

Who's First on Your List?

Christmas is coming! And no doubt by now you have your Christmas gift list completed. By the way, who is first on your list? Do you know that you—yes, each of you—are first on God's list? "He first loved us," says 1 John 4:19.

Certainly as you think of past blessings you are indeed grateful for life itself, for the degree of health you are enjoying, the peace that is yours, the material and spiritual blessings so bountifully bestowed, for the joy of living in the Lord. Yes, you love Him because He first loved you. Therefore, His name occupies the first place on your Christmas gift list.

One of the countries in the Inter-American Division to which our Thirteenth Sabbath Overflow Offering goes this quarter is British Guiana. This vast country of over 83,000 square miles has only one small hospital. The director of nurses, Naomi Chapman, recently wrote, "This 17-bed hospital with its meager facilities is continuously filled to capacity. But God has richly blessed the work. One of the greatest needs in this country is for a larger and more adequately-equipped hospital and a number of smaller dispensaries. There are many districts here without medical facilities."

Our faithful missionaries have made Christ first in their lives. They have gladly given up many comforts of the homeland to carry the gospel to earth's remotest areas.

The needs everywhere in these countries in Inter-America which will benefit from the fourth quarter's Thirteenth Sabbath Offering are tremendous. You may not have the privilege of laboring in these needy fields personally, but by your prayers and in giving a liberal offering December 24 you can help to meet the needs of Inter-America, and thus demonstrate that you are putting Christ first!

Appreciation

The offering that you gave for the Voice of Prophecy on October 8, 1960, amounted to well over $70,000, which is more than double what was given in 1959. This response has brought great courage to the brethren at the Voice of Prophecy, and we here in the Pacific Union Conference office wish to thank you for your response to the needs as they were laid before you.

THE VOICE OF PROPHECY SERMON TOPICS

"Signs of Christ's Coming"—Dec. 11.

"Your Life Work—Is It of God or Man?"—Dec. 18.

"Conscience Money"

There is a very large account in the Treasury Department of the United States known as "conscience money." Many people let their obligations to the Government, including taxes, go for many years, but find that it bothers their conscience, so they get busy and write a letter of explanation and enclose a check to cover their honest debt, including interest, to "Uncle Sam."

In the world today we hear a great deal about credit rating. It means much to an individual to have a good credit rating. It should mean much to a Seventh-day Adventist Sabbath school member to have a good credit rating with heaven.

One does not have to write a letter to the denominational leaders or to the local church explaining that the money is "conscience money," but I am sure that there are some who might find, after careful checking, that they should give some "conscience money" to the Lord in the form of Sabbath school offerings before the end of 1960.

The following quotations from the Spirit of prophecy should prove helpful:

"The Lord does not propose to come to this world, and lay down gold and silver for the advancement of His work. He supplies men with resources, that by their gifts and offerings they may keep His work advancing. The one purpose above all others for which God's gifts should be used is the sustaining of workers in the harvest field. And if men will become channels through which heaven's blessing can flow to others, the Lord will keep the channel supplied. It is not returning to the Lord His own that makes men poor; withholding tends to poverty."—Counsels on Stewardship, page 36.

"I was shown that it is the will of God that the saints should cut loose from every encumbrance before the time of trouble comes, and make a covenant with God through sacrifice. If they have their property on the altar, and earnestly inquire of God for duty, He will teach them when to dispose of these things. Then they will be free in the time of trouble, and have no clogs to weigh them down."—Ibid., pages 59, 60.

"In the last extremity, before this work shall close, thousands will be cheerfully laid upon the altar. Men and women will feel it a blessed privilege to share in the work of preparing souls to stand in the great day of God, and they will give hundreds as readily as dollars are given now."—Ibid., page 40.

"All that we do is to be done willingly. We are to bring our offerings with joy and gratitude, saying as we present them, Of Thine own we freely give Thee. The most costly service we can render is but meager compared to the gift of God to our world. Christ is a gift every day. God gave Him to the world, and He graciously takes the gifts entrusted to His human agents for the advancement of His work in the world. Thus we show that we recognize and acknowledge that everything belongs to God, absolutely and entirely."—Ibid., page 198.

We cannot save our money for the next world in banks or land, neither can we take it with us at death or when Jesus comes, but there is a way whereby we can send it on ahead. How thankful we should be, dear brethren and sisters, for the light that God has given to us through the Bible and the Spirit of prophecy. Let us make sure, therefore, that we are following His counsel and living so near to Him day by day that we shall feel He is leading us each step of the way. If any of you should feel that you have shortchanged the Lord in Sabbath school offerings during the past year, now is the time to clear your conscience on this matter. May God grant it to be so is my earnest prayer.

"I Should Be . . . Now I Am"

From Queensland, Australia, came a request for our Voice of Prophecy Bible Correspondence Course in Hungarian. The gentleman who wrote stated that he knew our school was sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventists, but that he was in no way prejudiced.

Later in the year, this faraway Hungarian student wrote: "After studying these lessons, it is my opinion that they present truths closest to the teachings of the Lord Jesus as any I know." Not long after he wrote again: "It seems to me that I should be among you."

Continuing on through the Bible course, he accepted every point of doctrine as he compared each with the Hungarian Bible we were able to send him. Finally he requested baptism.

