TAKE COURAGE, BROTHER.

AMAZING love, O can it be
That God's dear Son has died for me,
That I might his perfection see,
And with him live eternally?

Yes, it is true; each day I know
His loving eye looks here below
To see the kind of seeds I sow,
And help me like himself to grow.

I know it's true; how good he is
To let me daily taste his bliss.
Each livelong day I'll feel his kiss,
And soon be clothed in righteousness.

Field Reports.

I HAVE spent the last week in the above-named village holding meetings. Spoke five times. The attendance was good. The people seem much interested, and there is an undeveloped interest yet in the community. I remain a portion of the present week.

The Sabbath-school last Sabbath numbered forty. The donation of the school was $1.05. All seemed deeply interested in the general review. At the preaching service quite a number came in besides those who have embraced the faith recently, until the room was well filled, which is a large hall situated in the center of the village. Brother and Sister Lawrence were present from West Bangor.

The new meeting-house is progressing nicely. It is now nearly enclosed, and the shingling commenced. In my last report I stated that enough material was on the ground and paid for to finish the building; I intended to have stated, to enclose the building. The work so far has been donated, and all who have worked seem much pleased to do so.

There are calls for labor in localities near, and Brethren Cobb and Bristol intend to fill some of these calls as soon as they feel at liberty to leave the work here. Indeed they will look after the work here as long as the interest seems to demand their attention.

I now expect to visit and hold meetings with the company at Constableville, in Lewis County, where Brother L. N. Hathaway may appoint. We are much pleased that the calls for labor are so many, as it teaches us that the field is open and the harvest is ripe.

PULASKI, ROSEVELT, AND FULTON.

FROM Williamstown I went to the Pulaski church. Here I met my brother whom I had not seen for years. Although I was there a few days years ago, yet I had never met the Pulaski church before. I was there ten days, and preached every evening but one. Had several meetings in my brother's neighborhood, but most of the meetings were in Bro. Robinson's neighborhood. Left quite an interest there which I would gladly have remained with but for appointments ahead. Hope they may have help from some source soon. With the exception of some of the scattered ones, there was a general attendance Sabbath and Sunday, and we think we saw omens of real good, and believe there will be lasting results of this meeting for good.

Rosevelt was entirely new territory to me, though there were several familiar faces of those whom I met years ago, before connecting with the Pennsylvania Conference at its organization. There was a general attendance of our people, and on Sunday the largest attendance of any of our meetings there for years.

Here we found what we regard as a real outside interest, especially in an adjoining school district, from which a goodly number came to our Sunday service, and where we preached the last evening we were there to a house full of very attentive auditors. And it was with deep regret that it was a necessity to leave the people there. This interest was started by a Sunday-school held there by Brother Treadwell the past summer and this fall, in connection with which he has talked the truth to the people some. Am glad to learn that ministerial help has just been sent there. May Heaven crown it with success.

Coming to Fulton, I came to a field every way new to me. And while the weather and going were very unpropitious, owing to a fall of some fifteen inches of snow at the time, yet there was a general attendance of the resident members and some from Oswego. Had a good meeting with the dear ones here. The Lord bless the Fulton church.

Thus ends my present quarterly meeting tour. And as I retrospect, my prayer goes to Heaven for all the dear souls I have met in this trip, and from whom I now go to work in other localities, hoping to greet them in the glorious reunion of the redeemed just before us. Be faithful, dear souls. We are rapidly doing up business for eternity.

ALBANY, N. Y.

I AM still endeavoring to sow the precious seeds of truth in this great city. Another excellent lady, who expresses herself as convinced of the claims of the Bible Sabbath, was with us in our meeting last Sabbath.

In some calls I made last Thursday afternoon I had the privilege of appointing three more series of Bible readings. One was by request of a young lady recently married, upon whom I called, and who had attended some of my readings last year. At a reading I held that evening at another place, there were ten gentlemen and ladies present, and at the close much interest was manifested in the reading.

About two weeks ago I called upon the wife of one of the most prominent ministers (Presbyterian) in this city, and upon learning of my work she desired a Bible reading, which was appointed for the next Monday evening. Upon the evening appointed I found her husband also present. He seemed to have a genuine spirit of humility. After taking up Daniel 2 we had quite a general talk upon the development of the work of God, and he seemed much impressed with the lines of prophetic truth developed. His prayer at the close was excellent. When I left he shook my hand cordially, and said he had been very much interested in the study. I remarked, "These teachings, of course, are unpopular, but what we want is truth." "Yes," he replied, "truth is what we want." They expressed a desire for me to come again when they could find leisure. Nearly all the churches here are commencing a series of revival meetings; have a singer and speaker from abroad, who hold meetings with the different churches.

Let us pray that the Spirit of God may overrule all to his glory.

ONWARD.

ONWARD march, is the gospel call. I find the "Gospel Primer" and "His Glorious Appearing" to be the books for the times. Almost every one buys one of them and says, "How cheap!" And they contain present truth. Some, after reading, have asked me to explain other points bearing on the same subjects. One man bought "His Glorious Appearing." When I delivered it he said he wanted to know something about this matter. As I had some other books with me, I sold him "Gospel Primer," "Steps to Christ," "Marvel of Nations," and "Thoughts on Daniel," five books in all. To the Lord be

NOT BEEN IDLE.

