WORDS DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF
DANIEL PALMER.

BY MAGGIE FAIRFIELD.
Cleveland, N. Y.

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." 2 Tim. 4:7, 8.

At rest in Jesus! Christian brother,
Thou hast borne the cross on earth,
Hast suffered and endured with patience,
And there's a crown for thee henceforth.

Thy words were, "What is gain and sorrow
Of this life compared with Heaven!"
In the heart of man hath never entered
The joys prepared, the blessings given.

That peace that passeth understanding
Filled thy soul, so sweet and calm;
Thy dying hope was placed in Jesus,
With "Praise the Lord! thy will be done."

At rest in Jesus! Oh, I was sweet
To breathe that precious name,
I fixed my hab' above the heavens,
Where his love doth rule and reign.

O our brother, how we miss thee!
Yes, we'll miss thee in the field,
In the Master's vineyard scattering
Precious seeds, their fruit to yield.

O our Saviour, tender Shepherd,
Hover o'er this saddened home;
Comfort her whose heart is aching,
For the husband that has gone.

Then meekly wait, dear Christian sister,
Till the Saviour shall appear,
To gather up his precious jewels
That are scattered far and near;

And when the morning dawns in glory,
And the night of sin is past,
May you be found among the faithful,
To meet the dear ones there at last.

Field Reports.

NORTH CREEK, N. Y.

SINCE my last report I spent two days at Rome with Elds. Lane and Kinne on conference and Tract Society work. Friday, Oct. 5, I came with Eld. Lane to this place. Sabbath day we had a good Sabbath-school and meeting. Eld. Lane gave a discourse, which was followed by a social meeting. There was a good number in attendance, and all expressed themselves as glad of the opportunity. A good spirit seems to prevail here. This seems as it should be.

The Sabbath-school here has decided to pay the entire amount for their S. S. Workers, and "not be bothered with any collections." Their club includes others besides superintendents and teachers. I feel thankful and glad to see the interest our schools are taking in this matter of the Worker, and I believe it will prove a great source of blessing to our Association. Let us pray and work to that end, and it cannot fail to be so.

The church building is nearly completed now, and we expect to have it ready for dedication next Sunday.

ELLCOTTVILLE AND CATLIN.

I ATTENDED quarterly meeting with the church at Ellicottville Sept. 29, 30. There was a good attendance of our people on the Sabbath, and on Sunday the outside attendance was larger than at any time since the dedication of the house. Four united with the church. Monday a number visited Sister Bartlett, in Mansfield, who has been sick for a long time. We held a meeting and celebrated the ordinances, and she seems greatly encouraged. Thursday I went to Corning and visited Sister Austin, also Sister Clark, who is sick.

Friday I went to Catlin. Held five meetings, two of which were held at Bro. Kimble's, and three in the school-house. There was a full house at each service, and the best of attention paid to the word spoken. Some were present from the Corning church. Four united with the church. Catlin is one of the oldest churches in the State; may the Lord build them up. This is the home of Eld. D. T. Fero, and his parents still reside here. Nearly all of the members are grey headed, and it seemed good to see four young persons unite their interests with the church. At the close of the service Sunday night a five dollar bill was passed into my hand with a "God bless you" which was worth more than the money.

I go on to Binghamton to-day, and from there to Lincklaen Center.

D. A. BALL.

MIDDLE GROVE AND GALWAY.

THE quarterly meeting at Middle Grove was well attended, and I trust it was one of profit. We were much pleased to meet Brother and Sister Bump from Hartford, and Sister Bevin from Ballston. Brother Daniel Eldridge was too feeble to have the meeting held at his house; Sister Eldridge is also quite feeble. May God bless, in large measure, these old soldiers of the cross, who are now ripening up for immortality.

Evening after the Sabbath a number came from the quarterly meeting to attend our meeting at Galway; some came again last evening also. Our interest is still good. Quite a large number who could not get seats in the Hall remained standing in the hallway, although there was a union service held in the place. Sister Florence Booth is still with us, doing good work both at the organ and from house to house.

S. AND L. A. THURSTON.

Oct. 8.

DICKINSON CENTER, N. Y.

AFTER our five weeks' stay in this place, we give a report of our labor as it now appears. Twenty-one new believers are now keeping the Sabbath, and sixteen of them have signed the covenant. When all sign who desire to, including the three who were keeping the Sabbath when we came here, we expect to see a company of twenty-five or thirty established in the truth. Among those who have signed the covenant are a man and his wife, with four bright children. This man owns a large mill, and employs about twenty-five men the year round. He is now making arrangements with his men to carry on his business without breaking the Sabbath. Such decided action as this demonstrates the wonderful power of God that accompanies the truth. Other interesting cases we might report which show the working of the Spirit of God.

