Midsummer Offering - July 20.

One Sure Thing

When people ask how this war is coming out, we can only say that the end of wars—not necessarily this one—but the end of all wars is the second coming of Christ. And the greatest of signs of that greatest of events is given by Christ in His prophetic outline of last-days events (in Matt. 24:14). He has told of wars, nations rising against other nations, of famines and pestilences and earthquakes; and then He sums up: "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come."

That is a sure thing. Amidst the clash of wars and destruction that levels nations, one thing we know—the message to the world, "And then shall the end come." These very troubles will hasten the day. God lays upon us the one greatest privilege—the carrying of this message of the kingdom to men. Every time we shudder at the news now flashing across the world, let us say, "Now will I do my utmost to hurry the message on." Here is July 20—the annual Midsummer Offering day. It is to be another factor in hastening on the end. Let us prepare the gifts that Christ expects from us now for the work that is to hasten the end. It is a sure thing. He adds: "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away."

Union College Medical Corps Camp

In trucks and cars, by motorcycle, and by bus, the recruits for the second annual Union College Medical Cadet Corps Camp poured in from fifteen states on June second and third. The induction into military life included registration, filing a description of each man, and fingerprinting him. The representatives of a clothing establishment were on hand to measure the men, and soon they were all outfitted in a neat powder-blue uniform for drill purposes. A white uniform, consisting of white duck trousers, white shirt, with belt, tie, and shoes of black, made up the dress uniform worn on special occasions.

The keynote of the camp, "For God and Country," was sounded at the first actual appointment of the camp, the chapel hour. At this time the purpose and plan of the camp was set forth. It was a satisfaction indeed to meet these earnest young men who, made serious by the events taking place in our day, were impressed, even at a financial sacrifice in loss of wages and other expenses, to come, some of them nearly a thousand miles, to prepare better to serve God and their country.

The program is run as nearly like a military camp as possible, with every appointment announced by bugle call, inspection of living quarters, guard duty, military salutes on the proper occasion, and even a few court martial cases have been necessary to ensure the proper discipline and to teach the vital principles of obedience and cooperation.

And yet the camp is not militaristic in its tendencies. Only one fourth of the time is given to drill. A second quarter is given to first aid, another quarter to emergency nursing, and another quarter to the organization of the army and the principles underlying army duties.

In all, seventy-three boys have enrolled for all or part of the three-week camp. These come from the following places: Central Union 36, Northern Union 20, Southwestern Union 14, and Lake Union 2. They were distributed over the conferences as follows: Arkansas-Louisiana 5, Colorado 3, Iowa 11, Kansas 8, Michigan 1, Minnesota 4, Missouri 9, Nebraska 15, North Dakota 3, Oklahoma 5, South Dakota 2, Texas 4, Wisconsin 1, Wyoming 1.

We feel that God's richest blessings are being poured out upon the 1940 camp. In case of universal military training or a war, we believe this work recommended by the General Conference will be effective in securing the kind of service which Adventist boys are best fitted conscientiously to render.

If our boys are not called to the colors, we feel their time will not be lost. They have improved their posture, learned to coordinate their movements, have learned elements of good citizenship, have learned about the inner workings of vital features of our government, and have gained certain cultural benefits. In addition to these good results of military drill and an understanding of army life, they have learned valuable lessons in first aid which in all probability will save lives. Furthermore, they have learned lessons of sanitation and hygiene which will enable them to care for their own bodies better and to make their communities more wholesome. The knowledge of nursing which they gained will enable them to aid in the occasional sickness at home.

An hour a day was given over to a series of studies on the cardinal points of the Seventh-day Adventist faith. On Sabbath a round table discussion was conducted on the subject of "Men's Problems in Connection with Military Service." This feature was popular, judging by the interest expressed in it by the boys.

As these young men return to their homes, they do so with a clearer vision of the Christian way and a firm determination to live nobly "For God and Country."

To all, the testing time will come. By the sifting of temptation, the genuine Christian will be revealed. Are the people of God now so firmly established upon His word that they would not yield to the evidence of their senses? G. C. 625.

