What the Ninetieth Anniversary Means

By J. A. STEVENS

The Ninetieth Anniversary means that ninety years ago our Sabbath school work already had made a small beginning. The first schools in recorded history were at Rochester and Bucksbridge, New York, organized in 1853. The year before that Elder James White wrote the first Sabbath school lessons for children, and they were published in the Instructor. Today we have well-prepared lessons for every age-group in the Sabbath School, and they are printed to meet the needs of our Sabbath school members in over eight hundred languages.

Early it was found that Sabbath school supplies necessitated offerings to pay for them. Next came offerings for missions. From a tiny trickle in 1885, when the first offerings for missions were given, more than forty-two million dollars has been given to carry the gospel to the world. The forty-second million was raised in just five months and three weeks. More than 14,000 Sabbath schools are conducted each Sabbath, with approximately 650,000 in attendance. Normally Sabbath school membership increases at an average of sixty-two per day, and there is a new Sabbath school for every day of every week, with an extra one for good measure. Three of every four persons baptized into our churches are Sabbath school members. What a wonderful, unifying, soul-winning feature of our church work the Sabbath school is! Let every church member cherish it, and march forward with its membership to higher ground in Christian experience.

❖ ❖ "Will Try Again" ❖ ❖

By J. R. FERREN,

Secretary, General Conference Bureau of Publicity

The headline, "Dorcas Society Holds Meeting," introduces a report in the Chester, Pennsylvania, Times. A luncheon and business meeting of the Dorcas Society of the Chester Seventh-day Adventist church was held at the Y. W. C. A., with Mrs. Anna Mills, of Norristown, president of the East Pennsylvania Dorcas Federation as the speaker. "Mrs. Mills praised the work of the society in helping the needy, sick, and aged."

There are just eleven lines in the story. The church press secretary sending the clipping expresses disappointment because it is "only about a third" of what she had written. "I will try again soon," she adds.

While it is commendable to always "try again,"—the spirit of determination that wins in writing for the press—let us consider how really worth while is this brief report of the Dorcas Society.

It isn't news to you that our organizations are helping the needy, the sick, and the aged. But, isn't it quite probable that even the name "Seventh-day Adventists" may mean nothing at all to many of the more than 25,000 persons who receive the Chester Times? The commendation given these people for their labor of love by the speaker at their Dorcas meeting will surely make a favorable impression. It may influence some to look into other activities of the Adventists, and perhaps their teachings.

This is the vision we must constantly have of the importance of our work with the press. It isn't necessarily the length of the story that counts, but the information it conveys. No one can estimate the influence of this. The Lord's Spirit may use something which seems very common to us to arouse curiosity and an interest to learn more about our work. Our churches are finding their newspapers usually friendly and very willing to cooperate. Every church should plan for press representation. And whatever our success, individually or collectively, we should always have the attitude of the sister whose experience gave inspiration for this word of encouragement, "I will try again."

School of Dietetics on Accelerated Program

In harmony with the accelerated program which is being instituted in all of our colleges for the duration, the School of Dietetics is opening the course for new entrants every nine months. This corresponds to the schedule adopted by the medical school. July 1 is the opening date for the 1943 class, and the 1944 class will begin work in April, 1944. Those who enter the course in July, 1943, will complete the two years' work by January 1, 1945.

Students who may have taken one year of predietetic work but have not completed sufficient requirements to qualify for the July class can, by taking appropriate summer and fall semester courses offered in our senior and junior colleges, be prepared to enter the April, 1944, class.

For information about the school, write the Dean of the School of Dietetics, Loma Linda, California.

Letter Excerpts

This letter just came from Rhode Island: "I attended the Bible School and church services last Sabbath day. I know I am going to be very happy over this great decision. I have wasted many precious years being too interested in worldly attractions for which I pray I'll be forgiven."

"I have told the local Seventh-day Adventist pastor that I desire to be baptized. The personal interest which you have taken in me in spite of your large volume of mail, gives me a feeling of really counting."

Here is a letter from Illinois written after the lady had heard but one broadcast: "I do not belong to any church although I deeply believe in the Bible. In Madison, Wisconsin, I had a very good friend who is a Seventh-day Adventist. I went to church several times with her. I never visited any other church that I enjoyed so much. Some day after this war is over we intend to go back and become members of that church."

How we do appreciate such a sincere letter as this one from Minnesota: "Please let me know if there is any way in which I can work for Jesus at home. I have two little girls and it is hard for me to get away from home. I am passing out your logs as I have a chance. One of your church members told me that if I was baptized I would have to become a candidate. Just what does that mean? Won't my Bible lessons qualify me for baptism?"

