Still Open

A prominent business man who passes the Relief Depot here in San Francisco nearly every day, visited our place and made the following inquiry, "Are you still open for business?" For several weeks he observed that the shipments have been very, very small; so he wondered if we are about to stop operations of our clothing relief depot.

I hardly knew what to say because I did not want him to think for a moment that our dear Dorcas members had lost interest in this place. I told him, after he had given a liberal donation, that our church members have been working very hard to finish the Ingathering campaign; and now that that is finished I was confident that the San Francisco depot would be flooded again with used and usable clothing and shoes.

Why can't our churches have it announced for a number of weeks in the church bulletin that the need of clothing and shoes is still urgent, and that the doors are now open for BIG shipments to the Orient?

Peace is yet very uncertain and church members can help to win at least a temporary peace by laying the foundation of friendship and understanding through aid to suffering humanity everywhere. The greater part of the world's population is seriously menaced. It is useless to feed people who may nevertheless die of exposure because of lack of clothing and of adequate heating facilities indoors and bitter cold without. We therefore urge you by every means in your power to stress the importance of immediate and continuous collection of clothing. Many have done this by calling on their neighbors and department stores.

Here is a recent letter that expresses appreciation for the wonderful work that you have already done. This letter with a picture is from Pakistan, India. "We are very grateful to our people in the States for this consignment, and deeply appreciative of the solicitude for suffering humanity, expressed in the gift, which is but a pledge of their deep heart-longing for the salvation of those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death."

The sixty bales were sent to Karachi, India, and Elder J. C. H. Collett, superintendent of the Seventh-day Adventist Mission said. "I am inclosing a picture of the arrival of the bales in a camel cart at the mission house; the Muslim woman in a veil is a refugee who was given a few pieces of relief clothing."

In closing, let me thank you for the wonderful work that you have already done, but remember that the San Francisco War Clothing Relief Depot is still open. So let us arise and solicit our friends and others. See that all garments are repaired and cleaned, and put in good condition. It is this extra care which transforms each garment from a gift of the hands to a gift from the heart.

The Draft and You-5

The draft, if and when it becomes operative, and if and when it includes you, will put you in a place where you will have numerous opportunities to witness for your faith and for your Lord.

Prepare yourself now to take full advantage of these opportunities when they come. Be ready to carry out what God has in mind for you to do.

Be sure you know your rightful relation to government. Acquaint yourself with the Bible teaching on this important point. Make sure that you know what your obligation to government is, as well as your obligation to God.

All of this you will find explained in the War Service Commission leaflet entitled, "Seventh-day Adventists and Civil Government." You may have one for the asking. Master its contents. Know what the Bible teaches. Know what your church teaches. Know what you believe. Know how to explain it. Be ready to give every man a reason for your faith. This will stand you in good stead in these coming days.

It is the man who is able to explain why he takes the noncombatant position who is most quickly placed in that position.

Your claim to a noncombatant status may be denied because of some error in filling out your questionnaire or your conscientious objector form. It may be denied because of some error on the part of your local board. In that case you will need to appeal the decision of your local board. You may face an inquiry by the Department of Justice before obtaining your rightful classification and assignment. In such an investigation you will be asked why you take the noncombatant position.

So be sure to read and thoroughly digest the War Service Commission leaflet entitled, "Why Seventh-day Adventists are Noncombatant." It will be sent you free if you will ask for it.

Even when you are rightly classified and rightly assigned as a noncombatant you will still need to obtain your Sabbath privileges. These are not provided by law as your noncombatant rights are. You must know how to go about getting them. In doing so you must be ready and able to explain why you observe the Sabbath.

Consequently you will need the War Service Commission leaflet "Why Seventh-day Adventists Observe the Bible Sabbath." You may have it without charge. Just send the request for it.

If you are between the ages of 18 and 25 it is important that you use these months of waiting to learn these things, to know the right course of procedure, to acquaint yourself with the will of God. You will then be safeguarded against costly mistakes.

Let us help you now. Send for these leaflets.

Most important of all, keep very close to God, search the mind of the Spirit about His plan for you, for He has a plan for you. "He is silently planning for thee in love; for it mattters to Him about you."

CARLYLE B. HAYNES.

Sister Maria Haskins of the Spanish church in Tucson, Arizona, has brought in $107.65 in the Ingathering campaign. To do this, she received donations from 280 persons.

Have you finished your territory? If not, the same persistence that impelled Sister Haskins to make the large number of visits can result in increased offerings anywhere.

A Million Dollars for Investment

Don't you think that the Seventh-day Adventists in the United States could raise that much this year for Investment if they really set their hands to do it? Our goal in the Pacific Union Conference is $3 per member. If we all raised that small amount, we would bring in almost $150,000 in this one union. But we can do much more. The Orosi church has averaged almost as high as $80 per member. Let us all do something and do our best. Let us set a goal, a good large goal, and reach it.

Besides the many other avenues which we have for raising Investment money, one more has been provided by the American Beauty Macaroni Company. Through their Adventist representatives they tell us, "We will allow you for you and your churches on all American Beauty macaroni, sphagetti and noodle products, up to one-pound packages, one cent per package upon the presentation of the front of the cellophane bag or paper-box front. On all American Beauty two-pound packages we will allow you two cents with the same understanding." These covers can be turned over to your Sabbath school Investment leader and should be sent to your conference office at least once every quarter.

