

in missionary endeavor is the thirteenth Sabbath service. Up to the close of 1917 over $505,000 had been given to various mission enterprises as a result of these enthusiastic quarterly services. The offering for the publishing work in China at the close of 1917, alone amounted to more than $42,000.

At the last session of the General Conference this plan was extended to include all the Sabbath schools in the world. Very soon, now, we will reach the close of the second quarter of 1918 and one more opportunity will be offered us to give strength and encouragement to a great, needy, heathen field. The General Conference Committee has asked the Sabbath schools to make a thirteenth Sabbath offering June 29, amounting to $34,000, or more, toward building up the work in Burma, Bengal and South India, including Ceylon. It is in these sin-darkened lands, "Where every prospect pleases and only man is vile," that the third angel's message is winning its way with rapid strides, and men and means must be provided to give the truth to the many who are seeking for light.

"Shall we whose souls are lighted with wisdom from on high, Shall we, to men benighted, the lamp of life deny?"

"Unmistakable evidences point to the nearness of the end. The way must be prepared for the coming of the Prince of Peace. Let not our church-members complain because they are so often called upon to give. What is it that makes the frequent calls a necessity? Is it not the rapid increase of missionary enterprises? Shall we, by refusing to give, retard the growth of these enterprises? Shall we forget that we are laborers together with God? From every church, prayers should ascend to God for an increase of devotion and liberality. My brethren and sisters, do not plead for retrenchment in evangelical work. So long as there are souls to save, our interest in the work of soul-saving is to know no abating. The church can not abridge her task without denying her Master. Not all can go as missionaries to foreign lands, but all can give of their means for the carrying forward of foreign missions."—Vol. 9, pages 55, 56.

Every one familiar with the far-eastern nations realize that what is done to evangelize their teeming millions must be done soon. Mr. John R. Mott, speaking of the Far East, says: "The evangelization of the world in this generation should be a commanding reality in the life of every Christian. Let us keep it as an ideal; and let us translate it into terms of self-denial; for this watchword must be not only regarded as an ideal, but must also be worked out in action. This is a truth, not only to be contemplated, and to stir us, but also to be done. Whether or not the watchword is needed for any other part of the world, it is certainly needed for the Far East, because whatever we wish to do in the Far East must be done in this generation. God help us to work, and so plan, not as though we had two or more generations in which to do the work, but as though we had but one; or, it may be, but part of one."

What we have to do, (and it is a great work), must be done quickly. Let all do their part toward the work in the Far East, Sabbath, June 29.

J. Adams Stevens.

PRESENT STATUS OF OUR $150,000 FUND

to shape business affairs so that the amounts pledged could be paid by the donors into the union conference treasury. Some months ago the union conference financial agent co-operated in the sale of property which enabled one of the three persons to pay her pledge in full.

A brother who became responsible for the payment of another of these five thousand dollar pledges so shaped his business affairs recently that he met his pledge, and the third person who promised a like amount on sale of property, assures us that the Lord is evidently helping her to dispose of land which will enable her to pay the amount named toward liquidating our educational indebtedness.

The recent payment of $5000 by the one party into the fund, combined with the payment of a number of smaller pledges, makes the grand total now collected on our Educational Fund $129,000.

This leaves but $21,000 still to raise to gather the entire amount of the fund, and there are enough unpaid pledges to make up the sum still lacking. We are hoping that many of our faithful people who as yet have not been able to meet their pledges, will be prepared to do so in the near future.

A Letter

Dear Recorder Friends:

Are you interested in the growth and expansion of our schools? Of course you are. Your children or your younger friends are in our schools, and you like to know not only what your child or your friend is doing, but what the school they are attending stands for, and what is being accomplished in that school.

It should be the ambition of every live Seventh-day Adventist young person to complete some course of study in our advanced schools, and thus be fitted to do more and better work, and for this reason we invite you to get acquainted with our school.

The student body of Pacific Union College is an enthusiastic body of young people who are so pleased with their school and the good things they are getting that they wish to tell others about it, and inspire other young people to join them.

