EXTENDING THE "RIGHT ARM"

In a land where hospitals, dispensaries, and medical clinics have been multiplied and where skilled medical service is quickly available, it is difficult to conceive of large and densely populated sections of earth where skilled medical assistance is unknown and where the only available help in sickness or accident is the quackery of the witch doctor.

Dr. J. N. Andrews, who has been for some years operating a dispensary at Tatsienlu, away on the borders of Tibet, tells of patients who have come thirteen days' journey for medical help. They have had 9,000 patient visits during the past year. The need of additional workers is most forcefully impressed by the fact that during the year the Doctor and his family were away on their much-needed furlough the "dispensary doors were locked and the windows boarded up." This was made necessary because there was no worker who might be left in charge of the work during the Doctor's absence.

In a recent letter, Elder W. H. Branson speaks of having traveled over hundreds of miles of African territory inhabited by tribes numbering millions, where a physician has never made a footprint. Think of having to send 300 miles for a physician to attend the wife of one of our missionaries who had been stricken with the dread black-water fever, and then of having to repeat this long journey in order to return the physician to his home. In the Belgian Congo and Angola there are 25,000,000 people who are practically without medical facilities. A physician has recently been placed under appointment to each of these fields, but their arms must be lengthened and strengthened by the provision of simple dispensary equipment and medical supplies. They are looking to the Big Week medical extension effort for assistance in providing this equipment.

A Dispensary for the Yaqui Indians

On the northwest coast of Mexico, in the state of Sonora, there are a large number of Indians belonging to the Yaqui tribe. In response to a request of one of the Yaqui chiefs, Pastor C. E. Moon recently visited these people. He writes:

"A few months ago a Yaqui chief wrote to our Mexican office asking that we do something for his people, and when he heard a few days ago that I was going to visit his people, and knowing of a certain uprising among his people, he wrote to me and offered to protect me on my trip. It so passed that I did not get his letter nor a telegram from my wife, so I made the visit that I had planned.

"We find that there are several Yaqui people already reaching out for the Word of God and interested to know the truth. One man in the village of Petahaya is asking for a Bible in the Spanish language. Brother Isaac Cruz, our veteran colporteur, has been placing our literature all through this district. This coming year we are expecting to place medical missionary workers in this part of Mexico.

"Near the town of Navajoa there are thirty small towns and villages of the Mayo Indians, all within a day's travel from the town. The medical worker is the one fitted to take the glad tidings to these people, and no doubt through God's blessing there will be a system of schools and mission stations all over this great Indian district from which there will come forth many who, with God's people from every kindred, tongue, and people, will sing the song of victory over sin. We ask the prayers of God's people for the Indians of Mexico."

It is earnestly hoped that the provisional appropriation of $1,500 for establishing a dispensary among these Indians will be made available by the Big Week offering.

Back Veranda Dispensaries

Under this heading the following word comes from the Solomon Islands:

"In heathen lands the messenger does not need to wait until he has obtained a command of the language of the people before he begins his ministry of love for the sick, nor does he need a well-equipped dispensary at hand to relieve suffering.

"In the Solomon Islands the back veranda of the missionary's home usually serves as the dispensary. All day long, and often at night, the natives come to the veranda asking us for help in their ailments. Mothers with their babies tied on their backs come seeking help for the little ones passing through the teething stage, or for a child which may be covered with yaws or some other unsightly tropical disease. Many come to the veranda dispensary with various skin diseases, sore eyes, colds, and huge tropical ulcers, etc. All these must be carefully treated, for the sufferer has turned from his old 'medicine man,' and is trying his faith in the white man's God and the help of His servants.

"A short time ago a young man was carried some distance on a rough stretcher and set down on our veranda. He was sick and frightened and presented a pitiable sight. The night before he had been playing with a dynamite cap near a lamp, when it exploded, shattering his hand; he had lost part of three fingers. After using a few basins of warm water and disinfectant and clipping away the shattered bones, comfortable dressings were applied and he was soon ready for a little food and drink. He was then removed to one of the houses to remain a few weeks until his hand was healed.

"We have often been called on to dress large, ugly wounds caused by a bite from a shark or an alligator. With immediate attention these wounds have healed wonderfully.

"While we speak of those who come to us, yet there are those who cannot come, so it is necessary to carry the 'medicine bag' to them. While medicines and dressings, and other equipment are very necessary in helping the sick, yet there is another remedy that is essential also in all places, be it back veranda, native village, or on the mountain top, and that is the simple, trusting prayer to God for His help in all cases."