As almost everyone eats macaroni products, I am sure this will provide us another splendid opportunity for increasing our Investment funds and help us reach our goals. Just ask your grocer for American Beauty macaroni products and raise Investment money at the same time. If you should wish a recipe book which gives many lovely recipes for macaroni products, drop a postal card for free recipe book Number 98 to American Beauty Macaroni Co., 1650 N. Indiana St., Los Angeles 33, California. This brand of macaroni products is of the highest quality on the market.

Why not make this the best Investment year we have ever had? Let us improve every opportunity we have of increasing our Investment income. The American Beauty Macaroni products are for us a splendid opportunity.

Recent Responses from the Bible School

"Our daddy doesn't want any of us to keep Saturday as the Sabbath, but I am quite sure that the Lord will make a way for my mother and brothers and me. Please pray for us. We like the Signs of the Times you send to us. Mother says it is a God-sent paper. The lessons certainly brought light to us."

"I try to keep the seventh day since I found the truth, but I go to church on Sunday because there is no Sabbath church here. I finish my work on Friday and study on Saturday. It is rather hard to keep it when no one else does. I have never seen anyone keep the Sabbath—or even Sunday, the day they think is right—the way I studied that God's day should be kept. I would love to see the Sabbath day kept right."

"I believe everything I have learned in the Bible Course. Since I am hard of hearing I do not go to church, but do my best to worship God at home alone. I do my cleaning and baking before the Sabbath begins."

"I am a man sixty years of age, and have taught public school for thirtyeight years. I was once a Seventh-day Adventist, and I still believe the message, but have not been a Christian for the last thirty years. What evidence may I have that I am forgiven? I'd like to get back 'into the fold' so to speak, for I am not satisfied."

"I agree with you that the churches have failed to give the full message. It is not hard to see that the remnant church must accept the high standards of the Bible. I shall welcome a call from your representative."

"It has been nearly a year since I received your letter regarding the Sabbath. We had illness in the home, but now have caught up again, and I want to tell you how interested I have been in this subject. You have proved to me beyond a doubt that Saturday is the true Sabbath. I am troubled to know why the Protestant churches have not corrected this condition. Do you have an answer to this question? Please straighten out this problem for me and tell me what to do."

Mailbag Glimpses

"It comes as a surprise to learn that we have been keeping the wrong day. I have wondered about it but never seriously. I would like reading matter that will help me to a better understanding of this subject, and I ask your prayers that I may be a true commandment keeper."

"It is through reading your books and other literature, and listening to your program that we have come to believe in the seventh-day Sabbath. We have a business that requires work seven days of the week, and we have put it up for sale. Will you pray for us that we may dispose of this so that we can unite with the Seventh-day Adventists?" "I thank you very much for the book, 'The Marked Bible.' I haven't read it yet, but I have heard that it is very interesting.

"Someday soon I hope to be baptized. I work for some Adventist people and I believe every word of the Advent Message. I am going to try to persuade my mother, sister, and brother of the true Sabbath and God's Word."

"About five years ago many questions used to puzzle me, such as when the world is going to end. I asked many people, but they just told me to forget about it. Now I know the true answer, and I know the Lord is coming very soon. Please pray for me that I may be able to be baptized soon and that the rest of my relatives will accept this wonderful message." New President Elected for College of Medical Evangelists

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College of Medical Evangelists held May 17, Dr. George Tryon Harding, medical director of the Harding Sanitarium in Worthington, Ohio, and clinical professor of psychiatry at the Ohio State University College of Medicine, was elected president of the College of Medical Evangelists. Dr.

Harding will take office September 1, 1948.

The Board of Trustees' report also announced that Dr. Walter E. Macpherson, for six years president of the College of Medical Evangelists and formerly its dean, will become vice-president of the College and chairman of the section on medicine.

Dr. Harding was born in Columbus. Ohio, in 1904, received his bachelor's degree at Washington Missionary College in 1923, and was graduated from the College of Medical Evangelists in 1928.

After graduation, Dr. Harding became associated with his father, Dr. G. T. Harding, Jr., founder of the wellknown Harding Sanitarium in Worthington, Ohio. This institution has played an important role in the medical educational program of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination. Here many young physicians have received advanced training in psychiatry. Dr. Harding organized the Worthington Foods in 1939 and several smaller industries as a part of an Adventist community development at Worthington.

Dr. Harding is a member of the Ohio Conference Committee, and of the boards of Mt. Vernon Academy and Washington Missionary College.

News Notes

For the fourth consecutive year La Sierra College has received the pennant signifying "Honorable Mention" in the Gregg Writer international shorthand contest. Entries are received from Gregg writers all over the world and awards are made on the basis of the artistic quality of the notes submitted.

The following fifteen students of La Sierra College received awards of gold pins for the fluency, accuracy and artistic qualities of their entries: Dora Brown, Leona Carscallen, Winona Crisp, Clarabelle Fenderson, Barbara Follett, Frances Hill, Lola Murray, Carolene Olson, Opal Parish, Dorothy Parker, J. R. Rankin, Elsie Spinks, Dorcas Vences, and Beatrice Wong.

