Ingathering Opportunities

The annual Ingathering campaign presents the church with wonderful opportunities for witnessing for God and His truth and His work on the earth. In Isaiah 60:1-5 we find the divine call to the church to "Arise, shine." We also find the divine promise of success. Here are some words we find in this inspiring scripture: "Arise, SHINE. . . THEN thou shalt . . . be ENLARGED: because the abundance of the sea (PEOPLE) shall be CONVERTED . . . the WEALTH of the Gentiles shall come unto thee." Isa. 60:1-5 (Margin).

From these words we see that Ingathering achieves three marvelous results:

1. The Enlightenment of the World
2. The Enlargement of the Church
3. The Enrichment of the Cause of God

May God help us to fulfill His divine will for the church and lead us into the "enlarged work" He is planning to do for the world. ADLAI A. ESTEB.

Listen, Parents

I have just finished preparing the copy which will appear in the Department of Education section of the May Church Officers' Gazette, for use in the Home and School association meetings. I enjoyed the articles so thoroughly, myself, that I cannot resist telling you about them. I wish that these articles might appear in the Review, so that every Adventist mother and father might benefit from this excellent material on "Teaching the Value and Use of Money." But then, I don't know that this particular program is any more important or more interesting than the one for March on "Music in Home and School," or that on "Personality and Character" for April.

The thing that really concerns me today is that these good helps are available each month, yet not all our parents are receiving the benefit. Of course we all know the place of the church school in the Christian training of our children; but I fear many churches are overlooking the benefit they might receive from the Home and School association, which provides help for every teacher of our children—the teachers in the home as well as those in the classroom.

Some think they have very good excuses for not conducting regular Home and School meetings, but are they valid reasons that will stand in the day when the Judge shall ask, "Where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?" Or will those parents bow their heads in grief and shame, answering pitifully, "My children are gone forth of me, and they are not"? Certainly as parents we need every possible help in doing our task better as the days come and go.

Then there is the specific training for parents contained in the Home Education courses prepared by the General Conference Department of Education and distributed by the Home Study Institute. One mother wrote to us recently: "Two of us in this church have experienced the deep grief of one of the family being side-tracked from the fold, and if we can do something to help other mothers from this sad experience it will be our pleasure to do so." When laymembers in their own homes feel the burden to save and train the children and youth of the church, then there is hope of an upward, progressive movement. Won't you join those who are determined to make their homes truly Christian? If you do all in your power to this end, then you can confidently claim the promise of Isaiah 49:25—"I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children."

If your church has no Home and School association, and cannot be per-sueded to form one, won't you get the Gazette and read these articles for yourself, from month to month?

MRS. FLORENCE K. REBOK,
Assistant Secretary for Parent and Home Education, General Conference Department of Education.

Our Greatest Publishing Year

The year of 1946 goes down in our denominational history in the western states as the greatest in the publishing work. The nearly two hundred workers in the Pacific Press at Mountain View, California, rejoice with the many thousands of believers in the Pacific, North Pacific, Central, and Northern Unions, which comprise the territory served by the Pacific Press, in the remarkable sales record of $3,586,000, representing the total retail value of the business of 1946. This is the high peak in the history of the institution for any year.

More than 302,000 hard bound books were sent out by the publishing house. These were chiefly handled by our faithful army of consecrated colporteurs. Nearly 25,000,000 copies of our periodicals were printed. The small paper bound books and tracts totaled 1,263,684 copies. The Signs of the Times required fifty tons of paper each month for the printing of the large weekly circulation of some 330,000 copies. We are truly grateful to our church members everywhere for their splendid help in the circulation of both the English and foreign editions of the Signs of the Times.

The Pacific Press has its home plant in Mountain View, California. In addition to the expanding work being done there, the Press also operates a mission publishing plant in Cristobal, Canal Zone. The business of this house in 1946 totaled more than $560,000. Considerable Spanish literature is printed there. Important building im-

Improvements are in progress at this branch.

For many years the Pacific Press has been operating what may be regarded as another mission plant in Brookfield, Illinois, near Chicago. This branch devotes its entire energies to printing our denominational literature in about twenty-six foreign languages used in the United States. Only a few years ago it was thought by some of our leaders that the plant in Brookfield was too large for such work, but now it is not able to meet the demands made upon it. This branch has been doing valiant service during the past few years in helping to supply other lands with literature. Its total business for 1946 was nearly $300,000.

Under the direction of the General Conference, the Pacific Press has assumed the entire burden of building and equipping the new publishing house in Manila for the rapidly growing work in the Philippines. More than $125,000 have already been appropriated for this project by the Pacific Press, and $50,000 recently given will assist in the rehabilitation of the publishing houses in Japan and Korea. The Pacific Press is truly both a home and foreign missionary institution. In addition to the work it directs in its home plant at Mountain View, and its two printing branches, it also maintains three depository branches for the convenience of its territory. One is located in Omaha, Nebraska, one in Portland, Oregon, and another in Mountain View.

The Pacific Press is a humming center of activity. For many months it has had great difficulty in keeping up with the increasing demand for our literature. The pressure of work, the importance of the literature ministry, the momentous times in which we are living, the frequent need for efficient help—these are among the reasons that constitute a challenge to younger men and women who should enlist in this branch of God's work.

