Will Korea Perish?

On May 23 the General Conference Famine Relief Committee gave study to a number of items, among which was the need of Korea. Because I recently spent a number of days in the land of Korea the committee asked me to write of it.

Never have I seen such a devastated land. Korea needs pity and help. I traveled from the southernmost end of Korea up to Seoul and then beyond the 38th parallel up to the iron triangle at Chorwong. North of Seoul I did not see one single house. Everything has been laid low. I saw orphan children by the hundreds. I saw refugees on the roads by the thousands—all trying to go somewhere, but where is there to go? Most of our own people have lost everything they ever possessed. The farmer has had his home destroyed, his oxen have been killed, and he is coming back to dig his field by hand this spring, so he can plant a few things by which he might live this coming winter.

Korea's people are fighting for survival against the terrible conditions through which they have passed and are passing. They fight against desperate odds, hunger, disease and sudden death by violence; they are struggling and praying for enough clothing and enough shelter to cover themselves. The very existence of these people depends on whether they receive help in time. It's the difference between death and life. These Koreans must not be forgotten. They must receive help.

We have just received word from the CARE company that packages can now be sent to institutional addresses in Korea. CARE has offered packages containing materials that we know are greatly needed at the present time. The food packages cost $10, and contain eleven different items. We have studied the list, and we think they are very good items. There is another package for $7. It contains dress print, cotton suiting, thread, needles, soap, etc. These things would be very helpful to the Korean people this summer.

We believe many of our people would like to send one or more of these packages. If you will send to James F. Cummins, General Conference Treasury Department, Takoma Park, Washington 12, D.C., either $10 or $7, one of these packages can be sent at once to our office in Pusan or Seoul and thus be distributed to our people. We know that many will welcome this opportunity of sharing with our Korean people, so we are writing with the hope that many of our people who have food to eat and to spare will be glad to pay for one package or more to be sent to Korea to feed the hungry, or clothe the needy.

T. L. OSWALD.

Profitable Vacations

Vacation days may be very profitable days if we plan carefully. New sights may be helpful to weary eyes. A good change is often a blessing to tired bodies. We do well to make our vacation time profitable to our health, that we may return to our regular duties, not worn out from excitement, but ready with new vigor and zest for better work.

Let us also make the vacation trips profitable to the Lord's work. Since we are constantly exerting an influence, let us make our influence count always on the side of truth and righteousness. Vacations provide excellent opportunities for sharing the faith. Let us take along some of our attractive missionary literature as we go. We shall doubtless find some folks who have never seen our publications, and they might be helped into the light by a paper or tract.

In just this simple way a lady and her two sons became interested one summer—thanks to a brother who scattered a few papers on a vacation trip. That lady is a faithful member today. Her two boys went to our schools and later entered the work of the Lord. We little know what may result from the humble act of giving someone a paper or tract.

Soon we shall not have the freedom that we now enjoy in the distribution of our denominational literature. The time is short, and we should make the most of the opportunities that constantly come to each of us. Let us gather up some of the good papers in our homes and churches and take them on the vacation trips. Blessings will result as we prayerfully place our message-filled literature in the hands of the people we meet.

A MINISTER.

Wanted: Access to Copy of 1863 Prophetic Chart

The manuscript of Volume IV of The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers is now in completed form, and the illustrations are being prepared. One outstanding illustration not yet available is the James White prophetic chart of "1863," pictured in M. E. Olsen's Origin and Progress of Seventh-day Adventists, page 234. We have the pamphlet, Key to the Prophetic Chart (1864), but need access to a clear copy of an original chart for the wording and for photographing—hence this appeal. Colleges, churches, publishing houses, retired workers, and pioneer workers' descendants, will you not make search and see if you have it?

Our Faithful Sabbath Schools

The third angel's message is a precious truth. God has been good to us as a people and as individuals. Our Sabbath schools consider it a real privilege to bring honor to Jesus. There is no greater work than that of glorifying the name of God. Our Sabbath schools are magnifying glasses increasing many times the message of truth. Thus souls are being won for Christ. Heaven is rejoicing.

The first quarter of 1952 saw a wonderful increase in every phase of our Nevada-Utah Conference Sabbath schools over last year's first quarter. We pause to thank God for the devotion of the officers and members to the great task of the universe. As a result of an increase in mission offerings the world-wide work is permitted to advance.

