youth there may seem to be no avenue open for a Christian education, but we would suggest that they not give up too quickly. Much can be accomplished through determination, work, sacrifice and prayer. It might be possible for many to attend our schools who give up too readily. Attending Union may mean as much to you as it means to this young woman. To her Union means her life. Union College will be glad to correspond with you about the possibility of your attending next year. Address your letter to the registrar's office, Union College, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Ingathering and Camp Meeting

Sabbath, August 12, is the official date set by the General Conference on which to commence the 1939 Harvest Ingathering Campaign. Now the believers throughout Iowa will buckle on the armor to take part in the greatest missionary program the world has ever witnessed. Iowa expects to do its best in the service of the kingdom. Already some have been in the field. Encouraging reports of victories won have thrilled us. Soon the strength of the whole army will follow the advance guard to serve valiantly on the field of battle.

We are wondering how many will be coming to camp meeting as minute men? Now is the time for action. Let us unitedly press forward.

* * *

"Tempus fugit" is the Latin proverb meaning "time flies." And how it flies! In the daily hurry and bustle we want to keep in mind the fact that soon, very soon, the Iowa camp meeting will convene. Everyone will want to attend for it is not planned to hold a camp meeting in 1940. Some of the special speakers included are Elder G. W. Wells, associate secretary of the General Conference; J. Adams Stevens, Sabbath school secretary of the General Conference; H. Hanson, returned missionary from Abyssinia; and H. K. Christman of the Southern Publishing Association.

The campmeeting convenes August 24 and continues through until September 2. Don't fail to reserve accommodations early as a record attendance is anticipated.

Only Two Weeks Until Camp Meeting

By the time this issue of the Outlook reaches our readers, only about two weeks will remain until camp meeting. As has been previously announced, it will be held at Riverview Park, Cedar Falls, August 24 to September 2. The opening meeting of the encampment is scheduled for Thursday evening, August 24. Conference workers are preparing for a large attendance and shall be very happy to meet and greet old friends again as our people assemble for this important convocation.

For your housing reservations, please write direct to the Park superintendent, Riverview Park, Cedar Falls, Iowa. Rooms that will accommodate two people may be had in the dormitories. Cottages are also available, which will take care of six or more persons. The cottages are furnished, including bedding. Those who occupy cottages should bring their own linen, towels, etc. The rooms in the dormitories are likewise furnished, including bedding, and may be rented, with or without linen. There is a saving of ten cents per day if you bring your own linen.

For the information of all who anticipate attending the camp meeting, we are pleased to quote the following prices.

Rooms in the dormitories. Corner rooms, $1.00 per day, including linen; without linen, 90 cents. Other rooms 75 cents per day, including linen; without linen, 65 cents. Single cots for men will be available in the men's room in the administration building at 25 cents per night.

Cottages. Furnished cottages (not including linen) which will accommodate six or more persons may be rented at prices varying according to the equipment, the minimum price being $1.50 per day, or 25 cents per person. In addition there is a 35 cent charge for electric lights for the ten-day period, with a slightly higher charge for electricity if toasters, irons, or other appliances are used.

Tents. A few family tents will also be pitched. Those planning to occupy a tent should bring their own bedding. For tent arrangements, write to the undersigned. For all other reservations please write direct to the Park Superintendent, as stated above.

A cafeteria will be operated, where wholesome, palatable meals will be provided at reasonable rates. A store will also be operated on the grounds.

An Oft Quoted Excerpt

"The Lord does not now work to bring many souls into the truth, because of the church-members who have never been converted, and those who were once converted and who have backslidden." This reference, strangely enough, is found in a paragraph on health reform. The context is very enlightening. Perhaps here is the cause of much of our loss of power. Why not refer to your "Testimonies" and turn to the page where this appears, so that you may learn its full significance? The reference will be given next week.

Dedication

On Sabbath and Sunday, August 19 and 20, the Des Moines church will be dedicated. All are invited to rejoice with us on this glad occasion.

The program will be as follows: Sabbath school at 9:30 A. M., with classes for all. A preaching service at 11:00 o'clock. In the afternoon at 2:30 several union and local conference workers will have a part in a symposium that will be of interest to all.

On Sunday evening at 7:30, Elder E. H. Oswald will preach the dedicatory sermon. This will be preceded by an interesting financial report and history of the Des Moines church. Special music will be provided for each service.

Won't you come and join us in this happy event? We welcome you. Bring a lunch and spend the day. There will be adequate room to care for all. A refreshing drink will be provided by the church for the noon-day meal.