Pacific Union College is growing, and the latest thing in school is a school paper. This has been started by the unanimous vote of the students and has the hearty support of the faculty and board. The literary and business end of the paper, which is called "The Mountain Echo," is in the hands of a staff composed entirely of students. This staff has the advice of three members of the faculty and may draw from their store of experience at all times. The financial policy is on a sound basis, and enough money has already been subscribed to insure success of the paper.

"The Mountain Echo" is here to stay. It will visit hundreds of families regularly, and tell them the things they want to know about Pacific Union College. The guaranteed circulation of our paper is well past the six hundred mark. A large percentage was paid before the first issue went to press, and paid subscriptions are steadily coming in. This will give our friends some idea of the enthusiastic way the students are backing up their paper.

Again we invite you to get acquainted with us and with our school because we know you will want your children and younger friends to be here. The best way we have of accomplishing this is through "The Mountain Echo," which will pay you four visits a year for 60 cents. A special summer issue will be out soon, and if your subscription reaches us before August 1, 1918, it will include this first issue. Address all communications to "The Mountain Echo," Pacific Union College, St. Helena, Cal. Russell Wood Starr, Circulation Manager.

"The Mountain Echo"

If you are a loyal Seventh-day Adventist, and of course you are, you are interested in our institutions; and if you are interested in our institutions, you are very much interested in our schools, for they are training our young people to engage in this closing work, of which you are a part; and if you are interested in our schools, you are supremely interested in Pacific Union College, for it is the one institution of higher learning in this union conference; and if you are interested in the college, we know that you will be interested in the newest undertaking of the students. That is what we want to tell you about.

For several years the student body of the college has felt the need of a school paper, to voice the sentiments of the college; to provide an outlet for literary and scientific achievements of the students; to serve as a bond of union between the active students and those who have already left the doors of their Alma Mater; to acquaint the friends of the college with what is happening on Howell Mountain; and to herald the progress, ambitions, hopes, and desires of the students there. So, just before the close of the last semester, the matter was brought to issue, passed on by the faculty, favorably voted upon by the student body, and the result is—"The Mountain Echo," the official organ of the students of Pacific Union College, with an editorial staff and board of managers composed entirely of members of the large college family.

"The Mountain Echo" will be the only satisfactory way of keeping in touch with life on Howell Mountain, as it will endeavor faithfully to echo the spirit of the college and the mountain atmosphere of the campus. As it joins the sisterhood of our denominational school papers, the editorial staff prays that it may accomplish its mission and be one of the instruments in the hands of the Master for producing greater efficiency and co-operation in His work.

Of course you are anxious to know more about our new venture—its size, number of issues per year, subscription rate, etc. "The Mountain Echo" will be a thirty-two page journal, with such departments as Literary, Activities, News, Personals, and Alumni. It will be published quarterly by the College Press and the first number will be ready July 1. However, the first volume will consist of five issues, instead of four. If you want to secure the first number—the special campaign number—and the four following, for the price of four send in your subscription at once to "The Mountain Echo," Pacific Union College, St. Helena, Cal., and your name will be entered upon the mailing list of our new paper. Subscription rates are 60 cents a year for the United States and Canada and 75 cents for foreign countries.

Editor-in-Chief.

Interest in Missions

"I cannot get interested in missions," exclaimed a petulant young lady. "No, dear," said her aunt, "you can hardly expect to. It is just like getting interested in a bank; you have to put in a little something first. And the more you put in—time, or money, or prayer—the more the interest grows. But something you must put in, or you will never have any interest. Try it, and see." —The Bible in All the World.

"A man's life consists not in what he possesses, but in what he becomes."

FIELD TIDINGS

INTER-MOUNTAIN

H. E. Lysinger, Pres. J. H. Weaks, Sec.
122 South 8th St., Grand Junction, Colo.

Gleanings

Elder H. E. Lysinger spent Sabbath and Sunday with the church in Montrose. Six persons were baptized and united with the church.

Be sure and look for the report of the book work in the Inter-Mountain Conference this week. We believe this is the largest that we have had so far. Next week there should be several new names added to the list of workers in this department.

