God Needs Men and Money

The work of God around the world must expand to provide for the needs of the ever-increasing population. The Missions Extension Offering on September 14 provides an opportunity for each and every Seventh-day Adventist to participate in extending the work among the millions who need to know of the love of God.

In Africa today there is a great intellectual awakening among the people. One of the best agencies God has given to the church for keeping pace with this great awakening in Africa is to provide message-filled books and magazines for the millions who are searching for a better way of life. The Advent Press in Accra, Ghana, was established 25 years ago to meet this growing need. This publishing house serves the nine independent nations of West Africa with their population of 55,000,000 people. Two hundred languages and dialects are spoken in West Africa, but the Advent Press publishes literature in only five languages. There are over one hundred full-time literature evangelists in this large field and many times they have to wait six months for certain books. The bottleneck is in the bindery of the Advent Press. A book-folding machine is a must to relieve this situation.

Indonesia with its teeming millions must be evangelized. How can this be done?—by well-trained, well-educated young people, of course. To fill this urgent need, Percy Paul, president of the Indonesia Union College, comes to you with this earnest appeal from Java:

"Indonesia Union College, situated north of Bandung, Java, is a growing senior college. We are happy to know that you are willing and anxious to help materially toward a new dormitory for men.

"The 1963-64 school year will see a four-year college program of liberal arts started on this scenic campus. The administration building will be completed very soon. The girls' dormitory is adequate at present, but the boys' dormitory is entirely too small. Triple-bunk beds with two boys in each bunk is almost impossible in a room twelve feet by seven feet, but we have had to do it, for there is no other alternative. The desire for an education is tremendous in Indonesia.

"The work is going rapidly in Indonesia and workers are urgently needed from the one and only college to carry the message. We hope and pray that the hearts of our believers around the world will respond with liberality so that the needed funds for a dormitory can be realized soon."

Southern Africa has many needs and she is calling for help from you and from me. E. D. Hanson, field secretary of the Southern African Division, tells of the great need to expand the medical work in Port Shepstone, Natal:

"Mr. Engar, who is a Muslim, asked if we would be prepared to operate a clinic and maternity home for Indians in Port Shepstone, Natal, South Africa, if he would sponsor the project. The result is that he made available to us an upstairs section of a building which he owned completely equipped for a maternity home. We are now operating the maternity home under his sponsorship but controlled by us. We also operate a day clinic that is sponsored by Mr. Kahn, another Muslim. Mr. Engar, of course, is anxious that we expand our program and start a small hospital. He is willing to raise a good part of the money from his friends, but we are not at present financially prepared to expand our program to this extent. He is going to Karachi, Pakistan, shortly to visit our hospital to get some ideas on how we operate. I am sure he will return with greater ideas than we can hope to fit into. The maternity home recently had a baby show for all of the babies that had been born in the home since it began."

Yes, West Africa, Indonesia, and South Africa have many needs and the millions in these lands are calling for help from you and from me. The annual Missions Extension Offering will be taken on Sabbath, September 14. The church needs men and money to extend the kingdom of God into the homes and into the hearts of people everywhere. May your heart be touched with the needs and may your response be sufficient to help reach the goal of $125,000.

The art class was a very popular feature as taught by Lester Quade of Pacific Union College. The class went on several field trips to do "location" drawings and paintings.

Music Camp Hosts 235

Beautiful new Rio Lindo Academy near Healdsburg, California, played host to 235 budding and aspiring musicians from August 4 to 14 at the fifth annual Pacific Union Music and Fine Arts Camp. Wayne P. Thurber, principal of Golden Gate Academy, together with a staff of 30, including dormitory deans and recreation director, were busy from the crack of dawn until 10:30 every night providing instruction and inspiration to enthusiastic groups.

Featured at the music camp were the King's Heralds. Three of the radio quartet found a moment to visit with some of the campers.

Each day started with joint worship followed by instructional and practice periods for orchestra, band, general chorus, choir, madrigal singers, art classes, counterpoint instruction, etc. From 1 until 4 each afternoon, time was allotted for recreational activities such as swimming, golfing, water skiing, and softball. Evenings included concerts by guest performers, with the last two nights featuring mass concert recitals by the many vocal and other musical groups. Everyone participated in one way or another.

Rehearsal time for the band.

One of the popular features of this year's camp was the art section in which those with interests and skills in drawing and painting met several hours each day both in the classroom and out on location.

Not only were skills and aptitudes trained and developed at this ten-day camp, but campers and instructors alike went away with the real picture in mind and the true theme of music in their hearts. To each was pointed that wonderful day coming soon when all of the redeemed will join in the mass chorus and sing "The Song of Moses and the Lamb."

Appreciation

Thank you for your support of the work at Monument Valley by giving on Sabbath, August 31, when the offering was taken. One letter reached me from a member who enclosed ten dollars with this note: "I will be unable to attend church tomorrow, so will enclose my offering."

Did you miss the opportunity to give to develop the program at Monument Valley? You can still turn your gift in to your church treasurer—mark it Indian Offering.

W. J. Blacker.

Alcohol and Adventists

What is alcohol? Is alcoholism a disease? Who is an alcoholic? How many alcoholics are there in the world today? What does this mean to me?