The church is located on the east side of the city just two blocks from the State Capitol building, one block east and a block north. The address is East 13th and Des Moines Streets. We will be looking for you and we hope that you come.

News Notes

Elder W. R. Archbold reports having baptized seventeen at Sioux City, with another baptism being arranged for August 11.

At the time of this writing, the annual junior camp is under way at Dolliver State Park, near Fort Dodge. Elder W. A. Howe, who is in charge, reports that the attendance is large this year.

Elder I. J. Woodman, of the General Conference Medical Department, passed through Nevada recently and counseled with available members of the board relative to our sanitarium work.

During recent days, Brother A. R. Smouse, of the Northern Union Con-ferencē, was a visitor in Nevada and completed the annual audit of the Oak Park Academy books.

We were happy to welcome R. E. Bowles, manager of the Omaha branch of the Pacific Press Publishing Association, as he called at the office recently. Among other out-of-town visitors might be mentioned: Elder A. J. Gordon and F. E. Cook, of Des Moines; Elder J. W. Turner, president of the Missouri Conference; William Grotheer, of Boone; Mr. G. A. Huse, of the National Bible Company, Philadelphia; and Mr. Bontz, of Jefferson, Iowa.

Reports coming from Burlington indicate that the effort under way in that city is being well attended. Last Sunday night the tabernacle was filled to its capacity.

How to Reach Cedar Falls and Riverview Park

Cedar Falls is easily reached from all parts of Iowa and the Middle West. It is located on the Chicago-Omaha-Sioux City-Sioux Falls line of the Illinois Central Railroad, and the West Liberty-Minneapolis line of the Rock Island Railroad. There is also half-hour bus and interurban service from Waterloo on the W. C. F. & N. Railroad, which would give good service from the Chicago Great Western depot at Waterloo.

For those driving to Cedar Falls by automobile, the city is located on federal highway No. 20, which, in Iowa, runs from Dubuque to Sioux City; federal highway No. 218, which connects with the Lincoln Highway near Cedar Rapids and continues to Owatonna, Minnesota; and state highway No. 57, connecting with roads to Des Moines.

Riverview Park is located on highway No. 20 at the west limits of Cedar Falls.

News From the Battle

The spirit of Harvest Ingathering seems to be in the very air we breathe these days. Very few of our churches are waiting for the official opening day in order to begin. They are either already at it, or their goal has been reached. The following word has been received from Elder C. E. Smith: "Mankato is over the top with $550.00. Will reach super goal." Elder Hutches just stepped into the office and announced that the Red Wing church has reached its goal. Last week we reported Detroit Lakes, Fairmont, and Wells as over the goal, and many other churches are well on the way. Twenty-four members of the Mankato church have reached the minute-man goal of $11.89. Four members of the same church have earned $25.00 ribbons.

I am confident that the conference will have its goal before the beginning of the Autumn Council this year, and it is also our goal to have every church over the top by that time. Our motto is "Every man at the wheel." This is God's work, and the times we are facing demand serious thought and persevering effort.

Harvest Ingathering

Every Seventh-day Adventist should make August 12 a day of consecration and prayer for the success of the Harvest Ingathering work this year. Remember this slogan, "A greater work in a shorter time, is our mission goal for '39."

In "Christian Service," page 169, we read these words: "Let us be diligent in the distribution of literature that has been carefully prepared for use among those not of our faith. Let us make the most of every opportunity to arrest the attention of unbelievers. Let us put literature into every hand that will receive it."

Every member should have a part. There should be no slackers in God's army. Surely the minute-man goal of $11.89 is not too much for any one who remembers Calvary and the great commission.

North Star Junior Camp

August 20-27

Our parents and patrons will, of course, be happy to know that the camp management will provide an abundance of food, well prepared by good cooks who fully understand balanced menus and proper food combinations. Juniors are not to bring, and parents and friends are asked not to supply, sweets or other articles of food during the camp. The camp management does not permit fiction, fireworks, or firearms in the possession of any camper.

Trained nurses will be in constant attendance and will supervise the health and first-aid training which will be given. For the sake of good discipline and a strictly scheduled program we request that parents do not stay in or near the camp.

The Missionary Volunteer Department is in partnership with you in this camp. You furnish the Junior and his fee of $7.00, and we furnish the food, equipment, and a constantly supervised program.

Parents and visitors are welcome to visit the camp the last Sunday, August 27, at which time we will plan a big picnic for parents and Juniors. Parents and visitors are welcome with the understanding that they do not interfere with the regular camp program. A charge of 35 cents per meal will be made to visitors who take their meals in the camp dining-room.

