New 'Listen News Service' Promises Success in Smoke-Drink Battle, Declares GC Leader

By E. J. Folkenberg, Secretary
General Conference Temperance Department

Public health officials across this nation shudder as they read their own statistics. Every single day some 5,000 young people take up smoking for the first time, and each cigarette will cut approximately eleven and a half minutes off their lives.

One million of today's bright eyed students will be dead of lung cancer before they reach the age of sixty-five, according to Reader's Digest magazine. No wonder public health officials shudder.

At the same time officials see other millions sinking into the unreal world of alcoholism. What is to be the future of this country? It is entirely possible the day might come when these twin evils of smoking and drinking may take so vast a toll of human life that the security of our beloved nation might be in actual jeopardy!

Parents, did you know that your son and daughter are exposed to a daily average of sixty to one hundred clever advertising suggestions to smoke and drink through television, newspapers, and magazines? What are you doing to provide your child with a permanent defense against powerful social pressures to smoke and drink which he is certain to meet in the world in which he must live and work?

Millions Worried

At this very moment millions of people are worried about their own smoking habits, but, like being caught in treacherous quicksand, the more they struggle the deeper they sink into ever larger consumptions of tobacco and alcohol.

Sensing these extreme dangers to the health and well-being of millions of people, your temperance department leaders gave recent study to a bold plan of action. Listen magazine, admittedly the finest journal of its kind being printed in the world today, is published only six times a year. Because of this infrequency, it is difficult to make the strong, continuous impact needed upon today's public.

After careful study at the most recent Fall Council, leaders of the denomination unanimously voted to greatly increase Listen magazine's impact by the addition of a new Listen News Service, a tabloid-size, four-page newspaper, filled to the brim with teenage columns, advice to smokers and drinkers, pertinent cartoons, the latest news and pictures from the scientific world of health, announcements of future Five-Day Plans to be conducted across the nation, and helpful articles for those who have recently stopped smoking, all designed to help people along the road to better living.

As factual and up to date as today's newspaper, the new Listen News Service will be rush printed by the Pacific Press and delivered to your home once every two weeks during the entire year. In addition to the twenty-four copies of Listen News Service, you will also receive your six regular issues of Listen magazine which will continue its authoritative and fascinating coverage of great temperance issues.

In other words, you will receive both the regular Listen magazine plus the new Listen News Service when you subscribe to Listen magazine itself. They cannot be ordered as separate subscriptions, but are to be considered as one and the same.

Listen subscribers henceforward will receive their six usual issues of Listen magazine, plus twenty-four issues of the Listen News Service, or a grand total of thirty fascinating issues of the new Listen magazine for the low subscription price of $2.50 a year.

Smoking Friends?

What about those smoking friends of yours? What about that son or daughter, possibly even now drifting deeper into smoking and drinking? Dare we leave any stone unturned in building a wall of protection about them?

Just for a moment, simply compare a $2.50 subscription with the vast expense of possible lung surgery or extended illness. Indeed, $2.50 is a small investment toward better living for yourself and your friends.

Health officials across the civilized world are in a state of genuine agitation about the grave problems of smoking and drinking. Millions of people, trapped by their own smoking and drinking habits, are anxiously looking for personal help. And you can definitely help.

During this month you will receive a complimentary copy of the new Listen News Service. As you read it, you will thoroughly enjoy it. You will want those thirty issues coming to your own home. You will want to send it to the homes and hearts of relatives and friends. To millions of people, this is a life and death matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Hawbaker with W. D. Walton (right).

A. R. Mazat Heads Pacific Press Periodical Department

Arthur R. Mazat, formerly of the Southwestern Union Conference, is the new chief in the Pacific Press periodical department. He succeeds Elder Dave Olsen who accepted a call to the Southern California Conference.

A graduate of Union College, class of 1940, Elder Mazat brings to his new responsibilities a background of fifteen years of missionary work in China (where he was captured and held hostage by the communists in 1943-1944), plus nearly three years in the Middle East, two years in the Texico Conference, and seven in the Southwestern Union. In the last two fields he served as home missionary, Sabbath school, and radio-TV secretary.

Elder Mazat and his wife Ruth have a son and a daughter. Bruce, born in Burma, is a junior medical student at Loma Linda University, Los Angeles. The daughter, Beth (Mazat) Haunch, was born in China. She is now taking the nursing course at the White Memorial Hospital.