Among the medical missionary enterprises which are to be benefited by the Big Week missions fund, is the Soonan Dispensary-Hospital, in Korea, which is to receive $4,500 for the provision of X-Ray equipment, a simple lighting plant, and a little chapel. Also the Yencheng Hospital, in Central China, which has been operating these years without a lighting and heating plant, is to receive $3,000 for the purchase and installation of this necessary equipment.

About a year ago Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Gardner opened a little dispensary in Penang, Malay Straits Settlements. Although they had to start work from the very bottom, this work has in so short a time become self-supporting. They are greatly in need of facilities and additional equipment. Anticipating good returns from the Big Week effort, $2,500 has been appropriated for this work.

A Training School for Medical Missionaries in China

Those who are best acquainted with the problem of evangelizing China's millions feel that a great opportunity is presented to the medical missionary. It is conceded that the native worker has a great advantage in that he knows the language and customs of the people. A plan is on foot to construct a small sanitarium in Shanghai and to operate in connection with this institution a school for the training of Chinese medical missionary workers. It is earnestly hoped the Big Week Missions Extension Fund for 1926 will also make available for this enterprise the $10,000 which has been provisionally appropriated. We are depending upon the loyalty, faithfulness, and earnest co-operation of all our members in the home field to provide during this special effort, April 24-May 1, the sum of $32,124, which will make available the budget appropriations and will greatly lengthen and strengthen the "right arm." #### NORTHERN CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE BEGINS RELIEF CAMPAIGN

Sabbath, March 27, Elder W. M. Adams, accompanied by the writer and his family and Mrs. Roth, visited the Sonora church. The Sabbath school and other services were held in the home of Brother T. L. Sory at Jamestown, with 19 present.

In connection with the preaching service at eleven o'clock, Brother Sory, who had been chosen elder of the Sonora church, was ordained. After a very stirring sermon by Elder Adams on the solemnity of the times in which we are living, and the importance of making our calling and election sure, nearly all present joined heartily in a testimony meeting.

The privilege of celebrating the quarterly services in the afternoon was greatly appreciated by all, particularly the isolated members who had come many miles over those mountainous roads to enjoy this spiritual feast with the Sonora members.

After vesper services at the closing of the Sabbath, a stereopticon lecture was given by Elder Adams on the relief books, "Ministry of Healing" and "Christ's Object Lessons." In concluding the lecture, he said: "The campaign starts here at Sonora, but it does not end here. We hope you will be among the first to take your quota." And they were; for a number equal to one "Ministry of Healing" and one "Christ's Object Lessons" for every member of the Sonora church was quickly subscribed for. Is not this a most worthy example set by our sister church?

This is the beginning of the relief campaign in the Northern California Conference. Each church will be visited, giving every member a chance to do his part. Remember, you are asked to sell only two books, the proceeds to be used in sanitarium and educational relief. And the Lord tells us through the Spirit of Prophecy that "those who refuse to work will be called to account for unfulfilled duties." Let us pray that as this campaign is taken up in our church, each one of us will be prepared to do our share in this important work. O. B. Stevens.

LODI ACADEMY AND NORMAL

"Not to be ministered unto, but to minister," was the keynote of the missionary volunteer program given March 31 in the chapel. Various phases and examples of worthy service were ably presented in recitation, story, and inspirational talks. The missionary volunteer work is growing in interest.

On Sunday evening the Aelian Club and the Men's Chorus gave an hour of sacred music at the Congregational church of Lodi. Mr. Greer and his singers are much appreciated by the pastor and the congregation of this church, as well as by many others who attended and enjoyed this service of song.

The business manager smiles through his troubles when he looks at those long rows of fine, flourishing peas which will soon be ready for the table. Then those acres of luxuriant alfalfa, just ready to mow, are good for tired nerves. And the almost continuous cackle of those lively young pullets is soothing music in the ear. By the way, he is training Benjamin, the milker, to sing to the cows, for he says the charm of music is effective in producing a greater flow of milk.

