Trumpets Blow

By J. ERNEST EDWARDS,
 Associate Secretary,

Home Missionary Department

In the time of ancient Israel, the new year was heralded by blowing trumpets. It was the rally call to new activity. As you enter this New Year you will hear the trumpet call to intensive service for the winning of souls. You will be reminded of opportunities for personal service. With thousands of Adventist laymen everywhere, plan to launch your Bible Evangelism project this month. Around the world, the first Sabbath of this year is dedicated to the challenge "Go and Tell." As missionary plans for 1958 are presented, consider what you should do for God in His cause. Remember that your participation in lay evangelism will insure baptisms.

These opportunities in personal soul winning include:

1. A home visitation program, utilizing an approach especially suited to your community.

2. A systematic house-to-house literature crusade, using our interest-arousing tracts.

3. Your enrollment in a Bible Evangelism Training Class, studying either the basic course: "Bible Service Training," or the advanced course: "Christ Centered Lay Evangelism."

4. Your adoption of this goal—One Fireside Bible Study Each Week. Conduct a neighborhood Bible class, using the open Bible or the projector method to present truth. Do soul winning the Bible study way.

5. Assistance in the operation of Health and Welfare Service Center or Unit.

6. Participation in the Ingathering

Twin City Evangelism

By R. H. NIGHTINGALE

The TWIN CITY EVANGELISTIC CRUSADE will begin this coming Sunday night, January 12, at 7 p.m. in the beautiful Lyceum Theatre, located at 85 South Eleventh Street in Minneapolis. All of our ministers in the Twin Cities are uniting together in this evangelistic endeavor under the leadership of our Union Evangelist. Meetings will be conducted every Sunday in the Lyceum Theatre, and after the second week there will be additional evangelistic meetings in five different churches on five successive nights.

Robert Whitsett's subject for the opening night, illustrated with black light and colored pictures, is a thrilling one. In these troubled days of satellites, sputniks, sputters, and suspense—

"WILL WE DISARM OR DEMOLISH MANKIND?"

C. H. Lauda, the president of the Minnesota Conference, will lead the congregational singing; Robert Link will serve as featured soloist and choir director; Mrs. Marie Keymer Cook is the Bible Instructor for the Union Evangelistic group; Jerry Coyle and Mearl Cook will be in charge of the ushering; Earl Amundson will be the platform chairman; and T. Irville Rush will serve as treasurer.

We are asking all of our people, including those who live outside the Twin Cities, to drive in to the Lyceum Theatre next Sunday night, January 12, to help swell the attendance to large proportions on the all-important opening night. Never has

CONGRATULATIONS!!

Two telephone messages came within a week of each other which brought a great deal of joy to the union office. On December 24, 1957 word came from the Iowa Conference that they had passed their Ingathering goal by raising a total of $57,001.00. Congratulations to the Iowa brethren! When compared with last year's goal this brings more joy inasmuch as $3,000 was added to the basic goal for 1958.

Less than a week later, on December 29, 1957, a telephone message was received from the North Dakota Conference brethren stating that they too had passed their Ingathering goal, reporting $31,640.00. Our hearty congratulations to the brethren in North Dakota for this excellent job well done!

Perhaps we should make special mention of our deep appreciation of the cooperation on the part of the laity, the officers, the departmental and field workers, and to Brethren Gackenhimer and Steinke for leading out in this successful project completed for our missions program.

there been a time in our history when the Adventist message of a coming Saviour was more timely than it is today. In these days of perplexity and apprehension our prophetic message must be preached with greater power and authority than ever before. This is the space era. Every day two satellites placed in space by Russia, orbit swiftly over our heads. With intercontinental missiles as weapons, total war could bring almost total destruction to the earth. But this tragic fate God will not permit before He establishes His kingdom that shall never be destroyed. A message such as ours deserves the enthusiastic support of all our people. Attend the meetings of the Twin City Evangelistic Crusade if you can; remember this evangelistic group each day in your prayers.

On the first Sunday night of the crusade, January 12, the meeting will begin promptly at 7:00 p.m. On the second night, January 19, the meeting will begin at 4:00 p.m. as the theatre is engaged for another activity later the same night. Many believe that the four o'clock meeting on Sunday afternoon will be a good time. So plan to attend both of these important meetings—on January 12 at 7:00 p.m.; January 19 at 4:00 p.m.

If you have close friends or relatives living in the Twin City area and would like to have an invitation sent to them or have one of our ministers contact them, please send the names and addresses to the TWIN CITY EVANGELISTIC CRUSADE, P.O. Box 5090, Minneapolis 6, Minnesota.

