Clothing for Postwar Relief

Telegrams, letters, and personal inquiries from all parts of North America call for definite instructions as to the immediate disposal to be made of the large quantities of clothing ready for shipment to liberated countries, now being held in temporary storerooms, churches, Dorcas headquarters and home closets. The response to the General Conference appeal for clothing for postwar relief is truly amazing, and most gratifying.

The present congestion and the urgent call for release through definite shipping instructions, is fully understood and appreciated, and plans are moving forward as fast as circumstances permit. The original request was that conferences provide temporary storerooms to care for all clothing collected by churches throughout the conference. In some instances this has been done; in other instances it has seemed impossible to care for all the good material which has been rolling in.

Realizing that still larger provision would be necessary, it was voted by the General Conference at the Autumn Council to establish two general warehouses for this postwar relief clothing; one warehouse to be on the Atlantic Coast and one on the Pacific Coast, both within easy radius of port of shipment. The search for these warehouses, and the manning of them, is now under way. This is a matter requiring time and diligent search. Just as soon as arrangements are completed, announcement will be made and full particulars as to packing and shipping furnished. In the meantime we must ask for "patient continuance in well doing," knowing that "in due time" we shall be given the right of way in this matter of postwar shipments.

More is involved than can be understood except by those who have the working out of the details. The need is increasingly great. We had hoped large quantities of this clothing might be en transit overseas at this time, but some unavoidable delays have occurred. However, this is not a matter which will end in a few months' time. We may have a long postwar relief program ahead of us. We must not slacken our efforts, but keep up the splendid work which is now so well under way. The doors of the warehouses will soon be open, and everything will be properly cared for and serve its specified purpose.

At the request of the General Conference officers, we sent out word to collect clothing supplies of all kinds, to oil up the sewing machines for the making of new material into useful garments, to mend, patch and repair, and then to pack for shipment. To a large extent, we are now ready to GO, but we face the Red Light in overseas traffic. Let us all hold steady, keeping our faces turned toward the semaphore and the throttle of our engines open, so that we can move without a moment's delay when the Green Light appears; in the meantime calling up all reserves to fall in line in the rear, and to keep coming. Soon the highway to the central storerooms will be filled with the precious traffic for postwar relief, and will there be prepared for shipment to many parts of Europe, the Orient, and other lands which have been swept by the destruction of war. We thank you all for what has been done and what will continue to be done until the full need is met. May we request all to persevere in this postwar relief work, hold steady all that has been gained, be patient, and watch for the signal GO.

R. G. STRICKLAND, Secretary,
General Conference Home Missionary Department.

Radio Appreciation

We are frequently alarmed because of efforts made by certain organizations who are attempting to put our radio programs off the air. There are ways whereby our church members can contribute much to countering this opposing pressure. One of the most effective is for our listeners to write radio station managers expressing their personal satisfaction and pleasure in being able to hear the program over their local or nearby station. As evidence of the effectiveness of such writing we have just received from G. C. Hoskin Associates, our Voice of Prophecy agents, the following correspondence. The letter was first written to the manager of Station WAAF, Chicago, by a listener some few weeks ago:

"I truly appreciate the program, the Voice of Prophecy, that comes over your station on Sunday at 9:00 a.m. There are many people that listen to this program, and I wish to express my thanks to you for having a program like this broadcast throughout Chicagoland."

In response the station manager wrote to the G. C. Hoskin Associates as follows:

"I received the enclosed letter regarding your program, the Voice of Prophecy. I am overjoyed, as I am sure you will be, that the program is meeting with so much success in this area.

"With kind personal regards."

(Signed) Station Manager, WAAF

If our church members would write to their local stations expressing their commendation of our radio programs, as this individual did who wrote to Station WAAF, we will be greatly strengthened in our relationship with these stations in whose hands the radio program so largely rests. Do not write a long letter—a card is almost as effective—but please write stating the particular

Chronicle Campaign Closes

The Campus Chronicle campaign brought in 4,576 subscriptions, the largest number ever achieved by such a campaign. The "Red" team under the leadership of Hayward Shafer and Rosemarie White accumulated 70 more subscriptions than the "Blue" team, led by Jack Everett and Lois Drummond.

The victory dinner, with Lawrence Maxwell acting as master of ceremonies, took place last Monday evening, December 4.

