The Pacific College Announcement

School will open Wednesday, Sept. 29, 1909. Prospective students should purchase their tickets to St. Helena station, where they will be met by stage from the school if notified concerning the day and hour of the arrival of train.

The rate of charges will be $12 per school month for tuition, drawing, vocal music, room, light, heat, laundry, hot bath, and use of the swimming tank, library, etc. A discount of two and one-half per cent will be allowed on this charge if paid one term in advance, and five per cent discount will be allowed if paid one year in advance. This discount will be allowed only on cash payment. When three or more students attend from one family, a discount of ten per cent will be granted. Board will vary from $5.00 to $7.00 per month, according to the amount eaten by the student. It will be the policy to furnish the board at as low rate as possible, and hence no discount will be allowed on payment for board.

Each student should be provided with three sheets, two pillow-cases, four napkins, napkin-ring, toilet articles, five towels, table cover, and sufficient bed clothing, such as blankets, bedspread, etc. The school store will have the following articles for sale: Sheets, towels, napkins, blankets, comfortables, pillow-cases and bedspreads. These can be obtained at the school if the student prefers to buy them here.

All mail should be addressed to St. Helena, in care of Pacific College.

Write the undersigned for all other information. C. W. Irwin.

The Spirit of Prophecy and the Location of the College

Nearly two years ago, while visiting Sister E. G. White, I heard that some years previous, when affairs at the St. Helena Sanitarium seemed somewhat discouraging, Sister White had encouraged our brethren to hold on to the work there, stating that the Lord would yet do great things in that place. She said that she had seen our young people traveling over the hills with text-books in their hands, and that it was to be a missionary and educational center.

Many had supposed that this meant the future of the sanitarium merely, but it appealed to me as meaning more, and I gave most serious consideration to the matter of finding a location for the college in the neighborhood of the sanitarium. Among other places, the Angwin property was mentioned, but the lack of funds placed it outside of our consideration entirely at that time. God has done a great work for the school since then, and the excellent Angwin property has been secured. And now the words of Sister White are to be most fully brought into reality. God showed her years ago what He saw, and although neither she nor others fully understood its significance, what God saw was a fact, a fact to be realized in our day. God is caring for His work. "And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth." John 4:37. Let all nobly, self-sacrificingly rally to the support of the educational work in Northern California.

L. A. Reed.

One Year Missionary Course

Having become convinced that there are many persons of mature age of ordinary education who would gladly avail themselves of the opportunity to secure a missionary training in a short time for definite, self-supporting work in proclaiming this truth speedily to every man, woman, and child, we now offer a short missionary course which is to embrace those subjects most essential for direct missionary work. There is no graduation connected with this course, but it is intended for those who feel that they can not give much time for preparation. Those entering upon this course should have a knowledge of geography, elementary arithmetic, and should be able to read and spell well.

Who Should Come

Entire Families.—Many fathers and mothers have called for such a course as we now offer, so they would be able to do self-supporting missionary work in needy places. Those also who have planned to go to Mexico or other countries to engage in farming, should have a good knowledge of the doctrines we hold as truth, so as to convert their neighbors. We have church-school facilities for the children.

We wish to make San Fernando a missionary center, and the families moving in should move out into needy places as soon as the needed training has been gained, thus making room for others to come to do the same thing.

Young Married Couples. There are many young married couples who would like to work for the Master if they knew how. If the Lord directs, come and get a speedy preparation for work.

Young People. Unmarried young men and women over eighteen years of age, who feel that time is short and that they wish to get out into the field quickly to seek and save the perishing, should come and take up these studies, and ask the Great Shepherd to guide in their life work.

Instructors and Instruction

ELDER E. J. HIBBARD. Elder Hibbard has been an active minister in this denomination for twenty years, and hundreds of persons have accepted the truth through his labors. Having been a teacher when the truth found him, he has ability to present all the doctrines of the Bible clearly, and in a manner to fasten them in the minds of his students.