I would like to request all of our believers in the Northern Union to remember this great evangelistic campaign in your prayers every day. May God grant to Elder Whitsett and his corps of workers an abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit and a large harvest of souls in this tremendous undertaking.

Crusade. Remember—more members giving more hours to visit more homes will result in more minute man goals, greater mission advance and a larger harvest of souls.

7. The daily sharing of truth through the King's Pocket League.

"Let the neglected tithes be now brought in. Let the new year open upon you as men honest in their deal with God. Let those that have withheld their tithes send them in before the year 1896 shall close, that they may be right with God, and never, never again run any risk of being cursed of God. . . Elders of churches, do your duty. Labor from home to home, that the flock of God shall not be remiss in this great matter, which involves such a blessing or such a curse. . . Every man who bears the message of truth to our churches, must do his duty by warning, educating, rebuking. Any neglect of duty which is a robbery toward God, means a curse upon the delinquent." Testimonies to Ministers, p. 306, 307.

8. The Bible Correspondence School enrollment opportunity offered to every person in your church missionary territory.

9. A rural mailing literature program to contact homes in unentered counties.

10. The active sponsoring of the objective: No Sunday night blackout in your church.

11. The placement of tract racks in strategic places.

12. The holding of classes; first aid, home nursing, healthful cookery.

13. The loaning of the special missionary book of the year.

14. The follow-through of interests: visitation contacts, Bible Correspondence school students, radio and telecast, colporteurs.

May the first Sabbath of this new year be a "blowing of trumpets" with your enrollment in missionary service and your planning of a Bible Evangelism project this month.

In many fields the winter months—when people enjoy their homes and firesides, present an uninterrupted season for Bible evangelism. Let these months be dedicated to teaching the last Message.

REMEMBER

* the best days of Evangelism are here, for the Holy Spirit is being poured out.

* Angels are your partners in soul winning. They will help you teach the most hardened and careless. Christian Service, p. 259.

* Your faithful service will be fruitful. "Accompanied by the power of persuasion, the power of prayer, the power of the love of God, this work will not, cannot, be without fruit." Ministry of Healing, pp. 143, 144.

Join the Adventist laymen around the world who are dedicating two hours each week in contacting new homes with our message, and devoting one evening to Fireside Bible Evangelism.

The progress in the Ingathering campaign has been outstanding. Once more we feel that the report of this week will cheer the hearts of the readers of the NORTHERN UNION OUTLOOK. These reports become more interesting to us since we have had a part in making this report possible. To the end of 1956, we had raised $129,656, but to the end of 1957, our total is more, $152,821, or an increase of $23,165.

We do appreciate the loyalty of our people and we expect that those of you who have not, as yet, had opportunity of raising your portion of the Ingathering goal for 1958, will do your part during the month of January so that this campaign can be brought to a close.

We express our appreciation for all that has been done during the past year and wish for you the rich blessings of God as we face the challenge of the New Year.

An Open Letter to The Church Missionary Leaders and Secretaries

Dear Fellow Workers:

At the beginning of each New Year we find it in our hearts to resolve to put forth greater efforts for God during the coming year. As we look in retrospect at the accomplishments of the past, surely we are led to exclaim—"What hath God wrought!" But now we stand on the threshold of a new year. Our churches are faced with new responsibilities and a greater challenge as we realize that the time is shorter in which to finish our task, then it was just a year ago.

As we look over the reports that have come in from the churches, we note that there are a number of new church officers who have been elected to give leadership to the churches for the new year. We note that many changes have been made in the missionary officers, and we wish to take this opportunity of extending to you a hearty welcome as you join the great fraternity of missionary leaders and secretaries. It is upon you that much of the responsibility of the work of the church rests. The work to which you have been called is not easy, but it carries with it great responsibility and a call to personal consecration to God. Each day must begin with a new vision of things yet to be done and of the millions who are as yet outside of Christ.

As the burden for the lost rests heavily upon you, it will drive you to study and to prayer. In response, God will give you the cooperation of every church member as you lay aggressive plans before your respective congregations. We are told that each church should be a training center where every member may be taught how to work for God in an effective manner.

It will not only take a full consecration to the Cause, but also a resolute determination to accomplish the utmost during the year of 1958. All plans that you originate should be brought to the Missionary Committee for study and discussion. Then, with a united front lay the plans before the church. If this course is followed, you will see many take their stand among the workers for God who have heretofore been standing idle on the side lines.

It is no small thing to be a leader in God's Cause, especially in these days of problem and international stress. To every church officer, regardless of your department, may I say — Be faithful to the trust to which you have been called and to the responsibilities that the church has asked you to carry. As you look to Jesus and humbly rely upon Him daily, your work will be a success and many will be brought to a knowledge of the truth through the work of the church.

