A Miracle

Minnesota publishing secretary, Roger Eno, discusses our books with a nun attending the National Catholic Education Association Convention.

If someone had even suggested just ten years ago that Seventh-day Adventist books would someday be exhibited at a Catholic Teachers' convention, we wouldn't have believed it.

Recently at the National Catholic Education Association Convention in Minneapolis the Home Health Education Service was permitted to have a booth to exhibit our books to those in attendance. More than one thousand from the Northern Union territory alone showed their enthusiasm for our books by signing an interest card.

Our HHES booth was the most popular spot of all. Many times people were lined up two and three deep signing cards and asking questions. Many of the sisters mentioned the fact that they have these books in their schools and the children love them. One nun said the BIBLE STORY was the most popular book in the library.

Surely there are honest souls who will take their stand. "From that which God has shown me, a great number will be saved from among the Catholics." —Evangelism, p. 574.

Those who have a special burden to work with these people should get in touch with their publishing secretary. Special plans are being laid right now to follow up these interests.

 Publishing Secretary

Union College*Kellogg Grant to Union College

The W. K. Kellogg Foundation has approved a commitment of $5,000.00 to Union College, under the College Resources for Environmental Studies Program. The grant will be applied over a period of three years and will be administered by a faculty-student selection committee.

Robert E. Kinsinger, Kellogg Foundation Vice President, explained that the grant to Union College is one of approximately 300 similar grants being made to small, private liberal arts colleges throughout the United States.

Union Captures Worthington Cup

Four Union College students—Ed and Marla Kelly, brother and sister from Hutchinson, Minnesota; Darrell Holtz, Lincoln, Nebraska; and Paul Giem, Sullivan, Missouri, walked away with first place in the Inter-collegiate College Bowl Competition at Southern Missionary College April 1-3. The four-member team received the first place after winning four of five games in double elimination competition.

Taking part in the college bowl series were the following colleges: Andrews University, Atlantic Union College, Columbia Union College, Oakwood College, Southern Missionary College, and Union College.

The college bowl program closely follows the former television program, "General Electric College Bowl." The moderator reads a question to two competing teams; the question may require either a choice of given statements or a short phrase answer. The first individual to correctly answer the question gives his team a bonus question in which teammates are allowed to confer with each other before answering.

Although Union's team lost its first game, it came back to win the next four consecutive games.

South Dakota*Wooledge-Brauer Wedding

Lesli Ann Wooledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wooledge, Inwood, Iowa, and Robert C. Brauer, son of Elder and Mrs. C. V. Brauer of Denver, Colorado, were united in marriage in a beautiful candlelight ceremony Sunday evening, May 16, in the Sioux Falls Adventist church.

Elder Brauer, Sabbath School & Lay Activities Secretary of the Colorado Conference, performed the ceremony.

After spending the summer in Denver, Colorado, the bride and groom will return to Lincoln, Nebraska, and attend Union College. The groom is a senior theology major and the bride is a senior English major.

Mrs. Loren Dunston
PR Secretary

Yankton Evangelism

The members of our Yankton Church are experiencing rich blessings as they have joined their pastor, J. C. Parmele, in a series of evangelistic meetings in our own church building. The response from non-members has been excellent. The members are attending faithfully and bringing their friends. Some evenings the non-members outnumber the members.

Our people are encouraged and solicit earnest prayer as the interest being created will be followed up and nurtured to full acceptance of Jesus as Lord and Saviour. Several are looking forward to continued attendance at the services of the church.

G. W. Liscombe

District News Notes

GACKLE—Members of the Gackle church recently brought a musical program, including a variety of English and German numbers and some instrumental numbers, to the residents of the rest home in Wishek. The program was appreciated by the residents and the Gackle church members enjoyed presenting it.

STREETER—The Pathfinder Club of the Streeter church, the Flickertails, has been reactivated this year, and has been very active. At the time of the April report they stood as the most active club in the state.

LEHR—Having learned through The Quiet Hour Echoes of the need of books for an Adventist school in Africa, the Lehr members went through their personal libraries and came up with over 190 books. These were packed and mailed at the members' expense.

The Lehr Pathfinder Club has also been newly reactivated. They have been concentrating on completing their First-Aid Course and have also helped twice in distributing handbills advertising two recent Five-Day Plans held in Wishek. David James

Five-Day Plan in Wishek

A second Five-Day Plan was held recently at the Wishek Elementary School with David James of the Gackle District in charge. A total of six persons has successfully stopped smoking as a result of these two sessions. This is about 90% of the total enrolled. Some of these had smoked up to three packs a day and all had smoked for ten years or longer. Others that were not successful in stopping smoking have cut down considerably.

Wishek is a town of approximately 1,400 and there are plans for another Five-Day Plan to be held here in the fall.

Mrs. Eugene Aman,
PR Secretary, Lehr Church

Bowman Church Plans Youth Outreach

The Missionary Volunteer Department of the Bowman Seventh-day Adventist Church, under the leadership of Mrs. Evelyn Hansen, is planning a "Voice of Youth" series for July of this year in Marmarth, North Dakota.

Don Hensel led out in a successful evangelistic campaign there a few years ago and thus prepared the way for Richard Habenicht to begin Sunday meetings in the summer of 1970.

