San Fernando Academy

A careful survey of the year's work at San Fernando Academy has been made several times, and it can be said that at present we are well up with the work in almost every class. To be sure all has not been done as it would have been under regular conditions; yet we feel that excellent work has been done, and that no one who has tried to the utmost, is crippled for the next year's work on account of this year's breaks due to the influenza epidemic. It has been a real effort, but we are pleased that a good spirit has been manifested by all, and now we see the results of these efforts, in that the work is finished and the school year is not to be lengthened.

The teachers have not only given their time on Sundays to regular school work, but by planning and intensive class work helped materially to accomplish what has been done. The student body has joined in this plan heartily.

The board agreed to require two hours daily for free time for the last three months. This means that every home student has had given to him 36 hours for extra study which is worth to the school $5.40. In other words the school has given to the students over $200 in this way.

Only one public music recital was given this year. This has given many hours to a large percentage of the students for several weeks. And in other ways all has been done to favor the students so the work of the year might be done on schedule time.

The matter of tuition charges was given consideration and it was decided that the students who stayed and completed the year's work, received grades and diplomas, should pay the tuition for the two months when there was no school. This may seem at first thought to be one-sided, but let it be remembered that the teachers were paid, and that all the expenses of the school were the same as if the school were in session. Also assignments were given out and study periods held during the vacation. This is the method pursued generally by the public schools. We understand also that some of our church schools are asking for the tuition for the periods when the schools were closed. A few dollars from each one is not much; but if the school were to stand the whole loss it would amount to a large sum. The room rent loss is a large one; the dining room was run at a loss also; and in other lines the school has had a hard year. So we trust that our good people will come up nobly to our help in the matter of tuition. We believe this is a better plan than to extend the year into the summer, and we know you think so.

The library fund now stands at $497. Over 150 books have been given also. We are very pleased for this response from the business men in San Fernando, and from our people in the field. Now we are using the utmost care to spend the money so it will bring the most and best results. We will always be glad for copies of our denominational books, and works on missions and travel.

A. Earl Hall.

The Blythe Effort

The writer was asked to conduct a series of meetings at Blythe, California. The tent pavilion was erected on Hobson Way, a public thoroughfare near the Blythe hotel and the opening service, March 2, was well attended by people from the town and country districts. Many came in to the meeting from a distance of three to seven miles. There were about 40 who signed the pledge cards to keep all the commandments. As the interest increased, and the time to bind off the work drew near, conditions warranted the conference in sending another minister to aid in further developing the interest, and fostering the work. Elder L. E. Brant, of Redlands, was selected and placed in charge of the work, being assisted by the writer.

The tent was taken down April 20; but to hold the awakened interest and to cement the work, the Liberty Theater auditorium with a seating capacity of 300, was secured for the tri-weekly meetings. The rental of the auditorium was met by public offerings, over $250 being raised in this way. All running expenses were met, including the wage of one worker for two months, and over $50.00 was sent to the conference treasury as surplus receipts.

On May 3 Elder Brant baptized 26 souls, all new believers excepting three. There are others awaiting this rite. During the summer months, Brother Winters will remain in Blythe to follow up the interest and strengthen the work. Elder Brant plans to go to Redlands to head a big tent company. His service at Blythe will long be remembered. The membership of the Sabbath schools has increased 100 per cent, while that of the church has advanced 75 per cent. Plans are being laid to remodel the old church building, or sell and purchase a new location. May the Almighty continue His guiding hand and multiplied blessings on the work at Blythe.

Sydney Scott.

Missionary Volunteer Convention Held at Napa, May 10

On Sabbath, May 10, a missionary volunteer convention was held in the Napa church. A delegation of over 50 was present from neighboring missionary volunteer societies, Vallejo, St. Helena, Sanitarium and Pacific Union College being well represented. The Napa church had made provision for the entertainment of all the delegates over Sabbath, but a number of the visitors brought their own lunches and ate them in Napa's beautiful park.

