Faith for Today Faces Greatest Needs in Its 15 Year History on February 13

By J. O. Iversen, Assoc. Secy.,
Radio-TV Department, General Conference

Today ninety-one per cent of American homes have at least one television set. Television reaches "the ends of the earth."

This year Faith for Today celebrates its fifteenth anniversary. Yet, is this such a wonder after all? It was Gamaliel of old who, when speaking of the work of the early church, said, "for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to naught; But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it."

Certainly Faith for Today's ministry is a work of God to have endured through the changing times and varying formats from the extension of only nine stations in its first year in 1950 to 225 at the current time.

From a handful of those who enrolled in its Bible correspondence course the first year, more than 176,500 applications were received in 1964 alone. More than 9,000 Bible Course diplomas were given in 1964. Today there are 100,000 current names of viewers and students in the files. More than 2,000 baptisms were reported in 1964.

Faith for Today is no longer just a North American evangelistic endeavor. It is one of the most successful means of evangelism in some of the larger areas in Australia and also makes its impact in Bermuda, Guam, Brazil and Korea, the Philippines, Puerto Rico, Nigeria and Trinidad.

Faith for Today's financial needs are great. More lessons are needed to take care of an increasing Bible School enrollment. Producing films for television stations is costly. Studio and production costs approximate $1,000 a day. Few operations in the world are more expensive than film production and television.

There is an increasing number of stations that will take Faith for Today if films can be provided for them fifty-two weeks out of the year. But the budget is not sufficient for this.

But how much longer will we have the privilege of telecasting Faith for Today? We do know that this is North America's year for advance. Faith for Today has proven itself to be one of the most successful evangelistic endeavors yet.

Recognizing the special need of Faith for Today, the 1964 General Conference Autumn Council voted unanimously to ask church members to contribute an unprecedented offering of $400,000 to Faith for Today on February 13.

Your help in contributing sacrificially to a $400,000 offering will make it possible to:

(1) Add fifty vital stations to Faith for Today's coverage, including ten in concentrated population areas with millions of potential viewers.

(2) Launch a coast to coast visitation project. This will require money.

(3) Cooperate in a major evangelistic advance, assisting pastors and evangelists in conducting Faith for Today reaping evangelism.

Prior to February 13 let us pray earnestly that God will expand our vision and our giving so we can meet the needs, the challenge, and the unprecedented opportunity of this great hour for the North American evangelistic advance.

Sharing a Treasure

A youth of Latin America had found a treasure. He guarded it as the most precious thing he had ever had. His appreciation increased daily as he examined it. At first he thought it almost too precious to tell anyone about, but he could not restrain his enthusiasm. His eyes sparkled with new light and his very steps revealed a courage and pride of possession never before seen in him. He had to tell his associates, but he must do that when unfriendly persons would not hinder him or take from him his treasure, and when he could show it in a most favorable light.

Not far from his village he made a clearing in the forest and erected a shelter. While he was doing this he became very ill. An enemy circulated a story that God was displeased with him and had stricken him down in death. But it was not true, and soon he spread word about that on an occasion he would tell those who would come about his new found treasure. When the hour arrived no one dared show himself, but most of the village was there—concealed in the forest near his clearing.

Alone, but true to his promise, the youth opened his treasure, the Word of God, sang songs of praise, offered a prayer for guidance and instruction, and explained as best he could to the birds, the trees, and the unseen audience the truths he had found in the Sabbath school lessons. His listeners were impressed with his sincerity and were astonished at the words he spoke.

Later some became bolder and sat on

Faith for Today—An Effective Soul Winner

The Faith for Today program, the oldest continuous religious broadcast, is now viewed on 225 stations. The year 1965 marks its fifteenth anniversary. This program, emanating from New York City, is part of a great endeavor of the church to reach "every nation, kindred, tongue and people" with the gospel message for this time.

Last year 176,500 applications for Bible courses were received and 9,125 diplomas were awarded. Best of all, there were 1,900 baptisms in the last twelve months. It is hoped that this year there will be an extra large offering so that fifty new stations can be added. Many people are writing words of appreciation for this fine program. From one individual in northern California comes this message:

When I joined the church my mother was greatly upset. She just couldn't stand Adventists.

Shortly before I was baptized she went to Hawaii to stay with my sister and her husband. Now my sister's husband didn't believe in God and wanted no religion in the home, but every day they would watch (my mother and sister, that is) Faith for Today. Near the end of the program when it was time for my brother-in-law to come home they would turn the TV off, thus missing the denominational identification. My mother fell in love with the program and felt it was really preaching the Bible. She even wished I could see this so I would turn from the Adventist teachings! She was shocked one day when they left it on a little longer to find that she had been watching an Adventist program.

A year after I was baptized, my husband joined the church, then my sister, and then my mother. Who can say how much Faith for Today has had to do with this?

On Sabbath, February 13, we have the opportunity to share in the Faith for Today program. The Fall Council voted to set a goal of $400,000 for this offering. To reach this objective will mean that each of us will have to give more than usual. Let us all do our best on Sabbath, February 13.

R. R. BIETZ, President,
Pacific Union Conference.

W. D. Walton, administrator of the St. Helena Sanitarium and Hospital, welcomes Carl Lindgren to his new position as assistant administrator.

