The Challenge of Two Million Men

More than two million men scattered abroad in the armed forces of this country present a mighty challenge to the Advent people. Many of these will gladly read our literature. Thousands are even now enrolled in our Bible correspondence courses. Some have accepted the truth in 1953. This good letter comes from one of them in Germany.

"After reading much of the literature given to me by a member of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination, I, too, have decided to take my stand for Christ, and when possible, be baptized. I want to join with the people of God, and take part in the wonderful work that is being done by the Seventh-day Adventists in these last days. If possible, I would like to receive the literature that is being sent to Seventh-day Adventist servicemen overseas, and any other instruction on Seventh-day Adventist teaching and beliefs. I thank God that I have come to a knowledge of the truth."

This young soldier is not the only one who is rejoicing in his new-found faith today. We know of twenty-four men in the armed forces who have accepted this message in 1953 since coming into the services. They were actually converted while in the service. The larger portion of this number have been baptized. Some, like this soldier in Germany, await baptism. It was your generous offering for servicemen's literature in 1953, that made this splendid work possible.

As your boys moved overseas, each man received, free of charge, the *Re*view & Herald, and the Youth's Instructor. These weekly visits have been like letters from home. Many are in distant places. When Sabbath comes, they have no other fellowship.

Writing from APO 46 in Europe, one lonely young man says: "I have spent many Sabbaths in the field alone here in Germany. I can't express in words how much I enjoy the literature you send me. I read these church papers from cover to cover. They have helped me to remain faithful to my Lord while I have been so far from loved ones and home. May the Spirit of the Lord be with you and bless you."

Another serviceman writes: "I am the only Adventist on the Island of Eniwetok. This is a new experience for me and I assure you that I appreciate the help you have sent." Others are in Labrador, in distant parts of Japan and Korea, some in North Africa. We can never absolve ourselves from our responsibility as a church for remembering these widely scattered young boys of ours who have been taken from our firesides and sent to protect our liberties on front lines of defense. Am sure we would not want to if we could. They are our own precious youth. We will stand by them whereever they go.

On May 8, the day before Mothers' Day, our thoughts are to be directed to all these mothers' sons by a special offering. On this day when their hearts are thinking of Mother back home, how appropriate it is for mother and father to dedicate an offering for the boys out yonder. The field of opportunity is immense. Two thousand chaplains in the armed forces will gladly place our literature on ships, in reading rooms, and display carriers. More than two million men are prospective readers. More than two thousand of our own boys must be provided for. We appeal to you to remember the servicemen on May 8.

LA SIERRA COLLEGE

Week of Prayer Results

The Spring Week of Prayer at La Sierra College was conducted this year by Elder C. E. Wittschiebe, head of the Theology department at Southern Missionary College.

The unpretentious way in which Elder Wittschiebe presented the key truths in the story of salvation and man's redemption received hearty acceptance by the students and faculty here. The meetings were all heavily attended, and there was no difference between required or optional attendance. All felt the quiet influence for good and the presence of the Holy Spirit in a way that indicated permanence of resolutions and new-birth dedication. These things are appropriate for God's people in these perplexing days.

A new plan called for prayer band meetings after the evening services. Attendance was voluntary but large, and participation and Christian sympathy very pronounced. Doubtless these are partial explanations of an increased recognition of spiritual values that persists in a natural way well after the week itself has passed.

Alumni Week End Program Assures Good Attendance

La Sierra College and its Alumni Association are planning for the annual Alumni week end from April 30 to May 2. Alumni officers and others have been working to provide a schedule of events which will appropriately mark the occasion.

One of the highlights will he the 11 o'clock service on Sabbath, May 1, in the La Sierra church, when Elder Elmer Walde, secretary of the General Conference Radio and Television department, preaches the sermon. Alumnus Fritz Guy is in charge of the Sabbath school program in H.M.A.

An innovation — the Medical-Ministerial Conference — will take place Sunday morning at ten o'clock. Chaplain Reinhold Tilstra of Loma Linda Sanitarium and Hospital has arranged for several men of experience to participate in this two-hour conference. Alumnus Tilstra is also in charge of the Friday vesper hour. Sunday afternoon an athletic hour will be followed by a business session of the association which officers urge all alumni to attend. That evening a banquet arranged for and directed by Ned McMurry and Betty Hannum will climax the weekend activities. Reservations for the Sunday banquet should be in Mr. Clarence Laue's office at the College by Wednesday, April 28, or phoned in on Thursday at the latest.

Admissions for 1954-55

Applications for the school year 1954-55 run above 250 as of now, and 180 acceptance actions have been taken by the Admissions Committee. This is one month ahead of last year's record. Indications are that the anticipated bulge in college enrollments has begun. Sometimes the acceptances are delayed because of tardy transcripts from high schools, academies, or other colleges. Applicants can assist the process by urging the registrars to send transcripts promptly to: The Registrar, La Sicrra College, Arlington, California.

The school year 1954-55 begins on September 20 for freshmen, and on September 21 for other students. Room reservations should be made early, as the demands are likely to be heavy. School officials can plan for supplementary space if they know early enough.

The Bulletin for the new year is coming from the press this week. Those who would like to have copies should write the Dean's Office at La Sierra College.