In his new post at the Pacific Press, Elder Mazat will direct sales and promotion of Signs of the Times, now in its ninety-first year of soul winning success; Listen, the colorful temperance journal; Primary Treasure; Our Little Friend; Sabbath School Quarterly, and other periodicals.

As the years pass, and the end draws nearer, God's truth in printed form must be more widely distributed than ever before. We are confident that this will be the case with Signs of the Times and other publications under Elder Mazat's energetic, dedicated leadership.

St. Helena Sanitarium Couple Close Long Career of Service

Mrs. Bessie Hawbaker achieved what may be a unique experience in denominational work when she retired in 1964 after thirty-four continuous years as secretary to the administrator of the St. Helena Sanitarium and Hospital.

In June of 1930, Mrs. Hawbaker (then Bessie Walker) joined the hospital staff following secretarial training at Pacific Union College. In succeeding years she served as secretary through the administrations of Myron C. Lysinger, A. C. Larson, Walter Bobst, and Ernest L. Place. She was secretary to the present administrator,

Accreditation and Teacher Credentialing at PUC

In an article appearing in these columns last August, the purpose and procedures for the accreditation of colleges and secondary schools was presented. At that time it was mentioned that during the current year one of our two Pacific Union Conference colleges would be once more visited and evaluated by the regional accrediting association for California; namely, the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

During the first week of November 1964, an official committee from the Western College Association spent two days on the campus of Pacific Union College to review a self-study report which had recently been presented and to make recommendations regarding the operation of the college and regarding the extension of its accreditation.

Pacific Union College has enjoyed full accreditation since 1933. Since their inception the graduate programs have likewise had the advantage of full accreditation.

The teacher credentialing program for both elementary and secondary teachers has been approved by the California State Department of Education.

Under date of January 22, 1965, the executive secretary of the Western Association, Dr. Mitchell P. Briggs, has advised that the accreditation of Pacific Union College has been extended. His letter contains this significant paragraph:

It is my pleasure to inform you officially that the Accrediting Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities, WASC, at its meeting in Palo Alto on January 18, 1965, granted a four-year period of continued accreditation to Pacific Union College. This period will terminate on June 30, 1969.

Although this favorable word was anticipated, it is significant that the accreditation is extended for nearly four and a half years, whereas hitherto, Pacific Union College has enjoyed only three-year periods of approval. In harmony with the accreditation policies of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, at the end of 1969 or during the school year 1969-70, Pacific Union College will be evaluated again. Certainly this official stamp of excellence will come as welcome word to all students, parents, patrons, faculty, and friends of Pacific Union College.

L. R. RASMUSSEN, Secretary,
Education Department,
Pacific Union Conference.

W. D. Walton, for eight years until her retirement.

Mr. Walton, in paying tribute to Mrs. Hawbaker, said, "This record of longevity in one job reflects the dedication of Mrs. Hawbaker to her responsibilities. The success of an administrator depends to a large extent on a secretary who understands her boss and plans her program to make his work accomplish its intended purpose."

Mrs. Hawbaker's husband, Aaron, also retired in 1964 after fifteen years of service as a cook at the St. Helena Sanitarium and Hospital.

An active contributor to the musical department of her church, Mrs. Hawbaker is organist for the midweek service and is joined by her sister, Mrs. Everett Moses, in providing organ-piano music for Sabbath school. She is a member of the choir of the one thousand member Sanitarium Seventh-day Adventist church.

RONALD GORDON,
Assistant Chaplain.

1964 Was Busy Year for Stockton Central Church

The year 1964 proved to be a very busy year for the Stockton Central Seventh-day Adventist church.

FIVE-DAY PLAN—Two sessions were held at the Lincoln Village Library building and at the University of the Pacific, with Elder Clarence L. Williams and Doctors Floyd Johnson and John Landis as speakers. These sessions proved very rewarding to those attending and to the members who assisted.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL—Summer found the members hard at work with Mrs. Evon Reeves as coordinator. Of the 165 who attended, 77 were from non-Adventist homes. Used as follow-up were the books Your Friends the Adventists and Steps to Christ which were placed in these homes.

AMERICAN TEMPERANCE SOCIETY action unit had its fourth successful fair booth at the San Joaquin County Fair.
This unit purchased the film "Without Shadow of Doubt" to be shown in the Stockton public schools.

