Elder L. K. Dickson Chosen Vice President of the General Conference for North America

No doubt many have read Associated Press dispatches in the various newspapers, telling of the appointment of Elder Louis K. Dickson as vice president of the General Conference for North America.

We very much regret losing Elder Dickson from our union conference, where he has served so efficiently as president. We are, however, very pleased to have one of his capabilities to act in this larger capacity as president of the North American Division.

Elder Dickson began his career as an evangelist at the age of nineteen, in the old California Conference, following which he spent a number of years in the Pacific Northwest. He returned to California, locating in Los Angeles, and after a short period was transferred to New York City, where he served as evangelist and pastor of the Temple church for a few years. He was then elected president of the Greater New York Conference, where he served six years. From New York he went to the Florida Conference, where he was president for three years.

Elder Dickson returned to the Pacific Coast when he was elected president of the Northern California Conference in 1936. After four years of most successful work in that field he was transferred to the presidency of the Southeastern California Conference, serving in that capacity until the General Conference of 1941, when he was unanimously chosen as president of the Pacific Union Conference. His spiritual and successful leadership in this office has won for him a very dear place in the hearts of his close associates and fellow workers.

The experience gained through the years of successful service in these various capacities has well qualified him for the position to which he has now been appointed, and is accepting. He will, however, not sever his connection with the Pacific Union for a few weeks. I am sure all will be pleased to learn that Elder and Mrs. Dickson are continuing their home on the West Coast for the present.

Certainly our prayers and best wishes go with Elder and Mrs. Dickson as they take on these large responsibilities to which God has called them. May God give them wisdom sufficient for the task that lies before them.

No successor has yet been chosen to fill the vacancy left by Elder Dickson's resignation. A meeting of the union conference committee will give study to this at an early date. C. L. BAUER.

Our Medical Ministry Reaches Jamaica

In beautiful Jamaica, where the people respond so readily to the preaching of the message by both evangelist and colporteur, plans have been perfected for the starting of medical missionary work in the city of Kingston, the capital of the island. The program includes a city clinic for the poor (whose name is legion in this city) with 20 beds and appropriate equipment to care for a large number of people daily. This clinic is now being constructed on a fine site connected with a commodious church in Kingston, which seats 1100 people and which is always overcrowded.

Then a few miles out on the outskirts of the city, the brethren have purchased a beautiful site with a large home upon it. This residence will be utilized as a nurses' home, and a modest sanitarium and hospital will be erected on this property. It is situated in the best residential section of the city and quite near the Governor's residence.

In the city, itself, the brethren have rented a nice office for Dr. Clifford Anderson who is to be in charge of this medical program. Thus at long last this little land of Jamaica, where we have over 10,000 faithful believers, and where they are baptizing over 1,000 souls a year, is to be blessed with the ministrations of our doctors and nurses. Miss Ruth Munroe who was in Siam when the Japanese army entered there, and who was repatriated on the first trip of the "Gripsholm," is now in Jamaica, and is giving preliminary training to a group of young women at the West Indian Training College, preparatory to setting up a nurses' course in connection with the new institution.

Only those who know the sad physical condition of the people of this little island can realize what a boon it will be to our own membership, and what an influence will be added to our work, by this new development which is long overdue.

But, for the completion of such a broad program as I have here outlined, much more money than what is now in sight must be provided. This is one of the projects which will benefit from the overflow of the Thirteenth Sabbath offering on March 31.

Won't you, dear readers, put a few bricks in this new sanitarium or a few planks in this city clinic by doubling your regular Thirteenth Sabbath offering this time? H. M. BLUNDEN.

That Old Signs in the Attic

On the back page of a recent issue of the RECORDER there appeared a picture of an old farmhouse in Lake County, northern California. The story with the picture told of an old copy of the Signs of the Times (1883) that was found in the attic, and how it was read by the new owners of the house with great appreciation. At the time of the finding of the old paper, the lady of the house had been receiving Bible studies from Elder Warren Wittenberg, then serving as district pastor in Lake County, but she had not taken her stand with our people.

OUR RECORDER readers will now be glad to learn that Elder Wittenberg recently received a letter from this lady in Lake County, telling of her full acceptance of the message and that she has joined the church. I was with Brother Wittenberg the day he received the letter, and we were happy, of course, to learn of the lady's decision. She hopes to see her husband and son take the same step soon. The story was told in the churches we visited, and I am sure it encouraged our people.