We sent his name and address to the North Queensland Conference with the request that a minister visit him. The call was faithfully made.

The next letter from our student contained the interesting news: "I am keeping now the seventh-day Sabbath. Pay the tithes. Now I am one of you." He is awaiting another visit by the minister, to be baptized.

almost five thousand visitors have called and enjoyed looking over this interesting place.

It is good to see the improvements being made at Elmshaven. The painters are giving all the buildings a good coat of white. Brother and Sister Aaby have improved the general landscape. Soon cars will be using the much improved old entrance which has advantages over the one used in recent years. The old parlor in Sister White's former home is now the lecture room where pictures are shown on a modern screen, and experiences from her remarkable life are related to the visitors. Helpful literature on Sister White's life and work is available. A visit to Elmshaven is both interesting and profitable to young and old. Brother and Sister Aaby are always glad to welcome visitors and answer their questions. ERNEST LLOYD.

Are You Living Alone?

If you are one of the lonely individuals who is living all alone in your large house, or an apartment, or maybe a trailer house, you are missing one of the greatest opportunities provided especially for the retired members of our church.

We have a grand group of folk in the Crystal Springs Retreat here at St. Helena. They are happy and often express their appreciation for the fact that the Northern and Central California conferences made these facilities possible.

You may be interested in such accommodations for yourself. If so, write to the manager soon—there are a few rooms still available—as our plan is to give our church members the first opportunity.

These accommodations consist of a two-room apartment without cooking facilities. Meals are taken in the main cafeteria where you may select your food as you wish. Clean linen is supplied once a week. We ask that you bring your own blankets and any other

Good Morning!

Here is a very successful plan for getting new listeners to the Voice of Prophecy:

1. Organize Lay-Youth Groups to phone names in the telephone directory, inviting them to listen to the Voice of Prophecy broadcast.

2. Assign certain columns in the telephone book to members of the group.

3. Each worker takes a section of his assignment each week and phones the listings a half hour before broadcast time.

4. The following is a suggested telephone approach: "Good morning! This is the telephone service of the Voice of Prophecy. I am calling to invite you to listen to an inspiring program over --- at --- this morning. Perhaps you already listen to the Voice of Prophecy broadcast. If not, I'm sure you'll enjoy the songs by the King's Heralds quartet and Del Delker, and the gospel message by H. M. S. Richards. I hope you can listen in. Thank you."

5. Remember these telephone tips:

- (a) Pray for God's guidance.
- (b) Speak distinctly.
- (c) Be courteous but brief.

Improvements at Elmshaven

Recently we were at Elmshaven for a little visit with our good friends Brother and Sister Aaby, formerly of the Walla Walla Sanitarium and now in charge of Sister Ellen G. White's old home near the St. Helena Sanitarium. The Aabys have been living at Elmshaven about a year, and in that time furnishings you may desire in order to reflect the atmosphere of your present home. The rate is $125 per month for your room, board, and laundered linen.

Let us hear from you if you wish to join the family of happy seniors at St. Helena.

Broadcasters and Telecasters Workshop

A workshop for local radio broadcasters and telecasters was held October 17 and 18 in the Communications Building at La Sierra College.

It was a practical approach to the problems and experiences of local broadcasters. Each day was spent discussing ways and means of making local broadcasting more effective. Such topics as "Broadcasting Objectives," "Effective Ways of Building an Audience," "Programming of Music," "How to Obtain Greater Results," et cetera, were discussed.

We greatly appreciated the help of Elders R. R. Bietz, J. E. Chase, H. M. S. Richards, and Wayne Hooper, Dr. W. F. Tarr, Mr. Milton Carlson, and Mr. Don Dick.

The local broadcast and telecast fill a vital role in reaching the masses for Christ. They reach segments of population that can be reached in no other way.

A word of thanks to our microphone ministers, and a prayer for an even more successful ministry as a result of this workshop.

Sierra Associated Missionary Volunteers

The Sierra Associated Missionary Volunteers of the Nevada-Utah Conference held their final meet of the year November 19 with the Reno church serving as host. Special feature of the afternoon came when Dr. Richard Miller, ichthyologist, who has spent the last two winters in observation and research in Antarctica, lectured on this unusual area. He showed some of his slides of fish, penguins, and the scenery around the South Pole. During the lecture he also demonstrated some of the clothing necessary to be worn on such polar expeditions.

At the evening social hour the Reno group served supper in the recreation room. Several organized games were played.

Officers for the coming year were also elected at the meeting. They are: president, Norman Jones (Reno); religious vice president, Don Gibbs (Lake Tahoe); social vice president, Wauneta Abbott (Susanville); secretary-treasurer, Lois Stewart (Carson City); and publicity secretary, Pat Watson (Reno).

Outgoing officers expressed deep appreciation for the support of the churches in the area which helped to make each meeting this year a success.

Activities on the agenda for the year

1960 included: A rally and motion picture and a Sunday snow picnic in February with Susanville in charge; a visit to the Stillwater Bird Refuge near Fallon with an evening social featuring the Pathfinder clubs on May 14; a Yosemite weekend campout in Tuolumne Meadows July 1 to 4; a rally, talent program, and Sunday lake outing in August with the Lake Tahoe young folk as sponsors.

Churches represented by youth at this last quarter meeting were Reno, Lake Tahoe, Carson City, Susanville, Fallon, and Quincy.