The following letter shows how anxious some are to find their way into the true church: "Where might one become a member of the true church? Is Bellingham my nearest town and church? Will you please send my name to the pastor there, and as soon as I can I will go to see him."

The Voice of Prophecy News

This is a very important announcement to all of our members. From time to time Voice of Prophecy stories are brought to you through the columns of this paper. However, many times lack of space prohibits our bringing you as much news as we would like.

In order to carry more radio news to our listeners we are now publishing monthly the eight-page Voice of Prophecy News. Three pages are devoted to the juniors and the remainder of the paper is of general interest.

We have received hundreds of letters of appreciation for this paper. Some publishers outside our denomination have complimented us on the high editorial and printing qualities of the paper. It is our desire that just as many as possible of you receive this. So we invite every reader of the OUTLOOK to write us immediately for a free sample copy of the Voice of Prophecy News.

We send the Voice of Prophecy News each month to all who have made a contribution, no matter how small. Every three months we send it to all of those on our mailing list. Next month we shall be sending out about 225,000 copies.

Every time a new issue comes out, I say, "Isn't it a pity this fine paper is not going into the hands of all our faithful members who are praying for this great work." You will be greatly encouraged by the stories of progress and experience. Two special features are proving especially popular. One is the Question and Answer column; the other is the "Have Faith in God" verse for each broadcast of the preceding month.

Below is an order blank for your convenience.

tings Memorial Church, Brooklyn. This church is named for the author of the well known book, Will the Old Book Stand? Mr. Allen writes as follows:

"I notice on the wrapper of the Signs of the Times which some kind friend has had you send me for a year, that '1944' appears as if I am to receive it another year. Whether this is so or not, I must write to let you know I appreciate the kindness, though it ceases now, or continues as the wrapper seems to indicate to May, 1944. I sent this week's issue to a Canadian Christian worker of some influence, and I am sure he will read every word of it. Accept my best wishes. You certainly present a beautiful magazine, and the illustrations and articles are such that no one receiving a copy would neglect reading it. I will send another copy to a friend today."

This is evidence that one never knows when he is sending out a Signs how many will finally read it.

At this writing, our Signs list shows an increase of 10,000 over the same time last year, and we believe there will be 20,000 more than the highest point any time before. It is most encouraging to read the mail nowadays and find that so many are following up the interest created by the Signs. We feel sure that the increased activity along this line will result in hundreds more souls being brought into the truth through the Signs of the Times.

Colporteur Gleanings

Elder Fillman told me of a young man who he thought might become a colporteur. When I called on this man I found him well grounded in the message. After a few minutes of visiting, I encouraged him to tell me something more about himself. I soon learned that he had been convinced that the seventh day is the Sabbath through the Great Controversy, a book which had been bought from a North Dakota colporteur. Whether or not this man will become a colporteur I do not know; but one thing is sure. The message in our books have the power to convert souls. It is our privilege, as well as pleasure, to distribute as many books as possible while the opportunity is here. Let us labor to that end and God will bless.

N. J. AABOE.

As I was canvassing the east side of town where reside many of foreign descent, I met a Jewish man whom I canvassed. He told me he could not read English, and in answer to my question as to what he did read, he answered "Yiddish." I had in my collection of tracts a Yiddish tract which I gave to him. His face lighted up as he looked at the Scriptures in his own tongue. There was another Jewish man there, so this man to whom I gave the tract began reading to his fellow partner. He read in English, "And God rested on the Sabbath day and blessed the Sabbath day." As he read these words they all agreed it was right. Among them was a Syrian who asked me for something in his language, which I regretted I did not have. As I prepared to leave, the first man said, "I'll take one of those books; maybe my daughter will read it. I was so thankful that this man could read this blessed truth in his own tongue; and most of all I was thankful God did call me to labor for Him in this way, though it be an humble task. Surely God's Spirit does bless these written words in our literature. May Spirit work with the hearts of His children that each one will be found laboring for Him and our fellow men by putting our books into their homes, and most of all into their hearts, is ever my fervent prayer."

Noncombatancy Army Assignments

A new general order has been issued from General Staff Headquarters with reference to army assignments for 1-A-O men. This strengthens former general orders assigning 1-A-O men to the medical department alone. It goes beyond former orders in making positive that assignment will not be made to other arms of service.