We are approaching the close of another quarter. Half of 1952 will soon be history. Retrospect will be fixed. Records will be all that is visible of the six months of this year. What will your record be? Sabbath school member, are you doing your best in the name of Jesus to make a good report? Is your name, church member, on the Sabbath school roll? Are you enjoying the rich blessing that comes from being an active Sabbath school member?

Our Sabbath school officers are devoted to their work. Each Sabbath school program is well planned. Your earnest consecrated leadership is deeply appreciated. Your school is growing. Your mission offerings are increasing. You are able to picture every accomplishment. As you plan the activities for the remainder of this quarter you are organizing effectively for greater accomplishments. You read the Worker, The Review and Herald, and the RECORDER. You are informed regarding the needs and calls of the great mission fields. You are anxious to do your part in leadership. You are praying and working that your Sabbath school will respond faithfully and effectively.

The goal of the conference Sabbath School department calls for every school to not only reach the various goals but to rejoice in a big overflow in each goal—membership, attendance, mission offerings, and baptisms. You have not disappointed your appreciative conference officers yet this year. We know that as you plan, execute your plans, and submit all your ways to God you will exercise the influence necessary to do greater things for God in Jesus' name.

Attention Eastside Dorcas Federation

There will be room to display and sell Dorcas items at the camp meeting in Lodi June 14-21. Please appoint one or two ladies of your society to be responsible for your sales. The quarterly Federation meeting will be held during the camp meeting season, however, the date has not yet been announced. We hope to see many of you at the camp meeting.

Book and Bible House News

Recently we took on the entire line of Cathedral Records, and will have the entire selection for your approval at our coming camp meeting.

The Cathedral Records include a number of records especially for children. They include such stories as "Peace, Be Still," "Healing of Naaman," "Walls of Jericho," "Floating Ax Head," "The Lost Sheep," "Story of Zacchaeus." The songs include "Our King," "He Loves Me Too," "Jesus Loves Me," "Like a Little Candle," "'Tis Love That Makes Us Happy," and "Little Feet Be Careful." There are stories by Eric B. Hare and Elman Folkenberg, and songs by Ben Glanzer.

I am sure that the character-building stories on these records will be a real source of entertainment and pleasure to both young and old.

All of these records may be purchased on the installment plan.

The "Go" Magazine

We have an authoritative letter announcing a new price on the Go magazine. The new price will be $1.25 per year, or $1.35 in Canada. This will be effective with the July 1952 issue.

Go magazine usually consists of thirty six pages and comes out each month filled with pictures, stories and interviews by and about soul-winners. It is a handy pocket size, easy to read, modern format, written for busy people. It has one section devoted to church missionary service material exclusively, and is a must item for church missionary leaders and secretaries. It lists books, study helps, and reading suggestions, as well as the latest in audio-visual aids. It is also a must for men's and women's service groups, and will be helpful in planning many church programs and projects.

Fresno Union Academy Ingathering Field Day

The students and faculty of Fresno Union Academy joined forces on May 6, for a wonderfully successful Ingathering field day. They were assisted by parents and friends who donated their cars to transport the students to their territories.

The academy was happy to have Elder O. R. Rees of the Central California Conference Home Missionary department to give help and instruction for the day's program.

The experiences of the students were a real blessing to those they visited as well as to themselves. Some had the opportunity to pray for some invalid or sick person in the homes where they solicited. Generally the people were pleasant and generous with their donations. It was gratifying to see the favorable attitudes of many toward our missionary program.

The amount of $398.09 was brought in by the students and faculty of Fresno Union Academy. Everyone participating received a rich blessing and the Lord truly blessed the efforts of all 73 persons who took part in the field day.

Dos Palos Church

It was back in 1912 that a few scattered believers decided to build an Adventist church at Dos Palos. They purchased a lot on the edge of town, and erected a little building. Their little church was enlarged and remodeled from time to time to meet the needs of a growing congregation.

In September, 1951, this church was badly damaged by fire of undetermined origin, and a large loss sustained. Thanks to kind friends and insurance, this building has been repaired and remodeled into a better looking place of worship than it was before the fire.