The evening before Elder G. W. Wells gave a stirring discourse on the topic, "Consecrated to a World Task." This was indeed a fitting prelude to the convention, for missionary volunteers are surely called to a world task and this call is a call to consecration.

Sabbath morning at the eleven o'clock service Elder M. N. Helligso presented the "Missionary Volunteer Movement," calling attention to the place and responsibility of Seventh-day Adventist young people in this hour of opportunity.

At the afternoon session the writer considered the elements of an "Ideal Missionary Volunteer Society." This was followed by a presentation of methods and means of personal work by Elder M. N. Helligso.

But the best wine was served at the last of the feast,—the "Question Box and Round Table." When the box was opened and inverted a shower of questions fell upon the desk. The discussion of these was both interesting and instructive.

Special music was interspersed throughout the day by Elder and Mrs. Helligso and Miss Graff, of the Sanitarium, and Miss Leavitt of Napa, formerly of Oakland.

Many have expressed themselves as to the pleasure and profit of the occasion. We are planning to hold several more in our conference, one probably at Santa Rosa, one at San Jose and one at Oakland.

What She is Doing Others Can Do

One of our sisters felt the call to place the truth before the Spanish-speaking people in her community. (While at one of our schools she had taken one year's work in Spanish.)

She began working among these people with our literature. During the first two hours she took six orders for "Christ Our Saviour," two orders for "Gospel Primer," and sold three copies of "World's Problems" and "World's Hope." Since then she has spent two or three hours each week with equally as good success. Last Monday she went to a near-by town, and within two hours took seven orders for "Coming King" and sold several small books.

This sister has not only sold literature to the Mexican people but has also visited their sick and has helped them in every possible way, with the result that the Mexican colony look upon her as almost God sent.

The hearts of the Spanish-speaking people of this country are now ready for the third angel's message. Who will step into the open doors?

FIELD TIDINGS

INTER-MOUNTAIN

H. E. Lysinger, Pres. S. Donaldson, Sec.
Box 210, Grand Junction, Colo.

News Items

Elder H. E. Lysinger was at Glendale, California, recently, having been called to attend a meeting of the union conference committee. He expects to be absent from the field for about one week.

The "Review and Herald" still continues to be a great strength to those who read its message each week. If you are missing its weekly visits you are missing a source of strength and comfort in your daily life. Subscribe now, price $2.50 per year.

We are glad to notice an increase in our average of offerings to missions during the month of April over what it had been at the close of March of almost three cents per member per Sabbath. We are still seven cents per member per Sabbath short of the conference goal of 25 cents per member. Our tithe shows an increase over the first four months of 1918 of about $450. This should steadily increase as God prospers us.

Last week Brother B. M. Emerson, our Pacific Union Conference auditor, visited us, going over the records of the conference and tract society. While here he visited the Inter-Mountain Academy at Rulison and was much pleased with the future possibilities for the academy. While at Rulison a meeting of the available members of the conference committee was held so that we might have the counsel of Brother Emerson on some matters of importance.

Now is the time for every church to commence its summer's campaign. There is no church in this field but what should actively engage in household work among their neighbors with "Present Truth," "Signs" Weekly or the "Current Event" books. Plan your campaign now; and if you need some help to get started, write to us. Brother J. A. Neilsen, our home missionary secretary, or Elder H. E. Lysinger will be glad to help you get started in a campaign. NOW IS THE ACCEPTED TIME!

Our four colporteurs worked 122 hours securing 71 orders at a value of $354.35 for the week ending May 9. This means that the average per hour per man in book sales for the time worked was 72 1-2 cents an hour. It seems to me that this is pretty good wages for a missionary to be making. Many more of our people should be active in this self-supporting line of missionary endeavor. Drop a line to the office and Brother Meeker, our field secretary, or someone will call on you and help you get started to work. We expect within the next two weeks that there will be not less than ten colporteurs actively engaged spreading the knowledge of the message through the truth-filled books. We know of a number who are going out this summer with the books. Why not you become a member of the advance line? S. Donaldson.

