

The Most Worthy Members in the Sabbath School

Long, long ago, according to an old parable, an ancient king in an ancient kingdom decided to honor the most worthy citizen in his realm. So he sent his ministers of state throughout the land to search for the most worthy citizen, and set the day when they were to appear before him.

The day came. The king sat on his throne in the courtyard which was crowded with interested onlookers. The first minister approached the throne and presented a great lawyer. He told of his wonderful accomplishments, and the crowd applauded. The next minister presented a great financier and told of his great service to the kingdom. Again the crowd applauded. The third minister bowed and presented a great doctor by whose skill many had been cured of disease. Again the crowd applauded.

Then the fourth minister approached the throne with a little old lady on his arm. She was stooped and shabbily dressed. The king looked on in shocked amazement. "Who is this woman?" he demanded, "and what has she done to be classed with such illustrious men as these?"

"Oh king," said the minister, "when these great illustrious men were little boys, this woman was their teacher!" For a moment there was profound silence, then the king descended from his throne, and with tears in his eyes, placed the wreath of honor on the head of this little old lady. She was the most worthy citizen in his kingdom. The crowd applauded and applauded.

How many of our great workers in the cause of God today owe their success to the skill, the patience, and the understanding of the teachers they had when they were little folks—their church school teachers, and their Sabbath school teachers! And some day God is going to honor those teachers in a special way, and they "shall shine . . . as the stars forever and ever."

Teacher Training Courses

Many Sabbath school teachers find the responsibility placed upon them very great and feel unprepared for the task. Did you know that the Sabbath School department has two Teacher Training courses?

Training Course I follows the textbook, Teaching Teachers to Teach, and is a series of 12 lessons, ending with an examination and a diploma.

Training Course II follows the book, Handbook for Sabbath School Teachers, and is a series of five lessons for which a certificate is given.

Your conference Sabbath school secretary will gladly help you organize a class and supply you with the necessary review sheets and examinations.

Training Courses by Correspondence

Both Training Course I and II can be taken by correspondence where the individual cannot meet in a class. You simply buy the textbook, ask the conference Sabbath school secretary to supply you with the review sheets, the examination for Training Course I, or the quiz sheets for Training Course II. Study each lesson, fill in the quiz sheets and send them to the conference Sabbath school secretary. Then the diploma or certificate will be yours.

Other training courses are in preparation. Your conference Sabbath school secretary can recommend many books for reading and study that will help you to become "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." ERIC B. HARE.

Review Campaign

We are sure that all our subscribers are aware that the special campaign price of $6.75 is now being offered. The only way to be sure that you do not miss an issue is by renewing your subscription promptly. In the coming year we hope to give you a wealth of inspiring and enlightening reports from all the mission fields, and also dependable, authoritative messages from the leadership on the plans, objectives, and ideals of the Advent Movement.

To our pastors and church elders we appeal: Bring before your church members—too many of whom are not subscribers—that now is the special time to subscribe at a saving. Their reading of the Review will make them more ardent, joyous Adventists, more ready to do their part in the great church program. Tell them that the only way they can receive any issues of the Review is by subscribing. From now on there will be no more quarterly color numbers or the annual Week of Prayer issue sent out free by the conferences to non-subscribers.

Even now new and significant plans are being studied that will make the Review still more appealing. But these plans will not be finalized until the autumn of 1961. Subscribe now and be ready for even better things, we believe, when next autumn comes.

You will enjoy numerous tangible benefits by joining the Perpetual Subscriber Plan through your local conference Book and Bible House now.

We do appreciate the splendid work that has been done in recent months by the Ellen G. White Publications staff, and a special committee of the General Conference, in preparing a course of study on the Spirit of prophecy for our church members. It is called The Prophetic Guidance Course. We are confident that it will bring great blessing to our people everywhere.

As we have gone out among our schools and churches in California during the past two and a half years, we have met many who expressed a heart-felt desire for guidance in the study of the Spirit of prophecy. The Prophetic Guidance Course will provide this very thing—a course which will guide both old and young in study and help to prepare them for the testing days ahead of us.

A textbook—The Treasure Chest—has been prepared for those who take the course. We urge our RECORDER readers to enroll for this new and timely course. Write for the textbook now. It costs only $1. We are enrolling, too. Address: Prophetic Guidance School, Box 200, Glendale 5, California.

The Light Went Out

After ten years on the air in Chicago, Faith for Today has been discontinued by ABC-TV Station WBKB, Channel 7, as the result of new station policy eliminating all paid religious time. The last program was released on October 2. Under the new arrangement, only 90 minutes of time will be allowed for religious programming each week by the station—this hour and a half to be divided among all religious organizations on a free basis.