Rededication services were held in the Dos Palos church Sabbath afternoon, April 12, with many visitors attending from our Los Banos church. Leslie Morrill took charge of announcements and introductions, and our conference treasurer, Robert Osborn, opened the service with scripture reading and prayer. Special music was provided by Mrs. Pearl Darst, accompanied by Peter Wessels. Happenings from the past forty years were gleaned from old church record books, and interestingly related by Madge Haines Morrill. Elder R. C. Baker, president of the Central California Conference, gave the dedicatory sermon, stressing soul-saving work as one of the greatest needs of the church today. The dedicatory prayer was offered by Elder Donald Darst, and the benediction was pronounced by Elder A. C. Harder.

May this little church ever stand as a lighthouse, pointing the way to our heavenly home.

DONALD DARST.

Master Guide Camp

Outstanding instructors (experts in their field) will be in attendance at the Master Guide Family camp. This program, especially designed for Pathfinder workers, and Master Guides, begins at 4 p.m. July 3, and will close at noon, July 6. You will carry away a fund of knowledge that will make you a better leader for boys and girls. Rates for the camp are most reasonable, and you can't afford to miss any of it. See your pastor or M.V. leader for complete information.

HENRY T. BERGH.

You Ought to Know

That the Chinese church in San Francisco with fourteen members has reached a triple Minuteman goal in Ingathering. They take the high honors in the conference with a per capita of $67.48. This is the only Chinese church in North America.

Corcoran takes second place. Their twenty-four members have reached a per capita of $41.03.

Running in third and fourth places are Elder Nozaki's Japanese churches of Mountain View with $33.32 per capita, and San Francisco with $32.41.

Other churches exceeding the $22 individual goal and standing high on the Honor Roll are:

Gustine and Los Banos, A. C. Harder, pastor

Santa Maria Spanish, Max Martinez, pastor

Fresno Italian, J. Vitrano, pastor

San Luis Obispo, Clyde Bradley, pastor

Coalinga, Paul Gregoroff and Andrew Dahl, pastors

Many others are coming close to the Minuteman goal. Watch the Honor Roll goal. ORDELL R. REES.

Last Chance

June 9 is the deadline for getting Boys' Earlitcen Applications in the mail, to receive the $1 discount for early applications. Any applications received with postmark later than June 9 will be processed at the $20 rate.

Junior Boys Camp. Sunday, June 15, the camp starts for Junior boys. We prefer having advance application, but we will accept boys without previous application. We request that they bring an application blank with them to camp with their parents' signature. Application blanks are in all churches. If the application did not come in ahead of time, send the boy up for the greatest week he has ever experienced, anyway. Remember the boy must be nine before June 15! No exceptions!

Investiture and Ingathering Appreciation

After seeing the hundreds of boys and girls who have taken part in our investiture services around the conference recently, we do want to give a special word of appreciation to all of our splendid church school teachers and Pathfinder leaders. Yes, hundreds of juniors have completed another step in their M.V. classwork in the last few weeks and received their pins and honor tokens. We wish to express our gratitude to those who spent many hours and days preparing these boys and girls.

Yours is a work well done, teachers and Pathfinder leaders, and it is appreciated.

Then as Ingathering news comes into our office it thrills us to see the excellent work being done by our schools and Pathfinder clubs. Congratulations to you teachers who have led your rooms over your goals, and we salute you boys and girls who have worked so hard individually to bring in your Minuteman amount. Some of our boys and girls have secured several Minuteman goals, such as one of our juniors from San Diego who has solicited over $200 without assistance, and others who have reached nearly that amount. All of this the Lord sees and records, and your reward will be certain.

Youth Camp Meeting

The youth of Southeastern California will share richly in the experiences of our 1952 camp meeting, June 12-22. For the first time in our conference special plans have been laid for an inspiring series of evening meetings to be conducted for youth, in addition to other meetings. These services will be evangelistic in nature, with deeply spiritual sermons prepared for youth—especially for youth as they face tremendous, last-day problems. Featured as youth speakers will be A. S. Maxwell, H. M. S. Richards, D. A. Delafield and others.

Young people, be sure and attend these meetings, they've been prepared especially for you. You will not be forgotten at camp meeting and by the Lord's help you'll not forget this camp meeting.

