The Des Moines church school students as they enjoy their Walkathon to earn money for a new school bus.

Forty Des Moines elementary church school students completed a 20-mile Walkathon to raise money for a new school bus on the first Sunday in May. Approximately $900.00 was raised by those who participated. Forty-four students and four adults started at the school in Des Moines and finished in Indianola at the home of Mrs. Lorraine Trotter, the 3rd and 4th grade teacher. Nine first and second graders walked the entire distance. Students having the highest amounts pledged by sponsors were: LaRonna Colbert, 6th grader, $131.00; Dawn Meyers, 1st grader, $106.00; and Sherry Heltzel, 2nd grader, $95.00.

Other activities of the school year included field trips. The lower grades remember very vividly their trip to the State Capitol and a visit with Iowa's Governor Robert Ray. Governor Ray spoke to the students concerning the function of the governor to the state of Iowa. After his short presentation he posed for pictures with the students and signed autographs.

Des Moines teachers and students with Governor Ray, a visit that was enjoyed by all.

The fifth and sixth grades enjoyed a trip to the Des Moines Register and Tribune to see from start to finish the creation of a daily newspaper. This trip was in conjunction with a special unit in Social Studies dealing with current events.

On May 9, the entire student body visited Pella, Iowa, during the annual Tulip Time Festival. The students saw many places and items of historic importance, including the crowning of the Tulip Time Queen, the ceremonial street washing, and the traditional folk dance by 200 people in wooden shoes. Such things as wooden shoe-making, weaving, spinning, and pottery making in the Old Dutch Village aroused the fascination of each student. This proved to be a very educational and entertaining trip for all.

The staff is already working on plans for the coming year. A ninth grade will be added to the educational program of the school and classroom instruction will be improved by departmentalizing grades 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 in the fields of Bible, Math, English, and Science. Music and Physical Education will be supervised by instructors who are specialists in their fields. The staff of the Des Moines 1st Seventh-day Adventist Elementary School is looking forward to another year of training young people for service in God's work.

Cooking School in Burlington

Growing interest in eating for health's sake was fanned in Burlington with the church's recent three-night vegetarian cookery school in the church recreation room. A large group including non members attended and many favorable comments were received concerning the vegetarian entrees served each night.

Pastor Dible opened each meeting with a brief spiritual talk giving Bible reasons why we should be concerned about our health and bringing in some of our doctrines.

Mrs. Sherbondy discussed the dangers of meat eating and the advantages of a vegetarian diet. Vegetarian foods were displayed each night. Nuts were featured the first night, grains the second, and soy products the third, with entrees prepared by ladies of the church.

Mrs. Dible gave information on the types of food on display and also demonstrated how to make gluten.

An oriental theme, using items brought by the Dibles from their former home in Korea was featured the third night. Mrs. Dible at that time spoke on soy products, beans and legumes, and gave a recipe for an oriental protein, tofu. Printed recipes were given each night.

In preparation for the school, 2,000 handbills were passed out by church members, and coverage was given in newspapers and radio. Most of the members were able to participate in some phase of the preparation and presentation.

Follow-up calls to non-members attending have been well received. Another program such as this is planned for the future.

"Let ALL our brethren take this to heart, and by personal effort in faith and hope contribute to the SIGNS OF THE TIMES; for in sending matter that is alive, in speaking by the pen words bearing the holy unction, they are preaching to thousands." CTEW, 111.

Pastors in the Pew

What do they really do at a Ministerial meeting? The accompanying picture shows the North-Central pastors meeting with Norman Haas, Conference Educational Secretary, and R. C. Schwartz, Conference President. Elder Schwartz led in a devotional stressing the Vine of John 15 and how our power to be Christians and ministers result in being branches of that Vine. The various pastors shared with each other recent experiences in their part of the field. Elder Haas led a discussion of the problems, solutions and values of Christian Education. In his report summarizing the financial picture across the Northern Union, he stated that the average cost per pupil per year in the first eight grades is $990. Considering the alternative of public education and its risk, who can afford NOT to send their child to one of our schools?

The picture shows part of a letter to a minister announcing upcoming Minister's events, Elder Haas and Elder Schwartz in the upper part and E. W. Brown, T. E. Staddon, John Morrison, and P. S. Young below.

the church in Dublin donated over $3,000 to provide two rooms for Barbara and a trailer for Ron for living quarters during their stay in Ireland.

The first letter from Ron states that they will be doing house to house missionary work, enrolling people in the Gift Bible plan of study. They will also conduct a health program including the Five-Day Plan to stop smoking. Ron reported that there are only 60 members in one church making Ireland practically an untouched country.

