Our Evangelistic Program

By JERE D. SMITH

Because of pressing engagements throughout the field it has been some little time since I have had a front page article in the NORTHERN UNION OUTLOOK. However, during this time I have not ceased to have an interest in the onward progress of the work in this field, and of course have been watching with careful scrutiny the evangelistic program that has been carried on during the year 1953.

For some reason the early part of the year is usually the least productive in baptisms. This perhaps might be due to several different factors. It is during the early part of the year that we have our intensive Signs campaign and also the Ingathering, which of course takes most of the time of our conference workers and much of the spare time of all our laity for a period of eight weeks or so. Even in spite of all these handicaps our baptisms thus far during the year run about 275.

Three of our camp meetings are now out of the way, our various campaigns have been successfully completed, and we are looking forward to the very best and most successful evangelism of the year during the remaining portion of 1953. Already most of our district leaders and field workers have their programs all planned, and those who have not done so will be ready in the very near future to launch forth in late summer and fall efforts. We should be able to show baptisms of not less than 800 by the end of the year.

Some summers ago we adopted a little different method of reporting our membership additions through the columns of the OUTLOOK. We decided as a union committee that it would be only fair that workers who have reported baptisms would have these presented in our paper so that all of our laity might know just what is being done. Therefore, once a quarter we expect to list the names of those who have had baptisms during the quarter, together with the number that have been added by baptism or profession of faith. I feel sure that all of our laity as well as our working staff in the various conferences will peruse these reports with interest each quarter; and we are hopeful that it may also stimulate each worker to endeavor to raise his number of baptisms and thereby cause a greater growth throughout the entire field.

All of our lay members are co-operating splendidly, and many of them are themselves winning souls. One layman has already added more than ten people by baptism during this year of 1953. This is an excellent record, and one that might well inspire the admiration of many of our ministers as well as other laymen. By full and complete cooperation the Lord will bless our efforts and we will add many more during this year.

Greater Things Ahead

A short time ago we visited the Pacific Press in Mountain View. As we approached the plant, we could see that changes were in progress. Soon we learned that a new wing was to be built to provide more room and better facilities for the book and periodical departments.

It is always encouraging to see growth in our institutions. When you see it in a publishing house, it means that our people are increasingly active in the distribution of our literature. In other words, the publishing house is a good reflector of the missionary spirit in the churches.

The Pacific Press plans for better things in literature. We should be getting the papers and tracts off the shelves in both our churches and homes, scattering them this summer among the people, and making ready for new supplies in the fall. Careful and prayerful circulation of our message-filled literature will surely bring the light to many seeking for help and comfort in these confused times. And blessing will come to those who aid in the circulation of it. Remember: "More literature going out means more souls coming in."

ERNEST LLOYD.

Should the People of God Give Less in This Age?

"In the days of Israel the tithe and free-will offerings were needed to maintain the ordinances of divine service. Should the people of God give less in this age? The principle laid down by Christ is that our offerings to God should be in proportion to the light and privileges enjoyed. 'Unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required.' Said the Saviour to his disciples, as He sent them forth, 'Freely ye have received, freely give.'"—Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 528.

It was the privilege of the writer to sit in the viewing room of WCCO-TV Wednesday morning, July 8, when H.M.S. Richards was a guest of the American Religious Town Hall Meeting. Dr. Rulkoetter of Washington, D. C., Mr. Strom of the St. Paul Dispatch, Editor Lewis Gales of the Catholic Digest, and Bob DeHaven of WCCO, were on the guest panel. All these men asked pertinent questions of the permanent members of the panel, which brought forth a profusion of answers.

The week prior to this our own Northern Union Conference president, Jere D. Smith, was the guest on the panel at which time the subject of "Democracy in Foreign Countries" was discussed.

It is of interest to note that this telecast is receiving favorable comment wherever it is viewed. While no direct message is promoted over the telecast, many individuals are becoming curious about Seventh-day Adventists and asking who they are and what they stand for. We are very happy that we as an organization can be part of this telecast. It is providing the denomination with thousands of dollars of free advertising in this territory. We are sure that many people will ultimately find their way into our church as a result of this telecast.

We are so happy to announce that two radio stations—WEVE of Eveleth, Minnesota, and KWBM of Williston, North Dakota—will put the tape recording of this telecast out over the radio waves. We urge our people to listen to it and to pray for continued success.

Pray also that people who listen may in some way be inspired to learn more of the Seventh-day Adventist message. Pray too that this will be a definite means of helping to hasten the day when Christ shall come.