Sister W. A. Shideler made the office a pleasant call on her way from Cisco, Utah, to Gateway, Colorado. Sister Shideler is one of our faithful isolated sisters. The little home school at Cisco had the largest average donation of any school in the conference for last quarter.

Brother F. S. Chollar assisted in the organization of a Sabbath school in Antlers, Colorado. There will be about twenty children and young people in this new school. Miss Grace Myers, who has recently come from Union college, Nebraska, is acting as superintendent.

Elder and Sister C. L. Snodgrass spent a few days in Grand Junction preparing their goods for shipment to Salt Lake City in a few weeks. They report the interest still good at Cedaredge. Brother Chollar is located there now. Elder Snodgrass spoke in the Congregational church at Fruita.

Our people throughout the conference have taken hold of the missions investment pledges quite enthusiastically. The returns from the pledges made should add materially to the missions funds. These pledges covered every line of work, from the setting of eggs, to 5 per cent of a colporteur's income during the year. There may still be others who would wish to join this work. If so let us hear from you.

The first shipment of "World in Perplexity," has been received at the office, and exhausted. Another shipment of 1000 copies is on the way. When this arrives, the balance of the orders on hand will be filled. Do not be discouraged if you have not received your books. They are coming. More than 1200 copies have already been sent into our conference, and we are looking for these to create an interest among your neighbors and friends in the study of the prophecies. Do not neglect the opportunity of using this book now.

Salt Lake City Church Notes

The Sunday evening meetings at the county jail seem to be much appreciated by the prisoners, some of whom are manifesting a real interest in the message.

We are looking forward with no little degree of pleasure to a visit from Elder F. A. Stahl, superintendent of the Lake Titicaca Indian Mission. He plans to reach here tomorrow evening and will remain over Sabbath and Sunday.

Miss Helen Bates is meeting with splendid success in selling the "Current Event" series. She is working for a scholarship and plans to enter one of our training schools in the fall.

Brother Schafer arrived Tuesday from Pacific Union college to engage in the colporteur work, and left the next morning for Tooele, where he will begin his labors. He seemed full of courage in taking up the summer's work, and is counting on many precious experiences. We welcome these brethren who have come to our field to take up the book work, and are praying that the Lord will greatly bless them in getting the truth into the homes of the people.

W. M. Andress.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA

N. P. Neilsen, Pres. G. A. Wheeler, Sec.
Box 1304, Fresno, Cal.

Items of Interest

Elder R. R. Breitigam will spend some time visiting among the churches in the interests of the missionary volunteer department. He will make his headquarters at Fresno and should be addressed at the conference office.

Elder N. P. Neilsen and family left for their new field of labor. The prayers of all our people will follow them as they enter upon their new duties. Let us be faithful in all our service that the Lord may number us in the gathering of His people and partings be forever past.

The newly elected conference committee laid plans for an aggressive evangelistic campaign this summer. Three tent companies will enter the field. Elder F. E. Brown was placed in charge of an effort to be conducted at Tehachapi, Elder Frank Weeks at Arosi, and Brother M. L. Rice and Brother Wm. Miller at Corcoran. A good strong corps of workers will assist these brethren in the different efforts.

NORTHWESTERN CALIFORNIA

J. A. Stevens, Pres. S. Donaldson, Sec.
Box 408, Santa Rosa, Cal.

Items of Interest

Brethren L. L. Moffitt and Alzo Edwards are holding a short series of meetings in the Napa church.

Brother E. E. Beddoe is in Humboldt county assisting Elder J. D. Alder in the work at Blue Lake.

Elder W. A. Johnson, who is again with us for the summer, is doing pastoral work at St. Helena and Vallejo.

Reports from Elder E. A. Brown at Lakeport inform us that the interest is growing there and the workers request the prayers of God's people in behalf of that effort.

Elders M. A. Hollister and A. Nelson have closed the effort at Petaluma. Sister Butcher and Sister Dorward will continue to labor with the interested ones there for a time yet.

Sabbath, June 1, Elder Nelson baptized three dear souls at Vallejo. This is indeed encouraging as the faithfulness of the members at Vallejo helped these candidates take their stand for God.