In the brief interval between the close of the regular school session and the beginning of summer school the campus was filled with activity. Conference workers erected tents on the space allotted to camp meeting use, and the two dormitories, Mu Beta Kappa and Gladwyn Hall, were readied for their transient occupants. On the college farm the barley harvest was completed and the yield computed at fifty bushels to the acre, and eighty tons of alfalfa hay were stored away for future use. The booster pump which lifts water into the reservoir at the rate of 675 gallons a minute for use in the dormitories and on the campus, was given a much-needed overhauling and started on another period of service. But in concern for the practical, beauty was not forgotten. Armfuls of gay flowers from the well-tended gardens in various campus locations brightened the offices to match the patios which, with their riot of geraniums, petunias, delphiniums and pansies, proved an irresistible lure to color photography fans.

Students who hope to attend La Sierra College next year should send in their applications immediately. The Registrar reports that a large number of applications are already on hand and the space in the dormitories is being assigned rapidly. Since it takes some time to process each application—to secure transcripts and recommendations and give committee consideration— it is important that the applications reach the office as soon as possible.

Academy News Notes

Graduation exercises at the Hawaiian Mission Academy concluded with the presentation of eighty diplomas. The class of 1948 was the largest graduating class in the history of the school. Elder J. D. Marshall gave the Consecration sermon, Elder C. L. Bauer, president of the Pacific Union Conference delivered the Baccalaureate address, and Prof. Richard Lewis, Hawaiian Extension professor from Pacific Union College delivered the Commencemnt address.

Summer school began on Wednesday, June 16. Physics, geometry, and music will be taught on the secondary level. Remedial work in two sections will be offered on the elementary level. Mr. W. V. Albee will be in charge of the summer school program.

An all-school exhibit was presented on Sunday, May 23. The music department presented a recital following which exhibits were on display in the school library.

Prof. Richard Lewis left the campus midnight, June 5. He was the eighth college instructor to teach the Pacific Union College extension classes on the Academy campus. A total of fifty students were enrolled during the year 1947-48.

Over four hundred Progressive class honor tokens were presented in chapel on June 2 by Elder A. W. Millard, M.V. and educational secretary of Hawaii.

The graduation exercises for the eighth grade were conducted on Thursday evening, June 3, in the Keeaumoku Street church. Mr. Truman Reed, supervising principal and instructor in the eighth grade, was in charge and presented diplomas to forty-four graduates.

On Sabbath, May 30, seven Hawaiian Mission Academy students were baptized by Elder J. D. Marshall, Bible instructor and spiritual counselor. This was the second baptism of the year.

The Beacon Light, school annual, was presented Tuesday, June 1. A great spirit of enthusiasm prevailed because of the excellent work of the Annual staff.

The new bulletins for the Academy and the Pacific Union College Extension program will soon be off the press. Copies may be obtained upon request.

Camp Meeting

We do not have a camp meeting scheduled for Nevada-Utah for the summer of 1948, but we believe the following quotations taken from Testimonies, Volume 2, pages 600 and 601, are applicable in the case of our regional meetings and encourage us to plan definitely for our attendance:

"Let all who possibly can attend these yearly gatherings."

"These camp meetings are of importance. Let all who profess to believe the truth respect every privilege that God offers them to obtain clearer views of His truth and His requirements and the necessary preparation for His coming. The object of a camp meeting is to lead all to separate from business cares and burdens and devote a few days exclusively to seeking the Lord."

With this admonition from the inspired pen of Sister White, let us lay plans to be present at the Reno regional meeting, which is to be held July 23 to 25 in the Federated Church; or at the Salt Lake regional meeting, which is to be held August 27 to 29 in our own Salt Lake City church on 8th East Street.

Elder F. H. Rahm, Box 507, Fallon, Nevada, is in charge of the locating and any interested in securing accommodations at Reno should contact Elder Rahm. Should anyone be interested in securing accommodations for the meeting to be held in Salt Lake City, we would be very glad to have such correspondence addressed to the conference office.

Let us plan and pray that these regional meetings may truly be an outpouring of the Spirit of God and that our people who attend may be brought closer and nearer that eternal kingdom.

L. H. Netteburg.

Las Vegas Baptism

We are happy to report that on Sabbath, May 8, four more persons received the sacred rite which is the outward sign of the inward transformation. Members of the Las Vegas church are joyful over this addition, which brings the total of those baptized during the first half of this year to 13.

Reno Dorcas Society

We are indeed thankful for the blessings that have come to our Reno, Nevada Dorcas members. We are also confident that the deeds of kindness and help given to those in need are recorded in the courts above. We wish it were possible for us to glorify our Heavenly Father more.

As this report is given, it is not with a boastful heart but for the encouragement of other small societies as our own, to show what can be done with the blessings and help from on high. It is our desire to encourage others to join in this splendid work of soul-saving and ministering to those less fortunate than we. Since the first of the year, or five months, the Reno Dorcas has mended, cleaned, packed and shipped to the warehouse in San Francisco more than 1,500 pieces of clothing (over 2,000 pounds). Numerous pieces of clothing have been distributed to the needy here in Reno. During this period we have had two sales of needlework which brought well over $100. While our money holds out, we will supply food parcels to the poor and needy overseas.

The request from Brother Green at our San Francisco warehouse to gather towels for our sanitariums and hospitals across the seas was passed on to our church members and we were pleased for the good response to this plea. The promise is sure: "Thy people shall be willing in the day of Thy power . . ." Our society meets twice a month at the home of the Dorcas leader, and has an average of eight to ten in attendance.

We are looking forward to doing greater things for our Master, and when He returns we all want to hear those wonderful words: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant . . . Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

It is our desire after a few weeks of rest, when we shall again resume our meetings, that many more of our Reno members will join this faithful group and share in the blessings to come.