As the Book for the Year 1964 Came to a Close

As the last pages of the book for 1964 were being turned, the Pacific Union literature evangelists gathered on December 28 for their annual Institute in the beautiful Hillcrest church at Bakersfield. The pastor, Elder E. W. Voyles, his wife, and the members of the church were friendly and gracious hosts to the publishing leaders, the literature evangelists and their wives, and our Institute guests.

As the year closed, the literature evangelists listed the sales of books and magazines and totaled their soul winning results. The readers of the RECORDER will be interested to know that the literature evangelists make out a weekly soul winning report just the same as they make out a sales activity report. We want to express appreciation to all ministers, Bible instructors, field service representatives, and laymen who helped to make possible the soul winning results for 1964. There are seven avenues of soul winning open to the literature evangelist. The totals for 1964 as revealed at the Institute are as follows:

Baptisms .....	258
Bible Correspondence Course .....	36,420
Studies Begun .....	1,538
Attending Meetings .....	471
Prayer in Homes .....	21,566
Free Literature .....	219,584
Former SDA's Contacted .....	772

The above report is most encouraging. However, the literature evangelists felt that they should accomplish more during 1965 than in 1964. Therefore, they set their goal for 300 baptisms and 50,000 Voice of Prophecy applications during the next twelve months.

We hope you will pray earnestly for the literature evangelists as they begin a new year of literature ministry. Should you desire more information about this important and fruitful branch of the Lord's service, you may write or call your local publishing secretary.

A. G. SUTTON, Secretary, Publishing Department,
Pacific Union Conference.

Carl Lindgren Joins Staff at St. Helena Sanitarium

Carl Lindgren assumed his duties as new assistant administrator of the St. Helena Sanitarium and Hospital on January 5. With his wife, Mavis, he comes from Sebastopol, California, where he has been administrator of Palm Drive Hospital for the past ten years.

He replaces Charles H. Snyder who formerly held this position until he was named administrator of Feather River Sanitarium and Hospital at Paradise in mid-1964.

Mr. Lindgren received his education at Canadian Union College, the University of Southern California, and Loma Linda University where he completed the medical technology course in 1939. Several years in the teaching profession were followed by medical technology work at White Memorial Hospital and with the Napa Medical Group. In 1954 he became administrator of the hospital in Sebastopol.

During leisure hours, Mr. Lindgren enjoys sports, music, outdoor life, and camping "in the rough." The Lindgrens have one son and two daughters.

Elder and Mrs. Glenn Coon Hold Meetings in Arizona

Elder and Mrs. Glenn A. Coon, well known evangelistic team from Tennessee, have finished a spiritually refreshing series of meetings at the Mountain Avenue church in Tucson. From January 8 to 24, Elder and Mrs. Coon brought the Word of God in all its love and promise to guests who have never heard of the Advent faith,
"fringe" interests, former Seventh-day Adventists, and church members.

Many Come to Hear Concert

The Thunderbird Academy Band, under the direction of Roger Peden, presented a secular concert on Saturday night, January 16. No admission was charged for the concert which was held in the gymnasium.

The featured soloist of the evening was Mrs. R. A. Figuhr, who played a piano solo, "Warsaw Concerto," with band accompaniment. Steve Hartman played a trombone solo, "Song for Trombone." The band, consisting of 53 members, played music which ranged in variety from symphonies and overtures to marches, tone poems, and novelties.

This was the fourth appearance of the band this school year. Many came to enjoy an evening of music and entertainment presented by the Thunderbird Academy Band.

Now Elder and Mrs. Coon will be at the Phoenix Central church from Friday, February 5, to February 21. Beginning on March 5 they will be at the Glendale church until March 21. They will be at Tempe from April 2 to 18, and from April 30 to May 16 at the Camelback church.

If you have not already attended one of these series of meetings with your non-Adventist friends, plan now to do so. The loving manner in which Elder Coon presents God's great plans for mankind will bring an unusually fresh breath of spiritual air to your life. GERALD FRIEDRICH.

Navajo Workers Visit Bishop

"Ya'ctch Apenda, Baa shil hozo guee," greeted Tom Holliday, translator from the Seventh-day Adventist mission in Monument Valley. "Good morning, dear white people. We are happy to be here today," translated Dr. J. Lloyd Mason, formerly of Bishop.

Doctor and Mrs. Mason and Pastor Tom Holliday were guest speakers at the worship services at the Bishop Seventh-day Adventist church where Pastor Holliday spoke in Navajo and Doctor Mason translated to English.

Tom told the story of his life in English and also told of the problems among the Navajo tribe with "Peyote." Great strides have been made by the medical and spiritual help given the peoples of the Navajo tribe in Monument Valley at the mission and hospital near Gouldings Trading Post.

Mrs. Mason reported on the clothing, toys, and Christmas treats given by many of the Bishop folk, which were so greatly appreciated. She told of the baby layettes sewn by the ladies of the Junior Improvement Club of Bishop that were so happily received by many new mothers.

Even though the Masons would like to return to Bishop and make their home among their many friends, they plan to remain at the mission a little longer.

