Invest Liberally in the Cause of Missions

Our Adventist believers in Finland love to win souls to Christ. They enjoy distributing tracts, magazines, and books because many people in Finland are accepting the truth through the influence of our message-filled literature.

There are seventy literature evangelists in Finland and every two years these workers visit every home in Finland. Distances are great in this country, and as these consecrated ministers of the printed page visit the people, they pray with them, give them Bible studies, and enroll them in The Voice of Prophecy Correspondence Course. In this way many souls who would never be reached by our preachers alone are won to Christ.

A few years ago when in Finland I met with some of the literature evangelists. I wish you could have experienced with me the warmth of their handshakes, the glow and sparkle in their eyes, and enjoyed their hearty singing. How they can sing the gospel hymns!

For many years the brethren in Finland have had to depend upon non-Adventist publishers to print literature for the churches and the literature evangelists. This has created many problems in production and deliveries and has not always been satisfactory.

Through careful management and wise planning our leaders in Finland are now building their own publishing house. According to Sulo P. Halminen, the editor of the Finland Publishing House, more money is urgently needed to complete this important building enterprise. He further states that the Adventists of Finland trust their rich Father and believe, too, that you will give a liberal offering for Mission Extension on September 9.

Yes, friends, through your generous giving to missions, publishing houses, schools, hospitals, and clinics have been built all around the world. These institutions are real lighthouses of truth. They are sending forth positive beams of influence for the gospel of Christ.

The missionary literature evangelists, doctors, nurses, and teachers must continue their fruitful work of giving the gospel. In order to carry forward a strong mission program, these workers must have proper supplies, adequate equipment, and reasonably good buildings. Your continued financial support of an ever-enlarging mission program will bring a blessing to your own soul and help to extend the kingdom of God in the hearts of men out to the ends of the earth. Invest liberally in the cause of missions on September 9.

Check That Green Envelope

In the last two issues of the RE-CORDER we have noted the development of the study into the causes of death and illness among Seventh-day Adventists in California and indicated that we are at an important point of follow-up just now.

Approximately 15,000 Adventists who registered in the study in 1958 will be receiving a brief follow-up letter and a very short questionnaire the first part of September. A principal objective is to cross check our mailing and death records and to make corrections in them as necessary.

We urge you to promptly correct or approve your address on the letter form and return it immediately to our office. We hope that you will also provide additional information concerning any possible history of exposure (or non-exposure) to air pollution on the brief questionnaire which will be attached.

The communication will be mailed to you in a green window envelope marked "Chronic Disease Study—Personal." Please be on the lookout for it and please return the completed contents to us promptly. Thank you.

FRANK R. LEMON, M.D.

Times Have Changed

You great-grandmas and great-grandpas may have come through the gay nineties without much trouble. You grandmas and grandpas may have weathered the first World War without too much wear. You fathers and mothers may have endured the great World War II without too many scars. But times have changed. Today there is an all-out move to destroy boys and girls physically, morally, and spiritually. Liquor and tobacco interests intend to attack the physical well being of our youth by making drinking and smoking the things to do. Magazines and books strive to point out that it is impossible for youth to remain morally pure. Modern education denounces religious Biblical teaching as old-fashioned and outdated. Today, while you are cautious, youth is daring. Today you may be conservative, but boys and girls are explorative. You may be willing to live by a code of social standards, but today youth are challenging traditional taboos. This is a most dangerous age for boys and girls to be living in. There are multitudes of distractions to lower the eye level from the spiritual down to the human. Men are orbiting around the earth at thousands of miles an hour and plans are now laid for the conquest of the moon. While all of this is taking place, the nations stand at the very brink of nuclear suicide. Say what you want about the olden days, but remember, times have changed.

Our youth are living in the closing hours of earth's history and they must not only be made aware of it, they must be made ready for it. The readying process must be speeded up, and the Pathfinder program is one of the processes that works. The Pathfinder program has been immensely successful, but there are still heights to reach in making the club privileges available to every Seventh-day Adventist boy and girl under skilled leadership. Pathfinder Day which has an honored place in the official church calendar is our opportunity to communicate our needs and objectives to the entire membership. It is this all-out support that will turn potential leaders toward Pathfinder leadership training and make parents anxious to have their sons and daughters belong. Where there is an established Pathfinder Club, this is a time to plan for advance. Most clubs need more leaders. If no club exists, Pathfinder Day should be an ideal occasion to spark the organization of a new club. Every Adventist boy and girl needs what the Pathfinder Club offers, and it is the responsibility of the church to provide the opportunity. The formula for success of Pathfinder Day is the same as for any other church program—a combination of leaders with a vision and thorough advanced planning and then the full support of the church. Remember the Pathfinder Day date, September 16, 1961. Every member—great-grandparents, grandparents, parents, Pathfinders, and all—should make this day the greatest day this fall.

Your Phone Will Ring

This is to tell you of the special plan to be used in the Review campaign next month—and of the special campaign subscription price. A plan has been worked out, and full information on it sent to every pastor and church missionary secretary, to set up a special telephoning committee to contact every home for a subscription to the Review. The price that will be given to you is the truly thrilling part—only $3.95 for the year. Yes, you read it correctly, only $3.95. Part of the explanation for this is a special underwriting plan by the local conferences and the General Conference, which shows how deeply they are all interested in having the Review in every home. Here is a price so low that just about every one can, indeed, subscribe. The cost is actually only 33 cents a month.