May God bless our Dorcas societies everywhere and hasten the day when the work shall be finished and Jesus will come to welcome us home.

Mrs. Louis G. Hemmrich.

---o---Colporteur News

We are happy to report that 17 students are in our field and ready to go to work distributing truth-filled literature to the people of Nevada-Utah. Brother Louis G. Hemmrich held a two-day student colporteur institute in Salt Lake City June 14 and 15 for these young people. They display a good spirit and a sincere desire to help spread the gospel to the people in these two states. We are happy for the students who come from the colleges to spend their summers engaged in such an evidence of love for the message they know.

Elder E. M. Fishell is with us from the Pacific Union and his counsel is always of value. Let us pray for their success during the summer months. L. H. NETTEBURG.

Hanford District News Notes

Many homes of those who are shut in, including the Kings County General Hospital Home for the Aged near Hanford and several homes of those interested in the truth, have been made glad by the cheer brought to them by the Sunshine Band on Sabbath afternoons. It gives us real joy to see parents and children working together in this labor of love. Brother and Sister Reinke, Brother and Sister Taylor, and Brother and Sister Gilder have given much time to make their band a success.

For several weeks a branch Sabbath school has been conducted in the Gurnsey district by our M.V. group, assisted by Mrs. Reinke and Miss Esther Heim. Barbara Johnstone, Cecil Taylor, Margaret Hanson, Barbara Bickner, and Lynn Gilder have worked diligently out there. We hope to resume our meetings again after camp meeting in Fresno.

Brother and Sister Guy Noble are leading out in an interesting branch Sunday school northwest of Island.

"The Old Lamplighter" was brought to mind as our ingenious pastor suggested and provided the lamp to be borne in our Ingathering campaign in Hanford when training for Light Bearers was executed in reality as groups of eighteen to thirty adults, young people, and children went forth nearly every night for three weeks. Excellent demonstrations of "Share Your Faith" were made, causing solicitors to return to our group bringing names of interested ones to visit, and to give Bible studies, or to bring to our convocations at our "House of God." Each night we returned to the church to count the returns of our evening's work, never receiving less than eleven dollars and once almost forty. The results were always better when Brother Ellis Taylor was with us with his accordion or his son, Cecil, with his trumpet; but, the climax was reached when we had two instruments during Week of Prayer when the conductor of the Week of Prayer, Elder Melendy, came with us, making the air resound with his musical clarinet. The lamp, the singing group marching in the street under the orderly leadership of Elder Heitman and Brother Gordon Jenson, caused people to swarm to the porches and lawns. Cars halted in their passage, the occupants asking, "What group is this?" Altogether, the singing band raised more than three hundred dollars in Hanford.

A touching and inspirational service depicting the necessity of taking up our cross and going forward as the Master directs in our service for Him was given at our meeting of the young people on Sabbath, May 22, at 3:30 p.m. Young people from the Island, Lemoore, Armona, and Hanford young people's societies represented the cross bearers. Mrs. W. Gordon Jenson was the reader. A mixed quartet gave the message in song, accompanied by Miss Vera Lester, our music instructor from the Armona Academy.

We have finished the sixth week of an evangelistic effort at our Island church, and a good interest is shown in the subjects presented by Elder Heitman. The singspiration is being led by Brother Jenson, with his wife at the piano. Will you add your prayers, with others, that many honest hearts may cast their lot with His commandment-keeping people, fully honoring our Saviour and Creator?

On May 15 a baptismal service was held at the Hanford church, when six persons were buried with their Lord by our pastor. A mother and son, with a reclaimed sister, became members of the Island church; a man and wife, with an aged brother, united with the Hanford church. Several others stood with the candidates during their examination, indicating their desire to be baptized in the near future. We solicit your prayers. ESTHER HEIM.

Wedding Ring and Wawona

"Here is my wedding ring. I want you to sell it and, if possible, send two juniors to Wawona Junior Camp."

It all happened at the Missionary Volunteer rally on the first Sabbath of the Fresno camp meeting. Young people had been relating experiences of how they were "Sharing Their Faith," and several had told thrilling experiences of the removal of wedding rings when conversion gripped the hearts of the people they were studying with.

Among the announcements at the close of the rally we told of several boys and girls who would be unable to go to Wawona because of straitened circumstances. This dear sister felt impressed to give her ring to the cause of saving our youth. "Here is my wedding ring," she said, "I've been carrying it around in my purse for a number of years now, and what's the difference whether it's in my purse or around my finger?"

Within a few hours the ring was sold to one of our dentists for making gold inlays, and he paid us enough so that we can send two happy, prospectthrilled juniors to Wawona. One of the juniors now looking forward to camp was a Roman Catholic by faith, and he has just given his heart to the Lord and this truth. The other is a member of a family that was recently burned out, and the parents are studying the truth. Only the Lord knows of the eternal results that may come from the decision to put the wedding ring to work.

Are your children attending the camp? Decisions for eternity will be made at Wawona. Make sure your child has the privilege of attending, and, if you are not a parent, plan to see that some worthy child gets assistance so he can be at Wawona.

The first of the summer camps opened June 22. Please remember the camp director and staff in your prayers. There will be young people in attendance who have never given their hearts fully to Christ, and it is our desire to lead them into the Shepherd's path.

