Servicemen's Literature

By J. C. THOMPSON
General Conference War Service Commission

On March 1, Chaplain R. L. Mole of the Second Medical Battalion, Second Marine Division, at Camp LeJeune, North Carolina, presently the only S.D.A. chaplain in the Navy, wrote us as follows:

"First, I want to thank you for the invitation to attend the General Conference Session. Also I wish again to thank you for the literature (as well as the promptness) which you always send at my request. I am hopeful that it will help to lead the men here to Christ. I was counting just this morning, and I find that at the present time here at Camp LeJeune we have thirty-three white adults and children who are Adventists, or are studying to be. Really, it seems to me that the biggest work we are doing is reclaiming those who have lost their way. We are not leaving any stone unturned to win new converts either. The latest addition is a staff sergeant who, with a bit of training, will be of real help to fellow servicemen.

"Would it be possible to secure our film on Daniel 2 for Tuesday week? I should like to use it in my public meetings, as well as here at the Base. I was on the radio here last Sabbath for twenty-five minutes, and I have been amazed at the number of service homes that listened. I am anxious that we get the Voice of Prophecy on this station."

To help in this missionary work among both soldiers and civilians. Chaplain Mole has requested liberal supplies of Bible Fact Cards, Listen, Alert, An Hour With the Bible, The Man of the Other Mile, The Youth's Instructor, Review and Herald, Our Little Friend. As many as 4,000 copies of some of these have been requested by Chaplain Mole alone.

At their request, large orders of denominational literature are furnished all our chaplains and camp pastors: to Chaplains Bresee, Camp Pickett, Virginia, six months' subscriptions for large numbers of the Review and Herald, Signs of the Times, Life and Health, These Times, Message Magazine, Youth's Instructor, Liberty, Listen; subscriptions to the Review and Herald for six interns at the Navy Hospital, San Diego, California; Lesson Quarterlies, Instructors, and Reviews to Pastor A. Munson for the servicemen at Fort Ord, California; Bible Readings, Desire of Ages, Drama of the Ages, God Is

My Captain, Steps to Christ, and periodicals to Pastor Kenneth Gant of La Mesa, California, for servicemen of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force in the San Diego area.

To the foregoing could be added generous supplies of Adventist literature to Chaplain Joseph Powell in the New York City area; to Chaplain Earl T. Lee at Brooke Army Hospital, Fort Sam Houston, Texas; to Chaplains Carl Holden, and Kenneth Moore, and John Keping, while in this country and since going to the Far East Command. While Chaplain Holden was at Camp Pickett, Virginia, he at one time requested 5,000 copies of Survival Through Faith.

These supplies must be paid for. As a means to this end, the General Conference Committee in Autumn Council each year sets aside one Sabbath during the twelve months when an offering will be received for literature for our servicemen to use personally and in missionary service for others. The offering this year will be received Sabbath, May 8. We invite all who are interested spiritually in helping our young men in uniform, to participate liberally.

Medical Missionary Day - May 1

Can every member of the church be a medical missionary? Yes, why not? And on Medical Missionary Day, in your church, you will learn how to start. Sabbath, May 1, has been set aside by General Conference action as the day for studying how to effectively have every church member use the entering wedge. We have the textbook for this course in becoming a medical missionary all ready—a twelve-lesson outline for the book Ministry of Healing. Month after month you will have an assignment. When you have read this book and are living out the principles in its pages, you will be a medical missionary of the highest order.

Of Ministry of Healing we are told, "This book contains the wisdom of the Great Physician."—Testimonies, Vol. 9, p. 71.

Don't forget May 1, and if you are the church medical secretary, send early to the conference medical or home missionary secretary for your supply of free material.

A Terrible Abuse

When so many millions of people are ruined by alcohol, it is a greedy wickedness to promote its sale by advertising. The money spent for advertising alcoholic beverages in the United States is almost as much as for advertising all food products. Why is this permitted when use of alcoholic liquors is everywhere associated with crimes, immorality, poverty, juvenile delinquency, broken homes, insanity, fatal accidents, and is a prime cause of absenteeism and inefficiency in industry? It continues to be advertised in the best and strongest manner because Christians do not insist that it be stopped. We have allowed this shameful abuse in this great nation.

While this sin of neglect is fresh in your mind, get from your county clerk (if you do not already know them) the names of your federal congressmen, and write to them about this. Faithful lawmakers and others at the national capital are working hard to stop this advertising of liquor by passage of the Bryson Bill (HR 1227), but they cannot even get a hearing on the bill because liquor men loudly condemn it, and Christians say nothing!

