. . . THE GOOD FIGHT . . .

Wars come to an end some day and are only a hideous memory; but always the Christian must be a fighter, fighting the good fight of faith.

An equal heroism and self-sacrifice like unto that which through all the sad ages men have put into war must now be poured into "the good fight." This is the hour when every one enlisted in the cause of Christ must wear spiritual khaki, must throw spiritual bombs, break down every spiritual barbed-wire entanglement, carry on a continual spiritual barrage, and in some such eager spirit as possessed the apostle Paul scale new heights every day for God.

Every true Christian will now be found not merely "doing his bit," but abandoning himself to gaining the final triumph in and for Christ and His blessed truth. He will do this with a zest and a zeal such as no army led by an earthly general can ever equal. He will do it to the last drop of his blood and the last ounce of his strength.

Over the triple doors of the cathedral of Milan there are three inscriptions spanning the arches. Over one is carved a beautiful wreath of roses and underneath is inscribed, "All that pleases is but for a moment." Over the other a sculptured cross and underneath these words, "All that troubles is but for a moment." But under the great central arch is this inscription, "That only is important that is eternal." God is revealing that fact now to the whole world.

Undoubtedly we are now moving up into one of God's mighty moments of Divine revelation, one which calls for our very best, given fully and completely. There is something unusual and eternal for each of us to do for God which demands first place of importance in our lives.

Great streams of blessing and of power are ready for us now, and into them we are privileged to plunge. A spiritual revival of historic proportions is due and God commands us to make it of first importance in our lives.

This is the biggest task God has ever given to the church. How sad that we are still making Him wait while we seek for that of lesser importance!

Paul Lawrence Dunbar touched the vulnerable spot in all our lives when he wrote:

"The Lord had a job for me, but I had so much to do,
I said, 'You get somebody else or wait till I get through.'
I don't know how the Lord came out, but He seemed to get along;
But I felt kinda sneakin' like, 'cause I know'd I done Him wrong."

"One day I needed the Lord; needed Him myself, needed Him right away;
And He never answered me at all, but I could hear Him say,
Down in my accusin' heart, 'Sambo, I've got too much to do;
You get somebody else, or wait till I get through.'

"Now when the Lord He have a job for me,
I never tries to shirk;
I drops what I have on hand and does the good Lord's work.
And my affairs can run along, or wait till I get through;
Nobody else can do the job that God's marked out for you."

God judges men in regard to the estimate they put upon things of eternal value. In most of our lives there is latter rain will fall upon us as the early need of a revision of values. We capitalize things that are hardly worth the saving while we minimize things that are of eternal worth.

Even in doing God's service we must weigh values. The secondary must not have the larger attention now, while the primary gets only passing notice.

The religious feverishness, dissatisfaction, and unrest of the present hour grow largely out of the fact that we have not properly related things in our spiritual lives. If we possessed the right relationship of things religious there would be far more seeking for the fullness of the Holy Spirit as compared with the seeking after new plans and methods.

We seem many times to disagree with God as He points out the proper relationships in the things which have to do with our spiritual growth and accomplishments. We formulate our own plans when He stands ready to guide by His Spirit. Things of the highest importance in relation to our great objectives are postponed to some indefinite future date.

God's plan is the only right plan. There can be no permanent and abiding victory until the church falls into the Divine plans of possessing the fullness of the Spirit "awaiting our demand and reception." And in this connection it is well to ponder the following words of inspiration:

"Not one of us will ever receive the seal of God while our characters have one spot or stain upon them. It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters, to cleanse the soul temple of every defilement. Then the

It should be noted that the above statement speaks of defects in character, not reputation. There is a great difference between the two. Reputation is what men see; character is what God sees. Reputation is what men say you are; character is what God says you are. Reputation is what you are abroad; character is what you are at home. Reputation is what you are at church; character is what you are at business. Reputation is what you need to get a job; character is what you need to keep it. Reputation is what you take to town; character is what you bring back. Reputation is what you are in the daylight; character is what you are in the dark. Reputation is manufactured, while character is grown. Reputation is what you have when you stand before the throne of God.

La Sierra College

College Items

We are happy to welcome Miss Doris Carlsen as professor of home economics at La Sierra College. For the past six years Miss Carlsen has been an instructor in arts and home economics at Pacific Union College. During the first semesters of the school years of 1938-39 and 1939-40, she taught at La Sierra and is well known to many here.