Prizes for those who brought in the most subscriptions were given to Harold Ruppert, a $50 War Bond, as first prize; Wilfred Tam, second prize, a Conflict of the Ages Set; Albert Mayes, third prize, a brief case; Bobbie Jane Wood, fourth prize, a table.

Prof. Clark Writes Book

Prof. H. W. Clark's new book, Scientific Evidences of the Flood, will be published before the end of the present school year. Prof. Clark has been working on the book for the past four years and devoted most of the past summer to its completion. The purpose of the book is to develop the major geological and archaeological problems in relation to the flood theory. Tables, drawings, and photographs will illustrate the text.

Students Submit Poetry

Four of the twenty poems submitted to the National Poetry Association by Pacific Union College students were accepted for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry. Accepted poems were written by Jean Morgan, Barbara Mikkelsen, Lois Drummond, and Shirley Franklin. This anthology is a "compilation of the finest poetry written by the college men and women of America, representing every state in the country."

Literature Band Continues Work

Elder A. S. Maxwell, editor of the Signs of the Times, was speaker at the church service November 25. After telling of his visit last summer to the home of William Miller and to other New England places associated with the early Advent movement, Elder Maxwell appealed to the literature band of the college church to continue the work that was done last year. The church ordered a club of 3,500 copies of the Signs. The band is being reorganized under the leadership of Elder G. B. Taylor to circulate the papers and correspond with interested readers.

Rine Lecture Held

The French Renaissance was the topic of Dr. L. L. Caviness' discussion which drew a large group of English and foreign language majors and minors, faculty and friends to the meeting of the Rine Lecture course, held November 22.

The German Renaissance is the theme of the lecture given this week by Prof. Harry E. Hein, of the German department.

Dedication of Stevenson Park

Sunday, December 3, the 50th anniversary of Robert Louis Stevenson's death, the Robert Louis Stevenson State Park on Mount St. Helena was formally dedicated. The ceremony was held at the site of Stevenson's cabin, at the old Silverado quicksilver mine, a favorite recreation place of Pacific Union College students.

News Briefs

Elder W. B. Ochs, president of the Northern California Conference, spoke on Sabbath, December 2, on the topic "Christ, the Answer to All of Our Needs."

Prof. D. E. Rebok, president of the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C., spoke at the chapel period, November 27. "Termites at Work in America" was the name he gave to the discussion of the underminers of democracy in this country.

Fifty-one students of Pacific Union College gave blood to the Red Cross November 30. President H. J. Klooster and Prof. H. E. Hein were also donors.

Under the direction of Prof. J. W. Rhodes, music instructor, the 16th annual rendition of Handel's "Messiah" was given by the Pacific Union College Oratorio chorus last Sunday night.

13th Sabbath Offering

The 13th Sabbath offering in all our Sabbath schools for this closing quarter will be a Christmas offering for foreign missions. The Sabbath School department of this conference is planning for this offering to be taken Sabbath, December 23.

From the reports that were presented at Fall Council from various sections of North America, it appears that this coming 13th Sabbath offering will be by far the largest in the history of our Sabbath school work.

It is fitting at this time that in presenting our gifts to Jesus, we make it a gift of worship, bringing a bountiful offering into the courts of our Lord. While the spirit of this warring world is strong as contrasted to the Spirit of the Prince of Peace, yet we are thankful that the time is soon coming when the Lord will change all things, and there will be "peace on earth, good will toward men." — W. A. NELSON.

Teachers' Institute

About 140 teachers from Nevada-Utah and the Northern and Central California Conferences met for their annual Teachers' Institute at San Jose, November 27-29. With the cooperation of the managers of three of our hotels, it was possible to comfortably house the teachers in locations convenient for meals and Institute sessions.

From the first session Monday morning until the closing Wednesday noon, the time was packed pull of practical talks and discussions. Splendid help was provided from Pacific Union College, La Sierra College, and the Pacific Union Conference office. Elder W. B. Ochs of Northern California, and Elder W. A. Nelson of Central California, were with us for a portion of the time and gave much appreciated help.

Prof. A. C. Nelson could not be with us, due to a trip to Hawaii on educational department business.

A pleasant feature of our meeting was the music furnished by groups of singers from Lodi Academy, Mountain View Academy, and the Miramonte (Mountain View) grade school.