"Why Should I Tell"

HOW SHOULD I TELL IT?
LOVE JESUS!

Do you love Jesus? Then you will say:

Have You, O Lord, a work to do?
Here am I, send me!
The field is white, the laborers few,
Here am I, send me!
Over mountain, plain, or sea,
Here am I, send me!
I'll go to the ends of the earth for You,
Here am I, send me!

Jesus said, "I must be about My Father's business." "I must preach the Kingdom of God to other cities also; for therefore am I sent." "I must work the works of Him that sent Me, while it is day; the night cometh when no man can work." "The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again."

If we love HIM, if "we have the mind of Christ," we will say, "I MUST win souls."

Jesus has with His blood bought the souls you win. They belong to Him. They are dear to Him. Then you will not be the kind of fisherman that throws rocks at fish. Where trout are wary, fishermen crawl on hands and knees to the brink and cast the hook as noiselessly as a falling leaf. You will gently lead men to their Saviour.

How? Any way is the right way, any time is the right time, if you are filled with the love of the Crucified for the one you want to win. In every word let him feel that you belong to Christ. Then you will easily, eagerly, face to face, tell him what Jesus has done for you and for him.

UNION COLLEGE

News Notes

★ The department of evangelism reports that Sabbath afternoon, June 27, witnessed the baptism of two very fine young men, who placed their membership in the University Place church. These baptisms were the result of the work of Baldwin Petry, a graduate of '53, and the lay members of the University Place church. Mr. Petry will intern in the Texico Conference. J. J. Williamson, assistant professor of religion and evangelism at Union, has a very special interest in the University Place church, since he held an effort there many years ago that led to its organization. It is gratifying to see this church continue to grow and it is sincerely hoped that the proposed new church building will soon be a reality.

★ The latest report received concerning H. C. Hartman's illness is that his recovery from his operations seems to be progressing favorably. It is not likely that President Hartman will be able to return to Lincoln until sometime in September. In his letter he stated that he wished to thank his many friends for their prayers and cards.

A Great Feast!

Camp meeting is over and our people returned to their homes well blessed and better prepared to follow Christ in keeping step with the message.

From beginning to end the spiritual tone was clear and strong, and it was a genuine joy to witness men, women, boys and girls consecrating their all to Christ and His service.

From the General Conference, Elders Figuhr, Rulkoetter, Ruhling, and Coffey gave excellent help. Their counsel and devotion to the ministry of others was most helpful.

The same can be said of Jere D. Smith, L. H. Netteburg, V. W. Becker, C. A. Edwards, and O. R. Rees from the Northern Union Conference, and O. Ziprick from California. When invited to serve the people in attendance with the precious word, they responded willingly and effectively.

Films pertaining to the work of the Voice of Prophecy were shown, and more and more our dear people were watchfully awaiting the arrival of H. M. S. Richards and the King's Heralds.

They came as scheduled. The large auditorium was filled from front to back, from 1800—2000 persons, perhaps the largest attendance in the history of the conference. Out of state cars included California, Colorado, Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, with four cars from Manitoba, and one each from Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia.

The never-to-be-forgotten sermons by H. M. S. Richards and the inspiring songs sung by the King's Heralds contributed much to the success of the meetings. A baptism was conducted on the last Sabbath. In addition to Sabbath school offerings, $1200.00 was raised for foreign missions, and $4000.00 for evangelism in North Dakota. Our people never fail when the need is great. Thank God for Seventh-day Adventists and their self-sacrificing spirit in these closing hours. Let us hasten to finish the work at home and abroad.

A. E. MILLNER.

News Notes

✪ Ralph D. Gustin, M.D., formerly associated with Dr. Bush at Beach, has now taken up practice in Berrien Springs, Michigan. We wish Dr. Gustin much success.

✪ Vera Gottfried, a student from Union College, has recently joined the conference office staff here in Jamestown.

✪ R. E. Brewer has taken up his duties in the Missouri Conference. We shall miss them in this field and wish them God's protection and guidance in their new work.

✪ Max C. Torkelsen has moved to Jamestown to head up the district comprising the Jamestown, Gackle, Medina, and Cleveland churches, and George Sherbondy has arrived in Fargo from the Missouri Conference to give leadership to that district. We welcome Elder Sherbondy to the conference.

✪ It was a great shock to all to learn of the accident in which Mrs. Jake Seibel lost her life and in which her husband, Jake Seibel, her daughter and her mother, Mrs. Peter Beck, were hospitalized. We are happy to report that Mrs. Peter Beck is now home and was able to attend some of the meetings during the camp meeting. The little girl is completely recovered, and Brother Seibel is gradually improving.