Dean K. J. Reynolds and Professor J. C. Haussler have spent several weeks calling on the young people of the Southern California Conference. They report that many young people are looking forward to attending La Sierra College next year.

The prospects are bright for an excellent enrollment at the college during the school year of 1942-43. If you have not seen the new 1942-43 catalog and are interested in securing one, and if you wish information about expenses and courses to be given during the next school year, we invite you to write to President L. R. Rasmussen, La Sierra College, Arlington, California.

Our summer school enrollment has reached 115. This is the largest summer session in the history of the college. During the last half of this summer session, opportunity will be given to anyone interested to enter classes starting at that time. The beginning dates and the names of the classes are as follows: August 2—Evidences of Christianity, European History Survey, Human Anatomy, Elements of Public Speaking, Intermediate Spanish, Music, Applied Arts; August 17—Bible Survey and Intermediate Accounting; August 30—Health Principles.

A large number of former students and prospective students are working in the various departments of the college and in the Loma Linda Food Factory this summer. The number has now reached 141.

Summer at La Sierra College

There are 115 students availing themselves of the accelerated program at La Sierra College this summer. They have found many courses that fit into their chosen curriculum. Are you, young person, among those who are making use of the scholastic opportunities offered you this summer? Let me suggest you plan definitely to enroll for the last six weeks of our summer session beginning August 2.

Complete information on courses offered may be secured by writing to La Sierra College, Arlington, California.

Miss Glee King, who for thirteen years, has been head of the Secretarial Department at Emmanuel Missionary College, has accepted the call to connect with La Sierra College in the same capacity. Miss King is a graduate of Emmanuel Missionary College and of Northwestern University. She comes to us with a wealth of teaching experience and ability which will strengthen this department in the college.

A number of the instructors of La Sierra College are availing themselves of advanced graduate study this summer. Professor and Mrs. L. C. Palmer and Miss Maybel Jensen are at the University of Southern California; Prof. W. J. Airey is studying at the University of Washington; Miss Mildred Ostich at the Northwestern University in Chicago; Mrs. Mary Groome, Mrs. W. J. Shafer, Miss Edna Farnsworth, and Mr. Elmer Digneo are taking work at the Redlands University. We are indeed happy that these instructors have the opportunity of attending the summer session at these universities where they may receive additional help along their special lines of instruction.

"I Gave A Man"

One cannot help being impressed these days with the appealing advertising that the government is using to solicit the cooperation of the American public. The other day my eyes were directed to a large picture which appeared in the Oakland Tribune. It was a picture of a young mother with a small baby in her arms. A larger child was clinging to her. Her face was sober with the growing reality of the sacrifice she had made and above her head appeared in print the words, "I GAVE A MAN!"

As the full force of these words gripped my heart, I had a mental picture of millions of mothers and wives who have made similar sacrifices. The whole country is moved by the spirit of sacrifice and responsibility to do its utmost to aid the war effort, so vital to the future welfare of our nation.

While we should do our share to support the country in this grave emergency, yet we must always remember that God has given us a most solemn trust, to carry His last invitation of mercy to a world that is lost in darkness and sin before the door of probation closes forever. As I view the task yet remaining before us, and the unprecedented opportunities to spread the message, I could wish that the same spirit of devotion which is sweeping the nation for the war effort, could in some degree lay hold of the hearts of our people in Northern California in behalf of the Ingathering campaign. Millions of human beings are making great sacrifices. Other millions have already paid the supreme price, they have laid down their lives for the cause they believe in. But at this time God only calls upon us to give our time, to go to our neighbors and friends, and present to them the needs of the cause and solicit them for an offering, which will be used to bring the light of the glorious gospel of Christ to benighted men. Surely no Christian who loves Jesus and senses the awful hour to which we have come, could fail to have part in this divine plan.

It seems to me that the very least any member could do at this time would be to dedicate himself as a Minute Man. Raise $12.30 in the Ingathering and you are a Minute Man. Last year fully one-third of our members were Minute Men. This year we shall expect EVERY church member to become a MINUTE MAN. Furthermore, we urge all to set about this work at once. To delay now will bring embarrassment to the cause. We in Northern California have set ourselves the task of raising the full goal of $45,000 in eight weeks beginning July 11. In this eleventh hour of history when every soul is soon to appear before the judgment seat of God, we earnestly appeal to all our people to cooperate to the fullest of their ability to make the 1942 Ingathering effort the greatest soul-winning campaign in our history.