We must conclude this brief report, and in doing so express in behalf of the Pacific Press deep appreciation of the splendid cooperation of our colporteurs and church members during 1946. Our workers everywhere report many cases of men and women who have entered the lighted way through the reading of our literature, but only heaven has the full record of the influence growing out of it all.

College of Medical Evangelists

The College of Medical Evangelists now has the largest student enrollment of any medical school in the western part of the United States. This standing is recorded in the most recent educational issue of the American Medical Journal, the official organ of the American Medical Association.

In addition to a student body of 322, the College has a staff of 439 professors, associate professors, assistant professors, instructors, and assistants. This group of teachers is larger than the total number of professors in all the Adventist colleges in the United States.

The faculty of the medical school, which has trained nearly 2,000 doctors in the principles of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and practice of medicine, is composed of men and women who are recognized as specialists in the various fields of medicine.

The senior class of medicine which graduates June 22, 1947, numbers 87, and more than half of this group have expressed the desire to serve as medical missionaries.

Hawaiian Mission
1942-1946

The five years covered by this report comprise five years of unprecedented blessing to God's work in the Territory of Hawaii. Elder George Taylor, who at the beginning of the period was the superintendent, continued on until the close of the year 1944. Therefore, most of the progress reported in this report was accomplished through the years that Elder Taylor and his staff of workers were leading out.

During the years of war there were many things that created problems for the advancement of the work in that military center. But we have long ago learned that there is no crisis with the Lord. In fact, difficulties but afford additional means for God to demonstrate His power and His saving grace in behalf of His people.

With the added transportation difficulties, it was not always possible for our workers to get back and forth from the Islands to the mainland. There was quite an accumulation of furloughs due so that when normal transportation was available, quite a large number of our workers were due for transfer to the mainland. This has made quite a change in our working force; many of our present workers have been in the field only about one year.

Aside from this great turnover in our working group, there is another important feature of our work that I would like to mention. That is the splendid help that the Pacific Union Conference and the General Conference have afforded us. The General Conference sent Elder Meade MacGuire to us for six weeks. The Pacific Union Conference sent Elder F. G. Ashbaugh for eight weeks to assist in the work for our children and youth. Elder Bauer and Elder Torrey were with us for about three weeks. Then Elder W. A. Nelson, president of the Northern California Conference, came out and visited practically every church and every island. Later, Elder Torrey and Elder A. C. Nelson came to study the school problem with us. And now the General Conference has sent Elder A. W. Cormack to be with us. Surely no effort has been spared by these higher organizations to give Hawaii every possible assistance. I know we all greatly appreciate this, and I personally am grateful for the splendid support and help from both the union and the General Conference.

This is the first year that we have operated the Pacific Union College extension plan at the Hawaiian Mission Academy. This plan brings teachers from the college to us and is a great aid to our work.

The following statistics show the encouraging growth of the work during these eventful years and reveal the blessing of God upon His work and workers:

It has been well said that "The years reveal that which the days never knew," and we feel to praise the Lord for the wonderful work that He has done in this island field these last five years. Our present church membership has reached the encouraging figure of 1,423 and our Sabbath school membership is over 1600.

Our entire working force consists of 24 evangelistic workers and 42 educational workers and 8 who are doing somewhat of both in office or in other capacities, together with a large force of colporteurs. This group of workers, together with quite a large number of laymembers who have been active in soul-saving work, have been responsible for 798 baptisms this five-year period.

This would not be a complete report unless we mentioned the faithful and successful work of our lay evangelists. These members on their own initiative work with their neighbors, their friends and relatives, their associates in shop and factory, and have brought in a large number of souls each year. We do not have the exact figure as oftentimes several have been partners in the studies given in this soul-saving work.

In this brief picture of God's work in these islands, much has been left out. We would like to record the tent meetings held by several of our faithful evangelists, the splendid work done by the educational and Missionary Volunteer departments and the wonderful work done by our colporteurs. Thousands of Bible studies given—yes, we are millionaires! The work of the radio ministry—eight radio programs a week. Miss Wood, the secretary of our Voice of Prophecy work, can tell you of the thousands of letters received and the many souls won to the Lord.

And now we must close. We have told you just a few of the good things that are taking place in Hawaii. We praise the Lord for His marvelous blessings. It is a work of joy and pleasure to be associated with a group of earnest, hard-working, God-fearing men and women, such as we have there.

Border of Red on a White Robe in Heaven

"You ought to love our princes," said the proconsul to the martyr Achatius.

"By whom is the emperor more loved than by Christians?" was the reply. "We supplicate for him unceasingly a long life, a just government of his peoples, a peaceful reign, prosperity for the army and the whole world."

"Good," replied the proconsul, "but in order to prove your obedience, sacrifice with us in his honor."

"I pray to God for my emperor, but a sacrifice neither he should require nor we pay. Who may offer divine sacrifice to a man?" was the declaration of the faithful Achatius. But with this profession of his faith, he was sentenced to death.

"Of fires so slow that the victims writhed for hours in their agonies; of bodies torn limb from limb, or sprinkled with burning lead; of mingled salt and vinegar poured over the flesh that was bleeding from the rack; of tortures prolonged and varied through entire days. . . ."