✪ Camp meeting is over for another year. We take this opportunity of thanking all who had a part in making the meeting a success.

✪ The Butte camp meeting for our Russian brethren will be held from July 30 to August 2 in Butte.

✪ It was surely wonderful to have H. M. S. Richards and the King's Heralds with us for the last week end of the camp meeting. A visitor to the last meeting said a person would go a long, long way to hear a quartet like that. Wayne Hooper, who sings in the quartet and also is the arranger, has prepared a book of quartet numbers. There are 60 of the best songs of the King's Heralds and this compilation is available for $1.00 postpaid. Send your order to the Book and Bible House.

Giving

During the camp meeting that has just closed an offering was received for evangelism here in North Dakota. In cash and pledges this offering amounted to over $4,000.00. Our people have again shown their love for the message in this tangible way. One pledge impressed us here in the office. It merely said: "Half of — acres of crop seeded for the purpose." It was a very liberal gift you may be sure, but that last phrase "seeded for the purpose" is worthy of some serious thought. Surely the Lord is pleased when we plan our giving. There may be those who were not able to be in attendance at the meeting but who would like to have a part in this offering for evangelism. If there are, the offering can be handed in to the church treasurer, or if you are a conference member, it can be sent directly to conference office. May the Lord richly bless all who had a part in this wonderful offering. As the funds are used for the purpose they were given, we pray for an abundant harvest of souls for the kingdom of heaven.

Wills and Trust Funds

Recently we received word from an attorney in Minnesota that a certain individual had passed away and when his will was presented for probate, it was found that the North Dakota Conference of Seventh-day Adventists had been remembered in the will. This dear old brother had made some provision for the work of God without the knowledge of any of us here in the office. As a result, a fine sum is now in the treasury of the conference to assist in the work here in North Dakota.

A few weeks ago a faithful brother and his wife came in to the office and said, "We would like to make some provision for God's work in our will. Would you draw up a will for us? We would like to leave something to some of our relatives and then the remainder to the work of God." A will was drawn up and signed. Surely God is pleased with the planning of this dear couple who are looking forward to the return of Jesus.

Just at our recent camp meeting a sister came and said, "I would like to discuss with you this matter of trust agreements. I would like to see what I have used in the finishing of the Lord's work." The same day a brother said, "Will you draw up a will leaving all that I have to the conference to be used in the work."

It is fitting and proper that we should make wills. It is in the plan of God that we should. Wife or husband, children, close relatives should not be forgotten but should be provided for. Why not make some provision for the work of God as well. All that a person accumulates during a lifetime is through the goodness of God.

It would be a pleasure and a privilege to discuss this matter in a confidential way with any person, to give counsel or assistance, and to answer any questions you may have. If you desire any information, please get in touch with us.

News Notes

R. L. Boothby—

Nightly Speaker at Iowa Camp Meeting. We have just received a telegram from R. L. Boothby that he will be with us August 16 to 22 for our nightly camp meeting services. Elder Boothby is an outstanding evangelist, having conducted meetings in the large cities of the east. Plan to be here for this spiritual feast which will be awaiting you.

D. C. BOTHERUS.

✱ On Sabbath, July 11, D. C. Botherus met with the Glenwood church in the morning and in the afternoon spoke at the Hamburg church. He spent Sunday, July 12, at Union College.

✱ There are a considerable number of Oak Park pledges made in 1952 which are still unpaid. It will be necessary to purchase farm equipment and stock this fall and we will appreciate the payment of these pledges at an early date. Thank you for your cooperation.

✱ Elder and Mrs. D. C. Botherus, Kaye Zweigle, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Day visited the Spencer and Spirit Lake churches over the week end of July 18. Elder Botherus spoke at Spencer on Sabbath morning, at Spirit Lake in the afternoon, and took Elder Bidwell's radio service Sunday morning, as Elder Bidwell was on vacation.

✱ Our sincerest and deepest sympathy to Mrs. Henry Anderson and children in their bereavement because of the loss of father and husband, Henry Anderson, who some years ago served as farm manager at Oak Park Academy.

✱ D. A. Lau and family spent Sabbath, July 18, at junior camp. The enthusiasm and activity of the campers was evidence of enjoyment and the success of the first week of camp. The Sabbath afternoon program, consisting of group singing, duets, solos, etc., given by the juniors themselves, was especially good.