The new General Order is in Circular No. 121, dated May 17, 1943, and is as follows:

"II. Conscientious objectors.—Paragraph 1, section V, Circular No. 29, War Department, 1943, is rescinded and the following substituted therefore:

"1. Trainees whose status as conscientious objectors has been established and who are received for processing and assignment will be assigned to medical replacement training centers if qualified for general military service, or to medical units or detachments as directed by the Commanding Generals, Army Air Forces, Army Ground Forces, or service commands. Conscientious objectors will not be assigned to other arms or services.

Ingathering Success

So far, this year's Ingathering campaign has exceeded all previous years. God has given modern Israel favor with business acquaintances and friends as he did ancient Israel in the sight of the Egyptians.

The field goal of $8,500 has been surpassed but shall we stop when much of the territory is still unworked? Wouldn't that be like failing to cut all the grain in the field?

Let me share with you part of a letter received from Brother Jacob Miller, local elder of the Denhoff church.

"I have been going out Harvest Ingathering ever since 1912 and never missed a single year, but 1943 was my best year I ever experienced. I went out in the morning and early in the evening I came home with $43.25. I had no big city; I saw thirty-five farmers. One young man gave me $3.00 in the morning. In the evening that same man saw me in Lincoln Valley and said he had felt sorry all day that he didn't give me $5.00 so he gave $2.00 more. I believe that if everybody would go out Ingathering it would bring new life into every church. I get a pleasure every time I go out because it is the Lord's work." D. S. Osgood.

Welcome

The members in North Dakota welcome Brother and Sister Clarence S. Wallace of Walla Walla, Washington.

Brother Wallace was born in Kansas and graduated from the Enterprise Academy in 1935, after which he attended Union College. His parents moved to Oregon and he completed his college work at Walla Walla. Some to whom the Portland "Quiet Hour" on the radio is known, will be interested to learn that he was used as a member of the quartet and also as a soloist. He has been a very successful young people's worker. Brother Wallace will be preceptor at Sheyenne River Academy for the school year of 1943-44 and this summer he will be connected with one of our evangelistic campaigns.

Mrs. Wallace graduated from Laurelwood Academy in Oregon and served for three years in the department of dietetics at the Portland Sanitarium.

We rejoice in the coming of these fine young people to North Dakota. D. S. Osgood.

News Notes

Word has been received from Elder M. F. Grau that he has recently baptized six new believers at Beulah.

The tithe for May this year represents a one hundred per cent gain over the same month of last year. God is now blessing His people abundantly. A continuance of this blessing cannot be expected unless we faithfully practice tithing.

When these lines are read the Jamestown camp meeting will be about over and our evangelists will be preparing for an expanded program of summer evangelistic efforts.

The Russian camp meeting will be held at Butte, July 1-4, inclusive. Visiting brethren include Elder G. E. Nord of the Bureau of Home Missions; Elder T. T. Babienko of Saskatchewan, Canada; Professor and Mrs. Ivanoff, instructors in the Russian language, of Union College; and Elder M. V. Campbell, president of the Northern Union Conference. We trust there will be a large attendance.

Professor I. E. Anunsen says that there is a nice summer school enrollment at Sheyenne River Academy. War has made the world educationally conscious and in this national emergency an accelerated program is demanded. Students of academy age who would like summer employment and school work at the same time should immediately contact Professor Anunsen at the academy. A large group is expected to enroll for work and study on Sunday, June 20.

A telegram just received signed by F. W. Wernick, J. O. Iversen and R. H. Brodersen says, "Fargo, Kathryn, Cooperstown reach quota to put District No. 7 over the goal. District No. 3 reports another $140." This places every district in the Victory column.

South Dakota Camp Meeting

In view of the fact that the camp meeting is still in progress as I am writing this report, it will cover only the first week end. This year the camp meeting opened Thursday evening rather than Friday, so that the election and conference session could be held before the Sabbath. Elder H. L. Rudy gave his presidential report Thursday evening. It revealed a large increase in tithes and mission funds over the preceding period as well as an increased membership. The baptisms last year more than doubled those of the previous year.

The report of the nominating committee was adopted Friday afternoon. Elder Rudy was re-elected president. As an exchange between the treasurers of the British Columbia and South Dakota Conference had already been arranged, Brother G. L. Sather was elected treasurer. Brother H. J. Perkins had served about five years as secretary-treasurer, and has given excellent service. His work has been deeply appreciated both by the workers and laity of the conference. As he leaves for his labors on the west coast the prayers of his numerous friends in South Dakota go with him. Elders B. A. Scherr and G. H. Loewen were reelected as home missionary and Sabbath school secretary, and M. V. and educational secretary respectively. The incoming conference committee was authorized to select a field missionary secretary. Several changes were made in the executive committee. The new committee is made up as follows: H. L. Rudy, G. L. Sather, Edward Schlisner, Floyd Gilbert, N. R. Hickman, Carl Beck, and B. A. Scherr.