Summer Camps

In less than one month our camps begin, opening a summer filled with activity. How wonderful it would be to have every junior 9-15 years of age enjoy camp at beautiful Idyllwild. Over 530 juniors attended last year, but where were the others? This year an excellent program is being planned featuring outdoor, campcraft activities—all our juniors should share in this, we should have 100 per cent J.M.V. camping.

Attention, all young people! If you are 16-35 years of age—this is it, a SENIOR YOUTH CAMP including a 3-day pack trip in the picturesque San Jacinto mountains. Inspiring youth round-table discussions, swimming, thrilling campfires, craft and nature activities—all planned for senior youth. Be sure and plan to join the others who will be attending—Aug. 28-Sept. 3.

Something new. This year all Master Guides and Pathfinder leaders are invited to attend our first Master Guide camp in early September. Although planned primarily for persons in these two classes, all others interested in junior work are welcome to attend. Be watching for further details.

Remember these camp dates

Rededication of Corona Church

Sabbath, April 26, was a happy day for our church at Corona, the occasion being the rededication of their church which has been extensively remodelled. New pews were installed, and new floors—with new carpets on the rostrum and aisles. A new celotex ceiling was put in, and the building painted throughout, with other improvements made where they were needed.

The church was filled to overflowing, both for the morning and afternoon services. The writer spoke in the morning and Elder C. L. Bauer preached the rededication sermon. Elder F. L. Abbott offered the dedicatory prayer and Elder P. C. Heubach sang "God Bless This House." Special music was rendered by the choir. The church history was given by Dr. H. E. Herman, who has been with the church since its organization. Mayor C. R. Miller of Corona was present and expressed appreciation of our church and the improvements that have been made.

Elder R. G. Mote, pastor of the church, has labored untiringly in this remodeling program. Elder Mote was master of ceremonies, and had everything arranged in a splendid way. In addition to his welcome to the people, he led the congregation in a special prayer of consecration.

We rejoice with our people in Corona in their greatly improved church home.

Colton Goes to Idyllwild

The May 17 week end was spent by the Colton church at our splendid conference camp at Idyllwild; Colton thus being the first church group to take advantage of Southeastern's generous new policy of making the camp available to various groups prior to the camping season.

Seventy members brought bedding and camped over Friday and Saturday nights. Fifty more came up for Sabbath services in the campfire circle and out on the meadow. Notice, this was not simply a junior or youth camp, but a family camp; old and young alike came.

The program included a Master Guide investiture (for Mrs. Bernice Guptill) on Friday night, a bird walk at 6:30 Sabbath morning, a nature treasure hunt and diversified sing in the afternoon, games, hikes, and flag ceremonies, in addition to the regular Sabbath services.

Special thanks are due Brother and Sister John Moore for their untiring service in the kitchen activities.

The results of the week end, in terms of increased understanding and fellowship among our family of believers, are inestimable. Many felt that this was the first time they really got acquainted. All want to go again.

Juniors: Camp Meeting Is Just Around the Corner!

Special plans are underway for you, Juniors. You can be sure you will enjoy every minute of camp meeting. So, be sure to plan to attend every meeting, and please

Remember to Bring

1. Your Pathfinder uniforms
2. Your musical instruments.

We'll need them for ceremonies, the Junior orchestra, and so forth.

By the way, for the first time, we are planning to hold evening meetings just for you. We'll be looking for you, Friday morning, June 13, at 9:30.

Studies on "The Home": This year we will have another series on "The Home" during our camp meeting, and these will be given from 2:30 to 3:45 each day, starting Sunday, June 22. The program is as follows:

"Foundation of Civilization," Elder A.

C. Nelson

"The Christian and His Health," Dr.

Albert Brown

"The Art of Living at Home," Dr. A. L.

Bietz

"Family Altar or Altered Family," Elder

John Osborn

"Planning a Home," Dr. Edward Heppenstall

"The Art of Living Together," Elder

Ordination Service: On Sabbath afternoon, June 21, three young men will be ordained to the ministry—Roger Coon, pastor of the Compton church; Merrill Enright, pastor of the Baldwin Park church, and Andrew Peters, pastor of the Lancaster and Ridgecrest churches.

Share Your Faith Service: On Sabbath afternoon, June 28, at 2:30, an unusually interesting Share Your Faith meeting will be held. This will be one of the most inspirational meetings of the week.