So when your phone rings sometime next month and someone asks you to subscribe, please tell them promptly that you will. Why deprive yourself of the weekly visits of the official organ of the church that will keep you always informed about the significant happenings in the church, and the prophesying happenings in the world. For example, the very first issues in 1962 will carry on-the-spot stories by our Review reporter on the World Council of Churches meeting in Delhi, India. This will be a most important meeting of all non-Catholic Christendom.

To be an intelligent, joyous Adventist you need the Review. Join the ever-enlarging family of Review readers—it is a good family to belong to. Know your church better, know prophetic world developments better, and best of all, know your Lord better, through reading the Review.

Squaw Valley Fine Arts Camp

Approximately 300 high-school-aged youth participated in a festival of fine arts in Squaw Valley which opened on Tuesday evening, August 8, and ended with a brilliant concert on Wednesday evening, August 16. The music camp was under the general direction of John F. Knipschild, coordinator, of the Southern California Conference; and Mildred Ostich, assistant coordinator, of the Northern California Conference. There was a staff of approximately 30 instructors in the various arts and music who participated in the ten-day session.

The daily program included classes in the morning with a brief physical education hour in the afternoon, and then classes in the evening. It was a very tightly-packed schedule and one that kept the participants busy in worthwhile and constructive activity.

The facilities at Squaw Valley were unique in that they offered many opportunities in recreation for the entire group. Included in the activities were a fascinating ascent on a chair lift, water skiing, golf, tennis, ice skating, and hiking.

The emphasis throughout the camp was upon proficiency in the various areas selected by the students. All those signed up for the Fine Arts Camp expressed a sincere appreciation for the fine staff and the splendid instruction they received in this third music camp which was made possible by the Pacific Union Conference.

Included among the instructors and staff were:

John F. Knipschild, coordinator,
Southern California Conference
Mildred Ostich, assistant coordinator,

Mention should be made, also, for the fine contribution made by two piano companies: A. R. Flemming Company, of Sacramento, who provided ten grand pianos, free of charge, for the use of the camp; and the Sato Music Company, of Mountain View, who contributed five Yamaha for the use of the camp. The management of the Squaw Valley Hotel did everything in their power to make the students and staff comfortable and contributed much to the over-all success of the program.

The high light of the ten-day session was Wednesday evening when the students presented their final dress recital for the community. Approximately 1,500 people were present on this occasion, and a real impact on the Squaw Valley community was made as they observed these students in the performance of the concert. Many parents and friends were present and all thoroughly enjoyed the results of the session.

Truly, this is a worth-while activity for the high-school-age group, and one of which we can be justly proud.

Expressions of thanks should be made, also, to the Pacific Union for making this camp possible and to the various academies who share their instructors for this ten-day training session.

We trust that in the future Fine Arts Camps of this type can be encouraged and planned that worthy students might gain this encouragement and experience during the summer season. We all look forward to the next Fine Arts Camp which we trust will be announced soon for next year.

To Our Members in the Pacific Union Conference:

This is a note of appreciation to all of you who contributed to the College of Medical Evangelists Offering last April 8, to make it the largest we have ever received (total offering in 1961 reached over $52,000). In fact, each union conference showed a gain over the previous year.

This offering is of great assistance to the work of our institution. We not only depend on this financial help to further our work, but we count on the interest and prayers of our church members throughout the world, who are interested in the progress of our program.

Now that the College of Medical Evangelists has expanded its program and has become Loma Linda University, we continue to solicit your interest and support in the work we are doing for the young people of the church.

Very sincerely yours,
GODFREY T. ANDERSON,
President,
Loma Linda University.

Alumni Serve Around the World

Five hundred twenty graduates of the College of Medical Evangelists (now Loma Linda University) have served in 53 overseas countries, according to a report of the university's Medical Extension and Placement Office. In addition, graduates are now serving in almost every state and province of the United States and Canada.

Representing various academic disciplines, the graduates serving overseas include one dentist, 14 dietitians, 10 medical technologists, 154 nurses, eight physical therapists, and 333 physicians. Their work has been not only to alleviate the suffering of humanity, but to bring Christ to countless men and women.

New calls for medical personnel are constantly arriving at the placement office, the report continued. "The willingness with which graduates sacrifice prestigious and prosperous private practices, as well as home and friends, to answer the urgent appeal of the mission field is truly heartening to those who had a part in their training.

"Their witness is a valuable asset to the work of the church as it attempts to fulfill the promise of Matthew 24:14, 'This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a witness unto all-nations,'" the report concluded.

National Association of Seventh-day Adventist Dentists

July 20 through 24, the National Association of Seventh-day Adventist Dentists, Northern California Chapter, held their fourth annual summer meeting at Kamloop Camp, Shasta Lake, California.

There was a full roster of services beginning Thursday evening with registration and supper; and Friday evening vespers under the general direction of Richard E. Battin, D.D.S., at which time the Northern California Conference public affairs secretary, W. B. Bristow, brought a devotional service to over 200 dentists and their friends gathered for the weekend services.