The representatives from the General Conference present for the first week end of the camp meeting are: Elders N. F. Brewer, H. M. Blunden, and R. Ruhling. Their help has been deeply appreciated. Less than a year ago Elder Brewer was a prisoner in a Japanese internment camp in Hong Kong. The thrilling experiences which he related at the camp meeting led all to have greater faith in God and in His protecting power. Elder Blunden gave several very instructive Bible studies and his talks at the colporteur meeting were exceedingly interesting. Elder Ruhling conducted meetings for the German members, and gave excellent instruction at workers' meetings.

An unusual service was held Sunday afternoon when the Missionary Volunteer service flag containing a star for each young man who has been called to the colors from our South Dakota churches was dedicated. At this meeting Pruth McFarlin, known widely as America's greatest negro tenor, gave a concert. The Kiwanis Clubs are sponsoring his program at the various army and navy camps. It is a concert of religious songs, hymns and spirituals. A large number of members not of our faith from the city of Huron attended this concert, and it was interesting to observe that many of them returned again in the evening to hear Elder Brewer's sermon.

The attendance on Sabbath was smaller than usual due to the cold and rainy weather. In spite of the small attendance there was an excellent response to Elder H. L. Rudy's appeal in the Sabbath school for mission offerings and pledges. $1,350.00 was received. The results of the recent evangelistic efforts have been very encouraging. This has had its influence in emphasizing soul-winning work in the camp meeting. All ministers, conference laborers, and the laity are going from this camp meeting with a determination to take the truth to those who have not as yet been warned in the State of South Dakota. All believe that the membership will be greatly increased before the next conference session. Elder Rudy is giving excellent leadership to the conference. All have the deepest confidence in him and we believe that God will use him mightily for the advancement of His cause in this important state.

Wedding

On the evening after Sabbath, May 29, Violet Haas and Clarence Hochstetter were united in marriage in a simple service at the home of the writer. Only a few relatives and friends witnessed this sacred ceremony. Mrs. G. H. Rustad, accompanied by Miss Grace Burke, played an appropriate selection on the violin and sang "I Love You Truly," before the couple exchanged vows.

Mr. and Mrs. Hochstetter are both employed in Jamestown. The bride formerly lived at Gackle and the groom was reared at Cleveland.

We wish this couple much happiness as they establish another Christian home.

Ingathering Progress

The progress in the Ingathering indicates willing work on the part of church members and a fine response from the public. Surely the Lord has been good to us and I am confident we all desire to render thanksgiving and praise to Him who has helped us so marvelously. We lack only about $4000.000 of having our goal in the conference and the churches that have not yet reached their goal will keep pressing on until they have accomplished the task. The churches that have already reached their goal will continue to work for a large overflow.

The Lord is blessing and the rewards will be ours both in this life and the life to come. It seems as though opportunities are ours this year that are unprecedented in history, and surely every Seventh-day Adventist, both in the churches and those who are isolated, will want to do all that he possibly can in this hour of liberty and freedom. With this in mind let us all do our best to secure a large Ingathering overflow for the Iowa Conference.

J. O. MARSH.

Junior Minute Men

The Juniors of the Burlington Junior Academy accomplished a feat during the Ingathering campaign that is worthy of notice. In discussing with Brother White, the principal, the work of the school in the Ingathering campaign, we decided to try soliciting the country territory in the vicinity of Burlington, inasmuch as singing bands and street soliciting are banned in this city.

The school group was very enthusiastic, and the work was a pleasure and an outing at the same time. We took two cars, four people in a car, and were successful every day that we went out. In all we made five trips, four trips with two cars. We received nearly $150.00 for the effort put forth. This means that every Junior in the school is a minute man. Some of the younger Juniors also solicited homes in the city and received a nice little sum.

No doubt other church schools could follow this method successfully. It gave the youth of this church an experience in soliciting for our work, and also a taste of real missionary endeavor. It will also give them a greater interest in the missions program.

Mr. and Mrs. White, our teachers during the past year, have done a noble work in their teaching and training of the youth. They deserve much credit for the above endeavor.