The answers to these and many other questions about alcohol and alcoholism will appear in the September-October Listen in an article entitled "Alcohol Facts for Laymen," by Dr. Winton H. Beaven, associate secretary of the National Committee for the Prevention of Alcoholism.

This is the issue of Listen that is to be placed in the hands of every Seventh-day Adventist during the month of October for the World Temperance Day program, October 26. It is hoped that every member will read this publication and become closely acquainted with its objectives. Then pass it on to a friend on this share-your-faith Sabbath.

Stewart Udall, secretary of the Interior, is our cover personality, and W. A. Fagal of Faith for Today appears in a trick-or-treat inspirational article that is most appropriate for autumn time. In an exclusive interview, Secretary Udall told the editors he is greatly concerned for the preservation of our natural resources, which he calls "the highest form of national thrift."

Ellen G. White once said: "Of all who claim to be numbered among the friends of temperance, Seventh-day Adventists should stand in the front ranks."—Temperance, p. 233.

Both physically and spiritually, temperance is a life-saving message. With the support of every Seventh-day Adventist, we can reach at least 300,000 with the temperance message in the World Temperance Day program. And so, remember, on World Temperance Day in your church you may save a life and a soul by sharing your faith through the temperance phase of the Third Angel's Message.

Temperance Department,
General Conference of SDA.

"A Light to Walk By"

Something new in public relations programming called "A Light to Walk By" is now available for radio stations. It is a four-and-one-half-minute devotional capsule—each one a commentary on one of the direct quotes of Christ. The program is designed as a public service of the local radio station carrying the program and the community Seventh-day Adventist church.

If you wish further details, write to your conference radio-TV secretary.

Vice President Meets Open-heart Surgery Team

U.S. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson met with the six-member Loma Linda University open-heart surgery team in Los Angeles August 9. He complimented the Seventh-day Adventist doctors for the contribution to international good will made by their recently-completed surgical tour of Asia.

At the meeting, team cardiologist C.
Joan Coggin, M.D., assistant professor of medicine, made the Vice President an associate member of the Mended Hearts Club, Inc., a national organization of persons who have successfully undergone heart operations. She gave Mr. Johnson a club pin and membership card.

Associate memberships are conferred upon persons who have made significant contributions to heart surgery. The Vice President was recognized for his role in arranging for the surgical team to spend five weeks in Pakistan performing the first open-heart surgeries ever done in that country.

Pakistan President Mohammed Ayub
Khan, like Mr. Johnson, holds an honorary Mended Hearts Club membership. His was conferred during a ceremony in which he thanked the U.S. team as it left Pakistan. The group operated at Seventh-day Adventist hospitals in Karachi, Taipei, and Bangkok.

As he received his pin, the Vice President said, "You have no idea how proud your country is of your achievement. What you have accomplished must fill you with deep satisfaction."

Conference-Wide Laymen's Rally to Stress World Witness

An open Bible in the hand of witnessing laymen will be the theme of a Southern California Conference Laymen's Rally on Sabbath afternoon, September 21, at the White Memorial church.

Introducing the rally will be missionaries from various parts of the world with experiences of how laymen are spreading "The Word That Orbits the World." Climaxing the stories of world witnessing will be personal interviews with laymen in Southern California whose witness has resulted in soul winning during 1963.

With an emphasis upon techniques for witnessing in the future, the new "My Bible Says" lessons will be introduced at the rally. Instruction in how to use the lessons will be augmented by demonstrations by persons who have already been giving Bible studies in this way.

Featured at the rally will be the many hundreds of lay visitors who have been working with the "Take His Word" lessons. Special reports, instruction, and interviews will emphasize this phase of lay activity.

For inspiration, instruction, and fellowship every layman in the conference is urged to attend the giant rally on September 21.

Did You Know?

Did you know there were four baptisms in our conference during the month of June due to colporteur contacts? Did you know that the colporteurs of Southern California Conference have given away over 25,000 pieces of literature so far this year?

Did you know that our colporteurs have sold well over 1,000 Spirit of Prophecy books this year? Did you know there are four colporteurs in our conference who have already delivered over $10,000 worth of literature this year?

Did you know that twelve times this year a colporteur from Southern California has sold over $1,000 worth of books in one week?

Did you know that Southern California Conference has for several years been higher in sales than any other conference in the Pacific Union and is leading again this year?

Did you know there is a statement in Colporteur Ministry, pp. 23, 24, that may be directed at you? It reads, "Canvassers are needed who will enter our large cities with these books. . . . Young men, young women, you are called by the Master to take up His work."

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Another Chance

Another chance is ours as teachers, parents, pastors, and constituents, in a new school year, to implant in the minds and the hearts of the youth who come within the doors of our schools seeds of truth that will stand the scrutiny of the Almighty.

Jacob W. Getzels in writing to teachers recently stated: "One cannot so much teach values as offer appropriate models for identification." So, even though many and varied techniques, texts, supplementary materials may be used, the magic of the atmosphere in a classroom created by a Godly, dedicated, and professionally competent teacher, supplemented by a sympathetic constituency, both united in a love atmosphere, will determine whether God's promises regarding Christian education will be fulfilled.