Fair Booth Suggestions

ABLE prepared two display fair booths which were in the rear of the main auditorium at camp meeting. Each display consisted of four panels (4 ft. wide and 6 ft. high, legs extended making it 7½ ft. tall), which are hinged in pairs. Colorful posters have been prepared for easy mounting on the pegboard surfaces.

One display features our health message in four parts: the vegetarian principle, use of whole grains, detrimental effects of sugar and avoidance of harmful beverages. With this booth, members might serve samples of vegetable protein, and/or promote a cooking school. Life and Health magazine could be distributed. Several cassette films on diet and food are provided for showing in the projector (TV type) which is a part of each booth.

The anti-smoking booth could promote a local 5-day Plan and other temperance services of the Adventist church. Two different films are provided. Due to the cost of the projector ($350 each) and the films ($75. each) it is felt a fee of $50. should be requested for useage at each fair.

The entire venture is lay-sponsored. No conference funds have been appropriated. We only hope for sufficient income to meet the costs.

If your church is interested in providing an Adventist influence in locations as mentioned by Sister White in Evangelism, p. 35, you may contact the writer. Schedules will be set up on a first come first served basis.

Heritage Singers U.S.A. Coming to Twin Cities

The HERITAGE SINGERS, U.S.A., in their third concert tour season, will appear in full concert on July 20, at 8:00 p.m. in the MINNEAPOLIS JUNIOR ACADEMY AUDITORIUM, 3500 Williston RD., Minnetonka. Their new sound in religious music has elicited warm response throughout the country. Their concert tour has taken them as far east as New York City and south to Miami before beginning this tour.

The Heritage Singers present a beautiful blend in Gospel music. Their founder and director, Max Mace, says, "their music has succeeded in bridging the generation gap." Seldom has a musical group so captured the affection of its audiences as have the HERITAGE SINGERS. Their concerts are designed to reveal through music the fundamentals of Christian love. The group has been successful in filling a void existing in many religious communities.

Based in Placerville, California, the group spends ten months of the year traveling, presenting some 200 concerts with 18 singers and musicians. Organized about two and one-half years ago, they have traveled some 100,000 miles throughout the United States, including Hawaii. Their 10 stereo albums are best sellers on the Chapel Records label. All are welcome, and the concert is FREE!

Successful 5-Day Plan

A recent Five-day Plan to stop smoking which was conducted in Sleepy Eye, Minnesota proved to be a tremendous success. Twenty-one attended and 18 of that number stopped smoking. The program was under the direction of Donald Thompson, pastor of the Morgan and Granite Falls churches. A local doctor assisted him during the sessions.

Those who attended expressed their deepest appreciation. One man who is the sales manager of a radio station, has requested that we come to his town.

Grand Forks to Start New School

The building that will house the Grand Forks church school for the school year 1974-75.

The Grand Forks church is in the process of making final preparations for a church school to begin operation this fall. The greatest hurdle to overcome was that of finding adequate building facilities without the overburden of immediate construction. After much searching and prayer, very excellent facilities were rented from the St. Marks Lutheran Church. These facilities will house the Grand Forks church school for the 1974-75 school year.

At a church business meeting held May 6, over $7,200.00 was pledged from those present for the operation of the school next year, and there are others yet to be contacted who were not at that meeting.

Plans are in the making for a very solid and stable school program that, with the help of God, will give the young people an excellent training in service to mankind and will help to prepare them for eternal life. Special study has been given that the operation of this school be in accord with the guidelines given in the Spirit of Prophecy.

Krenzler-Dassenko Wedding

Donna Lee Krenzler and Bill Dassenko were joined in marriage on April 14, 1974, in the Jamestown Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Donna Lee is the daughter of Elder and Mrs. Levern Krenzler of Oshawa, Ontario, and Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dassenko of Sanborn, North Dakota.

The attendants were the bride's sister, Gaylene, and the groom's brother, Garry. The bride's father performed the marriage ceremony and prayed God's special blessing on his children as they establish their home with God as their Friend and Guide.

Bill and Donna Lee will reside in Clarendon Hills, Illinois, where Bill is an accountant at the Hinsdale Sanitarium, and Donna Lee will take up work in speech pathology and audiology.

Baptisms, Baptisms, Baptisms

Three separate churches. Three different numbers. Three baptisms on the same Sabbath in South Dakota.

Sabbath, June 29, was the important day. Weldon Treat baptized in a beautiful outdoor setting, the first fruit of the Yankton effort with W. D. Brass. The interest remains good. There will be more baptisms.