Ingathering
Accomplishments

Spring Ingathering has proved to be a real success in Minnesota. Some churches have found it impossible to join in the early campaign and we shall be looking forward to their reports soon after camp meeting. There are, however, at this date, June 9, forty-six churches that have reached their full Ingathering goal. They are: Litchfield, Spring Valley, Granite Falls, St. Paul Eastside, Rochester, Willmar, Morgan, New York, Mills, Good Thunder, Princeton, Artichoke, Mpls. First, Barnesville, Montevideo, Duluth Scandinavian, Gilchrist, Mpls. Beacon Light, Tamarack, Lake Eunice, Albert Lea, Williams, Roseau, Detroit Lakes, Wing River, Mankato, Mpls. Swedish, Dodge Center, Middle River, Blackduck, Fergus Falls, St. Cloud, Thief River Falls, Aitkin, Sherburn, Mpls. Scand. Tabernacle, Alexandria, Hastings, Brooklyn Center, Redwood Falls, Pelican Rapids, Maple Plain, Owatonna, Bemidji, Bath, Pipestone, Richville.

The total amount raised to date is $17,803.16. That is over the basic goal but considerably short of what was done last year in total. No doubt, by the time the remaining churches report their Ingathering, we shall be able to set a new record in Minnesota. The Lord has blessed greatly in the work this year with remarkable success in every part of the conference. When the camp meeting is over, let us go forth with renewed courage, and complete our task.

From 1:00 to 5:00 p. m. Sunday, June 20, will be church school textbook exchange day at the campground. Space will be provided in the book store where all who have used textbooks they wish to sell may bring them to place on sale to those who can use them the coming year. It should be remembered that there has been a recent change in our entire textbook list used in our church schools so that very old texts would be of no value.

A display of the denominational text books used in our church schools will help you in choosing your books for the coming year if you prefer new ones. Your order for these new texts may also be placed during the hours of the exchange.

Between the hours of 1:00 and 5:00 p. m. the exchange will be open. Bring your books, mark your price in them, leave them at your own risk, and the attendants on hand will endeavor to dispose of them at your price. W. A. HOWE.

Obituaries

Vaughn. — Kathryn Deborah Vaughn was born July 3, 1880, at Wapello, Iowa, and fell asleep December 9, 1942, at the Porter Sanitarium in Denver, Colorado. Death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage suffered two weeks before. Her childhood was spent in southeastern Iowa. At the age of fifteen she joined the Seventh-day Adventist church, and remained a faithful member until her death. When a young woman she entered the Iowa Sanitarium at Des Moines, Iowa, for nurses training, graduating with the first class to leave that institution. She served on private nursing duty for several years, later purchased treatment rooms in Sioux City which she operated for ten years. She then came to Wyoming and homesteaded near Van Tassell. After proving up she continued to make her home here, nursing whenever she was called. For the last year and a half of her life she had been night nurse at

Tithe Corner

"A worker in the South China Union relates an interesting story concerning a deacon in one of the churches—a man who is unfaithfully faithful in the payment of his tithes, and in making offerings. This brother owned a cow which in a time of epidemic among animals became sick. Convinced that the cow would die unless the Lord intervened, the brother prayed that it might be spared to him. He reasoned that unless the Lord helped him at this time he would lose the cow; therefore its restoration would be the same as if he received a new cow.

"The cow recovered, and on the following Sabbath our brother brought to the church a tithe of $160 on the cow, and also another tithe of $123; and in presenting these he read to the congregation the instruction and the promise of Malachi 3:7-12. When he had finished reading, twelve members of the congregation arose and brought forward tithes in all amounting to $64. Among these were inquirers, widows, and indigent women. And not only did they willingly pay this money to the Lord, but pledged themselves to be faithful tithe-payers in the future."—China Division Reporter.

the Lusk hospital. Her life was spent in loving ministry to others, and "Saved to serve" was her motto. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ross Smith, Castana, Iowa; three brothers: Wm. G. Monson.—Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Monson, a native of Aadalen, Rengrike, Norway, was born on March 21, 1864. At the age of two she came to America with her parents and settled in Minnesota. She was given in marriage to John Jacobs in 1892. He preceded her in death in 1933. Two years later she was married to John Monson, who had led her into the truth. In 1936 they moved to the State of Washington, making their home at Everett, where she passed away on December 17, 1942. Elders Oberg and Parrick conducted a funeral service at the Everett church. Then, accompanied by her husband the body was brought by train to Albert Lea, Minnesota, for interment, where the writer, assisted by the pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church of Albert Lea, held the final memorial services for our dear sister. Besides her husband, she is survived by one brother of Osage, Iowa, and one sister, Mrs. Nick Johnson of Albert Lea. She loved Jesus, and how much she and her husband loved Him and His cause their actions have shown. We laid her to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Albert Lea on December 23. There we believe she will see Jesus in the first resurrection. V. A. Lidner.