Besides writing to your congressmen urging them to support the Bryson Bill, write also to Hon. Charles A. Wolverton, chairman, House Committee of Interstate and Foreign Commerce, asking him to grant a hearing on the Bryson Bill. Address senators, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C. Address representatives, House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

For Those Attending General Conference

Seventh-day Adventists throughout the Northern Union who are planning to attend the General Conference in San Francisco will be interested to know that Loma Linda Foods will again operate a convenient food service in connection with the session.

This food service, so popular during the last General Conference and the Pan American Youth Congress, will be operated this year at 25 Grove Street, just one-half block from the Civic Auditorium. Look for the Loma Linda Food Company signs.

The Gospel to the Blind

Doubtless more than any other single group, the visually handicapped need the message of hope, comfort, and security that comes with a knowledge of the Lord Jesus. As we follow the Master's footsteps in our home visitation programs, let's remember these people.

For the blind, the following six monthly publications are available in Braille without cost: The Christian Record, Life and Health, The Student (Sabbath school lessons), These Times, The Youth, and The Children's Friend.

Then there is the Faith Bible Correspondence Course in Braille. Over four hundred were enrolled the past year. Of these, twelve have accepted Christ and united with the church.

Before sending in requests for literature, please find out whether the contact reads Braille. For those who do not, the association has recorded as "Talking Books" and placed in the regional libraries for the blind, Steps to Christ, Thoughts From the Mount of Blessing, Alone With God, and Prophecy Speaks. Desire of Ages is now being processed at an approximate cost of eight thousand dollars for one hundred fifty sets of records and should be out in the libraries around the first of July. The blind can borrow these by applying direct to their state libraries.

All services of the association are made possible by public contributions and are supplied without cost to those denied the blessings of sight. Postal regulations require Braille and recorded material being sent direct to the blind to enjoy free postal service.

All correspondence regarding services for the blind should be directed to the Christian Record Benevolent Association, Lincoln 6, Nebraska.

If James White Were Here

As I walked out through our shipping room this morning, I wished in my heart that James White could be with me and that I could hear his expressions and could see the look on his face.

How it would thrill his heart to see what I saw. There on the loading platform were scores and scores of large wooden cases of books, seventy-four to be exact, ready for the next boat sailing to Inter-America. In 1849 James White carried the whole edition of Present Truth to the post office eight miles away. There were just one thousand copies of that first Adventist publication. But the Lord promised those faithful pioneers that from this small beginning the publishing work would grow and grow until it encircled the globe.

There is twice as much literature in this one shipment going from the Pacific Press as our whole denomination sold in the first twenty years of our history. In this shipment are large message-laden books in the Spanish language going to the countries of the Inter-American Division. It would be interesting to follow each book into a home in Colombia, Venezuela, Costa Rica, Guatemala, or some other country. These thousands of books will tell the good news of Christ's second coming to many who might not otherwise hear the Message.

Of course, this is just one shipment. Another large shipment printed in Afrikaans is being packed now ready to start on its long journey to South Africa. To the Philippines, to India, to the islands of the sea these shipments are going to carry the glad tidings.

We who labor at the Pacific Press are thrilled to prepare the literature and to send it on its way to the ends of the earth knowing this is a part of God's plan for the preaching of the gospel to all the world.

Ministerial Auxiliary Association

The Ministerial Auxiliary Association at Union College is an active organization. The wives of future ministers are busy preparing to work side by side with their husbands in the important work of soul-winning.

Myrtle Maxwell assisted the young ladies in starting a collection of flannelgraph material to be used in story telling. Phyllis Bailey prepared a large selection of finger-play material for tiny tots. Mrs. Jarnes, a trained nurse, gave lessons in first aid including the new method of artificial respiration. Mrs. A. W. Kuehl taught the duties of a deaconess and demonstrated how to make communion bread.

Officers of the club are: Mrs. Dale Chaffee, president; Mrs. Lloyd Austin, vice-president; Mrs. Don Sales, secretary; Mrs. Clarence Southard, treasurer; and Mrs. L. W. Welch, sponsor.

by a voice. He looked around to see who the speaker was, but he saw only the prospect. "Did you hear what that man said?" he nearly shouted. "No," replied the man who thought of painting his house. "Why, the voice said clearly and distinctly, 'Son, go work today in My vineyard.' Wonder who it could have been?"

A few days later, a man came up to him and said, "Are you still wondering who spoke to you while you were demonstrating paint the other day?" "Yes," answered the Seventh-day Adventist in excitement and surprise.

"I am the Author of the Great Commission," said the Saviour, for it was He Who spoke. "The paint you are now selling will make unattractive homes look more attractive. Now I want you to sell something that will make unattractive lives become more attractive."

"What do you want me to sell?" anxiously inquired John Jones.

"I want you to sell Seventh-day Adventist literature," continued the Master, "books, magazines, periodicals, tracts, the message in which is designed to beautify the lives of men and women. In fact, the message is designed to make more beautiful and fruitful the lives of all who can read and understand—children, the young, middle-aged, or old. Even the little folks who can understand but not read, will be blessed as stories are read to them by loving parents. To this important work, I am now calling you."