May God add His blessing to each of you, is my humble prayer.

Sincerely your brother,
ORDELL R. REES

From the Roof to the Sky

He was a Seventh-day Adventist and he was sincere in his belief that the work for him was to sell roofing material, designed to protect interiors from water leaking through. His sincerity of belief received somewhat of a jolt, however, when the Master one day met him with the words, "Son, go work today in my vineyard."

Could it be that his Creator wanted him to do something else? Could it be that he had been mistaken in his appraisal of his occupation?

While the man was still wondering, the Visitor elaborated more at length. "A storm is soon to break upon the world, relentless in its fury. Character alone, based upon my truth, will be able to withstand that storm."

"The church of which you are a member, has prepared literature, the purpose of which is to develop character that will stand secure in the midst of the tempest. As people read and receive into their lives published truth, they will behold me, the way, the truth, and the life, and by beholding become changed. The avenues to their souls will be protected from the infiltration of falsehoods, and great will be your reward in the kingdom for having accepted my call to serve as an instrument in my hands, in my work of transforming hearts."

"Reward in the kingdom!" The words kept ringing in the ears of the seller of roofing material. After all, wasn't that what he wanted above everything else? To be sure, it was.

His face revealed the dawn of a new line of thinking, as he said, "I will follow Thee, my Saviour, into this line of work which Thou hast pointed out. It is quite clear to me that if there is one work more important than another, this is it."

Your publishing department secretary will be happy to tell you how you may enjoy this work. Why not get in touch with him at once?

Congratulations District No. 13

We are most happy to report that District No. 13, with Ottumwa as its headquarters, has accomplished an excellent record of Ingathering. Because C. E. Larson was called to another district, this district was without leadership during most of the Ingathering. But the churches went at the program with a will and we rejoice with them that four of the five churches of the district have already reached their Ingathering goals. The Birmingham members worked hard and went "over the top" on Sabbath the 14th. Fairfield, to the north some nine miles, followed with a report of victory a day or two later. The Ottumwa church with a Minute Man goal had to really work hard, but on Monday, December 16, they were able to complete another successful campaign. Over to the west lies the Centerville church. They had their goal in hand on November 30, being the first church in the district to reach their Ingathering goal.

L. L. Dinwiddie, the new pastor of the district, arrived December 20, and he and his good wife went to work with the remaining church, Albia, which just lacked $90.00 of reaching their goal. Ottumwa assisted them with a couple of nights of caroling and so this report indicates that the entire district is "Over." Our hearty thanks and congratulations for a very fine work done.

A news story concerning the arrival of Elder and Mrs. Dinwiddie will appear soon.

We herewith bring to the readers of the OUTLOOK the latest picture of the progress on the Muscatine Church. This is a view from the south and east showing the general contour of the building. You will notice the spacious windows for the church school on the south side of the building. The basement not only houses the church school but also the Sabbath school classrooms for the lower divisions and the Dorcas society. The church members are hoping to be in their building in the near future.

New Year's Greetings

We, the members of the Minnesota Conference office staff, wish for all of you a very prosperous new year, and we pledge our lives, with yours, in active missionary service to the Master in hastening the great day of Jesus' coming. As we begin this new year, we think of the words of inspiration written by the servant of the Lord in the Testimonies, vol. 2, p. 261-268. We quote here portions of the paragraphs on those pages:

"Another year of your life closes today. How can you look back upon it? Have you made advancement in the divine life? Have you increased in spirituality? Have you crucified self, with the affections and lusts? Have you an increased interest in the study of God's word? Have you gained decided victories over your own feelings and waywardness? Oh, what has been the record of your life for the year which has now passed into eternity, never to be recalled?

"As you enter upon a new year let it be with an earnest resolve to have your course onward and upward. Let your life be more elevated and exalted than it has hitherto been. Make it your aim not to seek your own interest and pleasure, but to advance the cause of your Redeemer.

yield up everything unreservedly, and thus seek for that peace which passes understanding. You cannot draw nourishment from Christ unless you are in Him. If not in Him, you are a branch that is withered. You do not feel your want of purity and true holiness. You should feel an earnest desire for the Holy Spirit and should pray earnestly to obtain it. You cannot expect the blessing of God without seeking for it. . . ." (p. 263.)

"Those who have trained the mind to delight in spiritual exercises are the ones who can be translated and not be overwhelmed with the purity and transcendent glory of heaven. You may have a good knowledge of the arts, you may have an acquaintance with the sciences, you may excel in music and in penmanship, your manners may please your associates, but what have these things to do with a preparation for heaven? What have they to do to prepare you to stand before the tribunal of God?"