Read the thrilling and chilling account of the martyrs; of the enacting of the first Sunday law; the fusion of heathenism and Christianity under Constantine, and the divorce of the church from Christ and marriage to the state, as told in "Forty Centuries of Law and Liberty," by Varner J. Johns.

Review the fascinating story of the development of the papacy! That which had been only an embryo in the second and third centuries became an ambitious child in the fourth, and a full-grown man in the sixth. Your faith will be marvelously strengthened as you follow through the centuries, noting that God has always had a faithful people on this earth.

As a special offer to our people, while present stocks last, "Forty Centuries of Law and Liberty" is reduced from $1.75 to $1.25, postpaid. Send to your Book and Bible House for your copy today.

Ingathering Special

There should be placed in every home solicited, whether or not an offering is received, a piece of literature that will direct attention to God's message for today. Arthur S. Maxwell has prepared a masterpiece for the occasion, and it appears in Present Truth No. 29.

He gives a vivid description of destruction in Europe and the Far East and draws a lesson from the fact only recently revealed that "but for the grace of God" it might have been the United States, or England, or the whole civilized world. He continues with inescapable logic to show that the machinery of peace cannot be made to work when moral collapse becomes an accomplished fact. But there is good news, the most wonderful news! Jesus Christ is coming back to earth and coming soon. The reader is lifted from the depths of despair by the promise of our Saviour's return.

Less than one cent a home will care for the expense. In thousand lots you may secure Present Truth for only three-quarters of a cent a copy. Some individuals will use a thousand or more papers in the Ingathering effort and many churches will order by the thousand. Sometimes several individuals will go in together for a thousand copies. On smaller quantities prices range from $1.25 a hundred to $4.50 for five hundred copies.

Order from your Book and Bible House.

"Your Bible lessons have meant more than words could ever hope to express. I am the mother of nine children which are all small yet. Now I can raise them to trust and believe that they will all be saved."

"I ask your prayers for me, for you know it takes time for a sinner to become fully converted. I have come a long way up the ladder since I started taking your Bible course. I want you to know that I have enjoyed the lessons and have accepted all that you teach. I want to be baptized and become a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. I have given up unclean meats, tea, coffee, and liquor. I am now struggling with the tobacco habit, and must have victory. I have stopped going to movies, also card playing, gambling, and jewelry. All of these things combined are not as hard to give up as cigarettes. I am praying for courage to take the last step."

"I have gone along with most of the world, keeping Sunday for the Sabbath. It is kept by so many today that I just did it without giving it much thought, although I know the fourth commandment says to keep holy the seventh day. Since I have taken your Bible course and have studied the subject well I have come to see that I was wrong. Nothing could be plainer. With God's help I mean to make Saturday my Sabbath. I do so want to do right. Please pray that I may have the will power to do this. In so many ways I am weak, but I am trying to do what is right in God's sight regardless of what the world thinks. I am in a Sanatorium and have been for nearly two years."

"I have been in a hospital for more than a year and do not seem to be getting any better. I ask you to pray for me and also for my people. We are all Catholics and my father is a drunkard. They just do not know about Christ. How I would like to get home and tell them about the truth I have learned. I am so glad that I took your Bible course. I keep the Sabbath now and do not believe in Sunday any more. I am very thankful for your Bible lessons."

"My eyes have been opened, and I see what it means to be a sinner. The lessons have been like a heart to heart study. They have made me think deeply, and I very much desire to keep all of the commandments of God, including the fourth. I have learned many things about the Bible that I never knew before. Thank you for making this Bible course possible."

"I was brought up to believe that Sunday was the Sabbath. This course has set me right on that question. I was enrolled in the course by a Sabbath-keeping girl and we are going to be married in June. If there is a Seventh-day Adventist church near here please let me know."

"How am I to keep the Sabbath when there is no group in my community with whom I can meet on that day? Your representative has never called on me. Will you please tell me what to do? I am used to attending church on Sunday. I have kept that day till it has become a part of me."

"I feel that my lessons and the books and sermons you have sent me have given me more spiritual help than all the church going and Sunday schools I have attended all my life, and I am nearly fifty years old. About eighteen years ago I attended the Seventh-day Adventist Church for a time and felt that I had found the truth, but I didn't have the strength to keep it. I was having trouble with my husband and finally gave up to go with him, trying to keep my home together. We finally separated. . . . Since I have started my correspondence course with The Voice of Prophecy I have felt different, and with God's help and your prayers I will try to keep the commandments of God."

Union College Alumni to Meet

A reunion of people from Union College will be held at Glendale Academy auditorium, 700 Kimlin Drive, Sunday evening, April 20. A long visiting period and a short program are planned. Special guests are the present president of Union, Dr. Robert W. Woods, and three former presidents, Frederick Griggs, H. A. Morrison, and E. E. Cossentine. Supper will be served at 6:30, but visiting will begin at 5:30 and continue until and after the program. The following points are emphasized:

1. This gathering welcomes not only graduates but equally other former students, faculty members, and friends of Union.

2. Postal card notices have been mailed to some alumni whose addresses were recorded at previous reunions, but failure to receive such announcement should not discourage attendance by the many others who have not yet been listed.

3. A census of Union College people living in Southern California will be taken at the reunion to obtain information and news for a special number of the alumni paper. Hence a really large attendance is desirable.