Our teachers returned to their schools with the feeling that in practical instruction and profitable discussions this had been one of our very best teachers' councils. W. L. AVERY.

News Notes

Yuma:—The first Sabbath of December was a special day for the members of Yuma—especially for the Jamaican believers who have been working at Somerton a few miles away—when Elder C. E. Andross, conference president, gave stirring reports of the recent Fall Council. After the regular morning service and a lunch together, another meeting was held when the believers from Jamaica told of the advance of the advent message in their home island. They told of the zeal of the believers there in establishing branch Sabbath schools, which resulted in many souls being won to the truth.

For several weeks Elder L. D. Weber, district pastor in Yuma, has been holding evangelistic meetings in Somerton four nights a week. He reports a consistent good attendance with offerings which almost cover the expenses of the effort. Several are already keeping the Sabbath, and Elder Weber is studying with them in their homes to help them to become firmly grounded in the message and ready for baptism.

About the first of November the "Bible Auditorium of the Air," under Elder L. D. Weber's direction, began a regular broadcast over KYUM every Sabbath morning at 7:30. Have you been tuning in each week? If you have friends who are reached by this station, be sure to tell them about this broadcast.

Tucson:—Well supported by the local church members, Elder W. C. Hankins is holding Sunday night meetings in the church at Tucson. The church choir, under the direction of Merle Ayers, is giving valuable assistance.

Arizona Academy:—An enrollment increase of thirty has been reported at the academy—contrasted with 147 in 1943, there are now 177 enrolled. Sixty-six of these are academy students. Both of the dormitories are full, with twenty-two in the girls' home, and fourteen in the boys'.

On December 3, the academy board met to discuss problems of the school. Those present included: Elders C. E. Andross, W. R. French, J. F. Games, L. D. Weber, J. F. Street, and Brethren O. D. Hancock, J. O. Hanson, A. J. Werner, Henry Bruner, Bob Witmer, Fred Dotson, M. A. Martin, June Stump.

General News:—The conference office staff gave a hearty welcome to Brother A. J. Werner, Missionary Volunteer and educational secretary, when he returned recently from Young, Arizona, where he had been assisting Elder E. W. Storing with evangelistic meetings.

Elder A. H. Field, conference home missionary and Sabbath school secretary, met with the Japanese group at the relocation center in Rivers, Sabbath, December 2.

The workers in the Arizona Conference were in attendance at a special workers' meeting December 12, when Elder F. D. Nichol, editor of the Present Truth and Life and Health, brought an inspiring report of the progress of the advent message.

The Buckeye church has been remodeled so that it may better serve the needs of the membership. During the process of improvement, meetings were conducted at the home of Dr. R. L. Ward.

Workers' Meeting

The Conference Committee has definitely decided to have the workers' meeting Wednesday and Thursday, December 20 and 21, to be held in the Berkeley church. The first meetings will begin Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, December 20.

Though we do not know at this writing what outside help we will have, we plan to have help from the union conference.

We hope it will be possible for all our workers to be with us at the opening session and stay throughout the meeting.

News Notes

Elder C. W. Hartwick, pastor of the Eureka church, recently sent in word of the baptism of twelve new members into his church. We have also received word from Elder Kumaji Inoue of Tule Lake that he baptized six new members on November 19.

As a result of a recent effort held in Richmond by W. B. Bristow, four new believers have been baptized into the truth. Elder J. L. Tucker of Berkeley was the officiating minister. We wish to welcome all these new members into fellowship with us.

East Bay Association M.V. Rally

The Associated Missionary Volunteers of the East Bay gathered with their friends at the Oakland Civic Auditorium arena on Sabbath, November 25, for an afternoon and evening of fellowship. An outstanding program was enjoyed by the approximately 2,500 in attendance. Opening the day's program was the Golden Gate Academy choir, directed by Mrs. Reuben Biloff, singing "The Glory of the Lord" from the "Messiah." After the congregation sang "Redeemed," led by Fernon Retzer, the roll call was given. Friends, visitors, and members of the various M.V. societies in the East Bay and San Francisco stood to their feet as the name of their society was called. It was thrilling to see such a large group of young people. Elder B. W. Mattison gave a welcome to all the youth, and introduced Elder Glenn Fillman, M.V. secretary of Central California Conference. The choir sang the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Messiah." During this thrilling song, the entire audience stood, and remained standing while Scripture reading and prayer was offered by Ralph Baker of the Berkeley M.V. society.