This is but the handwriting on the wall. Often stations are thinking in this direction. With greater clarity we can understand Eph. 5:16: "Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

In many areas Faith for Today is aired on a public service basis. How important it is in areas where Faith for Today is viewed that you periodically write the station, telling of your appreciation! More than once this has been a deciding factor when the question has come up as to whether or not the station should continue the program. Stations are influenced a great deal by viewers' reactions.

If Faith for Today should ever be taken off the air, and you have never written a single letter of appreciation to the station, you have no brief. Work as never before to tell your friends to view the program. It is conceivable that the time will come when you will have wished you had invited someone to view the program. Let us work "while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work." John 9:4.

Radio-Television Department,

Attention

Pastors, Public Relations, and Radio-TV Secretaries

Here is something you will enjoy—and thousands of others too! With the approaching Christmas season, we are happy to announce the immediate availability of a 24½-minute tape of Christmas Songs From Many Lands. It is especially prepared for release on local radio stations on a public service basis.

The singing of Christmas songs is done by Seventh-day Adventist young people singing in places like New Guinea, Basutoland, India, Lebanon, Sweden, Denmark, and Germany. Some of them are even sons and daughters of head-hunters.

The singing is woven together by a narration, fast-moving, and concludes by extending Christmas wishes from the Adventist Church. Included with each tape is a complete script, a spot announcement, and a 30-second Ingathering announcement, plus a five-minute interview script for possible use by the station announcer in interviewing the local broadcaster.

Should you have such a station contact, you can order the tape at $3.75 through your conference public relations secretary.

Public Relations Department,
Pacific Union Conference.

Ruth Berglund, Medical Department Secretary

Elder R. C. Baker, president of Southeastern California Conference, has announced the appointment of Miss Ruth Berglund as Medical Department secretary for the conference. She comes very well qualified to do this important work as can be seen by her educational background and previous experience.

Miss Berglund is a naturalized American citizen, having been born in Drammen, Norway, about 12 miles from Oslo. Her family still live there and she has recently returned from a delightful summer with them. Miss Berglund first came to America and to California in 1946 as a student at Pacific Union College where she graduated in 1949. She then returned to Norway for two years of teaching at Onsrud, but she had a great desire to study nursing so returned to America in 1951 to register at the Fresno General Hospital School of Nursing where she graduated in 1954. While awaiting citizenship, she accepted employment at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital as head nurse. Desiring, however, to yet further her training, she enrolled at the UCLA School of Nursing where she earned an M.S. degree in Nursing in 1958. Since that time she has been working with the Los Angeles City Health Department as a public health nurse.

"I am sure that this work will be very interesting and prove to be a real challenge to me," she stated as she gave a little insight into what her program will be as it emerges from the planning stage. First will come the organizing of a good health program in our church schools. Later there will be school safety inspections and instruction and then health education and possibly even cooking schools for church members. Listening to her, one can see that she envisions a full and busy program that won't leave much time for her to spend in her La Sierra home.

We welcome Miss Berglund to our conference and wish her every success in the heavy responsibility she has accepted among us. May God add His blessing and guide her hand as she gives leadership to this important phase of the Adventist message.

San Diego Union Meeting

All members of churches in San Diego County are invited to attend union services at the Balboa Bowl, Sabbath morning, November 19, at 11 o'clock. Each congregation is to conduct its own Sabbath school services, dismissing in time for the members to drive to Balboa Park. Elder R. R. Bietz, president of the Pacific Union Conference, has been invited to speak to this large congregation.

Families are asked to bring their lunches and eat in the park, then return to the Bowl in the afternoon at three o'clock for another meeting.

Meetings for the youth will convene at 10:30 a.m. in the Presbyterian church, 320 Date Street, San Diego. There will be special music by the San Diego Union Academy choir and orchestra. Elder R. Hope Robertson, formerly of Jamaica, will be the guest speaker. The afternoon meeting for the youth is scheduled at 2:30 p.m. at the Presbyterian church, featuring Elder Walter Blehm as speaker and music by the academy band and choir. A social is planned for the young people at the Chula Vista Recreational Hall, 4th and Parkway, at 7 p.m. They are advised to wear soft-soled shoes and school-type clothes.

The pastors of the churches in the San Diego area anticipate a special Sabbath Day of inspirational messages and fellowship for their church members.

Medical Missionary Family Leaves

Another College church medical missionary family, Dr. and Mrs. George Wiesseman and their two children, Patricia, 11, and Gary, 6, left Loma Linda recently for service in Bangkok, Thailand.