Aloha Day Features Hawaii

La Sierra College students and faculty members went Hawaiian in honor of the Aloha day sponsored by the Hawaiian club of the college Thursday and Friday, April 22 and 23. Activities began with the showing of the technicolor film, "Highways to Hawaii," Thursday evening. All campus personnel, both faculty and students, donned colorful Aloha shirts, muumuus, holmuus, or pakemus, and several students sent to Hawaii for genuine Island sport shirts to wear for the occasion.

Friday, a colorful pageant was presented by members of the Hawaiian club and the affair was presided over by Queen-for-the-day Maxine Bergman and her four princesses who represented the four major islands in the eightisland chain, Maui, Oahu, Kauai, and Hawaii. After the crowning of the queen by L.S.C. president Dr. G. T. Anderson, the pageant continued with hulas, narration, choral and instrumental musical numbers.

United Air Lines, as the results of efforts by Elder J. F. Knipschild, Educational-MV secretary of the Hawaiian mission, and Mrs. Elaine North and Mr. Marshall Benedict of United Air Lines, flew in a load of fresh orchids, leis, and tropical foliage from Hawaii to Los Angeles free of charge for the event.

--o---With the California Legislature

It has seemed good to Elder Jefferson and me that we give a little report on our experiences with the California Legislature within the last year or so. Perhaps most of you know that prior to my coming to this field the California Legislature had voted almost unanimously to amend the tax law so that church schools would not be taxed, thus bringing California into line with the other 47 states.

This was contested by the California Tax Payers' Alliance, so-called, and the matter had to go on the ballot for a vote under the title of Proposition 3. We were successful in the election, but subsequently it was challenged again in the courts, and a lower court voted two to one against this. The matter was then appealed to the State Supreme court where it is now awaiting final action.

World Calendar Information A Correction

A new pamphlet was recently announced, "Do You Know How the Proposed World Calendar Will Affect Your Life?" The price was stated as fifteen cents. Such large orders were received that the price has been revised downward, now the pamphlet may be purchased for ten cents.

This good news should enable us to buy and distribute many more of the pamphlets. All citizens, in fact all who can read English, should have the information provided in this new booklet. Order from your church missionary secretary or Book and Bible House.

For Those Attending General Conference

Seventh-day Adventists throughout the Pacific Union who are planning to attend the General Conference in San Francisco will be interested to know that Loma Linda Foods will again operate a convenient food service in connection with the session.

This food service, so popular during the last General Conference and the Pan American Youth's Congress, will be operated this year at 25 Grove Street, just one-half block from the Civic Auditorium. Grove Street connects Market Street with the Civic Auditorium. Look for the Loma Linda Food Company signs! WERNER E. CARLSON.

Great Controversy—the Book of the Year

The book-for-the-month idea has come to stay, and the Voice of Prophecy uses over 20,000 copies each month or 240,-000 in a year. That is good.

The book-of-the-year is becoming a tradition with us as a people. The 210,-

000 copies of Bible Readings for the Home was a good record, but the best is in store for 1954.

Great Controversy is the book of the year; it is indeed the book of this very hour. That is the book which describes today and tomorrow. It is the book which sets forth "the last great crisis" --the Sabbath-Sunday issue. It sets forth the Sabbath and the Law of God so that those who refuse its impelling message will be subjects for the mark of the beast.

Great Controversy is the book for Seventh-day Adventists to scatter by the hundreds and thousands as individual missionary work. One million copies is only one copy for every 160 people in the United States. It will take at least ten times that number to actually put the Sabbath-Sunday issue before the people sufficiently clear so that God can draw the line and close the conflict between good and evil, between right and wrong, between God's law and man's law.

Buy and scatter Great Controversy as never before in 1954.

Great Controversy, Christian Home Library edition, is priced at only $1.00 per copy postpaid in lots of ten or more during the remainder of 1954. Order your supply today from your church missionary secretary or your conference Book and Bible House.

THE PUBLISHERS,

An Adequate Excuse for Unfinished Lessons

"It really is partly your fault that I have not sent in answers to your course for about five months (I think)—but wait until I explain a bit and then you will understand that I do not 'blame' you for what appears to be remissness on my part.

"I found Mr. Andreasen's book 'Following the Master' (received from your program October 20th) extremely interesting but quite upsetting, for I am an Episcopalian and have been for the 60 years of my life, and some of the ideas and doctrines mentioned in his book were quite upsetting.

"However, the following sequence of events has occurred since then. I now own and have read all but one or two of Mr. Andreasen's books; I got in touch with Mr. O. J. Ritz of the New Haven Church (SDA) about December first, on which day he came up the 25 miles to my home and talked with me for a couple of hours (although I was a perfect stranger to him); starting with December 5th last, I have missed only 2 Sabhath Day services (Dec. [12 & 26] held in Waterbury, and have been a frequent attendant at Sabbath School sessions as well; Mr. Ritz has come up to our house and talked with my wife, son and me for the past seven consecutive Tuesday evenings; he has loaned me Mr. Froom's rather massive 3 volumes on 'The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers,' and I am now up to about page 150 in Volume III; I now own (and have read nearly all of) some 30 or 40 hooks and pamphlets obtained from the Southern New England Book and Bible House.

