Large Growth in Membership Noted at the Southeastern California Conference Constituency Meeting on April 25

Elder Theodore Carcich, president of the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists, opened the Twenty-fourth Biennial Constituency Meeting of the Southeastern California Conference on Sunday, April 25, with a deeply moving presentation on "God's Care Over His Work."

"Although the controversies of the past will be revived, our God will give tender care to the work He has asked man to do in the earth," said Elder Carcich. Quoting from verses in Ezekiel "which show the hands of Godly concern supporting the scenes described," Elder Carcich declared that "these same hands of concern are supporting the program of the church today."

"We can rely on these hands," the church leader said. "Encircled in their everlasting love and concern we can be absolutely sure of the ultimate triumph of the Advent Message!"

Encouraging Report

More than six hundred delegates from the five California counties comprising the Southeastern California Conference were present in the academy gymnasium on the La Sierra College campus as Elder John W. Osborn, conference president, brought his encouraging report to the session.

In the past two years the conference membership jumped from 18,936 to 21,140," he revealed. "The gain of 2,204 members alone exceeds the membership of many small conferences. The total number of baptisms and those joining on profession of faith indicates that 2,459 were added for the two year period, which is 536 more than the preceding two year period.

"As loyal servants let us multiply the talents of time and treasure entrusted to us," challenged Elder Osborn. "After a 'short time' the Lord will come and reckon with us. Because of our wise use of these talents may we hear Him say in that day, 'Well done, good and faithful servant.'"

Conference Secretary-Treasurer Harry E. Schneider told the delegates that net membership growth in the past two years was eleven and six-tenths per cent. Tithes increased in the same period by sixteen per cent for a gain of $1,031,866. Mission offerings had a gain of eleven and a half per cent, and extension fund appropriations to church and school projects in the two year period totaled $966,254.

In afternoon sessions of the constituency meeting, while committees on plans and nominations were at work, delegates saw a fact filled motion picture showing high lights of soul winning activities throughout the conference during the last two years.

During the session six churches were welcomed into the sisterhood of Southeastern California Conference churches.

They were: Westminster, Indio Spanish, Azure Hills, Yucca Valley, San Diego Claremont, and Carlsbad Spanish.

In one of the session's afternoon meetings delegates heard a report from Elder Frank E. Rice, administrator of Paradise Valley Hospital, which noted construction progress of the new, one hundred fifty bed Paradise Valley Hospital and the steady growth of the health evangelism program throughout the medical institution.

Delegates voted to ask all administrative officers and departmental leaders to remain at their posts of responsibility for the next two years. C. Elwyn Platner of Hinsdale, Illinois, was called by the delegates to become public relations and radio-television secretary of the conference.

Executive Committee

Named to the Executive Committee of the conference by constituency meeting delegates for the next biennial period were: John W. Osborn, Harry E. Schneider, Walter D. Blehm; David J. Bieber, La Sierra College; Frank E. Rice, Paradise Valley Hospital; Paul Wipperman; Fenton E. Froom, San Bernardino; Eliezer Benavides, Carlsbad; Melvin L. Lukens, San Diego; Dr. Myron S. Mickelson, Westminster; Eric C. Ward, San Diego; W. Donovan Schutt, Redlands; J. L. Hamrick, San Diego; Willis Risinger, La Sierra; Frank Spangler, Hemet; Juliet Judson, Ramona; Dr. Roy Sorenson, Victorville; and Dr. Robert Cleveland, Loma Linda.

Intercollegiate MV Workshop Held at Wawona April 2 to 4

A two day Intercollegiate Missionary Volunteer Workshop was held April 2 to 4 at Wawona Camp in Yosemite National Park. There was an attendance of thirty, made up mostly of MV officers and sponsors of the present as well as the commissioning school year. The theme was "Being Christlike on the Campus."

Elder D. E. Rebok led in the discussions Friday night and Sabbath. He said, "Something has gone wrong on the university campuses in the United States. Satan is using two principle movements to get rid of God."

1. The evolutionary theory which permeates the intellectual world, eliminates right and wrong, therefore sin, therefore God. Hence, the moral decline on the university campuses.

2. The communistic theory which tells the individual to use any means possible to gain the world, pushes God out of man's life.

The only solution to these satanic theories is found in four texts.

1. Matthew 6:33—"Seek ye first the kingdom of God."

2. Matthew 11:28—"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden."

3. Isaiah 45:22—"Look unto me, and be ye saved."

4. Isaiah 26:3—"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee."

People are looking to Christians to reveal Christ. They expect to see something on our Seventh-day Adventist campuses that they do not see anywhere else. And we are happy for the emphasis being placed on Christian living and witnessing on our campuses.