After five active years in both community and church activities here, the Wiessemans went to Portland, Oregon, preparatory to leaving for their mission field the latter part of October. Dr. Wiesseman plans to practice orthopedics for the next five years and Mrs. Wiesse-

San Diego Union Academy Completes Major Improvements

San Diego Union Academy opened the new year with an enrollment of 170 students, the largest enrollment in the history of the school. It has been necessary to divide several classes because of the crowded condition of the classrooms. However, the large enrollment is a real inspiration to the faculty as it shows the loyal support of the parents in the area. The faculty is determined with the Lord's help to make this year one of real Christian experience for each youth.

During the past year and through the summer months several major improvements have been completed. Five new classrooms have been built to accommodate the large increase in enrollment in both the elementary and academy sections. Four of the rooms are now in use by the elementary school and another large room is used by the academy vocal and choral departments. This building project was completed at a cost of $62,000, with the conference, churches, and school providing the funds.

In August the board authorized the grading, leveling, and surfacing with uncrushed granite the playground area to the west of the main campus. The cost of this long-needed improvement was $7,200 and was paid for with funds made available by the nine churches and the academy. This development now provides almost five acres of playground and physical education facilities. The faculty and students appreciate so much the loyal support of the pastors and parents throughout the entire city in making this fine play area a reality.

Other improvements completed during the past summer include the expansion of the accounting and registrar's offices. Approximately 400 square feet has been added to the two offices. A new custodial building was built to house the campus equipment, provide storage space for supplies, and repair facilities for the school plant. An extensive painting project included work on

Student Week of Prayer at PUC Preparatory School

The most unusual Week of Prayer in the writer's experience was held at Pacific Union College Preparatory School October 17 to 21. The Week of Prayer was unusual in respect to a general concern over the nearness of the end of time and the desire to be ready for the coming of the Lord. Faculty members joined with student leaders in arranging the voluntary prayer bands and program items in the most attractive manner. The counseling periods indicated a mature approach on the part of the students in facing problems, and is indicative of a well-balanced Christian education. The faculty members of Pacific Union College Preparatory School are leading the youth under their care in a noble way. It is most encouraging to see such a spiritual interest on the academy campus.

Livermore Church Dedictory Service

Sabbath, October 8, is a day long to be remembered by the members of the Livermore church, as that was the day of the dedicatory services for their new house of worship. Elder R. R. Bietz, president of the Pacific Union Conference, gave the dedicatory sermon. Others taking part in the service were Elders Carl Becker and E. A. Schmidt of the Northern California Conference, former pastors Elders H. K. Martin and J. D. Hardt, as well as the present pastor, V. N. Mallernee.

In 1947 two colporteurs were sent to the Livermore area to work, and as they did their work they found a number of members living in the community. After these members began to meet as a group, they were organized into a church on January 24, 1948, by then conference president, Elder W. A. Nelson, and the pastor for the area, Elder H. K. Martin. These faithful members held services in a number of places until the present church was begun.

Although the bids for construction were much higher in price, with many hours of donated labor by members and friends this house of worship was constructed at an approximate cost of $35,000, including furnishings and landscaping. The members are deeply grateful to Doctors Henry and Grace Devnich for providing the church with a grand piano and the beautiful pews, and also to the Nixon family for the pulpit which Sister Nixon's father made just prior to his death.

As the new school year started this past September, another dream was realized with the opening of the first church school in Livermore. Truly our hearts are filled with thanksgiving that, in spite of human frailties, God leads and His work in this part of the vineyard goes forward. A quiet agricultural community in southern Alameda County in 1947, Livermore is now known as one of the nuclear capitals of the nation because of the work being carried on there in the field of nuclear science. We are grateful that the Livermore church definitely is letting its light shine.

MRS. JEANNETTE PETERSON,
Press Secretary,
Livermore Church.

Membership Doubled

Great have been the mercies of the Lord to His people in the Berea church of Vallejo. Despite the fact that the enemy of souls has intensified his program against God's people, the work moves forward.

This is the display that won second place in the educational section at the California State Fair at Sacramento. Elder W. B. Bristow, public relations secretary for the Northern California Conference, his corps of pastors, and laymen in the area did a tremendous service as day by day they met the thousands who stopped to receive literature, and to make inquiries, many of whom enrolled in the Voice of Prophecy Bible Correspondence Course. A program has been developed to follow up these interests.

obstacles we forged ahead with constant prayer on our lips and in our hearts.

On the night of August 28 we brought the meetings to a close with a baptismal service in which eight stalwart men and women were baptized. We also had seven preparing for the next baptismal service. Truly, God honored His word, "Fear thou not, for I am with thee."