Included in the 150 elementary and junior high school teachers in Southern California this school year are 25 new qualified teachers who have accepted the invitation to join our teacher family. We welcome them.

Above: The group who were in attendance the last night at the Oxnard church for the Teacher Training program conducted by Pastor James Hardin; Clarence C. Kott, Sabbath School secretary of the Southern California Conference; and H. C. Retzer, Sabbath School secretary of the Pacific Union Conference.

At Right: Elder Retzer and Elder Kott hand certificates to Dr. W. S. French and Dr. W. W. Stuart, both of whom completed the course, as Pastor Hardin looks on. Now is the time for Teacher Training preparation. Let the conference Sabbath School Department help you plan a Teacher Training Course. — Sabbath School Department.

Faith for Today Report

The statisticians from Faith for Today, the denomination's telecast, have just made public the results of their video ministry in the second quarter of 1963.

Across North America these results are impressive, but Faith for Today's ministry in the Southern California Conference impresses us even more. Nine persons were baptized who attribute their conversion to the ministry of Faith for Today; three others are as-yet-unbaptized Sabbath-keepers.

Ministers of the conference faithfully reported on 10 of the 12 Faith for Today interests sent to them; 45 persons graduated from the telecast's Bible correspondence courses during the second quarter period.

Faith for Today's ministry in the Southern California Conference is an important one, yet it needs to be even more important. Throughout the entire Pacific Union Conference only 694 persons were enrolled in Faith for Today Bible correspondence courses in the second quarter period. This figure could be 6,940 in third quarter, if you enroll a person in the Faith for Today Bible correspondence school in the next three weeks. From such an increased enrollment a much larger number of persons will be baptized.

But it's up to you. And you. And you!
HERBERT FORD.

Summer Session for Young Students

Students in the vicinity of the White Memorial Union School were fortunate to be enrolled in the regular Summer Session.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Harr, Mrs. Ingersoll, and Mr. Raunio, the students were offered rich learning experience.

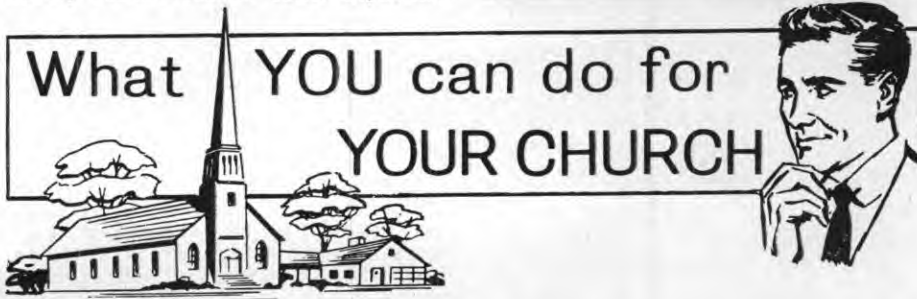

Classes were offered which gave opportunity for the student to strengthen himself in basic skills and concepts. Other classes were geared to enrichment experience in science and related fields.

We feel the enthusiasm of the staff and pupils will result in a continued demand for this type of a summer program in this community.

R. CARROL LYMAN, Principal.

A portion of the students enrolled in the White Memorial Union School Summer Session.

Before long the nominating committee for your church will be in session. Leadership will be needed for the various church offices. You can do much for your church by being willing to assume the leadership and positions your nominating committee feels you are able to carry. You really should consider the invitation of your nominating committee seriously and with the help of God give of your best to help in the work of the church.

Accept some responsibility graciously and then be faithful in performing the assignment. You will find great joy and happiness in doing something well. Adopt a willing attitude, and you can help your church a great deal. Many hands will accomplish much. Plan and pray now what you, and only you, can do for your church.

Executive Secretary.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

Ground-breaking Ceremony, Paradise

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new Paradise Seventh-day Adventist church got under way August 25 at 5:30 p.m. when Pastor A. G. Streifling welcomed over 250 guests and church members. Elder J. H. Meier offered the invocation and a local quartet composed of William Becker, Dr. D. H. Hoiland, Dr. D. C. Hardt, and M. F. Reeves sang "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." Roy Adams led the gathering in a flag salute.

Elder Carl Becker, Northern California Conference president, was scheduled to give the main address but was unable to attend. In his place, Elder H. D. Henriksen, field secretary for the Conference Association, spoke to the assembled guests and conveyed a warm message of cheer and future prosperity for the community. E. J. Mallory, D.D.S., explained the construction plans and, as chairman of the building committee, urged all to participate in the further development of the church plant. The quartet sang a second number, "This Is My Father's World." The two contractors, Sherman Farrar and Cecil Mays of Los Angeles, spoke briefly on their plans for the construction of the church.

Additional speakers included distinguished guests of the state and community: Emil G. Steinegger, chairman of the Butte County Board of Supervisors; Harold E. Booth, Assemblyman; Stan Pittman, Senator; Martin Silva, Division Manager P.G. & E.; Carl Jensen, president of the Chamber of Commerce; W. B. Bristow, director of public relations for the Northern California Conference. Peter O'Neill, Director of Public Works, was unable to attend. Pastor A. G. Streifling finished the section of speeches with a challenge to "Work Together." Prayer was offered by Dr. G. Wood.