"Perhaps you will now understand why I have not been as regular as I should have heen about sending in answers to the Bible Course in which I am still greatly interested and which I hope to resume in the reasonably near future---and I hope to be back with 'the class' soon." FAITH FOR TODAY.

The Gospel to the Blind

Doubtless more than any other single group, the visually handicapped need the message of hope, comfort, and security that comes with a knowledge of the Lord Jesus. As we follow the Master's footsteps in our home visitation programs, let's remember these people.

For the blind, the following six monthly publications are available in Braille without cost: The Christian Record, Life and Health, The Student (Salibath school lessons), These Times, The Youth, and The Children's Friend.

Then there is the Faith Bible Correspondence Course in Braille. Over four hundred were enrolled the past year. Of these, twelve have accepted Christ and united with the church.

Before sending in requests for literature, please find out whether the contact reads Braille. For those who do not, the Association has recorded as "Talking Books" and placed in the regional libraries for the blind, Steps to Christ,

A Life Changed by Radio

The Voice of Prophecy General Board, in order to meet its 1954 budget, found it necessary to drop one of the broadcast's powerful 50,000-watt stations carrying the weekly program. This station was WLW in Cincinnati, Ohio. For more than eight years The Voice of Prophecy negotiated to purchase time on WLW and succeeded in doing so only a year ago. Now we have had to cancel our contract with that important Eastern station. Perhaps each one of us can do a little more than before to help keep the message on the air.

Though it is true that a smaller station, covering a portion of that same area, is now carrying the broadcast, it was an unhappy event for many when WLW was dropped. The following letter from Cincinnati is an example:

"When I heard it announced in church this morning that The Voice of Prophecy was going to be discontinued over Badio Station WLW, it broke my heart. That program has done so much for me.

"I used to drink, smoke, curse, lie, and everything else a sinner does. One morning I was sick in bed and heard the Voice of Prophecy broadcast. I liked Elder Richards' sermon so much that I sent for the free Bible Course. I was baptized by Elder R. B. Hill, November 21, 1953. I hate to think what kind of life I would be living today if I lvad not heard the Voice of Prophecy program. I know this program has helped millions of others as it has helped me.

"I have asked many friends and neighbors to listen to The Voice of Prophecy and I pray it will bring them into our church. And now you are going to discontinue. Please, please, for the sake of all sinners and those who are not able to go to church, let us hear The Voice of Prophecy every Sunday." D. V. POND.

Keene Reunion at General Conference

All former students and trachers of Southwestern Junior College, "Kerne" will be interested to know that plans are being worked out for an early evening social hour including a short program, light refreshments with time for visiting and reminiscing. The place will be one of the auxiliary halls in the Civic Auditorium. Watch for further announcement of exact time and place.

Signs—the Entering Wedge

Have you relatives and friends who need the great "silent evangelist," Signs of the Times? Now is the hour for action during our 80th anniversary Crusade when you can take advantage of the unusual offer of one free subscription for every five single subscriptions to individuals.

This thrilling experience is one of hundreds scattered throughout the world where Signs has been the entering wedge for truth and victory. From Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, comes the following story:

Among the hundreds of thousands who were discharged from the armed forces at the close of World War H was Richard Sloan who had been a Seventh-day Adventist before entering the service, but like too many young people he forgot his faith. For months the knowledge of truth plus a bruised conscience haunted his footsteps continually. Then one day he made two great decisions: first, he would further his education in a Christian school; second, he would send Signs of the Times to several of his acquaintances. One of his friends who received the Signs was George Yehl, a former buddy in service. But George and Jcan, his wife, had to work hard to support their children and did not have time for religious things, so they only glanced at the Signs upon its arrival each week.

Then came a strange turn of mind when suddenly they were involved in an automobile accident that came within inches of hurtling their whole family down over a mountain side to almost certain death. They found themselves talking about religion and the Bible, and the old question of death-what is it? And eternity-what and where is it? Mrs. Yehl began to read the Signs with unbelieving interest and discovered the offer of a free Bible course. She studied diligently and discussed her findings with her husband. When Elder F. B. Fowler, while following up the Bible course interests, called at this home he found a welcome entrance. Bible classes were held for several months and Mrs. Yehl's married brother and sister attended with their respective families,

Now the Results Are Seen

Recently, we have received word from the field about a number of boys and girls recently baptized whose decisions were made at camp last year. There is nothing that makes us happier, for the real objective of our summer camping program at Idyllwild is to win and hold our youth for Christ.

It's in the out-of-doors, under the blue sky, amid the beautiful, tall pine trees, along the mountain trails that we are able to get next to our Pathfinders and lead them spiritually. There is no place that is more effective for this type of soul-winning than at our summer camps.

Fathers and mothers, won't you work with me to see that your boy or girl, the Pathfinder in your church, and For Pathfinders in Southeastern It's the

Arlington "Voice of Youth" Effort

Only eternity can reveal the measure of success resulting from the Voice of Youth meetings held in the Arlington church. These meetings, sponsored by the youth of La Sierra Academy under the direction of Elder Floyd Wood and Elder E. J. Royer, the local pastor, have truly been a blessing to the church, to the community, and to the young people themselves.