Sunday morning the MV leaders from the various schools gave a brief report on activities which have been very successful this year.

Rick Rice and Dave Wilkins of La Sierra College told about: (1) "Dimensions," a Sabbath afternoon informal type meeting in which important topics are dis-

Enthusiasm Runs High—MANOR OFFERING Will Be May 15

CALVIN OSBORN, La Sierra: "Some day many of us in our sunset years will be looking for a place like Paradise Valley Manor where we can find rest, quietness, and spiritual fellowship. Let us show that we love enough to care by giving a liberal offering to the Manor Fund May 15. Let us sacrifice for those who have sacrificed for us."

WILBUR CHAPMAN, Loma Linda Hill: "If only I could have felt at home there, it would have been so different." So confided an elderly lady to her pastor in describing her feelings of insecurity and unrest caused by the unfriendly environment in which she had been compelled to live in her sunset years. It has come as good news to many of us that we will soon have a conference operated home for senior citizens. I join with my fellow ministers in praying for an unusually liberal response to the earnest appeal for a sacrificial offering for Paradise Valley Manor to be received May 15.

JOHN H. TOPPENBERG, Chula Vista: "The Paradise Valley Manor is one of the most worthy mission projects that challenges us here in the homeland. I am wholeheartedly for this undertaking and our church is one hundred per cent behind this project. If every church member in Southeastern could sense this need, the goal of $100,000 can easily be reached on May 15."

J. L. SHULER, retired: "Seventh-day Adventists have been remiss in the past in making suitable provisions for many of our elderly members. I have seen some of the finest Adventists grow old with no place to go except that now outmoded institution called 'the county home.' Thank God the picture is changing for the better. The 22,000 Adventists in Southeastern may well thank God for men in the conference who have envisioned a home for our senior members in Paradise Valley Manor. Let us give sacrificially on May 15."

J. L. HAMRICK, North Park: "One of the most heart rending experiences of a pastor is to visit a lonely, aged member who has been 'discarded.' Especially is this true of a Seventh-day Adventist who is compelled to spend the final years in an environment that is out of harmony with his accustomed manner of living. The Paradise Valley Manor project is an attempt to provide a much needed place of fellowship and understanding. This project must carry high priority. How much we care will be measured by how much we give in relation to what we have."

KENNETH LIVESAY, El Cajon: "At last our leading brethren are acting by faith to provide a proper home for our own members. This is as it ought to be. Our people welcome the good news. In our church we are going to do all we can to provide a major contribution for Paradise Valley Manor on May 15."

E. D. NELSON, Garden Grove: "As a pastor I have many times witnessed the necessity of having elderly members live their closing years in unfamiliar surroundings that were out of harmony with the spiritual atmosphere to which they were accustomed. Speaking of our aged members we are admonished: 'To neglect them is to declare ourselves false disciples, strangers to Christ and His love.'—Ministry of Healing, p. 205. Paradise Valley Manor is the answer. Plan to give liberally May 15."

LAWRENCE SCOTT, Yucaipa: "For a long time the church has needed to take better care of its members who are in their declining years. This need is about to be met in the establishment of Paradise Valley Manor. Our conference leaders are to be commended for their faith in launching out on this project. 'To aid in the support of these institutions should be looked upon not merely as a duty, but as a precious privilege.'—Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 287. Give liberally May 15."

HAROLD FLORY, Newport Beach: "The Paradise Manor project is a sincere effort to accept the responsibility outlined in Isaiah 58. We have an obligation to our elderly members who have given of their strength and means to sustain the cause of God. Let there be a wholehearted response when the offering is received May 15."

And so the lack of space compels us to end the roll call. Our pastors and church leaders have voiced their enthusiasm. Let God's people "arise and build" this much needed facility. The rewards will be great. God's blessings will attend us as we move forward in faith.

Five Join El Monte Church by Baptism March 20

Pastor Roy Harris of the El Monte Seventh-day Adventist church baptized five candidates for membership into the church at 3318 Washington Boulevard on March 20.

The El Monte church is moving forward both spiritually and physically as they prepare for the forthcoming evangelistic effort to be held in the San Gabriel Valley.

Church members are donating time, money, and effort for improvements to the church building. Redecoration of the youth chapel is almost finished. The nursery room is also scheduled for improvements.

Elder Harris and the El Monte church extend a sincere welcome to fellow believers and visitors to the area to attend the worship services of the church.