GRACE MURPHY, PR Secy.

Notice of Nevada-Utah Conference Session

Notice is hereby given that the seventeenth Biennial Session of the Nevada-Utah Conference of Seventh-day Adventists is called to convene at 7:30 p.m., Monday, March 1, 1965, in the Salt Lake City Seventh-day Adventist church school auditorium, 965 East 3370 South, Salt Lake City, Utah.

The purpose of this meeting is to receive the biennial reports; elect conference officers, departmental secretaries, and executive committee; and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the session.

According to constitutional provision each organized church is entitled to one delegate-at-large, and one additional delegate for each twenty church members or fractional majority thereof.

Carson City Spanish Class Visits Hayward Church

For the past three years the school children of the Carson City church school have been taught Spanish. The children were eager to visit a place where they could hear Spanish spoken and where they might practice what they had been learning. Pastor Alberto Guzman of the Spanish SDA church in Hayward, California, was contacted by the Spanish teacher.
When the pastor heard how eager the youngsters were, he was thrilled and invited the church members to come in family groups for a get-together. On a recent Sabbath about 80 per cent of the Carson City church membership made a trek to Hayward.

The Sabbath school class was conducted in Spanish, except for an English speaking class so that members who could not speak Spanish would not lose any spiritual benefits of the Sabbath day. The church service, however, was conducted in Spanish.

The MV Society of the Carson City church provided a musical program in the

Notice of Nevada-Utah Association Meeting

Notice is hereby given that the regular Biennial Session of the Nevada-Utah Association of Seventh-day Adventists is called to convene at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, March 2,
1965, in the Salt Lake City Seventh-day Adventist church school auditorium, 965 East
3370 South, Salt Lake City, Utah.

This meeting is called for the purpose of receiving reports from the officers, electing a Board of Directors for the ensuing biennial term, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the delegates.

All duly elected and accredited delegates
at any regular or special session of the Ne-

NEVADA -UTAH

afternoon, with a lecture about the heart
by Dr. Henry Stewart.

A social was held that evening in which participants were dressed in native costumes (nine nationalities from south of the border were represented), and they presented either a song or a story from their native land.

It was a very pleasant weekend for all,
and it was interesting to learn more of our Latin brothers and sisters—how they love the Lord just as we do and are anxious for His return.

The Carson City church is now looking forward to the day when the Hayward Spanish church members will come and return the visit. We want to take this opportunity to thank the Hayward Spanish church for their kind, loving spirit. We look forward to the day when all of us can be together forever with Jesus, and never part again.

HENRY STEWART, M.D.,
Carson City Church School.

Request for Names

Waipahu area evangelism will begin on Saturday evening, February 27, with a series of evangelistic meetings in the August Ahrens School Auditorium at Waipahu. The speaker for this series will be Elder Alfred Munar, and Elder L. E. Fletcher will be in charge of the music.

RECORDER readers having friends or loved ones in the Waipahu area to whom a letter of invitation could be sent are requested to forward the names and addresses of these people to the Waipahu Seventh-day Adventist Church, c/o Elder Alfred Munar, 94-900 Awane Street, Waipahu, Oahu, Hawaii 96797.

HAWAIIAN MISSION

Ingathering in Kailua

Kailua SDA church had a very memorable and record breaking season. Kailua is the second largest town in the state of Hawaii with a population of approximately 30,500 people. It is the center of windward Oahu, whose over-all population is nearing 70,000. This fast-growing area has tunnels and highways constructed to make commuting to the main city of Honolulu more rapid. Kailua is where the Adventist hospital, Castle Memorial Hospital, is situated.

For the recent Ingathering campaign, we divided the town into various sections with a team leader, carol unit driver, solicitors, and drivers to pick up the solicitors. We have found this method most effective, and were able to complete our Ingathering in four nights, the fastest Kailua has ever done.

One day it poured rain, and as the weatherman predicted, it really "stormed," but with faith the members came out, and with God's promises holding true, the rains were held back and the stars shone in the heavens. That night we exceeded our $2,000 goal, finished Kailua town, and had $2,460.38 turned in for Ingathering.

The members should be commended for their cooperation and enthusiasm. The young people were especially outstanding in their support and participation.

To date we have approximately $2,700, the most Kailua church has ever raised in Ingathering.

Surely the Lord has blessed our members in our Ingathering work. Pray that the tracts left in the various homes may light a spark, that many will find their way to the Master.

MRS. CLARA CHUNG,
Ingathering Chairman,
Kailua Church.

Faith for Today Offering

Who would have imagined, 20 years ago, that a Seventh-day Adventist minister and a male quartet of fine, consecrated Adventists would be invited into thousands of homes to present a religious program?

Faith for Today, through the amazing means of television, is doing just that, every week, all across the land.

Surely, this is a providence of God, which, along with radio, is being used to reach the millions in America and elsewhere who otherwise would not hear this blessed message of God's love.

But, in spite of very favorable acceptance, many large city stations are adopting new policies which effectively cut out religious television programs, or relegate them to very poor viewing hours. Still, Faith for Today is exerting a great impact for God, notwithstanding the poor viewing hours in many places.