The congregation and visiting friends then began the ground-breaking ceremonies. Those present engaged in a responsive reading, consecrating the ground and buildings to holy use, and dedicating themselves to participation in this project. An instrumental trio composed of Thomas Adams, Ronald and Dennis Biggs played a special number. The shovels were taken to the chosen spot where the gold-plated spades dug into the earth to signify the official start of the project. The benediction was pronounced by the writer.

A fine spirit of cooperation was shown by the community in support of this project, and the spirit of the church is excellent. This project is another step forward with the message in this community, and will be another lighthouse for God to shed abroad the bright beams of His love and righteousness.

W. B. BRISTOW, Secretary,
Public Relations Dept.

News Note

✓ The Redding church is sponsoring the daily broadcast of The Voice of Prophecy over station KQMS Monday through Friday at 9:30 a.m.; on Sabbath the time is 7:30 a.m.

Ground breaking for the Paradise church.

God Has His Workmen

"God has His workmen in every age. The call of the hour is answered by the coming of the man. Thus when the divine Voice cries, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' the response will come, 'Here am I; send me.'"—Colporteur Ministry, p. 13

We are living in the greatest hour of earth's history. It is also the most challenging hour for every member of the remnant church. God has given His church a message of hope for a world covered with spiritual darkness. He says, "The church must give her attention to the canvassing work. This is one way in which she is to shine in the world."—Ibid., p. 7.

A number of capable men and women are working as literature evangelists in Northern in response to God's call "who will go for us." They enter many homes each day with truth-filled literature. It is their happy privilege to devote their full time to "missionary work of the highest order," and to know that "Jesus and holy angels will give success to their efforts."

The need today is for more individuals who will respond to God's call and say "Here am I; send me" forth as a colporteur evangelist. You will then have a definite part in helping to lighten the earth with His glory. For "In a large degree through our publishing house is to be accomplished the work of that other angel who comes down from heaven with great power and who lightens the earth with his glory."—Testimonies, vol 7, p. 140.

Is God calling you to work as a literature evangelist? If so, will you say with Isaiah, "Here am I, send me?"

A training school for beginners is being planned for October 20 to 23. Further information will be sent on request.

Words of Life Program in Arcata

The Words of Life evangelistic team began a fall series of meetings on the outskirts of Arcata on September 7. Elder Ralph Larson, assisted by Elder M. T. Bascom, are conducting these meetings.

Much work and prayer have gone into the preparation of the program. The Arcata church has been planning for months for this series.

Anyone who has relatives living in the Arcata, Eureka, McKinleyville area whom you would like to have invited to this series, please write to Elder W. E. Jamerson, 1730 Bella Vista Road, Arcata, California.

We solicit your prayers for these meetings which will be conducted September through November.

M. T. BASCOM.

A Special Program

A special program has been planned for you in your home Sabbath School on the next Thirteenth Sabbath. You will be inspired by appeals from mission fields. Most Sabbath School members will respond to these needs with a large offering. The one thing needed to insure the success of Thirteenth Sabbath is to be sure you are there.

The following story of what happened in Martinez last Thirteenth Sabbath will be repeated in a new and different way in most Sabbath Schools:

"Martinez Sabbath School"

by
Juanita Jessen
Sabbath School Superintendent

"The Thirteenth Sabbath program on Sabbath, June 29, at the Martinez church was an exceptionally good one. All the items were interesting and inspiring. Everyone present agreed that the little members of the Kindergarten Department were outstanding. The leaders, Lola Kelley, Cora Smith, and Della Clark, and the children, dressed in Mexican costumes (as you can see in the picture), came up the aisle of the church led by the boy with the donkey cart, singing "Bumpity, bump, bump, bump." They acted a short play which represented the work in Mexico. There was a smart little doctor, a charming little nurse, and an evangelist. In conclusion, an appeal for a liberal offering was made and the response was very gratifying."

Please plan to attend and respond on Thirteenth Sabbath, September 28.

W. L. HESSELTINE, Secy.,
Sabbath School Department.

Faith for These Times Crusade

A new evangelistic series will be held in the Oakland Civic Auditorium beginning September 15. Pastor A. Geoffrey Ratcliffe will speak on recent findings of archeological expeditions in Bible lands and on his recent trip around the world, including a special tour through Russia. Elder Ratcliffe will show color pictures not only of Russia but of England, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Israel, Egypt, and India.

Evangelist Ratcliffe will have a team of three ministers, Pastors Bruce Babienko, Herb Johns, A. Steffes; Thelma Weatheral is the Bible instructor. With talents combined for the Lord, this group will endeavor to bring Jesus Christ closer to the hearts of the people in this great city.

If you have friends, relatives, or loved ones whom you would have accept Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour, please write to the office secretary: 278 Grand Avenue, Oakland, California. They will be sent a personal invitation to attend this series.

Pastor Ratcliffe asks that you will remember the meetings and pray that many men and women will be brought into the church in order that souls might be saved for God's great Kingdom.

The Adventist Hour September 15, 8-9 a.m.

Sunday, September 15, The Adventist Hour will be heard and seen on KGO-TV, Channel 7, at 8 a.m. This one-hour program will feature the church service of the Modesto Seventh-day Adventist church with Pastor Raymond H. Libby preaching on "The Second Coming of Christ."