John Nikkels joined Larry Stephens, Pierre pastor, for a baptism of four. Three young people with whom Elder Nikkels has been working and one young lady who has been receiving Bible studies from Elder Stephens.

Paul Kemper officiated in Sioux Falls where ten were baptized. B. R. Spears of the Voice of Prophecy is currently holding a series there with Paul Kemper and Phillip Benson.

We certainly praise God for these fifteen people who joined us on this one Sabbath. There is much to do for God in South Dakota and Heaven is rewarding diligent effort and sincere prayer.

Continue to pray for the meetings in progress in Watertown, Sioux Falls, and Yankton.

What Is Cooking in Aberdeen?

Mrs. Calkins and Mrs. Pierson emphasize the benefits of a balanced diet.

Good, nutritious food, prepared in the most inexpensive way!

Since March 21, several ladies of the Aberdeen church under the direction of Mrs. E. Calkins and Mrs. G. Pierson, conducted cooking classes in the YWCA for the benefit of the community's homemakers.

Mrs. Pierson, a home economics teacher of Redfield, and also a literature evangelist, led out in the demonstrations, while Mrs. Calkins, a registered nurse and the wife of the local pastor, stressed the medical aspects of a vegetable protein diet. Classes were advertised through five newspaper ads, which aroused the curiosity of many, including the Family Life staff writer of Aberdeen's daily. Under the title

Cooking school assistants, Mrs. Oscar Isaak, Mrs. W. Hohensee and Miss Helen Slayton.

"Can low-cost protein improve the diet?" a half-page appeared in American News, just one day before the second class met.

Radio station KABR interviewed the two directors of the school during the station's weekly talk show which lasted 30 minutes. The YWCA director attended the classes and advertised them in the Y's weekly tabloid.

Since Aberdeen is located in cattle country, it was no surprise that the Cowbells ran a series of controversial ads, worded as follows: "Beat the high cost of protein-deficiency...EAT BEEF!" However this did not deter the ladies nor hurt the attendance. It probably resulted in more advertising for the cooking school and the participants felt it was time well spent to let the world know that Adventists have something good and helpful to offer.

SDA's and Unemployment Compensation

It was a happy day for Mrs. Christine Weeks on June 12, 1974, for on that day the Review Examiner for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Division Employment Security reversed his denial of unemployment compensation. The original denial was based upon the fact that Mrs. Weeks was unavailable for work because she had refused to accept a job which required joining and supporting a labor union.

In reviewing the decision, the Review Examiner found "that the claimant, under a moral obligation, refused an offer of work made to her on August 31, 1973, and inasmuch as the acceptance of such work would require the claimant to join a union, which is against the teachings of her church, the specific work offered to this particular claimant is deemed unsuitable within the meaning of Section 25(c) of the law. . ."

Many Seventh-day Adventists find it necessary to apply for unemployment compensation. Before you apply, search diligently for a new job. Keep a record of the firms you have contacted, the individuals you talked with, the results and the dates. This will help you in establishing your claim. Then if you should be denied your unemployment compensation because you refused to accept a job which requires you to violate your convictions on Sabbath keeping or your convictions on joining or supporting a labor union, be sure to:

1. Appeal the decision immediately, the same day or the next, if possible.
2. Contact your conference religious liberty secretary and ask him for help.

Where Do Your Dollars Go?

Do you know where your dollars go? As the saying goes, "Do you have too much of the month left at the end of the money?" Are you a good steward of the funds with which God has blessed you?

We must put first things first by returning to God our tithes and offerings as God has blessed, and next comes the living expenses such as housing, food, clothing, medical, educational, and many other items according to family needs. It is easy in this day and age to live beyond one's income and to become deeply involved in debt. The admonition has been given us to shun debt as one would shun leprosy and to live on porridge and bread if necessary to keep out of debt.

Each of us desires to have a savings account. How wonderful it is to know that something has been set aside in case of an emergency. Therefore, it is well to set something aside each pay period or at the time crops and produce are sold, unless suffering actual want.

To invest in a savings account, stocks, bonds, houses, and lands is all good, but how about an investment in the BANK OF HEAVEN? The investment I have in mind is in addition to the tithes and offerings we return to God. This is a "special" investment that many of our people make when they come to camp meeting. Why do we call it a "special" investment? Of what does it consist? Can we all have a part?

Your Book Center helps to form a vital link in investing "your dollars" in the BANK OF HEAVEN by purchasing books, magazines, and tracts in joining hands with the other angel of Revelation 18:1. Books and literature are the Lord's means of taking the message of a soon-coming Saviour to help prepare a people to meet God. As the printed page is scattered like the leaves of autumn, God will watch over it and many will turn to Him before it is too late.