While the Week of Prayer closed with the meetings on the Sabbath, March 27, the good influence of its studies and personal work and prayers will remain. On Wednesday and Thursday evenings, separate meetings were held for the young men and the young women, both groups greatly enjoying the helpful talks of Elders Meade MacGuire and H. U. Stevens. The shout of victory heard at the Friday vesper service came as the result of careful study during the week of principles of the victorious and fully consecrated life. Young people of the Lodi churches, as well as the students of the academy, took advantage of these special meetings. Elder Stevens spoke to the German congregation on Sabbath, and Elder MacGuire to the English. In the afternoon, the missionary volunteer society of the English church, with many others who attended, listened with interest to Elder Stevens' account of the work with the Indians of South America. The hearts of the students and the teachers are with these brethren in their labors for the youth.

Byron Olsen has had exclusive possession of the hospital for the past two weeks. Too long and too strenuous hours call for a halt and a rest. The nurse promises that he may be back at his work soon.

Alaska, with its beauties, its people, and its opportunities, was pictured and described by Elder T. H. Watson on the evening of March 27. After several years of evangelistic and school work in our northland, Elder Watson is enthusiastic over its opportunities as a mission field. His stereopticon pictures and his message are a call to labor in this and other needy places in the world's harvest field. Max Hill.

NEWS ITEMS

Elder A. B. Huenergardt is attending the colporteurs' institute at Pacific Union College this week in the endeavor of securing some colporteurs for this field this summer.

Elder V. E. Peugh is visiting the church at Fallon this week, while Mrs. Peugh, the educational superintendent, is visiting the church school at this place. They will also visit the Standish church and church school before returning to Reno.

Elder David Voth, in a recent trip to the Nevada Conference, visited the churches at Reno, Fallon, Standish, Westwood and Indian Valley, giving inspirational talks and stereopticon lectures in each church. He was accompanied by Elders Peugh and Huenergardt and found ready response. We appreciate the visits of our union brethren and feel that they help greatly in the advancement of our work in this field.

Elder Rosario Calderone, Italian worker from New York City, has been spending a few days with the Italian people of Reno. His stereopticon lectures were very inspiring, and the expressions heard from many indicate their interest in the message for this time. Elder Calderone's singing was also greatly appreciated and enjoyed. We wish it might be possible for him to spend several weeks with the 2,000 Italians who live in this vicinity.

SHAFTER

A week ago witnessed a splendid revival at Shafter during the spring Week of Prayer. That a better understanding of the last great conflict of the church might be obtained and stability given to many who but faintly grasped the vision, illustrated studies in Daniel and Revelation were conducted in the evenings. The attendance was splendid. Three who were strangers gave their lives to the Master; three others of Adventist families also desire baptism.

During the day, meetings were held in the school. Following these meetings many of the students sought personal visits to study the victorious life and the subject of baptism. The interest will be followed up and many, with others who have been planning on baptism for some time, will join the ranks soon.

T. M. Beem.

A certain Sabbath school member rather dreaded the approach of the recent thirteenth Sabbath, as she had no dollar for the offering and knew of no way to get one. While she was thinking about it the junkman called. "No, there is nothing here," was her answer. He was persistent, asking for wornout overalls, torn sacks, anything; and asked permission to look around the yard and barn. While he went on his search, our sister remembered an accumulation of rags and some overalls and gathered them up. He found some things he wanted, worthless to the household. When he paid for the "junk," he paid a little more than three dollars. Needless to say, it was a very happy woman who placed her offering in the envelope last Sabbath.

Mr. W. F. Rudy of Miramonte was a pleasant caller at the office last Tuesday. While in the office we were glad to have his renewal to the "REVIEW AND HERALD" and "LIFE AND HEALTH."

Elder W. C. White made the office family a pleasant visit one day last week. At the worship hour, Elder White related some interesting experiences concerning the work. Come again, Elder White, and stay longer.

Elders Grauer and Wheeler, and Brother C. C. Mattison spent a day in the mountains in quest of a place to hold our camp meeting. Their report will come later.

We received a letter from one of the brethren in our conference who is not able to get out and spend time doing missionary work such as he would like to do. In place of that he sends in money for ten subscriptions to the "SIGNS OF THE TIMES" for one year. We appreciate this kind of home missionary work.

"REVIEW AND HERALD" subscriptions are coming in very nicely, and we are glad to see so many of our people taking advantage of the $3.00 rate on the "REVIEW" and "LIFE AND HEALTH." A large percentage of the subscribers are using this combination order. You better make sure that your subscription goes well beyond the time of the coming General Conference.