The following are some of the subjects to be studied: The Coming of the Lord, The Law and the Gospel, The Sanctuary, The Twenty-three Hundred Days, The Sabbath, The Millennium, The State of the Dead, The Two Covenants, The Two Laws, The Beast and His Image, The New Earth, etc.

ELDER LUTHER WARREN. Elder Warren has promised that if the Lord wills, he will spend a portion of the coming year with us, giving instruction in "The Art of Definite Soul-Winning." Elder Warren has had years of experience in field work, and has dedicated his life to the work of saving the young and inspiring them with the great responsibility resting upon them in finishing God's work in the earth speedily.

DR. LILLIS-WOOD STARR. Health reform is the right arm of the message, an entering wedge to open the hearts of the people to present truth in actual missionary work. Dr. Starr has practised medicine, been a missionary to Mexico, and has lectured on health in schools and sanitariums. The burden of her heart is to have all who are to become missionaries understand the laws of life and health. Physiology and anatomy will be studied; also How to Care for the Sick, First Aid to the Injured, Bandaging, Practical and Theoretical Hydrotherapy, and Hygienic Cooking.

H. G. LUCAS. The principal will have a class in history, showing God's dealings with the nations since creation. Sacred history was one of the studies in the schools of the prophets, and is very important. Denominational history will also be studied.

GENEVIEVE JOHNSON. The gospel worker should be familiar with the gospel songs. Opportunity will be given to study the rudiments of music. Those who are familiar with the notes may enter the chorus class.

Expenses

Tuition, $4.00 a month; free to those who pay second tithe. For other expenses send for calendar.

Western Normal Institute Notes

The second school year of the Western Normal Institute opens Sept. 21, 1909. Exercises will be held in the Normal chapel at 10 A. M. The announcement of the program will be made in the next issue of the RECORDER.

Already the number of applicants for rooms in the students' homes exceeds eighty. The assured attendance is much greater than that of last year.

Brethren P. J. Wolfson and B. E. Baldwin called at the Normal to-day. They came to attend the meeting of the Board of Trustees, of which they are members.

A very strong and competent faculty has been chosen. The buildings have been painted, our organization has been strengthened, and greater plans have been laid, all of which will insure, under the blessing of the Lord, a more successful school year than hitherto.

Prof. M. W. Newton and family arrived September 3. Professor Newton will be the director of the department of physical science and mathematics, and Mrs. Newton one of the training-school supervisors. We extend to them a hearty welcome to the land of sunshine.

There have come to us fifty-two calls for Normally trained teachers. All of last year's graduates who do not expect to return have been called to the field to teach. There certainly is great opportunity for our young people to do service for the Master, if they are qualified for this branch of the work. We hope that a large number of our young people will become consecrated teachers, thoroughly trained, that they may help to fill the many calls that are coming in.

The Lord of the harvest is soon coming, and there is a great call for reapers. We solicit the prayers of God's people that the school this coming year may fulfil the Master's purpose.

"The Pastime Saloon"

"Whoever named it named it well," for it is the brilliant lights, the attractive music, and jolly associates that lure the unsuspecting youth to spend a little "pastime" in the gilded palaces of sin. Some one has observed that most young men who fall are ruined after supper. How true! Something for a change after the day's work is done!

How important that our homes be attractive and provide as a pastime something that is pleasant and profitable. What is more enjoyable than reading a good book! While you have been rested and refreshed, you feel that you have gained something of value beside.

To travel with Henry Harper through the land of Palestine, to enjoy with Dr. Reed his bird neighbors, to study with Samuel Zwemer, on the ground, that wonderful phenomenon of history, the rise of Mohammedanism, to review with Elder Loughborough the providences of God in connection with the Advent Message, and to listen to quiet talks by S. D. Gordon on the element of service in the Christian life, are among the pleasures in store for those who choose to spend their spare moments this year in profitable reading.