The Lord of the harvest had given the invitation. John Jones did not answer nor act immediately, but serious thoughts went through his mind as the Master walked away.

My friend, how many times have you sung "Where are the reapers, oh who will come?" Has the voice of the Nazarene pierced through the cares and turmoil of this world and reached your heart? "Son, Daughter, YOU go work today in My vineyard."

"This paint really won't come off for many years," said John Jones to a man who had expressed a desire to give his house a new-look appearance. "Further, it will cover up the ugly spots and protect the wood."

John Jones, a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, was devoting his entire time to the work of selling paint. At times, tidings from various parts of the world had troubled him, and he had felt that he should go into the colporteur work, but his failure to act upon divine impressions, led him to continue selling paint.

Suddenly and in the midst of his demonstration, he was startled

Sacred Concert to Be Given by Ben Glanzer

BEN GLANZER

On Tuesday evening, April 27, at 8 o'clock sharp, Ben Glanzer of the General Conference Ministerial Association will present a sacred song recital in the St. Paul First Church, Ashland and Mackubin, St. Paul. He was a member of the King's Heralds Voice of Prophecy quartet for five years, and his singing is greatly enjoyed throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe. We believe our people will appreciate this announcement, and we trust that many from the surrounding districts can come in and enjoy this good program.

Our singer has recently returned from London, England, where his singing talents were greatly appreciated by the British people, and where he also conducted a 160-voice choir in connection with the London campaign of G. E. Vandeman of the General Conference Ministerial Association. One Sunday he sang to over 7,000 people in the London Coliseum.

We trust that our pastors in the area will give this event proper announcement in their Sabbath morning announcements. This sacred song recital will contain some of the simpler oratorio arias as "Comfort Ye" and "If With All Your Hearts," and such perennial favorites as "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," "The Holy City," "The Lord's Prayer," "Deep River," "The Love of God," "Golden Bells," "Open Ye the Gates of the Temple," "Bless This House," and others.

ing cleansed with the blood of Christ and being kept by His power. Each night a call was made in which many responded. Every afternoon Elder Smith and the writer visited in the homes of our people. Every family that belongs to the Watertown church received a visit with the exception of those who are employed during the day and were not home.

It surely was good to be here during the series of meetings for the Spirit of God was poured out in rich measure. At the close of the meetings several took their stand for Christ and on Sabbath, April 10, four were baptized and received into the church and two were brought in on profession of faith making a total of six. We greatly appreciate the services that Elder Smith conducted and the fine spirit of consecration that came into the hearts of all who attended.

Other evangelistic meetings of the same nature are being held throughout the conference and reports are coming in that there are baptisms in most every instance. We thank God for His goodness to us.

Northern Union Conference Temperance Rally

The Northern Union Conference is sponsoring a temperance rally at Oak Park Academy, Nevada, Iowa, beginning at 10:00 A.M., Friday, April 23 and closing Saturday evening, April 24. Student representatives and principals from the Maplewood, Plainview, Sheyenne River, and Oak Park Academies, each conference temperance secretary in the Northern Union, and O. R. Rees, Northern Union Conference temperance secretary, are planning to be here. You are cordially invited to attend this rally. If you are within driving distance of Nevada, it will pay you to come.

Camp Meeting

The time of the South Dakota camp meeting is fast approaching. The date has been set for June 18 to 26. The last few years we have had wonderful camp meetings and the Spirit of God has come in to bless our people and we do hope that all of our members, including their families will definitely plan to attend our camp meeting this year. We owe it to ourselves to come so that a real spiritual blessing will permeate every life.

All of us take time to go other places during the year and I suppose of all the places we go this would be the most important, so start making plans now. We will have some very good help this year from the Northern Union and the General Conference so we will surely be looking forward to seeing all of our church members as well as our conference church members there.

Of course, you no doubt are already aware of the fact that this is conference year and many of the delegates will be coming in from Solomon, a man full of heavenly wisdom said, "The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat." Surely we have a good report to bring to God's people.

On Sabbath, April 3 at 11:00 service in the Watertown church, Jere D. Smith, president of the Northern Union, brought a wonderful message which laid a foundation for the evangelistic meetings that were to follow during the coming week. Elder Smith spoke each night beginning April 4 until April 10. There was a goodly attendance of our church members as well as those of other faiths and God came in by His Holy Spirit and blessed us abundantly.

E. M. Hagele, our conference treasurer, directed the music and many special numbers were rendered which were a great asset to the success of the meetings. The messages that Elder Smith brought were most inspiring, showing the great need of every individual be-the various churches and also from the conference church.