News Notes

Sabbath, July 11, was a Sabbath which will linger long in the memory of the Lodi Central church. The pastor, Elder F. L. Abbott, appealed to the church to pay the last dollar of obligations on the new church building. In just a few minutes cash and pledges to the amount of $3,000 were raised. When the pledges are paid the church will be dedicated free of debt. This is a wonderful achievement on the part of our members, and the new building is filling a great need.

The annual graduation exercises of the St. Helena Sanitarium were held recently and the graduating class received their diplomas after listening to a stirring address by Dr. G. K. Abbott. At this writing the sanitarium is filled to overflowing. In a few weeks the new class of nurses will be admitted which promises to be the largest class the sanitarium has had in years.

The first six months of 1942 our colporteurs have taken $21,521 worth of orders, and delivered $13,007 worth of subscription books in Northern California. Many interested people are studying the message all over the field as a result of all this literature.

The Berkeley church has set out to raise $1,000 through their singing bands. This high goal will demand steady work for achievement, but judging from their start they will reach it by the help of the Lord.

At a recent meeting of the Golden Gate Academy Board Prof. E. J. Henning was elected as its principal, and has now entered upon his duties. Since Professor Henning is well known in the Bay area we feel that he will take a special interest in the progress of the school. We bespeak for him the hearty cooperation of the constituency and the faculty.

Elder L. A. Wilcox is planning to hold a series of meetings in the Mt. Shasta-Dunsmuir district this summer. We wish Brother Wilcox the blessings of the Lord as he lays plans for this important effort.

Recent word from Elder Imai, our Japanese minister, reveals that he, with many others of our Japanese believers, have been moved to the permanent camp at Tule Lake. Brother Imai writes that about sixteen thousand Japanese are in the camp and it is giving him a fine opportunity to present the truth. Let us remember our Japanese brethren and sisters in our prayers that God may use them to bring the light of truth to others of their people.

The report of our colporteurs for the week ending July 11 deserves special mention. During this week they report sales totaling $2,001.98, and deliveries, $1,055.96. Brethren Leslie and Henderson are hard at work. They say there is still plenty of room for more colporteurs. Never has our literature sold so well; never have we faced such an eager public.

Elder Hackman met with the Ukiah and Willits churches in the morning and afternoon of July 11. Following the afternoon service Elder Wittenberg baptized four precious souls. Others are looking forward to baptism soon. Brother Hackman found the work in this district moving forward and our people determined to reach their Harvest Ingathering goal in record time.

Here Am I, Lord, Send Me

The Prophet Isaiah was given a vision of "the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple."

The vision of the glory of God and of man's unworthiness not only drove the prophet to his knees, but caused him to cry out for cleansing. The Lord answered the heart cry of Isaiah, and all sin and selfishness were burned out of his life by the live coal taken from the altar of God.

When all sin and selfishness was gone there came an inrushing of the love, the Spirit, and the power of the Almighty. The prophet found himself to be "a new creature in Christ Jesus." All of self-sacredness was gone. In tune with God, and empowered with His love, Isaiah's heart cried out for the souls of men who are lost in sin, and then he heard a voice speaking, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then he said, "Here am I; send me."

When any man, when any woman, passes through regenerative fires kindled from off the altar of God, when sin is purged and selfishness is burned out of the life, it is only natural that the soul should cast itself into the furrow of the world's need, to give itself for those without hope and without God. It is only natural for that individual to say, "Here am I, send me." The complete regenerated heart, vested of all self and selfishness, will be willing, and will be anxious, to do the will of Him who has called him, who has redeemed him, who has commissioned him, who has sent him forth to labor in Christ's stead.

When this experience in its fullness is had, the only question which will be asked by the individual concerned, is "What is the will of my Heavenly Father?"

While it is true that the Lord assigns certain individuals to special lines of work, it is also true that there are lines of work which are to be carried on by the church membership in general. Among these more general lines of work is that of the Harvest Ingathering, and it is well for us to reflect upon the special testimonies sent by the Lord through the Spirit of prophecy regarding this general church campaign.