NEVADA MISSION

M. A. Hollister, Supt. J. L. Humbert, Sec.
Box 2072, Reno, Nevada

News Items

Brother J. F. Eads is still doing good work with "Bible Readings" at Westwood. He is also handling "World's Destiny" and other small books.

Elder C. W. Fuller went to Fallon Sunday to attend to a matter of special interest to some of the young people there. Thence he was expecting to visit the believers at Winnemucca for a few days.

Brother H. Lyle Wallace writes that the Fallon brethren have already spoken for six 12x14 and as many 12x17 tents for the camp-meeting and that he expects to see others whom he thinks will come.

Sister Rose Lull reports having recently sold 55 of our small books at Susanville: also of selling 34 "Signs Magazines" at Wendel, Doyle and Red Bluff, while en route from Susanville to Los Molinos, Cal. She also sent in a nice order for "World's Destiny."

Elder M. A. Hollister left for the union conference committee meeting Monday night. The brethren of the Nevada Mission field will be particularly interested to know that the matter of ministerial laborers for our camp-meeting will be considered at this meeting.

Brother B. M. Emerson was with us again Sabbath and until late Sunday night, checking up old records and assisting us in the launching of our new books. We would have been glad if he could have remained longer, but he was obliged to hasten to reach Glendale before the union committee meeting.

J. L. Humbert.

Northern Arizona

Several visits were made along the main line of the Santa Fe in northern Arizona recently, and I found our work making material progress. The Sabbath school at Flagstaff has been resumed again after a long cold winter. Brother and Sister A. E. Horn were taken into the church there last Sunday evening, and Brother Horn was appointed leader of the company. We are glad to have these dear ones make Flagstaff their permanent home. On the same day, May 4, I had the privilege of baptizing a dear sister in the branch of the Little Colorado River, near the town of Winslow. This sister had never heard but one sermon from an Adventist minister, and that was on the day of her baptism. She first became interested in the truth through Brother and Sister Mayers, our faithful colporteurs, last fall; then Sister Wheeler-Bickle and others met her, and fully established her in the message.

On my return home I called on our dear brethren who recently embraced the truth at Government Prairie. While almost entirely snowbound most of the winter, yet their hearts were rejoiced to see one precious soul accept the message. This good brother, who is quite well along in years, expects to be at our state camp-meeting. It is his plan to then make his home with his two sisters in the city of Tempe, with the fond hope of bringing them into this glorious truth.

We can readily see that those who find this great saving message join in our ranks to herald it to those they love.

Financial Progress

It will be an encouragement and of interest to our people to know something of the progress of the work in this conference for the first four months of this year along financial lines. God has been good to His people; the work has opened up nicely, and we have every reason to sound a note of encouragement. We are very glad to be able to report a gain in the amount of tithe and offerings received the first four months of this year over the amounts received in 1918 for the same time. This is the way it should be. Let us continue the good work.

We are very anxious that the month of May shall be one of the banner months of the year, and I am sure that with a united effort it can be so. A five months' report ending with May 31, will be presented at our next camp-meeting. We hope that all will be prompt in sending in their tithe and offerings at the close of this month.

Colporteur News

The colporteurs in the Northern California Conference have had great success in the past few months. Many have felt the call of God to enter the work, realizing that we are in the time of the "latter rain," and that there never was a better time to circulate the printed page than the present time of peace.

Our sales the past four months have increased in a way that gives us all a courageous spirit to press forward to the limit of our strength. Our records show that these faithful workers have sold $1800 more worth of books this year than last year in the same length of time. In territory where it has been hard to secure orders a few years ago, to-day, the sales are going forward by leaps and bounds. The three Strever brethren have sold in and around Turlock over $1,000 worth of books, and the best part of it is that they deliver almost 100 per cent. Where they have lost a few conditional orders they have sold for cash at time of delivery more than enough to make up the difference. One Catholic family did not know whether best to take the book until they had learned if any one knew they were getting it. When Harold Strever informed them to the contrary, they gladly took the book, stating that there were things in it they wanted to know, and that they could not find out in any other way. Others have been warned not to get the books that these brethren are selling, but it only creates a greater interest. They find souls looking for them and they purchase the book to see what it teaches.