Elder Edward White joined us in our second week of meetings and ably assisted in the supervision of the program each night and in some of the Sabbath messages. Special mention must also be made of Sister Mary Jackson who gave us excellent voluntary service in her role as Bible instructor; of Sisters Ida Phillips and C. Murphy, pianists; and of Brothers H. Anderson and J. Campbell who assisted us on the rostrum. In addition to these persons we appreciate the assistance given by a few of the members from the neighboring church who gave unfailing service, and our members who loyally supported us through the campaign.

When the next three persons in our next service are baptized we will have the pleasure of declaring our membership doubled in the space of three years. This goal was set when we arrived in Vallejo finding a membership of forty persons.

We appreciate the kindness of the conference officers and committee for allowing us to launch this effort.

Adventist Hour Influence

"Roll tape!"

"Tape rolling."

"Stand by one. Stand by two. Steady on your close-up one. Here I come two. Stand by audio. Roll ET."

Those short, chopped directions are the behind-the-scenes way The Adventist Hour television program often begins. They are split-second commands of KTLA's Adventist Hour director who sits before a panel of five television screens, buttons, switches, and an exhausting interchange of voices in a mobile command truck somewhere near the Adventist church from which the program is being televised.

For the next 56 minutes and 40 seconds those commands are continuous. The television screens pick up scores of pictures, some to be used on The Adventist Hour and others to be canceled before transmission as not usable. The buttons and switches receive countless adjustments and flips, and the voices continue their questioning, response, and command in a seemingly endless parade.

Next day, through the magic of video tape, the effort of those moments is seen in thousands of Southern California homes.

What The Adventist Hour is doing in terms of heart-changing among those who view will probably never be recorded accurately by any single human. One can feel a trend, however, in chance conversations that the program is working steadily toward its objective of convicting people about the Christ that Seventh-day Adventists worship.

The assistant city editor of western America's largest newspaper said recently that he feels "The Adventist Hour is doing something to inform people about Seventh-day Adventist religious beliefs that no other agency has yet been able to achieve. I know of no other way," he says, "to get so many people to take an honest look at how you actually worship inside the walls of your churches."

Other conversations with leaders in various walks of life, as well as scores of letters to the program, attest to the special contribution of The Adventist Hour in bringing a knowledge of Seventh-day Adventist Christianity to thousands.

Why not make your contribution to greater success of the objective of The Adventist Hour by telling a friend of this worship telecast for Southern California.

Cards which you may mail to friends about the program are available from the conference Radio-Television department. Attractive posters are also available for store windows or other display.

Anniversary Services

Members of the Santa Barbara Church will commemorate the seventieth anniversary of the establishment of a local congregation on November 19. Seventy years ago in November of 1890 the local church was organized. The building itself has been moved three times, but is now in a beautiful state of preservation in spite of its being the oldest church in Santa Barbara, with the exception of the Old Mission, in use today.

Guests expected to assist in the celebration are Elder Cree Sandefur, president of the Southern California Conference; Elder Alvin Munson, secretary-treasurer of the conference; and former pastor Merwin A. R. Jones who is now pastor of the Central church of Los Angeles. All friends and former members of the church are cordially invited to attend this important day in the history of the Santa Barbara church.

The all-day services will include a regular morning service; a noon potluck fellowship dinner at one of the beautiful parks, to which all out-of-town visitors are invited to bring one item of food and their own service; an afternoon meeting with guest speakers and a baptismal service; and, to terminate the activities, an evening of social fellowship at the Recreation Hall of the First Methodist church, where refreshments are planned.

Wilford L. Goffar, pastor, states that: "This is a high day in the history of the Santa Barbara church in view of the fact that during the seventieth anniversary activities an important announcement concerning the immediate future plans for a new church and school will be made. Our prayer is that the Lord will continue to bless in all our undertakings."

News Notes

Among many interesting activities at Central Los Angeles Japanese-American church is a new branch Sabbath school which has been started in the Pasadena area. Other recent activities in the church included an "entire church" social on Sabbath evening, October 29, and excellent cooperation in the recent Dorcas Rally which grossed more than $500 in sales for the church health and welfare group.

A recent Sabbath afternoon activity at North Hollywood church featured a 3 o'clock missionary hour in which the pamphlet "Worried World" was distributed to homes in the community. Special services for youth of the church and throughout the San Fernando Valley were also held during the afternoon in the Van Nuys church.

A fund-raising dinner for the union school sponsored by churches in the Hawthorne-Gardena area was held in Gardena on Thursday, October 27. The dinner also featured a Tupperware and "white elephant" sale.