✱ The Muscatine church members enjoyed H. R. Coats when he spoke there for the morning service, July 18.

"Notes from the Bookshelf"

Singing Youth—The very title of this new songbook for our Missionary Volunteers expresses the feelings of young people. It presents the spirit of youth, joyous in song. Composed of the finest and most loved songs ever written in one book, it will without doubt become a treasured addition to the libraries of both young and old.

Paper—60 cents; Plastic Spiral—75 cents; Cloth de luxe—$1.25. Postage—10 cents for first book—4 cents for each additional book.

Go—A subscription placed now for this new up-to-date magazine will insure you a free copy of Robert L. Boothby's book entitled Man's Only Hope.

Regularly priced at $2.25—both may be had for only $1.25.

Plan to visit the Book and Bible House tent during the forthcoming camp meeting, August 14 to 22. Many new books published since our last meeting will be on display.

IOWA BOOK AND BIBLE HOUSE.

✿ The Harlan home missionary leader sends word that there was an active group out for home-visitation day on Sabbath, July 11, and a number of persons were enrolled in the Bible school.

✿ H. R. Trout and family visited with the Ottumwa church members on Sabbath, July 18. The appearance of their church has been greatly improved with a new porch and steps.

New Company Organized

For many years we have had faithful isolated members letting their light shine in Ringgold County. On May 23, the district pastor, George P. Stone, called our people together in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Robinson of Benton, Iowa. At that time thirty-four were present at the Sabbath school and worship services. A few weeks later Drexel Lau of the Iowa Book and Bible House, met with the group and encouraged them to further endeavors. Since May 23, services have been conducted regularly in the homes of various members throughout the county.

On Sabbath, June 27, the group were organized into a company, and a formal Sabbath school organization completed: Cecil Teale of Lamoni, is the leader of the company and Mrs. Teale is the treasurer. The Sabbath school officers are: Superintendent, Mrs. Elsie Draper; assistant, Kenneth Quick; secretary, Jackie Lee Draper; assistant, Sandra Jarvis. Mrs. Carl Quick is the teacher of the senior group.

A fine group of children and young people are among this group. They are being cared for according to their respective age groups. Several of the people attending are studying the 20th Century and the Voice of Prophecy Bible Correspondence Courses. A definite program of evangelism is being planned and prospects are good for a harvest of souls in Ringgold County. Presently a suitable place of worship is being sought in the Mount Ayre area.

Let us keep the light shining until there is a company representing the Third Angel's Message in every county of Iowa.

G. P. STONE, District Pastor.

Junior Colporteurs

Eight junior youth had money for their camp expenses this year as the result of their participating in the Life and Health plan. Besides earning money for camp, they also received valuable training in Christian salesmanship. These youthful colporteurs who recently enjoyed the fruits of their labors at the S. D. A. Forest Ridge Reserve in beautiful Dolliver Memorial State Park are: Karla Trotter, Nyla and Wylie Sherburn, Arnold Waddell, Nathan and Varner Moll, Fern Chaney and Mickey Shidler.

Iowa Junior Youth Camp Staff

We are happy to present the members of the 1953 junior camp staff:

Cooks: Mrs. Boyd Keeling, Mrs. Ella Dimond, Mrs. Arthur Estey,

Mrs. Harold Chaney, Amy Messenger, and Mrs. Leonard Rogers. Craft Instructors: Mrs. Luana Whitlow, Mrs. Ila Hagen, Mrs. Grace Howard, Mrs. George Stone.

Camp Meeting Blessings

The inspiration of this year's camp meeting will long remain a cherished memory to those who attended. While camp meeting was in progress we frequently heard comments which indicated that the people were receiving rich spiritual blessings. They referred to the camp meeting as the best they had attended for many years. Our heavenly Father graciously answered our prayers for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in a full measure. We thank Him for His goodness to us.

Now that camp meeting is in the past we should go courageously forward, doing the work that has been assigned to us, witnessing for our Master. First of all, we should determine by God's help to live a consistent, Christ-like life, which is the most powerful argument in favor of Christianity. "Let us remember that a Christlike life is the most powerful argument that can be advanced in favor of Christianity, and that a cheap Christian character works more harm in the world than the character of a worldling."—Testimonies, Vol. 9, p. 21.