Hurry and send for your Junior Camp application blank for all applications must be in by August 15. Write to:

Harvest Ingathering

As we launch once more into the Harvest Ingathering campaign, I recall two statements from the pen of the Lord's messenger, which contain wonderful promises and show plainly that God's hand is in this Ingathering work: "Times are growing hard, and money is difficult to obtain; but God will open the way for us from sources outside our own people." "Testimonies to Ministers, page 210. "The Lord will give us favor before the world until our work is done."—Volume VI, page 21. These statements from the Spirit of prophecy should inspire every believer with courage as he goes out to do his share in the Ingathering work this year.

In 1908, when we had our first Ingathering campaign, the amount raised was $14,136.77. Since then $20,978,675.77 has been gathered, which is an average of $1859.15 for every day during the thirty-one years that have followed. The Lord has surely been true to His promise, and we should be grateful that our heavenly Father continues to give us favor before the world.

I like to think of the good increase we have had in the Ingathering in North Dakota. In 1937 the amount raised was $6134.37, which was $2.42 per capita. Last year the amount raised was $6912.85, or $2.84 per capita.

Let us claim these blessed promises, and go forward with faith and determination to do our part in making the 1939 Ingathering effort a still greater success.

Baptisms

During the past two months a number of baptisms have been held in different parts of North Dakota. Just before camp meeting twelve people were baptized at Dickey, six at Jamestown, and eleven at New Home. At the Jamestown camp meeting nine were baptized, and ten at the Butte camp meeting.

Since camp meeting seven were baptized at Arnegard, seven at Medina, and in a few days there is to be a baptism at Perth where ten or twelve will be baptized. Then there are to be baptisms at Garrison, Bismarek, and other places.

It greatly rejoices our hearts to see people taking their stand for the truth, and also to see our own young people go forward in baptism.

D. N. Wall

Take Courage

Harvest Ingathering is always an interesting as well as a very busy time. The occasion, however, is not a unique one for our people, for they have been at this task for thirty years and have thus grown very efficient.

The present campaign, we are confident, will be another successful one, for God's people know no defeat. There is no class of people in all of North Dakota who are as busy as Seventh-day Adventists, for they have a double program, namely doing their own work as well as that of their Master's.

Recently I spoke to a number of business men with regard to the morale of the general public and was encouraged to hear them say that the people are manifesting unusual optimism these days. The Lord has indeed blessed North Dakota with an unusual amount of moisture during the present year. Crops look good throughout the entire state. With the many evidences of mercy and blessings that our heavenly Father has bestowed upon us, what joy should be ours as we again undertake this good work and go over the top. The Lord of the harvest is waiting for each of us to enter His vineyard, and then, too, our friends are expecting us to come for their donations. Let us not disappoint our Master and our friends.

Baptism at Garrison

The writer was happy to spend the week end of July 28 and 29 with the believers at Garrison. Meetings were held Friday night, Sabbath morning, and the evening after the Sabbath.

On Sabbath afternoon we gathered at a nearby stream and baptized two candidates. We have only seven believers at Garrison; but they are letting their light shine, and were very happy for this occasion. We solicit your prayers in their behalf.

Madison District Meeting

The district meeting held at Madison, Sabbath, July 22, was an important occasion in spiritual blessing and advancement. The newly remodeled Madison church was filled to overflowing by the members from Ash Grove, Madison, Colman, and Brookfield churches and the isolated believers who came in.

Upon entering the church the visitor was at once impressed with the bright, attractive appearance presented as the result of the remodeling and redecorating carried out under the able enthusiastic leadership of Elder E. R. Lauda, the new district leader.

The first meeting of the day was a lively Sabbath school, conducted by Sister Hollingsworth, superintendent of the Madison Sabbath school. In the after-service Elder Lauda gave a timely message which brought comfort and inspiration to all present. After the preaching service, all in attendance spent a pleasant lunch hour together in a grove on the shore of Lake Herman. Professor A. L. Watt led out in the first service of the afternoon, which was followed by a Harvest Ingathering rally led by Elder Lauda, the writer, and the local elders of the churches in the district. The Madison district is taking up the Ingathering work in a strong way and will very likely be the first district to reach its goal.

The closing feature of the meeting was a social gathering in the community hall of the new court house at 8:30 in the evening, which was one of the best of the many gatherings of this kind I have attended.