The Home and School organization of the Santa Barbara church raised $111 in a recent successful sale.

Elko Baptism

It was my privilege to visit the Elko church on Sabbath, October 22. Preparations had been made for a baptismal service at the close of the 11 o'clock hour. Three young men were ready to take their stand with the remnant church and follow their Lord into the baptismal pool.

Brother Sheldon Seltzer, the pastor of the Elko church, officiated at the service. He is conducting a study class each week with a group of young people from the industrial school together with those from the church, and one of the youth from the school went forward in baptism.

There is a definite interest in the message in the community as a result of the evangelistic meetings conducted by Elder E. F. Finck the latter part of September, and these interests are being followed up. Miss Mary Walsh conducted Bible studies with the church members during the series of meetings, and the brethren are enthusiastic and anxious to continue studies with interested individuals.

The church planned an outdoor covered-dish luncheon after the Sabbath service on October 22 which was well attended and offered opportunity for both spiritual and social fellowship.

The work is onward at Elko and under the blessing of the Lord there will be continued growth.

M. E. HAGEN.

Price-Moab District

During the last few months there has been quite a bit of activity in the Price-Moab district. This has been both in the line of soul winning and work on the physical plants.

During the summer a three-week evangelistic campaign was held at Price. Pastor Gordon Paxton, of the Provo district, associated with the writer in conducting this campaign. We felt richly repaid for the time and means expended on these meetings, for 12 came forward during the three calls. Four have been baptized at the present writing and we are looking forward to others in the near future. At the present time a study class on the book of Revelation is being conducted on Sunday and Tuesday evenings. The purpose of this class is to invite non-Adventists to attend and keep them close to the church while personal work is done trying to reach their hearts.

The Price congregation is planning to repaint their church. We are hoping that we will be able to complete this project before the winter weather sets in.

We were very thankful that Brother Roger Eno, one of our colporteurs, worked in the Price-Moab district during the first part of this year. Due to his efforts we have over 500 individuals who have applied for the Voice of Prophecy course.

Our Moab school is well under way. Sister Rosalie Ice is our teacher this year. Our enrollment has almost doubled over last year. Before the beginning of the school year a work bee was held and the room was repainted.

We have not had an adequate place for the primary division to meet in our Moab church. At the present time we are redecorating a room that will be used for this purpose. In Moab several of our laymen are giving Bible studies each week. We do hope and pray that it will not be long until we see a harvest of souls from this work.

If you have loved ones who ought to be contacted in southeastern Utah, please write to the pastor, Box 777, Moab, Utah. We solicit your prayers that this portion of the Lord's vineyard will be ready when the Lord calls for His jewels. ROBERT DALE, Pastor.

Hawaii Calls

In the light of the great controversy between truth and error we understand that where the opportunities to advance the message are the greatest there will also be seemingly insurmountable problems. A most difficult task is to group words together in their proper relationship to give a true perspective of the literature work in the fiftieth state.

President Eisenhower has signed a bill releasing ten million dollars for the development of the new East-West Center on the Island of Oahu, a project to bring better understanding between Eastern and Western cultures. Tourism in this new state is big business and thousands of restless seekers of happiness are flowing in and out of the Islands. A transient military population make up ten per cent of the Island people. Also an Island population of approximately 600,000 with mixed races, cultures, and creeds is constantly plagued with presentations of many false forms of a way of life for them to accept.

Considering the facts, it appears that God's people of Hawaii have similar opportunities to those that the Jews of old had in Jerusalem. Yes, Hawaii is a unique place in the world for spreading the message. We must not fail our God as Israel did of old. There are few other fields that have the potentials of Hawaii. Colporteurs are needed who are willing to be spent for God. Men are needed who will experiment and conquer systematically some real problems. Under the control of the Holy Spirit, new projects and plans must continually be sought to meet the needs of this field.

What is being done? A handful of loyal colporteurs are working. Recently a special project was launched on the windward side of the Island of Oahu. One lady contacted through the project said, "I am confused. I want to know how to know which is the true church." The colporteur presented a book answering her question—she purchased eagerly.

Literature evangelists are Christian businessmen and their methods of selling, of collecting money, etc., must be guided by the highest Christian principles. People will recognize the difference and the work will advance. For example, a letter dated August 31, 1960, from a customer to a colporteur said: "You are truly a very nice man as you did not press me as some other people would have done." A check was enclosed in the envelope.

Rufino Bernardino, colporteur, walked with a customer of his down to the baptismal fount on Sabbath, September 3, 1960, and watched Elder Don Duncan raise him up out of the water to newness of life. Much work, time, and prayer was devoted to this our brother. First a sale of Bible Stories, then call backs and another sale, then taking him to evangelistic meetings, then Sabbath school, and finally baptism. It was over two years from the time of the first sale to the baptism with tender loving care along the way by a consecrated colporteur.