Newbury Park Academy Has Spring Week of Prayer

The Spring Week of Prayer at Newbury Park Academy was held recently with Elder Lloyd Wyman as speaker. The emphasis of the week was on the book Messages to Young People. Each student was given a gift copy and encouraged to follow and underline key passages as the week progressed.

In addition to counseling, Elder Wyman also spoke in Bible classes and participated in the baptismal class.

Elder Wyman is pastor of the new Azure Hills church in Grand Terrace, California.

Two San Gabriel Students Awarded State Scholarships

For the fourth consecutive year students at San Gabriel Academy have won State Scholarships. This year four of the twelve students who applied were semi-finalists, and two were selected as award recipients.

Sandra Calvert and Linda Toennissen each received college scholarships renewable for four years. Both are going to La Sierra College this fall.

Sandra and Linda have been active members of the school, and this year hold offices in their senior class.

Constituents of the school have good reason to be proud of the efforts they have put forth to make San Gabriel a going academy. Though only graduating our sixth class this June, we have made outstanding achievements in scholarship and other community awards.

May 29 Is Offering Day for Cedar Falls Improvements

It is observed that no other facility in our conference is used as much by so many and as often as is our Cedar Falls Camp. It is a place all appreciate and enjoy visiting. Over the years improvements have been made and more are needed.

We should like so much to get the new dining hall finished for use this summer. In order to do so we need upwards of $50,000 to complete this facility with furnishings and A-1 kitchen equipment.

We are therefore calling on our members to present an offering on Sabbath, May 29, for this purpose. We invite you to give "big." Your help is needed urgently.

Executive Secretary.

Child Evangelism Bible Club Is Successful at Azusa

The Child Evangelism Bible Club has had attendances of over 40 on several Wednesday nights at the Azusa church. The present meetings grew out of a story hour plan started by Mrs. Michael Holm for the children to encourage the parents to come to prayer meeting.

After attending the Child Evangelism Bible Club Plan held at the conference office Sabbath school department, Mrs. Holm returned and inspired others to get behind the plan. To date over 18 non-Adventist children have attended. More than ten have attended Sabbath school, with a parent in some cases. Bible studies have started in the homes.

The program includes a vocational training of which the greatest interest is in a children's choir. Robes are already completed. The children sing for Sabbath school and Wednesday night meetings.

Associated with Mrs. Holm are Elder and Mrs. Wentzel Cowper, Mr. Holm, Mr. and Mrs. Epperson, Mrs. Giffin, Mrs. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Minasian.

The well kept grounds and equipment of Linda Vista Junior Academy have helped it to achieve a "Model Rating."

Linda Vista Junior Academy Receives "Model Rating"

One of the finest school plants in the Southern California Conference is the new Linda Vista Junior Academy near Oxnard, which proudly boasts "Model Rating."

Following the inspection of the school by conference officials, Benn Nicola, principal, received notice of the rating with these comments: "Linda Vista Junior Academy is without peer in the Southern California Conference in atmosphere, decor, learning environment, campus and classroom cleanliness, landscaping, playground organization, classroom color and activity.

"This is the first junior academy or elementary school in the Southern California Conference that was able to reach the rarefied atmosphere of 'Model Rating' the first time it was inspected and graded."

Hearing about the rating, this reporter did some checking and found "Model Ratings" were rare. To find out why Linda Vista Junior Academy received this rating he visited the school on a recent afternoon.

There is little doubt that this is a well located school. Though situated near Ventura and Oxnard, two of the communities it serves, the school has a rural environment. Lemon groves with a few houses tucked among them surround the eight acre school site. Beyond these groves are the rolling foothills of the coastal range.

The neatness of the school is outstanding. It is well kept. Large, well lighted classrooms add to the learning atmosphere. No doubt this could be said about two dozen other schools, but there is an extra "something" in the appearance.

One of the intangible factors that has contributed to the rating of the school is the "esprit de corps" of all who are associated with it. There is no "hangdog" expression on the faces of the teachers and there is a genuine warmth generated in part by the pride in the institution.

The present enrollment is 125. These students come from Santa Paula, Camarillo, Ojai, Ventura, and Oxnard. Buses wind their ways through fruitful valleys to bring students to the school. Linda Vista Junior Academy is the result of the merging of two schools which were located at Port Hueneme and Ventura.

With a history dating back to 1929, the Ventura school met in three different locations until the merger. The Port Hueneme school had humble beginnings. Its first classes were held in the apartment of Doctor Crites in 1949. Mrs. Dallas Youngs was the first teacher and had ten students.