Since the fall of the same year, Sunday services have been conducted in the Marmarth Village Church. Recently when Reuben Beck, Treasurer of the North Dakota Conference, was the guest speaker, the attendance rose to over forty, most of whom were not Seventh-day Adventists.

On a recent Sunday, when a special sermon was given for the youth, in addition to the adults, seventeen young people were present.

We are planning and praying for a rich harvest of souls. Won't you join us in your prayers that God will richly bless this effort of our young people to share their faith?

J. W. Jones, Pastor
Bowman District

Teen-Agers Present Purpose

Do you have a purpose for life? The youth of the Rochester church are asking this question of their audiences, in music and dialogue.

Purpose is a contemporary musical program written for the youth of today. The program begins with Chris Forsberg singing, "What Is it All About?" accompanying herself on the guitar. John E. Hodgkin, M.D.,

Teen-age group presenting the program "Purpose" at Maplewood Academy.

dialogue leader, then challenges the teen-agers to find a purpose for their lives. The group sings: "Trouble Me, Lord," "What Does it Mean To Be a Christian?" and "This Day I'm Gonna Try Harder." Sharon Wood sings, "To Someone, the Saviour's Love." Esther Harris invites the audience, along with the youth, to dedicate their lives to Christ and follow Him. Mary Jane Wharton then voices the dedication of the group as the choir sings "Just As I Am."

The program has been presented at Maplewood Academy, Town Hall Estates in Rochester, and the Rochester, Minneapolis Southview, and St. Paul First churches. Mrs. Charles Thoen is coordinator of the group.

Revival in Bemidji

A very interesting and soul stirring revival took place in the Bemidji church April 25 to 30.

We were privileged to have as our guest speaker, W. G. Larson, Lay Activity & Sabbath School Secretary of the Northern Union.

The spirit of the meeting was indicated by the excellent way the members attended each night, and by the way they supported the program in bringing with them those who were interested. Four non-members expressed their desire to follow the teachings of the remnant church and two others were reclaimed.

On Sabbath, May 1, at the close of the series of meetings, Elder Klam baptized ten with whom he had been studying during the winter months. At this time an invitation was extended to those who took their stand, to look forward to baptism some time in the future.

All were grateful for Elder Larson's ministry during his short visit in Bemidji, and expressed the hope that he would find it possible to return again in the near future.

Century Celebration

Maxine Helps and Lena Swenson with the beautifully-decorated birthday cake which Maxine baked. Mrs. Helps is a member of Mrs. Swenson's Sabbath School class.

Lena Swenson of the Minneapolis Northbrook church celebrated her 100th birthday May 14, 1971. She was born at Cambridge, Minnesota, and has two sons and six grandchildren. She is the oldest member of the Northbrook church. Thirty-five years ago she was baptized into the church and has attended faithfully until the age of 98 when the high steps became difficult for her to climb. She is faithfully keeping the Sabbath in her home.

A party was held in her honor by the members of the church. It was one of three parties in as many days; neighborhood friends and relatives also honored her.

Mrs. Swenson took care of her ill sister for 12 years. At the age of 93 she retired and currently resides at the home of Mrs. Maude Freeman who gives her tender Christian care. Mrs. Freeman says, "Lena takes care of herself, makes her own bed, and helps with the dishes. We enjoy each other."

Among the 70 some cards received, one was signed by President Nixon and another by Governor Anderson.

She appreciates the visits from her neighborhood friends and the members of her own church. She misses not being able to read her Bible the last two years. Her senses are keen, her mind alert, and she walks unaided. She credits her longevity to the blessings of God and to the fact that she always worked hard. She enjoys her retirement and says, "I have it better now than ever before." She has seen a lot of "befores" in the past 100 years.

Mrs. V. O. Schneider
PR Secretary

At Rest

BROWN—Mrs. Alice M. Brown, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Adams, was born at Ridgeway, Minnesota, on March 4, 1901. At the age of 13 she moved with her parents to the Belfield, North Dakota, area. After attending school at Fryburg and Belfield and Dickinson State College, she married Guy Brown on September 18, 1936, in Beach, North Dakota. Mrs. Brown passed away on April 29 at the Beach hospital. She was preceded in death by her parents, one brother and one sister; and is survived by her husband, Guy, and brothers and sisters.

Richard Habenicht

KAISER—Martha Giese Kaiser, daughter of August and Augusta Giese, was born July 15, 1885, at Posen, Germany, and passed to her rest at the old farm home near Green Isle, Minnesota, March 21, 1971. At the age of 15 she came with her parents to the United States. As a member of a pioneer family her days were filled with the activities of the farm. These lessons in industry and hard work marked the course of an entire life of service to family and friends. She was united in marriage to William Kaiser who preceded her in death. Eight children were born to this union, seven of whom survive. Those who cherish her memory are, two daughters, Mrs. Anna Meyer of Green Isle, Minnesota, and Corrine Kaiser of Arlington, Minnesota; 5 sons, William of Takoma Park, Maryland; Walter of Henderson, Minnesota; and Leslie, Alvin, and Edwin of Arlington, Minnesota; 2 sisters, one brother, 7 grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren. Services were conducted at the Tjosvold Funeral Chapel at Arlington, Minnesota, with V. K. Burgeson officiating, assisted by Stephen McPherson. Martha Kaiser awaits the call of the Lifegiver on the resurrection morning.