BEVERLY SNYDER, Past President.

Reno Meetings

Throughout the month of October Elders Clifton Walter and Edmund Jones conducted a very successful evangelistic campaign in Reno. The meetings were held in our own beautiful church with a seating capacity of approximately five hundred. The local church members were most loyal in their support of this campaign. Many brought their friends and neighbors night after night, hardly missing a meeting.

These challenging sermons attracted wide interest from the towns and villages around Reno. There were some from Carson City in attendance at each service. The tremendous support given by the Carson City church was greatly appreciated. There were also some who drove in from Truckee and Floriston, California, quite regularly.

A good interest was developed in Reno and Sparks that we are sure will lead to a good baptism by the end of the year. On the closing Sabbath of the campaign there was a baptism of eight who had been preparing earlier in the year.

CLAUDE B. MILLER, Pastor,

The Fallon District

We are happy to share with the readers of the RECORDER some of the joys that are ours as we look over the progress that has been made in the work of the Lord in our district during recent months.

In midsummer the Fallon Sabbath school superintendent and her co-workers conducted a very interesting and successful Vacation Bible school. Both those who helped with the instruction and the children who attended were heard to express delight with the good program they enjoyed together. The church members also entered into a special visitation campaign in anticipation of the evangelistic meetings.

The Walter Brothers conducted meetings from August 13 to September 4 in the Cloud Cathedral pitched in a prominent location on Main Street. The great messages of God for our time were clearly presented to an appreciative audience. The members cooperated well with good attendance and in bringing their friends so that the Cathedral was kept well filled. There were 16 decisions for Christ. Several were baptized and others are receiving further preparation.

The annual Week of Prayer recently held in the church each night and with the children of the church school each morning has been a great inspiration to all. The school is making good progress under the direction of Miss Margaret Amyx.

The little group left at Hawthorne is carrying on faithfully though many former members have moved away. But new interests are in evidence.

The believers in Yerington are rejoicing over the near completion of the remodeling of the church. The interior has taken on a new appearance after many days of hard work. An open house was held in the church November 26. Former members and friends were present for an all-day meeting on that date. Elder E. R. Osmunson, the conference president, was the principal speaker. Several were baptized. Pray that God will continue to help us do our work faithfully.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS WERE INTRODUCED to thousands of people attending the various fairs in Arizona within recent weeks. The Flagstaff church sponsored a booth with the text "Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come" as the theme. The central attraction was a beautiful 4x6-foot pastel painting of the judgment painted by the local elder, Stanley Dalegowski. The Bisbee group took full advantage of the one-night fair in their territory. They featured the film "More Than Singing." The churches in the Phoenix area cooperated in manning the Adventist booth at the Arizona State Fair held in Phoenix November 4 to 13. The object of the display in this attractive booth was to focus the attention of the people on Religious Liberty. The point of greatest interest was a large book whose pages kept turning to reveal its contents. In this book were pertinent facts and statistics which showed how our Religious Liberty was gradually being taken away. A long list of states that had passed Sunday legislation within the past year invited many questions and interested discussions by those passing by. The Liberty magazine was given to any who were interested. The Home Health Education Service also sponsored a booth at the State Fair. Its primary purpose was to advertise the Bible Story. In all the booths opportunity was given for folk to sign up for either Voice of Prophecy or Faith for Today Bible correspondence courses, and large numbers of leaflets were given away. Those who spent time on duty in these booths felt that the time was well spent and that the contacts made were very valuable. Only eternity will give the answer of the true worth of such projects.

ELDER D. C. BUTHERUS spent the weekend of November 11 to 13 at the Holbrook Mission school. He was in charge of the Friday night vesper service, and on Sabbath morning he brought a brief report of the progress of missions as reported at the recent Autumn Council.

SHOW LOW SABBATH SCHOOL MEMBERS believe in Investment! On November 19 their total Investment offering was $151.41—a per capita amount of $18.93. Some of the projects used to raise this money are rather unique. Brother John Marta, a baker, gave one penny for every pie he baked. Between January and November he baked 2,661 pies. Brother Beucler sold beautiful rocks (the "rock hound" type) and turned in $25. A sister in the church told how she had $95.75 to turn in—a penny for every dollar of business deals that came her way. Surely, the Lord blesses when we dedicate our money and our service to Him.

ELDER MILLER BROCKETT, Missionary Volunteer secretary for the Pacific Union, was a welcome visitor in Arizona, November 18 and 19. Friday morning he conducted the chapel service at Thunderbird Academy, and Friday evening he was the guest speaker in the Tucson Mountain Avenue church. Sabbath morning his sermon in the Phoenix Central church was the climax to the Week of Prayer—a service that was very much appreciated by all who attended. Elder Lavern Peterson ac-

The speakers were very capable local ministers through whom the Lord sent messages of warning and hope. In addition to Elder Glenn Fillman, pastor, and Ronald Whitney, associate pastor, the following ministers cooperated in making the week a success: Elders G. E. Smith, A. J. Anders, H. T. THE GLENDALE HOME AND SCHOOL served a Thanksgiving dinner to the members of its constituency Sunday night, November 20. Over 200 were in attendance. This was not a money-making venture but just a fellowship get-together where families came together and enjoyed the Christian association.