Under the general direction of Caleb Davidian, D.D.S., with divisions for the children and mission stories by the mission doctors, the Sabbath school was a real live event for all concerned. The eleven o'clock service was attended by over 250, and again Elder Bristow brought the message for the hour. The music was furnished by an impromptu orchestra composed of the doctors who had brought their instruments, making the natural setting in the wooded area ring with the joyous music unto the Lord.

Sabbath afternoon there were other suitable activities. Sundown vespers under the general direction of Mel MacKay, D.D.S., brought a very inspirational close to the Sabbath activities. After the vesper hour, there was a scientific session in which Dr. Battin introduced the speaker, Clinton Emmerson, D.D.S., of the University of Southern California, Department of Pedodontics. Colored slides accompanied his lecture, and many of the doctors were given the latest developments in the field of dentistry.

The offerings collected at this weekend meeting will be directed to the general missionary fund and used in general missionary projects.

Kamloop Camp is located on Shasta Lake just above Redding in a beautiful wooded section of northern California. All of those present enjoyed a real spiritual retreat, and many indicated their interest in further meetings of this kind in which they enjoyed fellowship with their fellow professional members as well as enjoying a weekend outing with their families. To the writer, it was a real pleasure to have the privilege of associating with this group in their spiritual retreat.

Faithful Stewards

By virtue of His creative power everything is owned by God. "The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein."—Psalm 24:1. "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the Lord of hosts."—Haggai 2:8.

God has entrusted His property to us, and, as faithful stewards, we should use it to His glory and for the advancement of His work throughout the world. Faithful stewards will return to God one tenth of all income according to the Scripture. "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts."—Malachi 3:10.

In ancient times the tithe was given to the tribe of Levi who had been appointed for the sacred service of the sanctuary. In New Testament times the apostle Paul approved the same method of support for the gospel ministry. He wrote: "Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? . . . Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel shall live of the gospel."—1 Cor. 9:13, 14.

Jesus himself approved tithe paying. In speaking to the scribes and Pharisees, He said, "Ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone."—Matthew 23:23.

The tithe is God's money. No one has a right to use it for his own benefit. Whether a person makes ten dollars or a thousand dollars a month, one tenth of his income belongs to God.

Wonderful blessings are promised by God to the one who is faithful in giving an honest tithe. He has promised to open the windows of heaven and pour out such a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it. Furthermore He promises to "rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts."—Malachi 3:11.

To withhold tithe is to rob God: "Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed Thee? In tithes and offerings."—Malachi 3:8.

"Like the Sabbath, a tenth of the increase is sacred; God has reserved it for Himself. He will carry forward His work upon the earth with the increase of the means that He has entrusted to man."—Vol. 3, p. 395.

Tithing is one test that determines our fitness for an entrance into heaven. "Our Heavenly Father bestows gifts and solicits a portion back, that He may test us whether we are worthy to have the gift of everlasting life."—Ibid., p. 408.

Someone may say, I have a large debt to pay and I cannot pay tithe just now. "A. A. Hyde, a millionaire manufacturer says he began paying tithe when he was one hundred thousand dollars in debt. He says he argued with that thought until one day it flashed upon him that God was his first creditor. Then he began paying God first, and all other creditors were eventually paid in full. If a man owes you money, it would be wise business policy on your part to encourage him to pay his debt to God first."—Sunday School Times.

As faithful stewards let us be loyal in tithing so that the work of God will advance and the coming of Christ be hastened.

E. R. OSMUNSON.

First Navajo Camp Meeting at Monument Valley

The first Navajo camp meeting was held at the Monument Valley Mission on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 8 and 9, in the mission church. Elder E. F. Finck, the Nevada-Utah Conference home missionary and Sabbath school secretary, was the speaker at the services, giving study to a chain of topics from creation to Eden restored.

Tom Holliday, the mission interpreter, was the translator for all the services. Deep interest was manifested by the Navajos in attendance.

At the same time that meetings were conducted for the adults, children's meetings were held in the church school room under the able direction of Mrs. Stringer of the Dove Creek, Colorado, church and her daughter, Miss Ruth Ann Stringer.

Altogether there was an attendance of around 100 each day. Free noon lunches were served by the mission to all the Indians in attendance and a final supper at the close of the last meeting.

Two-day camp meetings are very popular with the Indians and are conducted by all the other active Protestant missions among the Navajos. For the last several years the Indians coming to the Monument Valley Mission have asked about a camp meeting. They were happy for this first one and are already looking forward to another one to be held next year.

Torrance Effort

With final approval from the Torrance city officials, the Hardy-Roy Evangelistic Team shifted into high gear in final preparations for a combined evangelistic effort of six churches. The Crusade for Christ series, with Elder Gerald Hardy as speaker, will open its first meeting on Saturday night, September 16, at 7:30. A large tent with a seating capacity of 600 will be erected on the corner of Sepulveda and Hawthorne boulevards immediately following the Labor Day holiday. This is one of the choicest lots in the entire area, because it stands just directly across the street from a large shopping center. This effort is a six-church campaign with Pastor Glen Goffar of the Torrance church as host, and the following pastors participating also: Elder Erling Calkins of Hawthorne, Elder Ray Alderson of Gardena, Elder Norman Baker of Redondo Beach, Elder Albion Hoff of San Pedro, and Brother A. D. Stearn of Wilmington. Meetings will be held Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights through the month of October. More than ample parking facilities will be provided, and a children's nursery is being planned. There will be special programs for the children ages eight years and older.