Especially for non-Adventists: On the last day of the spiritual feast, Sunday, June 29, there will be a sermon in the large auditorium at 2:30 especially for non-Adventists. Be sure to bring your friends to this meeting, as well as all others. We are keeping in mind that on Sunday there will be a large number of non-Adventists present, and all speakers and topics have been arranged with this thought in mind.

We are now in the midst of our camp pitch program. The workers are meeting every morning in study and prayer before taking up the work for the day. Continue to remember us as we prepare the campground for this great meeting.

R. R. BIETZ.

Camp meeting chairs: This year the conference is supplying chrome arm chairs free of cost to those who should occupy them—those who are well along in years and those who are infirm and not able to attend the meetings unless some such provision is made for them. Anyone who would like to bring his own easy chair may do so providing there are no long rockers that would trip those who may wish to pass between the rows of chairs. Space will be provided on the west side of the auditorium for this type of equipment.

Miscellaneous Information: No domestic animals or pets of any kind are allowed on the grounds during the encampment.

Should you be in need of hot water bottles or any other necessary personal articles, bring them with you for they are not furnished by the conference.

Cafeteria, delicatessen, and store service will be available to the public, except on the Sabbath.

We will begin giving out locations for tents and trailer houses on June 15. Please do not ask for them before that date. Someone will be on the campground to give you the assignment and receive the balance due on your order. If you will keep this in mind upon arrival it will help to expedite the locating of the nearly seven hundred families who will be camping on the grounds. This is no small task. Your previous cooperation has been very much appreciated, and we assure you that this year will be no exception to the rule.

Southern California Happenings

Baptisms: We are happy to report that during the month of May 174 people were added to our churches by baptism and profession of faith. The list is as follows:

Milton Adams, 3; W. Alexander, 4; Gordon Collier, 10; W. A. Dunn, 4; Dan Goddard, 5; R. W. Greiner, 9; C. R. Hall, 8; K. C. Holman, 10; H. D. Jeffries, 14; Merwin Jones, 1; Phillip Knox, 7; A. C. Lien, 5; H. A. Lindsey, 5; Henry Meissner, 2; Garland Millet, 5; F. W. Miller, 14; K. Minife, 8; Dave Olsen, 5; John Osborn, 16; Robert Osborne, 5; Lester Patterson, 5; Andrew Peters, 13; Manuel Rosado, 2; L. P. Schutter, 6; B. R. Spear, 2; Wm. G. Wirth, 6.

We rejoice for this good report, and hope that during the remaining months of the year many more will be led to the knowledge of the truth. Every church program which contributes to the winning of souls to Christ is important. All others are inconsequential and should be eliminated. Let us continue to steadily build up strong and progressive programs of soul-winning endeavor in every church of this conference. No church or pastor can be satisfied to have it otherwise.

Colporteur Institute: A lively and profitable colporteur institute was conducted in the Spanish-American church Sunday, May 25. We were happy, indeed, to have Elder D. A. McAdams of the General Conference with us. Elder A. G. Sutton of the Pacific Union Conference was also present and gave his usual excellent help. Elder Finney and his associates are enthusiastic about the excellent work the colporteurs are doing. We hope that many more will join this loyal and consecrated band of soul winners.

Ingathering: The conference workers and constituency members of Southern have done it again! They raised $170,000 in just a few weeks. We hope that by the time all of the reports are in even before camp meeting we will reach $180,000. It is cheering indeed to hear that our members undertook this great work so enthusiastically. Our juniors and young people did outstanding work. Quite a large number of boys and girls got as much as $250 each. We appreciate the vigor that the juniors and young people put into this great mission program. We know that as a result of the efforts put forth by all of us many souls will be brought to a knowledge of the truth.

A Missionary Project: One of our church members has a $300 dinner set of Haviland china, service for 12, that she is willing to sell for $100, half of which will be donated to the Ingathering fund, and the other half to be used for a local church missionary project and 13th Sabbath offering. Anyone interested in making such a purchase and at the same time promoting the Lord's work should contact the Home Missionary department of the Southern California Conference, Capitol 6136.

M.V. Specials

Ingathering

We are closing the greatest Ingathering crusade in history. Many interested people have been found and enrolled in Bible studies. Large sums have been raised by the youth, far more than the $60,000 raised last year.