Adventists in Hawaii are urged to join their brethren throughout America on Sabbath, February 13, in doing two things:

1. Pray earnestly that God will move upon the hearts of TV station directors to allow Faith for Today to be shown at more favorable hours, thus increasing immeasurably the effectiveness of the program, and
2. Give very liberally for this annual offering for the support of this God-directed program. The financial needs are overwhelming, and Faith for Today is counting on our all-out support!

B. W. MATTISON, President.

Central Church Has New Sign

Welcoming members, visitors, and friends to the Central Seventh-day Adventist church each Sabbath is a new, illuminated sign. For some time this has been a real need since Honolulu is host to so many guests and vacationers, and it is imperative that our church be represented in an effective yet dignified way.

Thanks to the kindness of Mr. Claude Hoover of the Kaimuki church, the erection of this sign cost the church only the price of the materials. Brother Hoover donated his labor and associate pastors D. Robert Watts and Victor Aladen assisted him in the digging of the foundation and the laying of the block.

Brother Eugene Brown, Central church treasurer, volunteered to complete the electrical work, and thus a beautiful new addition has been made to the appearance of Central church.

We are praying that this sign will serve to make manifest the ALOHA spirit of Hawaii and induce visitors and friends to come worship with us. The sign is only an introduction. After worship each and every Sabbath, the ladies of our church serve a potluck luncheon to our visitors. In 1964 Sister Rose Chow headed a committee of the following ladies: Ida Brown, Rose Carvalho, Eunice Kumalae, Anita Lee, and Mary Jane Neves, and our guests each Sabbath were treated to exotic Island foods.

Perhaps you who are reading this article have always dreamed of a Hawaiian holiday. If so, make it a reality and on Sabbath come to the sign marking the Central Seventh-day Adventist church in Honolulu, and receive a welcome like you have never received before! We'll be looking for you.

PHILIP B. KNOCH, Pastor,
Central Church.

Central California Workers Meeting Held at Soquel Recently

Central California Conference workers and their wives gathered at Soquel for a three day workers meeting January 13-15.

This was the first time Elder E. R. Walde, newly elected president of the conference, met with the entire worker family. He was introduced by our union conference president, Elder R. R. Bietz, who gave the keynote address for the session, terming it his "state of the union" message.

A tally of 1964-65 Ingathering results, despite hampering rains, showed a total of more than $187,000 with much more to be received within a few days of the meeting.

Guest speakers included Elder H. W. Lowe, field secretary of the General Conference; Elder W. J. Blacker, union conference secretary-treasurer; Elder Clarence Kott, union Sabbath school secretary; Evangelist B. R. Spears; J. O. Cunningham, union church development secretary; Faith for Today speaker-director, Elder W. A. Fagal; and union home missionary secretary, Elder D. E. Dirksen.

The entire group was entertained by Monterey Bay Academy on Wednesday evening. The dining hall was nearly filled (see photo) during the supper hour. Later, preceding the evening meeting in the chapel, short concerts were provided by the academy band and choral groups.

Most of the session time was devoted to plans for extension and improvement of our gospel task during 1965. The conference administration and departmental leaders endeavored to point the way. An open forum provided time for questions and for discussion. All who attended felt this one of the finest and most inspirational gatherings for ministers. Each has dedicated himself to more diligent service and greater consecration to the Master during the days ahead.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

I Am Thankful for Faith for Today's Ministry

For 15 years now our Faith for Today television program has been used by God to bless mankind. This program is not the meteor-like type that shines with considerable brilliance for a few weeks or months and then disappears.

Rather, it has continued with increasing success year after year, until during 1964 some 1,900 persons were baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist church through its ministry, combined with that of our faithful pastors, Bible instructors, and laymen who followed up the interests.

On the occasion of its fifteenth anniversary, our Faith for Today program has recently received the congratulations of several internationally known public figures, including John M. McCormack, speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives; J. Edgar Hoover, director, United States Department of Justice; and Albert Rosellini, governor of Washington.

Here is a religious television program that truly develops faith for today! It is well named, this program of ours, and we must keep it on the air! I sincerely hope that all Seventh-day Adventists in Northern California will not only give liberally of their means on the occasion of the February 13 Faith for Today offering, but will also be much in prayer that day for the continuing success of our program. I am very thankful to God for Faith for Today's dedicated ministry.

JAMES E. CHASE, President.

Northern California Association of Self-Supporting Institutions

Second to none in the Pacific Union is the Northern California Conference with its twelve ASI memberships, the most recent addition being Barrett's Rest Home.

Our institutions range from community hospitals to health food centers. We now have over 200 patient beds in these hospitals.

The Community Hospital of Sacramento has increased its potential from 35 to 72 beds. The Pine Breeze Nursing Home is contemplating an enlargement of its facilities in the very near future. And the most recent high light brought to our attention is the Lakeside Community Hospital's Gray Ladies aid. These ladies, numbering nine, relieve the nurses of many duties so that they have more time to devote to nursing care.

After 400 hours of voluntary service, a special ceremony was conducted by Dr. Neal Woods and Les Provencher, administrator of the hospital. During the ceremony these ladies received caps, insignia pins, and diplomas.