Fred E. Meisner is having a wonderful success in the Patterson section. He sold six "Great Controversy" in succession without missing a house.

There are a number of strong men and women who are planning to enter the work following the camp-meeting. We believe God is speaking to many hearts just now to join the colporteurs' band at the camp-meeting. Plan, work, and pray to this end, and come to this meeting saying, "Here am I, send me."

E. H. Abbott.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA

H. S. Shaw, Pres. W. F. Field, Sec.
Box 1304, Fresno, Cal.

Our Camp Meeting

The Central California Conference camp-meeting will be held at Mooney's Grove, near Visalia, beginning May 29 and continuing until June 8. This grove is a beautiful spot for such a meeting, being well shaded with large oaks, and having fine water, sufficient to supply the camp. It is located also on one of the main highways, being easily accessible by automobile from all parts of the country round about.

We purpose to make this meeting one of the best we have ever held in this conference, as far as lies in our power. Good help will be present from the General and Pacific Union Conferences, as well as from our own home field. We are living in a time, brethren, when we need all the help we can receive from getting together in convocations like this. Only a few more years, and such occasions will doubtless be compelled to cease. Conditions are gathering about us which prove that the liberties we have so long enjoyed are fast drawing to a close. Certainly, we can see signs that this generation is rapidly nearing a crisis. Those who have long expected to see the Master coming, will have their hopes soon realized, and the trials they have been passing through will only make heaven sweeter when Jesus comes.

Beloved, do not allow anything of an ordinary nature to prevent you from attending this meeting. Bring your children; place them in the way of blessing of God; pray that God will help you in this untoward generation, that your children as well as yourself may be saved in the kingdom. We shall expect to see you. We know you are interested in the finishing of this great work and will not allow yourselves to be kept away from this means which God has ordained for the help and blessing of His people.

H. S. Shaw.

Conference News

Elder G. A. Grauer reports the baptism of five believers at Barstow Colony last Sabbath, May 10.

Glenn Morton has definitely decided to enter the colporteur work and will canvass for "Our Day."

Miss Emma Hansen has just finished a very successful delivery for "Practical Guide" in Coalinga and vicinity.

Brother A. H. Ramsay has been delivering "Great Controversy" and "Our Day" among the colored people of this conference.

The pitching of the camp for our camp-meeting will begin Monday, May 19, at Mooney's Grove. They are starting thus early in order to have things ready in time for the first meeting, May 29.

Elder R. R. Breitigam, Elder Frank Weeks and Brother M. L. Rice were in the office during the week and report the good success of their efforts. They are planning to bind off the interest in preparation for camp-meeting.

The cantata, "David, the Shepherd Boy," will be rendered May 25 at 8:00 P. M., by the Fresno church school and church choir as the closing exercises of the school. Those living near enough are cordially invited to be present. May 16.

Pencilgrams

We are very sorry to report that Brother Ralph Chapman has had to give up his school work at Hanford on account of sickness. There are less than two weeks remaining and Mrs. Alice Castleman has been secured to give the final work in examinations. We pray for a speedy recovery for Brother Chapman. His work has proved very satisfactory both in school and in the young people's work, of which he was leader.

Miss Borland closed her school at Caplin, May 8. The children gave a creditable exhibition the last evening, and a certificate from the eighth grade was presented to Wenona Schlotthauer. Alonzo Neufeld only lacked one subject of finishing the eighth grade course. The patrons are well pleased with Miss Borland's work and offered her the school for the third year, but she desires a change. Miss Ruth Braymer will teach the school next year.

The old school property in Fresno has been sold, and plans are being laid to raise the necessary funds at once to commence the new building. Many years ago the servant of the Lord said this would always be an important center for our work, and with the large church, we need good facilities for the many children within our borders. This year 128 pupils were enrolled, and more would have attended if the school had been nearer a car line. The new building is near the car line and we hope to have an enrollment of at least 150 next year.