DEAR INDICATOR: It is a long time since I have reported any labor, but it has not been because I have been idle. I am still selling the health foods. The "Gospel Primer" and "His Glorious Appearing" take well with the people. I have obtained orders for "Bible Readings" from some who had been canvassed over and over again for it, but would not subscribe. Now they are so eager to get the book that they even pay for it in advance. It is my intention to canvass thoroughly whenever I can get a chance. From the sick chambers I have good opportunities for spreading present truth, and by God's help I can and will be faithful.

MRS. R. SCOTLAND.

The Seventh-day Adventist church of Olean have removed their place of meeting from 71 R. R. Avenue, East Olean, to Corner of Union and State Sts., Olean, and would be pleased to have any of our S. D. A. brethren passing through the town give them a call.

The address of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Satterlee is changed to No. 12, Corner of Wayne and 1st Sts., Olean, N. Y.

A HOMELESS girl who is willing to work for her board, would like a home among Seventh-day Adventists. Address Mrs. J. S. Delano, 208 Catherine St., Syracuse, N. Y.

— 2500 "His Glorious Appearing" and 1000 "Gospel Primers" just received. Send the orders.

APPOINTMENTS.

I EXPECT to be at Salamanca Friday p. m., Nov. 23, and will speak at the house of Brother F. H. Hicks. Will meet with the Steamburg church Sabbath and Sunday, Nov. 24, 25. A. E. PLACE.

THE INDICATOR.

THE INDICATOR FOR 1895.

THE time for the renewal of subscriptions for the INDICATOR for the year 1895 is now at hand. We are in hopes that all who are now taking it will send in their subscriptions soon. We trust that all in the State who are not now taking it will conclude to subscribe for it. It is a live paper, giving items of the progress of the work in all parts of the State. Will you not send in your subscription now for the year 1895?

Generally subscriptions for all our papers are sent in January, or the first of the year, which makes that a very busy time at the Depository. If the subscriptions for the INDICATOR could be sent in during this month and December for the next year, it would save much hurry at the Depository. Again, we have many names on our mailing list all set up, and we do not like to remove those names and then be to the trouble of setting them up again and placing them back on our list, when a subscription sent in a few days earlier would save us that trouble. Will not some one in each church take an interest in this matter? Will not either the periodical agent or the librarian? We expect to send out some sample copies to those who are not now taking it, with the hope that they will subscribe. We do not want any one in the State to take the INDICATOR by dropping any other papers that are printed by our people. Let us take the INDICATOR in connection with them. Who will respond by sending twenty-five cents for the INDICATOR? Address New York Tract Society, Rome, N. Y.

S. H. LANE.

THOSE SMALL WORKS AGAIN.

WE wish to call the attention of the readers of the INDICATOR once more to the sale of the two books "His Glorious Appearing" and "Gospel Primer." The former treats on the subject of the second coming of Christ. It is replete with truths that are especially applicable to the times in which we are living. No one can read it without being convinced that it argues the point well, and conviction will fasten on many hearts. It is beautifully illustrated, and the subject treated and the illustrations are such as to commend themselves to honest minds. Its price, which is only twenty-five cents, places it within the easy reach of all.

The Primer is beautifully illustrated, and is especially adapted to children. Can not some one in each church engage in the sale of these two books? People will purchase them for holiday presents. Shall not the Tract Society obtain an agent in each church? Write to the State agent, J. R. Calkins, and secure territory, and get your books of the New York Tract Society, Rome, N. Y.

S. H. LANE.

WE are glad to announce that our ministerial force has been strengthened by the accession of Brother Geo. M. Ellis, of Missouri. He and his family have moved to the State. Sister Ellis is a daughter of Brother and Sister Gleason of Buffalo. For several years Sister Ellis has not enjoyed good health, and has spent some time with her parents in Buffalo, as she is much better in this State than in the West. For this reason it has been thought advisable for them to locate in this State. The Missouri Conference did not like to spare him, but under the circumstances it was thought fit so to do. The matter has been adjusted with a perfect understanding between the officers of the Missouri and New York Conferences. We welcome Brother Ellis to our ranks, and hope the Lord will abundantly bless him in his new field of labor in the Empire State. He will commence labor near Fulton, in a neighborhood where Brother Wm. Treadwell has created an interest by Bible work.

NOTES.

GEO. PRATT writes that the snow in Essex County is fifteen to twenty inches deep in the woods. He intends to commence canvassing soon. He has not been well for some time.

BROTHER WM. SEEWALD has been spending a few days in Rome. He would like some brother to go with him this winter to canvass. Here is a chance for some one to commence canvassing.

THE New York Tract Society is now prepared to give some bargains in Teachers' Bibles, Craden's Complete Concordance, and books for children, such as "The Story of Jesus," "The Good Shepherd," etc. More particulars next week.