We trust that this step forward will inspire other sister organizations. We greatly appreciate the fine work that is being done by these institutions, and we know that they are serving well the right hand of the gospel.

GEORGE YOST, Secretary, Temperance and ASI Depts.

Amateur Hour Planned

Sacramento Union Academy will have their second annual amateur hour, entitled "Around the World," on February 20, at 7:30 p.m., in the auditorium.

For further information, contact Crashi Mitoma, 5601 Winding Way, Carmichael, California.

Pictured above are the staff members of the Howell Mountain Pathfinder Club, with Robert Reynolds, club coordinator, at extreme right.

Providing for the Lord's Work

"Property is often bequeathed to children and grandchildren only to their injury. They have no love for God or for the truth, and therefore this means, all of which is the Lord's, passes into Satan's ranks, to be controlled by him."

"Some wills are made in so loose a manner that they will not stand the test of the law, and thus thousands of dollars have been lost to the cause. Our brethren should feel that a responsibility rests upon them, as faithful servants in the cause of God, to exercise their intellect in regard to this matter, and secure to the Lord His own."

"The Lord would have His followers dispense their means while they can do it themselves. Some may inquire: 'Must we actually dispossess ourselves of everything which we call our own?' We may not be required to do this now; but we must be willing to do so for Christ's sake."

"It is utter folly to defer to make a preparation for the future life until nearly the last hour of the present life. It is also a great mistake to defer to answer the claims of God for liberality to His cause until the time comes when you are to shift your stewardship upon others."

"That which many propose to defer until they are about to die, if they were Christians indeed they would do while they have a strong hold on life. They would devote themselves and their property to God, and, while acting as His stewards, they would have the satisfaction of doing their duty."

"Dying legacies are a miserable substitute for living benevolence. The servants of God should be making their wills every day in good works and liberal offerings to God. In making their wills daily, they will

The Hoberg's convention auditorium was attractively furnished and accented with the Convention Theme, "Christ . . . First, Last and Best." Missionary Volunteer insignia flanked the theme banner and display cards of MV materials framed the platform.

MV Officers Convention

Three hundred Missionary Volunteer officers met January 15 to 17 in convention at Hoberg's Resort in Lake County to plan the 1965 youth program.

An interesting weekend of activities was planned, beginning with the keynote address by our conference president, James E. Chase, who challenged the delegates to put forth the best leadership effort possible in 1965.

The Sabbath school was under the direction of the Lodi delegation with Harold Chevrier (eighth grade teacher at Lodi elementary) as superintendent. The Sabbath morning worship service was presented by the conference MV secretary.

A sacred music concert was presented to the delegates by students from Rio

Howell Mountain Pathfinder Clubs

The conference Missionary Volunteer secretaries had the pleasure of attending the first quarter Pathfinder-Parent banquet given by the Howell Mountain Pathfinder Club on January 12 in the Pacific Union College Gymnasium. The banquet was attended by 245 Pathfinders, staff members, and parents.

The Howell Mountain Club was the first to be reorganized into junior and senior sections in the Northern California Conference and now numbers 101. The club has experienced a 140 per cent growth since reorganization.

The staff of the club is headed by Robert Reynolds as coordinator and assistants Allan Magie, director, junior division, and Amos Nelson, acting director, senior division.

With an extremely well qualified staff the Howell Mountain Club is setting the pace in Northern California Pathfinding activities and programing and receives the salute of the Missionary Volunteer Department.

Agenda items ranged from MV Target 3000 projects to a new pre-military service educational program. The wide variety of agenda items covered on Sabbath afternoon, Saturday evening, and Sunday morning have exposed our MV leaders to the best possible materials and program available, and we expect another year of unprecedented youth revival and evangelism in 1965 in the Northern California Conference.

We are privileged to have dedicated youth leadership in the local churches; and with the general church membership responding with interest and care, our youth will be led into service and enjoyment as modern Seventh-day Adventist young people.

Welcome to the Bazzys

We wish to extend a cordial welcome to Brother and Sister Michael M. Bazy as they join the Southeastern California Conference. Brother Bazy has accepted a call to become publishing secretary of Southeastern, replacing Elder Charles Barnes who has joined the Northern Union Conference.

Brother Bazy attended Michigan State University in the years 1948 to 1951, majoring in education. He then enrolled at Loyola Law School in Los Angeles specializing in law. Following his school work at Loyola he was connected with a mortgage banking firm and later became associated with the Flazman & Coleman law firm. A growing conviction to have a greater part in telling the story and power of the gospel led him into the literature ministry in 1960. So great was his enthusiasm that he led the Pacific Union Conference during his first year and was second in the world field. He served as assistant publishing secretary in the Northern California Conference for two years before accepting our invitation to serve as publishing secretary for Southeastern.

Brother and Sister Michael M. Bazy.

He is married to the former Cleona Rae Vanderwilt of Keene, Texas. Before coming to Southeastern she taught home economics at Lodi Academy.

Brother Bazy assumed his responsibilities January 1, 1965, and we wish him God's richest blessings as he leads in the literature evangelism work in Southeastern.

JOHN W. OSBORN, President.