PATHFINDER ACTIVITIES—Kathryn Kro-

Pathfinders of the Year, left to right: Judy Humble, Nancy Kellar, and Roy Wiltse.

finder leader, Ken Cortner, before she presents the American flag with a certificate from Congressman John McFall to the Stockton Pioneers.

An Ingathering Experience From Fort Bragg

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Hoagland came to Fort Bragg 27 years ago, when there were only seven Seventh-day Adventists in the community. Brother Hoagland took over the responsibility of doing the Ingathering. Sister Hoagland often accompanied him.

The first year the Union Lumber Company, the main industry in town employing approximately 1,000 men, gave him $3. Each year Brother Hoagland would suggest tactfully that they increase their offering. Gradually they did so, until in 1956 they gave $100 for the Lord's work.
Each time since then, whenever Brother Hoagland would suggest an increase in their offering, the answer was always negative.

This year Brother Hoagland and the pastor went together to solicit the Union Lumber Company. After a good Ingathering canvass in which the readiness of our Welfare Center in Crescent City was emphasized, Brother Hoagland said, "Mr.

Vaughn, I wonder when would be a good time to ask the Union Lumber Company to consider increasing their contribution."

Mr. Bernard J. Vaughn, the Union
Lumber Company public relations representative, replied, "Perhaps now would be a good time."

It was with trembling fingers that Brother
Hoagland opened his mailbox a few days

Bragg church; Gordon S. Travis, pastor; and Whitney Hoagland hold the $200 check from the Union Lumber Company.

mann visited the Capitol in Washington, D.C., and requested that Old Glory fly over the Capitol that day for the Stockton Pioneer Pathfinder Club.

On September 19 this flag was presented to the club from Congressman John McFall. Trophies and tokens were also awarded the outstanding Boy and Girl of the Year, Roy Wiltse, Judy Humble, and Nancy Kellar (the two girls tied for the shared honor).

INVESTMENT proved to be an outstanding success, when Mrs. Virginia Nickel reported that $2,532.11 had been raised in 1964, exceeding all past attainments.

DORCAS activities, under the leadership of Mrs. Nel Thoza, included 53 food baskets to needy families; 30 quilts made and distributed; 189 families helped with needed clothing; 2,094 articles of clothing collected for local and emergency needs, which accounted for the 1,438 hours of donated service through the Dorcas Society.

The Auxiliary Benefit Club is doing an excellent job raising funds for our new Community Center, under the leadership of Mrs. Naoma Kromann.

"CHRIST—THE ANSWER" evangelistic lectures by the pastor, Elder Clarence L.
Williams, were well attended every Friday evening for 15 weeks. Five have been baptized thus far with a fine group meeting each Sabbath morning in the pastor's Bible class, preparing for baptism. The current membership of the Stockton church is 500.

INGATHERING campaign, under the direction of Dr. Harold Ellison, saw the church over its goal with a total of $5,- 218.60.

The Stockton members have dedicated themselves to a year of service for the Master during 1965. There is a good spirit, and among the programs to complete is the planned Community Center.

HARRIET TOWLE, Press Secy.

Lodi Concert

Dr. Alexander Schreiner, organist at the world-famed Mormon Tabernacle of Salt Lake City, will be presented in an organ concert at the Fairmont Seventh-day Adventist church, 730 South Fairmont Avenue, Lodi, on March 1 at 8 p.m.

It is hoped that those who appreciate good music will take advantage of the opportunity to hear this fine artist in person.
A freewill offering will be taken.

WALTER KIESZ, Program Chairman.

later. But the letter he expected was not there. One week passed, then another and another. He began to wonder if it had been a mistake to ask for an increased donation again when he had been turned down so many times. We prayed that the Lord would overrule when Mr. Vaughn presented our request to the board.

Nearly a month later the long looked for envelope arrived. It contained a check for $200. "To God be the glory, great things He hath done" was the song we all felt like singing when we heard the good news.

MRS. GORDON S. TRAVIS.

News From Alturas

It was a real honor to have been invited by Herbert Johns, the pastor of the two churches in Modoc County, to officiate at a baptism in the community where I started my work as an intern almost 36 years ago.

The Spanish translation of the Bible speaks of Alturas in Isaiah 58:14. Following the admonition on proper Sabbath observance, Isaiah states: "Then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride in alturas." (Alturas means high places.)