"To all who are about to take up special missionary work with the paper prepared for use in the Harvest Ingathering campaign, I would say: Be diligent in your efforts; live under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Add daily to your Christian experience. Let those who have special aptitude, work for unbelievers in the high places as well as in the low places of life. Search diligently for perishing souls. Oh, think of the yearning desire Christ has to bring to His fold again those who have gone astray! Watch for souls as they that must give an account. In your church and neighborhood missionary work, let your light shine forth in such clear, steady rays that no man can stand up in the judgment, and say, 'Why did you not tell me about this truth? Why did you not care for my soul?' Then let us be diligent in the distribution of literature that has been carefully prepared for use among those not of our faith. Let us make the most of every opportunity to arrest the attention of unbelievers. Let us consecrate ourselves to the proclamation of the message, 'Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.'" "Christian Service," p. 169.

The Lord is appealing to us to show our love for our friends and neighbors by taking to them the message-filled literature prepared for the Harvest Ingathering campaign, and we also note that some of those who are not visited during this general church campaign will stand up in the judgment day and challenge Seventh-day Adventists for not "caring for" their soul. The implication is that if they had really and truly cared for the souls of their neighbors, the members would have gone forth with periodicals prepared for the Harvest Ingathering campaign and told their neighbors and friends of the great plan of God.

Our prayer is that the Spirit of God may move upon the heart of every individual member of the Central California Conference as it moved upon the heart of Isaiah of old, and that He will do for the hearts of the people of the Central California Conference that which He did for Isaiah. We know full well that when every member of this great conference knows this deeper experience, we will see our entire church and conference membership going forth to their neighbors and friends in the Ingathering campaign with a definite burden to bring them to Christ and to this message. Everyone will plan to finish within the shortest time possible, and every family within the confines of the church territory will be visited. This will, in turn, produce larger returns in funds with which to send missionaries across the sea.

News Notes

"The Philadelphian church of San Francisco reached its Harvest Ingathering goal Sabbath, July 11, and the total for the three weeks of work amounted to more than $450. We are sure it will be $500 on July 18. The conference set our goal at $280, but the Philadelphian church raised the goal to $300, having faith that we would raise that amount, and the Lord has certainly blessed us in it this year. The entire membership worked faithfully in the campaign."

Mrs. Golden Cody, of the Dos Palos church, reports that they gathered a grand total of $190 in one day. Their church goal was $130 so they now have an overflow of $60.

A Message From A Sick Room

Our veteran Ingathering champion, Elder F. H. Westphal, who has averaged close to $200 each year for the last 21 years, is now confined to his bed. However, he hasn't forgotten Harvest Ingathering, for he writes: "I am afflicted with thrombosis and so have been confined to my bed for eight weeks. But through the kindness of my nurse, I have done some correspondence and have succeeded in collecting $65 for the Harvest Ingathering fund." Let us praise the Lord for such an inspiring example of consecration, and let us pray that God will bless all His people with such a holy zeal for the glorious cause of missions.

We should ponder on these serious words: "We can never be saved in indolence and inactivity. There is no such thing as a truly converted person living a helpless, useless life. It is not possible for us to drift into heaven. No sluggard can enter there. . . Those who refuse to cooperate with God on earth, would not cooperate with Him in heaven. It would not be safe to take them to heaven." "Christ's Object Lessons," p. 282.

May God's richest blessings rest upon every church member in our conference as we "cooperate" in the great Ingathering for missions in this 1942 campaign.

"Too Little Too Late"

America plans and works today for victory. Abundant supplies of men, munitions, and machines are imperative for that victory. We have learned at tremendous costs that training, planning, strategy, work, morale, and an unvanquished spirit do not compensate for "too little too late" of reinforcements and vital necessities. Bataan and Corregidor have taught us that there must be sufficient in time.

The work of the Lord is soon to triumph gloriously. That triumph is based upon the spread of the third angel's message and the sounding of the loud cry. Though the work of the latter rain is to ripen the harvest for the sickle, what if too little seed has been sown too late? An abundant harvest necessitates an abundant sowing of fruitful seed.