We had the pleasure of having Elder L. K. Dickson, our union conference president, visit us. He spoke a few words of encouragement to our youth, and expressed his deep interest in the efforts of the Missionary Volunteers. Elder George Taylor, superintendent of the Hawaiian Mission, was also on the rostrum.

The King's Heralds Quartet rendered several fine numbers, and Elder Arthur Delafield, associate to Elder Richards, spoke of his experience in Honolulu where he was broadcasting at the time the Japanese struck Pearl Harbor. Elder Richards gave an earnest challenge to our young people, and inspired them with his dynamic preaching. It was a meeting long to be remembered in the Bay Area.

There was no intermission between meetings, and very few moved from their seats as the special choir from the Golden Gate Academy sang. An extra treat was a trombone solo offered by Mr. Dale Rice, visiting from Los Angeles, accompanied by Mrs. Rice at the piano. Elder Mattison introduced the speaker for the second meeting, Elder Eric B. Hare. Elder Hare led the youth through the historical experiences of many of the pioneers, and thrilled the listeners with stories of God's Spirit leading His faithful servants, bringing his sermon to a close with a mighty spiritual appeal to our young people to give themselves fully to God and His work. In response to this appeal, hundreds of young people rose. Here were truly Missionary Volunteers ready to go anywhere, at any time, for God. "Faith of Our Fathers," appropriately closed this service, the benediction being offered by Elder Dickson.

Following this deeply spiritual meeting, there was a short vesper service conducted by Elder Mattison. Scripture reading and prayer was offered by Kendall Butler of the Pacific Union College society. The benediction was pronounced by Elder George Taylor of Hawaii.

The meeting was dismissed for a period, during which refreshments were served, provided by the churches of the East Bay; the proceeds going to defray the expenses of the service. May we take this occasion to thank all those who so kindly baked pies, cakes, and made sandwiches for the food booth.

After a period of relaxation, the evening of social activities began. A variety program given by talented young people held the interest of the audience with songs, readings, instrumental numbers, duets, trios, choruses, and a finale of "God Bless America." Following the variety program, a sound motion picture, "Wheels Across India," was shown. After the picture, the chairs were cleared out of the huge auditorium, and recreational group games were enjoyed by all.

The Juniors were entertained with a variety program sponsored by Mr. Kinkle of the Richmond society, and Mr. Emerson of Lodi. The young people were ably supervised and planned for by our recreation committee. To close the day, all joined hands and sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," followed by prayer.

Two offerings were taken in the course of the meetings to help defray the heavy expense. The total offerings amounted to $560.24 in addition to $258.62 which was derived from sale of food. We wish to thank all who gave so liberally, and assisted in making the program a success.

Those who attended expressed their enthusiasm for the entire program, and felt that it was a milestone in the progress of our youth in the Bay area. The spirit of fellowship and unity was strengthened that we might more adequately meet the task that faces our youth, "The Advent Message to All the World in This Generation."

The R.T.C. Calls Women Who Qualify

Here is something new to join! There are SPARS, WAVES, and no end of alphabetical organizations. Here is one for you if you qualify—the R.T.C. (Reserve Teachers' Corps).

In many of our centers there are women who have trained for teaching or who have had teaching experience qualifying them to do substitute teaching.

Some could "fill in" during a regular teacher's absence only if it occurred in their local community while others could leave for a few days to teach in a school away from home.

In either case, we are anxious to have the names and addresses of those who would be willing to do substitute teaching in any emergency. We need you and hope you will join the R.T.C.

The Bible House Says

Another holiday season is just ahead, a time when gifts have their part in bringing happiness and good cheer to loved ones and friends. To those who may be somewhat perplexed in fully solving their gift problem, let us offer the suggestion of a good book, or a subscription to one of our worthwhile periodicals—gifts that carry thoughts of appreciation throughout the year.

We have numerous books for young and old that interest, enlighten and uplift—some just off the press, and many still in demand. Our 1945 Ministerial Reading Course contains five books that will be read with deep and profitable interest. Also the new Senior, Junior and Primary M.V. Reading Courses are better than ever, each set consisting of books that will hold the interest of the reader from beginning to end.