Have you received from your Missionary Volunteer secretary the Reading Course leaflet yet? The books to be read are as follows:

Missionary Volunteer Reading Course No. 3

1. "Quiet Talks on Service." Cloth, seventy-five cents.
2. "The Moslem World." Cloth, fifty cents; paper, twenty-five.
3. "The Great Second Advent Movement." Cloth, $1.25; paper, fifty cents.

1. "Letters from the Holy Land." Cloth, fifty cents; paper, twenty-five.
2. Three historical books of the Bible.
3. "My Garden Neighbors." Cloth, $1.25.

All of these books may be ordered through your state tract society.

The Field

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Los Angeles Camp-Meeting

The Los Angeles camp-meeting was held August 5 to 15, 1909, according to announcement. The camp was on a beautiful plot of ground in South Hollywood, a suburb of the city. The arrangement of the camp was in perfect order at the time of the beginning of the meeting, which was very commendable on the part of the brethren having that part of the work in hand.

There were over four hundred tents erected, and the camp laid out in an orderly and convenient manner. Besides the large pavilion used for an auditorium for the general public, there were other public places of meeting for the several departments of the work in that field — German, Mexican, young people's, children's Sabbath-school, sanitarium, educational, and publishing.

Elder H. Shultz, of the Northern California Conference, was in charge of the German work. Elders Luther Warren and M. H. St. John, with a competent corps of helpers, were in charge of the young people's department. Miss Jennie Ireland and others had well in hand the Sabbath-school work. In fact, each department was well directed by a competent band of workers.

There were about fifteen hundred people encamped on the ground. There were more than two thousand present at the Sabbath services, being many more than could be accommodated in the large pavilion. The atmosphere was cool, hence the occasion made most pleasant the greater part of the time.

I never attended an annual camp-meeting where our medical people took greater care to see that the camp was in so perfect a sanitary condition throughout the entire period. Not only were things in a sanitary condition, but the tents were kept in a neat, tidy manner.

The dining-parlor was in charge of Brother E. G. Fulton, and was conducted as a cafeteria. An excellent dietary was supplied, and the service gave satisfaction to all.

The large choir of fifty or sixty well-trained voices, under the leadership of Elder M. H. St. John, was an attractive and especially a spiritual adjunct to the daily services. These were supported by a well-directed orchestra. To this part of the worship there were melody and harmony that reminded one of the historic Biblical times.

The services on the first Sunday were devoted to the interest of temperance, the principal speakers being men and women from the city who had been invited in as specialists to speak upon the subject. The second Sunday was devoted to that very practical theme, Liberty. The two Sabbaths of the encampment were devoted especially to the spiritual uplifting of our own people. These were both periods of very manifest presence of the Lord among the people. Hundreds came and bowed themselves humbly at the feet of Jesus, seeking grace and forgiveness of sins from Him. Some had become discouraged and weary of the good, but thorny, way to real life. They found peace in Him. Others for the first time found the peace of Christ. Those were blessed occasions. There were fifty-two baptized, while others will be buried with the Lord by baptism on their return to their home churches.

The ministers and workers from abroad were Elders W. A. Spicer, W. T. Knox, H. Shultz, J. O. Corliss, and A. O. Tait, Sister J. N. Anderson, and the writer, together with all the employees of the local conference, each doing all within his power to render the best possible service to the Lord.

The attendance from without was fairly good. It would have doubtless been greater if we could have been located more nearly to the city proper. Elders McCord and Cardy had preceded the camp-meeting with a short series of meetings in a tent, which, I understand, had awakened a good interest on the part of a goodly number to hear further. These brethren, I believe, are to follow up the interest awakened at the camp-meeting.