A note of enthusiasm and progress is sounding in the Madison district. Two efforts will be held there in the near future. The work in all lines is going forward in this district. As I left this meeting, the thought kept running through my mind, "It's good to be in South Dakota."

Watch for It

"Our annual crime bill is fifteen billion dollars, or about $120.00 for every man, woman, and child. America today is seriously threatened by lawlessness, and the very security, happiness, and welfare of our people are menaced." You will want to read the entire article, "Fifty Years of Crime in America," in the "Signs of the Times" for August 8, from which it is quoted. John Edgar Hoover, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation, is the writer. It is a most striking analysis of present conditions.

Picht.—Audrey Erickson Picht, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Erickson, was born in St. Paul, January 9, 1918, and died June 23, 1939. She became a member of the St. Paul Seventh-day Adventist church at the age of fourteen. On October 11, 1938, she was united in marriage to Lloyd Picht. Her illness was of short duration, and death resulted from an operation for appendicitis. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer to a large number of relatives and friends. Interment was made at Deer Park, Wisconsin.

Niermeier.—Ira Niermeier was born at Pella, Iowa, August 31, 1859 and passed away July 30, 1939. His father was killed during the Civil War, after which he, with his mother and sister, drove to Western Kansas in a covered wagon. A few years later he came to Cedar Rapids when it was but a hamlet on the east bank of the Cedar River. On November 25, 1885, he was united in marriage to Anna Ellen Walker. In 1899, he united with the Seventh-day Adventist church and continued to be a faithful member to the time of his death. Surviving him are: his widow; two sons, Scott B., of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Louis E., pastor of the Sunnyside Seventh-day Adventist church in Portland, Oregon; one daughter, Mrs. J. C. Barcus of Sioux City, Iowa; one sister, Mrs. Charles Pelmulder of Lincoln, Nebraska; two granddaughters, a number of nephews, nieces and other relatives, also many friends.

D. S. Osgood

Krietzky.—Sinefone Krietzky was born in Taratsch, Province of Kief, Russia, November 25, 1866, and passed away at Minot, North Dakota, June 27, 1939, at the age of seventy-two years. On September 15, 1891, he was united in marriage to Lillie Pleshuk, and to them eight children were born, three of whom preceded the father in death. In 1900 they came to the United States, settling on a farm near Butte, North Dakota. He and his family accepted the advent message in the summer of 1908, and he has ever since been a faithful, devoted member of our church. He leaves to mourn their loss his widow and five children: Elder Mike Krietzky of New Jersey; Mrs. Eva Kivachuk of St. Paul, Minnesota; John Krietzky of New Jersey; and Sam and Theodore, both of Butte; also an adopted son, Ralph; seven grandchildren; other relatives and many friends. Some time before his last illness he told his companion, I have confidence that I will be saved. Funeral services were held on the campground at Butte, and about four hundred people were present. Words of comfort based on Rev. 14:13, 14, were spoken by the writer. Elders L. Halswick, S. Demchuk, and J. C. Michalenko assisted in the services.

Freer.—Emma Jane Honeywell Freer, the daughter of David and Polly Honeywell, pioneer residents of Minnesota, was born January 27, 1857, at Stewartville, Minnesota. She died June 27, 1939, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Julia Stahl. She leaves to mourn, six children and twenty-seven grandchildren. She was a Seventh-day Adventist all her life, and died in the hope of a soon coming Saviour. Funeral services were conducted by the writer from the Thurston Funeral Parlors at Anoka, assisted by C. Edwardson. Burial was at Princeton, Minnesota.

Graham.—Benjamin Graham was born in 1860 and passed away on May 19, 1939. He is survived by four daughters and three sons. Funeral services were conducted by the writer from the Dan Billman Mortuary, and burial was at Spring Valley, Wisconsin.

A. L. Bletz

Bute.—Cleveland L. Bute was born May 23, 1885 at Cullom, Illinois, and departed this life July 11, 1939 at his home near Jackson, Minnesota. Eleven years ago a colporteur sold the Bute family a copy of the book Bible Readings and as a result they accepted present truth. Brother Bute was a consistent Christian and a faithful worker in both the church and community. Shortly before his death as we talked with him about meeting again in the earth made new, he said, I'll be there. He leaves to mourn: his wife; one married daughter, Ardythe Vought of Rogers, Minnesota; one son, Stephen, at home; also, his father, four brothers, three sisters, and other relatives besides a host of friends. Funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by C. H. Lauda, in the Presbyterian church at Jackson, which was crowded to capacity, and we laid him to rest in a nearby cemetery to await the call of the Life-giver at the first resurrection.