Holiday circulars have been sent out to churches in our conference, listing special holiday discounts on many books and all Reading Course sets, in effect until December 31. If you did not get your copy, a card to our office will bring one by return mail.

Where necessary, we will be glad to mail your gift direct. You may order through your church missionary secretary, or direct from your Book and Bible House, where prompt and efficient service is ready.

HENRY NORTON.

Doctor Says "No"

Two hundred seventy-nine Seventh-day Adventists have responded to the call for the Building Fund with their gifts of a little over twelve thousand dollars in cash, and another hundred have pledged over four thousand dollars. In other words, less than four hundred members have given or pledged over sixteen thousand dollars. With a membership of more than seven thousand, how quickly the necessary amount needed for the improvements at the Paradise Valley Sanitarium could be raised, if all would do their best in sending their offering.

The writer is anxious to see the amount raised so the building may be finished, furnished, and more student nurses admitted to the nurses' training school. As I hear the calls from our Government for ten thousand more nurses, it stirs my soul, for I know that God expects us as a people to lead out in the training of medical missionary nurses.

I was so in hopes that the doctor would say, "It is all right, Elder Passebois; you may visit the churches and raise what funds you can." But he said: "No, not yet;" so my only recourse for the present is to appeal to you through the columns of the RECORDER.

Several donations have just come in. Among them was a check for $300 from one of our doctors who formerly was connected with the Paradise Valley Sanitarium. Thanks!

After attending several board meetings in Glendale, Elder N. C. Petersen returned by way of Fallon, where he spoke on Friday night, November 24, and Reno, where he occupied the pulpit on Sabbath morning.

In the afternoon Elder Petersen met with the Greenville church. As a result of the labors of Brother David Smith, six young people were baptized at this special service. We welcome these new members into the Christian fellowship of the remnant church.

Elder and Mrs. Petersen and Brother and Sister Schmidt met with the Ely, Nevada, church December 2. They report splendid progress made as a result of the Adams-Rentfro evangelistic effort just completed.

Elder W. M. Adams, Jr. is planning for a baptism soon, after which he and his family will move to Reno.

Brother and Sister Richard Rentfro and Sister Mabel Monks will remain in Ely and continue to look after the work there. Let us remember our faithful workers before the throne of grace.

Coming

We are happy to announce a Great Home Missionary Convention and Rally, Sabbath, January 6, 1945, at 2:30 to 6:30 p.m. at Paulson Hall in Los Angeles. Elder R. G. Strickland, Home Missionary secretary of the General Conference will be one of our guest speakers. He will bring us a dynamic message on the plans of the General Conference for a resurgence of missionary endeavor in the finishing of the work of God on the earth.

Elder L. K. Dickson, our union conference president, has also promised to be with us and speak on God's Blueprint of Lay Evangelism. Elder David Voth will speak on Why I Believe in a Laymen's Movement. Other speakers on the symposium will be Elders R. R. Breitigam, W. H. Schacht, R. F. Cottrell, A. L. Bietz.

We hope that every church in our conference will have a large representation at this important meeting. The work of winning souls must not be limited to the pastors, the church missionary leader and secretary or other church officers. God is calling the entire church to engage in this greatest work ever committed to men. We hope to see every church member become interested in the missionary enterprises of the movement. Remember: "The work of God in this earth will never be finished until the men and women comprising our church membership rally to the work, and unite their efforts with those of ministers and church officers."

Let us have such a rally January 6, 1945, at this great Home Missionary Convention. ADLAI A. ESTER.

Why?

We have been asked: Why is it necessary that we send the old address when sending in an address change.

There are two reasons. The principal one is that our mailing list is made up by cities and towns. To find a name when the address is unknown means searching through the names in anything from a few to a hundred or more towns on the list. That is a time-consuming task.

Another reason is that care is not al-

Think of It!

Just think of it, $2,540.69 was the grand total of the Investment offering of the Orosi Sabbath school on December 2! This makes a record of $48.85 per capita, as the church membership is $52. Orosi has the honor of the highest per capita for Investment in the Pacific Union Conference.

"Wonderful," exclaimed a brother when I reported the offering at another church. Someone said, "How did they do it?" Before I had time to reply another responded: "There is someone in that church who has a real burden for the work." Yes, that is it. Sister Patti Wileman is the superintendent and she carries a real burden for missions; and so do all the other members of the church. Last year they raised $1,205 for Investment, and Sister Wileman suggested that their 1944 goal be double that of 1943. You have just read how they responded and even exceeded the goal.