THE PRINTING PRESS A DIVINE PROVISION

The printing press is one of the modern inventions ordained of God for the finishing of His work. In every great religious movement in the annals of Biblical history God has always provided the facilities necessary for the accomplishment of His purpose.

In this connection we are reminded of the experience of Martin Luther in the early days of the Reformation, when he nailed his famous ninety-five theses to the church door at Wittenburg, setting in operation the greatest religious movement of the Middle Ages.

He had a message for the world; and God provided the facilities for the proclamation of that message. Luther recognized in the invention of printing one of the greatest means provided of God for the prosecution of his work, and published his message in leaflet form which was circulated in practically every country in Europe, with the result that in a little while the power of Rome was tottering beneath the mighty force of the Reformation.

Speaking of this agency as a power in the work of the Reformation, Luther said, "Printing is the latest and greatest gift by which God enables us to advance the things of the gospel."

To us has been given the finishing of the work started by Luther and his associates, and if we would successfully finish this task, we must utilize to the fullest extent of our ability this wonderful invention which God has given to us, by scattering the printed page like the leaves of autumn.

The servant of God has given us much instruction along this line, emphasizing over and over again the importance of circulating the printed page everywhere to bring lost men and women in touch with the saving message.

In Volume 9, pages 61 and 62, we read: "The world is to receive the light of truth through an evangelizing ministry of the Word in our books and periodicals. . . . Let us now, by the wise use of periodicals and books, preach the Word with determined energy, that the world may understand the message that Christ gave to John on the Isle of Patmos."

"God has ordained the canvassing work as a means of presenting before the people the light contained in our books, and canvassers should be impressed with the importance of bringing before the world as fast as possible the books necessary for their spiritual education and enlightenment. This is the very work the Lord would have His people do at this time."—"Colporteur Evangelist," p. 5.

"There is no higher work than evangelistic canvassing; for it involves the performance of the highest moral duties. Those who engage in this work need always to be under the control of the Spirit of God. . . . If we obey His voice, He will work with us, and our efforts will be crowned with success. . . . If we make no effort to win souls to Christ, we shall be held responsible for the work we might have done, but did not do because of our spiritual indolence."—Id. p. 25.

Do colporteurs need instruction and training before entering this important branch of the Lord's work, and from what class should we draw largely for this work? Again on pages 22 and 23 of "Colporteur Evangelist" we read: "Canvassers are to be educated and trained to do the work required in selling the books upon present truth which the people need. There is need of men of deep Christian experience, men of well balanced minds, strong, well educated men, to engage in this work."

For the instruction and training of colporteurs, an institute will be held in connection with the Arizona Academy, May 1-10, and it is hoped that a number of substantial workers may be in attendance and develop into faithful colporteurs to carry the printed page to the people of Arizona.

Elder J. H. McEachern, field missionary secretary of Pacific Union Conference, will be with us. Any one desiring to attend this institute with the definite object in view of entering the colporteur work will please correspond with J. L. Sauder, Field Missionary Secretary, Box 1359, Phoenix, Arizona.

PRAYER OFFERED FOR COLPORTEUR

A few days ago while out with one of our colporteurs in San Diego we had a very interesting experience. We were calling at a home in the interest of health work, selling "Home Physician." From the looks of the mottoes on the wall and Bibles on the stand, we were satisfied that this was a Christian home. In a home of this kind, without letting them know, except in an indirect way that we, too, are endeavoring to follow the Master, we gave an exhibition of the book.

As the man and his wife had recently become interested in one of the popular religions of the day, they had no use for a health book. We took notice that our friends had recently been to see a dentist and took occasion to call their attention to the fact that there are times when it seemed fitting to counsel with doctors, and that the counsel of doctors other than dentists is just as essential.

As we paused a few moments before leaving this home we asked if we might not have a word of prayer, to which they gladly consented. After we had each prayed, the husband and wife prayed. How we wished that every Seventh-day Adventist might have heard the prayers of these dear people: "Oh, God, we thank Thee for sending these people here to-day. Bless them, dear Lord, as they go from home to home giving their message of hope and cheer." Although we did not receive an order at this home, we left it with a deeper feeling of the sacred responsibility that rests upon the evangelistic colporteur. Homes are being opened for Bible studies by our colporteurs. Although our sales do not run as high as we would wish to see, yet we thank God from the depths of our hearts for a humble part in giving the third angel's message through the printed page from door to door.