The sermon will take the form of a "My Bible Says" Bible study with Elder Hayward V. Shafer, pastor of the Ceres church, assisting.

The service will be the second in the new series of The Adventist Hour which is being sponsored by the Radio-Television Department of the Central California Conference.

A feature of the telecast is the offering of the new Bible Course, "My Bible Says." After the first telecast in August, 44 students were enrolled.

Let us pray that this exposure of the Gospel message, as it is preached on Sabbath from a local Seventh-day Adventist church, may bring souls to the Kingdom.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA

Californians Find Treasure

Thousands of Californians are finding hidden treasure each day as our dedicated literature evangelists carry the good news of salvation to their homes. The Treasures of Life that these workers carry are the volumes you recognize under the titles Patriarchs and Prophets, Prophets and Kings, Desire of Ages, Acts of the Apostles, and The Great Controversy. These wonderful works of inspiration are not like the worthless treasures of this world—gold and silver, houses and land—that do not satisfy, but contain the true treasure—eternal life. These men and women also carry "gems" for the children and the young in heart in The Bible Story, as well as many of our other publications in book or magazine form.

Just as the disciples of old forsook their nets and followed Christ, so men and women in Central California have forsaken their trades of carpentry, ministry, X-ray technician, printing, meat cutting, welding, business, plumbing, and contracting. Before you become entangled in the snares of this world, forsake your nets and help others find heaven's treasures.

Evangelistic Services to Be Held in Merced and Mariposa

A strong evangelistic program will begin this fall in Merced and Mariposa. This will include a daily radio program by J. B. Currier at 7 p.m. each weekday evening over station KYOS, 1480 on the dial, which began on September 2. Evangelistic services will begin in Merced on October 9 at 7:15 p.m. in the Merced Women's Clubhouse, 707 West 22nd Street. These services will be held on Wednesday and Friday nights.

Special evangelistic meetings will be held by Miss Mary Walsh in Mariposa from November 16 to 30.

We are hoping as a result of the radio program and a special Bible study plan that a large number will be led to begin to study God's Word and be impressed to attend the meetings when they are held.

Those knowing of individuals who might be interested, including former Adventists, are urged to send the names of such to Pastor J. B. Currier, P.O. Box 363, Merced, California.

Bay Area Spanish SDA Choir Created

At a meeting held in San Francisco recently, the pastors of the San Jose, San Francisco, and Hayward Spanish Seventh-day Adventist churches made definite plans for the creation of a Bay Area Spanish SDA Choir, under the direction of Elder Jorge Basaez of San Jose, assisted by his wife, Mrs. Nilda Basaez, and Elder and Mrs. Frederick Diaz of San Francisco.

Accompanist for the new choral organization will be Mr. Hugo Escalante, an accomplished pianist of the San Francisco Spanish SDA church, with Mrs. Erica Valverde of the Hayward Spanish SDA church assisting.

The Bay Area Spanish SDA Choir will be composed of the local choirs of the three Spanish churches and is expected to begin with a membership of about 80, with hopes of increasing to a much larger number as the interest grows.

The first rehearsal of the mass choir will take place September 28 at the San Jose Spanish church, 1647 East San Fernando Street, at 5 p.m. Before the rehearsal, between 4 and 5 p.m., a joint MV program will be presented by the youth of the three churches.

Elder Albert Guzman and the Hayward Spanish SDA church, while not belonging to the Central California Conference, have generously united their efforts to the San Jose and San Francisco Spanish churches. Elders Basaez and Diaz would like to express their appreciation to Elder Guzman and the Hayward Spanish congregation for their interest and enthusiastic cooperation in the creation of a Spanish choral organization.

FREDERICK DIAZ, Pastor,
San Francisco Spanish Church.

Attention Sub-contractors

During the early part of September, the plans will be completed for the Hanford Community Hospital, to be built by the Central California Conference in the city of Hanford.

We have worked with our architect in such a way that we are prepared to accept segregated bids from Seventh-day Adventist sub-contractors on any part of the hospital work. If you are interested in bidding on any portion of the project, write to me.

It is planned that the architect will come to Hanford and set up an office for a week to assist all sub-contractors in bidding the plans. We will let you know when and where that office will be located. If you have any question about the procedure, feel free to write to me about it: Henry T. Bergh, Box 121, Hanford, California.

MBA Enrollment Soars To New Height

All previous Monterey Bay Academy enrollment records were eclipsed on registration Sunday, September 1, when 362 students registered in Hoskins Memorial Library. This figure includes the largest senior class in the academy's 14-year history—115 members. Membership in the other classes is: Juniors, 97; sophomores, 87; freshmen, 60.

Many students expressed surprise and appreciation for campus improvements completed during the summer months. All major buildings were painted and new serving decks were installed in the cafeteria.

Chowchilla Youth Visit Fricot Ranch School

Sabbath afternoon, August 10, seven cars carrying the MV society young folk from Chowchilla church drove onto the grounds of California Youth Authority's training school at Fricot for the purpose of conducting a social hour with some of our boys. One lodge had been designated as the recipient of these honors, and promptly at four 28 of its boys marched into the new gymnasium to meet their welcome visitors. After the boys had introduced themselves giving name and home town, they sang familiar junior gospel songs entirely from memory. The visitors in turn entertained the boys by telling stories always interesting to boys.