May God bless you as you begin laying your plans now to attend the South Dakota camp meeting.

News Notes

* We were happy that H. J. Perkins, former treasurer of the South Dakota Conference, visited our office on his way to the West. At present, Brother Perkins is treasurer of the Upper Columbia Conference.

* Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bieber of Tolstoy were visitors at the Watertown church Friday night, April 9. We were surely happy to have Brother and Sister Bieber with us.

* The evangelistic meetings being conducted throughout the conference are bringing wonderful results. We believe that there will be a baptism at the conclusion of most every meeting.

* L. J. Meidinger reports that last Sunday evening 115 people were present and a call was made for those who desired baptism and who wanted to join the church and eighteen came forward. This is the first result of Elder Meidinger's meetings at Spearfish and other baptisms will follow. Surely God has blessed Elder Meidinger and Brother Turner as they have worked so faithfully in the series of meetings at Spearfish.

* Several people from Watertown and different parts of the state visited Plainview Academy, Sabbath, April 10. A very special service was held that day. In the afternoon two young laides from Mitchell were baptized.

* H. E. Preston made a trip to the western part of the state to assist Floyd Byers in the temperance work. We are happy to report that several folks have decided to take up the colporteur work and our army of workers is increasing.

* It is not too early to plan to attend camp meeting. It will be held at the State Fair Grounds in Huron June 18 to 26.

PLAINVIEW ACADEMY

PLAINVIEW ACADEMY VISITATION DAY

May 2, 12:00 noon to May 3, 1:00 p. m. For all EIGHTH GRADERS and HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS. PLAN TO COME!

From the Capitol

The members of District No. 6 recognize the challenge that faces them in that great area. It stretches roughly from the Moreau river on the north to the Nebraska line south; from Wessington on the east to—appropriately—Faith on the west.

Because of the tremendous distance, some way was sought to keep in better contact with Adventists in this area and still evangelize. Radio seemed a part of the solution. Every Wednesday afternoon (2 o'clock, CST) KGfJ, Pierre, 630 KC, presents "The Power Hour." Currently, the very popular, dramatized Seventh-day Adventist mission stories are running. They may be heard over the greater portion of the state.

Long-range evangelistic plans are being laid, endeavoring to seek out those who would turn fully to Christ. The first campaign will be a "Power-Hour Bible School" at Murdo, contemplated to operate six weeks. If there are individuals throughout the Northern Union who have relatives or friends in the vicinity of Murdo, their names should be sent to the district pastor, Box 600, Pierre.

A lay effort was conducted last fall in the western part of the district with the result that almost the entire community for several miles around is studying the Bible in a new way. Almost everyone in the vicinity is enrolled in the Bible course.

Whenever there is a fifth Sabbath in the month, there is a high day at Pierre. Our third such program will be the last Sabbath in May. P. M. De Booy will be the guest speaker at the morning service. In the afternoon there will be a lively district MV Association meeting followed by a singspiration. Group recreation is planned for the evening.

The Lord is doing great things in the Capitol district, and the members pray that they may be found doing their part in cooperating with Him.

Janice Flyger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linden Flyger of Parker, South Dakota, became the bride of Gerald C. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Allen of Grand Rapids, Michigan, on Thursday evening, November 26, at 5 o'clock in the home of her parents.

That evening a reception for 150 guests was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall in Hurley, when their many friends wished them much success and happiness as they establish their home in Michigan.

May the Lord richly bless this young couple as they begin their home. May it be a haven of peace to them and their friends as they journey toward a heavenly home.

The Bowdle Seventh-day Adventist church was the scene of the marriage of Twila Voegelé, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Voegelé of Onaka, South Dakota, and Aaron Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hartman of Java, South Dakota, on Sunday, February 14, at 7 P.M.

The bride was attended by Carol Johnson of Tolstoy, South Dakota, and Ruth Kainer of Redfield, South Dakota. The groom was attended by Terry Stevens of Bismarck, North Dakota, and Kenneth Reuer of Bowdle, South Dakota. Hazel Binder, niece of the bride, was the flower girl, and Stephen Hartman, nephew of the groom, was the Bible bearer. Ushers were Lee Jensen of Tolstoy and Jerry Schaack of Tolstoy. Carol Johnson sang "Because" and Leo Hartman sang, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

After the wedding a reception was held in the Bowdle Legion Hall for about four hundred guests. Clifford Jaqua of Plainview Academy was master of ceremonies at the reception.

Both the bride and groom have attended Plainview Academy and the bride has attended Union College. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Hartman will be at home at Java, South Dakota.

God's Plan for Your Life—By Dr. Edward Hoehn.

The beauty and perfection of all God's creations witness to His great love and care in planning. Be they small or great, all things were created for a particular purpose in our universe. Mankind was to maintain a special position in the Master's plan.