Baptism at San Pasqual Academy

At the close of the church service on Sabbath, December 19, the congregation gathered around the outdoor baptismistry to witness the baptism of eight students. Officiating at the service were Elder D. K. Smith, academy Bible teacher and church pastor, and Elder William Jamerson of Orangewood Academy. Pastor Jamerson had studied with five of the candidates at the time he conducted the fall Week of Prayer.

On Sabbath, January 9, the students were voted into church fellowship. They were Ben Bautista, Eric Davis, Shirley Lay, Bob McQueen, Sondra Newby, Cindy Strattas, Sharon Wanamaker, and Ray Wilson.

The baptismal class is continuing and several other students have indicated their desire to join their Lord in baptism in the spring.

Moving Day for Riverside Emmanuel

Members of the Kansas Avenue Seventh-day Adventist church are anxiously looking forward to worshipping in the first completed portion of their new building no later than February 20. Formerly known as the Riverside Emmanuel Seventh-day Adventist church, the congregation will be worshipping in one of the large classrooms until the main sanctuary is built in the near future.

So far the purchase of the two and one quarter acres and the construction of the spacious classrooms have cost a little more than $60,000, and of that amount the members have contributed $50,000. Presently they are giving over $1,000 a month and are faithfully keeping up with all of their other church financial obligations in a commendable manner. In their Ingathering they went $300 over the amount raised last year, and they stand up with leading churches in their mission giving each year.

The completed edifice will cost approximately $150,000. It is situated on one of the finest and busiest corners of Riverside. The temple itself will be a light on the corner to be seen clearly by the many hundreds of cars passing daily up and down the streets of 14th, Pennsylvania, and Kansas avenues.

The seating capacity will be 500, allowing room to double the present fast growing membership of 249.

Your prayers for and support of this faithful and dedicated group of believers will be greatly appreciated by the pastor and his flock during the coming year.

WARREN J. NEAL, Pastor.

El Cajon Youth Aid Mexican Girl

The youth of the El Cajon church have united in force to support nine-year-old Catalina Campos of the Calxico Mission School for the remainder of the year.

Catalina's mother spends days and days ironing to pay the tuition for her. Ironing all day brings only 25 pesos, or two dollars in American money.

Each youth of the El Cajon church promised to bring a dime a week, and by doing this they will have more than enough to take care of her tuition for six months.

The school has many more children like Catalina Campos who need help. Catalina speaks good English now and accepts and believes the simple Bible stories told her. When she grows up she wants to serve others as a missionary nurse to her own race.

The Answer to the Fifth Question

A 1964 vacation Bible school director was just asked four questions and here are the answers given.

"Do you consider the vacation Bible school program worth all the time and effort that goes into it?" Answer: "Very much so!"

"Why?" Answer: "Many of the boys and girls at first know little or nothing about the Bible but they soon become very interested and often go home and ask their parents Bible questions that have captured their interest. Also, the Bible related crafts help make the lessons easy to teach and interesting to the children."

"Have you had any baptisms as a direct result of your 1964 vacation Bible school?" Answer: "So far we have baptized five children and two adults!"

"What about your VBS plans for the summer of 1965?" Answer: "We have already made them and believe we will have our best VBS yet!"

These are the four questions asked and the answers I received. But now may a fifth question be directed to you? "Have you made your 1965 VBS plans?" You must furnish this answer. May God impress you to give the right one, and may summer find you happily engaged in your vacation Bible school evangelistic program.

C. F. PHILLIPS, Secy.,
Sabbath School Dept.

Juniors Have Unique Investment Project

Dimes, quarters, and 50 cent pieces, equal to more than $100, transformed a four and a half foot cardboard boat into "Old Silversides," the La Sierra church junior Sabbath school's Investment project for 1964.

Juniors raised vegetables, saved Loma Linda labels, collected pop bottles, and hoarded dimes and quarters to turn the silver laden ship into a rich offering by the last Sabbath in the year, December 26.

As they cemented their silver to the boat each week, they remembered that they were laying up treasure in heaven.

The juniors pictured here proudly flank "Old Silversides" while their special guest, Dr. Bruce Rice, La Sierra church Investment secretary for 1964, and their leaders look on.

Ronald Cookenmaster and Cheryl Collier, two zealous juniors of the El Centro Seventh-day Adventist church, proudly display a card showing how much they solicited door to door in the last caroling season. The $700 is one-third of all that was raised this year. The church raised $350 more than its goal, which represents a 20 per cent increase over last year's goal.

Southern Academies to Present Music Program

Sunday night, February 7, will be a special night for music lovers. On that evening the music faculty and students from the five academies in the Southern California Conference will present a festival of keyboard music at Newbury Park Academy.

Guest artists for the festival will be Dr. and Mrs. Perry Beach from La Sierra College. They will play Busoni's Duetto Concertanti in the style of Mozart and Aria and Toccata by Dello Joio.

Group numbers will include twelve students playing six pianos. Twelve faculty members will play in ensemble, and other smaller groups will also perform. The program has been organized by Ralph Sandberg, band director of Glendale Union Academy. The program is free to the public and is being presented as a part of the Lyceum series at Newbury Park Academy.

Those taking part include: Glendale Academy—teachers: Rochelle Queen, Ada Renzi, Ralph Sandberg, and Helen Tupper; students: Ross Leonard, Don Steinert, Don Thurber, and Sharon Thurber.