Ingathering Begins in Hawaii

The Ingathering campaign is off to a good start with reports coming in from several of the churches.

Elder Don Lee reports that Maili church has begun their rural areas with totals that exceed last year. Elder Duane Grimstad in Hilo has most of the rural areas done as well as areas that are not practical to canvass during the caroling time. Kekaha on Kauai has two-thirds of their Ingathering goal in their hands. Elder Harold Rich of the Molokai-Lanai district states that they are still making a few calls where people have told them to come back later. Brother Alfred Munar of the Honokaa-Kohala district is working steadily in his area. Elder C. J. Rasmussen is working on his business solicitation prior to the Christmas caroling season.

Honolulu Central church started early this year and launched their campaign November 13. Their enthusiasm and success are a joy to behold! They conducted the annual Week of Prayer one week early and now plan to complete their entire territory by December 9. Congratulations to Elder D. E. Duncan and his strong lay leaders in the Honolulu Central church.

The balance of the churches will be heard from during the caroling season, and we are planning for a swift and spirited campaign. We solicit your prayers that this year everyone will take part in the campaign so that no extra burden rests on anyone.

Kona Church News

While children all over the State of Hawaii were returning to school after the summer vacation, 24 Kona children enjoyed Vacation Bible school conducted by the Seventh-day Adventist church from August 29 to September 9. The reason for this is that in Kona the coffee bean harvest which starts in September has made it necessary to switch the summer vacation to the September-to-November period.

Under the careful supervision of Mrs. Dan Machado and Mrs. Phoebe Kealiinohomoku, the children enjoyed songs, crafts, and games besides the valuable religious instruction. Sixty per cent of the children came from non-Adventist homes. As a result of this Vacation Bible school, 10 children are now regularly attending church and Sabbath school.

The Kona church has received a complete refinishing. Paints were made possible through courtesy of one of the friends of the church. With a well-kept yard and a new coat of paint on the building, the church at Kona has won the admiration of not only the tourists that pass by it, but by the residents of the district.

The newest addition to the Kona church is a used Hammond church model organ. The purchase of this organ was made possible largely through a donation of $400 sent to us from an Adventist friend in San Jacinto, California, who was deeply impressed by the neat appearance of the church and its premises while touring through the Kona Coast this year.

Conference News

Several evangelistic meetings are being conducted in Central California at the present time. The church members who are living in close proximity to any of these meetings should do all they possibly can to attend and to take their neighbors and friends with them. These are opportunities for every church member who lives close enough to an evangelistic meeting to help swell the attendance and also make it possible for sincere folk to hear the truth.

Elder R. E. Dunton and the Flight of Time evangelistic group are at the present time holding meetings in Mountain View. The attendance has been good, and they are looking forward to many taking their stand for the truth before the meetings close.

Elder C. E. Smith is holding forth in the new Fresno Central church. The attendance has been very encouraging, and it is one more evidence that meetings can be held in Seventh-day Adventist churches with good results. Brother Ross Morris is associated with Elder Smith and also Sister H. N. Damon, the Bible instructor; and we are happy for the cooperation the church members are giving.

Elder Joseph Espinosa has just given us a thrilling report of the attendance at his meetings in the San Francisco Spanish church. The building is filled at every meeting and interested folks are listening to the truth being given in the Spanish language. Brother and Sister J. O. Basaez are helping with the music, and we are happy for this good effort for the Spanish-speaking people in San Francisco.

Elder E. A. Canson, the pastor of our Bakersfield Southside church, has had encouraging attendance at his meetings which are being held in the Adventist church in Bakersfield.

Elder R. K. Krick, pastor at Turlock, is conducting a series of meetings in the Turlock church. We trust that the members in that area will be faithful in attending these meetings and will be taking their friends with them.

Brother Ted Jones, who is the pastor of our colored church in San Jose, is at the present time conducting a series of meetings at Menlo Park. He secured a large building that was revamped and redecorated, and it serves as a very fine place for these public meetings. Elder John DuNesme is assisting with the music, and also Brother Robert Dent, who comes from Oakland to help in the meetings. We are happy for the good attendance and the good report of these meetings in Menlo Park.

Elder T. E. Storm, who is the pastor of the Slavic-American church in San Francisco, is conducting a series of meetings in their new church which was recently purchased from another organization. This building has been entirely renovated and a great deal of money has been spent to make it into a beautiful church auditorium for our members there. Elder Storm is having a good interest, and we are praying that the Lord will greatly bless in these meetings.

Elder Lester E. Ortner is conducting a series of meetings in the Arroyo Grande church. We hear good reports of the meetings and the attendance there.

Other evangelistic meetings are being planned throughout the conference, and some of our churches are conducting Bible classes where the lay folks are having a definite part.

Prof. E. F. Heim reports an increased attendance in all of our schools throughout the conference. We are happy for this. We greatly appreciate this sacrifice that our fathers and mothers are making in the interest of Christian education throughout Central California. Our five academies have increased enrollments, and a very fine school program is being carried on in all of these institutions.

Mrs. Virginia Kollmorgen has joined our office staff and is one of the secretaries in the Association office. She came to Central from the Pacific Press Branch Office in Portland, Oregon.

Excellent Meetings

The fall series of Dorcas Federation meetings are now in the past. These meetings, six in all, were well attended. There was a good spirit. We wish now to say "Thank You" to the leadership and all who so nobly carry on in their respective churches. Some of the men folk are coming into this welfare picture.