Spanish News Notes

On Sabbath, April 17, Elders R. C. Baker, Scott Donaldson, and R. R. Archuleta met with the Spanish-speaking believers in the San Francisco Tabernacle church. Following the Sabbath school services, President R. C. Baker presented an inspiring message. His sermon was taken from Matthew 16:18, "On this rock shall I build my church." Thus the brethren grasped anew the realization that it is a great privilege to be united with God's remnant church.

Following Elder Baker's message the Spanish group was organized into a church with a membership of twentyseven. Since that time more have been added by baptism and also by letter.

The prospects for a good strong Spanish work to be done in the Bay area is promising. At present a strong literature campaign is being carried on in the city of San Jose in preparation for a series of meetings to be held there. We earnestly solicit your prayers in behalf of our efforts to present the news of a sooncoming Saviour to the Spanish-speaking peoples of this city.

Each time I meet with the brethren of the San Francisco Spanish church I grasp anew a vision of what happiness and joy will be our lot when we meet in the city of God.

As I meet in our church I see people from Honduras, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Spain, Mexico, Virgin Islands, and other Spanish-speaking countries. As they raise their voices in singing the good old Advent hymns, I praise God in my heart for this message which unites all of us in the blessed hope of a soon-coming Saviour.

Dorcas Sale in Dinuba

The Dinuba Dorcas society held their annual May sale in a downtown shop May 19 and 20. Needlework and homebaked goods were sold. Net sales were over $120, most of it from the sale of baked goods. Food was donated by the ladies of the church so there was no expense attached.

Plans are made for another sale to be held in December.

Loma Linda News

The end of May is always an interesting and inspiring time wherever our schools are located, for at that time we see the culmination of the school year with all its fruitage in graduates, and decisions for God on the part of the students. This year at Loma Linda proved no exception, for on the closing Sabbath of the school year, June 4, we witnessed the graduation of twenty-four seniors from the academy. This was the largest graduating class thus far in the history of the school.

This, however, is the fruitage of every school, public or private. Our schools were established not only to produce graduates but to win souls for Christ and His kingdom, to prepare our children for citizenship in the world to come. This is of greatest importance. The writer has conducted a baptismal class in the school since the first of the year for those who had made decisions for Christ, and on the Sabbath preceding the close of school it was my privilege, together with Elder Pease, pastor of the College church, to baptize twenty-five, seventeen of whom were students who had been in the baptismal class. Of the remaining eight, seven were brought into the message by our lay Bible workers among our nurses, doctors, young people and others. Nine joined the College church and sixteen the Hill church. Thus far this year the writer has baptized and taken into the Hill church twenty-five candidates, eleven of whom were brought in as a direct result of lay evangelism.

A New Church Organized

The Blythe tent effort, conducted by Evangelist W. E. Galbreth, was concluded recently with good results. Those assisting in the effort were Justine R. Reed and Emma Burnett, Bible instructors, Ruth McWilliams, pianist, and J. W. Burnett, tentmaster.

It was about twenty-one years ago that Mrs. Pauline Burgess went to Blythe and found one other family of Adventists who soon moved away leaving only Sister Burgess. This did not discourage our sister, but gave her a burning zeal to bring her neighbors and her neighbor's children into her home for Sabbath school. It grew into a regular branch Sabbath school. In 1946 Justine Reed was called to work with the group in Blythe for several months as Bible instructor. As a result eight persons were baptized. Following this Elder H. H. Hicks organized the group into a company.

In March of this year Brother Galbreth conducted a series of meetings which resulted in the baptizing of twelve. On Sabbath, June 5, there was great rejoicing, for this little company was organized into a church with Brother Earl Canson as pastor. Brother Canson is a graduate of Pacific-Union College. Elder A. D. Bohn was in charge of the organization. Others present were Elder O. A. Troy, secretary of the colored department of the Pacific Union, Brother E. A. Schmidt, secretary-treasurer of the conference, Elder J. E. Johnson, district leader of the San Bernardino-Riverside area, and Mrs. W. G. Mills and Mrs. Emmalyn Collins of Phoenix, Arizona. An appropriate vocal number was rendered by Mrs. Collins. Fred Wimberly and William Burgess were ordained as deacons of the church.

A permanent name for the church will not be chosen until a location for the recently purchased building has been procured. The temporary name is the Palo Verde Valley Seventh-day Adventist church.

This is the second colored church to be organized in the conference within a year's time.

There are a number of good prospects that we feel will soon join this newly organized church.

--o---Baptisms

We of the National City-Chula Vista church are rejoicing over the baptismal service held Sabbath afternoon, June 12, in the church at Paradise Valley. At that time nine persons were buried with the Lord in baptism.

Besides the nine who were baptized and accepted into the National City-Chula Vista church, there were several baptized into the Paradise Valley church at the same service, which was conducted by Elder V. C. Becraft, pastor of the Paradise Valley church.

The candidate group included one family of four, the mother and father taking a new stand for the truth, and the two fine children joining them to make a united family.

An ex-G.I., who had been reared in the faith but who had wandered away, and his wife also obtained a new experience. The wife studied the message with her husband, and they took their stand together.

One lady has been studying the message for many years, and through the interest of some of our members and a Voice of Prophecy correspondence course completed recently, she has finally stepped out and joined God's people.

Some who were baptized in this long-to-be-remembered service ask the prayers of our believers all over the field, that soon their loved ones may also come to a decision for Christ and join them.