The Spirit of prophecy says, God "calls for volunteers who will put all their energies and enlightenment into the work, helping wherever there is opportunity. The Master calls for every one to do the part given him according to his ability. . . . Who will sacrifice ease and pleasure, and enter the places of error, superstition, and darkness, working earnestly and perseveringly, speaking the truth in simplicity, praying in faith, doing house-to-house labor? . . . We have no time to lose. We must encourage the work. Who will go forth now with our publications?"—C.M., pp. 13, 14.

Are not these statements appropriate for our time and for Hawaii?

RALPH STARK, Colporteur.

Honolulu Central Church

As a result of many different efforts within the city of Honolulu over the last three and one half years, there has been a goodly increase in the membership of the Central church. We give the Lord the praise and glory for this encouragement and are looking ahead for many more precious souls to join our ranks.

During the last few weeks several workers of the Hawaiian Mission have exchanged working areas. During the process of this exchange, Elder C. M. Basconcillo, one of our Filipino ministers, and his family have come to the Central church where Elder Basconcillo is now the associate pastor with Elder Don E. Duncan.

Elder Basconcillo is cooperating in a heavy visiting and Bible study program now going on at the Central church. He held a "How to give a Bible Study" class on Sabbath afternoons. This class was open to all members of the church who were interested.

We are looking forward to another city-wide evangelistic effort here in Honolulu soon after the first of the year and will soon be laying definite plans for it. However, between now and the first of the year, the members of the church are being trained and encouraged to keep busy in giving Bible studies in the homes of friends and neighbors. Due to this emphasis on layman missionary work, we are expecting a good harvest of souls to be baptized before the year ends.

The Lord has blessed our church both financially and spiritually. Our hearts are full of courage as we face the day-by-day problems, and we count it a real privilege to be working in this beautiful part of God's vineyard.

We ask an interest in the prayers of the readers of the PACIFIC UNION RECORDER on behalf of the work here in Hawaii in general, and in the Honolulu area in particular.

DON E. DUNCAN, Pastor.

Saguaro Nature Club Sponsors Special Program

Arrangements have been made for the National Audubon Society to present a special program at Thunderbird Academy on November 19. Sponsored by the Saguaro Nature Club, this will be one of the outstanding programs of the year. The title of this color film is "London," and it will be presented by William E. Gowan who is the associate director of the Lecture Department of the National Audubon Society. This is the only film lecture currently available that is devoted solely to a city, one that has held the interest of more Americans than any other foreign metropolis.

The report of the nominating committee for the 1961 club officers will be presented at the beginning of this meeting, so we would like to encourage every one to be there promptly at 7:30. There will be an admission charge for this special program; however, those who are members of the Saguaro Nature Club will be admitted for half price. Provision will be made during the evening for accepting the 1961 memberships in the nature club.

Don't forget the date, time, and place—November 19, 7:30 p.m., Thunderbird Academy Auditorium.

PHOENIX BEACON LIGHT CHURCH is planning for funds to pay their share of the new auditorium to be built at the Phoenix elementary school and to erect a Dorcas addition to their church. Wednesday night, October 26, an enthusiastic group of men and women worked on organizational plans moving toward the goal they have set. Saturday night, October 29, the entire church had a Fellowship Potluck dinner, at which time the over-all objectives and needs were presented. The Beacon Light church members are looking forward to the time in the near future when they can enjoy the use of the auditorium and also their new Dorcas room.

TRICK OR TREAT procedures were reversed by the boys and girls of several of our church schools and Pathfinder clubs Halloween night, October 31. Instead of asking for treats for themselves, the boys and girls gathered canned goods and clothing for those in unfortunate circumstances. They also left an appropriate piece of literature at each home they visited. We believe that this type of activity is in harmony with the instruction given to us in the Spirit of prophecy where we are told that holidays should not be left unnoticed but that our children should be taught the right principles regarding them. The satisfaction which comes from such service is far more lasting than that received through selfish motives.

A FULL-SCALE EVACUATION venture was the order of program for the Phoenix elementary school on Tuesday, October 25. When the evacuation signal was given throughout the entire Phoenix area at 9:30 in the morning, the whole student body and teachers were loaded into cars and taken to a remote desert area northeast of Phoenix. The activities during the day included instruction on techniques to be used in case of a real bombing, demonstrations of ways to secure food from the available plants, drills for practice in taking cover, etc., and a series of Civil Defense films which portrayed proper procedures in case of disaster. The children were fed a delicious camp stew that was cooked over the open fire at their camp site. The Civil Defense officers of the area were on hand to cooperate in the program, and the day's activities were featured on an evening TV news broadcast.