According to Brother H. E. Clasing, our managing director at the warehouse at Watsonville, 1960 will go down as the best year in our history. It appears certain that by the end of the year twice as much clothing, etc., will come in for general distribution. All of this shows that things are happening.

So much for the past, but what of the future? What of our needs? We have many but will mention just a very few.

1. We need more ladies to share in this work.

2. We are doing better financially now since we get a bit of Ingathering comeback money, but still the church needs to assist Dorcas.

3. We also need younger ladies to become interested in Dorcas Welfare. This applies especially to our young married members.

4. One of our greatest needs is better quarters such as units and centers. This we must not forget.

Just Remember

If and when you reach and pass your Ingathering goal, 50 per cent comes back labeled Welfare. This should inspire the church to go all out in the Ingathering.

The school year of 1960-61 holds much promise of success for the 320 students enrolled at Monterey Bay Academy. As most of our constituents know, the main dormitories have room for 237 youth. Consequently, it has been necessary through the years to use some of the remodeled barracks buildings for dormitory annexes, one for the girls and two for the boys. Our enrollment has been controlled by available space for a number of years. At the present time a wing is being added to the main girls' dormitory which will do away with the use of the girls' annex. This wing, forming a "T" from the center rear of the building, will provide rooms for 42 girls, or 13 more girls than the annex can provide rooms for. Two clinic rooms will be invaluable adjuncts to the facilities there. All of the rooms will have space for two girls, with the exception of two rooms immediately above the clinic.

The two-story building is of frame-and-stucco construction. Aluminum sliding windows are being used for the first time in construction at the academy. Hardwood floors will be used throughout. Each floor will have central, tiled shower rooms and rest rooms. Ironing rooms are also being provided. Each room will have built-in dressers and wardrobes with only the desks and beds being movable.

Considerable excavation was necessary to make room for the extension of the second floor into the bank east of the dormitory. On this elevation, to the north, is attached the new worship room, providing space for 165 girls, and featuring a laminated beam with a vaulted ceiling and beautiful stained-glass windows which help to provide a worshipful atmosphere.

To the south of the wing is the assistant dean's two-bedroom apartment, with a living room, kitchen, and bath. This apartment is on a raised level in order to use the same roof line as the worship room.

Mr. Harold Boyd of Mountain View has been the contractor for the erection of this building, with the able foremanship of Mr. Ted Hansen of Santa Cruz. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy after the Christmas vacation.

Following the theme of the Secondary Teachers Convention held at PUC in August of "Achieving Spiritual and Intellectual Excellence," the faculty and staff have set their goals high in these directions. How we wish that every member in this conference could have witnessed the voluntary, impromptu witnessing of 10 young men and 10 young women as to their determination to make Christ their own. The spiritual tone for the year was set at that first vesper service. We thank God for it.

In the line of intellectual excellence, 62 students were on the Honor Roll for the first six-week period. The Honor Roll includes achievement not only in scholastic grades but also in citizenship, attendance, and work. Sixty-seven students won Honorable Mention.

An outstanding staff is carrying the heavy responsibilities inherent in a boarding school. New additions this year include: Miss Beverly Baker, summer graduate of Walla Walla College School of Nursing, in the areas of school nurse, assistant dean, physical education; Mr. Verle Betts, vocal music, from Armona Union Academy; Mrs. Betts, music department accompanist and monitor; Mr. Don Habenicht, farm and poultry, from La Sierra College; Mr. Floyd Kooreny, accountant, from Eastern Washington College; Mrs. Kooreny, cafeteria assistant; Mr. Ole Lejnicks, English and American History and Government, from Pacific Union College; Mr. Alan Munson, biology, physical education, custodian, from Pacific Union College; Miss Carolyn Slepnikoff, English and typing, from the College of Medical Evangelists at Loma Linda.

As we labor for the salvation of the youth entrusted to our care, we earnestly desire your sincere prayers in behalf of Monterey Bay Academy.

ROLLAND H. HOWLETT, Principal.

"Truth for Today" in Fresno

Under the caption "Truth for Today," Fresno Central recently completed a very successful evangelistic campaign. Meetings were held in the new church every Sunday, Wednesday, and Friday for 24 nights with an average attendance of around four hundred. There was no advertising except handbills and personal invitations by the church members, but the crowds actually increased and more were coming at the last than at the first. Such subjects as "George Washington's Vision," "Abraham Lincoln's Prophecy," "America's Future," and "The Mark of the Beast" particularly attracted a large number of people.

Pastor Clarence E. Smith, the speaker, presented the message each evening in a unique but plain, pointed, positive way. The program consisted of an excellent short color film, two or three well-known hymns with sets of song slides, special music, and a 40-minute sermon fully illustrated by texts and pictures on the screen. Services started with 30 minutes of taped organ, instrumental, or good vocal selections, and were concluded with a theme song; and the congregation was dismissed and the people on their way home always before nine o'clock.

Many drove miles to attend. Two non-Adventist doctors and their families living 50 miles away came night after night. Several have already taken their stand for the truth, others are now studying, and some have enrolled in the Voice of Prophecy Faith Bible course. Brother Ross Morris, associate pastor, and Mrs. Ruby Damon, Bible instructor, have given invaluable help in this effort.