Elder F. H. Westphal baptized two members into the Mexican church on Sabbath, March 27. This brings the total of those baptized during the past year up to 15. We are glad to see our Mexican church advancing.

Almost the entire list of conference workers, with their families, joined in a surprise gathering in honor of our president, Elder O. O. Bernstein, and his family. About 80 sat at table in the patients' dining room of our beautiful Glendale Sanitarium. The tables, arranged in the shape of a large "U," standing for "unity," were daintily scattered with pansies, the emblem of pleasant thoughts. The rather simple, but tasty repast was served in excellent style under the personal supervision of Brother E. G. Fulton, the manager of the sanitarium. Among those present were exchanged many expressions of appreciation of the splendid co-operation of Elder Bernstein in all departments of our work. A few of these expressions were put into the form of toasts about the table, and several participated in entertaining the gathering with vocal and instrumental selections and readings. The idea of "get together and get acquainted" seemed to appeal to all present, and the proposal of a future gathering met with hearty approval. At a comparatively early hour the company adjourned with another pleasant evening added to our memories.

Elder P. G. Rodgers brought a most interesting report to the office during the past week. On Sabbath, March 27, he extended the right hand of fellowship to 19 people in the Los Angeles church and 12 in the Watts church. He then related his experience of the previous Wednesday evening when he went to hold an appointed Bible study. Because 90 persons had endeavored to make the best of circumstances, meeting in one home the previous week, when he reached the place of appointment this week, he was conducted to a hall which the company had secured for their comfort. The number had already increased to about 125. May the good work continue.

SANTA BARBARA

The week beginning Sabbath, March 13, was set apart by the conference as a special Week of Prayer and study for the young people. At our larger schools, meetings were held every evening for the benefit of the young people.

In Santa Barbara the young people are so few and scattered that nightly services were not held, but the pastor and young people's leader felt that the week must not pass without something special for the young people. It was thought that instead of holding nightly meetings as outlined in the "Church Officers' Gazette," we would have these various subjects for the different nights given in five-minute talks by the young people at the eleven o'clock service.

The result was better than either the pastor or the missionary volunteer leader anticipated, eight of the young people taking part. Concise, five-minute talks were given on the following topics: The Inspiration of the Scriptures, Bible Prophecies Fulfilled, A Great Prophecy Fulfilled, The Young People of the Bible, The Vanity of Worldly Glory, Clogged Channels Which Hinder the Works of the Holy Spirit, and Interesting Facts About the Missionary Volunteer Society.

The program was an inspiration. To open, we sang the Missionary Volunteer hymn.

Our minister, Elder Phillips, and our missionary volunteer leader are leading the Seventh-day Adventist young people to do a great work in Santa Barbara. Already we have secured nearly 500 trial subscriptions to the "Present Truth." In this way, we will distribute almost 2,500 of these papers to the people of Santa Barbara. These people have expressed their interest in them, and requested that we send them. They will be visited later by the missionary volunteers to secure regular subscriptions. We give God all the glory for this accomplishment. It brings the words of His servant to us with great strength: "With such an army of workers as our youth, rightly trained, might furnish, how soon the message of a crucified, risen, and soon-coming Saviour might be carried to the whole world!"

Let us all join in prayer for more power to the young people who have as their aim, "The Advent message to all the world in this generation."

LITERATURE IN ARABIC

We have had difficulty in the past in securing literature for the Arabic-speaking people. The California Bible House has imported from Egypt and Constantinople some of the recently published books. You can secure them as follows:

"Steps to Christ".....	35
"World's Hope".....	35
"Sure Word of Prophecy".....	35

Why not be sure that the Syrian (who reads Arabic) who sells fruit or has the corner grocery near your house really has the truth presented to him by supplying him with one of these books?

WITH THE ITALIANS IN THE BAY SECTION

Elder Salvatore Arrabito wears a smile these days as he reports the interesting visits with the Italians in the city of Oakland. The visit of Elder Rosario Calderone with us has been greatly appreciated and fruitage is beginning to appear. The Foreign Mission Hall was crowded each night as he spoke and sang to them and the interest is keeping up quite well. Sister La France and Elder Arrabito are visiting the 80 families whose names were given to be visited, and except in one instance they were cordially received.