About fifteen hundred dollars in cash and pledges were secured to apply on the needs of the Loma Linda Sanitarium work, and a similar amount secured to go to the needs of the foreign missions. The conference contributed also, from its surplus funds, twenty-five hundred dollars to foreign missions. Four hundred dollars were secured in the various public meetings to apply on camp-meeting expenses.

A jubilee service was held in the interest of Fernando Academy to mark the epoch and celebrate the day of its freedom from debt, which was the day of the meeting. I would praise God for many more similar meetings in the interest of the greatest work in the universe. This is a message of freedom. Why should God's cause be bound with debt?

Elder E. E. Andross was elected president of the conference; Frank Lane, secretary and treasurer. Executive committee: E. E. Andross, C. E. Ford, H. G. Lucas, J. A. Burden, J. J. Wessells, E. J. Hibbard, M. H. St. John.

The prospects for the future of the work in the conference are encouraging.

CALIFORNIA

Goldfield, Nevada

The interest aroused by the literature campaign early in the summer has been quite thoroughly followed up with meetings, visiting, Bible-readings, cottage meetings, and other literature, so that we have seen some fruit as the result of our labors, four having been baptized during the month of August and one other uniting with us by former baptism. Still others are keeping the Sabbath and now consider themselves of us, but desire to study further before being taken into membership.

A good, strong Sabbath-school has been organized with an average attendance of thirty, and they have overpledged the rental of a nice, large hall where they will meet each Sabbath.

Quite a number of our books have been placed in the homes of the interested ones, and the special series of the Signs will go into about twenty homes this winter and help to confirm the people in the truth.

Several have expressed a desire to be baptized upon my next visit to Goldfield, so I feel encouraged to expect other fruit than that which we have already seen. I now go to Fallon, Nev., where I expect to labor till the week of prayer.

Remember this desert field in your prayers, that we may be so filled with a love for souls that the Master can use us to search out those who will walk in obedience to His will.

Corcoran and Lemoore

Corcoran is a small, new town surrounded by a dry, parched country, which makes it very hot at this season of the year. Really the San Joaquin Valley is a difficult place in which to work in midsummer. The intense heat drives all who can leave their work to the mountains or coast resorts, and they who are left are so busy that they can hardly attend an evening meeting, therefore our attendance at Corcoran was extremely light. However, we learned another lesson, and that was to stay faithfully by our work and preach and visit all the harder. Some nights we had as many as eight besides our company, while at other times we had two, but we held our meetings just the same, and after three weeks made a clean up and four accepted the truth, three being adults. As Hanford is the nearest church, they were admitted there. Brother J. L. Wood gave us some valuable assistance while at Corcoran.

We are now located at Lemoore, and just held one meeting with about eighty in attendance, of which one third were not of our people. We have learned to appreciate the help of our local brethren, and shall expect some results from Lemoore. There is some opposition on the part of the churches, yet our brethren are anxious to cooperate, and we have the word of God on our side, so it will come out all right.

We ask the readers of the RECORDER to remember the effort now on at Lemoore, and pray for souls to be won to Him who only can save.

St. Helena Sanitarium Siftings

A goodly number from the sanitarium are planning to attend the coming camp-meeting at Fruitvale.

Among those who are away for their annual vacation are the following: Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Whitney, E. F. Stowe, and J. B. Giddings.

Elder F. W. Field spent a few days with his family before leaving them for Japan. His boat, "The China," sailed Friday, September 3.

Elder G. W. Irwin, who is spending a few days with his son, Prof. C. W. Irwin, occupied the pulpit Sabbath morning, his theme being the tithing system.

Much interest and enthusiasm are being manifested by the friends in this vicinity in the new school property. All express complete satisfaction with the work of the committee who have located the "Pacific College" on the beautiful and well-kept farm owned by Mr. Angwin and operated so many years as a summer resort.

As the evenings have grown longer, a new feature has been introduced—that of presenting stereopticon views each Saturday evening. The following topics have thus far been much enjoyed by the entire family:

A Trip Around the World.

Old Testament History.