"Be not deceived. God is not mocked. Nothing but holiness will prepare you for heaven. It is sincere, experimental piety alone that can give you a pure, elevated character, and enable you to enter into the presence of God, who dwelleth in light unapproachable. The heavenly character must be acquired on earth, or it can never be acquired at all. Then begin at once. Flatter not yourself that a time will come when you can make an earnest effort easier than now. Every day increases your distance from God. Prepare for eternity with such zeal as you have not yet manifested. Educate your mind to love the Bible, to love the prayer meeting, to love the hour of meditation, and, above all, the hour when the soul communes with God. Become heavenly-minded if you would unite with the heavenly choir in the mansions above.

"A new year of your life now commences. A new page is turned in the book of the recording angel. What will be the record upon its pages? Shall it be blotted with neglect of God, with unfulfilled duties? God forbid. Let a record be stamped there which you will not be ashamed to have revealed to the gaze of men and angels." (p. 267, 268)

Friends, let us consecrate ourselves daily to the Lord, and let us make first things first this new year, 1958.

C. H. LAUDA

Remain not in a position where you ever need help yourself, and where others have to guard you to keep you in the narrow way. You may be strong to exert a sanctifying influence upon others. You may be where your soul's interest will be awakened to do good to others, to comfort the sorrowful, strengthen the weak, and to bear your testimony for Christ whenever opportunity offers. Aim to honor God in everything, always and everywhere. Carry your religion into everything. Be thorough in whatever you undertake." (p. 261, 262)

"God bids you become a worker with Him in His vineyard. Commence just where you are. Come to the cross and there renounce self, the world, and every idol. Take Jesus into your heart fully. You are in a hard place to preserve consecration and to exert an influence which shall lead others from sin and pleasure and folly to the narrow way, cast up for the ransomed of the Lord to walk in.

"Good Measure, Pressed Down. . . And Running Over!"

This expresses the experience of the Baker-Misenko evangelistic team in their two public efforts, one in each of their respective districts.

For many years no public work has been done in St. Cloud. We thrilled for the people who attended! Men and women from all walks of life came to listen to the preaching of God's word. From out of such God has presented a choice number for gleanings.

Following St. Cloud the church at Rochester was ready with its doors open for public evangelism. Don Burgeson joined the Baker-Misenko team and rendered valuable service. The attendance varied, with a definite increase toward the close of the meetings. Here, as in St. Cloud, the people who attended were of a dis-tingly fine class, such who would render a marked influence and service to the church.

It was wonderful to find interspersed throughout our visits at non-Adventist homes a reverent reflection upon some Adventist individual. Without fail it revealed, first, a good personal relation between the two, and secondly, it reflected repeated invitations that these be their guests at the evening meetings. Blessed be these that do!

What now after the meetings?

"After they (the ministers) have urged the solemn truth upon the people... then come the exemplary preaching, the watchful care... the conversation, and visiting at the fire-side from house to house, entering into the condition of mind and the spiritual state of those who listened to the discourse..." Testimonies, vol. 1, pp. 472, 473.

While this particular passage is addressed to the ministry, the church membership is likewise instructed:

"Not upon the ordained minister only rests the responsibility of going forth to fulfill the commission. Every one who has received Christ is called to work for the salvation of his fellow-men." Acts of the Apostles, p. 110.

"That any one can be saved in indolence and inactivity is an utter impossibility." Colporteur Evangelist, p. 38.

And for what purpose are both preachers and laymen called?

"The present world is designed as a scene of probation for man. He is here to form a character which will pass with him into the eternal world. . . . The great sacrifice has been made for man, and now he will be tested and proved to see if he would follow the example of Jesus, and make a sacrifice for his fellow-man." Testimonies, vol. 1, pp. 196, 197.

Herein lies the blessing and success of all evangelism! We have witnessed the opening of doors and hearts in abundance, "good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over." It is now the privilege and responsibility of the church, ministry, and laymen, to garner in, that its own membership be spiritually made strong, that the church be pure, that Divine power may attend, that the work be finished, and then, that the Lord may come.

Rapid City

The brethren throughout the Conference would doubtless be interested in knowing that our Rapid City church has been sold and our believers there are renting the First Baptist Church temporarily. The First Baptist Church is located downtown near the library, in the event some would like to visit the church services at Rapid City this winter.