Before leaving us for the East again, Elder Calderone assisted in the organization of our first Italian church. The membership of 16 gives promise of doubling shortly. From Monterey Elder S. D. Hartwell reports 21 adult Italians raising their hands in a promise to keep the commandments of God. Surely, the time has come to finish the work for the many thousands of aliens in our borders. It is to be hoped that our believers will hunt out these people and supply them with literature and get them in touch with the workers who speak their particular language.

NO-TOBACCO "LITTLE FRIEND" AND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Desiring to know what the principals of the public schools think of tobacco, I visited some of them in the city of Oakland with the No-Tobacco number of "Our Little Friend." The response was most cheering. Every principal was pleased to get a copy and said he would take it up with his teachers with a view of supplying them to the boys in the schools. One principal told me that out of 400 boys in his school only eight had the courage to say they did not use tobacco. This principal asked me if I could supply a speaker to talk to the boys on the evils of tobacco-using and promised that he would give a copy of the "Little Friend" to each boy. What a wonderful opportunity this excellently edited little paper gives us to place ourselves in the very forefront of the forces of good in the world!

TEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD TAKE THE "REVIEW"

1. THE "REVIEW" will be the only medium through which the General Conference proceedings will be broadcast. As a Seventh-day Adventist you will be interested in the conference sessions, and will wish to know what business is transacted, for this meeting is your meeting.

2. THE GENERAL CONFERENCE will be the greatest gathering of God's people in four years. All heaven will be interested in it as plans will be laid which will be world-wide in their scope. You should be acquainted with these plans.

3. THE EXPERIENCES told at this meeting by our ministers from all parts of the world will be worth everything to a lover of the truth. Get the "REVIEW" and hear the best.

4. THIS MESSAGE is bigger than any one man. No man will be big enough or intelligent enough to bring to you the inspiration of this meeting.

Get the "REVIEW" and you will get it all, because all phases of the conference will be reported.

5. WOULD YOU like to hear sermons from all our ministers of outstanding reputation around the world? They will preach through the "REVIEW" at General Conference time.

6. WOULD YOU like to know who

Girls and boys everywhere are being rapidly enticed into the ranks of the cigarette smokers. This special number points out the dangers.

"I have tried constantly to keep in mind that it is designed for the boys and girls," says Dr. George Thomason, regarding his article, "What the Children Should Know About Tobacco," "and have couched it in simple language, although I have of necessity tried to state scientific facts and give reasons why tobacco should not be used."

Mrs. Vesta J. Farnsworth, Dr. D. H. Kress, and other strong writers also furnish valuable and helpful articles. Stories, poems, and striking illustrations make this two-color issue attractive, readable, and effective.

will be the General Conference workers the next four years? Get the "REVIEW" and it will tell all.

7. THE SPECIAL issues will print photos of many of the workers attending the General Conference. You have often heard of them, this will be your time to see them.

8. ELDER SPICER'S report will be worth the entire cost of the "REVIEW" subscription. It will give a glimpse of the progress of our worldwide work. You will get it through the "REVIEW."

9. DURING THE General Conference five issues will be printed each week without extra cost. In other words about 64 issues of the "REVIEW" for $2.75 a year, or only a little over four cents a week. Can you afford to miss it?

10. ARE NOT the above nine reasons sufficient? Here is another. If there were no General Conference you should have the "REVIEW" for the benefit you will receive from it week by week. Send in your subscription now through your church missionary secretary.

Since last summer two Oakland children have sold over 5,000 "LITTLE FRIENDS," and are well started on 2,000 No-Tobacco specials recently ordered. Their first hour's profits each week is given to missions and they have earned as high as $1.50 in that hour. These little papers cost you only two cents a copy in lots of ten or more, and sell for five cents each. Here's the way to earn your weekly Sabbath school offerings. Your Book and Bible House will gladly supply the papers.

OBITUARIES

Luckey.—Alphina Ruth Luckey was born in Texas, May 17, 1909, and died in Oakland, Calif., Jan. 21, 1926, aged 16 years, eight months and four days. She leaves a father, mother and sister to mourn their loss.

FOUND

A black record book, apparently containing valuable notations, was found on Pasadena Avenue and turned into the conference office, 3131 Pasadena Ave., Los Angeles, California. Owner may receive same upon proper description of said book.

WANTED AT LA SIERRA ACADEMY

There is opportunity just now for a young man to work to apply on tuition and dormitory expenses for next year. Work begins April 11. Applicant should be not less than 18 years of age and have mature judgment and be experienced with horses and machinery. He should be willing to work. Write at once to W. C. Raley, La Sierra Academy, Arlington, California.