Life of Christ.

A Trip Through Switzerland.

Scenes in India.

Sabbath afternoon a school rally was held at the chapel at which the following subjects were considered:

1. Church Schools, a paper prepared by Professor Coleord, showing the needs for church schools and their place in the denomination.

2. The Relation between Our Schools and Health Reform, by Dr. Edwards, in which she urged that the health phase of the gospel for this time be made so simple and so practical that even the children can understand it.

3. Why Should We Have Our Denominational Schools, and What Relation Do They Bear to the Third Angel's Message? by Prof. C. W. Irwin. He showed that if we wish our children trained to give this message, they should be trained in the schools that are operated for that very purpose; also that they are the most important institutions we have, because the workers for every line of work must first be educated in our schools. A very large and appreciative audience was present.

Pacific Press Items

Orders for books are still coming in very satisfactorily. As an indication of the way our work is holding up, we call attention to the record of the last seven weeks. During this period nearly thirty-six tons of printed matter have been sent out from our shipping room, or an average of over five tons a week.

A recent order from Peru calls for two thousand copies of our Spanish books, all treating on the life of Christ. This shows how the gospel is going to the people in this difficult field. This order also includes twenty-three thousand copies of our new series of Spanish tracts. We have just forwarded to the workers in Ecuador 36,000 Spanish tracts for free distribution at the exposition to be held in that country. These tracts are furnished by the General Conference, and we look for much good to be accomplished by this "seed sowing."

It is with deep regret that we bid farewell to Brother Max Hill, who leaves this week to take charge of the church school at Sanitarium, Cal. Brother Hill has been a member of the Pacific Press family for more than four years, acting as assistant editor of the Signs of the Times and proof-reading. Our good wishes follow him in his new line of work.

Of Interest to Campers

Word just received from Elder Brorson, who has charge of the preparation of the Fruitvale camp-ground, is to the effect that mattresses can not be secured for the campers without purchasing the same. Hence it will be necessary for each one to bring with him a straw tick unless he cares to purchase a mattress for his own use. We understand that bed springs can be rented, but no mattresses.

Claude Conard, Sec. Cal. Conf.

Reduced Rates to the Fruitvale Camp-Meeting

As generally granted by the different railroad companies, the usual reduced rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip will be in force for the Fruitvale camp-meeting.

The party purchasing tickets for the meeting should ask the agent at the time for a receipt for the fare paid. This receipt, when signed on the camp-ground by the secretary of the meeting, will entitle the holder to purchase return ticket at one-third regular fare.

The railroad companies have given notice that if the party purchasing ticket.

fails to secure receipt for the fare paid, or does not comply with the required conditions, no claims for rebate will be considered by said companies.

Claude Conard,
Sec. Cal. Conf.

A Swedish Temperance Number

We are preparing a temperance number of our Swedish paper, Stons Vaktare, to present the true principles on this important theme. Among other good features will be a translation of the touching temperance story "The Name;" also a good temperance song with music; and articles presenting the terrible prevalence and effects of intemperance not only in regard to strong drinks, but in diet and other habits of life, also articles on the commendable efforts and movements now made for temperance reform. It will be well illustrated and contain diagrams and maps which strikingly present various phases of this subject. The cover will have a beautifully designed front printed in colors. In short, we aim to make it a splendid number well adapted for its purpose.

We feel that this number ought to have a wide circulation, and to this end ask the cooperation of our American brethren and sisters living in communities where there are Swedish people. Since the year of the Review and Herald fire, when our American brethren assisted us in circulating 40,000 copies of a special number of our Swedish paper, we have not made any special appeal to you in this line; but now, when so much stir is made everywhere to promote temperance reform, we would like to have you help us make this effort for our Swedish people a grand success. With your cooperation we feel that at least 50,000 copies ought to be sold in this country. We expect that Sweden and Finland will also assist in this good cause. The thousand workers who now are especially engaged in selling our English periodicals and who doubtless meet many Swedish people could give us a good lift in this effort for temperance, and thus at the same time make our Swedish paper favorably known in this country.