An earnest appeal is being made from crusade headquarters for anyone having names or knowledge of former Adventists, backsliders, or those with definite interest, to take a little time to send the names to the headquarters. The names may be sent to any of the pastors of the churches mentioned, or to Ernest A. Roy, 712 W. 212th St., Torrance, California.

Elder Hardy, conference evangelist who is being loaned to us from the Southeastern Conference, has spent several years in the Torrance area and is well known to many here. Plan now to invite your friends to attend this series and share in the wonderful blessings God is waiting to pour out on all who partake in it. Remember to be sure to send your names of interest and former members, immediately.

Bellflower Church School

The Bellflower Church School is proud to announce its "A" rating recently received from the local conference rating board. It is one of the few schools in the conference to hold this ideal rating.

The next term will begin September 5, and the school looks forward to another good year. Of the staff of six teachers, four have their Bachelor's degree or above. The faculty also includes a staff of two music teachers for choral and band music and an accordion band. The school operates two buses, serving from Los Altos, Lakewood, Bellflower, Basic tuition rates are comparable to other Adventist schools in the conference. The discount schedule is as follows: For two children from any one family attending there will be a discount of five per cent; for three children, a discount of ten per cent; for four children, a discount of 15 per cent; and for five children, a discount of 20 per cent.

No Recorder next week.*Results of Bellflower-Lakewood Meetings

On Saturday night, April 1, Elders Alden Sage and Ernie Roy began evangelistic meetings in the Bellflower-Lakewood church, and the meetings continued four nights a week until June 9. Follow-up work has been conducted by Myrtle Alexander, Bible instructor, and the pastor, John Rhodes.

A baptism was held on August 5 as a result of interest begun in these meetings. A total thus far of 26 have joined the church because of this successful evangelistic effort. Twenty-eight have been baptized thus far this year.

During the early portion of the meetings, attendance ranged upwards of 300. After the testing truths were presented, attendance still held up well and continued through the closing night.

Brother Lloyd Kinsey served faithfully as projectionist and Brother Fred Dodge, the church's head deacon, efficiently organized the ushers. Wives of the evangelists, Mrs. Alden Sage and Mrs. Ernie Roy, were assisted by Myrtle Alexander, Bible instructor; Mrs. John Rhodes, wife of the pastor; Mrs. James Jetton, head receptionist of the church; and several of the church receptionists in meeting folk at the door. Mrs. Polly Norheim headed a nursery care center each night so that families with small children could attend the meetings.

Eternity alone will reveal the lasting benefits of such a meeting. Many souls will yet join the church. Some followed Elder Sage to hear him again in his recent Compton church effort. Many of our members also supported his Compton effort.

The church supported the meetings well in offerings of about $1,000.

Baptisms are expected to continue from these meetings and the number will probably reach at least 30 by the year end.

Sabbath, July 22, was a high day for the Brownsville church. It was a day of blessing notwithstanding the fact that it was partially a farewell occasion for our pastor, Elder E. J. This large group of nearly 180 young people are attending opening exercises of the Vacation Bible school at Van Nuys church. Beginning the program Sister Sally Sasek sang, "It may not be on the mountain's height, Nor over the stormy sea; It may not be at the battle's front My Lord will have need of me; But if by a still small voice He calls to paths that I do not know, I'll answer, dear Lord, with my hand in Thine, I'll go where you want me to go." And it ended as all sang, "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love!" The charge the Lord gave Joshua, "Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest" was repeated with the additional remark, "God's servants are sometimes almost overwhelmed by the opposition of the enemy, but we are to remember that in Chapter 1 of Revelation the Lord's ministers are represented as stars in the right hand of Jesus. In Him there are no failures." A special feature was three prayers for God's blessing in a greater measure of the Holy Spirit to attend Elder Royer and family as they take up duties in their new field of labor.

Following this we drove to the bank of a stream where Elder Royer baptized two of our young men. It was a good climax of the day and possibly of his labors for the Brownsville church.

The Work at Banning

Already our new youth chapel and Sabbath school rooms are proving too small to accommodate those who attend from week to week. Already we are looking forward to the time when the auditorium can be built. Our new pews seat about 90 but the pews are filled, the mothers' room is filled, and last Sabbath a row of chairs was filled. For this we rejoice because many of the seats are filled with visitors.

Yesterday a lady attended for the first time. She has been listening to the Adventist Hour on television and was impressed with the message. After hearing Elder Harold Flory give a stirring talk on the subject of Christian education, she said, "I am convinced that this is the church I have been longing for."

At a recent Sabbath service six patients of one of our doctors were present. The Banning church is fortunate in having for members professional men who are all highly respected in this community. In the medical group, Drs. Reeves, Eden Smith, and Rothe have recently been joined by Dr. Rausten. An osteopathic physician, Dr. Stone-man, has been a great help to our church. Dr. Evans, a dentist, and his wife have exceptional musical talent. Two morticians are well thought of by the people of Banning. Recently Mrs. Johns was giving out literature in the neighborhood of our new church. One lady was not interested until she found it to be Adventist literature. She had been so favorably impressed with the kindness of one of our morticians in a bereavement that she was definitely interested in our message. In all of our contacts we have been deeply impressed with the influence of our professional and business men.