Lynwood Academy—teacher: J. D. Bledsoe; students: Charles Loyd and Linda Streety.

Newbury Park Academy—teachers: Carol Brummett, and Maude Wolfe; students: Andrea Armbruster, Sherry Barick, Karen Duge, Tucker Hickerson, Anita Lyman, Robert Michaels, Harlen Miller, Marilyn Osmunson, Verlyn Retzer, Donna Rich, Don Schmidt, and Wayne Vergil.

San Fernando Academy—teacher: Connie Amos; students: Katherine Chase and Bruce Hagen.

San Gabriel Academy—teacher: Elaine Jones; students: Katherine Ching and Timothy Ching.

Concert Program at Newbury Park Academy

Rafael Mendez, "The world's greatest trumpeter," will appear in concert with the Newbury Park Academy concert band on March 13, 1965, at 8 p.m.

This will be an evening of fine music you will never forget. Rafael Mendez has made musical history by establishing new standards of performance for the trumpet, as did Paganini for the violin and Liszt for the piano.

Reserve your tickets now by sending your reservations to Band Director, Newbury Park Academy, 180 Academy Drive, Newbury Park, California. Tickets—$1.50; balcony—$1. L. W. ROTH, Principal, Newbury Park Academy.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Evangelism

The start of the new year marked the beginning of two series of meetings for the Southern California Conference evangelists, Elders Don Doleman and C. L. Duffield.

To the casual observer, evangelism may seem to consist of the evangelist preaching a sermon to the gathered crowd. There is, however, much more involved than this. Take, for example, the meetings being conducted by Elder Doleman and his associates in the Inglewood church.

For a week previous to the meetings, Tressie Busching, Bible instructor, Carl Barnaby, music director, Elder Don Parks, Elder Don Doleman announces his topics to a filled church at the opening meeting in Inglewood. On the platform with him are Mrs. Peggy Colburn who furnished special music and Carl Barnaby, music director.

Inglewood pastor, and Elder Doleman carried on an intensive visitation program. Over 90 names of interests had been turned in by the members.

And who were these interests? Some were former members, and there were names from Faith for Today, Voice of Prophecy, and the Adventist Hour. The visiting paid off because there were at least 90 visitors in the opening night audience in the Inglewood church.

Evangelism, 1965 style, is fast paced and visual. Elder Doleman effectively uses slides in travelogues and in illustrating the sermon. There were only a dozen empty seats on the opening night.

In Gardena the new church was the location for the opening of the Duffield campaign. Joining him as music director was Elder G. P. Friesen, Norwalk pastor. Special music was furnished by Bob Link.

These meetings also moved along smoothly with a warm and friendly atmosphere.

You can do your part by supporting these meetings with your attendance. Elder Doleman will be continuing in Inglewood every Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday night. Elder Duffield's schedule in Gardena includes Friday, Saturday, and Wednesday nights and Sabbath mornings.

MORTEN JUBERG, Director,
Public Relations.

C. A. Oliphant to Speak for Adventist Writers Club

C. A. "Bill" Oliphant, assistant professor of journalism at La Sierra College, will be the guest speaker for the February 7 meeting of the Adventist Writers Club.

C. A. Oliphant

The next monthly meeting will be held in the conference office auditorium at 7:30 p.m. The meetings are open to all who are interested in writing. The club's present membership is over 40.

Mr. Oliphant has a wide background in journalism and writing and has been elected associate book editor of the Southern Publishing Association. He will assume this post in June.

Northridge Church Groundbreaking

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Northridge Seventh-day Adventist church were held Sunday, November 29, at 2 p.m. The property, a three and a half acre parcel, was purchased in April of 1962, and is situated at a strategic intersection just east of the San Fernando Valley State College campus.

Those participating in the proceedings were Lou Cusanovich, state assemblyman from the sixty-fourth congressional district; John Cassidy, Los Angeles city councilman; Elders Cree Sandefur and A. G. Munson from the Southern California Conference; Dr. W. H. Khoe, Northridge church building committee chairman; and the pastor, Elder V. R. Furgason.

The two phase project will first consist of a youth chapel and Sabbath school complex to be constructed beginning this month. The second phase, a sanctuary seating 500, is scheduled for the future.

A beautifully designed church plan by Robert Burman, architect of Glendale, will stand as a complement to this cultural area and will serve the members of the Northridge church as they proclaim the third angel's message to the thousands in the north San Fernando Valley.

POSTER CONTEST.—Among the 16 winners in the recent county wide Bill of Rights Poster Contest was Carolyn Curtis, a senior at Newbury Park Academy. Carolyn is from Bishop, California. With her are Mrs. Betty Clement, art instructor, and Mr. H. B. Wilcox, assistant principal of the academy.

The poster contest was one of the events leading to the observance of the Bill of Rights Week, December 9 to 15. More than 100 entries were received from 36 schools, public, private, and parochial, in this twenty-fourth consecutive Southland observance of the anniversary of the Bill of Rights.—Charles Teel, Jr., Bible Instructor.