These meetings have revived our own membership and have stirred many other souls to search their Bibles as for hidden treasure. They have brought great encouragement and untold blessings to the Fresno Central Seventh-day Adventist church.

Master Guide Camp at Idyllwild

Two hundred and forty MV and Pathfinder workers gathered at our Pathfinder Camp at Idyllwild on the weekend of October 7 to 9 to study how they could become better youth leaders. Friday evening Elder W. D. Blehm, conference MV secretary, challenged the group to the need of Christ in their hearts and their programs to be successful. Many offered testimonies to the working of Christ in their lives.

Each morning the worship periods were conducted by Elder E. L. Taylor, associate secretary of the MV department. The topics for the two morning devotionals were "What Does It Mean to Follow Christ?" and "What Is a Christian?"

Even though the weather was cold, everyone enjoyed the Sabbath day. Sabbath school was under the direction of Elder E. R. Chinnock of Loma Linda. Two of the outstanding features of the Sabbath school program were the testimonies by young people who had attended the Atlantic City Youth Congress and the fine lesson study presented by the young people from La Sierra.

At the eleven o'clock hour, Elder J. M. Lien, speech instructor of La Sierra College, invited those attending to study the life of Christ so that they might be able to portray His love to the young people they lead.

During the afternoon program Mrs. Dorothy Beltz, former college dean of women, showed the development of the child from babyhood to the teens, giving each one a better understanding of the problems of our young people.

Saturday night Elders Toral Seat and R. E. Delafield presented a new type of "Share-Your-Faith" program where the church can buy or rent 16 mm motion pictures to show in a youth evangelistic meeting or in the homes. Speakers for the pictures are Elders H. M. S. Richards, George Vandeman, Phillip Knox, R. A. Anderson, and Toral Seat. Everyone was impressed with the picture evangelism program and with the thrilling results where it has been used.

Even though it was raining and very cold, Sunday morning found everyone in their various groups studying youth problems and ways to close 1960 with a strong Christian program for our young people. The weather conditions were not good, but it did not dampen the enthusiasm of our youth leaders. Each one returned home determined to serve our youth better and to hasten the second coming of Christ. Let us continue to pray for our youth leaders.

Mira Loma Church Adopts Its Neighborhood Youth

The church was lonely; we felt limited. Then we made the decision to adopt the neighborhood youth. Happily, enthusiastically, the children were invited to Sabbath school, and they came. From Cradle Roll to the Youth Division we were crowded beyond our facilities. The juniors became the largest group. Drafting a young theology student as their leader brought excellent results.

A Pathfinder Club was started. The juniors from the Vacation Bible school were invited to join, and they did, swelling the ranks with 70 non-Adventist neighborhood youth.

Transportation posed a problem until the Pathfinders volunteered to work for a bus. Brooms, mops, and cookies were sold. The junior leader, with others, built an addition to a member's house. The money earned went to purchase the bus. Church members contributed, and in a matter of weeks a Mira Loma church bus became an accepted part of community activities. Enthusiastic parents waved greetings as the bus, loaded with their youth, passed en route to Sabbath school, Pathfinder meeting, or some favorite picnic ground.

The Mira Loma church bus, loaded and ready to go on some church-sponsored activity.

Non-Adventist parents are helping in the Pathfinder Club and are attending church. Mothers are saying: "If my children can attend Pathfinders, they must also attend Sabbath school." Several young families have been attracted to the church and are now members. The consecrated young theology student has been taken on by the conference as a loyal, effective worker. The spiritual level of the church is at an all-time high. What a joy we have found in working with these wonderful youth. Join us in opening your heart to the young people in your neighborhood. It demands time, prayer, work, and sacrifice, but there is no sweeter sense of completeness than sharing yourself with a youth as you lead him to Christ.

Week of Prayer Speaker

Kenneth H. Wood, Jr., associate editor of The Review and Herald who conducted the Week of Devotions, October 10 to 15, for the students of the College of Medical Evangelists on the campus of Loma Linda, spoke at the Friday evening Missionary Volunteer meeting in the new College church. He also delivered the eleven o'clock Sabbath message on October 15, entitled "An Ever Present Help," which concluded his series of talks on "The Focused Life." All through the series Christ was exalted, and the importance of making Him supreme in our everyday lives was emphasized.

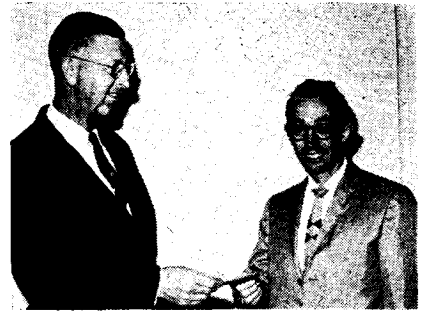

Editor Wood was born in Shanghai, China, of missionary parents and lived in that country fifteen years. He received his education in the Far Eastern and La Sierra academies, Pacific Union College, and the Potomac University, now Andrews University.

He has been pastor-evangelist for nine years in three conferences—Central California, West Virginia, and Ohio. Also he served as departmental secretary for four years in New Jersey and five years for the Columbia Union Conference. He has been associate editor of The Review for five years.