The city that bears this name is geographically situated in high places, and though it may not be everyone's first choice as a dwelling place, the Sabbath observers of Alturas, as well as those living in Surprise Valley, made Sabbath, January 23, really a high day. They met together on this day for worship and joined later in a fellowship dinner in the home of Frances McCulley, a convert resulting from an effort that three young ministers, including myself, held in Alturas in the year 1929.

The fine hospitality and Christian enthusiasm manifested will be long remembered. We trust there will be repetition many times of this occasion in the months ahead.

C. E. WESTPHAL.

Elder Lester Hallsted Accepts Church Pastorate

Elder Lester Hallsted, director of lay activities for Southeastern for the past six years, is returning to his first love, pastoral ministry. He recently accepted an invitation to become pastor of the newly born and newly constructed Calimesa church.

Elder Hallsted is a graduate of Walla Walla College where he received his B.Th. degree in 1936. The next ten years were spent in the Washington Conference in singing and pastoral evangelism.

In 1945 Elder Hallsted served as pastor of the Oklahoma City church, then came to California, from 1950 to 1955 serving as pastor of the San Jose church in the Central California Conference.

He served as pastor of the San Diego

Broadway church from 1955 to 1958 when he moved to Arlington where he pastored the Arlington church for six months, leading in construction of the new edifice.

Elder Hallsted was then asked to assume responsibilities of home missionary secretary for Southeastern California Conference and later was given the radio-TV department which he also carried for three years. During his service here giving to missions through the medium of Ingathering increased from $110,000 to $152,000 and three additional welfare units were established.

We in the office will miss his constant fellowship and words of counsel. "I've enjoyed the home missionary work, but it feels mighty good to be going back into pastoral work again," said Elder Hallsted.

We feel confident that the Calimesa church will continue to progress under his experienced leadership.

JOHN W. OSBORN.

Five-Day Plan to Be Held at Azure Hills

Elder Elman J. Folkenberg, secretary of the temperance department of the General Conference and co-ordinator of the Five-Day Plan, is in Southeastern February 8 to 19. He will present the psychological aspects of breaking the smoking habit at the Five-Day Plan beginning February 15 in Grand Terrace and continuing through February 19.

"Dr. Ellsworth E. Wareham, thoracic surgeon of Los Angeles and Loma Linda

Pastor Lloyd Wyman tapes one of ten messages to help smokers on their way to victory.

University, will lecture on the physiological aspects of breaking the smoking habit," said Elder Melvin Jacobson, coordinator for the Five-Day Plan.

Unique in the Five-Day Plan is the "Dial a Help" telephone service installed in the newly purchased Azure Hills Seventh-day Adventist church to help give would be "victors" the psychological boost they need to lick the cigarette smoking habit.

The answering service provides ten 60-second messages designed to help the smoker establish a decision to stop smoking. It will be available on a 24 hour a day basis and messages will be changed every two days of the week. Azure Hills pastor, Lloyd Wyman, is the speaker on the "Dial a Help" program.

The Five-Day Plan is being sponsored by the San Bernardino County Health Department in cooperation with the temperance department of Southeastern California Conference.

Spiritual Feast Enjoyed by Pathfinder Leaders

One Friday evening found 225 Pathfinder officers gathered together to seek ways of becoming better leaders. After the opening song, the group separated into small prayer bands to seek the Lord's blessing upon the meetings. The Lord did answer the prayers of these dedicated leaders—for throughout the weekend the presence of God was felt.

Elder John Loo, pastor of the Arlington church, was the speaker for the evening. After a very stirring message, the invitation was given to rededicate their lives to the service of God. The leaders answered this call by standing to their feet, surrendering their lives to Christ and to the task of finishing the work.

Sabbath morning the group gathered for worship. Curtis Bradford, junior theology student at La Sierra College, presented the message. Sabbath school was under the leadership of George Randolph, Pathfinder director for the Colton Club. Elder C. F. Phillips, conference Sabbath school secretary, was also present to tell how Pathfinders are helping in vacation Bible schools and story hours.

Mrs. Margie Elick, missionary from Peru, brought a most thrilling mission appeal, and Elder Wayne Griffith, former missionary in Peru, presented the lesson study. Mr. Lester Park, principal of Orangewood Academy, gave the 11 o'clock

Sabbath School Workshop—Should You Attend?