There are a number who are looking forward to joining the church by baptism at our next service, which will be held in the fall. We thank God, who is calling to Himself a people to be saved from this dark world and to become citizens of the earth made new.

Welcome, Student Colporteurs

We are happy to welcome our student colporteurs to Arizona. We now have a fine group of young men and women in our midst and are expecting many books of our message to be placed in the homes of the people of Arizona. Six of the student colporteurs have already arrived and have started canvassing and we believe all will earn their scholarships this summer. Two of our new colporteurs, Robert Ice and Robert Law, related some experiences they had on their trip here from California, which thrilled us. The Lord is using the literature ministry to gather out from the world followers of Him. Let us pray that the angels of the Lord may go ahead and prepare the hearts of the people to receive our truth-filled literature from the hands of our faithful colporteurs.

Brother Leon M. Harding, publishing secretary for the Arizona Conference, has been spending much time out in the field getting his fine group of colporteurs started in their respective territories. He and Sister Harding spent Sabbath, June 12, in Safford and Sunday at Globe. Evening after the Sabbath, the Safford company were privileged to hear a sermon on "The Flag of the Kingdom" by Elder C. E. Andross, president of the Arizona Conference.

Mrs. L. M. Harding made this interesting comment regarding one family who were in attendance at the church service:

"It just thrilled my heart to see a mother and eight children, all just as neat as a pin, attending church every Sabbath."

Double Minuteman Church

The Lord has abundantly blessed the members of the Yuma, Arizona church during the recent Ingathering solicitations.

The Sabbath of May 29 will long be remembered for it marked the passing of not just the church minuteman goal of $594 but the passing of the DOUBLE MINUTEMAN GOAL of $1,188! However, not content with this attainment, the church is pressing the gathering of funds until every home has been contacted, for they believe that all should be acquainted with the work which is being done by Seventh-day Adventists throughout the world.

Nearly all of the members that are living in Yuma have done splendid, faithful work during the eight weeks of the campaign. Several have done remarkably well. One sister was instrumental in bringing in well over $500 to reach a thirty Minuteman goal. Two others reached the ten Minuteman figure while the majority of the rest have one, two, three and four Minuteman records.

Yuma has been a double Minuteman church for the last three years. This year when the work is all done and all the funds have been gathered in, we hope to have done a little more for our Lord and to have gone beyond last year's total of $1,309.79.

We ask an interest in the prayers of God's people that as a result of the contacts made this year, many may be won to the Lord Jesus and take their stand with God's remnant people.

DAVID L. BAUER.

--o---Ingathering News

By the time this article is published, we will have reached our aim of $16,-500-the largest amount that has ever been raised in the Arizona Conference.

Yuma deserves special credit as a Double Minuteman church consistently under the leadership of Brother David Bauer. Yuma church has not been content with merely a Minuteman, but has more than doubled her goal.

Other Minuteman churches and companies are as follows: Kingman, Coolidge, Douglas, Solomonville, Patagonia, Holbrook and Tempe. We extend special congratulations to each of these churches for their accomplishments. Others are very close to the Minuteman goal and we trust that every church and every individual will do his best to reach this achievement for the Lord this year.

Let us set our stakes high. Let us give of our best to the Master that His work may be quickly finished in all the world.

Ellis W. Storing.

---o---Investitures

During the month of May five Master Comrades, four Comrades, five Companions, 16 Friends, and many in the pre-progressive classes were invested. At Holbrook Mr. Harry Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones, and Mrs. Vera Wilson received their Master Comrade pins and also Mr. Donald Edwards of Coolidge received his. There were 223 vocational honors, 174 reading course certificates, and eight Bible year certificates presented.

A. J. WERNER.

Missionary Activities at Winslow

In reporting a second baptism conducted for him in the Winslow church within the past few weeks by Elder Walter, Brother Ramsey gives the following additional item of interest pertaining to the missionary activities of the Winslow church.

"The church here is occupied at present in a Twentieth Century Correspondence course campaign to cover the town in a solicitation for enrollees. Out of the campaign we hope to develop some studies in private homes, these to be handled by the members themselves. You see, we have just finished a course in lay evangelism, each member having given at least one study. Now we are putting the course to active use. We ask your prayers for this work."

Mental Health

Everything needs to be accurately balanced in this topsy-turvy world. We must not only balance our diet but also the various other things, mental and physical, which have to do with our daily lives. It is a fact that we have the crank shafts in our automobiles balanced, we have a balance wheel in our watches, we hope to balance the family budget. With all this concern about equilibrium, how many people tend toward an unbalanced reading diet. This unbalanced reading diet sets up a hunger for that which does not meet the mental needs. Thoughtful care is necessary to balance the intake of our minds. Much of the literature read in this day and age is of the carnival type, punctuated with the staccato of the gangster and written in terms of his modus operandi. The bizarre actions of other abnormal individuals that have been the constant problem of every age and civilization are chronicled by those who are interested in money and not in morals.

We need to have an astute alertness in providing for the reading needs of our children. The selection of the kind of reading that would nourish the child's intellect and give it the balance that minds so much need in this day of warped thinking is the responsibility of the church to be exercised through the church school. The sinewy sentences of the Bible give ballast, balance, and health to the human mind as no other reading can.

There are some excellent reading materials being produced. However, one modern notion as it applies to reading is dangerous. It is a fallacy to believe that the child should be permitted to read promiscuously lest he become narrow in his outlook. Such a reading course opens the gate of the child's mind for propaganda, for lawlessness, for lewdness, for lasciviousness. Neither in the early or late reading life of the child should it be exposed to literature of discontent.