Here are some reports:

The Gardena church school, with 80 students, raised $2,125 in Ingathering. Here's what some of the students did in personal solicitation: Sherry Mohr raised $123.43, Harlene Mohr $120.07, and Roger Johnson $117. We congratulate the students and faculty of this school for their outstanding achievement. The principal is Donald Timothy.

Lynwood church school was also very active. The fifth grade, with 42 students, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Marcia Sawzak, raised $2,000. The students went out soliciting after school. Here's a report from two girls of this group: Jeannene Rowe $261.83, and Shirley Smithlin $259.04. This report surely is remarkable.

The Hollywood church singing band reports the biggest Saturday night in the history of their church for May 10.

According to the pastor, L. B. Schick, $3,392.72 was raised. To date this singing band has raised, in six Saturday nights, $8,070.22. Two juniors in this church did remarkably well. Marilyn Haluska raised $275.18, and Donald Schliff raised $150.

From the Ventura church come these wonderful reports from two junior boys. David Wildenberg raised $175, and Donnie Peak raised $125.

Coupled with these financial blessings let us remember that Ingathering is more than a money-raising campaign. It's a soul-winning endeavor; therefore, let us pray that God will lead many of the thousands of individuals contacted through this crusade into the Advent message.

Juniors and Summertime

Summertime is joytime, and this season should be made happy, joyous, and profitable for every junior.

No better experience could come to a junior boy or girl than to attend summer camp. Cedar Falls offers a fine character-building program. Located nine miles high in the majestic San Bernardino Mountains, it provides an excellent setting for teaching nature lore, trees, birds, and stars.

Applications for the four summer camps are beginning to pile up, and we are looking forward to another wonderful camping season.

The camp dates are:

Youth Problem Clinic

This will be a new camp meeting feature for young people in the youth tent each week-day afternoon at 4:30, conducted by Dr. A. L. Bietz and Elder Paul Heubarth. Such topics will be discussed as, "Acting Your Age," "Are Your Habits Assets or Liabilities?" "Choosing a Life Work," "That Sense of Guilt," "Having a Good Time," and "Mastering Fear and Anxiety."

A brief presentation of a topic each day will be made and then an open discussion will follow, guided, of course, by these two widely known Professors of Applied Christianity at the College of Medical Evangelists.

Hawaii Is Calling You

We need a full-time colporteur for the Island of Hawaii, the largest island here.

One of the most successful ways of winning souls is the colporteur way. Time is short. It may be too late next year. Who will be the first to respond to this call now?

Just last week Brother Munar canvassed a young family with Patriarchs and Prophets, Desire of Ages, Great Controversy, Bible Readings, and Daniel and the Revelation. At the close of the presentation the man exclaimed, "Why, this is just what we need." Brother Munar took the order which amounted to $67.50, received a $10 deposit and left the first book.

You can make your living winning souls in the colporteur work.

Be the first to write to the Publishing Secretary in response to this urgent call. Box 4037, Honolulu, T.H.

News From Maui

The Ingathering campaign has been successfully completed on Maui, and we rejoice that a greater per cent of laymen and young people helped than ever before. Many new solicitors were trained this year.

Fifty-one young people and parents are anxiously awaiting the forthcoming Youth's Congress. Many will experience for the first time the "camp meeting" feeling and the association of fellow Missionary Volunteers from all the Islands.

A number of laymen are giving Bible studies, holding cottage meetings, and conducting lay efforts. Brother William Harvey is holding cottage meetings in Kihei four nights a week. Sister Lucille Robello is using a borrowed projector, showing Bible pictures to her neighbors and friends.

A lay-effort has been started at Puukolii camp in Lahaina on the west side of the island. Broher Regino Cahola, Sabbath school superintendent, and Brother Benjamin Madrid, local Elder, with the help of other members are leading out in this endeavor. A good interest is reported with several taking the Filipino Bible Correspondence Course.

A Missionary Volunteer indeed is Richard Shim of Kula. At the public high school where he attends he gave reports in his English class on the conditions of the world and the signs of the times. One of his teachers is readily accepting all literature he gives her. Another missionary project that he has is to faithfully visit the Kula Sanitarium on Sabbath afternoons, encouraging patients and distributing our literature.