Brethren and sisters, we appeal to you to lend us a helping hand at this time. We shall greatly appreciate anything you can do to give this number a wide cir-ulation. But we ask you to decide quickly how many copies you want, and let us know either directly or through the usual channels before the end of the month, so we may know how large an edition to print.

The terms are: Single copy, 10 cents; 5 copies, 5 cents each; 25 copies, 4 cents; 100 copies, 3¼ cents; 500 copies, 3½ cents; 1,000 copies, 3 cents.

For Sale

A beautiful tract of forty-six and a fraction acres of land, situated near the city of Sonoma, Sonoma Co., Cal., is for sale. This is a level plot of good soil, and most admirably adapted to fruit growing, especially such as cherries, peaches, pears, and grapes.

There are no improvements on the property.

The California Conference bought this land on account of the excellent frontage it gave to the property where we were expecting to locate the conference college. Price, one hundred dollars per acre. The early applicant will be most likely to secure the property.

No one need suggest to a Californian that the price per acre fixed upon this property is very low for valley land.

School of Shorthand and Typewriting

Stenographers are needed in the Lord's work, and at times are doubly welcome. If you are impressed to prepare for this line of work, do not go to worldly schools when you can secure a good preparation in our own schools. Our school has been highly successful in the training of stenographers. The prospects are bright for a large class this fall.

Our System.—The Chartier. The first book contains ten lessons, only forty-six pages. The second book is a dictation manual of two hundred pages. Chartier has no logograms, no contractions, only fifty-three word signs, no omission of vowels or consonants, no prefixes, no suffixes.

Our Graduates.—These are some of our graduates holding good positions:

Miss Vinnolia Earp, stenographer, M. C. Wilcox, Editor Signs of the Times.

Miss Flora Eggers, stenographer, E. E. Andross, President Southern California Conference.

Miss Daisy Coleston, stenographer, H. W. Lindsay, Manager Paradise Valley Sanitarium.

We teach touch typewriting. We require a good elementary education for entrance.

are at least twenty people who are deeply interested. Several of these are keeping the Sabbath and will unite with us. I am confident that ten or twelve will take their stand firmly at this meeting, while other interested ones will come along later. Our collections have passed the forty-dollar mark.

"Elder Nelson leaves for Manitoba in about two weeks."

From Elder J. N. Loughborough's last letter to the office, written at Camp Sound, Yverdone, Switzerland, August 20, we quote: "I am to attend a camp-meeting next week near Nimes, France, after which I hope to return to Great Britain for three general meetings, closing September 28. October 2 I am to sail from Liverpool for New York on the steamer 'Arabic' of the White Star line. They wish me to stop a little while in Washington, D. C. I do not know how long until I shall arrive there.

"I expect to go to California by way of Southern Pacific New Orleans route. After being in about the same as three summers in succession, I deem it best not to cross the United States by any cold northern line. My health is good, thank the Lord. My trip from South Africa (Cape Town to Southampton) of 6,002 miles was a smooth, pleasant one. The Bay of Biscay looked much like an oiled sea.

"I attended a camp-meeting in Yverdone thirteen years ago. Our meetings were held in a fifty foot tent, which was not half full. That meeting was for all France and Switzerland. This camp has fifty tents. The meeting tent, which is 50 x 90 ft., is well filled with our people. The meeting in France will be about the same. There are now over three thousand Sabbath-keepers in France and Switzerland."

Entered as second-class matter July 6, 1906, at the Post-office at Mountain View, California, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1909

Arrangements are being made for Elders C. E. Leland and Fred Brink to answer a call for a series of tent meetings in Lassen County, Cal. They will no doubt open up meetings about the middle of the month.