The Des Moines Effort

Beginning about the middle of October and continuing for some thirty-two weeks, an intensive evangelistic series has been conducted in Des Moines at the Community Bible Auditorium. Coming from Portland, Oregon, where he had just closed a very successful series, Elder Frederick Schwindt vigorously commenced a strong soul-winning effort. A tabernacle 48 x 90 was erected at the corner of Crocker and West 5th Streets, the appointments of which were well calculated to provide a real evangelistic appeal. The building was filled for the opening night, and the meetings from then on proved to be very popular. The total number of accessions to the faith by baptism and profession of faith (and we say it to the glory of God) totaled 301. We greatly rejoice in this modern miracle of divine grace and believe God granted special power in the presentation of the glorious third angel's message.

Though Elder Schwindt led out in this remarkable evangelistic campaign, yet there were those who, as Bible workers, cooperated to make this great triumph possible. During the first series, Glenn Fillman served as chorister and one of the Bible workers who included G. H. Boehrig, R. E. Kepkey, and Paul Whitlow. In the second series there were two changes. E. T. Gackenheimer was chorister, and Paul Whitlow and Hampton White assisted as Bible workers. Besides these, there were those in the Des Moines church who contributed unstintingly of their time and energies that precious souls might rejoice in the blessed hope. We cannot at this time give proper credit for all the services so gladly and generously given, but we are happy in the belief that these faithful ones will not go unrewarded in the glory-land. The offerings received during the series amounted to more than we anticipated as they totaled $2514.01. Again we are led to exclaim, "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow."

And now, beloved, let us pray for these new believers who must experience trials to test their faith. Let us bring them before the throne of grace in faith and prayer. It was a thrilling experience to meet with this group on the last Friday night of the effort and extend a welcome to them on behalf of the conference. The large center section of the tabernacle was filled with fine, representative people, the new believers and, as Brother Woesner and I shook hands with the long line that filed before us, our hearts filled with thankfulness to God that He has used Elder Schwindt and his corps of workers to bring in this large fruitage.

Iowa Camp Meeting

Time is passing rapidly, and it is none too early to call attention to our annual camp meeting which will be held at Riverview Park, Cedar Falls, August 22-31.

In view of the very unusual and serious times to which the world has come, we believe that our people generally will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend camp meeting this year. Excellent help has been promised us by the General and Union conferences. Further announcement along this line will be given in these columns next week.

Those who have had the privilege of attending camp meeting during the past few years will agree that Riverview Park, with its spacious grounds and shady trees, affords very beautiful and restful camp meeting site. For the convenience of our people, a cafeteria will be operated on the grounds where wholesome meals will be served at reasonable rates. Furthermore, a store will also be operated where health foods, groceries, etc. may be purchased.

So as to enable our people to begin now to plan for camp meeting and to make the necessary advance arrangements, we are pleased to give the following information.

For your housing reservations, please write direct to the Park Superintendent, Riverview Park, Cedar Falls, Iowa. Rooms that will accommodate two people may be secured in the dormitories. Cottages which will take care of six or more persons are also available. The cottages are furnished, including bedding; however, those who occupy cottages should bring their own linen, towels, etc. The rooms in the dormitories are likewise furnished, including bedding, and may be rented, with or without linen. There is a saving of ten cents per day if you bring your own linen.

For the information of all who anticipate attending the camp meeting, we are pleased to quote the following prices.

Rooms in the dormitories.—corner rooms, $1.00 per day, including linen; without linen, 90 cents; other rooms 75 cents per day, including linen; without linen, 65 cents. Single cots for men will be available in the men's room in the administration building for 25 cents per night.

Cottages.—Furnished cottages (not including linen) which will accommodate six or more persons may be rented at prices varying according to the equipment, the minimum price being $1.50 per day, or 25 cents per person. In addition there is a 35 cent charge for electric lights for the the campaign can be finished earlier than ever before; and this will make it possible for our evangelists to start their meetings early in the fall. Our workers all see light in this plan, and are enthusiastic over it. By the help of God, we should make this year a great year in soul winning.

A Church Festival in Bowdon

We herewith announce a church festival to be held in the Bowdon town hall, Sunday, July 14, in the afternoon and evening.