Following the meeting in the new gymnasium, we all transferred to the picnic grounds nearby where 15 watermelons and sacks of cookies all homemade by our good ladies of the church awaited eager hands. The boys of Fricot Ranch School will long remember the hospitality and friendly visit of the Missionary Volunteers from Chowchilla. They were able to witness Christianity in action to the extent that it brought to their school seven car loads of youth willing to travel 100 miles from home to reveal the love of Christ to boys who have known so little of that divine love. To conclude the afternoon, they gathered about their visitors in a circle, joining hands, sang again, and were dismissed by prayer, after expressing warmly their deep appreciation for this very fine visit.

Watchmen and Messengers

"The time has come when a large work should be done by the canvassers. The world is asleep, and as watchmen they are to ring the warning bell to awake the sleepers to their danger. The churches know not the time of their visitation. Often they can best learn the truth through the efforts of the canvasser. Those who go forth in the name of the Lord are His messengers to give to the multitudes who are in darkness and error the glad tidings of salvation through Christ in obeying the law of God."—Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 315 (italics supplied).

The Nevada-Utah Conference covers a vast area and the population is scattered, making it very difficult to contact every home. However, this is a real challenge to our literature evangelists and they have put forth an earnest effort to reach every family.

In the past five years the literature evangelists here have seen 66 of their customers baptized. During this same time they have placed over half a million dollars worth of literature in the homes of those who are living in darkness. We feel sure that many of those people will be in the kingdom for having purchased this literature.

The literature evangelists are opening the way for many to accept the truth. The Bible instructors and pastors are busy following up their contacts with Bible studies.

The Lord is calling for more workers to carry the printed page to the many homes in this conference.

Will you respond to His call?

Church School Expansion at Bishop

An increase of 24 pupils in Bishop's church school has acted as a springboard for enlargement activities.

Additional land situated next to the church property, secured through a lease, is to be used for playground and parking facilities. The members anticipated completion of their project before school started.

Proposals of ways and means to develop the school for anticipated growth are now under consideration by the Building Committee. This committee headed by Elder Robert Dale includes Evan Knecht,

Mission Exhibit at San Juan County Fair

Seventh-day Adventists were represented at the two-day San Juan County Fair in Utah for the first time this year through an exhibit displayed by two Monument Valley workers, Mrs. Doris Bringle and Nelle Mullikin, in nurse's uniform.

The eight-by-four-foot color mural of the mission, plus the 48 colored slides on the Slide-a-scope showing Monument Valley and mission scenes, accompanied by taped organ music won much favorable comment.

It is estimated that 600 persons stopped to visit the exhibit and to chat with the exhibitors and express their appreciation for the work being done by the mission.

A drawing for the book Kings and Queens was held each of the two days of the fair. One of the winners was the ten-year-old daughter of the state welfare director, a close friend of the mission.

There was some opportunity to discuss tenets of our faith with other exhibitors, various persons also working for the benefit of the Navajos.

The county auditor, an outstanding woman who earlier visited the mission, made this comment: "I think the work you are doing is tremendous."

The county agricultural agent, with whom all arrangements for the booth and exhibit were made, said: "Your booth has definitely added to the fair. We appreciate having you here."

The mother of a young white woman whose baby was delivered at our hospital expressed her appreciation thus: "You are doing a wonderful work. I found one of your books in a motel at Carbondale, Colorado, Your Bible and You."

A woman whom the Navajo Tribe has asked to help establish an industry for the people stated: "I am alone. I have told all my friends if anything happens to me to take me to Monument Valley Hospital."

These comments are typical of many made at the fair booth.

Many colored picture post cards of the mission were carried home by interested visitors, as well as copies of Desert Monuments which included one issue quoting the Mormon Governor of Utah as he praised the work of the mission. We feel this endeavor will bring great blessing to the mission work.

Camp Time for Aiea Pathfinders

A group of 23 Pathfinders from the Aiea church and their counselors enjoyed a five-night camp at Kahaluu Park on the Kona Coast recently with their director, Bill Villegas. They were entertained by the members of the Kona church who provided transportation to many scenic points on the island.

After spending five days in Kona, they went to Hilo where they were guests of the Hilo church. Special arrangement was made by Pastor Harold Rich for them to use the Mauna Loa School facilities.

Members both at Kona and Hilo were greatly inspired by the Aiea group with their talents in music, storytelling, and warm fellowship.

Baptismal Service Concludes Evangelistic Series

"The cleansing stream I see, I see, I plunge, and O, it cleanseth me!..." As the sweet strains of music drifted over Poipu Beach 14 precious souls followed the command of our Lord and were buried with Him in baptism. Many non-Adventist vacationers paused to watch the impressive sight as Elder Varner Leggitt and Elder Victor Aladen were followed into the water by the baptismal candidates. The sunset service on Friday evening was a fitting climax to the island-wide evangelistic meetings held in Lihue, Kauai, by Elder Philip Knoche, pastor of the Honolulu Central church. On the following day, one more was added by profession of faith, making a grand total of 15 new members of God's remnant church.