Those who profess to be Christians are to reveal in their lives the highest and noblest development of Christianity. Those who profess to be followers but do not live the Christ life are a mockery to religion. It behoves us, therefore, to be sure that we are living the life of a true Christian. "Everyone whose name is registered on the church roll is under obligation to represent Christ by revealing the inward adorning of a meek and quiet spirit. . . . The truth for this time is to appear in its power in the lives of those who believe it, and is to be imparted to the world. Believers are to represent in their lives its power to sanctify and ennoble."—Testimonies, Vol 9, p. 22.

We are to bear witness to the world by our consecrated and Christ-like lives. But there is also the work of proclaiming the message for these last days that we must do. Every church member should be a living missionary, doing what he can to proclaim the truth. He can do this by talking to his neighbors and friends, by giving out literature, by enrolling in-interested individuals in the Bible correspondence courses, by conducting Bible studies, by inviting others to Sabbath school and church services, and by hundreds of other means. There are so many ways a thoroughly converted individual can witness for his Master.

"God expects personal service from every one to whom He has entrusted a knowledge of the truth for this time. Not all can go as missionaries to foreign lands, but all can be home missionaries in their families and neighborhoods."—Ibid, p. 30.

What are you doing for Christ? Are you a missionary for Him? You may be right in your own community by witnessing for Christ in your daily life and by putting forth earnest efforts to win others to the Saviour. Thus will the blessings of camp meeting abide with you continually.

E. R. OSMUNSON.

Last Call for Junior Camp

Juniors, be sure to come to junior camp this year. The camp will be located at Squaw Lake in Itasca State Park, the most scenic and beautiful spot in Minnesota. Visit the headwaters of the Mississippi River. See the great bald eagles on their nests and go fishing in Lake Itasca. Go hiking through the pine-scented forests and hear the cry of the loon as you retire for a night of peaceful slumber. Swim in the clear spring water of Squaw Lake and feast upon the delicious food prepared by Mrs. Godfrey and her assistants.

The Parents' Retreat will be held August 6 to 9. The rates are: room charges, 25 cents per person per day; meals $1.40 per day, $1.00 per day for children.

Camp for children ages 9 to 11 will be held August 9 to 16, for children ages 12 to 15 will be August 16 to 23. Rates will be: $15 for one; $28 for two; $12 for each above 2 from the same family.

The camp is to be held at the Squaw Lake Group camp in Itasca State Park. This camp can be reached by either U.S. Highway 71 or state road number 92 and then by following the park drive. The camp is on the east side of Squaw Lake. The state of Minnesota has recently enacted a law requiring a $1.00 sticker on the windshield of every car entering a state park. This sticker entitles the owner to enter any state park during the year. These are sold at every park entrance.

We hope to do a great deal of hiking in this beautiful state park and we recommend comfortable hiking shoes, heavy clothing, and plenty of warm bedding.

If you have not already done so, please fill in the Junior Camp application blank and return it immediately so that we can provide accommodations for you.

If you are coming by bus and wish to have someone meet you, please notify Lorriane Mickelson, 1854 Roblyn Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota, by or before August 3.

V. W. EMMERSON.

from the Holy One. He realized that his past preaching had made little impression on his hearers. Now he felt upon him the terrible weight of souls. As he came to his desk, he was not alone. # Report on Evangelism

BY L. H. NETTEBURG

Listed below are the number of persons baptized by the different workers in the Northern Union. We are listing these in harmony with a recent union committee action to show our constituency the accomplishments being made for God in our territory. This is not intended to be an honor roll. It is not for any individual or personal glory for that belongs to the Creator for the workings of His Spirit on the hearts of the people.

The total for the entire union for the first six months is 275. It should also be mentioned that in some cases an evangelist had the help of one or two interns or a Bible worker, which does not appear on this report, but does, we are sure, on the pages of record in heaven.

Once each quarter this report is presented, Brethren, let us unitedly pray and strive for more souls that we may be accounted as an active and worthy part of the remnant church and that this work may be finished.

WHAT SHALL WE DO?"

"A minister, after preaching a Bible discourse which brought deep conviction to one of his hearers, was accosted with the question, 'Do you really believe what you have preached?'"

"'Certainly,' he answered.

"'But is it really so?' asked the anxious questioner.

"'Certainly,' said the minister, as he reached for his Bible.

Then the man broke out, 'O, if this is the truth, what shall we do?'"

"'What shall we do?' thought the minister—'we'? What could the man mean? But the question forced its way to his soul. He went away to plead with God to tell him what to do. And as he prayed, there came to him with overwhelming force the thought that he had the solemn realities of eternity to present to a dying world. For three weeks his place in the desk was vacant. He was seeking an answer to the question, 'What shall we do?'"

"The minister returned to his charge with an unction