What a privilege and what a responsibility and what an opportunity the church has to train its children to be discriminating—to read only those things which will put their minds in harmony with God—reading in which they would delight in the exquisite use of the language; reading in which they would familiarize themselves with the good words of the truth. Such reading increases the vocabulary and opens vast avenues of appreciation of nature, of science, of history, and of heaven.

Every child in the church should have the privilege of having his reading diet selected and supervised by a Christian school teacher, that mental health may be its heritage. It is none too early to plan for the children to be in church school next September.

Camp Meeting

According to indications, we will have a large camp meeting again this year. The orders for tents are coming into the office every day and we will fill these orders just as long as we have any tents. We wish to urge all of our people to send in the orders immediately, for the time is going by very rapidly, and it will not be long until our camp meeting begins. Please remember the date, July 9 to 18. However, there will be a very important and interesting meeting on Thursday night, July 8.

Again, we wish to urge our people who are planning to camp on the campground, to move into their tents on Thursday, July 8, and not wait until Friday. At the time of this writing, we are busy on the campground erecting the tents and making other necessary preparations for this important gathering of God's people. We wish to give you the name of the ministers who will attend our camp meeting coming from the General Conference, Elders J. L. McElhany, F. H. Yost, M. L. Andreasen, G. E. Vandeman and L. L. Moffitt. Elders Andreasen and Yost are coming to us from the Theological Seminary, and each one will have an important and very timely series of Bible studies to give on this campground. Elder McElhany will bring to us messages of vital importance to our people for these days in which we are living. Plan to attend these important meetings and arrange your work so that you can camp on the campground.

DAVID VOTH.

Camp Meeting for Youth

Plans have been carefully laid to make this coming camp meeting, July 9-18, one of the most interesting and inspirational meetings ever held for our youth. The finest music and youth speakers available will contribute to the success of the program. We are very anxious that this will not be just another camp meeting, but a time of revival and decision for the cause of Christ. Strong appeals will be made to enlist all our youth into the Share Your Faith Crusade which is gathering momentum everywhere. Pastors, youth leaders, and church members, begin now to announce the meeting and encourage all of our young people to attend and share in the "blessings of the coming spiritual feast.

Meetings for the Senior Youth will be held in the Rupp Memorial chapel at 8:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. daily except Sabbath. Meetings for the Juniors will be held at 8:30 a.m., 2:30 p.m., and 7:30 p.m. daily except Sabbath, in a large tent which will accommodate 1500. Elders Orley Berg, Robert Greiner, and Charles Hall will be in charge of the Junior meetings.

Craft classes for the Senior and Junior youth will be held in the woodwork shop of the Lynwood Academy. Classes featuring leathercraft, metalcraft, blockprinting, weaving, sewing, photography, and handicraft will be taught by experienced teachers. A fee of 75 cents will be charged for classwork. Articles made during the camp meeting will be displayed on tables in front of the Lynwood Academy the last Sunday morning during a special flag-raising ceremony.

MILLER BROCKETT.

La Crescenta Church Clinic

"We have come to a time when every member of the church should take hold of medical missionary work." Vol. 7, p. 62.

Another clinic year has come to a close, bringing, temporarily, an end to the great satisfaction and blessing received by those who believe and practice the principles of the foregoing quotation. During our hours of service at our church clinic, it is a joy and privilege to see the happy countenances and hear the words of those who have been aided, physically and spiritually.

"Words of cheer and encouragement spoken when the soul is sick and the pulse of courage is low,—these are regarded by the Saviour as if spoken to Himself. As hearts are cheered, the heavenly angels look on in pleased recognition." "Ministry of Healing," p. 159.

Many who come to us are in just this condition. Did you ever have the blessing of cheering and helping such a one?

Our clinic program is so arranged that the contacts during each patient's visit lead in one direction. First, she meets the receptionist in the waiting room, and is registered. Then into the office for examination and treatment orders. Here the doctor and office nurses have an opportunity to explain the cause of disease, and tell what our rational therapy will accomplish. Here, too, directions for home treatments are given. Next the patient meets the nurse assigned to treat her and teach her the value of our treatments.

Often the patients wish to know more of our work, then our Bible worker, Mrs. McMillan, visits the home and gives them Bible studies. She also gives them our literature, Life and Health, Our Times, Signs, Present Truth, etc. Besides these, they are also given books from our circulating library, which really circulates. Many have accepted the truth through the work of the clinic. We trust this work may have laid the foundation for a large harvest of souls.

Our educational work extends to classes in cooking and nutrition, with demonstrations of our health foods. Classes in home nursing are taught each year.

Each year we care for a number of needy children; this year thirty tonsilectomies were done. This service is donated by our own surgeons. The Glendale Sanitarium gladly does its part.

We are most fortunate in having our loyal worker, Brother William Bradley, prepare our treatment rooms for us each Tuesday.

When caring for twenty to thirty patients on our clinic day we need at least ten nurses. These faithful workers come from the towns around, even from as far as Van Nuys. They would not miss the great blessing they receive in this work.

The year's work from October, 1	947
through May, 1948, sums up as follo	ows:
Bible studies	150
Patients cared for	600
Visits in homes	435
Periodicals given	651

Hours of service are not recorded, but would go into thousands.