WANTED.—At Paradise Valley Sanitarium a competent gentleman nurse to give massage and bathroom treatments. Wages, $45 per month, or $30 with board and room. Send recommendation with application to H. W. Lindsay, Paradise Valley Sanitarium, National City, Cal.

Miss Katherine Hale, superintendent of the normal department in Walla Walla College, left Mountain View last week to take up her work for another year. Miss Hale has been at the Pacific Press assisting in the editing of the new Nature Study Series, which is now being published.

Brother C. N. Lake returned to Mountain View last week. For the past seven or eight weeks he has been attending camp-meetings and institutes in the North Pacific Union Conference in the interest of general home missionary work and the sale of the Monthly Signs of the Times. Brother Lake reports some very interesting experiences.

A recent letter from Brother G. A. Hamilton, who is connected in tent meetings with Brother R. S. Fries at Willow, Cal., contains the following: "Our meetings still continue, this being our sixth week. Two have accepted the Sabbath so far, and others seem interested. We are praying for more to uphold the light of present truth in this wicked place."

The Third Annual Announcement of the Central California Intermediate School located at Armona, Cal., is at hand. In this neatly printed booklet are given a brief history of the school, regulations, courses of study, rates of tuition, etc. The school term is announced to open Sept. 27, 1909. For further particulars address Elder B. L. Howe, Armona, Cal.

Sabbath, October 2, is the date set by the General Conference for the offering in all the churches of the United States to help the colored work in the South. We trust that the elders in all the churches throughout the Pacific Union Conference will begin to plan with their members early for this offering, that an abundance of means may be secured to carry on the work in the South.

We learn from communications from the Southern Publishing Association that Elder S. B. Horton, formerly president of the Mississippi Conference, has been appointed circulation manager of the periodical department. Elder Horton has had long experience in the work, and this with his intimate acquaintanceship with the South should make him a valuable worker in his new position.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the California Conference Association of Seventh-day Adventists was held at Sanitarium, Cal., September 1, at which a number of matters of business regarding the new conference college were considered. The date of opening the fall term, general policy, a faculty, and other items of like nature were discussed. A visit was also made by the members to the property, which is situated only a few miles from the Sanitarium.

Christian Education is the name of the new magazine which is being started by the General Conference Educational Department. This paper will fill a long-felt need among our teachers and those who are interested in the education of our children and youth both at home and in our schools. To begin with, the magazine is to be published bimonthly, and the subscription price is 50 cents a year. The first number will be ready to mail within a few days. Order through your tract society.

Announcement has been made by the General Conference that another missionary campaign with the Review and Herald will be inaugurated this fall, beginning November 1. In last year's campaign 700,000 Reviews were printed, and in the distributing of these $43,359.91 had been received up to August 1 of this year. The campaign this fall will begin several weeks earlier than it did last year, and plans are being laid for the printing of 500,000 in the first edition.

Concerning the Utah field, Elder H. G. Huntington writes under date of August 9 as follows: "Our tent meetings in Salt Lake City are just splendid. There

Pacific College

Wednesday, Sept. 29, 1909, is the date that has been decided upon for the opening of our new conference college located eight miles from St. Helena, Cal.

At a meeting last week of the Board of Directors who have the work in charge, Prof. C. W. Irwin was elected president of the college and chairman of the local managing committee. He will make announcement at an early date of the work which will be carried on and the general policy of the school. A small faculty was selected, the names of the members of which will be given out as soon as it is ascertained that they can be secured.

There are sufficient buildings on the premises so that school work can be opened up without further delay from this standpoint, and all the summer's crops of hay and fruit go with the place.

We trust that the name given to the institution, Pacific College, may have its meaning doubly fulfilled in the quietness and peace betokened by the tranquil surroundings as well as in the broad influence which the school shall exert.

Those desiring further particulars should correspond at once with Prof. C. W. Irwin, St. Helena, Cal., Care Pacific College.