The visitor was impressed. He had just stepped into one of the children's divisions of this Sabbath school and almost immediately sensed an atmosphere that grows out of carefully made plans and efficiently dispatched details.

The gentle pastel colors of the walls and ceiling, the neatness and the appropriateness of each piece of furniture helped to provide a spiritual setting for the children.

But there was more. Soon his attention shifted from the room and its appointments to the leader. She was poised, cheerful, informed, and her every word and move gave evidence of a resource of knowledge and experience. The visitor wondered—could it be? He lingered after the division was dismissed. "Your division looks like a great deal of planning goes into it. Where do you get all your ideas?" he asked. "Really," she said, "I am not very original and have to get most of my ideas by attending the quarterly workshops conducted by the conference. I don't know what I'd do if I couldn't attend them."

Another Sabbath found the visitor walking into a division of a different Sabbath school. What a difference! The room message entitled "Youth Leaders and the World Challenge."

In the afternoon Elder T. E. Unruh presented a very timely message, "Make Straight Paths for Your Feet." After his talk he led in a discussion of how the leaders can help the youth to maintain the high standards of Christ. Following this fine discussion, they heard reports from the various clubs as to how the Lord is blessing the Pathfinders in their soul winning program. The stories were an encouragement to all.

Saturday night the Pathfinder leaders formed small discussion groups, each discussing a separate phase of the Pathfinder program and how it might be improved to make the program more effective and meaningful for the Pathfinders.

Sunday morning the group spent three hours learning new crafts that they could teach in their Pathfinder clubs. This was followed by the presentation of the plans for the forthcoming union camporee by Elder Harry Garlick, Pacific Union associate MV secretary. The camporee will be held April 12 to 15 at Bishop, California.

By the time Sunday classes were over 265 leaders had gathered at Pine Springs Ranch. Everyone left the institute feeling that it had been a very profitable weekend.

seemed to say, "Who cares, children aren't important anyway." This division lacked just about every favorable element found in the first. Why? He did some investigating—asked a few questions, soon learning that the leader had recently mentioned to a friend, "I see no need of attending workshops. I think I do just as well without."

The quarterly workshops conducted by the Sabbath school department are a service to the field. Each one—selecting instructors, the preparation of the lesson helps, purchase of teaching aids, planning details—takes several months of preparation. We will continue to do our best to help you make your Sabbath school an effective evangelistic agency. But to help you most you will need to attend the workshops.

C. F. PHILLIPS, Secretary,
Sabbath School Department.

Elder Figuhr to Speak at Annual Convocation

Heading the list of speakers for the annual convocation of the Southern California Conference is Elder Reuben R. Figuhr, president of the General Conference.

R. R. Figuhr

A native of Wisconsin, Elder Figuhr first served the church as a pastor in the Oregon Conference in 1922. He continued his services as a missionary to the Philippines from 1923 to 1931. In 1931 became president of the Philippine Union and served in this capacity until 1941 when he became president of the South American Division.

Elder Figuhr became a vice president of the General Conference in 1950, a post he held until his election as president in 1954.

The Southern California Conference considers itself fortunate to have a man of wide experience such as Elder Figuhr as the speaker for the Sabbath afternoon program of the annual convocation. The meetings will begin Friday night, March 26, in the Long Beach Sports Arena. The Sabbath afternoon and evening services will be in the spacious arena.

Speaker for the Friday night service will be Elder R. R. Bietz, president of the Pacific Union Conference. Dr. H. M. S. Richards and The Voice of Prophecy group will have the Saturday night service.

This is the time to make plans for this annual spiritual feast that takes the place of the camp meeting.

Pathfinder Leaders Meet at Camp Cedar Falls

Over 200 Pathfinder leaders and officers attended the 1965 planning session held recently at Camp Cedar Falls.

Guest speakers for the occasion challenged officers to new goals for soul winning for their clubs. Speakers were Elder Wayne Thurber, Albert Hamra, Elder James Hardin, Elder Cree Sandefur, Elder Harry Garlick, and Elder J. H. Melancon.

Those in attendance had an opportunity to see first hand the construction underway at Cedar Falls. Close to completion is the caretaker's home. Also well underway is the new dining hall which will seat 400. It has room for the kitchen facilities and sleeping quarters for the kitchen staff.

Camp Cedar Falls has developed into a convention center for Southern California churches, and the new buildings represent the first stage of a long range building program. There was thought given in the past to finding another location closer to Los Angeles. But careful searching has revealed nothing as well equipped as the present camp, especially with the water rights that Cedar Falls has.