This was the first time such a program was undertaken by the school. It has proved to be a wonderful venture. Well over one hundred young men and women assisted in one way or another in the course of the series. Besides the many who offered their musical talent, their time for ushering, operating of equipment, caring for the children, etc., a large number volunteered to do the speaking on the subjects presented. Several, who at first hesitated to volunteer, ventured to stand before the large crowd in attendance from night to night and present the Word of God.

Of the average attendance of 250 each evening there were some who had never before ever been inside an Adventist church. These were decply impressed by the courage and talent of Christian youth. These folk, of course, will be visited, and it is hoped, studied with and later invited to join the church.

To highlight the last meeting of the series a baptism was held. Of the twelve who went forward in baptism, eight were young people. Four others had attended the pastor's Voice of Prophecy class and then came to the Voice of Youth meetings and were greatly inspired by them. This sacred service proved to be a beautiful climax to a task well done, and we hope and pray that even additional baptisms may result from the faithful and loval work of these youth. E. J. ROYER.

Escondido Church Opening

Sabbath, March 20, was a very happy occasion for the Escondido church, the occasion being the opening of their new auditorium. This is indeed a beautiful auditorium which adjoins the old church building. The old church will be used for Sabbath school rooms. The new auditorium has a seating capacity of 500, including the gallery and choir loft. New rest rooms have also been built.

The church was filled to overflowing at the opening service. Elder C. L. Bauer, president of the Pacific Union, preached the morning sermon; and at the official opening in the afternoon many of our people came in from the surrounding churches for the service. Excellent music was furnished by the choir under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Flaiz. Elder Robert Wheatley, the pastor, gave everyone a very hearty welcome. Prominent officials from the city were present and participated in the service.

The writer spoke at the afternoon service. Dr. M. B. Graybill gave the history of the Escondido church, and Elder and Mrs. James V. Scully sang for the service. Former pastors present for the occasion were Elder James Scully and Elder Charles Betz.

We rejoice to have this lovely new church added to the many churches we now have in this conference. The brethren are planning for a dedication service in the near future.

The beautiful window over the pulpit presents the theme, "Come Unto Me." The window in the gallery is an illustration of Christ praying in Gethsemane. The large, beautifully colored windows in the auditorium start with the creation of the world and the entrance of sin and completely circle the auditorium, depicting the plan of salvation and ending with the redeemed in the new earth.

We believe the Lord is greatly pleased to have us establish such beautiful churches to honor and glorify His name. Let us pray for the work at Escondido that this church may be a bright and shining light for the Lord.

Good Spelling

To put principle above honor is virtue. In recent weeks we have had real evidence of Christian principle that has been in the children of the church in Arizona.

We have had in three widely separate areas children of church members who have won top honors in spelling contests conducted by the public schools, only to be eliminated from the final contest because of the Sabbath. Audine Higgins, a fifth grade student of Elfrida, Cochise County won the spelling prize in the city schools, but the final tests were given on Sabbath and she chose to be eliminated rather than to participate on the Sabbath.

In Tombstone, Rose Christiansen won the spelling contest for eighth-grade students, but the county contests were held on Sabbath so she chose to be eliminated.

Martha Jones of Winslow, who won the seventh-grade spelling honors in the city last year was this year's winner for the entire county of Navajo and was scheduled to appear in the state contest—she had real possibilities of being state champion. We tried to get the time of the contest changed so that Martha could participate in the state finals, but to no avail. So she resigned as a representative of Navajo County rather than participate on the Sabbath.

What a wonderful work these young church members have done in spreading the gospel and what a good example to their elders these young people have set by choosing to honor the Sabbath. Their school officials and various other people in the cities have tried to change the time of the contest in order to meet the Sabbath problem. All to no avail.

The girls have been sweet and firm in it all. No crisis atmosphere, no suffering heroine attitude about the situation. These youth have looked upon the entire problem as an opportunity to stand for what is right. It is true, "They also serve who only stand and wait."

Three-Book Special

Our Wonderful Bible, The Bible Speaks, and Mallards-a book for each member of the family. The Bible Speaks contains 141 readings systematically arranged for home and class study that will appeal to the present-day person who knows little of the Bible-a splendid gift to a prospective Seventh-day Adventist. Our Wonderful Bible includes seventy-six photographic cuts chiefly of religious classic arts, and is described by the author as "a book of wonders"-wonderful in its revelation of love and righteousness and salvation. Mallards and Their Neighbors tells the story of Mr. Mallard who was shot in the wing as he and his family were on their way north, so the Mallards spent their summer on the old homestead. Boys and girls will enjoy this book.

The total value of these three books is $8. We are offering them at the special price of only $2.95 plus tax of 9 cents and 20 cents for mailing and handling. These, also, may be ordered through your church missionary secretary. BOOK AND BIBLE HOUSE.

---o---Lodi Academy

Sunday, April 11, many of the alumni of Lodi Academy met at that institution in a specially called meeting. It was interesting to note the number present, and the different branches of the work represented. In taking into consideration the work of all these graduates, one is constrained to say, "What hath God wrought?"