Brother L. O. Pattison plans on severing his connection with this conference by June 15 in preparation to his leaving for foreign fields. Our prayers go with Brother and Sister Pattison, that in their new field of labor, the richest blessings of our God may be given them in great abundance.

S. Donaldson.

Through the San Fernando Valley

Last Monday the writer, in company with Elder V. H. Lucas, began a tour in the San Fernando Valley.

The first meeting was arranged with the little company at Van Nuys on Tuesday evening. Eighteen assembled at this time to listen to a study given by Elder Lucas, which stirred every heart. Two points were forcibly impressed upon our minds—the solemn times in which we are living, and the absolute necessity of preparation for the crisis just before us, by knowing, understanding and believing God's word.

This little company is desirous of having ministerial help more frequently, so that they may invite interested friends to the services. We trust that their desires will be realized, and that a strong church can be organized at this place. They are working with "Present Truth," endeavoring to place a copy in every home. Their territory has been covered with one number, and another supply ordered. A good supply of "World in Perplexity" was taken to sell and loan.

The church in San Fernando is active in missionary work, distributing "Present Truth," and holding Bible studies with those who have thus been interested in the truth. Our hearts were cheered as we heard Sister McElbany's report of their previous missionary meeting.

The need of more prayer in times of crisis, and a consecration to God for service was Elder Lucas' timely message. May it be the means of encouraging all of us to be more active in the service of God.

Some suggestions were made with reference to the use of our literature. In addition to a supply already ordered, the church placed an order for 164 more copies of a "World in Perplexity," and 12 copies of the "Cross and Its Shadow."

Our isolated members living in this valley are of good courage, and are planning to use freely our heaven-sent literature in giving the truth to their neighbors.

On Thursday evening we met with the members of the Burbank church, and although few in number, they are desirous of doing what they can to hold up the standard of truth, using "Present Truth" and ordering about 40 copies of a "World in Perplexity."

Wherever we meet our people we find them endeavoring to live and give the truth. Most all are planning to attend camp-meeting. Surely we need the spiritual help that we are sure to receive if we come to camp-meeting hoping, working and praying for such blessings.

C. C. Morlan.

"Each one professing the name of Christ is to be an interested worker, ready to define the principles of righteousness."

One Hundred Copies of "Present Truth" and Two Sabbath-keepers

Yes that is the record for Catalina Island. When our campaign with "Present Truth" was launched, we did it with a determination to reach every home in the conference as far as possible.

The following paragraphs are taken from a letter just received from Sister Edmonson, our only member on Catalina Island, who has circulated about one hundred copies of "Present Truth" and some copies of the "Signs":

"I am much pleased to hear of Elder Daniell's new book. If it is the Lord's will I will be in the city next week and will call at the office and purchase a supply of them.

"Just to show you how interested one of my neighbors is, she has invited me to go for an outing this afternoon at Pebble Beach. Her sister and a number of others are to be there so she has asked me to go and take this week's "Signs" and the Bible, and explain this wonderful truth to her sister. So you see we will no doubt enjoy a good Bible study."

Dear reader, are you working as active as this to win souls in your sphere of influence? Let us work while we may. C. C. Morlan.

A Remarkable Day's Work

One hundred and eighty-six copies of the May "Signs Magazine" into as many Kansas City, Missouri, homes in a single day! No, they were not given away; every one of the one hundred and eighty-six were sold. Remarkable, you say. Yes, indeed, it was. And all the more so because the record was made in a residential part of the city. Commenting upon the matter Brother J. R. Ferren, manager of the Kansas City Branch of the Pacific Press, says: "Miss Miller is just a normal young woman, blessed with a pleasant smile, some originality and ability to work fast." A little hasty figuring shows that her profits for the day's work amounted to $14.88. More than some of us can earn in a week. Examine a copy of the June or July "Signs Magazine" and see another reason for Miss Miller's success.