There are some prospects of our building a church house here. If we build, we shall begin the work very soon. We shall be able to report more definitely in the near future.

The interest is still good; about two hundred and forty were present last evening; collection, $4.02.

WEST VALLEY.

I MET with our people here Oct. 6, 7, according to appointment. On the Lord's day, after an interesting Sabbath school, I spoke on the words found in Deut. 33:25, "As thy days, so shall thy strength be." After the sermon we held a social meeting, in which nearly all took part. Our people, with a few exceptions, were all present. On Sunday forenoon I spoke to them on the "Power of God unto Salvation," after which the ordinances were celebrated and the usual business matters attended to. $54.69 tithe was taken up. We also held a missionary meeting.

In the afternoon I spoke to an interested audience on "God's Message for To-day." Quite a number of outsiders were present, and the words spoken had a good effect on the hearers. I enjoyed my visit very much, and believe my stay was not only a help to me but a source of encouragement to the brethren and sisters. I had a pleasant visit with Eld. Peabody and family, and also visited a number of the other brethren and sisters. I also called on the German Methodist minister here, and had a pleasant talk with him. While our meeting with each other here is but brief, let us develop a Christlike character, so that we may meet in the heavenly courts, to part no more.

GENERAL MEETING FOR NORTHEASTERN NEW YORK.

THERE will be a general meeting for the friends in northeastern New York held at the new church building of the North Creek Church, commencing Friday night, Oct. 12, and closing Sunday night, Oct. 14. On Sunday, Oct. 14, the new meeting house will be dedicated. We hope to see a general turnout from Middle Grove, East Hartford, Glens Falls, Harrington Hill, Schroon Lake and Horriçon, and would be very much pleased to see friends from Keene. As far as convenient, bring bedding, so that all may be comfortably provided for during the meeting. Elders Place, S. Thurston and the writer will be present.

S. H. LANE.

THE QUARTERLY MEETINGS.

WE have arranged quarterly meetings to be held at the places mentioned as follows:—

Elder Kinne will be at Locke Oct. 13, 14; Cortland, 20, 21.

Elder Ball at Lincklaen Center Oct. 13, 14; Brookfield, 20, 21.

Elder Raymond at Rome Oct. 13, 14; Williamstown, 20, 21; Pulaski, 27, 28; Roosevelt, Nov. 3, 4; Fulton, 10, 11.

Elder C. O. Taylor at Adams Center Oct. 13, 14.

Elder Cobb at Buck's Bridge Oct. 13, 14; West Pierrepoint, 20, 21.

Elder Peabody at Newfane Oct. 13, 14; Jeddo, 20, 21.

HARD TIMES.

WE hear much concerning hard times. It is true they are hard, but not so hard as to stop the work of the Lord. Yet the stringency of the money market does affect our work, so much so that we can not always do as we would like to do. For the past two years we have paid up all our bills of the Tract Society monthly. We are very anxious to continue to do so, but in order so to do, it is absolutely necessary for all who purchase of us to pay up promptly. We therefore request all outside of our regular agents to send cash with orders when possible so to do, and our regular agents to remit just as soon as possible. In sending money, drafts, P. O. money orders, or express money orders, are preferable to checks. Address all letters, New York Tract Society, Rome, N. Y.

HIS GLORIOUS APPEARING

Is the title of a nice little book recently published by the Review and Herald Office. It is an exposition of Matthew 24. It is nicely illustrated, and replete with present truth. It should be placed in the homes of the people. Cannot one or more in all our churches engage in its sale? It retails at 25 cents a copy. Cannot our scattered brethren, and sisters also, engage in its sale? Send 25 cents to the New York Tract Society, and have a copy sent to you by mail. At the same time ask for wholesale terms to agents. They are very liberal. One can do well selling them, and at the same time spread the truth. Who will try?

S. H. LANE.

GRANOLA GRIDDLE CAKES.

By request I write the following recipe, from which may be prepared a very palatable breakfast dish:—

Use one and one half cups of sweet milk, one egg beaten light, salt to taste, one half teacup of flour, one half teaspoonful of soda, and one of cream of tartar. Add sufficient granola to make a thin batter, which becomes thicker as the granola softens. If the batter becomes too thick, add milk; bake on slightly greased griddle. These cakes bake more quickly, brown more readily, and are more healthful than others, as the granola has previously been thoroughly cooked.

Try this recipe once, and you will try it again.

Granola, The Gem of Health Foods.

Sanitarium Granola has been manufactured for nearly seventeen years, and is unquestionably the finest health food ever devised, and is greatly superior to any of the numerous imitations to which its success has given rise.