4. Reservations for supper ($1.25 per plate) must be made by Sunday, April 13. Write Ada Williams Turner, 1613 Pennsylvania Ave., Los Angeles 33, or telephone ANgelus 2-6678.

Remember the date—April 20. Spread the word among your Union friends and urge them to attend.

News Notes

We are happy to hear the encouraging reports of the efforts at present. Elder D. R. Loutzenhiser of Fallon writes, "Our meeting crowds are holding up exceptionally well. The last two Sunday nights have been even better than most and here we are in the seventeenth week."

We have this comment from Elder W. M. Adams, Jr., of Reno. "Last Sunday night we had a full house again. The interest seems to be keeping up very well."

Let us remember these brethren in our prayers.

At a recent workers' meeting, it was voted to set our Ingathering dates for April 5 to May 3. The officers and workers are launching plans to make this the biggest campaign in the history of this conference. Last year over $10,000 was raised. This year it is expected to reach well over $11,000.

We are happy that Elder E. M. Fishell is with us. He gave help in our Colporteur Institute held March 16-18.

Yerington Church Dedication

The Yerington church building and parsonage, so graciously sold to us recently by the Baptists, will be dedicated at 3:00 p.m. March 29. Elder C. L. Bauer, our union conference president, has been asked to preach the dedicatory sermon. An interesting program is planned for this Sabbath afternoon.

In the morning, Elder R. A. Smithwick, president of the Nevada-Utah Conference will deliver God's message. At the close of the sermon, Brother R. E. Berry, who has been laboring in Salt Lake City, is to be ordained to the gospel ministry.

The Yerington church which was organized about seven years ago, has been without a church home of its own, until this recent purchase. Elder and Sister F. H. Rahm, who are now shepherding the flock, held a twelve-month evangelistic effort in Yerington. They have baptized seventeen, and have another group preparing for baptism. God's providential dealings have been manifest in the securing of this splendid church plant, which is being dedicated six months after the purchase. Extensive repairs have been made, or are in the process of being completed, on the church and the parsonage. A representative building is also planned for Christian education.

Let as many as possible go to the Yerington church dedication, and see what God hath wrought. Let us go with a prayer for more blessings for all those who have made this house of worship possible, and for an inspiration for ourselves.

Training for Health Education

"We have come to a time when every member of the church should take hold of medical missionary work." Counsels on Health, p. 425.

Accepting this challenge, a group of pastors, physicians, and church medical missionary secretaries met together for special study on Sunday evening, March 9. The study-meeting followed a special supper for the group at the Glendale Sanitarium cafeteria. Elder Schick, pastor of the Lynwood church, presented the need and the scope of our medical missionary work. Elder H. M. Burwell and Miss Eva Beeler from the Northern California Conference told of the organization and development of the health education work and of the provisions and facilities for such in their conference. By means of transcription, those present learned from Dr. Ruth Temple, associate Los Angeles Health Officer, about the value of concerted effort through the formation of health study groups.

Following the talks, there was worth while and stimulating discussion by various ones. Plans were made for additional study meetings for developing effective coordinated health education work in the Southern California Conference in order that all may have a part in this phase of evangelism.

Great Controversy Study League

From Phoenix, Arizona, comes this letter:

"I am so happy to tell you that we started our Colporteur Institute, and we are learning salesmanship and so many things we never knew; and how the God of Elijah is still able to manifest Himself for us.

"I took my outline of 'Great Controversy' to the meeting Tuesday evening, and when I showed them the chart and told them of the wonderful course, imagine my delight when eleven of them signed up to take it. Two of us have finished it before, and another one is well along in the course."

Elder Dean Lower sent in the names of all the colporteurs in the Oregon Conference, and we feel this is a splendid study for such workers to take. "The Great Controversy" outline and chart sells at one dollar a set to pay for printing and postage; but we will be pleased to give it at half price to colporteurs in our cause, wherever they may be.

This is primarily a correspondence course, and help is usually needed on some of the problems; but all who will write out all the answers to all the questions, and thus make up a good notebook, may have a certificate upon completion. REATHIEL JENKINS.

Fresno West Side Church

Sabbath, March 8, was a high day in Fresno, when twelve precious souls were buried with their Lord in baptism. This brings our membership up to 92. We have since started a class of six preparing for the June baptism, when we hope to double the number of the past baptism.

Because of the sudden illness of Mrs. Della Richardson, we are now left without a Bible instructor. Mrs. Richardson was taken ill in January, and is now in Chicago with relatives who are caring for her. The church sought God earnestly for her recovery, and we are glad to report that she is improving. We thank God for answered prayer.

We are greatly in need of a church building in which to worship, since our membership has grown from 40 to 92, and the present building seats 85. In addition to the regular membership there are a number of visitors and children, so the seating situation is becoming very acute.

We ask an interest in your prayers for our work in Fresno.

The inspirational program included music, reports from the various societies, and a message by Elder B. R. Spear, radio-evangelist from the Southern California Conference.

New officers were elected for the ensuing year, with Walter C. Sheldon of Bakersfield as the president, and Mrs. Rachel Morse of Shafter as the secretary-treasurer.

