THE POTSDAM CAMP-MEETING.

This meeting opened at the appointed hour. Everything was in readiness, and the first service witnessed quite a good representation of our people on the ground. All present seemed to be filled with a determination to get all the good out of the meeting possible.

The meetings thus far have been seasons of refreshing. There are twenty tents pitched on the ground. They are quite well filled, besides there are those who are rooming in houses near the camp-ground.

The outside attendance is much better than it was last year. Those that come so far seem much interested. The campers are still arriving, and before the close of the meeting, it now appears that the attendance will be larger than it was last year, in spite of hard times. The meetings are especially good which is all owing to the abundant blessings of the Lord we are all experiencing.

MOUNT JACKSON, VA.

At the close of our good camp-meeting I with Brother I. D. Van Horn left for Mount Jackson, Virginia, to attend the camp-meeting of our people there. We left Auburn about six o'clock Monday night, and went via Canandaigua, Harrisburg, and Washington, arriving at Washington about ten o'clock in the morning. There we separated. Brother Van Horn went directly to Mount Jackson, and I went down to Richmond to spend a few hours with my oldest sister. It was a pleasure for me to meet with them once more. From there I went to Mount Jackson reaching there Wednesday afternoon. I found the camp quite well organized, and about two hundred in attendance. The camp was in a beautiful grove of oaks and maples which afforded a welcome shelter from the sun. Thirty tents were pitched on the ground. A book stand and a provision stand, also a dining tent helped to make the scene pleasant and profitable.

The meetings Sabbath day were of interest. A move was made on the part of many toward a better life. Brother Mead was present and gave good talks each day concerning the canvassing work. I was permitted to help in the young people's meetings, and enjoyed the work very much. There is a good company of young people there that, shall they allow the Lord to lead them, will be of use in the closing work. I also spoke five times in the large tent, and helped some on committee work. The preaching was designed to meet the needs of this present time. Elder Moon came down from Washington and spoke twice on the question of religious liberty, which was well received. Elder Van Horn's instruction each morning on church officers and work was much appreciated and I believe will be productive of good. A good degree of interest was manifested in the meetings of the Sabbath.

School Association, and all seemed to be of good courage.

Sunday was the busy day of the meeting. It was estimated that fifteen hundred people were on the ground. It was arranged for five discourses for the day. Elder Moon spoke at 10 A. M. on Religious Liberty for fifty minutes. That was followed by a song, and without dismissing the audience Elder Van Horn gave the direct testimony on the Sabbath in the New Testament for fifty minutes. Then came dinner. At two P. M. Elder Tripp, the president of the conference, took up the change of the Sabbath. Then a song, and I immediately followed with fifty minutes on Christ—His relation to the Scriptures, the Law, and the Sabbath. In the evening Elder Van Horn spoke on the Present Crisis. Deep impressions were made upon many minds, and we felt that the Lord had been with us in the camp.

The collections at the tent, and the receipts at the stands were quite good. Thus I can say that the meeting seemed to be a success, and I felt thankful that I was permitted to be present and help in the work.

I left the ground Monday morning with Elder Moon for Washington where I stopped over one train. We went to the Capitol and spent some time listening to the exciting discussion of the tariff. I was also permitted to visit Elder Moon's home there in Washington. I also met and had a good visit with my old friend Arthur Hitchcock, who spent some time with us at the Mount Vernon Sanitarium some two years ago.

I had about three hours in Albany, but was disappointed in not seeing Sister Keim. On my arrival here at Rome, I found a telegram awaiting me to attend the funeral of Brother Daniel Palmer at Pooleville, N. Y. I had expected to go right on to Potsdam to help in the meetings there, but I went to Pooleville, and was in time for the funeral. The obituary will appear in another column. I trust that the brethren and sisters will remember Sister Palmer in their prayers. She is still confined to her bed, and was not able to attend the funeral. I now expect to leave here in the morning, August 17, for Potsdam.

DALTON.

SINCE returning from camp-meeting the interest here has continued with but little abatement. While some in the village have evidently heard about all they care to, others from the country come in so that we have not felt free to close our effort at present. Several families from Chautauqua Hollow (a neighborhood some three miles from here) have become so much interested that we are now holding meetings in their school-house occasionally, with a good attendance.

At our meeting last Sabbath several excellent testimonies were given; one or two evidently having taken a decided stand for the truth, while others are seriously wrought upon being affected to tears. We think of remaining here a week or two longer, hoping then to be able to report more definite results.