Another successful school year under the leadership of Brother Kenneth Nip will come to a close with graduation exercises on June 5. Two-thirds of these graduates will be enrolling in Hawaiian Mission Academy next year.

Pacific Union College

Commencement

As the organ rolled out the time-worn strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," 95 P.U.C. seniors, like graduates all over America, moved down the aisle last Sunday morning to commencement.

The 93 baccalaureate candidates, and the 2 master candidates representing 23 different major areas, were presented their diplomas by President J. E. Weaver with the solemn ritual that all P.U.C. graduates remember. They repeated together the pledge to use their education in the service of God.

In his address to the graduates, Dr. C. E. Weniger, dean of the S.D.A. Theological Seminary and former dean of Pacific Union College, pointed out to the class the pitfalls that await them as they leave college. "Perhaps the deepest of these," he said, "is that of mental laziness. In proportion to your continued mental activity will be your success." Speaking particularly to ministers, he said, "There is nothing worse than a dull preacher, and dullness is often the result of mental laziness."

Pride, said Doctor Weniger, is also a pitfall for the graduate—pride of learning, pride of position, pride of accomplishment. "Humility," he explained, "is hard to learn; even the Master had a difficult time teaching it."

In warning the seniors of the pitfall of intolerance, Doctor Weniger remarked that "strange as it may seem, the so-called 'educated man'—the scholar—is especially susceptible. No one can be more despicable than the academic bigot—be he A.B., A.M., Ph.D., M.D., or D.D.—who scorns every area of human knowledge save his own. Bigotry is a confession of ignorance of every other field."

Warning the graduates against what he called "institutionalism," the speaker defined its characteristics as "organization, propaganda, goals, methods, devices, techniques, processes—things all very good in themselves, but stifling when they become ends in themselves."

Suggesting that vision is the means by which pitfalls can be avoided, Doctor Weniger concluded, "Commence your work in a clear perspective of the cross, placing before the honor of men, honor of God."

Positions for the Seniors

Prospects of jobs for this year's graduates look good. On commencement day many of them are already placed.

All of the theological students who had applied for internships had been placed. Three were going to the Seminary for advanced study and two will continue their study here at Pacific Union College.

Also in great demand were secretaries and teachers. "We could place twice as many elementary teachers as we have available," says Miss Alice Neilsen, director of elementary education. Secondary education graduates are being placed in academies.

Demand for the ten graduates of the secretarial science department probably hit a new high this year. According to Miss Alice Holst, head of the department, inquiries for secretaries were received from as far away as three thousand miles. With this year's seniors accepting positions as private secretaries, medical secretaries, teachers, and in a variety of specialized positions, it seemed, in the words of Miss Holst, that the secretarial department at Pacific Union College is "doing its best to relieve the current secretarial shortage in the denomination."

Summer School

Under the direction of Dr. George L. Caviness, the first session of summer school begins at Pacific Union College on June 9. The second term starts on July 6 and the third term begins on August 3. The session ends on August 28.

With a variety of attractive offerings for teachers, and the special second-term music attractions, summer school at the College this year is expected to attract a large enrollment.

Applications should be at the registrar's office within the next few days.

Alumnus of the Year

Beginning what they hope will be an annual custom at P.U.C., the Alumni Association this spring selected an outstanding alumnus to be especially honored at commencement time. The 1952 Alumnus of the Year is Dr. Charles E. Weniger, class of 1918.

On commencement morning, Dr. Richard B. Lewis, retiring president of the Alumni Association, cited the distinguished record of Doctor Weniger in service to the College and the denomination.

The formal honor was awarded, in behalf of the College by President J. E. Weaver.

Wanted: Prophetic Chart

right. The three angels, followed by the coming of Christ on the clouds, appear at the lower left; while the prophetic symbols of Revelation are on the right. The sanctuary, with its two apartments, is at the lower center, and the inscription or title of the chart is in the lower right corner. This apparently reads, "A Pictorial ——— of the Visions of Daniel and John," with the remaining information about the publisher or lithographer at Boston, and the date, not legible on the photograph we have.

If you have a copy of this chart, kindly communicate at once with L. E. Froom, General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Takoma Park, D.C., and arrangement will be made for its safe transmission and return, or for a local photographer to make a good negative for us. Your help in locating a copy will be greatly appreciated.