The evening program included a vespers service at the church, followed by activities for the juniors at the academy, while the senior youth met at the Women's Club. A high light of the evening was the investiture of three Master Comrades and the giving out of 94 vocational honor tokens. Those invested were Miss May Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Millie O. Striplin of Delano, and Mrs. Elsie Johnston of Shafter.

Several active games and a grand march concluded the day's activities.

Master Comrade Banquets

Over four hundred enthusiastic Master Comrades and Master Comrade candidates attended the two Master Comrade banquets held in this conference at Riverside Woman's Clubhouse on Monday evening, February 10, and at Paradise Valley Sanitarium on Tuesday evening, March 11.

At Riverside, leaders from the counties of Orange, San Bernardino, and Riverside assembled to enjoy the splendid dinner prepared by the Riverside Home and School society, and hear the inspirational talks by Elders F. G. Ashbaugh, J. R. Nelson, and the president of our conference, Elder H. H. Hicks. At this banquet the interest of the entire group was captivated by Elder E. Toral Seat's thrilling bird talk. Community singing, led by Charles Martin, and the beautiful rendition of "Trees" by Elder S. M. Jefferson brought this fine banquet to a close.

From the counties of San Diego and Imperial came 200 youth leaders for the Master Comrade banquet in the Paradise Valley Sanitarium Recreation Hall. Here the Men's Recreational club, under the direction of Myron Lysinger and Ernest Stevens provided delicious food and hospitality for the group.

Elder and Mrs. F. G. Ashbaugh and Elder J. R. Nelson were with us for this banquet also and presented some splendid plans for strengthening the Master Comrade program.

A special feature of the evening's program was the fluorescent mineralogy demonstration by Elder C. C. Cantwell. Dr. A. T. Babienko added interest to the program with his inimitable bird whistling and a sound motion picture, "The Heritage We Guard" completed a most enjoyable and profitable banquet.

"Voice of Youth" Meetings in San Diego

As I write this, the blessings and inspiration of the special "Voice of Youth" young people's revival held in San Diego March 8-15 still thrills my heart and gives me great faith and courage to press on to greater heights for God.

The blessings of the Lord, and the working of the Holy Spirit was keenly felt by our youth during this concentrated and well-organized evangelistic crusade for our own young people. Many wonderful victories were gained, and new decisions were made by many of the youth.

Sunday night the "Voice of Youth" series opened in the North Park church with a large attendance of young people and visitors. A full hour of music, including community singing, special numbers by the San Diego Academy chorus and students, a Bible quiz program, sound motion pictures, "A Certain Nobleman," and the youth message "Ye Are My Witnesses" provided an inspirational evening for the youth.

On Tuesday night a Master Comrade banquet was held at Paradise Valley which attracted over 200 enthusiastic young people and youth leaders.

Wednesday night, the program was presented by the young people in the way of a Youth Forum, bringing the topic "Youth and Life" very vividly before the youth. Four topics, "God's Love For Me," "How Can I Get Right With God," "How Can I Keep Right With God?" and "God's Promises to Me" were given by four students of San Diego Union Academy, under the direction of Mrs. L. M. Westermeyer.

A special meeting for the Spanish-speaking young people was held by the writer on Thursday evening in the Spanish church in San Diego where a fine group of young people are preparing to meet the Lord.

The climax to the special Week of Prayer came on Friday night at the Broadway church where after a fine program of music and the youth message, "Modern Youth at the Crossroads," was given, the Spirit of God moved upon the hearts of the young people and several hundred came to the altar for a reconsecration service.

Young people of non-Adventist homes took their stand to join baptismal classes, and a sweet spirit of consecration took hold of the youth during this important week.

It was my privilege to also conduct the Week of Prayer during this time each morning in the San Diego grade school and Union Academy where we have as fine a group of consecrated youth as I have seen anywhere.

Wonderful cooperation was given by all the local pastors in the San Diego area, and the faculty of the San Diego Union Academy gave their loyal support. Brother James Scully, district leader of the La Mesa-El Cajon-Dulzura churches and Prof. Stanley Ledington assisted in a strong way with the music and other features of the meetings.

Let us continue to pray for our youth, and as parents and youth leaders provide an active program of useful service and recreation that this precious possession may not be lost to the "robber of the fold."

The Colored Work in Northern California

In a drizzling rain the members of the Market Street church gathered at the Golden Gate Academy in Berkeley, March 1, 1947, to hold their Sabbath services. They convened at this desirable location for the purpose of allowing the Market Street members to become intimately acquainted with the buildings and grounds and to help them form the important decision as to whether or not they should obtain the same as a center for their expanding and growing program.

The senior Sabbath school was conducted in the commodious gymnasium which had been decorated and prepared for the occasion; the juniors met in the adjoining chapel; and the primary children in the spacious dining room a few yards across the court in a large two-story building. After the Sabbath school the home missionary period rallied the respective bands to the total report of $1,154.07 for the annual Ingathering campaign of the church.

"The people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits" was the text and keynote of the stirring and challenging sermon by Elder W. A. Nelson, the conference president, as he graphically envisioned a new church and center. Other conference officials assisting in the services were Elder O. A. Troy, union secretary of the colored department; Prof. W. W. Ruble, educational superintendent of the Northern California Conference; and Frederick T. Oakes, local conference treasurer.