The following is taken from a letter recently received by Elder W. F. Martin from Elder C. S. Longacre:

"Seven sessions totaling eighteen and one-half hours of hearings on the Sunday laws now before Congress have been held, and future hearings are being arranged. The Sunday law forces are putting up the most formidable fight in the history of America, and the opposition is not falling behind. It is a great battle that is raging and the whole country is stirred over the issue.

"We have gotten out a 'Liberty' Extra to meet the issue with a petition on the back page for signatures. This Extra will contain the four Sunday bills in full and other most valuable information the public should have. We need the co-operation of our people in this great fight. Will you kindly urge them to make liberal use of this 'Liberty' Extra and of the petition on the back against the four Sunday bills? The Extra can be ordered through the tract societies for $2.00 per hundred and $16.00 per thousand. Our people should also be urged to use the regular issue of the 'Liberty' magazine and sell it at this time as it deals with this issue also.

"Now is the time to educate the public while it is a burning issue before Congress. We depend upon you for help and want you to pray for us that the truth may prevail."

AN INTERESTING LETTER

I have received many interesting letters from congressmen during this great fight over the four Sunday bills now pending before Congress. Many of these men have pledged themselves to oppose the present Sunday bills if they ever come before the House.

One of the men who has been foremost in this fight in the past, as well as in this issue, is Hon. W. F. Lineberger, of California, and I am sure that the readers of the "Pacific Union Recorder" will be glad to read some excerpts from his letter, which are as follows:

"March 24, 1926.
 "Mr. C. S. Longacre,
 General International Secretary,
 Religious Liberty Association,
 Takoma Park, Washington, D. C.
 "Dear Sir:
 "I have your letter of March 23rd, and also the copy of 'Liberty,' A Magazine of Religious Freedom, containing an article on the Sunday bill for the District of Columbia, proposed by Congressman W. C. Lankford, of Georgia.
 "I am unalterably and uncompromisingly opposed to all such legislation, based on intolerance, and in my opinion indirectly, at least, in violation of the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States. We should never permit any such dangerous precedent to be established, as it would usher in a period of bigotry and oppression that would undermine the life of the Republic.
 "I have received many letters in opposition to this legislation. Inasmuch as my correspondence is very heavy, and the clerical help which I am allotted small, I will find it impossible to answer all of these letters in detail, and I would therefore request you to give an expression of my views either through the columns of your publication or by such other means as you may have available for communication with Seventh-day Adventists and others in California opposed to this dangerous type of legislation. We must keep the Church and State forever separated in this country, and hold true to the Eternal principles, upon which the Government was founded by our forefathers.

"With kind personal regards, I am
 "Yours very truly,
 "Walter F. Lineberger."

I am sure that our people in California will be glad to know that Mr. Lineberger is standing so nobly by us in this great fight for religious liberty, in opposition to the Sunday bills in Congress.
 C. S. Longacre.

READING RACKS

Very recently I was in Los Angeles to see the agent of the Multiplex Display Fixture Company in regard to the purchasing of reading racks. He told me that the Christian Scientist organization of Los Angeles recently purchased 500 reading racks from them. Almost everywhere you go, in hotels, depots, restaurants, you will see Christian Scientist reading racks. Years ago our people were the first to use reading racks, but it seems as if we have become weary in well-doing while others have stolen the march on us and are placing them everywhere. We, who have the last gospel message to a dying world, ought to be foremost in every missionary endeavor.

How many reading racks has your church placed in advantageous places in your town? Are you keeping them filled? Why should not the Seventh-day Adventists in California be more zealous in giving the true message of salvation to others than the Christian Scientists who have only a false hope?

These reading racks are very neat and are suitable to be placed anywhere. They can be purchased through the tract society.

R. R. Breitigam.

YOUTH AND THE TRAIL TO PAGANISM is the title of an enlightening article by Roy Franklin Cottrell in the May "WATCHMAN MAGAZINE." While age takes a seat in the gallery, youth holds forth on the main floor, tells us what is wrong with the world, and what to do about it. Are we duly impressed? We feel sure you do not want to miss this article, so send your renewal to your Book and Bible House to-day. Yearly subscription price, $1.75; in clubs of five or more, $1.05 each.