A most interesting program has been arranged, consisting of recitations, dialogues, and music, both vocal and instrumental. We have arranged with the conference for Elders T. T. Babienco, D. N. Wall, and I. C.

Schmidt to be with us, and they will be on the program both in the afternoon and evening. The first meeting will be from 3:00-5:00 P. M. and the second meeting from 7:00-9:00 P. M. At 5:30, an inexpensive supper will be served.

This church festival is planned for the benefit of the church school to be started in Bowdon this fall, as well as to stress in a general way the importance of church schools. Programs will be sold at 20 cents each to those who wish to buy copies, and the proceeds will be put into the church school fund.

A beautiful quilt, lamp, and other articles will be sold to the highest bidders by the Bowdon Dorcas Society.

The evening meeting will close with a sermon from 8:00-9:00 by Elder Babienco. We cordially invite all our believers from District No. 2, as well as those from other districts. The Bowdon town hall is commodious and can accommodate a large number of people.

News Items

Those of our believers who were at camp meeting had the privilege of meeting and hearing the new labourers who are connecting with the work in North Dakota. Brother Albert Bauer, who has just graduated from Union College, has been employed as an interne for evangelistic work. He comes to us full of enthusiasm, and immediately after camp meeting he was eager to launch out in the Harvest Ingathering campaign in District No. 6. He will locate in Lehr, which is quite central for this district. After completing the Ingathering work in the district, he plans to assist in the Ingathering work of District No. 7.

We were glad to welcome at the camp meeting Elder W. Holbrook, our new academy Bible teacher. He comes to us from Bethel Academy, in Wisconsin. Elder Holbrook, we soon learned, was ready for any task; and he will join Elder Grau in District No. 4, assisting in the Ingathering campaign. Later he will visit a number of churches in the interest of our academy.

We were happy that arrangements could be made with the Iowa Conference for Elder W. R. Archbold to attend our camp meeting for at least a couple of days, although he was very busy with a tabernacle effort in Council Bluffs, Iowa, at the time. He has accepted a call to connect with the North Dakota Conference as state evangelist and will join our workers the first of August. He will begin with a tabernacle effort in Fargo immediately after the Harvest Ingathering work is finished.

An Interesting Experience

Recently, one of our workers, while making a trip by train, fell into conversation with a business man from Connecticut. In the course of the conversation, this gentleman told Elder— that he was one of 675 members in a Congregational church, and also told some of the discouraging circumstances with which they were meeting in their church. One was that they had not been able to pay the minister for several months. Elder— outlined our tithing system to him, and he thought it was a wonderful plan.

Then the business man began to lament the fact that in his church many of their members were leaving, despite the efforts they were making to hold their young people by having moving pictures for them in the basement of the church, also have dances, and billiard tables on which to play. "But yet we are losing members!" he sighed. Elder— after telling him of our principles along these lines—that our members do not participate in such so-called pleasure, nor do they drink tea, coffee, read novels, etc.—, said he was happy to report that our membership is increasing. The man was perplexed as to how to account for this gain in spite of all the restrictions. Of course, Elder— was glad to tell him the secret. He explained that we believe in the soon coming of the Lord and are preparing to meet our God.

Yes, dear brethren, the coming of the Lord and the contemplation of the wonderful experience of dwelling with Him throughout eternity should stimulate every one of us to be faithful in our duties, and prepare to meet God. We do appreciate the faithfulness of the people of South Dakota. Your faithfulness makes it possible for the work to go forward.

New Workers

We are pleased to announce that two young workers have been added to our South Dakota Conference working force; namely, William Bieber and Clarence Renschler. We are happy to welcome these young men who have just completed their college courses, and who, with their wives, are now taking up responsibilities in our conference.

Already these laborers are doing a very good work. Of course, the first interest now is Harvest Ingathering. Those who enter the work now must be efficient not only along ministerial lines, but also along Harvest Ingathering and general promotion lines. One of these young men with the assistance of the elder of the Tolstoy church, made it possible for the Tolstoy church to be the first in the conference to reach the Ingathering goal this year.