While one of our members was distributing literature she met a Catholic lady. "Oh," she said, "come in and sit down." Then she told of the Christian spirit toward an unfortunate girl which one of our Adventist ladies had manifested. "If all Adventists are like her," she said, "with such love and Christian spirit, I would bow down to the Adventists the rest of my life."

Our pastor, Elder Harold Flory, is holding studies and plans to conduct Sunday night meetings in the youth chapel. The Lord is blessing His work in Banning.

Poway Church Baptism

On Sabbath morning, July 12, eight precious souls followed the example of their Lord in baptism. These were the first fruits of a very intensive and successful evangelistic effort that was held in the Poway Valley.

The Poway church was organized about a year ago from a branch Sabbath school that was supported by the Escondido church under the leadership of their former pastor, Elder Perry Green.

The evangelistic meetings started on Saturday night, June 24, when Gerald Shown in picture are those baptized on July 12 at Poway, also a few others who are looking forward to baptism in the Escondido church. From left to right, back row: Elder and Mrs. Gerald Hardy, evangelist; Judy and Diana Miklos, two young people who played the organ and piano; Elder and Mrs. William C. Risley, pastor of the Escondido church; and Brother and Sister Lee Grady, associate pastor of the Escondido district, leading in the Poway church.

Hardy, the speaker for the Prophetic Crusade for Christ, presented the message "Facing the Future With Confidence." The meetings continued every night for two weeks and on Wednesday and Friday nights of a follow-up week.

During this series there were 22 decisions. Others have been baptized since the July 12 baptism.

The prayers of the RECORDER readers are solicited as Elder Hardy continues his evangelistic program.

Home Nursing Class Completed

Sunday evening, August 13, was a memorable evening in the Perris Fifth Street church.

During a program of health talks and song, the ten students who had completed the requirements for the 36-hour course in Home Nursing, taught by Mrs. Letitia Samuels, R.N., received their certificates. Each of the class members took part in the program.

The persons receiving their certificates were: Richer Powell, Gussie Vivian, Hannah McGriff, Mozella Smith, Dora Banks, Mary E. Perry, Modies Randall, Stella Stroud, Floretta Carter, and Mollie Hundley.

The program also included a showing of the film "That They May Live." This is a film owned by the California Electric Power Company which teaches artificial respiration by the direct mouth-to-mouth method.

We congratulate the home nursing class members upon the completion of their course and ask God's blessing upon them as they work for the Master.

Vacation Bible School

One hundred and seventeen children received certificates in the closing exercises of the Garden Grove Vacation Bible school on the evening of July 27. Thirty-seven of these certificates went to non-Adventist children.

Total enrollment during the nine-day session reached 141 with 70 children from 50 non-Adventist families coming. Parents of these children were enthusiastic over the Bible school, and at least two families plan to continue sending the children to Sabbath school.

Because the theme of the school was on the Bible, God's Holy Word, a local memorial park donated four lovely white Bibles which were presented to the four children who brought the most friends for the entire session. A total of 20 children were brought by the four winners who were Roberta Barnett and Kathy Stewart from the Primary and Ronald Neilsen and Marlene Garner from the Kindergarten.

Of the 24 members forming the staff, nine were teen-agers who did a wonderful job and helped make the Bible school a complete success. While working with the children, one member of the staff made her decision to be re-baptized into the church. We hope other decisions for Christ will be made as personal contact is made with the homes of these students during the coming year.

Traveling Through Central America With the Youth

With the best wishes and prayers of everyone at the Soquel camp meeting, the last day of the Youth Congress, July 16, our Youth Mission Band embarked on their journey to Central America, under the enthusiastic leadership of John S. McIntosh, Missionary Volunteer secretary of the conference. Accompanying the nine dedicated young people were Elder Joseph Espinosa, our Spanish-speaking evangelist, and his wife, Dina, a nurse who would be assisting Dr. Kent Taylor, of Hollister, in the medical phase of the missionary venture. Here is a brief resumé of the Youth Mission Band's travels from California to Costa Rica, and a few excerpts from Elder McIntosh's notes:

July 21 and 22—Puebla, Mexico—On Sabbath the Mission Band attended the Mexican Youth Congress in Puebla and visited with Elders R. F. Mattison, division MV advisor of the Mexican Union; Glen Maxson, advisory member of the Inter-American Pacific Press Publishing Association; David H. Baasch, division administrative advisor of the Mexican Union; and Theodore Lucas, MV secretary of the General Conference.

July 23 and 24—Tehuantepec and Comitán, Mexico—The Band stayed overnight in these towns. Elder McIntosh wrote that since entering Mexico they had seen some unusually beautiful country, and that the weather had been cool and refreshing and everything was green and Eden-like. One of the most interesting places they had seen so far was the area north and east of Tuxtla Gutierrez, Mexico. In this very high altitude Indians live very much as they have for centuries.

July 25—Guatemala City, Guatemala—Elder D. C. Prenier, home missionary secretary of Central American Union Mission, showed the group around Guatemala City. Everyone was pleased with the mission project.

Note from J. McIntosh—"Our little Band has been over some very rough roads. The roads from the Mexico-Guatemala border to Quezaltenango, Guatemala, were the most rugged I have seen. It took almost all one day to drive 100 miles. We had to push and pull the "burrito" (van) over some of the steeper places on the El Tapon (shown on the map as a gravel and stone road). A few days we averaged only 20 to 25 miles per hour."