We visited all of the classrooms, peeked in the corners, and tried to put our finger on the "plus" factors of the new school. Still seeking the answer, we asked the principal, Benn Nicola, "What is the purpose of Linda Vista Junior Academy?"

There was a brief pause, and then the answer: "We want to follow the guidance of the Spirit of Prophecy and seek to educate the whole child."

We never did pin down one single factor for the "Model Rating," but one thing was obvious, this school had everything a school should have, but it had something more—an extra touch.

The answer would probably be found with the pastors and the church members of the constituent churches. In the final analysis, a school reflects the attitudes, the plans, and the work of those who support it.

Public Relations Dept.

Pets Not Allowed at Arizona Annual Camp Meeting

Camp meeting is no place for pets. The boys and girls, the young people, and those not so young, we urge you all to come to camp meeting, but leave the pets at home.

No doubt your pet is different. It's almost human, you say. We can't argue with you about this. They are God's creatures and we ought to love them and care for them. Take them to the pet show, but not to camp meeting. A dog or a cat at every tent and cabin could create quite a chorus. Please eliminate any embarrassment for yourself and others by not bringing the pet this year.

Flagstaff Church Has First Service in New Sanctuary

Sabbath, April 3, the members of the Flagstaff church occupied their new sanctuary. Though the weather was bad nearly the whole membership plus many friends joined in the opening services.

The building was begun nearly five years ago. It is of block construction with a full basement under the sanctuary. The roof is of open beam design with exposed decking in natural finish. The total value of the building and furnishings will approach $35,000.

Since the congregation is small, funds have become available rather slowly. Nearly all of the work has been done by members of the congregation and friends. This has meant a large cash saving to the church, and has served as a source of real satisfaction to the members.

The basic design was drawn by one of the members, Brother Stanley Dalegowski. A succession of pastors has led in the construction, starting with Brother Darrow Foster and including Elder Raymond Cales, Elder H. W. Carter, Elder L. R. Callender, and the present pastor. Because of the economy exercised in the construction, it is hoped that the building can be dedicated in the near future.

The opening services consisted of the Sabbath school under the leadership of Dr. Rollin Gosney and the worship service in which the pastor challenged the congregation to use this experience as a stepping stone to wider responsibilities and greater accomplishments for the Lord. Following the services the members spread their lunch together in the basement, and after lunch a program of sacred verse and music was presented.

The Flagstaff church members would like to express their gratitude to their many friends for the gifts given to the church, and for the many prayers offered in its behalf during the past five years.

J. W. BASSHAM, Pastor.

Phoenix Central Church Has Voice of Youth Meetings

The youth of the Phoenix Central church have been busily engaged in a Voice of Youth effort. A recent Sabbath morning worship service had two youth speakers, Carol Jasper and Bob Masters, presenting a sermon on the subject of the three angels' messages.

The evening meetings began on a Saturday night in the Central church with Deanna Howard, Lyle Huff, and Bob Masters presenting the subject: "The Beast of Revelation 12." Danny Connor led the song service and special music was given by Sherrie Poulson. In spite of an unusually heavy rain, the crowd was most rewarding. The meetings were held four nights a week for three weeks.

Three teen members of the Religious Activities Committee that serves the Missionary Volunteer organization were in charge of the Voice of Youth effort. They are Danny Connor, Bob Masters, and Sherrie Poulson. The youth also cared for the hostess work and ushering.

Young people who are interested in the message are being visited. Two youth have been baptized. Less than a year ago Bob Masters, a high school junior and outstanding athlete, was baptized. In July he went to the Laymen's Congress. Coming back with visions of winning youth to Christ, he set out about the work of witnessing. Now, in less than a year, Linda Maddox, a senior, and Rodney Buhrmaster, a sophomore, have been baptized, due largely to Bob's efforts. Both Linda and Rodney come from families in which they are the only Seventh-day Adventists.

Pray for the success of the youth evangelism activities at Central.

JOHN V. STEVENS, Pastor.

Yuma Young People Conduct Sabbath School March 22

The Yuma church was both gratified and blessed on Sabbath, March 22, when four girls took complete charge of the Sabbath school. They were Mona Morgan, Judy Krueger, who acted as the superintendent, Beverly Baily, and Yolande Fabela.

The hearts of our church members were gladdened as they observed a most practical demonstration of the fruits of Christian education, as all these girls are in attendance at Thunderbird Academy.

May the God who designed this system of education continue to over-rule the forces of evil that the young people of the Seventh-day Adventist Church may continue to be "all taught of God."