Ever since the Whitsett-Link evangelistic crusade in Rapid City it has been necessary to hold two church services, one at 8:30 in the morning and the other at 11:00, in the old church building. The Baptist church is large enough so that all our people can meet for the one preaching hour at eleven o'clock. They are progressing nicely with the plans for building the new church and it is hoped that before too long they can be worshipping in their own church home.

It was a pleasure to meet with them on Sabbath, December 14, the first time they met after selling and leaving their old church. Some were feeling pretty sad because there is always a lot of sentiment connected with something of this nature. We are praying that the Lord will continue to bless the Rapid City church.

tion covering as it does a large section of central and southern South Dakota and northern Nebraska. We chose to identify the program as "The Seventh-day Adventist Voice in the Rosebud." "The Rosebud" is a geographical term known to everyone in this part of South Dakota which takes in the territory west of the Missouri River, which was originally the Rosebud Indian Reservation. The hour is 8:30 a.m. Sunday, KWRY, 1260 kc. Pray for this program and invite your friends to listen.

Caroling Campaign Closes With Birthday Celebration

The carolers who worked the last evening of the campaign in the Bowdle church were invited to the home of Gottlieb Hagele for a surprise birthday party in honor of Brother Hagele's granddaughter, Kathy Holweger. Other friends and relatives were also present and everyone enjoyed the homemade ice cream and other goodies that were served. The accompanying picture shows those who worked the final evening of the campaign. They are Aaron Siewert, Mrs. Wm. Heinrich, John Jutzy, Fred Holweger, C. H. Turner, Mrs. C. H. Turner, Kathy

New Radio Program

A new radio program was launched December 8 on the new Radio Station KWRY, of Winner, South Dakota. This was made possible by the vision and backing of the local elder of the Burke, South Dakota, church, Harry Bower. He saw the possibilities and determined to buy time for a fifteen-minute weekly broadcast for one year. KWRY is a new station of 5,000 watts power located on your dial at 1260. We are happy to be able to preach the message over this sta-

Holweger, Dean Hagele, Leslie Dean, Arden Hagele, and Walter Johnson, who was the photographer for the picture. Arden Hagele has the honor of being the only one of the group, except the Turners, who was on hand and working each evening of the campaign.

The churches of the North Central part of South Dakota are somewhat handicapped for lack of territory in the Ingathering campaign. In order for them to reach their goals, which they have been doing, it has been necessary for both the Bowdle and Tolstoy church members to make large personal contributions to the campaigns. The loyalty of these groups has been demonstrated on many occasions with as much as $400 to $500 being given at different times in order to reach the goal.

The loyal support of the church missionary leaders and the church elders is most gratifying and commendable as the campaign continues to progress toward victory on February 1.

Thank You

I would like to say, "thank you," to all the church officers, all the Sabbath school officers and teachers, all the young people's Missionary Volunteer officers, to all the Dorcas ladies, and to everyone else who helped make your church program a success during the year 1957.

It is wonderful to know that in all the activities of the church we are not working for the local church board or for the Conference, but for God. Everything you have done to forward the Lord's program is for God. Sometimes we have problems. Often there may be difficulties. It is frequently true that we meet with discouragement in the Lord's work but God has promised to never leave us nor forsake us. It is so satisfying to work for Him—to look to Him for help and encouragement.

I would like to appeal to the entire church membership in South Dakota to pray for your officers and teachers this new year of 1958. Pray for them every day. Pray for your minister and all the leaders in God's work. Pray for the missionaries. Let us spend much time in prayer for one another that we might do what the Lord would have us do during these closing hours of earth's history and be found faithful when Jesus comes. May He say to each one of us, "well done thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Thank you again and may God bless one and all is my prayer.

O. T. GARNER, President

Ingathering News Notes

It is a thrill to see the sacrifices that are being made in behalf of the Lord's work. One dear lady saved the money for Christmas presents this year and gave it for Ingathering. She said, "I knew you were coming so I didn't buy my friends any presents this year. I want to give you this."

The caroling has been going well.

Elder Anderson received $86 one night in Huron with one unit. Elder Turner reported $103 in Mobridge with two units.

Congratulations to Brookfield for being the first church in the Conference over its Ingathering goal! More than that, they have gone over the Minute-Man goal.

Mobridge is to be congratulated for being the second church to go over its goal. Several other churches are very close and will no doubt be going over by the close of the year.

The Huron, Redfield, Aberdeen, Bowdle, Lemmon, and Rapid City districts are all past the half-way mark in their Ingathering. Some say the first half is the easiest. That must certainly be true weather-wise. We ought to thank the Lord for the wonderful caroling weather we have had throughout the Conference.

M. L. SAMPLE,

Home Missionary Secretary