Lodi Academy has done a very good work in training all young people and still continues to do so. We thank God for what has been accomplished, and we hope that many more young people will find their way to this institution to receive their training preparatory for further study. A good spirit prevails among the faculty and students. Let us continue to pray for the administration of the academy, as well as the entire faculty and the student body. May God continue to bless them.

Attention!

Pastors, Home Missionary Secretaries, and Medical Secretaries

Sabbath, May 1, has been designated as medical missionary day by the General Conference. The material for the program appears in the Go magazine. This is a denominational program, and we hope every pastor, home missionary secretary, and medical secretary will lay definite plans to make it interesting, informative, and beneficial to all concerned.

We understand the book Ministry of Healing is to receive special attention on that day. It is now included in the Home Library Series, and the information contained therein should be studied by both old and young. This book merits our promotion and sells at the exceptionally low price of $2.

We trust you will have a very good day on Sabbath, May 1. The Medical secretary of the conference has sent additional material to all medical secretaries which should be used in connection with the program on that day. CARL BECKER.

Lodi Academy Alumni Organize

Approximately 200 alumni and former students of Lodi Academy met on the campus Sunday afternoon, April 11. Entertainment by the academy band and the Lodians, a choral group, was followed by a business meeting at which Principal L. W. Roth presided.

The following officers were elected to lead the first alumni organization in the history of the school: Don Mulvihill, '51, a student at La Sierra College, was chosen president. Additional officers are John Neumann, '37, vice-president; Miss Grace Morel, '19, secretary; Miss Evelyn Rittenhouse, academy registrar and commerce teacher 1943-1949, assistant secretary; and Elsie Brown Loewen, '28, treasurer.

Supper in the academy cafeteria, motion pictures of former students and school activities, and a short vesper program conducted by Elder Carl Becker concluded the day's program.

Lodi Academy was founded in 1908 and the first class was graduated in 1909. Miss Edith Barnes and Miss Velma Wallace of Lodi and Bessie Maycock Spuehler of Angwin, California, who graduated in 1911, were the oldest graduates present at the reunion.

Mrs. H. L. Wallace and Miss Barnes gave reminiscences of early days connected with the history of the school. Miss Barnes recalled a ten-day convention in 1910 when the Northern California Conference took over the operation of the school. Mrs. E. G. White attended the meeting, stayed in the Barnes home, and gave her approval to the plans.

Plans for Mt. Shasta District

Miss Eva Beeler has just returned from a profitable tour in the Mt. Shasta area in the interest of the Medical de partment. She is very enthusiastic about the program that is planned for that section in the near future. J. W. Cooper, who has charge of the work in that district, is making plans for an evangelistic campaign, and Miss Beeler will conduct a cooking class in connection with the effort. The Mt. Shasta people feel very fortunate that their small radio station has agreed to carry a fifteenminute period to advertise their meetings.

Send the Signs

The Signs of the Times, our prophetic weekly continues to play a mighty part in the work of preparing a people to meet God. For 80 years we have been thankful for the faithful uninistry of this paper. It has been called, "our great silent evangelist" and how true this is. Where ministers can not go and where Bible readings can not be given the Signs finds the way and the truth gets into honest hearts. But the Signs can do no "going" unless you do the "sending."

Our church goals are based on  $2\frac{1}{2}$  subscriptions per member. This isn't a great deal and many when invited will be glad to do more than this. Let us not be satisfied until we have done our best for God in promoting a wide circulation of the Signs. Conference church members are urged to support this crusade by sending in orders to the Book and Bible House.

"Our publications . . . are instrumental in bringing as many souls to Christ as the preached word."—Review and Herald, June 10, 1880.

This is comforting to know when one sacrifices to send the Signs to neighbors and friends.

News From Nevada-Utah

At this writing, Elder C. F. Phillips, Home Missionary secretary, reports that we have reached the halfway mark in our goal to become a Minuteman conference again. Let us all bear our personal responsibility to become minutemen for God in 1954.

We are always happy to report baptisms. Sabbath a baptism was held in Reno, in charge of Elder E. E. Calkins, the local pastor. Among the three precious souls baptized on this occasion was Brother W. S. Macpherson, father of Dr. W. E. Macpherson, president of the College of Medical Évangelists. This was especially a joyful occasion for the members of the Macpherson family and others in the church. Brother Macpherson had severed his connection with an important lodge in which he had held prominent positions for many years. Dr. Macpherson officiated at the baptism of his father. Elder Calkins welcomed the new members into the church.

The other day we were happily surprised here at the office to receive a substantial gift for evangelism from a brother in the ranching business who had dedicated a calf to the Lord's work. At that time he told us that there would be another such gift coming along. We hope and pray that there will be others who will feel impressed to contribute to our evangelism fund. At the present time we have received less than one half the amount we had budgeted for 1954, to be used for public evangelism. Let us all plan to give a liberal offering for this important part of our work, at the time this offering is received in our churches each month.

At this time we have nearly recovered our early losses in the year in deliveries by our colporteurs. April has been a most fruitful month and we are eagerly awaiting final reports for Big Week, which thus far appear to be outstanding in every way. Let us remember our faithful colporteur force and Elder Williams in our prayers.

Baptism at M.B.A.