July 26—El Salvador, San Salvador—The Youth Mission Band visited our fine 350-membership church in El Salvador. Thus far on their trip, El Salvador was the most modern city they had seen. It took 10 days of hard driving to reach El Salvador.

July 27 — La Trinidad and Managua, Nicaragua — A note from J. McIntosh stated: "Everyone in our group is thrilled with the trip. We have been throwing copies of the El Centinela to natives all along the way. It is interesting to see them jump from horses and ox carts and run to pick up the papers thrown from our car windows."

July 28, 29 and 30 — San Jose, Costa Rica — Welcoming our little Band to San Jose, Elder L. L. Reile, president of the Central American Union Mission, hospitably conducted them to comfortable quarters. The travelers had gone over 4,700 miles since leaving California.

Sabbath morning the Youth Mission Band conducted the church service in San Jose, the MV afternoon meeting at our college in Alavela (just outside of San Jose), and directed the evening social there. They enjoyed this experience very much.

August 3 to 7 — Limon, Costa Rica — Everyone in the mission is so pleased that the young people have come to be "witnesses for Christ." Generally speaking, the people are very friendly. The young missionaries are beginning to feel at home, even though they are in a place so remote and strange.

Note from J. McIntosh — "Our evangelistic meetings are in progress and will continue through August 19. The meetings are well attended by around 850 persons nightly. We are conducting an extensive visitation program and hope to have a good baptism before we leave.

"We have a fine group of young people with us. Although we are experiencing very hot, humid, and rainy weather, it does not dampen their ardor for the Lord's work. They are helping with visitations, the music, and the meetings. Each has some responsibility, such as the projector, the lights, playing the piano, or ushering.

"Dr. Taylor and Mrs. Espinosa have been visiting the little villages around Limon, and on an average they treat 100 patients a day. Accompanying the medical team, one young person goes out each day to help and see what is being done for the needy. A lady suffering from a two-year-old snake bite was treated by our team. She had been bitten by the very poisonous Teriopelo snake. The night before meeting our team she had dreamed that a white doctor would come and treat her."

Together with our consecrated young missionaries, Elder McIntosh prays and trusts that the Lord will continue to bless their efforts and invites you to remember the Youth Mission Band in your prayers.

MRS. ROSE OTTER, Secretary to
JOHN S. MCINTOSH,
Missionary Volunteer Department.

New Menlo Park Church

July 29 was a memorable day for the members of the Menlo Park area, for on that Sabbath afternoon a new church was organized. "This is a day to which we have long looked forward with great anticipation," stated Pastor Ted T. Jones as he gave a historic sketch of the development of the new church group.

At the afternoon organizational program Elder W. S. Lee of the Pacific Union Regional Department delivered the message. Elder D. E. Venden, conference president, led the organizing phase of the program. Other ministers present were Elders W. C. Webb, J. E. Bynum, N. G. Banks, H. A. Lindsey, and Pastor E. A. White.

Everyone was made happy when Brother Gerald C. Lashier, assistant treasurer of the conference, announced that 42 persons had become charter members. Sixteen of these were new converts baptized during the six-month evangelistic campaign conducted by Pastor Ted T. Jones, Elder John DuNesme, and Pastor Bob Dent. This new church is full of enthusiasm and looks forward to going over the 50 mark in membership by September 1, as a number of people are preparing for baptism.

An audience of over 325 thrilled to the singing of the choir, male chorus, quartet, ladies chorus, and soloists from another new church — the Elmhurst church in East Oakland. The afternoon program was filled with good hymns and spirituals sung by these groups and other fine musicians from Menlo Park, San Jose, and San Francisco.

Ted T. Jones, pastor-evangelist of the New Menlo Park church.

We pray that God's richest blessing will attend the members of this new church as they go forward in faith to be witnesses in this city where no Adventist church had ever been established. Ted T. Jones will pastor the new church.

Ordination of John G. Kerbs

John G. Kerbs of Santa Clara, California, was awarded the right of the Gospel ministry through ordination at the recent Central California camp meeting at Santa Cruz. Elder Kerbs and his family are missionary appointees to Africa.

The ordination charge was given by D. E. Venden, president of the Central California Conference. R. R. Bietz, president of the Pacific Union Conference, gave the ordination address.

"The special commission to the Adventist church ministry follows a period of in-field service," explained Elder Venden.

Elder Kerbs was born in Shattuck, Oklahoma, has lived in Texas and Kansas, and grew up in Sacramento, California, where his parents still reside. Following his graduation in 1956 from La Sierra College, he accepted the position of assistant director of literature sales in Nevada-Utah. In 1958 he assumed a similar post in Southeastern California. In 1960 he was promoted to director of literature sales for the Central California Conference.

Elder and Mrs. Kerbs and their two boys announce that they will be leaving to take up residence in Johannesburg,

Pathfinder Leadership Camp September 8 Through 10

The Central California Conference Pathfinder Leadership Camp will be held September 8 through 10 at the Wawona Youth Camp in Yosemite National Park. Invited to this encampment are all Pathfinder leaders and others who are interested in the Pathfinder program. Families of these individuals are also invited. Supervised play for the children will be conducted while the adults take advantage of the meetings and the crafts that will be offered.