Meetings to Be Held in Los Angeles Central Church

Elder Phillip Knox will hold a series of meetings in the Los Angeles Central Seventh-day Adventist church beginning Saturday night, February 6.

Well known for his slides showing the wonders of the heavens, Elder Knox will be speaking each Saturday and Sunday night through February 28. Here is your opportunity to hear this well known evangelist. The opening night topic will be "Exploring Today's Amazing Universe."

The Central church is located adjacent to the Harbor Freeway. The address of the church is 650 West 21st Street. Use the Adams Street off ramp from the Harbor Freeway.

LA SIERRA COLLEGE

LSC's New Student Center Officially Opened January 6

The new La Sierra College student center was officially opened January 6 in ceremonies which included a tour of the center, student government and publications offices, a short entertainment program, and ribbon cutting by Dr. William M. Landeen, president of the college.

Construction of the center, located in the low part of the cafeteria building, began during the summer of 1964. Work on the center and snack bar was financed by the college at a cost of $45,000. Students last year raised $20,000.

A spacious lounge, fireplace, game room, color TV, and complete sound system throughout the center are some of the facilities available to students. The snack bar, done in old English style, is adjacent to the center lounge.

A brick patio offers pleasant outdoor interludes for students.

LSC's Dr. Tarr Is Setting Up Expanded Speech Therapy Clinic

A new community speech therapy clinic, to be staffed by eleven LSC students, will begin on campus second semester, states Dr. W. Fletcher Tarr, professor of speech.

At the present time three clinical rooms and a reception room are being built in Room 101 of the Communication Arts building. The rooms will be furnished with one-way glass, which will enable observation from the outside without disturbing the patient; tape recorders to keep record of the clinical aid; and microphones to enable the observers to listen.

A new wing to the Communication Arts building will be added on the west side and will become the full clinic next year, says Doctor Tarr. The clinic now being built will be used for graduate assistant offices next year.

The clinic will serve children in the La Sierra and Riverside areas, and as far away as Fullerton and Hemet.

Students participating in the clinic are: Tina Bailey, senior; Luanne Bauer, sophomore; Jean Boyd, junior; Sandi Lorenz, junior; Nancy Minick, junior; Lloyd Marlow, junior; Margaret Styre, junior; Marcia McDonough, senior; and Patricia Phillips, senior. All except Miss Bailey, who is majoring in elementary education, are speech therapy majors.

There are currently 35 speech therapy majors at La Sierra College. A Master's degree in speech therapy will be offered next year.

Late Afternoon and Evening Classes

Beginning February 3 La Sierra College will offer 33 afternoon and evening classes for teachers and other adults who want to continue their regular education.

Twenty-three of the courses to be offered are undergraduate; the remaining ten, graduate.

Of the eight departments represented, the education department offers 20 afternoon and evening classes—ten undergraduate courses and ten graduate. Other departments are: psychology, with four classes; business and secretarial, music, and physics, with two each; art, religion, and sociology, one each.

Classes meet either at 4 p.m. or 7:30 p.m. Registration should be completed by 5 p.m. February 2.

LSC Farm Planting Completed; 11 Students Aid Crop Harvest

The La Sierra College farm has 196 acres of crops planted this year, reports John E. Carr, instructor in agriculture.

Last fall 75 acres of oats and vetch were planted and will be used for silage. Seventy-eight acres of alfalfa were planted to be used for hay. Also planted were 43 acres of barley to be used as feed for the dairy cows.

The barley is now being cut and it is hoped that two or three more cuttings can be made this year. The oats and vetch will be cut in March and put in the silo.

Two Trust Funds Presented to LSC Development Office

La Sierra College has recently received over $50,000 in two trust funds of cash and property, according to Dr. Ronald Drayson, vice president for development.

One trust involves cash and securities; the other includes 80 acres of undeveloped land. The property, cash, and securities become the exclusive property of the college upon the death of the anonymous parties of the trusts.

A $3,500 note has also been secured by a deed of trust which becomes the property of the college upon the death of the donor.

Feb. 15 Deadline for LSC German, French Year Abroad Program

A February 15 deadline has been set for applications from students at La Sierra College and other colleges who want to participate in the French or German LSC Year Abroad Program for the school year.

In addition to operating at the Seminaire Adventiste, Collonges, France, the Year Abroad will also be affiliated with Marienhof Seminary, Darmstadt, Germany. Students with good citizenship and scholastic records who are interested in becoming more proficient in the German language are eligible for the program. Enrollment in the German Year Abroad will be limited to twelve students.

Applications for the Year Abroad programs at Collonges and Darmstadt will be processed after first semester grades are recorded. Students may pick up forms at the registrar's office or write for information to: Year Abroad Program, La Sierra College, Riverside, California 92505.

Loma Linda Foods Holds Annual Convention

The annual convention of Loma Linda Foods Western Division sales personnel, along with sales representatives from the western area of Canada, was held at Riverside on December 29 and 30. Loma Linda salesmen look forward to this annual event which is under the direction of Sales Manager Robert MacGowan. Cliff Harrison was in charge of a special meeting on December 28 for the Medical Products Division personnel.

While these sessions deal largely with the marketing and distribution functions of Loma Linda Foods, a spiritual atmosphere prevails throughout the meetings.