School and Conference Notes

The Redlands school continues to grow. Plans are being made to enlarge the school building in order to carry ten grades of work. Miss Alma Fink and Miss Vesta Fink have been asked to remain for next year's work.

The patrons of the Santa Ana school made the teacher, Sister Clara Winterton, and the children very happy recently by purchasing a fine globe and a set of maps. They plan to take good care of these splendid helps, of which they are justly proud.

A busy company of children under the direction of Mrs. Mae Adams, at Garden Grove, are trying hard to complete the year's work, though they lost three months time. Their missionary meeting is an interesting occasion, and they are raising a fund to help on the financial goal for South Africa.

The Ontario school is one of the most comfortable in the conference,—well lighted and ventilated, with an ideal heating system. Full equipment is being supplied. All of these things react upon the children of the school; they do better work, and with a better spirit. Miss Anna Jensen has given the children thorough instruction.

Brother V. E. Peugh, home missionary secretary for the conference, recently spent a busy week in Imperial Valley in the interests of home missionary work. Church shelves were cleared of papers, books and Harvest Ingathering literature. The twenty-five-cent books, "Marked Bibles," and "The Neighborhood Transformer," are being sold. Many natives of India live in the valley, and these are to be supplied with literature in their own language.

Three home missionary conventions have been conducted by Elder J. A. Stevens and Brother V. E. Peugh. These were held at Ontario, Santa Ana and Anaheim. Sincere interest has been manifest in all of these churches, as the plans and materials for active home missionary work have been presented. Elder J. L. McElhany was present at the first two conventions, presenting God's program for the church to-day. Plans are being made for conventions in other churches, that the entire membership may be trained and inspired for the rapid finishing of the gospel message.

Max Hill.

San Diego

The brethren and sisters throughout the union conference are watching with interest the progress of the work in this field. For two years and a half the writer has been laboring at San Diego, the largest city in the Southeastern California Conference. We have two strong churches in this city, whose members are always ready to co-operate in every good work, and united heartily with us in our missionary endeavors to get the truth before the people.

Since my last report to the "Recorder," we have had two baptismal services, and twelve adults were added to the church. We are truly grateful to the Lord for the success that has attended the little company of workers at San Diego. The two churches are filled to overflowing, and plans for enlargement are being considered by the University Heights church. Aggressive plans for the work in this city are in operation, under new leadership, and we know that the Lord will bless every effort and every sacrifice made for the salvation of perishing souls. San Diego is a splendid field in which to labor, as the Lord has opened the hearts of many to receive the truth.

Now as I have been transferred to the California Conference, and have located at San Jose, the beautiful little town in the Santa Clara Valley, and have commenced my labors here, I earnestly request the prayers of God's people in behalf of the work, as this is a strong Catholic center; but we trust there are still honest hearts who are seeking for light and truth, and we want to reach them with this message before it is too late.

C. F. Folkenberg.

BOOK WORK

The College Institute

The outlook for the colporteur work in the Pacific Union Conference is now much better than it has been for several years, or really in any previous year, as the report for the first four months of this year shows a gain on book sales of more than eight thousand dollars over last year.

The prospect has been still further brightened by the colporteurs' institute which was held at Pacific Union College. A picture of this band of workers is shown in this issue. The numbers were not large, but what the band lacked in this respect was made up by its earnestness, determination, and faithfulness in attending the institute classes. There were 20 in the class,—three young ladies and 17 young men, and their courage and faith is shown by the fact that in our closing meeting they set their goal for $20,000 worth of books to be sold during vacation.

The books selected were "Great Controversy," "Daniel and Revelation," "Practical Guide" and "Bible Readings," the larger classes being on "Great Controversy" and "Practical Guide." It was felt that these large books have a message that the people need especially at the present time, and it is the desire of these young people to help bring this message as quickly as possible to the people. There were three in attendance from outside the school, and we were favored with a number of visits by our veteran colporteur, Brother Walter Harper.