One high light of the camp will be the animals which are in the camp zoo and museum. Earl Allen, Pathfinder director from Dos Palos, whose picture shows him holding a wild bobcat, will be showing the animals. Mr. Ralph Swensen, premedical student at La Sierra College, will demonstrate his ability with reptiles. His wonderful collection of snakes, ranging from the Sidewinder Rattlesnake to Boa Constrictors from Africa, will be there to be observed.

Elder L. E. Davidson, newly-arrived home missionary secretary of the Central California Conference, and David DeWaal, formerly of Africa, will be among the speakers for the weekend. Elder John S. McIntosh, who will have just returned from Costa Rica, will give us some news of the Youth Mission Band's trip. All in all, it will be a full

Yavapines Summer Camp a Success

Eighty-three campers very much enjoyed the activities of one full week of camp among the pines at Prescott, Arizona. A total of 131 honor awards were given out at the campfire circle on Saturday night. These awards represented certain accomplishment in various areas of nature study and craft work.

Fifteen campers joined the Bible Explorer Class and expressed their desire to study further, leading to baptism.

Mrs. Della Cales' nature museum attracted much attention. Among the specimens were a live rattlesnake, gophers, and a turtle. A shell collection display added to the exhibit.

Mrs. E. E. Pohle's Rocks and Minerals class took several excursions and brought back some interesting specimens.

Our thanks to each staff member for his excellent leadership. We shall look forward to another great camp in 1962.

Aloha to the Mayberrys

Our fondest aloha was extended to Elder and Mrs. Darrell Mayberry and their children, Kenneth, Keith, and Randy, who arrived in Honolulu on August 7 to take up duties as pastor of the Wahiawa and Aiea churches on the Elder and Mrs. Darrell Mayberry and sons.

Island of Oahu. Elder Mayberry is a graduate of La Sierra College and his wife, Norma Jean who also attended La Sierra College, is a graduate nurse. They have been serving in Southeastern California Conference since 1953. Much of the intervening time was spent in evangelistic work. They have also served in pastoral work in North Park, Ocean Beach, Blythe, Indio, Palm Springs, and most recently as assistant pastor of the Paradise Valley church.

We welcome these fine workers to our staff of dedicated workers serving in Hawaii.

Although we have had an unusual number of changes in personnel here in Hawaii this year, our staff is now complete and settled. We are anticipating great blessings of heaven as we forge ahead in this Island Paradise.

Elder Gordon Collier with his wife and little girl, whose place the Mayberrys were called to fill, has returned to the mainland after his term of service and is now located on the ministerial staff of Paradise Valley Sanitarium church. We deeply miss the Colliers, as we do all our returning workers. The Colliers gave strong consecrated leadership to the churches they served both on Maui and on Oahu.

B. W. MATTISON, President.

Hawaiian Mission Academy

Several weeks ago it was my privilege to stop by the office of Dean J. Turner Van and Storage Company in St. Helena, California, to determine when the furnishings of our new mission personnel would be booked for shipment to Hawaii. Because of the shipping strike, most of our workers had arrived in Hawaii only to find out that it was impossible for their personal effects to be shipped. We were most happy to hear that through the diligent effort of Brother Turner, we had bookings for nine large sea van boxes which contained the furniture of most of our new workers.

Pictured with Brother Turner is the large truck loaded with the sea van boxes containing the furniture for the following families: Brethren G. A. Hicks and S. A. West, teachers for Hawaiian Mission Academy; Elder L. E. Fletcher, home missionary secretary for the Hawaiian Mission; Brother D. L. Brown, who is with our new Castle Memorial Hospital; and Brother D. R. Watts, principal of Mauna Loa School in Hilo.

We were sorry to hear that bookings were not available for several of our other incoming workers. This, of course, is due to the heavy demands for supplies and the back-log caused by the shipping strike. We trust and pray that before long all of our workers will have the necessities of life as they take up the responsibilities of spreading the gospel here in the Hawaiian Islands.

HARVEY F. VOTH, Principal,
Hawaiian Mission Academy.

"One in 20,000" Makes Big Hit at Fair

Several girls fainted at the showing of "One in 20,000" recently at the Kaneohe Windward Fair. Nevertheless, an average of 30 to 40 persons crowded the aisle to see each showing of this colorful temperance film. There were about 15 showings for three evenings.

The words, "Live Wisely, Live Healthfully, Today!" were printed across the booth. Also, the words "The American Temperance Society presents 'One in 20,000,' an authentic cancer operation," were lettered.

We were grateful for this opening. Other groups expressed their desire to borrow this film. We know that the temperance work is an important entering wedge in our work.

News Notes

✓ Brother Orville Butler, our mission secretary - treasurer, recently returned from his visit to many interesting places around the world. He brought back a report of our work in many places and told of the good courage and devotion of our people in these far-away lands. He also stated that the tension and unrest of peoples everywhere was noticeable. We are happy Brother Butler is back safely with us.

✓ Elder Lavern Peterson was out of the office for three weeks conducting Pathfinder camps on the out-islands. Reports have come of good attendance and a wonderful time in these camps. I know our young people enjoy his leadership and help in their program.