The interest in the Signs of the Times increases everywhere. In the present campaign our churches are adding substantially to their lists. I have just spent some time with Elder Wittenberg in the Southeastern California Conference, visiting a number of churches on behalf of the Signs. Every

News Briefs

A lecture on the Romantic Movement in Spanish literature by Prof. G. B. Taylor March 14 completed the Rine lecture series for the winter quarter. The January lecture was given by Prof. Charles D. Utt on the Renaissance in England and the February lecture by Miss Helen Merriam on Neoclassicism in French and English literature.

Elder George Loewen, pastor of the Hilborn church, Lodi, conducted the Week of Prayer services in the College Preparatory school last week. The theme running through his talks to the students was "Keepers of the Heart."

Ninety-five seniors and juniors attended a picnic Wednesday afternoon, March 7, at Blake's canyon. After an afternoon of hiking and games, the group enjoyed an outdoor supper and a program.

Mrs. Bertrand Hennessey, Napa county chairman of the American Red Cross, opened the local drive for funds at the chapel hour March 5. The goal for the college community is $1,000. Public speaking students from the college have spoken in the interest of the Red Cross at the Women's Improvement Club and in the public schools at St. Helena.

A group of Prof. C. E. Weniger's speech students recently gave a program one of them made an excellent increase of from twenty-five to fifty per cent over last year's record. We look for great things to be accomplished in that field as well as in others in the days to come.

of speeches, readings, and music at the Napa Junior high school.

The Creationism Research Association has recently been reorganized. It will be known as the Bible-Science Forum. The purpose of the Forum, as stated in its constitution, will be to promote study and discussion of problems of the relation between the Bible and science, including the Genesis record of creation and the flood. Prof. H. W. Clark is president and Dr. R. E. Hoen secretary-treasurer.

Elder D. E. Robinson, of Washington, D.C., conducted week-end services March 2 to 4. He reviewed incidents in the history of Seventh-day Adventists and related many personal experiences.

Twenty-six members of the Foreign Mission band have signed declaration cards this year signifying their willingness to enter foreign mission service.

In a recent poll taken at the College of Medical Evangelists, it was found that of 445 students who obtained their preparation for the study of medicine in 45 colleges and universities, one fourth were from Pacific Union College. In the College of Physicians and Surgeons, San Francisco, 33 students from here are taking the dental course.

Staff Enjoys Social Evening

Faculty members, office workers, and other staff members met for a social evening Thursday, March 8, in Graf hall dining room. All were seated according to their birth months and went in groups to the kitchen to be served a potluck supper. Prof. Charles E. Weniger, who was master of ceremonies, called on various members for speeches and music. President H. J. Klooster discussed plans for the coming summer and school year. Graham Maxwell sang, Mrs. P. E. Quimby gave a reading, and Prof. and Mrs. D. A. Courville, Miss Pauline Weitz, and Merrill Enright gave a saxophone quartet.

President Klooster announced that in the summer school special courses will be offered for teachers in the fields of school music and art. Graduate courses will be provided in nursing education, and in visual and audiovisual education for secondary teachers.

I Am Hungry for God—"From a child I have wanted to be good. I became a member of the ----- church when young, but did not know God. I went off into much sin and yet all the time I wanted to do the right. Finally I decided that if I joined the Catholic Church, I would have to do right for I would be ashamed to confess to the priest. This step cost me my home and my parents and my husband. I loved my dear ones but I wanted to find Jesus. But after all of this, I did not find Him there. Finally I went straight to Jesus and I know I am His child. Now I am wondering about baptism. I need to learn so much and that is why I am so anxious for The Voice of Prophecy to stay on the air. I am happy for God, and need to learn much in the time that is left to me. Do pray for me."—New Mexico.

Looking for the True Church—"My sister and I listen to your broadcast whenever possible. We are strict Fundamentalists, and are sick and tired of all this modernistic stuff that is nothing and gets you nowhere. We are looking for the coming of Jesus and for the true church. We would like very much to have your Bible course."—Indiana.

I Am a Different Person Now—"Before I started with this Bible course I was at sea as to what to do for the real truth. I am a different person now and have joined the S.D.A. Church. I feel that I am on the sure way and the straight route. I am keeping the Sabbath. I have learned how to live and get along better than I ever have, and I know that God is pleased with me. Greater trials have come to me but I know better how to meet them. I have sent in the names of ten or twelve people for the Bible course. Some of them have come to me and told me of the good they have received from the lessons. These Bible lessons help me to understand the Sabbath school lessons."—Philadelphia.