The work of giving the instruction was shared by the field secretaries of the five conferences in California,—Brethren E. H. Abbott, N. H. Conway, C. L. Davis, V. L. Beecham, L. A. Reynolds, and the writer. Elder G. W. Wells was also with us for the first two days and gave splendid help in getting the band organized.

We greatly appreciated the co-operation and assistance of the faculty, who did everything possible to help make the institute a success, and urged the young people to attend, and to enter this work, even though their help is needed on the school farm this summer. It was recognized that an experience in this line has great educational value, and from that standpoint alone is worth more to these young people than the effort required to gain it. I feel certain that, with the help of the Lord, these young workers will give a good account of themselves in the field this summer. F. E. Painter.

July "Signs Magazine"

The cover pictures Uncle Sam as a school master with a class of immigrant children before him instructing them in the fundamentals of democracy. The cover compels the interest by magnetizing the eye. It tells the story of the millions the world over who have stepped out from ignorance, subservience, oppression, and who are looking to America as the pole star of freedom.

Two articles, "America, the World's Burden Bearer and Civilization's Last Straw" tell why America has come into leadership in such a time as this, the work that faces her and the ultimate outcome.

Other contributions which contain

Wanted.—Homes for 3 motherless children; one girl 6½ years old; one boy 5½; one boy 2 years old. Anyone who wants to adopt a good, healthy child, please write to Gustof Fresk, Box 155, Tulare, Calif. 2t

A splendid home at a bargain. Write for particulars to R. Keller, Canby, Ore.

The Nurses' Course in the Loma Linda Training School will begin August 17, 1919. The White Memorial Hospital in Los Angeles is the Clinical Hospital for the Loma Linda Medical College, and student nurses spend a portion of their time in training there.

By an action of the State Board of Health which was intended to become effective September 1, 1918, it was required that students entering the nurses' course in an accredited school should have completed twelve grades of regular school work. However, conditions brought into existence by the war caused a temporary revision in this requirement and provision has been made by the State whereby students having less than twelve grades may still enter accredited training schools. Write for information and calendar to Superintendent of Nurses, Loma Linda, Cal.

THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1919

The union conference committee held a meeting in Glendale Wednesday and Thursday of last week studying important matters and planning for the future work in this union.

From a letter just received from the General Conference office we learn arrangements have been made for Elders F. C. Gilbert and W. W. Eastman to attend the earlier meetings in this union.

We are pleased to announce that Prof. W. W. Ruble, of the Central Union Conference, has accepted an invitation to connect with the Pacific Union Conference as young people's secretary. Professor Ruble has had a wide experience in this line of work having served as union young people's secretary of the Northern and Central Union Conferences.

Loma Linda Jubilee Campaign

The Loma Linda Jubilee campaign for a new water system and dietetic laboratory is on in earnest. The sanitarium workers, medical students and members of the Loma Linda church have organized themselves into 12 teams, and have pledged to raise $16,500, which amount has, for convenience, been divided into shares.

Not all the teams have been heard from, but thus far the village team is in the lead, having disposed of ten shares. The culinary team is not far behind. The first year nurses are setting a splendid example of sacrifice by pledging two days' salary a month for five months. There are 20 in the class, so this will mean quite a tidy sum. We are uniting our little sums with the bits, big and little, that we gather from our friends and relatives, and the campaign is uniting our hearts in the great work the Lord has established at Loma Linda.

Arthur N. Donaldson, M.D.

Our people in the California and Southern California Conferences should take note of the change in camp-meeting dates. Owing to the fact that a Bible conference is to be held in the Central West July 1 to 21, and that a Bible and history teachers' council is to follow, from July 21 to August 10, and that during July it will be practically impossible to secure the attendance of any General Conference workers at camp-meetings in California, it was decided by the Pacific Union Conference committee at a meeting held last week that it would be better to hold the California Conference camp-meeting August 7 to 17, instead of July 3 to 13. It was also thought advisable to hold the Southern California camp-meeting August 18 to 31, instead of September 4 to 14 as previously arranged. We give on this page a complete list of the revised dates.