The climax of two weeks of spiritual emphasis at Monterey Bay Academy was a baptism held on March 27 in the academy bowl. Elder A. W. Millard, academy pastor, officiated at the service, which ended the annual spring Week of Prayer.

Candidates included ten academy students and two from the elementary school. Those baptized were Norma Shirrell, Pat Strawn, Muriel Burgess, Louise Howlett, Rosalind Millard, Connie Martin, Robert Riffel, Glen Bean, Victor Cramton, Jeffry Webb, John Morgan and Jim Morgan.

During the week, Dr. Paul Quimby of Pacific Union College led in the devotional exercises which featured several student panel discussions. Messages were devoted to analyses of spiritual heart diseases and problems, which were ascertained by means of a religious problem questionnaire. On Friday evening a consecration and testimony service was held.

The previous week, designated as the student Week of Devotion, was directed toward practical Christian living, emphasizing the theme, "Clean Up for Christ." Students were in charge of the week's activities. Inelda Phillips, freshman student at La Sierra College and a graduate of the academy, in 1953, was the special guest speaker.

A New Approach in Evangelism

It was the much appreciated privilege of the Fresno Central church to have Elder J. L. Shuler for a series of nine evangelistic sermons from March 20 to 28. The entire series was devoted to the prophetic basis for becoming an Adventist and remaining an Adventist to the end. The attendance was good and the results were good. On Thursday night twelve came forward on a straight call to enter the Reinnant Church. Thirteen additional persons came forward on Friday night and Sabbath besides two more on the last Sunday night-a total of 27 decisions for the Advent Movement in the week of special sermons.

In his preaching Elder Shuler developed a six-step movement or progression into the Advent Movement. In his first sermon he established that in order to locate the real truth for our day, one must locate the movement which represents the threefold message of Revelation 14. In the next sermon he established that in order to locate this movement, one must find a movement which arose in 1844, and began to proclaim the threefold message. In the next sermon he showed how the true Sabbath

May 1, Sabbath, 3 p.m. Elder Wickman in this afternoon hour will tell of his experiences with our expanding Radio Evangelistic work around the world. Until recently Elder Wickman was connected with the General Conference Radio Department.

Plan to attend these meetings. You will be happy that you did. was to be restored under the threefold message between 1844 and the end, and to find this appointed, last-day, threefold message movement, one must locate a Christian people who arose in 1844 keeping the Seventh-day Sabbath. In the next sermon he identified the Seventh-day Adventist Church as the Remnant Church on the basis of the first three steps he had established. Then in the next sermon he showed from Revelation 18:4 that the final step is that one must respond to the call of Jesus Christ and come out of Babylon and come into His Remnant Church.

Not only were definite decisions made to take these steps for the first time for some but these revival and evangelistic meetings proved a real refreshing to those already members of the church and helped to confirm their faith in God's threefold message movement for these last days.

Great Controversy, Special Dollar Edition

From the way the orders are coming in for the Special Dollar Edition of Great Controversy, we can well see that our members are taking an active interest in this program. Many have expressed themselves by saying, "This is the opportunity I have been waiting for." And truly it is an opportunity to be able to pass on to our friends and interested people the life-saving message found in this inspired book, with so small an investment.

May Heaven enlarge our vision, and help us each to take full advantage of this opportunity to advance the message of God by a wide circulation of this wonderful book, the Great Controversy.

Sabbath Services in Yosemite

The 1954 summer season for our Adventist services in Yosemite National Park will open on May 29. The first services will be held in the Village Chapel or in the Church Bowl, depending on the weather. Announcements on the bulletin boards around in the Park will give the exact location for each Sabbath. After the weather has settled all the Sabbath services will be held in the Church Bowl. Sabbath school will begin at 10 a.m. with a preaching service following at 11 o'clock. Beginning June 4 and continuing through the season, a short vesper service will be conducted each Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Village Chapel. Then at the close of the Sabbath, a brief sunset worship will be held at our tent in the Church Camp which is a part of Camp 6 near the river.

All vacationers coming to Yosemite National Park this summer are not just invited, but urged to attend these Sabbath services. It is both a pleasure and a great uplift to worship our Creator in this beautiful spot of His creation.

Further, if you are a Sabbath school teacher or officer, or a minister or other worker in your church at home, or a musician, vocal or instrumental, be ready to offer your help to teach, or preach, or sing or play. Our services in the Park are almost wholly manned by volunteers and we count on you. It's all for the glory of God and the edification of those who attend. We would even be pleased if you should write us in advance that you were coming to the Park for a given Sabbath so we could plan on your help. Address us: Church Camp, c/o Yosemite National Park, E. We urge our parents to plan with the children for this special occasion. The program will begin at 2 o'clock.

Simi Valley School Center

Sabbath, March 20 was a high day for Simi Valley. Church members and friends gathered to praise the Lord for His manifold blessings to the church in Simi Valley. After an interesting Sabbath school the church room was filled to hear Elder R. R. Bietz, who preached the morning sermon. After the morning service the entire church group met at a secluded county park where an abundance of wholesome food was provided by the ladies of the church.

At 3 p.m. a special meeting was held to dedicate the new school plant to the cause of Christian education. Alvin G. Munson, conference treasurer, and J. Alfred Simonson, educational superintendent, assisted in this important meeting.