Dr. Hoehn stresses the fact that mankind as a whole is not on the road God originally planned for us. We have been led off the path.

Here is a book with a spiritual appeal for each of us. Price—$1.00 plus postage. Heavy Paper Cover.

Mount Pleasant Effort

In a letter just received from Paul Gregoroff, he states that the Lord is blessing the effort at Mount Pleasant and one evening when the subject of "The Anti-Christ" was presented, the twenty-six non-members present stood to their feet indicating that they were determined to follow Jesus. The interest is good and they anticipate a harvest of souls and a re-establishment of the Mount Pleasant church.

a pet pig and sold her for fifty-five dollars. I had some chickens too. Out of this I saved the Lord's tithe." This writer is a new conference church member who is sending in her tithe and contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund.

Quoting further from her letter. "I started to read and study the Bible eleven years ago. Up to that time I had read very little in the Bible. In a way it was my twin sons that turned me to God. Because of them I had to know the truth so I could teach them the truth. If I didn't know the truth, then I could not teach them the truth. And if I told them wrong, I would have done an awful thing. So I began to read and study the Bible and to pray. I had never prayed in my life. But I had heard and seen my grandfather and grandmother pray. They were Seventh-day Adventists. And as a child my grandmother told me that Saturday was the Sabbath and Sunday was not. I never gave it much thought then, but now I had to know the truth—which was the true Sabbath of God—Saturday or Sunday? I prayed and I read. At last I knew the truth. Then I gave my heart to Jesus; I wanted to be baptized. I wanted to go to church. I wanted to find some Adventist people."

She tells of her search to find a church connection, finally remembering relatives in California and writing to them. They wrote the Iowa Conference officials who referred her name to A. H. Liebelt, leader of District No. 11. He in turn contacted this woman and baptized her.

She concludes her letter: "Now I am a member of the Conference church. I thank God over and over again for my answered prayers. What a wonderful God we have. Now I must send in the tithe that I promised the Lord and have saved so long. I have no money of any kind of my own. But you can be sure if I ever get any money of my own, the Lord will get His tithe. I am so happy to be a member of the church. I will do all I can to serve the Lord."

No doubt the faithful grandparents have long gone to their rest, but their faithful and godly works still follow them. Surely every truly converted Adventist will be faithful in paying his tithe and will be found praising the Lord for His goodness.

Council Bluffs Meetings

"Heaven." "Does Secretary Benson's program agree with God's plan?" This was the topic of the opening meeting in Eagle's Hall in Council Bluffs on March 21. The audience sat spellbound as O. R. Rees of Minneapolis told them of heaven and the new earth that God is preparing for those who will follow Him on this earth. All of us were inspired to work more faithfully in the fulfillment of God's plan. Into this plan so sorrow, sickness, or death will enter.

Elder Rees was with us for nine nights, and each night was a new spiritual experience. Church members consecrated their lives anew to God and sinners gave their hearts to the Lord. Four young people were baptized and four others expressed their desire for baptism in the near future.

There are several good interests that will be receiving Bible studies, and we hope and pray that many of these will soon take their stand with God's people.

Southeastern Dorcas Federation Meeting

The Southeastern Dorcas Federation meeting will be held May 2 in the new church at Fairfield. Special plans are being laid for helping small societies carry on a stronger work, and we hope that every Dorcas leader will make a special effort to attend. Bring as many members of your society as possible.

We hope every society will have their Emergency Fund paid to date; also each society should come prepared to pay their federation dues.

A potluck dinner will be served at noon. Please bring own table service.

OAK PARK ACADEMY

Spring Week of Prayer

The annual spring Week of Prayer was held at Oak Park Academy March 12 to 20. A. V. Wallenkampf, head of the Department of Religion at Union College, presented the theme, "Victorious Living." This theme became more real day by day as students and faculty joined in singing the theme song, "Now, I Belong to Jesus," and in the prayer bands which met in the dormitory rooms.

Sunday evening Elder Wallenkampf spoke of the "Land of Beginning Again." If we but knew that through Jesus, our Saviour, this land can be found and made real to us. We are not to sit around bemoaning our past mistakes, but do as David counsels us to do in Psalms 37:24: "Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down. . . ." Even though we make mistakes, it is through Jesus that the "Land of Beginning Again" can be found. It is when we fail to reconsecrate our lives and to start anew, that we fail. No matter how sinful we are, Jesus will take us back. In Testimonies, Vol. 2, p. 543, we are told that there are none so low, so corrupt, or so vile that they cannot find in Jesus strength and purity.