HOME MISSIONARY

"Not a leaf stirs, nor a bit of metal gleams—not a rifle speaks, nor a machine gun rattles out its warning of death—but the sentry is alert to know the meaning and to block the movement. Calm, wakeful, steady, he keeps his eye open toward the enemy's trenches, and his ear open toward his center of command. One hour of sleep, one moment of carelessness, might mean not only death, but disaster to his cause. Eternally vigilant must be the man at the post of observation.

"Liberty is at stake today; liberty to live as free men, liberty to pursue and enjoy happiness, liberty to pray and to teach the truth. Liberty will be maintained not alone on the battlefield. Liberty will live only as it lives in the souls of men. Every soul seduced to the cause of tyranny and evil, every soul shut up in the prison camp of intolerance or passion, is so much gained for the enemy. But every line guarded, every post maintained, is so much of victory for liberty and right.

"Friend, you are assigned to guard duty. So am I. How goes the battle in your sector? Is the front clear? Are your communications intact? Are you awake? Is your soul free in the liberty wherewith Christ makes free? The liberties of men are the liberties borrowed of God. No traitor and no slacker can maintain the front. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty!"—Editorial from the July "Watchman."

The July "Watchman" is a liberty number. "Proclaim liberty to all." Enlist in the army of successful "Watchman" workers. Be a good soldier, earn a scholarship. Get a supply and start a soul-saving business for yourself.

J. A. Stevens.

Ring It Again!

"They'll never do it!" "They'll never do it!"

"Thus spoke the aged statehouse bellman • on July 4, 1776. He had vainly waited the long day through for them to sign the Declaration of Independence but when hope had almost ebbed in his freedom-craving heart, the cry came, 'Ring! Ring! They've signed.' For threescore years it sounded liberty's message from Faneuil's tower; and then, perhaps because America was holding Africa's sons in a death grasp, it was rent in sorrow.

"Voiceless it hangs, yet not voiceless, for its muted tones have lured the shackled of earth to reside beneath its shadow, there to find no caste no barriers, no exclusive line of pedigree and title, no state-enforced religion, no cords entangling the conscience, but instead, all men rated as equal in their inherent rights.

"Today that bell is the symbol for all that unselfish men strive for, and the oppressed of earth earnestly look for us to sound freedom's bond-breaking note through the din of a death strife.

"Will we do it? Will we do it?"—July "Signs Magazine."

Let your answer be "Aye;" let the beautiful "Patriotism" number of the "Signs Magazine," the July issue, "sound freedom's bond-breaking note" everywhere. Join the rapidly growing army of "Signs" workers and learn what soul-winning means. Earn a scholarship this summer. Stirring cover; thrilling contents; order a supply and set your goal high.

J. A. Stevens.

Avoid the Year-End Pressure

In writing to our churches in Kansas Elder F. W. Stray, the conference president, makes an earnest appeal to our people to avoid the usual year-end pressure in reaching the 25 cents a week for missions. He says:

"We all agree with the General Conference in setting a goal of 25 cents a week for missions, and then make no particular effort to reach it until we have rolled up a deficit of thousands of dollars. Then confronted by the alarming figures toward the last of the year, we wake out of sleep, as it were, and make a desperate effort to recover ourselves, and by means of mighty appeals, a few men of means come to the rescue, and we finish the year triumphantly. After the grand finish we return to our homes and put nickels and dimes in the Sabbath school offering, when many of us might be putting in dollars and large bills every Sabbath. And so we continue to carry our money with us until the next annual round-up—the richest conferences in the world,—away in arrears a large part of the year on mission offerings.....

"Coming from the most wonderful of all General Conference sessions, with its soul-compelling message to give freely of our means to missions, I appeal to all our people to determine by God's help to double, to triple and to quadruple our individual Sabbath school donations. Wherever possible, let us put in a dollar, or five or ten dollars every Sabbath. If you have the slightest idea of giving one hundred, or one thousand dollars to missions this year, begin now and week by week put your $2.00 or $20.00 in the envelope, and you will experience a weekly blessing."