The Spirit of prophecy encourages God's church NOW to scatter the printed page like the leaves of autumn in order that many lives will be influenced for the right by their messages. When we read that "the canvassing work should no longer be neglected. . . The books sold by our canvassers open to many minds the unsearchable riches of Christ," we can better understand why the servant of the Lord exclaimed, "Oh, that thousands more of our people had a realization of the time in which we are living, and of the work to be done in field service, in house-to-house labor. There are many, many, who know not the truth. They need to hear the call to come to Jesus."

Since, "there is no higher work than evangelistic canvassing; for it involves the performance of the highest moral duties," we may know that this important work offers plenty of opportunity for our consecrated members to succeed in literature evangelism.

The Southern California Conference is witnessing miracles in its literature evangelism this summer. Experiences and incidents have indicated that the angels of heaven are doing all they can to help humanity receive the warning of impending judgment and Christ's soon return.

One brother who has been an Adventist but a few weeks has delivered over three hundred dollars worth of our literature in the past three weeks. The students while finding many trials are at the same time meeting them with the faith and zeal of loyal literature evangelists. Several of these students already have the major portion of their full scholarship in hand.

God is now opening many new ways for the literature minister to earn a satisfactory income. New plans and policies have opened vistas of untold possibilities ahead in this line of work.

At the time of harvest let it not be said that we have responded to the call of colporteur evangelism with "too little too late." But now, with a will, let us shower the fields with precious living leaves of literature that the latter rain may bring to fruition their influence in the lives of all the honest in heart. Write your field missionary secretary at once. Station A, Box 148, Los Angeles, or telephone, Capitol 6137.

Can We Claim His Blessing

In days of trial we call upon God for His mercies. In days of war we call upon Him to save our country and for the protection of our sons at the battle front. We call upon Him for the salvation of our dear ones. We constantly call upon Him. Our requests and our beseechments are innumerable. But "there are conditions to the fulfillment of God's promises, and prayer can never take the place of duty. . . Those who bring their petitions to God, claiming His promise while they do not comply with the conditions, insult Jehovah."

In this beautiful book, "Chirst's Object Lessons," page 143, we continue:

J. C. NIXON.

"As the Giver of every blessing, God claims a certain portion of all we possess. This is His provision to sustain the preaching of the gospel. And by making this return to God, we are to show our appreciation of His gifts. But if we withhold from Him that which is His own, how can we claim His blessing? If we are unfaithful stewards of earthly things, how can we expect Him to entrust us with the things of heaven? It may be that here is the secret of unanswered prayer."

There are conditions other than tithe paying. But in times of prosperity it is well to think carefully upon the subject of tithe paying. Surely, none would want to forfeit "the condition of acceptance with the Father" for a few paltry dollars. In days of depression and hardship we may be driven to faithfulness through want and despair. In days of prosperity it would be well to closely examine our relationship to the "condition of acceptance."

HAWAIIAN MISSION

G. E. TAYLOR, Supt. J. O. EMMERSON, Sec.

God's Blessing In Hawaii

Sunday, July 5, Hawaii went over its Harvest Ingathering goal of $19,200. The island of Kauai was the first to reach its island goal of $3,000 and it was done in fifteen working days this year, and now they are well on their way to reaching $4,000 which they have set as their overflow goal. Next Maui reached its goal of $2,450 and they report they will have $3,000 before the end of this month. Molokai was next with its goal of $450 and a nice overflow. Then the "big island" of Hawaii reported its goal of $2,800 and they too are working for a large overflow.

It is remarkable how the Lord blessed our humble efforts this year. In Honolulu we gathered in over $1,000 on each of two Sundays as our churches went out in field days. This year we were unable to have singing bands but as a few solicitors have gone out each evening the Lord has blessed them with over $300 a night on a number of nights for just an hour and forty-five minutes work.

We have set $10,000 as our overflow goal which will make $30,800 for our island field. If we reach this goal, and we are confident we will, it will give us a per capita of over $30. We give God all the credit for what has been done, for we started the campaign a little fearful because over nine hundred places of business have closed their doors since December 7.

GEORGE E. TAYLOR.

"Fill the whole heart with the words of God. They are the living water, quenching your burning thirst. They are the living bread from heaven. Jesus declares, 'Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.' And he explains himself by saying, 'The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.' Our bodies are built up from what we eat and drink; and as in the natural economy, so in the spiritual economy: it is what we meditate upon that will give tone and strength to our spiritual nature." "Steps to Christ," p. 88.