NORTHAMPTON, FULTON CO.

WE came to this place from camp-meeting as previously arranged. Have now held six meetings. Some seem interested, but as this is something of a summer resort, we can hardly decide as to the extent of the interest among the people. They seem friendly, but we fear pleasure is the one thing they seek. The Middle Grove church are doing all they can to encourage and help in starting the work here, and in turn we hope to be able to help and encourage them. Courage good.

S. AND L. A. THURSTON.

MONTICELLO.

FOR about three weeks I have been alone as Brother Wheeler returned to his home in Brookfield sick, having been in the work but about five weeks this season. This was a source of great disappointment to him as his heart is in the work. We regret very much that he was obliged to leave us, for our work together was very pleasant both last season and this, and we hope for his speedy recovery. In the mean time we have moved our tent from Unionville to Monticello where we are now located. We began work here last Friday night, 10th inst, but owing to the rain and cold, our attendance is small so far but we expect a good hearing when the weather moderates. We have held but four services, and taken up no collection, but the few who have come seem to enjoy the work, and have placed $3.30 in our donation box. Hundreds of people from New York City are here for a vacation during the hot weather, but many prefer a "carnival" to the Gospel. We desire to present the truth in the power of the Message.

APPOINTMENTS.

I expect to meet with the church at Adams Center, Sabbath and Sunday, Sept. 1, 2. Opportunity will be given for baptism. I trust we may have a good attendance.

I hope to spend Aug. 28 or 29 at Watertown.
A. E. PLACE.

—We take pleasure in noticing the booklet lately published by the Review and Herald, under the title "His Glorious Appearing." This little work, being a revised edition of the pamphlet, Matthew 24, by Elder White, has been especially prepared to furnish our workers a suitable help. Price, in board covers, 25 cts.

LOCAL CAMP-MEETINGS.

THE south-western camp-meeting will be held at Delevan, commencing Thursday night, Sept. 13, and continuing ten days. We have secured a beautiful grove of stately trees. The large pavilion and grove will be lighted with electricity, and pure spring water will be brought on the ground from the city reservoir. These conveniences, including grove, have been secured for $23. Delevan is on the Western New York and Pennsylvania R. R., which runs from Buffalo, N. Y., to Emporium, Pa., passing through Olean. It also runs from Rochester to Hinsdale, near Olean. The Buffalo, Rochester, and Pittsburgh R. R. running from Rochester to Ashford Junction, passes through Machias Junction only four miles south of Delevan, making Delevan of easy access from the north, east, south, and west. Delevan is in the north-east corner of Cattaraugus Co., about forty miles from Buffalo, near the county lines of Erie and Wyoming. We trust all the families living in western and south-western New York will plan to attend this meeting. Several of our State ministers will be present, and we have the promise of the assistance of Brother F. L. Mead. Plan to attend this meeting and make everything bend to this end.

NOTICE TO CANVASSERS.

THERE seems to be some misunderstanding on the part of some of the canvassers as to the use to make of the backs of the "Weekly Report Blanks." Some have been sending in items of business on this sheet, but that is not what the blanks were designed for. The front page of the report calls for your week's work in days, hours, orders, values, and deliveries, but you will notice at the top of the other page of the report it says "Canvasser's Weekly Report and Letter." This is the place for you to write us briefly any items of interest connected with your work, or interesting experiences that you have had. These we will print in the INDICATOR for the encouragement of others. Our canvassers can contribute much to the interest of the paper and to its usefulness if they will remember this and make the proper use of this part of the report. But do not order books or anything else on the report blanks. We do not look for business on them and it is liable to be overlooked.

HEALTH FOODS

Should be used by all who value health. The reason is this, they contain no lard, ammonia, alum, or other objectionable and harmful substance; they are made from the best of material, no cheap, starchy flour, no cheap shortening; they are carefully and scientifically prepared; they are thoroughly baked so that the task of the stomach in digesting is as slight as possible.

These foods are equally good for the strong and healthy and for the sick and dyspeptic. In the sick room they are indispensable, and often greatly hasten the recovery of the invalid from the fact that there is nothing about them to retard recovery.

We have circulars describing all these foods, telling of what they are composed, and the case for which each food is best adapted. These will be sent free upon application.

There is a full supply of these foods continually on hand at the Depository. They can be shipped to any part of the State with slight expense for freight. When ordered in lots of 50 lbs. or more, we give a discount which will aid in paying freight.

Here is a list of some of the best foods:—