This new Simi Valley school is located on a level, five-acre tract of land, nestled in a beautiful valley within view of the highway. The attractive building has one classroom, office rooms, kitchen, minister's study and an auditorium that will seat 150 people. The entire plant is complete with room equipment, playground equipment, sidewalks, macadamized parking area, trees, shrubs and grass planted. This unit is a credit to the community and a blessing to the people.

Spanish Corner

New Spanish Church Organized: The time 3 p.m. The date, Sabbath afternoon, April 3, and the place, Ditman Avenue church, Los Angeles. A new Spanish church was organized in the Southern California Conference making a total of seven Spanish churches for this conference.

April 3 was a day of rejoicing for the Spanish-American church of Los Angeles. A daughter church was organized with a membership of 55. For many years the Ditman Avenue church was a place where the English-speaking brethren worshiped the Lord, and indeed that lovely place holds pleasant memories for every one of them. Nevertheless, since this church is located in the heart of the Spanish colony, the members, in connection with the conference committee decided to transfer the building to the Spanish-speaking brethren. The Spanish-American church was ready to swarm and 55 members were chosen to form the nucleus of the newly organized church.

Elder R. R. Bietz preached the sermon calling every member to put into practice that divine principle of forgiveness so much needed among all Christians today. Then he proceeded to organize the church. Brother Alvin Munson, treasurer of the conference made a few remarks promising to do all he could to help the youngest church in the conference. A fine program was presented and a new battery of officers was selected. Mrs. Frances Plata, treasurer of the Spanish-American church, presented to Miss Bessie McCumsey, the new treasurer of the Ditman Avenue Spanish church, a check for the amount of $230 as a gift from the mother church to help the daughter church get started out on a sound financial basis. We hope and pray that this church will grow and expand for the glory of God and for the saving of many souls.

Federacion Latina J.M.V.: March 27 was a day of spiritual and social uplift for the Spanish young people of the Southern California Conference. Not long ago, the Spanish workers of the conference got together with the purpose of organizing our youth into a federation with the idea of developing the spiritual and social aspect of the church. On March 27 the young people of the conference assembled in the social hall of the San Fernando Spanish church to take part in a fine program presented by the "Federacion Latina J.M.V."

Several young men and women from the different churches presented an outstanding program, and it was followed by a timely sermon delivered by Elder Miller Brockett, young people's leader for the conference. His sermon was based on the experience of four young men well known to every Christian-Abel, who happened to preach the longest sermon in history; Enoch, who walked with God; Noah, the preacher of righteousness, and Moses, the great legislator. The program was closed with a fine social and a beautiful moving picture showing the wonders of the sea. Everybody returned home wishing to have another of these outstanding gatherings soon.

Camp Meeting: Since there will be no family tents pitched this year on the Lynwood campgrounds, the Spanish workers of the conference have outlined a program for the night meetings and the week ends. We decided to have the following meetings:

> Friday evening-June 18 Sabbath all day-June 19 Sunday evening-June 20 Wednesday evening-June 23 Friday evening-June 25 Sabbath all day-June 26

We are hoping and praying that every member of the Spanish constituency throughout the conference will be present for these outstanding spiritual feasts. A well-balanced program is in store for every one of us and we are urging you to attend and bring your friends to the meetings and to ask God's blessing upon it. M. ROSADO.

Gardena Voice of Prophecy Graduation

Thirty-one Gardenans received Voice of Prophecy diplomas in a mass graduation conducted by Elder Dave Olsen in the Gardena church March 24.

Elder Olsen, former associate speaker for the Voice of Prophecy, and now Home Missionary secretary for the Southern California Conference, presented the diplomas and congratulated Pastor Gordon Collier on his achievement in leading the church into the study of God's Word. He then preached on "The Faces Around the Cross," with the thought that the four types of people around the cross are the same four who are present in the world today.

The first diploma was presented to Sister Ruth Thompson, secretary for the class. Four persons who had previously taken Voice of Prophecy courses and had received their diplomas were present. Several other members are still taking the course. They plan to complete it and then go on with the class to the Daniel and Revelation course. Everyone responded to Elder Olsen's appeal to stand as those who would be among "the loving faces" who would follow their Lord even to the cross.

H. O. COLLIER, III.

Moving Ahead

Three churches have achieved the Minuteman objective to date, April 14, in Southern California. Gardena, with 140 members, reported $2,900, making a per capita of $20.71. Brother Gordon Collier is pastor. Redondo Beach with 104 members reported $2,152.69, or an average of $20.70 per member. Brother Gerald Hardy is pastor. Santa Paula English, with 52 members, have a total of $1,070.68, a per capita of $20.59. Brother James Harris is pastor.

The members of these churches are to be commended for faithfulness in gathering money for missions. Other churches are rapidly approaching the Minuteman objective. Churches with large memberships are accumulating sizable amounts. The leading churches at this writing are Glendale City with $9,497.72; Long Beach with $7,000.

Excellent leadership is being given by the pastors and church leaders, and we look forward to bringing a liberal gift for missions. The work is onward in Southern California! Courage, brethren! DAVE OLSEN.