Marked Bible Wins Souls

Before my husband's death, he (Wilbert Wilcox) was secretary-treasurer of the old Inter-mountain Conference with headquarters at Grand Junction, Colorado. I was carrying the Sabbath school work in the conference and often helped in the office. One day a gentleman came into the office and asked for a copy of the Watchman magazine in which he had seen an article on the Sabbath. In those days most of the Bible Houses did not stock the magazines; and, as we did not have a copy of the paper asked for, my husband turned to me and asked what he should give the gentleman. I suggested Marked Bible, which Wilbert gave him. The man took it home, and as a result such an interest was created that a minister was sent to the community and a public effort was held at Whitewater, Colorado. A small church was organized; and among those baptized was the gentleman who came into the office, his wife, another man and his wife and some of their children, and other individuals. Since that time I believe the church has been absorbed by the Grand Junction church.

After my husband's death in 1921, I went to the Inca Union Mission office in Lima, Peru, for a few years. Shortly after reaching Lima, I received a letter from the wife of the first man who came into the office. She stated that they wanted me to know that it was the copy of Marked Bible which her husband had received at the conference office that had made them decide for the Sabbath. One son of the second family was in the colporteur work for a while at least. After I came back to the States and was in Arizona I met a daughter of the second family, who with her husband was attending the Phoenix church. I told him the story of Marked Bible and he said, "That means me too, for it was through the influence of my wife's people that I was brought into the truth."

A little over three years ago I was back through western Colorado and attended prayer meeting in Grand Junction. The widow of the man who came into the office and received the copy of Marked Bible was there, and she told me that her children were all in the truth. I went on to Rifle to see about the graves for my own family. While there, a request came for me to visit the widow of the second family who joined the Whitewater church. I was able to spend only a very short time with her, but I was thrilled to know of the people who were still loyal to God's Sabbath and truth.

A few months ago, I told the above story in the San Jose, California, church at the missionary period and told the members to "use Marked Bible; it helps people decide for the truth." One of the members present went home and gave a copy of the book to a neighbor with whom she had been working for some time. Less than two months later the neighbor was baptized and is now a member of the San Jose church. Again I say, "Use Marked Bible; it helps people decide for the truth."

MRS. LULU P. WILCOX.

Peninsula Nature Club

Many of the club members have expressed their interest in rocks and especially using the lapidary equipment. We have found a place in San Jose where we can go through a lapidary shop and observe the equipment and see some of the polished rocks.

The field trip for November will be a visit to this place, which is located at 1257 Hanchett Avenue, just off Park Avenue west of Tiny's Drive-In. We will meet there at two Sunday afternoon, November 20, and we plan to be there for two or three hours, as the proprietor said the complete visit would take at least two hours. He conducts classes in lapidary work and right now he has a Wednesday night class in silver work.

In December we are planning a trip to the Los Banos bird reserve as that will be a good month for migratory birds. There have been several requests for this trip also.

The officers will appreciate any suggestions for interesting trips for next year.

Those of you who enjoy the Butterfly Trees at Pacific Grove, California, will be glad to know that the butterflies are there now and you may want to take a drive down there soon and take some pictures.

Beginning in January there will be a series of lyceum numbers which will be very interesting. There will be one each month for the four months from January on. Plan to attend each one and interest others in these fine lecture films. The one for January is entitled "East African Adventure."

With the end of the year very soon, this perhaps is a good time to invite you to renew your membership for next year. Single membership is $2, and family membership is $3.

Oakdale Vacation Bible School

For the third consecutive summer the Oakdale church has conducted a Vacation Bible school. Community-wide interest and popularity is evidenced by the fact that over 75 per cent of the 133 children registered were from non-Adventist families. As a follow-up program each family will be contacted, invited to attend church and/or enrolled in the Bible correspondence course.

Vacation Bible school evangelism is a united endeavor by the whole church. Typical of the enthusiastic workers is Mrs. Lillie Allen (pictured) who, though 90 years old, still takes an active part and transports children to Vacation Bible school in her small electric car.

Many parents were on hand for the graduation program and refreshments at the conclusion of the two-week Bible school. Elder Curtis Barger, Central California Conference Sabbath school secretary was the commencement speaker and awarded the diplomas.