As we grow older physically, there are things that come our way day by day that arouse distrust, suspicion, and doubt. So it is in our Christian lives, as we grow spiritually, we should become more and more afraid of the sinful way in which we walk. Isaiah 9:18: "For wickedness burneth as the fire. . . ." In Genesis it is recorded how that God walked and talked with Adam and Eve face to face; but after their fall, He could no longer communicate with them in this way lest they be consumed. If God were to show His face here on earth today, we should all be consumed because of the evil that prevails.

God has given His all to us and in return He asks that we give Him our love, our hearts, our money and service.

Another step in learning to live more victoriously was presented in one of the daily themes, "What Is Repentance?" Repentance includes being sorry enough for the wrong we are doing to quit and being willing to make restitution as far as possible.

God has given us many steppingstones that will help us gain a better insight to "Victorious Living." Some of these steppingstones are the signs God has placed along the highway of life. One of these, found in 1 Peter 5:8 is, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour."

We sometimes become discouraged and try to overstep the hedge with which God has surrounded us. (See Job 1:10) This has been placed around us for our own protection; that we might be kept safe from Satan and his many evil devices.

So, as we travel life's highway, if we take hold of Jesus' hand and let Him lead us day by day, we can live victoriously.

News Notes

* Twenty-four baptisms were reported by the Minnesota Conference workers during the month of March as follows: L. L. Murphy 7, B. G. Butherus 9, O. L. Johnston 5, P. Penno 2, D. Mackintosh 1. This makes a total of 33 baptisms for 1954.

* On Sabbath, April 3, the members of the Weaver church met with the Winona church for Sabbath school and morning worship. At the conclusion of the sermon Robert White of Wabasha was baptized and accepted as a member of the Weaver church. The district pastor officiated.

* A very successful and encouraging colporteur institute was held at Maplewood Academy March 26-29. C. A. Edwards of the Northern Union and Howard F. Anderson of the Minnesota Conference conducted the meetings. A promising group of students expressed a desire to canvass in Minnesota this summer. A colporteur club has been organized to give help and training for these prospective colporteurs.

He Did It

He did it! That is right, Odin Peterson of Thief River Falls has raised $150.00 for Ingathering so far this year.

How? Not by getting several $20 donations and quite a number of $10 and $5 gifts. He did it the hard way. While the biting icy winds sweeping in from North Dakota kept everyone in, who did not need to be out, he visited farm after farm with our Ingathering papers and brought in the amounts that finally totaled $150.

If every Adventist farmer in Minnesota had the same evangelistic zeal burning in his soul, things would really happen. And then, if every city dweller would go out in similar visitation, the Minnesota Conference would get its minute-man goal.

Wedding

Muriel Dolores Lehto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Lehto of Barkus, Minnesota, became the bride of John Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sharp of Beemer, Nebraska, in a pretty and impressive wedding service at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, February 21, in the Seventh-day Adventist church at Hackensack, Minnesota. Vernon W. Emmerson of Rochester, Minnesota, officiated at the ceremony.

Joan Parker, cousin of the bride, from St. Paul, acted as maid of honor. Little Linda Olson of Hackensack was flower girl and Glen Wintermeyer also of Hackensack served as Bible boy. The bridegroom was attended by his brother-in-law, William Webster, from Wisner, Nebraska. The ushers were William Parke and David Rideout, members of the Seventh-day Adventist church of Hackensack.

A prelude of appropriate organ music was played by Charlotte Lehto, sister of the bride, who also accompanied the vocal numbers. Pastor and Mrs. O. M. Fillman sang "Together Life's Pathway" at the beginning of the ceremony. When the bride and groom met at the altar, they faced each other as the bride sang "Together." Pastor Fillman sang "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the close of the service.

The bride is a graduate of Emmanuel Missionary College Academy with the class of 1952. She attended Union College in 1952-53. The groom is a graduate of the Beemer high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp will make their home at Beemer, Nebraska. May the Lord's choicest blessing rest upon this new home.

St. Paul Amateur Program

Oldsters, youngsters, and tiny tots—yes, nearly 200 from the Twin Cities gathered for a good time at the amateur program Saturday night, March 20, at the YMCA auditorium in St. Paul. This program, presented by the youth division of the St. Paul Sabbath school, consisted of a group of nineteen entries. There were twenty-seven young people expressing their various talents such as vocal solos, duets, trios, quartets, humorous readings, violin, piano, trumpet, accordion, mouth organ, and marimba instrumental pieces. Harry Buckley, one of the leaders in the youth's division, acted as master of ceremonies with Donald Aulick assisting. Many of the participants wore costumes or formals to make their numbers colorful and effective.

Two prizes were given to this group of talents. The prize in the junior group was given to little Kathy Howard, a member of our kindergarten department, giving her rendition of "Here Comes Peter Cottontail" as her little brother dressed like a bunny came hopping across the stage. The prize in the senior group went to Loa McConchie and Paul Hollen for their vocal duet "The Desert Song." Refreshments were served after the program and popcorn was sold during the intermission period.