The suggestion that Elder Stray makes should appeal to all as a practical way of accomplishing a definite purpose. The reaching of the quarterly goal is the surest, easiest and best way of reaching the yearly goal. We have been instructed through the Spirit of prophecy that there should be regular, systematic giving on the part of every one. The Sabbath school affords a convenient and proper channel for such gifts.

Sabbath School Department.

A dark picture of world conditions is drawn in the introductory part of Elder A. G. Daniels' soul-stirring article that will be one of the July "Signs Magazine" leaders. And the picture is not overdrawn either. But there is a bright side to the picture as well, thank God. This is what makes "Futurity's Darkness Dispelled" such a fit title. Give your imagination free reign in considering these other July features: "Universal Heart Failure," "Prophets Outlawed by Professors," "Spiritism's War Boom." They will be fully up to your expectations and so will the whole magazine from cover to cover. It is being advertised as a patriotic number because the cover editorials, and two or three articles, notably one by M. C. Wilcox entitled, "Columbia, the Pole star of Freedom," are of that character. This issue of the "Signs Magazine" will dispel any wrong notions that your neighbors may have as to your loyalty to our government at this time.

Notice.—The next class of the Loma Linda Nurses' Training Course will begin Aug. 11, 1918. Applicants should not be less than 19 years of age, and have completed ten grades of regular school work. After Sept. 1, 1918, twelve grades will be required for students entering the nurses' course in an accredited school. Write for information and calendar to Superintendent of Nurses, Loma Linda, Cal.

Obituary

Moore.—Master Donovan A. Moore was born June 3, 1908, and died May 18, 1918, in Hollister, Cal., aged 10 years, 11 months and 15 days. His parents, grandparents and one sister are left to mourn their loss, but not as those having no hope. Words of comfort were spoken by Dr. T. F. Thorp.

A. D. Benton.

"Our whole life is but a day repeated."

"Remember that Duty has a twin-sister. Love; these united can accomplish almost everything, but separated, neither is capable of good."

Promise, prayer, performance, are three links in the chain of blessing. If the middle link is missing, we have no right to expect the third.—D. L. Moody.

Loma Linda Commencement

Another class of students has completed the work at the Loma Linda College of Medical Evangelists. It is a class whose members enter upon their chosen work in a day of the world's most pressing need; men and women who have before them the greatest possible opportunity the world has ever offered. The responsibility is tremendous in its scope and in its importance; and as a people we look to the well trained youth in our ranks to get under the burden and serve in the hour of need.

As a fitting theme for such a time, Elder R. S. Owen chose as the text for the baccalaureate sermon for Sabbath, May 25, the sentence quoted by Paul from the prophet of old, "The Just Shall Live by Faith." In an age of doubt and criticism, the counsel he gave is timely; his closing words, if followed, will lead every soul to the greatest degree of success: "Have faith in God."

The commencement address given by Dr. P. T. Magan on the evening of May 30, was a careful and masterful consideration of the world's great need, its demands upon us just now, and the responsibility of all, graduates and their friends alike, to assume the work at hand and carry it forward.

This Memorial day has a three-fold meaning. The first is the great and worthy original idea, remembering the honored dead who gave their lives that men might be free; the second is the special call by our President to sincere fasting and prayer that peace may speedily be seen in the war-torn earth; the third is a local one, important to those present, and fraught with unlimited importance to the graduates if they make the most of their opportunities—the commencement.

The first commemorates a great crisis in our nation's history, successfully passed; the second keeps in mind the serious and thrilling conditions of the world; the third is set forth by the text of Dr. Magan's address—given at the last rather than at the first: "At midnight a cry arose, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him!"

There will be many a midnight before the day of peace, many a trial that will test devotion and loyalty. Before success comes, every one must "go out" to meet the "bridegroom." God never comes all the way with our tasks; we must go out; but when we do go out. He is there to make success sure. To the graduates, Dr. Magan said: "When the dark times come in your lives—the midnights—then go out to meet Him, and He will never disappoint you."

The class roll is as follows:

"We are never to get above the simplicity of work. It is a power in its simplicity. A consistent life, a fervent zeal, meek and quiet spirit, mingled with a heart overflowing with love for perishing souls, is Bible religion."