Good News

Elder and Mrs. Eric B. Hare and their children reached New York City July 13, according to a telegram received by Elder and Mrs. J. E. Fulton, parents of Mrs. Hare.

This is good news, and it probably means that other missionaries returning from India were also aboard the same ship. Many prayers have ascended for the safety of these missionaries on their dangerous journey and we now thank God that His protecting care has brought them safely home.

Hawaii Leads The Way

Hawaii again leads the way in Ingathering in the Pacific Union Conference. "Hawaii over the top with $20,000; working for $30,000." This was the radio message received from Hawaii July 6.

We rejoice with them in their early victory. They commenced the campaign June 21, and passed their goal in two weeks. Such is the spirit of Hawaii.

With many firms out of business since December 7, and with the necessary black-out regulations taking effect by eight o'clock, they wondered how it would affect the Ingathering. They might have been tempted to say "We cannot do as well this year." But, no, they said "The need is greater—the hour is later—we must work more earnestly."

With determined faith, they went forward prayerfully, diligently, enthusiastically, and God mightily blessed their efforts.

This year will be a great year for all of us if we prayerfully go forward in faith, realizing that what is to be done must be done now. "The time is late." We hear this phrase over the radio. We see it on large placards. Yes, it is too late to delay. It is time to work and give as those who shall give an account.

Remember Hawaii and follow her earnest example. Remember our brethren in the British Isles and emulate their Ingathering spirit. The falling of bombs did not stop their labor. They went out courageously Ingathering, carrying gas masks, and did their best work for God. They achieved the greatest results. Do we need bombs to fall to awaken us? No. "Thy people shall be willing in the day of Thy power." Let us go forward, determining to be minute men for God, and let us do it now.

R. R. BREITIGAM.

COAST TO COAST - SUNDAY EVENING
The VOICE OF PROPHECY
 "And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth."
 Rev. 14:6
 BOX 55 - LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

Date July 18
 Sustaining Members 3,015
 Amount Pledged $3,826.60

Oh if we could just pass these letters around to each of you to read! Here on the desk is a pile of marvelous mail—yet I can only share such a small amount. In the new earth you can meet many of the writers personally.

Alone in Colorado: "I've been keeping Sabbath for three years now but seldom see a Seventh-day Adventist. Only God's truth could keep me faithful in my loneliness. I welcome this opportunity of Bible correspondence study."

Michigan: "This lesson has made the second coming very plain to me—I've been searching for an understanding of it for many years." And from New York: "I can't express what these lessons mean to me. I've believed in the second coming but it has seemed so far away till this lesson. I can truly say I am ready NOW for His return and never again do I want to lose the fellowship of daily living with Jesus."

From up in Oregon: "I think my membership is in Washington, D.C., but I long to be rebaptized, for a richer experience has come to me and a deeper understanding. This lesson is just the most wonderful yet and I gladly and thoughtfully make my decision to return to Jesus."

"Five years ago I took Seventh-day Adventist studies but some I could not understand to my satisfaction. In these Bible lessons these difficult things have cleared up for me and I have learned much I did not know before. It brings me great joy."—New Hampshire.

Young people, read this from Georgia! "I have been answering the test papers and signing my father's name. See, I am only 15 and I didn't know that I would be allowed to take this course till I received your letter. Please change my father's name and put mine instead. I hope you understand why I did it though. I was interested in answering the questions and thought the only way I could would be by using Daddy's name."

Loyalty

Where are you going to school this fall? This question is frequently being asked. Most of the replies indicate a sense of loyalty to the schools of the home conference, or union. But too frequently distance lends a supposed enchantment, or rumor has it that elsewhere it is easier or more liberal. What a mirage, and what a compromising confession!

But, young people, did you ever stop to think of your responsibility and loyalty to the local or union conference that maintains these schools for you? We are living in a time that tests one's loyalty. Most young people look to their home conferences for employment when school days are over, and it is right that they should. By the same token your school looks to you for patronage and it is right that it should.

If distant lure or the mirage of rumored liberality have appealed to you, then let this message cause you to think of your responsibility. There are exceptions, of course.

If your plans are still in the making, then get in touch with your own school. Attend it, promote it, and support it.

A. C. NELSON.