Following the baptismal service, the people gathered at the hall in Lihue to hear Elder Knoche present the final topic of the series, "The Only Church I Could Join." The sermon was a forceful presentation of our major church doctrines. At the conclusion Elder Knoche made a definite call for those who were interested in becoming members of the church to stand to their feet. There was an immediate response with many non-Adventists rising from their seats to take their stand for Christ. A good number of these people are now looking forward to a second baptism which will be held within the next few weeks.

It is evident that God has abundantly blessed the many hours of preparation and prayer which resulted in this successful campaign. Each candidate which was presented for baptism was thoroughly prepared by three months or more of intensive Bible study. Many of the candidates were members of the "My Bible Says" Bible marking classes which were conducted at six different locations on Kauai.

In anticipation of the next baptism, Elder Aladen and Elder Leggitt are planning an intensive follow-up campaign. This effort will be directed toward preparation of those who made new decisions in the meetings and strengthening the faith of the newly-baptized members.

We solicit the prayers of friends and members formerly of the churches of Kauai for those who now are considering the most important decision in their lives. We have faith to believe that this baptism marks the beginning of a spiritual awakening on the "garden island."

A Special Place

"Each has his place in the eternal plan of heaven. Each is to work in co-operation with Christ for the salvation of souls. Not more surely is the place prepared for us in the heavenly mansions than is the special place designated on earth where we are to work for God."—Christ's Object Lessons, pp. 326, 327.

"No doubt entered the mind of Saul that the One who spoke to him was Jesus of Nazareth, the long-looked-for Messiah, the Consolation and Redeemer of Israel. 'Trembling and astonished,' he inquired, 'Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?' "—Acts of the Apostles, p. 117.

When Christ spoke to Saul on the road to Damascus, he suddenly realized that he was not filling the special place that the Lord had for him on this earth. In fact, Saul was working directly against the One whom he thought he was serving. When he clearly saw that he was not doing what God wanted him to do he was eager to make a change. Do you, dear reader, want to be just where the Lord would have you be and doing what He would have you do in this late hour of this world's history?

"There is no higher work than evangelistic canvassing, for it involves the performance of the highest moral duties."

We have no time to lose. We must encourage this work. Who will go forth now with our publications? I know that there are many in our churches who should be engaged in selling our truth-filled literature. This is THE SPECIAL PLACE that God has for you in this finishing work. Will you not do it?

"All can do something in the work. None will be pronounced guiltless before God, unless they have worked earnestly and unselfishly for the salvation of souls."—Testimonies, vol. 5, p. 395.

October 21 and 22, 1963, is the date when the beginner's training school will be conducted for those interested in canvassing in Arizona. The school will be held in Phoenix. Write to your publishing secretary for further details.

Springerville Vacation Bible School

"Onward Christian Soldiers, marching as to war,"—and 22 children marched in for their Vacation Bible School devotions.

As the boys and girls met with their teachers each morning, it was inspiring to see them stand so erect as pledges of allegiance were given to the American flag, the Christian flag, and the Bible.

The program was well planned and each morning was so crowded with activities that the time passed quickly.

Mrs. Paul Johnson served as director of the school. The Kindergarten Department was led by Mrs. Ernest Dobkins, assisted by Hope Laura. Mrs. David Cox was the leader for the Primary-Junior Department. She was assisted by Mrs. Nelson Harris. Mrs. James Bursey was the pianist and storyteller.

Working for the Master

The Guadalupe Vacation Bible School was operated under difficulties, but with the Lord's blessings. Seventy youngsters were enrolled and all from non-Adventist homes. The walls of the one-room shack were water stained and the roof was sagging, but the children didn't mind. Their homes were like this too. The fact that all classes met in the same room at the same time didn't bother the children either. They thought it was supposed to be this

Freshman Orientation Session Scheduled for September 19-21

Approximately 400 freshmen are expected to attend a special orientation session on the La Sierra College campus beginning Thursday, September 19, at 5 p.m.

The freshman orientation program, planned by upperclassmen and faculty members to help new students adjust to college life easily and quickly, will be in session all day Friday and Sabbath, with the Sabbath hours devoted to worship services and religious discussion meetings.

Attendance at the orientation session is required by the college of all freshmen.

During the orientation session on Thursday night, September 19, freshmen will be given an opportunity to register. Faculty members will be available for consultation with freshmen and to assist in planning study programs.

Formal Registration Set, September 22

Registration for the fall term at La Sierra College will be held for sophomores, juniors, and seniors all day Sunday, September 22, in the library, announces Willeta Carlsen, registrar.

Faculty members, librarians, and others will be on hand throughout the day to aid students in planning their programs.

$20,000 Spent for Remodeling, Improvements at LSC in Summer

A program of remodeling and general improvement of the campus has been carried out this summer at La Sierra College to make facilities more efficient and attractive for students and faculty.

More than $20,000 in improvements have been made, including a complete renovation of the business office and the construction of six attractive faculty offices in lower La Sierra Hall.

In addition, dozens of palm trees on campus have been neatly manicured to lend beauty to the surroundings.

Three New Financial Plans Now Operating at La Sierra

Three financial plans to aid students and parents have been approved by the La Sierra College Board and are now in effect, announces Wilfred Hillock, college treasurer.