After the Ingathering campaign is over, Brother and Sister Renschler will be engaged in evangelistic work, and Brother Bieber will be the Bible instructor at Plainview Academy for the coming school year.

Field Secretary Returns

Brother Robert H. Brown, who was given a year's leave of absence in order that he might obtain his degree at Union College, has now finished his training and is back to take up his duties as field secretary of our conference. We are glad to welcome Brother Brown back to our field. He is very busy these days helping the colporteurs in their work. The colporteur prospects are looking brighter this year than they have for a long time.

Remember this important branch of the work in your prayers.

Notice

The Plainview Academy Board will soon meet to give study to the new broom factory and other industries to be launched this coming school year. We hope to have the new industrial building, which will house these industries, ready for operation by the opening of school.

Will you kindly remember your pledge and take care of it just as soon as you can, because it will be necessary for us to pay cash for our building materials, etc. A. V. Rhoads

Bible House on Wheels

Brother C. A. Lindquist, who has done such faithful and efficient work as field secretary during Brother Brown's absence, has now started out in a new enterprise. He is the second young man in North America to enter into this new line of work. He has a trailer house in which he carries samples of our latest books and papers; and some day you will look out of your window and see the "Bible House On Wheels" rolling up to your door.

I am sure that with Brother Lindquist's pleasing personality and rich Christian experience, he will be a wonderful help in the finishing of the work, and you will receive spiritual blessings from his visits.

Junior Camp Transportation

Many parents have expressed the wish to send their children to our Junior Camp, but have been perplexed about transportation arrangements. All of those who have been concerned about this will be glad to know that we have arranged with Mr. T. V. Hoffman, 829 East 14th Street, Sioux Falls, to use his truck for conveying Juniors from that part of the state.

A canvas canopy will be provided, and benches will be used for seating, accommodating twenty-five or thirty people. He will charge $1.00 each way, or $2.00 per person for the round trip. Each Junior should settle personally with Brother Hoffman.

Brother Hoffman is a safe and experienced driver. A responsible person, or persons, will ride with the children, and every consideration will be given for the safety and comfort of the children. It would be well for parents to send a lunch sufficient for two meals with each child.

Parents should bring their children to points along the highway. The exact route has not yet been planned, but will be arranged when applications are in. The truck will leave Sioux Falls at 3:00 A. M. Sunday morning, July 21, and will average a speed of about thirty-five miles per hour. Children can be picked up by the parents on Monday, July 29, on the return trip, according to arrangements.

Applications should be sent in at once. We cannot promise to make arrangements for you unless your application has reached our office by July 15.

We request that parents do not dress their girls in slacks. Send ample bedding, for in the high altitudes the nights are quite cool.

Write for an information booklet and application blank, if you do not have one.

Junior Camp is less than three weeks away. May we not have your application by return mail?

District No. 2

Sabbath, June 1, the Colman, Brookfield, Ash Grove, and Madison churches, and the Montrose company, met at Madison for their district meeting. We were also glad to welcome the families of Elder Floyd Bresee, H. J. Perkins, and Elder A. J. Gordon.

The superintendents of the Sabbath schools from the four churches were represented in the Sabbath school which convened at 10:00 A. M. Mrs. Bresee gave a missionary story of their own experience in South America, and Elder Bresee led out in the day's lesson study. Following the Sabbath school, Elder Lauda based his sermon on Lamentations 2:16, last part.

After the lunch hour, H. J. Perkins, our conference treasurer, gave a word picture of what a prayer life should be.

The closing service was held in the Baptist church, where Elder Gordon spoke on the subject, "The Life Before and After Baptism." The Spirit of the Lord was in each of the three services and carried the message to the hearts of the hearers. At the close of the services, Elder Lauda baptized five new believers.

Lotus Perkins, Kathleen Lauda, and Wilmer Sederstrom furnished special music.

Another baptismal class is being organized, and a number will be ready for baptism in the fall. Please remember this district in your prayers.

Mrs. E. R. Lauda

News Items

Brother C. A. Scriven, of Colman, one of our conference committee members, has recently undergone an operation. Late reports indicate that he is getting along nicely. Let us pray for Broher Scriven's recovery.