"Christ is no longer in this world in person, to go through our cities and towns and villages, healing the sick; but He has commissioned us to carry forward the medical missionary work that He began." Vol. 9, p. 168.

Hungry Hearts Are Everywhere

Brother Cornell and I were canvassing together in Pasadena. A lady came to her door in response to our knock and after telling her our desire to make a health call at each home, she informed us that she felt no need for help on that theme. We urged for an opportunity to speak and finally she agreed to allow us just five minutes.

Entering, we found a large Bible lying open on the couch. She had been studying it, seeking help because of the struggle within her heart. She told us that over a year ago she had purposely and unscrupulously hurt a Seventh-day Adventist lady and ever since her conscience had haunted her. Just that very morning through reading her Bible and through prayer, she had gained strength sufficient to call this lady by phone and offer her sincere apology for the thing she had said to hurt her. Now her heart was full and she was deeply convicted of her need to yield all worldly pride and make her complete peace with God. She felt He had definitely sent us to bring her help.

Our five minutes lasted over an hour, and we discussed with her the things of God and His great love. We left her home after a season of prayer. Last Sabbath she was attending Sabbath school and church.

Every day we find hungry hearts famished for the bread of life. The great need is for more consecrated workers.

Andrew, when he had found the Christ—"He first findeth his own brother Simon . . . and he brought him to Jesus." John 1:41, 42. Who will you bring to Jesus?

HERBERT WILES.

Baptisms in Hollywood

The members of the Hollywood church rejoiced as they witnessed the baptism of nine persons at the morning service Sabbath, June 12. Most of these were senior young people who have recently accepted the truth or been reclaimed to the message.

The Christian life of these young people has been greatly strengthened through their association with other young people of the church. A group of from twenty to thirty have formed themselves into a sunshine band to bring cheer to the aged and shut-ins by visiting with them and singing to them Sabbath afternoons. This service has greatly strengthened the Christian experience of the young people themselves, and they have united their efforts in the Ingathering and other Missionary Volunteer activities.

Their presence at our mid-week prayer meeting is a real inspiration to the older members, and has added new life and interest to the prayer meeting. We rejoice in these new converts, and another fine group now studying the message will soon follow in baptism.

B. FREDERICK WILLIAMS.

What Are You Waiting For?

"Good morning, Ruth. Where are you going so early in the morning?"

"Why, I'm going to the conference office to learn all about the New Plan." "The New Plan?"

"Yes! Haven't you heard? Everybody is talking about the New plan for hundreds of us married folks who can work just a few hours a week selling our literature. They say there are no heavy books to carry-no brief case to buyand I heard you don't even have to go back for your collections. And one thing I really like about it is that I can work right in my own neighborhood. I don't even have to ride the bus. I understand you work on commission and your earnings are mailed to you each week. Some are earning $2 an hour and more. We certainly can use the extra money with prices so high right now. One sister working part time for only a few weeks already has nine people taking Bible studies. You know, Mary, I've never won a soul to Christ, and I've been wondering just how I could do it. I believe this is it!

"Just a minute, Ruth, you've said enough. If what you say is true—it sure sounds good to me. But do you think the publishing secretary will be in to tell you more about it?"

"Oh yes, I've already called for this appointment. He'll be there all right."

"Say, Ruth, do you mind if I go along with you to the conference office?"

"Certainly not-glad to have you. Get in and let's go-there are only twenty minutes before my appointment. I don't want to be late. No doubt there will be several others there too, who are just as anxious as we are to learn how to 'Share Your Faith' through the literature ministry." How about you, dear reader? Phone now for information.

Master Comrade Investiture

Master Comrade week end was celebrated at Pacific Union College May 21-23 when 138 students and faculty members were invested as Master Comrades. Friday evening the candidates filed past an 18-foot octagonal M.V. insigne that nearly reached the ceiling of Irwin Hall.

Elder E. W. Dunbar of the General Conference Young People's Missionary Volunteer department was on hand to invest faculty members, and was the guest speaker at the two Sabbath church services.

J. R. Nelson gave the Master Comrade insigne to each of a large group from the Pacific Union Conference areas; Glenn Fillman invested those from the Northern California Conference; and Henry Bergh invested the Master Comrades from Central California Conference. As the sun rose over Howell Mountain Sunday morning, the enthusiastic Master Comrades headed for Armstrong Grove and the Russian River, where the day's activities included tracking, trailing, boating, and campcraft. The organization known as Comrades of the Master provided food and refreshments for the entire day.

Much credit for the success of the Master Comrade work at Pacific Union College goes to the dynamic leader, Walt Hofmann; to the church pastor, Paul O. Campbell; and to the faculty adviser for the past two years, academy principal Howard E. Metcalfe.

New officers have been chosen for the coming year and the new faculty sponsor is Prof. Maurice Mathisen. Big things are expected of the Master Comrades in 1949, whose slogan is "Plan today for Russian River in May."

New Officer Announced for C.M.E.

John C. Shull, for seven years manager and treasurer of the Porter Sanitarium and Hospital in Denver, Colorado, has accepted an invitation to become comptroller and treasurer of the College of Medical Evangelists in Loma Linda and Los Angeles.

Brother Shull is a member of the Central Union Conference and the Colorado Conference committees, treasurer of the Colorado Hospital Service, and past president of the Colorado Hospital Association.

After graduating from Washington Missionary College he spent ten years in China as manager of the Shanghai Sanitarium and Hospital.