I Wish to Enroll—"I wish to mention that I was led to the knowledge of Christ through a Voice of Prophecy pamphlet more than a year ago. I now wish to enroll in your free Bible course."—California.

Missionary Volunteer Rallies

During the visit of Elder Eric B. Hare in our field several M.V. rallies were conducted in the churches on the western side of the conference. The young people and their parents welcomed the opportunity of becoming better acquainted with our union M.V. secretary. Elder Hare delighted old and young alike with his unique stories about the land of the gold pagodas and the devil worshippers.

Pastor D. E. Jacobs accompanied Elder Hare and illustrated his stories and sermons with rapid-hand drawings and cartoons.

Ely—Our highest church in the conference is located in this mining town. Pastor R. A. Rentfro had a good audience and a warm I.O.O.F. hall ready for the speaker of the evening when he arrived during a snowstorm.

Yerington—Pastor F. H. Rahm arranged to have the M.V. rally in the home of Mrs. Christine Frazer so that children from many miles around could be present. The junior boys and girls showed a lively response to every program feature. The Yerington boys and girls are busy preparing themselves for advancement in Progressive class work.

Reno—After Elder Hare related the stories of the Karen jungle boys, the Reno young people and their seniors felt a deeper appreciation of what the power of the gospel is accomplishing in far-away Burma.

Susanville—Mrs. Alice Goodrich, teacher of the Susanville church school, had a group of nineteen ready for an M.V. investiture service. A fine audience of parents and friends were present to do the young people honor.

Greenville—The church auditorium was filled with boys and girls and their friends.

Mr. Robert Calkins, pastor-teacher at Greenville, is working toward another M.V. investiture service for his boys and girls. Fifty per cent of the children enrolled in his school are from non-Adventist homes.

Fallon—Week-end meetings were held in this school center, starting Friday and concluding Saturday night with a church social. The young people participated heartily in every program. Opportunity was given for presentation and discussion of many items that strengthen the functioning of a Missionary Volunteer society.

Speaker Stresses Importance of Will

Elder Eric B. Hare outlined the importance of training the will of a child when he spoke Thursday evening, March 8, at the regular monthly meeting of the Home and School Association in the Phoenix Central church.

Quoting from the Spirit of prophecy, Elder Hare explained the real meaning of the will. He then drew a sketch to illustrate the working of the will, which is the deciding power of the individual.

If the will of the child is not properly trained, the speaker declared, it is broken or crushed, whether that be because of too much use of the rod, or because of a total lack of discipline. Before the child can exercise the will intelligently, he must know how to reason.

Therefore, it is of utmost importance to begin while the child is still an infant to be consistent in disciplining him so that he will have the proper background to learn to reason. Then he should also early be given opportunities to make decisions, with the parents making sure before he is called upon to make these decisions, that he has a sufficient background in that particular subject to help him to decide for the right. This will help to develop the child's will and prepare him to surrender it to God.

Mrs. A. J. Werner, leader of the association, made a few remarks concerning the plans for the year, and urged that parents visit the school, and that teachers visit the parents.

Young People Meet

Keeping the Missionary Volunteer society alive spiritually, mentally, physically, and socially was the theme of the Missionary Volunteer Rally conducted Sabbath afternoon, March 10, in the Phoenix Central church, with Mr. A. J. Werner, conference Missionary Volunteer secretary, in charge. Elder Eric B. Hare of the union Missionary Volunteer department was also present to give helpful counsel.

Topics presented, dealing with methods of developing an active society, included talks on personal devotion by George Smith, profitable reading by Miss Lois Ruth Eldridge, nature study by Mrs. E. Pohle, good music by Miss Otilie Frank, definite missionary activities by Elder A. H. Field, literature evangelism by Mr. C. L. Wilber, reporting by Mr. M. C. Mundall, and planning Christian recreation by Mr. Marvin L. Sanford.

Encouraging reports of the work being done in the Phoenix Central church society, the Glendale society, and the Beacon Light church society were given by their respective leaders, Mr. M. C. Mundall, Mrs. J. F. Street, and Mrs. M. L. Sanford.