Everyone worked hard to make this program a success and by so doing we raised $125.00 to help finance the redecorating of our youth's Sabbath-school room. We all want very much to have a room where we can be proud to welcome anyone who wishes to visit us and where we know the Lord will be pleased to be with us and bless us. We in the youth's division are proud of our department, having doubled our membership in the one year we have been organized.

Opportunities at Detroit Lakes

The little city of Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, is located 225 miles northwest of Minneapolis in the "heart of the lakes." This modern city with a population of 6,000 is located on the shores of beautiful Detroit Lake and surrounded by fertile farming areas.

Our Seventh-day Adventist church in Detroit Lakes with a membership of ninety-two is a friendly church. The men have just completed a thorough redecorating job on the interior of the church building making a most worshipful atmosphere. This refinishing included the church school room. It is a well-lighted room, furnished with new school desks. There is still room for twelve more children in those desks whose grades are 1-8. Perhaps your child will be entering school next fall in a community where there is no opportunity of this vital price-less church school training. If this picture fits you, then one of those empty desks is waiting for your child in Detroit Lakes.

Some of the brethren in the church are prepared to help you locate employment, a farm home, or a home in the city so that you may locate in this area. Others before you have moved for this purpose and with attendant blessings of God on their children, and the realization that it has been a means of saving their children for eternity who might otherwise have been lost. Pray, and then come and look over the opportunities. See or write to: T. O. Hanson, Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, church elder.

J. M. MERSHON,
District Pastor.

Discovering Talents

Members of the Bemidji Seventh-day Adventist church and a number of friends not of our faith gathered the evening of March 20 for a program sponsored by the Home and School group.

Mrs. Donald Larsen, leader of the Home and School group, assisted by Mrs. Evalin Wold and Dick Sletwick, planned the program. This trio worked harmoniously and untiringly in their efforts to be sure everyone had some part to perform and met with different groups to practice from time to time. We certainly appreciate their efforts.

Admission was charged and articles were sold. The funds raised will be used for equipment in the church school. However, the greatest gains from such a program cannot be counted by figures. Unity, friendly feeling, and an awakening of slumbering possibilities are priceless.

Home Visitation Day at Rochester

This picture was taken on Visitation Day in March of those who participated in house-to-house work. Altogether twenty-eight took part in distributing literature. The man standing next to me (V. W. Emerson at the extreme left) is Brother Bovee who had just celebrated his fiftieth wedding anniversary. Everyone stated they had an enjoyabde time and are planning on making literature distribution a monthly affair. Brother Logan, the church missionary leader, is doing an excellent job inspiring the layman of Rochester.

The Weaver and Winona church members also give out considerable literature and they are sending out a large number of Signs of the Times and These Times.

HOME VISITATION DAY AT ROCHESTER

Lake District News

Sabbath afternoon, March 27, was the occasion for a district meeting for the Lake District to consider soul-winning methods and possibilities. Families were present at the Detroit Lakes church from all of the other churches in the district, Basswood, Fergus Falls, and Wadena. The members of the Detroit Lakes church had just finished a complete redecoration of the church interior, so the meetings were made especially pleasant and worshipful.

E. F. Finck, conference home missionary secretary, sounded the keynote message in his morning sermon, entitled "Sins of Omission."

The first part of the afternoon program was a presentation of a typical evangelistic meeting by a lay preacher and his associates. These meetings were conducted last fall in a schoolhouse near Brainerd. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bentley; Mrs. Johnson; her daughter, Bernadine; Mr. Wadsworth; and Mr. Peterson made up this lay evangelistic company from the Brainerd church. Brother Wadsworth began the service by leading out in an inspiring song service accompanied by the two women on the piano and organ with Brother Peterson and his violin.

The service continued with Sister Johnson telling an interesting story for the children. Instead of actually preaching an evangelistic message, Brother Bentley presented the methods of getting people to the schoolhouse, and other how-to-do-it procedures of interest and importance to the aspiring lay preachers listening. All members of this team perform this service with the Master outside of their regular work-day schedule of earning a living. The information and inspiration of their presentation proved a real challenge to all.

After an intermission, Gertrude Julius, Burdette Barnhart, both of Wadena; and T. O. Hanson and Severn Krogstad of Detroit Lakes related some of their soul-winning efforts with Bible studies and cottage meetings. Their recitation of the ways in which God blesses everyone willing to serve and the thrilling announcement of decisions for baptism must have stirred other hearts to say: "Here am I, Lord, send me."

Elder Finck went on to point out many fields of missionary, soul-winning endeavors which leaves no one out of God's plan to serve. The importance of this message surely came home to every heart. He then presented the motion picture, "The King's Commission." It is hoped that the realization of the Lord's personal commission rested upon everyone present for this district meeting.