The morning service hour on December 2 was dedicated to a well-prepared and very inspiring program in which many of the children and some of the adults took part. All who attended the service were inspired to a greater zeal and devotion to the work of God.

"How we did it in 1944," was the topic of a reading given—and from it I learned that a brother dedicated 20 per cent of his corn crop, a sister dedicated a certain fig orchard that several years ago brought in $100 but when dedicated to the Investment fund brought in $600. A doctor consecrates his Sabbath fees, a sister a certain portion of her earnings, and so on through the church. All were zealously doing something.

I believe the example of the Orosi church will inspire many others to "do more than ever before." We congratulate Orosi and the Central California Sabbath School department.

R. R. BREITIGAM.

Your Church Press Work

Every Seventh-day Adventist church favorably located with reference to a daily or weekly newspaper, or more than one, should at the beginning of the new year be well organized for its press work.

Your success in this doesn't depend on the size of your congregation. If it is large, or even medium in size, with a variety of activities, you may have some advantage. There is certainly every reason for such a church to have continuous favorable publicity. But, our churches of smaller memberships are also finding a ready reception of their church news items in local papers. Some of the most inspiring letters we receive come from leaders of small churches who have caught the vision of the value of publicity. These tell of the comments they hear among non-Adventist friends and others who are having their conception of the work of the Adventist church greatly enlarged by the reports they are reading in their newspapers. I have in mind one church of twelve members which had this experience.

A press secretary in another church recently wrote us that one lady they have contacted in a missionary way "had supposed until recently that we were just a small body of people. But since she has been following some of the things we have been doing and reporting in the newspaper, she says she is amazed, and wants to know more about our message."

We want to see every church sending out information regularly through the papers, which will influence many people in just this way.

The appointment by your church of some responsible person to serve as press secretary is the first important step. Please send to us here at the Press headquarters the name and address of the person appointed. This will give us opportunity to send some simple instruction to your church press secretary, telling just what to do. Then we will frequently supply current material in the way of writeups which can be adapted and used. Just now we have coming from the press a new folder, "Keep Your Church in the News," No. 3, picturing and featuring the manner in which Adventist news is now appearing in hundreds of newspapers in all parts of the country. Address the General Conference Bureau of Publicity, Takoma Park, Washington 12, D.C.

J. R. FERREN, Secretary.

A neglect to appreciate and improve the provisions of divine grace, has deprived the church of many a blessing. How often would the Lord have prolonged the work of some faithful minister, had his labors been appreciated.

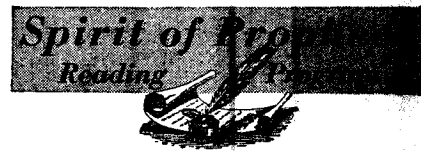

Dorcas Songbook

The "Dorcas Songbook" is now ready. This folio of choice selections of songs which inspire to service along the lines of Dorcas activity has been prepared in response to repeated requests from conference Home Missionary secretaries and leaders of Dorcas societies. A number of the selections are entirely new, having been written especially for Dorcas leaders, while others are more or less familiar but would require the purchase of a number of miscellaneous books in order to cover the selection. The titles of some of the songs are as follows:

Do Something for Somebody Every Day
Dwelling in Beulah Land
Brighten the Way with a Smile
Help Somebody Today
Dorcas Rally Song
Heaven's Gates Will Open Wide
It Pays to Serve Jesus
It's Bright Inside
Joppa by the Deep Blue Sea
Reach Out a Helping Hand
The Spirit of Dorcas
Sing the Clouds Away
Take Thy Burden to the Lord and Leave It There
If Jesus Goes with Me
How Can I Keep from Sewing?
Call to One and All

A number of theme songs are included, also three patriotic songs—"O Canada," "America the Beautiful," and "How Betsy Made the Flag," all of which serve to good purpose in Dorcas programs. Liberal concessions by the owners of copyrights, and courtesy of authors, have made it possible to produce this "Dorcas Songbook" at the very low price of 30 cents a copy. Leaders of Dorcas Federations and Dorcas societies should order sufficient copies for their constituencies. Secure your supply through the Home Missionary secretary of your conference.