In the afternoon, immediately after the M.V. meeting, and in the same auditorium, there followed a lively symposium on "The Future of the Colored Work in the East Bay." The respective speakers were Elder R. W. Nelson, the pastor; Elder Owen A. Troy, the main speaker; Elder W. A. Nelson, Prof. W. W. Ruble, and Brother A. T. Johnson, intern and assistant pastor. With the setting of the sun all reverently bowed their heads while a prayer from the pastor appropriately

Sacramento M.V. Regional Rally

Churches invited: Sacramento, South Sacramento, Del Paso Heights, Roseville, Auburn, Woodland, Camino, Placerville, and Grass Valley. A wonderful program of special music and speakers is being planned. After the Sabbath Vespers a recreational program and moving pictures will commence. Every young person should plan to attend this important meeting.

closed the Sabbath. The service ended with all confidently singing, "He Leadeth Me."

The next meeting was the large church council convening with the conference officials to consider the business details of the proposed transaction and to make a final decision. After prayerful and careful deliberation, the council unanimously voted to obtain the Golden Gate Academy site for $67,500, which was the proffered sale price that would be applied to the new academy soon to be erected in East Oakland. The council also voted to meet this obligation by the sale of the present church which they have outgrown, and with appropriations they were to request from the local and union conferences, and also with an additional $15,000 cash for the church to raise, a major part of which would go into the remodeling of one of the buildings for a temporary meeting place until the new church could be constructed on the corner. (I am happy to state that at this writing one of the major appropriations has already been voted by the local conference.)

An eventful day was concluded as an evening of entertainment for many was enjoyed in the gymnasium auditorium with a naturalist's lecture and motion picture; while at the same time still others enjoyed the invigorating recreation of marches and games in the dining room.

It is our anticipation to soon begin our effort in Richmond where so many are calling for our message of hope. We solicit your prayers as we go forth to gather souls for the kingdom.

M.V. News

Nearly 600 youth and friends gathered in the Arcata school auditorium for the Eureka District Youth Rally on March 1. This was one of the largest meetings ever held in the district. In spite of the rain there was enthusiasm and interest radiating throughout.

The principal speaker, J. R. Nelson, Pacific Union Conference M.V. secretary, gave a ringing challenge to soul winning by and for our youth. High quality vocal and instrumental music was furnished by various societies. Each M.V. leader in the district was introduced and related briefly the work of his society. Leaders participating were: Percy Lamb, Fortuna; Mose Cookson, Eureka; Mrs. Redden, Arcata; Brother Dalgleish, McKinleyville; and Mrs. Casebeer, Crescent City.

Before the close of the afternoon program a regional M.V. association was organized with the following members as officers: President, Demetri Lewis; vice-president, Mrs. Marjorie Siple; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Louis Sather. After a delicious supper was served, a program of sound pictures and games closed the rally. The program was a wonderful inspiration to all and similar rallies are planned for the future.

The parents and friends who attended the Amateur program sponsored by the Associated M.V.'s of the East Bay, on March 8, had a right to feel proud of the twenty contestants who participated. The young artists showed outstanding talent in the readings and in the vocal and instrumental numbers. First prizes, consisting of pen and pencil sets, were awarded to Betty Koerber, piano solo; Harold Nichols, vocal solo; Joseph de Leon, violin solo; and Loa Hyatt, reading. The four second-prize winners were given leather billfolds. All other contestants received $2 purchase orders from the Northern California Conference Book and Bible House. The association expects to have other programs of like nature later in the year.

Coming—La Sierra College Men's Chorus

The Associated M.V.'s of the East Bay invite you to hear the La Sierra College Men's Chorus on Friday evening, March 28, at 8 o'clock, in the Berkeley church, 2236 Parker Street.

Health-O-Gram

Mrs. Frank Horning, R.N., of Chico, reports a Home Nursing Class with a membership of twenty, and many requests from others to take the course. Several of these are non-Adventist guests. We must keep these on our prayer list that this work of medical ministry will win souls.

The Eureka district has two nutrition classes being given at the present time under the leadership of Mrs. Thora Hartwick, R.N., and Mrs. Mildred Gregory, R.N. We will learn more of these classes later.

New interested souls of the Alameda church will attend a Nutritional class in the home of the district leader, Elder and Mrs. A. O. Sage. Miss Evans will conduct these classes. This class has been made possible by the undivided interest of Brother L. A. Blumenshien, working in that area for several months.

Cooperation Brings Results

Would you receive an inspiration? Come to the East Oakland church on Thursday mornings to visit the Nutrition Class conducted there each week by Miss Violet Evans, R.N.

On entering the classroom you see on the faces of the students an expression of inspiration, as Miss Evans studies with them the art and joy of healthful living. After a Scripture reading and an appropriate poem a short prayer is offered which blends directly into the counsel on the preparation of wholesome, nutritious foods.

At the opening class there were 42 present. Last week, our fourth class, 69 were in attendance! From this group at least 25 are not Seventh-day Adventists. Isn't this thrilling? We have present at the class a Bible worker who mingles with our guests and receives their names and addresses. Last week two of our colporteurs were there to display their books and to talk to the many who were interested.

Six or seven ladies of the church assist Miss Evans during the class period. The hostess registers everyone that attends, several are kept busy in the kitchen, and others put the kitchen back in order at the close of the class.