OBITUARIES

SMITH.—Mrs. Bert Smith was born September 30, 1876 at Quincy, Indiana. She died on January 19, 1954, at the age of 77 years. She came to Minnesota when she was very young and has told many stories of her experiences in a covered wagon, a log house, and wild pioneer country on their homestead near Clarissa, Minnesota. She was the next-youngest child in a family of seven children born to Samuel F. and Catherine Dent. All of that family has preceded her in death except one sister, Mrs. Nancy Alice Becker of Minot, North Dakota. She was united in marriage with Charles R. Landon in 1889. To this union were born four children: Hazel, Alice, Davie Johann, and James. In March, 1919, she was united in marriage with Bert Smith. She has been a resident of Brainerd for 32 years, and just last October moved to St. Paul to live with her daughter, Ileana. She was baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Brainerd on March 22, 1926. She died a faithful member of the church with the hope in her heart of the soon-coming Saviour. She leaves to mourn her husband, Bert; two daughters: Mrs. H. F. Gilbert (Alice) of Jamestown, North Dakota; and Ileana of St. Paul, Minnesota; one son, James Landon, of St. Cloud, Minnesota; 4 grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews, other relatives and a host of friends.

O. L. Johnston.

MRS. FRANK M. CARBALEY

Ida May Garner was born at Davenport, Iowa, December 21, 1871, and died at Coalmont, Tennessee, March 4, 1954. In December of 1894 she was united in marriage with James Elmer Murray. To this union were born four children: Elder Walter E. Murray, president of the South American Division; Mrs. Hazel Lundquist, whose husband is on the staff of Southern Missionary College; Martha Caroline and James Ellsworth who died in childhood and infancy. Mr. Murray died in 1906. After being a widow for seven years, she was united in marriage with Elder Frank M. Corbaley in 1913. She joined heartily with him in his ministerial labors in the Iowa Conference for ten years when they retired to Redlands, California, where they lived until death called Elder Corbaley in 1937. Sister Corbaley accepted the third angel's message 58 years ago, and was a most faithful member until her death. Her children cherished the memory of a mother who reared them in the message and who never wavered. She sleeps awaiting the call of the Life-giver.

TAYLOR.—Ella R. Taylor, daughter of T. J. and Marie McMahon, was born near Kirkwood, Illinois on January 23, 1859 and departed from life on February 22, 1954 at the age of 95 years. She was one of eight children. She came to Bedford, Iowa with her parents in 1881 and she was united in marriage with J. W. Taylor September 12, 1894 at Bedford, Iowa. To this union two children were born, a son Grandville, who died May 6, 1918 while serving in the Army during World War I, and a daughter Nella McMahon with whom she has made her home for several years. Her husband preceded her in death on April 30, 1938. In addition to her daughter she is survived by her son-in-law, nine grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren. She joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church in 1908 and remained a faithful member until her death. Words of comfort were spoken to the family by George P. Stone.

"... for they are white already to harvest."—Jesus Christ.

VITAL QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Question: How will the work of the angel of Revelation 18:1 mainly be accomplished?

Answer: "The publications sent forth from our printing houses are to prepare a people to meet God. Throughout the world they are to do the same work that was done by John the Baptist for the Jewish nation. By startling messages of warning, God's prophet awakened men from worldly dreaming. Through him God called backsliding Israel to repentance. By his presentation of truth he exposed popular delusions. In contrast with the false theories of his time, truth in his teaching stood forth as an eternal certainty. 'Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand,' was John's message. Matthew 3:2. This same message, through the publications from our printing houses, is to be given to the world today. . . .

And in a large degree through our publishing houses is to be accomplished the work of that other angel who comes down from heaven with great power and who lightens the earth with his glory."—Colporteur Ministry, pp. 3, 4.

Question: What are our publications doing and how must they be scattered?

Answer: "Publications must be multiplied, and scattered like the leaves of autumn. These silent messengers are enlightening and molding the minds of thousands in every country and in every clime."—C.M., p. 5.

Question: Why should our presses be employed to publish light and truth?

Answer: "In the night of March 2, 1907, many things were revealed to me regarding the value of our publications on present truth and the small effort that is being made by our brethren and sisters in the churches for their wide circulation. I have been repeatedly shown that our presses should now be constantly employed in publishing light and truth. This is a time of spiritual darkness in the churches of the world. Ignorance of divine things has hidden God and the truth from view. The forces of evil are gathering in strength. Satan flatters his co-workers that he will do a work that will captivate the world. While partial inactivity has come upon the church, Satan and his hosts are intensely active. The professed Christian churches are not converting the world; for they are themselves corrupted with selfishness and pride, and need to feel the converting power of God in their midst before they can lead others to a purer or higher standard."—C.M., p. 2.