Good Community Relations

The Barstow SDA church through its pastor, Elder F. D. Horton, has contributed $100 to the Community Hospital Chapel Fund. This friendly act has been appreciated very much by the people of Barstow and the Ministerial Association, who are endorsing and sponsoring the project. On the day when payment was made, the local newspaper sent its photographer to get a picture of Elder Horton giving the check to Rev. W. L. Crumpler, president of the Ministerial Association. Along with the picture, a very fine story was published in which it was mentioned that Seventh-day Adventists are firm believers in a chapel in connection with hospitals. They have proven their worth many times and to many people in their hour of sorrow or need.

The chapel to be built soon near the entrance of the Community Hospital will be available to anyone desiring to retire there for prayer or meditation when visiting patients or while waiting word of a critically ill patient. For their interest, the name of the Barstow SDA church will be listed on an honor roll of donors to be placed in the chapel.

Whenever our churches take an active interest in community affairs or projects it is appreciated and often proves to be another opportunity to let our light shine.

Anderson of Homestead, Florida, will be the second program in the Audubon Screen Tour series sponsored by the Fullerton Pathfinder Club and the National Audubon Society, Sabbath, December 10, at 7:45 p.m. in the Wilshire School Auditorium, Harvard and Whiting.

Bill and Claire Anderson, as a husband and wife team, have produced 16 educational films on natural history subjects.

The family will find in this film a masterpiece of photography, a mine of information, and a program rich in entertainment. Season tickets still available; a guest may be brought for free to make up for the one program already given. Single admission: $1 for adults, 50 cents for children.

Chula Vista Evangelistic Effort

Fifteen members have been added to the church and many more made decisions for Christ as a result of the Crusade for Christ campaign concluded on October 30 in Chula Vista by the Hardy-Henderson evangelistic team.

The four-week series was held in the newly-designed Airatorium erected on a very prominent lot arranged for by Elder L. E. Niermeyer before his appointment to Arlington. City officials were very much impressed with the Airatorium and were kind and helpful in arranging for the necessary permits to conduct the meetings there.

The church members themselves gave outstanding support in every way. Their attendance at the meetings, the extensive visitation program conducted before and during the campaign, and the follow-up program now in operation will no doubt result in further baptisms in the near future. All this has brought new courage to the membership and the effects of this revival will be seen and felt for some time.

We thank God for this harvest of souls and pray for His continued blessing on our wonderful church family as they work together to complete the task.

Academy Student Leaders Workshop

Friday evening, October 21, found forty academy student officers, with their faculty advisers, meeting at Idyllwild Pathfinder Camp to study how their student bodies could help finish the work here on this earth so that we all might be able to go to that glorious home prepared for the redeemed. These student officers represented six of our academies in this conference.

Elder J. M. Lien, from the speech department of La Sierra College, on Friday evening pointed out the real joys of being a Christian and witnessing for the Master. Christ says, "Ye are My witnesses." What kind of witness do our lives make for Christ? Do we have the courage of the pioneers to finish the task assigned to us? Testimonies of consecration closed the service in which the young people determined to be better witnesses for their Master.

Sabbath morning was especially beautiful, and everyone enjoyed the Sabbath school program under the leadership of Judy Miklos, Student Body president of San Pasqual Academy. Mission stories were presented by the young people from Calexico Mission School. All six academies were represented on the program.

Elder Leo B. Halliwell, who spent forty years on a mission launch on the Amazon, challenged the young people to the great need for missionaries. A number of the student leaders present responded and stated their determination to be missionaries for God.

Sabbath afternoon and Sunday morning were spent in discussing activities of the students in sharing their faith and holding the youth in the church. Elder C. I. Chrisman, conference education superintendent, and Elder C. F. Phillips, conference Sabbath school secretary, and the MV secretaries led in these discussions.

Everyone felt that the weekend was of great value in helping them to outline a profitable program for the year. It is wonderful to have such fine Christian youth in our conference. Let's continue to pray for our young people.

Pray — Organize — Plan

The sound of popping corn is always fascinating—partly at least because of the sense of activity. Does your Sabbath school have that sixth sense—activity? Three words put together as ingredients in a Sabbath school class unit will make it "pop."

Pray — Organize — Plan

Working to bring Christ to people through Sabbath school evangelism is of God. He is interested in it and has promised great success. As a primary ingredient to success, spend more time in prayer. Pray for the teacher, the officers, those on the prospective member list, our world mission responsibility; last but not least pray that you will be a good and faithful servant, discharging fully your stewardship of time and talent. "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of."

Organize is the second ingredient to make your Sabbath school "pop" with activity and growth. Organize your talents, abilities, training, territory, personnel, and needs.

Plan—the third ingredient. Have a planning session every month or oftener, as the need indicates. Plan as pastor and council superintendent and officers, teachers and class members, and as related groups or a group of the whole. Plan for visiting invitations and special visitors day. Plan for much better teaching by conducting training classes. No progress can be made when there is a sense of satisfaction, a sense of "what we're doing is good enough." If you're satisfied, do some evaluating. How regular is the attendance in your class? How many new members have come in the first three quarters of 1960? How long since you know someone made a decision for Christ because God used you? These are but a few questions to get you started in evaluating. I'm sure there are very few of us now "satisfied."