Next on the building program will be more living quarters and a lodge. When the new dining hall is completed the old hall will be used for an assembly hall or it may be converted into a staff building. Pathfinder officers were unanimous in their praise for the new construction at Cedar Falls.

The caretaker's new home at Cedar Falls will be ready for occupancy soon.

Speaker for the morning worship services at the Pathfinder officers convention was Elder Cree Sandefur, president of the conference.

With a panoramic view of the San Bernardino Mountains, the new dining hall at Cedar Falls camp will have room for 400 diners.

Visitation day for the members of the Los Angeles Central church is more than a passing event. Over half of the congregation participates in the house-to-house work. On visitation day, many bring their lunches and are ready for an early start. While some watch children, others go out in their work. Shown above is a typical group of the members who participated in a recent visitation day. The pastor, Elder Caesar Bufano, is on the extreme left in the picture.

Dr. Julian Thompson, superintendent of the Ridgecrest Sabbath school, holds the silver bucket on Investment Day at the Ridgecrest church December 5. The offerings were placed in a silver bucket and each member was asked to tell how he had reached his goal. When all the coins and bills had been placed in the bucket, it weighed nearly 54 pounds, and when counted it was found that $336.50 had been turned in on that one Sabbath.

Frenches Leave the Valley

Yes, after about 20 years in the Valley of the Sun, Elder and Mrs. W. R. French have sold their home and reluctantly left Arizona and their many friends here. However, they feel that the Lord is leading and they are doing what is right at this time.

I am glad to report that Elder French is gaining in strength each day and is feeling much better, and Mrs. French continues in good health. They are now living in Boulder City, Nevada, near their son, Dr. J. B. French. They will be happy to hear news of their friends and to have visitors whenever you have opportunity to go that way. Their address is: 1100 Arizona Street, Boulder City, Nevada. The residence address is 4 Hillside Drive.

Globe Members See Victory Surpass Investment Goal

As Investment leader, I was anxious that the Globe Sabbath school should get off to a good start in the new year. When a goal was discussed, it was suggested that we attempt to reach the $5 per member goal set by the conference for the year; for our church this would be $125. The members voted to have this for their goal.

Each month through the year we held Investment sessions in the church. Some of the projects chosen by the members for Investment were: collecting and selling pop bottles, a thank offering box put on the dining table, ten cents a pound for every pound gained by the three babies in our Sabbath school, earnings when on required Sabbath duty as a nurse, radishes sold from one package of seeds planted, and one member promised to give one dollar for each rose bush he planted that grew!

At the end of the year our Investment total was about $2 short of our goal. The once skeptical members now turned on smiles and began reaching into their pockets. When the money was counted, we had gone over our goal nearly $3.

Sabbath school members who have been here for years now say, "We have never raised this much before—but we did it in '64."

MRS. A. T. KING,
Investment Leader.

Verde Valley News

In the Verde Valley church we have a group of Pathfinders who are very active. The accompanying picture shows them as they returned from the Halloween "Treat the Needy" campaign. Their trophies were more than four hundred cans of food which were used in preparing baskets of food for needy families.

Our Ingathering campaign closed recently, and these junior Pathfinders were in the forefront of the campaigners. Two of our boys received more than $75 each, and two of the girls more than $50 each. Altogether these boys and girls brought in more than $400 for our Ingathering.

We have a group of dedicated Pathfinder leaders, and each week they have some kind of nature activity for our eager boys and girls. The Sabbath evening vesper services are a real challenge to the older members of the church.

Thunderbird Teacher Elected to Phi Delta Kappa

Elected recently to Phi Delta Kappa was L. R. Callender, guidance director and Bible instructor at Thunderbird Academy. Phi Delta Kappa is a fraternity composed of professional educators. Membership in the fraternity is achieved through a five-step procedure:

1. Recommendation by a present member.
2. Investigation of the scholastic record and professional experience of the candidate.
3. Personal interview by an appointed team.
4. Presentation of all findings from the first three steps to the entire local chapter and vote of the members on acceptance.
5. The initiation ceremony.

Phi Delta Kappa is recognized by many educators as the outstanding fraternity in the educational field. Its stated purposes are: the furthering and improvement of education with special emphasis upon research, promotion of fellowship among professional educators, and fostering a high standard of professional ethics. The organization publishes the Phi Delta Kappan, well known educational journal.