J. E. BYNUM, Pastor.

Death of Elder Miklos

On Thursday, November 3, Elder John C. Miklos, who has been principal of the Pacific Union College Preparatory School for the past four years, gave up the struggle which he has been waging against leukemia since 1956. He passed away at the St. Helena Sanitarium at 11:45 a.m. The funeral services were held in Irwin Hall at Pacific Union College on Sunday morning, November 6.

The entire community has been saddened at the loss of this highly-respected and much-loved denominational leader. A large congregation and the banks of flowers from students, churches, the college, and individuals attested to the deep regard in which Elder Miklos was held. He had served the denomination loyally and well as a colporteur, academy Bible teacher, pastor, educational superintendent, Missionary Volunteer secretary, and academy principal.

During the funeral service, Dr. R. W. Fowler, president of the college, read several scriptures which were known to be precious to Elder Miklos. The Troubadours, a special choral group of the academy, sang "The Beautiful Hills" and "Never Part Again." The sermon was presented by Dr. A. G. Maxwell of the college Bible department. Dr. M. E. Mathisen, academic dean of the college, sang a solo, "Calvary." Organ music was provided by Mrs. Barbara Tonsberg, Preparatory School registrar, and viola music was brought by Dr. George Wargo of the college music department. The obituary was read by Elder A. H. Rulkoetter, and prayer was offered by Elder L. H. Martin of the college Bible department.

Interment took place in the St. Helena Cemetery November 7.

Members of the Honor Guard were: Professors Parshall Howe, A. T. Wiegardt, G. A. Hicks, I. D. Higgins, Dean Friedrich, Lee Taylor, and Eugene Erickson, all of the PUC Preparatory School faculty; Elder P. G. Wiperman, educational secretary of the Northern California Conference; and A. G. Maxwell, R. W. Fowler, L. H. Martin, and A. H. Rulkoetter.

Pallbearers were: Alan Baldwin, Wesley Follett, Vernon Howe, Kenneth

Millard, Dwayne Toppenberg, and Dean Wiegardt, all senior students of the Preparatory School.

Language Laboratory

With the installation of a fully-equipped modern laboratory, Elder Donald Thomann, head of the Foreign Language department, recently saw the realization of a project toward which he has planned and worked ever since his arrival at Pacific Union College in 1958.

The nine individual, soundproof listening and recording booths, equipped with modern four-track recording machines, complete with earphones, will offer language students an opportunity for practical experimentation with Spanish, French, and German.

Students will hear the master track, record their response, and immediately after hear the correct response. This method eliminates the usual delay in correction of written assignments.

"This is just a beginning," says Elder Thomann. "We expect to expand greatly as time goes on."

Accreditation Committees Visit

A joint accreditation group of 10 members from the State Board of Education and the Western College Association will visit PUC Monday and Tuesday, November 14 and 15.

The State Board Committee of five members, headed by Dr. Lawrence E. Nelson of the University of Redlands, will have headquarters in West Hall.

Dr. Hector H. Lee, of Chico State College, will serve as chairman of the five-member Western Association Committee, whose headquarters will be in the Alumni Room in the library.

Meetings will continue throughout the two days. Scheduled activities include visits to the various departments and a banquet in Graf Hall attended by all the department heads on Monday night.

Accreditation Committees visit at four-year intervals to survey the college for reaccreditation.

Second Artist Series Program

The San Francisco Chamber Music Group, second in the Artist Series programs, will be presented on Saturday night, November 19, at 8 p.m. in Irwin Hall. This group of five distinguished artists blend the tone of their instruments into a perfect whole. Included in the group is Dr. George Wargo, chairman of the Pacific Union College Music department and former principal violist of the National Symphony Orchestra of Washington, D.C.

"Let Him In," She Called

"Let him in! Let him in, if he is from the Christian Record!" a blind woman called out from inside the house.

Brother Len Devnich, district representative of the Christian Record Benevolent Association working in the Alberta Province in Canada, was searching the area for blind people. He was a very long way north where few people live. Someone told him about this blind woman whose house was 26 miles away from the main roads. Believing that he must not pass by one of these dear people, he drove on trails that were in a horrible condition.

When he knocked on the door an Indian lady came to the door. He introduced himself. As soon as he said "Christian Record," the blind woman whom he was seeking called from inside the house, "Let him in! Let him in, if he is from the Christian Record!"

This woman was isolated and "a long way from nowhere" but had known of our work for the blind. How excited she was to have a representative of the organization call on her personally. This type of visit means more to blind people than many of us can imagine, for who goes out of the way these days to visit a blind person? We need many, many more men and women to volunteer for this pleasant type of missionary work. I don't believe the Saviour would pass by a blind person, do you? If you are interested, write to the Christian Record, Box 3666, Lincoln, Nebraska.