The hour is so arranged that the class period comes to a close at noon, when a light lunch is served to everyone present, consisting of the samples of food which Miss Evans prepared during the morning demonstration. This lunch is attractively served and the comments from all over the room indicate it is delicious.

Several weeks before this class opened it was advertised during the missionary period of the church and by posters in the church lobby. Doctor's offices and nearby stores displayed posters. Local newspapers, four district community papers, and the shopping news carried notices of the class. The area close to the church was visited and each lady was invited to the class.

Arrangements have already been made for three additional classes to be held in the East Bay area. With the help of the Lord, before the end of the year, I hope to conduct six more classes, making a total of ten Nutrition Classes for this area in 1947.

Radio Bible School

War-torn areas of the world are hungering to learn of the love of God. Doors that have hitherto been closed to the message are being thrown open wide. The coming of the Atomic Age has also brought a desire to learn what is back of world conditions. People are looking for something stable to which to tie. Unconsciously many are turning to the Bible, but because of war devastations hundreds of homes have no copy of that blessed Book.

From France, Germany, Philippine Islands, and British West Indies have come calls to us, "Send us Bibles." Even though we want to fill these requests we have no fund whereby we can.

In many homes here in America there are Bibles lying idle. Bibles that have been discarded for new ones. Many of them are in excellent condition but are doing no one any good as they are not in use.

Wouldn't you like to have someone using that Bible which has been lying inactive for so long?

Those who have no Bibles would be glad to get your second-hand Bible. Will you not share with them the blessings you are enjoying?

Send your old Bibles in to the Radio Bible School, Box 1797, Oakland 4, California, and we will see that they are sent to someone who has no Bible.

Remember—"A blessing shared is a blessing earned."

Pioneering the Message

Would you like to pioneer? I would! Would you like to have been with J. N. Loughborough and D. T. Bourdeau as they landed in San Francisco to begin the work of the third angel in the West? I would!

You can relive the experiences of these and other pioneers in the message as they worked the towns that today stand out as landmarks in the development of the church in the West. Read how God protected these men from death by their enemies; how God blessed their humble efforts to spread the gospel. Read how Elder and Mrs.

White raced to intercept Canright and Cornell fording with their horses the Russian River. "Pioneering In the Golden West" will make you relive the early days of this message. You will thrill to read it. It is only one of the five splendid books in your 1947 Senior Reading Course. Everyone should read all five books.

B. W. MATTISON.

Tact or Attack!

The writer feels that new attention should be given to our Lord's statement in Matthew 10:16, "... be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves." God help us to use good judgment as we come in contact with those of a different belief. Much that could have been done in advancing God's cause is still undone because of a word or action out of season. "Many souls have been turned in the wrong direction, and thus lost to the cause of God, by a lack of skill and wisdom on the part of the worker." "Gospel Workers," p. 119.

Every conscientious Seventh-day Adventist is a soul winner, a harvester of wheat. What part does the soul winner play in an evangelistic campaign? What is his relation to the non-believer sitting next to him? On the opening night of a series, is it the soul winner's place to expound his knowledge on the Sabbath and non-immortality of the soul to his bewildered neighbor? In a certain city a dear old sister on the opening night of an evangelistic series felt her way through the crowd until she found someone whom she thought needed convincing on certain doctrinal points and argued the law and its perpetuity until some poor soul was wounded to rebellion. The offensiveness of our arguments has caused doors to close through which we might have found access to the hearts, and through them to other hearts.

As we come in contact with those who believe differently than we, "Speak to them, as you have opportunity, upon points of doctrine on which you can agree. Dwell on the necessity of practical godliness. Give them evidence that you are a Christian, desiring peace, and that you love their souls. Let them see that you are conscientious. Thus you will gain their confidence; and there will be time enough for doctrines. Let the heart be won, the soil prepared, and then sow the seed, presenting in love the truth as it is in Jesus." Id., p. 120.

We hold great truths and God has commissioned us to give this truth to our dying neighbor. Think of it, physicians representing heaven. Thus do we represent God with the portion He has given us. Our unbelieving neighbor is sick and cannot take strong meat. He needs the oil of love and sympathy of Jesus which can ably be administered to him by those who have been in contact with the Great Physician, those who have sat at Jesus' feet.

Let's treat our neighbor as a brother. Crucify all censure, reproof, and rebuke. Seek for peace! Confidence will grow in his heart. He will anxiously wait for new truths to be revealed. He will become established in God's Word, and the convicting power of God's Spirit will lead him into all truth.

Pacific Union College in Hawaii

The freshman class of Pacific Union College, Hawaiian Extension Division, presented a colorful program of pantomime and Hawaiiana the evening of March 10 in the chapel of the Hawaiian Mission Academy.

Pacific Union College is the only college besides the University of Hawaii affording college work in residence to the young people of the Territory of Hawaii. The Hawaiian Extension Division of Pacific Union College offers classes in liberal arts at the junior college level on the campus of the Hawaiian Mission Academy, and sends members of its regular faculty from the mainland college campus to conduct its courses here.

This is the first year that the college has been operating the Extension Division in Hawaii. The first year's class is made up of some 23 academy and high school graduates representing nearly all the national groups of this island territory.