Elder Callender is working at A.S.U. in Tempe on his doctor's degree in Educational Administration which he hopes to complete this summer.

Sabbath School Offerings Show 12½% Gain Over 1963

Hawaii Sabbath school members are continuing their progressive program of mission offerings. The year 1964 showed a total of $60,255.96. This is a gain of $6,671.62 over 1963—a 12½ per cent gain. Surely God is pleased with this dedication to His work.

You will be interested to know that five years ago the Sabbath school offerings totaled $39,769.84. Truly the Lord has blessed in this growing mission program.

The General Conference has recommended a 50 per cent increase in Sabbath school offerings this year. The world need is urgent and calls are many. While 1965 is still young, let us restudy our Sabbath school giving and do what we can in Hawaii to reach this goal.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. McKee beside the "loaner" piano they made possible for the Aiea church.

New Piano for Aiea

A large, generous donation from Mr. and Mrs. O. D. McKee of Collegedale, Tennessee, enabled the Aiea church to purchase a new piano for their main sanctuary. The new piano has really been needed there, but it seemed "always in the future." Now, it is a reality, and the members are very grateful to the McKees for this wonderful gesture.

On Sabbath, January 9, a potluck was held at the Aiea Heiau in their honor. Flower leis and a monkeypod dish were presented to them as a small token of the members' appreciation. Their daughter, Mrs. Winifred Stevens of Arizona, was also visiting the Islands with them.

Pastor Dill says that a new piano has been ordered and should be here in about two months. Until the piano arrives, the church has one on loan. The new piano will certainly add to the services.

Truly Aiea has much to be thankful for and would like to say a big ALOHA to the McKees and wish them God's continued blessings.

Aiea Church.

1965 Soquel Camp Meeting, June 17 to 26

Cabin reservations are being accepted at this time. Applicants must be members of the Central California Conference and 65 years of age or older.

A deposit of $20 is required for each cabin reservation. There are only 70 cabins, and when these have been reserved a waiting list will be started. The fact that you had a cabin last year does not guarantee you one this year.

Reservation cards for tents and trailer spaces will be sent to your local church by March 1. We would prefer that you use the card when making your reservation. Those requesting the same tent or trailer space should have their reservation with deposit in by April 1.

Reservations for tents and trailer spaces from those residing in other conferences will be accepted after May 20 if facilities are available.

Last year we had a large number of cancellations because reservations were made too early. We are desirous of reducing this number, so please be reasonably sure that you will be able to attend camp meeting before making a reservation of any kind.

Teachers Training Course at Burlingame Church

Elder C. C. Groomer, conference Sabbath school secretary, conducted a very successful Teachers Training Course at the Burlingame church beginning Sabbath, January 23, and continuing through Wednesday evening. The Sabbath school superintendent, Stanley Smick, was instrumental in securing the services of Elder Groomer for this series of meetings.

The textbook used for the course was Teach by Stanley S. Will, and this was supplemented by the showing of colored slides. Elder Groomer stressed the importance of teaching in the Sabbath school and the high calling of the Sabbath school teacher. The group discussed the various methods that can be used to retain the "involuntary" attention of all class members; they learned how to adapt the lesson study to the needs of the individual class member; and many questions were asked concerning the time spent by the teacher in preparing his lesson. The use of the Sabbath School Worker and the Spirit of Prophecy books was encouraged in this preparation.

On Wednesday night a test was given to see how much had been learned. Seventeen members of the church completed the course.

This report would not be complete without telling of the rich blessings each received through attending this course. It was an inspiration. Thanks to Elder Groomer for making these meetings not only beneficial but also very enjoyable.

DAVID NOBLE, PR Secy.,

Four Baptisms as Result of Youth Meetings in Quincy

Voice of Youth meetings were held September 9 through 18 in Quincy, California, under the direction of Donald James, church elder.

The young evangelists put their whole hearts into their parts as four to five would speak nightly on their topics covering prophecies of Daniel 2, Daniel 7, and Revelation 13 and 14. Large beasts as tall as the speakers were used, important statements and descriptions were flashed on the screen just over the speakers' heads, thus the congregation was captivated. Ruth James, Richard Clements, Daniel Clendenon, David Ellwood, Pat Clendenon, and Melanie Ellwood were the speakers. Brother James gave the closing call Friday night. In response his wife sang "Just As I Am" while walking down the aisle toward the lecturn. Special musical features were presented twice each night.