Plan 1 gives the student sponsor or parent a three per cent discount for settlement of the account in advance. Plan 2 calls for the first payment before registration and for payments November 1 and

December 1. Plan 3 is a contract arrangement with Education Funds, Inc., which allows the sponsor or parent to spread his payments over a 12-month period at an interest charge of one-and-a-half per cent.

This improved approach to student financing provides some advantages long sought by parents and students and helps to relieve hardships imposed by the necessity of monthly payments, Mr. Hillock states. In some cases in the past, student accounts have varied by more than $100 from one month to the next; however, under the new plan an estimate can be made for the entire semester on a student bill which will permit sponsors and parents to operate on a pre-determined payment schedule, Mr. Hillock says.

Plan 3 carries an insurance feature which provides that in case of inability to earn on the part of the sponsor or parent either through death or disability, the account will be paid in full. There is no contract cancellation penalty, and in case of student withdrawal, any pre-paid unspent balance is returned by the college to Educational Funds, Inc., and EFI reduces payments accordingly.

Monthly statements will not be issued by the college this year; however, students can determine their financial standing by inquiring at the cashier's office, Mr. Hillock says. A statement will be issued at the end of each semester showing the student balance or deficit, he states.

Sponsors or parents desiring to make monthly payments are invited to consider Plan 3, which allows making 12 equal payments beginning with September and ending in August the following year under the most liberal terms ever offered by La Sierra College, according to Mr. Hillock.

In the past some students have let their bills run into the summer following the school year, and this has made it necessary for the college to borrow money to meet its commitments. The college has had to pay a much higher interest rate on borrowed money than sponsors and parents are required to pay on funds secured through Education Funds, Inc. The EFI interest rate is one-and-a-half per cent.

"It is not fair to ask parents who pay their bills on time to pay a portion of the interest for those who have not paid until the summer. Under the new plan this inequity is removed, and those who would like credit through the summer can obtain it by signing a contract with EFI at the low interest rate of one-and-a-half per cent," Mr. Hillock says.

Under the new plans thousands of dollars formerly paid in interest, collection fees, and bookkeeping costs can be eliminated and the savings passed on to students, according to the treasurer.

A policy of limiting National Defense Loans to smaller amounts and making more loans available to a larger number of students has also been adopted at La Sierra College. To date 126 students have received loans ranging from $250 to $600, and National Defense Loan funds are available to assist additional students in need who have a C average or better. Inquiries about such loans should be directed to the Credit Manager at La Sierra College.

Increases in the minimum wage law now in effect will cost the college $60,000 to $70,000 more in student labor; however, the increase in wages will make financing an education somewhat easier on the student, since the average rate will be $1.25 an hour for students during 1963-64 school year, up from $1 an hour average last year.

The Seventh-day Adventist Church Challenged

"No church can expect God's blessing if it keeps silent while hundreds of thousands of American girls are being transformed into barmaids, while millions of our future mothers are being rendered unfit or incapable of motherhood, while legitimate business is being robbed of billions of dollars, while the burdens of government are being multiplied by the parasitic traffic, while husbands are being unmanned and little children have to put drunken mothers to bed."

In answer to this challenge we have set an offering goal of $50,000 in the Pacific Union to be raised on World Temperance Sabbath, October 26. We also are anxious to receive the names of 25,000 non-Adventists from our church members to whom we can sponsor Listen. These names should include public school teachers, Protestant clergymen, doctors, law-enforcement officials, and people who would benefit from reading Listen. Send all names to your local conference Temperance Department.

tion to make sure a satisfactory financial arrangement has been made. A Student Financial Questionnaire has been sent to all students. When the questionnaire is returned to the college, a student fee card will be issued, and this fee card will be required as part of the registration materials needed.

The college business office requests that Student Financial Questionnaires be returned to the business office prior to registration and solicits the cooperation of parents and sponsors in this.

Your Help Please

My parents, Elder and Mrs. J. F. Knipschild, are celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary this coming December 25, 1963. Father's nearly forty years of denominational service saw many souls blessed by his ministry.

If the reader is among the above group, would you be so kind as to forward to the writer a congratulatory and newsy letter to go into a special album to be presented to my parents at their golden wedding anniversary?

Thank you. Please forward your letter to:

Pacific Union Educators Participate in Conference at Andrews University

Twelve Andrews University graduate students representing eight North American union conferences recently completed an intensive four-week study in work-experience education.

Representing the Pacific Union was George E. Smith of Thunderbird Academy in Arizona and Leland Zollinger of Glendale Union Academy in California.

Taught by Dr. T. S. Geraty, General Conference associate secretary of education, the group sought to examine the basic rationale undergirding work-experience education. Resulting from this investigation will be a guide book containing practical suggestions for a successful work-study program in the day and boarding secondary schools of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

tical suggestions for a successful work-study program in the day and boarding secondary schools of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

"Work-experience education is a plan of daily systematic labor that should be an integral part of the broad comprehensive plan of education. It should be pursued with the best possible facilities and under the direction of competent instructors," said Dr. Geraty. "It is our feeling that schools placing proportionate attention to the physical and mental powers can do much to achieve the purposes of God on earth, and give a general balance and meaning to this life and the life to come," he added.