Scriptures in 1,077 Languages

Some part of the Bible has been published in 1,077 Languages and dialects, as of December 31, 1953 according to a statement issued by the American Bible Society. Languages in which the whole Bible has been published, 200; in which a complete Testament has been published, 257; in which at least a Gospel or other whole book has been published, 620.

The whole Bible was published for the first time in Luo and Nupe, Languages of Africa and in Karo Batak, spoken in Sumatra.

Complete New Testaments were published for the first time in Roviana, spoken in the Solomon Islands; Meru, spoken in Kenya, East Africa and Simalungun Batak, spoken in Sumatra.

The American Bible Society added five new languages to the list in which it has published the Scriptures, three of which are spoken in Africa: Bano'o in the Cameroons; Gbeapo and Tchien, both spoken in Liberia and two Mexican dialects, Mazahua and Tlapaneco.

There are some 90 languages in which short passages or collections of passages have been published, but in which no complete book of the Bible has appeared.

One hundred and sixty-seven thousand copies of the Gospel of John in Korean have just come from the press for the American Bible Society. The Gospel is in magazine form, beautifully illustrated, and printed in the HanKuhl spelling now being used by the Korean Government. Copies are already on their way to Korea.

The first copy to come from the press was presented by General James A. Van Fleet USA (Ret.), who spent many years in Korea, to D. P. Namkoong, Consul General of Korea, who in turn, will forward it to President Syngman Rhee.

Children too poor for school in Korea have been organized into Bible Clubs where they have lessons in reading, writing and arithmetic as well as Bible study. The classes meet three hours a day, five days a week. The Bible Society is supplying the schools with the iHustrated Gospel, which is being used as the central textbook.

When the Worldwide Bible Reading program starts on Thanksgiving Day, November 25, it will be the eleventh successive year in which the American Bible Society has promoted this annual reading period. The theme the Society has chosen for 1954 is "Faith for our Day."

Last year the Bible Society inaugurated spot television Bible readings that followed the printed daily schedules. The readings were used by 94 stations across the country.

In addition to the listening audience, the printed reading lists reached at least 26,000,000 people in 38 different countries, according to the records kept by the American Bible Society.

Today's needs for Bibles are probably more urgent than ever before in history. Millions of people in the Far East, the Middle East, Latin America, are eagerly awaiting shipments of Bibles. Even in the United States, tens of thousands of people are without Bibles, and all over Europe Bibles are as eagerly sought as food and shelter.

With the California Legislature

(Continued from page 3) semblyman Charles Edward Chapel, of Los Angeles, spoke in favor of Proposition 3 on the radio the night before election. We believe he did much to help us win that election. We have learned since to know him as a real friend of Seventh-day Adventists.

Because so many Seventh-day Adventists work in State Civil Service and so many others have tried to get into State Civil Service, we are constantly faced with the problem that all examinations, that affect our people at least, came on Sabbath. We repeatedly tried to get the State Civil Service Department to do something about this, but they told us they were unable, that our only hope would be to get legislation passed, amending the law. We laid the matter before the members of the legislature in a letter prior to the opening of the 1953 session, and we were happy to find that one member, Assemblyman G. Delbert Morris, of Los Angeles, was sufficiently interested in the cause of justice to introduce a bill making provision for examinations to be held on some other day than Saturday for those who observed Saturday as the Sabbath. We are deeply indebted to Assemblyman Morris for the fine work he did in helping us get this bill through the Legislature, where it was passed almost unanimously.

Early in the session a barber Sunday closing bill was introduced. This bill was backed by labor unions and other groups. When it was introduced it was referred to a committee ,and Assemblyman H. Allen Smith of Glendale was a member of that committee. He did a fine piece of work in helping to get the committee unanimously to disapprove the bill. He was supported well by Assemblymen Coolidge and Rumford, also members of the committee, and the bill was killed. So far, we have no barber Sunday closing law. We greatly appreciated the help of these legislators in this matter.

We now come to the special session of the legislature of this year, called for consideration of the budget. At the same time there was also called a special, extraordinary session to deal with the liquor problem. Elder Jefferson and I had had an interview with Governor Knight while he was still lieutenantgovernor, and had presented him with the book Temperance. At that time he told us that he used neither liquor nor tobacco, and that when he was a judge he had a Seventh-day Adventist bailiff because he had not wanted cuspidors and eigarette stubs around his office.

Since becoming Governor upon Governor Warren's call to Washington, D.C., Governor Knight has enthusiastically supported the Weinberger Committee in its endeavor to get legislation that will bring the liquor business under tighter control.

Speaker of the Assembly James W. Silliman has also stood vigorously for the legislation to put the liquor business under better control. It is very difficult to get legislation passed to tighten up on the liquor interests because they have all the money they need to exert all the influence possible to get things their way; and they do not want any tighter controls.

In our contacts with the legislature we find quite a number of men who stand firmly for principle when they understand what is involved. We have especially appreciated the work of the men whom I have mentioned in this article. It is our hope that in days to come we will get still better legislation, and we hope for the cooperation of many members in both the Senate and the Assembly in an educational program for total abstinence. It is important that we elect men of sound principle to formulate the laws under which the citizens of California are to live. It is still definitely true that "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

Roy L. BENTON, Secretary Department of Religious Liberty and Temperance, Pacific Union Conference.