The class teacher is the key to a Sabbath school that is popping with activity—not activity for the sake of doing but for supplying of needs—"For the perfecting of the saints [class members], for the work of the ministry [to others], for the edifying [instructing through better teaching] of the body of Christ."—Eph. 4:12.

May God inspire that you may have and be a part in and of a Sabbath school that will "pop."

activities climaxed what Elders E. S. Reile and William Henry, directors of the camporee, termed a "highly successful experience for each participating Pathfinder." Broad jumping, shot putting, sack race, three-legged racing, relay racing, high jumping, and pancake flipping contests brought cheers that rumbled from one end to the other of the park.

Mighty tosses such as this one set big records in camporee shot putt contest.

the Pathfinders gathered for Sabbath school at 9:30 a.m. Santa Monica Pathfinder Club presented an interesting lesson study while the Inglewood Pathfinder Club's acting out of the mission story was a special treat.

At the worship hour Elder Lloyd Wyman of the Long Beach church presented a thoughtful sermon. And after lunch came a Sabbath afternoon filled with "Share Your Faith" experiences and a guided walk through the Simi countryside.

Sunday morning's "Olympic games"

Pathfinder Camporee

Few passersby, whipping at high speed by the tiny tunnel cut through a railroad grade just off Simi Valley's main road, realized the dynamic force at work on the other side of the embankment. On the other side: Nearly 1,000 energy-laden Pathfinder youth attending Southern California Conference's 1960 Pathfinder Camporee.

From Friday, October 14, through Sunday, October 16, the youth from 31 clubs in the conference rocked Oak Park's otherwise slumbering calm with their fun-filled activity of worship and games.

As the session began Friday evening, Elder R. R. Breitigam, former Pacific Union Conference Sabbath school director, told the youngsters that he hadn't regretted a moment of his long service in God's cause. "Make use of your talents for God," he charged. "There is more need than ever before for your service for the Master."

Sabbath's sun beamed brilliantly through the park's long-armed oaks as, their enthusiasm turned toward worship,

This crowded scene of heavy patronage of food booths at the recent 1960 Southern California Conference Dorcas Rally shows the continued support given by members to this annual event. This year's rally, held on October 23, featured outstanding addresses by Mr. Edward Russell, director of disaster services of the American Red Cross, and Dr. Arthur Gray. Mr. Russell reported on Chilean earthquake relief while Dr. Gray gave a report of progress at the Monument Valley Seventh-day Adventist Hospital and Mission. Other speakers also brought greetings and reports at the 9 a.m. program to the several thousand persons gathered for the rally.

Just after noon on Sunday the Pathfinders, weary but joyful, rolled up their sleeping bags, pulled stakes of their tents, and headed home with memories of one of their greatest experiences in combined Christian fellowship.

Senior Members

So many times we shower affections on our young people and on our children, oftentimes overlooking the senior members of our church. We here at East Los Angeles decided to do something for them, so on Sunday, September 18, the senior members of the East Los Angeles church were guests of the church at an outing to the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum.

Some 45 persons met at the Arboretum to enjoy the beautiful displays of patio landscaping and the tram ride through grounds planted with trees and bushes from all over the world.

A high light of the trip was the inspection of the Queen Anne's cottage, the guest house of the old Lucky Baldwin estate. This has been restored and furnished in the style of the late 19th century. Many memories of yesteryear were relived as the honored guests enjoyed these furnishings reminiscent of those used in the homes of their childhood.

Back at the church, delicious refreshments awaited the group, thus adding the perfect finishing touch to a happy day. The accompanying picture gives added evidence of the wonderful time spent together.

The rarely-performed Charles Camille Saint-Saens Christmas Oratorio with the 80-voice college choir and the college string orchestra will be conducted by Mr. Moses Chalmers. Student soloists will be Karen Mattox, Judy Benbrook, Lou Ann Wallace, Tom Smith, and Milton Wheeler. The La Sierra Childrens Choir under the direction of Miss Frances Brown and the Preparatory School Choir under the direction of Mr. Leonard Moore will also be participating.

Prof. Alfred Walters will conduct the orchestra as they play Bach's "Fugue in G Minor." Mr. H. B. Hannum will be at the organ, and Mr. Eugene Nash will present the brass numbers. The traditional Nativity Scene will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Chloe Sofsky. Prof. John T. Hamilton will again be in charge of this fourteenth annual presentation of the Candlelight Concert.

Chaplains and Administrators Meet

The chaplains and administrators of the sanitariums and hospitals of the Pacific Union Conference assembled for a two-day meeting at the Loma Linda Sanitarium recently to study especially the "Problems of the Chaplain in the Healing Arts." This meeting was excellently attended, every institution being represented.

It became clear during the discussion at these meetings that the ministry to the sick is a team activity. The physician needs the chaplain, and the chaplain needs the physician in a role which may be designed to bring about the optimum results.

At this meeting the chaplains organized themselves into a group for mutual improvement and assistance. The president of the organization is Howard Maxson, chaplain at the White Memorial Hospital. The vice president is Horace Walsh, chaplain at the Loma Linda Sanitarium, and the secretary-treasurer is Mrs. Geraldine Lohrke,

The format is attractive, making the book a perfect Christmas gift. Price $3.50.

Also for our teen-agers, we submit two top books—the new book Jeanie by Wilma Ross Westphal and Soldier of Fortune by W. L.