Special music for the occasion included a trumpet solo by Elder Hare, a violin solo by Miss Ardyce Hanson, and a Bach Chorale presented by the Aeolians, a musical group from Arizona Academy, comprised of the Misses Rose Wilson, Charlene Lowe, Evelyn Dugan, Ardyce Hanson, Dolores Meason, Zoan Neff, and Bertie Lou Kussell.

Baptism

On February 10 in the baptistry of the Baptist Church in Santa Rosa nine precious souls were buried in baptism with the Lord Jesus and experienced a spiritual resurrection to walk in newness of life. Thus two new adult members were added to the Santa Rosa church, and five junior members and two adults to the Healdsburg church.

These individuals who have taken their stand with the remnant church are fruits of the labors of Sister Anderson of Santa Rosa, conference Bible teacher, Robert McPherson, pastor of the Healdsburg church, and Elder F. O. Fowler, district leader.

Another baptism is planned very soon which will take place in the Healdsburg church, where a baptistry is under construction.

Did You Say Books?—Look!

The Road to Alaska, by Douglas Coe, is the story of a great road, and of the men who built it. Experts claimed for years that it would be impossible to build a highway to Alaska. But when the needs of a world at war demanded that highway the United States Army Engineers were assigned to the task, and succeeded in transforming the impossible into an actuality. The price is $2.50, plus six cents tax.

Abe Lincoln's Other Mother, by Bernadine Bailey. When Abe Lincoln was nine years old, his mother died. A year later his father married a widow, Sarah Bush Johnston, and brought her and her three children to the humble Lincoln cabin in southern Indiana. At once she took the motherless ten-year-old boy to her heart. It was she, the stepmother, who mothered the boy and molded the man whose greatness of soul made him the outstanding American he later became. The price of this book is $2.50. Order either book through your church missionary secretary or direct from the Northern California Book and Bible House.

The Health Classics

James Russell Lowell says, "A man's mind is known by the company it keeps."

What company does your mind keep? Have you selected one of the suggestive "Health Classics"? If not, may I suggest one?

Commence with "Ministry of Healing"; it is for old and young—young people, young wives and husbands with children. It has a definite help for every ailment, for everybody. This book will make better homes for us, make real medical missionaries for ourselves and friends. It will teach us to appreciate the ministry of Jesus. Did you ever read this?—

"Through childhood, youth, and manhood, He walked alone. Yet it was heaven to be in His presence. Day by day He met trials and temptations; day by day He was brought into contact with evil, and witnessed its power upon those whom He was seeking to bless and to save. Yet He did not fail or become discouraged." Pages 18, 19.

Would that everyone would acquaint themselves with this classic. May it be said, "He shuts the book a richer man."

Attention, Pacific Union College-Healdsburg Alumni

Sunday, April 1 is the date for the Ninth Annual Alumni Homecoming on the College campus. While the national emergency demands curtailment of travel, a cordial invitation is extended to any alumnus who may find it possible to attend. Reservations for supper should be sent in not later than March 28. A charge of fifty cents per person will be made.

A new alumni publication is just off the press and is available to all alumni who will send in their correct present address and vital statistics concerning year and curriculum finished. If it is not possible to attend the Homecoming send greetings by letter or wire and a personal note for inclusion in the next issue.

L. MARK HAMILTON, President.
Pacific Union College Alumni Assn.

More Good News From the Philippines

From reports and letters we learn of the safety of more of our missionaries long interned in the Philippines. Among the latest reports are names of a number who are well known in the Pacific Union:

Elder and Mrs. E. M. Adams, Prof. and Mrs. Carson C. Morrison, Elder and Mrs. E. J. Urquhart and their son, Mr. and Mrs. James Lee and their two little boys, Elder and Mrs. A. N. Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Honor and their two children.

Rehabilitation Fund

I am sure that you will all be glad to have this further information on the standing of the Rehabilitation fund. A report from two churches in Hawaii brought us $6,200. The standing of the conference as of this week follows:

Arizona	$ 3,500.00
Central California	37,617.00
Hawaii	6,200.00
Nevada-Utah	2,500.00
Northern California	49,000.00
Southeastern Calif.	37,290.00
Southern California	83,760.21

Total $219,868.11

Naturally we are happy for the response that has been rendered by our good people in giving so generously to this offering. We could have hoped that it might be a quarter of a million. When all the reports of all the churches are in, we shall be happy to see what the final results are. I invite you to invoke God's richest blessings on this offering that it may do the most good in the fields which are in need of this rehabilitation work. C. L. BAUER.