Attired in their different colorful national costumes the class presented "Hawaii Nei," a pantomimic interpretation of life and culture in the Paradise of the Pacific, its marvelous and exotic beauty and winning aloha spirit was presented in song and story, in choral speaking and in the verse of some of Hawaii's outstanding poets.

For "The Adventure In Interpretation" Mr. Philsun Owen acted as lector, and Miss Myrtle Liu assisted at the piano. One by one beautiful native customs and interesting features of island life were given by different members of the class.

Prof. and Mrs. Charles E. Weniger were in charge of the program and received a tremendous ovation upon the presentation of leis by the class.

Pacific Union College is sending Miss Ethel M. Walder, R.N., assistant professor of Nursing Education, as an instructor for the spring quarter. Miss Walder will conduct courses in general psychology, physiology and hygiene, and introduction to education. Other courses will be presented by qualified members of the academy faculty. The spring quarter has already begun.

Sixty-one years ago, Sister Morlan embraced the message of Christ's return, and as long as health and strength permitted was active in church and Sabbath school work. Two sons, Elder C. C. Morlan and Dr. E. R. Morlan, and a daughter, Mrs. Ethel M. Johnston, survive. They are cheered with the hope of the soon-coming and glorious reunion.

COCHRAN—Louise Sprague Cochran was born in Iowa in 1860; and passed away in Martinez, Calif., Nov. 27, 1946. She was baptized at the age of 14, after which she served her Lord for 72 years. Her husband, Allen Cochran, preceded her in death. Sister Cochran is survived by three sons, three daughters, 11 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. A true mother in Israel has been laid to rest until the resurrection.

HURD—Mrs. Carrie G. Hurd was born Sept. 17, 1874, at Waterford, N.Y. She fell asleep in Jesus at Inglewood, Calif., Feb. 1, 1947. Sister Hurd leaves two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy A. Ramsey of Inglewood, and Gladys May Hurd, now serving as a missionary in India.

"Training Light Bearers"

The Home Missionary Department has four great objectives; namely:

1. Every Church Member a Victorious Christian;
2. Every Member a Witness for Christ and His Truth;
3. Every Church Organized for Service with a Definite Program of Evangelism;
4. Every Church a Training School for Christian Workers.

The last of these four great objectives is in harmony with the divinely inspired statement that "Every church should be a training school for Christian workers. Its members should be taught how to give Bible readings. . . ." —"Ministry of Healing," p. 149.

We rejoice that our General Conference Home Missionary Department has now released our beautiful new book, "Training Light Bearers." This book is to be our textbook for classes in "How to Give Bible Readings." We hope to see a class organized in every church in our union territory. What a dearth of Bible instructors there is! And what a need for trained lay evangelists!

Our Book and Bible Houses will stock this book and we hope they will receive orders from every church. Would it not be wonderful if every church member could finish this course and receive the beautiful certificate issued by the General Conference to everyone qualified to receive it after completing the course?

We believe our pastors and church missionary leaders and secretaries will want to implement this excellent plan to help train lay workers. Write your conference Home Missionary secretary of your plans to organize a class in How to Give Bible Readings. He will be glad to know of your desires. He will be happy to supply you with lesson helps for teachers and class record cards and other material you may need. This is a wonderful opportunity to help fulfill the prophecy of "a great reformatory movement." "Thousands" were seen going from house to house.

"Our work has been marked out for us by our heavenly Father. We are to take our Bibles and go forth to warn the world." Vol. 9, p. 150. Remember, "To save souls should be the life work of everyone who professes Christ." Vol. 4, p. 53.

La Sierra College

Elder Leslie Hardinge and Ansel Bristol, student body president, report encouraging success in their effort at Corona. The attendance has increased regularly. Under the leadership of Kenneth Neal, nearly the entire district of Corona has been informed of the effort, and much of the success of the meeting has been attributed directly to this.

Hugh Sterling, senior ministerial student and president of the senior class of 1947, reports that his progress in the Glen Avon effort is highly encouraging. Both of the efforts are being held to give the senior students some practical experience.

Sherman Institute, a boarding school for American Indians, has requested the college to provide a Bible teacher for their students. Gordon Collier, a ministerial student, has accepted the offer, and Bible study is being conducted regularly.

Sixty persons attended the opening of the new branch Sabbath school on Sabbath, March 15, in La Sierra Heights. Ellsworth West and Charles Rutan, who opened the new Bible school under the direction of the Arlington church, feel that their efforts have been well rewarded. Indications are that the small school will grow.

Derryl Smith, assisted by John Ward, is conducting a branch Sabbath school near Loma Linda. The attendance, which began with thirty-six, has now increased to fifty. The ages of those attending range from three to twenty-five. Some missionary work has been done, and the leaders hope to give Bible studies later.

Spring Week of Prayer will be conducted April 5-12 by the Bible teachers of the college.

We believe this excellent textbook, "Training Light Bearers," will prove a great blessing in training our church members to be soul winners.

Credit is due Mrs. Romant for the fact that a speech major as well as a minor will be offered at the beginning of the fall session of the college next year.

Emmett Watts, president of the colporteur's band, reports that nearly one hundred plan to go out canvassing this summer. Elder Fishell said this was a good response.

Spring recess is from March 26-30.