The people of South Dakota are living up to their reputation, for they are going right forward in the Harvest Ingathering work. Some say it is easier this year than usual. Perhaps the reason for this is the early start. Oftentimes we procrastinate, and the best time passes by with other solicitors going before us, thus lessening donations for our work. Let us begin early, and finish early!

Old picture rolls are appreciated by our foreign missionaries. We quote the following from a letter recently received from Brother Robinson of Malamulo, Nyasaland: "Once again I wish to express my appreciation for the picture rolls which you have so kindly been sending. Today I received nine, which is the largest number I have ever received at one time since coming here in 1936. Perhaps I have told you before what a long life these rolls have, and how they are literally worn out. Please convey our gratitude to the Sabbath schools whose generosity make these gifts possible."

When you read this, the Black Hills camp meeting will be in progress. The date is July 11 to 14. The General and Union Conferences are sending us very good help, so we anticipate great spiritual blessings at this gathering.

Several churches have already reached their Ingathering goals. Tolstoy stands out as the victorious church to have the honor of reaching its super goal before any other church in our conference. Sister Stewart reports that Spearfish has also reached the goal. Other churches to reach their super goals are Bison, Leola, Greenway, Java, and Bowdle.

At our recent camp meeting the matter of the One Per Cent Fund was again presented. Some had not understood it before and are now sending in their share. This One Per Cent is in addition to the ten per cent tithe. So when you pay your tithe, just add one per cent to be credited to this important fund.

More good Ingathering news! Over $1200.00 raised in the past two weeks! Already many names have been sent in for Minute Man awards. Sister Anna Hanson of Sioux Falls was the first member of our organized churches to reach her Minute Man goal; Sister Mary Hibbison, of Canistota, was the first one of our Conference church members to reach that goal. We can always depend upon the brethren and sisters of South Dakota to rally to the Ingathering program.

A Book Instead of Church Clothes

Our student colporteur evangelists are thrilled with their colporteur experiences. The following is quoted from a letter sent in by Clifford Johnson, a student from Maplewood Academy.

"The order I secured for "Bible Readings" Memorial Day morning, was from a family living in a house I had passed up the day before because I thought it was deserted.

"The man was cutting potatoes. After listening to my canvass, he said, 'Its mighty strange that people don't believe that the United States is spoken of in the Bible. I'm no Bible student, but I like to study those things. Let's show the wife.' I gave the lady a short canvass and quoted the price. The husband said, 'That's only $1.50 difference in the binding. We're going to use it a lot, so we want it in the best binding.' He said, "We will have to start saving our pennies. We don't have enough to buy clothes to go to church; so that book's going to have to take the place of church."

"I could have had a down payment, if I could have changed a $23.00 W. P. A. check. The Lord surely leads, even when I don't see any object in it."

Obituary

Jensen.—Peter E. Jensen was born in Aulboro, Denmark, October 8, 1873. He came to America in 1875 and settled in Nebraska, where he was baptized at the age of ten years, his parents having accepted the advent message when he was just a small child. On August 9, 1893, he was married to Minnie DeVinney. To them four children were born: Marguerite, Pierce, Odella, and Eulalia. As a young man he entered the contracting business, specializing in the building of hospitals. He came to Nevada in 1908 from Hastings, Nebraska, as the contractor in charge of building the Iowa Sanitarium, having just finished a similar contract at Hastings. Previous to that he had built sanitariums at Atlanta, Georgia, and Nashville, Tennessee. Following the completion of the sanitarium contract, he, with his family, remained in Nevada, and for some years he continued in the general contracting business. His life was devoted to his family, his home, his church, and his flowers. He served on the Iowa Conference Executive Committee and the Iowa Sanitarium Board. He was a city councilman and in later years had charge of the American Red Cross in Nevada and East Story County. During the past twenty years he had a perfect record for attendance at Sabbath school and daily study of the lesson. He served his local church tirelessly and in many capacities. He died at the Iowa Sanitarium on the morning of May 29, 1940 and is survived by one son, two daughters, two sisters, and five grandchildren. The funeral services were held in the Seventh-day Adventist church at Nevada. DeWitt S. Osgood