Not only will this literature help others, but our own experience is largely determined by what we read. A good character is a capital of more value than gold and silver. The books we read are agents in forming our characters, as well as those of our children, family, friends, and neighbors; day by day they help decide our eternal destiny.

May we be rich in the BANK OF HEAVEN as we unite our efforts in proclaiming the message of a soon-coming Saviour.

Korea Needs Books

The Seventh-day Adventist English Language School Evangelistic Centers operated in Seoul, Pusan, and Kwang-Ju, Korea need books in the English language to build up their libraries for the forty student missionaries working in these language schools. Almost any kind of denominational historical books can be used. Especially Spirit of Prophecy, Commentary sets, history, devotional books, sermon books, evangelistic sermons from our evangelists, and good basic devotional books by other writers are acceptable for our libraries. Mail them to: English Language School Evangelistic Program, CPO Box 1243, Seoul, Korea.

"Insight" Summer Monthlies Good for Evangelistic Use

The Insight staff announces that three 48-page monthly issues this summer will replace the usual weeklies. Two of the issues are thematic. The June issue deals with death, and August the supernatural. Both are areas of current discussion in the secular press.

Highlights of the issues include counsel on how to help a grieving friend and a study of what the Bible says about death (June); a piece on the uniqueness of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and a special report on what the church is doing to help alleviate the agony of famine in Ethiopia (July). The August issue features "The Supernatural Seventies," a report of what's going on today in the occult and the almost unbelievable case of the bedeviled week of prayer.

According to Editor Mike Jones, the summer issues of Insight are ideal witnessing aids for passing to interested young people.

"I hope that our readers will understand that these summer issues contain a number of articles written with the non-SDA reader in mind," he said. "We have had many requests for Insight's that would be of value to Adventists and non-Adventists alike."

He said the weekly cycle will resume in September.

New Jewish Bible Course Ready

Revision of the Israelite Heritage Institute Bible Course has been completed using new pictures and changing the interest view point. Intriguing topics covered include the health laws of Moses and their significance to today's living, the Jewish Sanctuary service, and the longest time prophecy in the Bible. To date, 5,875 students have graduated from the Israelite Heritage Institute course.

Robert L. Odom and C. H. Lauda together with others, performed this editorial undertaking. Elder Lauda states, "It is our objective to make the Israelite Heritage Institute course a significant medium for winning Jewish people by pointing up the significance of Bible prophecy and particularly the Messiahship of Christ. We are convinced the time has come to establish significant bridgeheads in large Jewish centers in our great cities. Our keeping of the seventh-day Sabbath gives us rapport with Jewish friends. We need your help in securing enrollments."

An excellent idea would be to get enough Israelite Heritage Institute enrollment cards so you will have a supply to give to your Jewish friends and neighbors. You may wish to do this at Ingathering time. Obtain your free supply of enrollment cards by writing to: Israelite Heritage Institute, Box 99, Newbury Park, California 91320.

WEAVER - Almer Harris, 76, was born January 17, 1898 on a ranch near Spearfish and died on June 1, 1974 in Spearfish, South Dakota. He was married to Inez E. Sandusky in 1918. Except for a few years from 1924 to 1932 when he worked in Washington and Montana, he lived in or near Spearfish. He was baptized in 1971. He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters, fourteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Harold L. Gray

WIDICKER-Sophia, was born to John Freund and Katherine Elisabeth Schander, October 16, 1888 in South Russia. The Freund family consisted of six girls and four boys. Sophia became the bride of Alex Widicker and in 1908 they migrated to the United States with two small children and settled on a farm near Bowdon, North Dakota. Alex and Sophia Widicker became members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in 1914, the same year that a daughter, Molly, died at the age of six years. Does God speak in tongues?

Members of fifty Christian denominations believe so. Are they right?

Rene Noorbergen watches the gatherings in church sanctuaries. Studies the sounds of ecstasy. Speaks to key people. Refers to history for comparison. He writes three books.

First GLOSSOLALIA 1 and GLOSSOLALIA 2—Noorbergen's earliest writings on the tongues-speaking world. Just the size for mailing to friends. 50 cents each.

Then the book selected as "Book of the Year" for 1974—CHARISMA OF THE SPIRIT. The detailed account of Noorbergen's research in tongues-speaking from the time before Christ through to the charismatic movement of the 70's. $1.25.

GLOSSOLALIA 1, GLOSSOLALIA 2, and CHARISMA OF THE SPIRIT are available at your Adventist Book Center or through ABC Mailing Service, 2621 Farnam Street, Omaha, NB 68131.