✓ Brother and Sister Guthrie have arrived as permanent residents of Hawaii. He reports that plans for the Castle Memorial Hospital are coming along very well. The bids are to be in very soon and will be opened and one chosen the first part of September. Ground breaking will follow immediately. This big adventure in our medical work needs your daily prayers.

✓ Elders Dan Dirksen and Clinton Lee from the Pacific Union Conference office will be in Hawaii for Week of Prayer meetings, church officers meetings, and the annual Workers Meeting during the first two weeks of October.

yard have been painted. The feeding operation has been greatly facilitated by building new mangers in the fence lines, thus eliminating the opening and closing of gates during feedings. Most of the old fence has been replaced by new. The creamery is acquiring a sweet-water unit and plate cooler for processing milk. One hundred thirty cows are now being milked and this number is expected to increase to 150 during the school year. The farm has recently acquired a new 3010 John Deere tractor and loader.

The poultry unit, which is operated in connection with the farm and dairy, has acquired a crawler tractor, "mighty mouse," to clean droppings from cages and push them into the spreader. A new cleaner, grader, and candler has been purchased to care for the eggs. This unit will clean 6,000 eggs per hour with four persons operating it. During the past school year a major change-over was made from large cages to small ones with only one or two birds in each cage. The cages now have a capacity of 7,100. The changes and improvements have been reflected in definite financial gains.

For several years prior to 1960-61, the farm and dairy were a liability to the college, but with good management and the many improvements made during the last year this is no longer true.

Commencement Service

Forty-two students were graduated from Pacific Union College at the commencement service in Irwin Hall on Thursday night, August 17. Twenty-one received the eight-quarter Associate of Science degree. Among these two-year nursing graduates was Ellen Hardy, a Navajo Indian girl who will be returning to Monument Valley to work in the Seventh-day Adventist hospital there. Eleven received the Bachelor of Arts degree, seven received the Master of Arts degree, and three the Bachelor of Science degree. Two were graduated in absentia.

Elder Robert Olson, new chairman of the Department of Religion at PUC, based his address to the graduates upon the class prayer, "That we might see today with the eyes of tomorrow." He urged his hearers to look through the eyes of tomorrow and have faith in the future. The same promises which were made to Abraham, Moses, and John the Baptist concerning God's hand in the future are also made to us, he pointed out.

Faculty Colloquium

"The teacher as an example of excellence" will be the theme of the PUC faculty colloquium at Hoberg's which is a resort area on Cobb Mountain about 40 miles north of Angwin. The schedule as released by the president's office is as follows: September 18, 4:30, Dr. A. G. Maxwell, "The Teacher as an Example of Excellence in Physical Health"; 7:30, Dr. J. P. Stauffer, "The Teacher as an Example of Excellence in Voice and Speech"; September 19, 10:30, Dr. I. R. Neilsen, "The Teacher as an Example of Intellectual Excellence"; 7:30, Elder R. W. Olson, "The Teacher as an Example of Spiritual Excellence"; September 20, 10:30 and 4:30, a panel discussion under the direction of Drs. T. W. Benedict and L. W. Sargent, "The Teacher's Responsibility for the Student's Development in Ex-

This high-voltage transformer, 150,000 volt, was one of 13 pieces unloaded at Pacific Union College recently in connection with the new neutron generator. The transformer provides the accelerating voltage for the deuterium ions which strike a target and produce the neutrons. An engineer from Texas Nuclear Corporation, which supplied the equipment, came and stayed at the college for one week to assist in getting the equipment installed and operating. Assisting with the unloading are, left to right, Prof. D. E. Martz, associate professor of physics; Chuck Wilcox, a senior physics major who is working for the Physics Department; and Prof. Darrell Robinson, assistant professor of chemistry.

Farm and Dairy Improvements

Twenty students working at the college farm and dairy have earned $9,700 this summer, according to Mr. Leland Barnhart, manager. Many desirable changes and improvements have been made recently, reports Mr. Barnhart. The creamery, milking parlor, and the welded pipe fencing around the farm

Getting Away From Dull Routine

This year I had a vacation that I think was about ideal. With my family I flew back into the hinterlands of British Columbia where we spent some relaxing, carefree days on a beautiful lake, nestled among the towering, snow-capped peaks and fed by the melting snows and glaciers. We were 160 miles from the nearest railway station, with no television, no telephone, no morning paper. There, among the massive trees, the beautiful wild flowers, with bears and deer and other wild life close by, we really relaxed. I wish every one of our members could have been there.

About the next best way to spend some time in a place like this would be to read two new books now ready.

Wilderness Parish, by Charles Cooper, gives the reader a graphic, close-up picture of pioneer life in this very same area. Without leaving North America the Coopers found real adventure, and also were a great blessing to the people of that area. In the Caribou country of Canada he lived with his family under primitive frontier circumstances, and ministered to the needs of the people in his parish scattered over 100,000 square miles. This story will interest you, and it is informative too.

They Came to Wrong Way Home is a very similar story written by Jan S. Doward, a lover of nature and a real pioneer. This story of struggle and hardship in Alaska will be of particular interest to youth who have a desire to do some pioneering.

Get away from the humdrum duties of home and the hustle and bustle of the city, for a few hours at least, as you pioneer with these two authors.

Wilderness Parish is $4. They Came to Wrong Way Home is $3.50. Order from your Book and Bible House or your church missionary secretary.