Four souls were baptized December 26 as a result of these Voice of Youth meetings. They were Mr. Melvin Ellwood and his three children, David, Melanie, and Mike. It is of interest to notice that the three children all took part in the Crusade for Christ. Brother Ellwood with his wife and children have been attending church each Sabbath for several years. Sister Ellwood has been a member and a faithful lay worker for the last three years, although Brother Ellwood waited to be sure. All are now overjoyed that he and his children have joined our family, and we know they will be a great blessing to us.

"We learned what real unity meant," recalled Brother James, "when each mem-

Other young people who acted as ushers were Charolette Clements, Kathy Ramelli, Susie James, Bonnie Ramelli, and Evelyn Clements. Behind the scene one never really knows what takes place. ## Opportunities Still Knocking

We have all heard the old saying, "Opportunity knocks but once." That is not exactly true as the following quotation from a recent announcement we have received from The Voice of Prophecy indicates; but the opportunity is becoming more costly.

"KORK, Las Vegas radio station, was canceled off the Inter-Mountain Network, and it would appear that they are not going to replace Inter-Mountain coverage in Las Vegas. We have been endeavoring to get other coverage, but have finally had to purchase the same station at a higher rate so as to maintain coverage in the Las Vegas area. We hope you will continue to promote listening to KORK at 9 a.m."

Since the opportunity to give the message via The Voice of Prophecy is becoming more costly, we should endeavor to get every possible listener to tune in on the program. How long these opportunities will continue at any cost we do not know. What is true in the Las Vegas area is true everywhere. Now is the time to make full use of The Voice of Prophecy and promote listening to the program.

E. F. FINCK, Secretary, Radio-TV Department.

cial assistance, according to the State Scholarship Commission.

The scores of the state scholars on the scholastic aptitude test of the College Entrance Examination Board place them all within the highest three per cent of college aptitude nationally. Their grades on academic subjects in secondary school averaged 3.65 or A-.

Course in New Math Methods Being Offered by Home Study Institute

Much has been said in recent years about the new emphasis in mathematics and much has been done about it especially in the colleges and centers of research.

Teachers have differed in opinion. Some have reasoned that the new methods and contents should begin with the early years of the elementary school, and continue as the child advances into other grades. Others have said that science and industry cannot wait. Neither may the schools; world progress demands an immediate adjustment at all levels.

Wherever one stands in the discussion, teachers face the problem of an early adjustment. They must be informed. Skill in the use and explanation of the new mathematics is expected. It may require unlearning of the old, but mastery of the new is the order of the day.

Into its course in methods for teaching arithmetic the Home Study Institute has introduced an important section which presents throughout the lessons the new processes as well as content.

These lessons were recently prepared by a skillful teacher and writer, Dr. Agnes R. Eroh, associate professor of education at Atlantic Union College. They were reviewed by her major professor at Boston University, and are based on a textbook widely used, the product of the School Mathematics Study Group.

Parents whose children are wrestling with the new arithmetic will find help in these lessons. Especially will this be true where parents are supervising the studies of children unable to attend classes with teachers already using the new processes, as well as the teachers of the elementary school. Further information may be obtained by writing to the Home Study Institute.

W. HOMER TEESDALE,
President,
Home Study Institute.

Medicine-Religion Course Taught at St. Helena Sanitarium and Hospital

The medical profession as well as the clergy have more recently given time in their thinking to the importance of co-operating in their efforts to treat mankind. In September of 1961 the American Medical Association organized a department of medicine and religion, the purpose of which is to create communication between the physician and the clergyman to deal with the total care and treatment of the patient.

Paul B. McCleave, M.D., director of the department of medicine and religion for the American Medical Association, said, "The physician has much to say to the clergyman, and if we are honest, the clergyman has much to say to the physician."

To help cement this relationship and to some degree relate our young ministers with medical terminology and practices, the St. Helena Sanitarium and Pacific Union College recently united efforts in the establishment of a new course in medical evangelism.

Topics Listed

Specifically designed for the ministerial student, the course involves such topics as "Anatomy and Physiology," "Diet and Nutrition," "Preventive Medicine," "Medical Terminology," "Methods of Health Evangelism," and "Apropos Mental Hygiene." Staff doctors and visiting participants in