Maricopa Mission Hosts Juniors From Phoenix Central

On March 6 the Junior division of the Central church presented the Sabbath school program at the Maricopa Indian Mission, which is located ten miles from Phoenix. They made the trip in the Pathfinder bus and returned to Central for the worship service.

As a part of the program, juniors from the Central church presented the juniors at the mission with an attendance goal device. The juniors have been waiting for a reaction to the device since it is the first to be used at the mission. The reports are favorable and it is believed that as the idea becomes a custom it will be even more successful.

1965 Evangelism in Hawaii Promises Rich Harvest of Souls

Believing that the coming of Jesus is very near—even at the door—the program of the Hawaiian Mission is geared to total evangelism.

Public evangelism is being widely used in all areas. Since January 1 Elder C. M. Basconcillo has held evangelistic services in Lahaina on the Island of Maui, associated with Elder Warren Shultz, the district pastor. Working with Elder Frank McMurry, the church pastor, he held an evangelistic series in Hauula on Oahu. At present Elder Basconcillo and Elder McMurry are holding evangelistic services in Kaneohe.

In Waipahu Elder Alfred Munar and Elder L. E. Fletcher from our mission office recently completed an effort, and Elder Munar and Brother Ben Leialoha have just begun a series of services in Wahiawa.

On Kauai Elders Don Lee and Darrell Mayberry have completed a series of meetings in Koloa, near Kalaheo. They plan another series in the Kapaa area very soon.

The churches of Honolulu joined in a large city wide effort featuring Elder Philip Knoche, pastor of the Central church, with music provided by Elder Jerry Dill and Mrs. Betty Lawson.

Elder Victor Aladen and Brother Robert Watts just concluded an effort in the Kalihi section of Honolulu.

From these and other efforts that are planned, we are confident of a rich harvest of souls in Hawaii in 1965.

And the laymen? Are they "evangelistic-minded"? Most certainly they are. Through Bible studies, cottage meetings, vacation Bible schools even now being planned, and through promoting the daily Voice of Prophecy broadcasts, Faith for Today, and our own local TV program, they are earnestly letting their lights shine.

When the work of God is finished in China, India, and Africa, our dear believers in Hawaii want to be found working shoulder to shoulder with their brethren around the world, heralding the coming of Jesus! Pray for the work in Hawaii.

B. W. MATTISON, President.

Unusual Chapel Program by Special English Students

The Special English Class of Hawaiian Mission Academy under the leadership of their teachers, Mrs. Shigenobu Arakaki, Mrs. Kenneth Day, and Mrs. Robert Watts, accepted the responsibility of putting on one of the chapel programs recently at the academy.

This fine group of young men and women, almost all of them non-Adventists, are enrolled in a special class at Hawaiian Mission Academy to learn to speak and to use the English language effectively. Their chapel presentation was one of the high lights of the school year.

After the opening ceremonies in which the entire group sang "Jesus Is Coming Again," the program was divided among those of Korean, Chinese, and Japanese backgrounds. Not only was every phase of the program outstanding in itself, but it was a tremendous inspiration to behold the witness of these fine young men and women to the influence of Christian education.

Of the nearly 300 students enrolled at Hawaiian Mission Academy, half of them are from non-Adventist background. We sometimes hear the complaint that Christian education is "too expensive." But with such a tremendous field of missionary endeavor and evangelistic opportunity, it would seem that any sacrifice is not too great in terms of the eternal results that come from the contact of these young people with Christian teachers day after day.

Hawaiian Mission Academy needs not only the prayers of the entire field, but also needs the wholehearted financial support of everyone throughout the islands.

Won't you please continue to remember Principal Harvey Voth and the entire staff of workers at the academy in your prayers? May God give them added strength and wisdom as they carry on the heavy responsibilities of guiding these young people toward eternal life.

LAVERN PETERSON,
Educational Superintendent.

Music Festival Was Held at Santa Cruz on April 25

On April 25 all elementary and junior academy choral organizations of the Central California Conference were invited to assemble at the new Virgil Hauselt Memorial Junior Academy Auditorium for a festival of music. The activities of this day culminated several months of planning and practice by the various groups. Each group performed one number individually, and then they combined their talents for a four number finale.

Mr. Gordon DeLeon, head of the music department at Modesto Union Academy, was guest conductor for this occasion. His enthusiastic direction of this large group of young people brought out their best efforts.

General chairman of the festival plans was Mrs. Earl Wright, teacher at the Virgil Hauselt Memorial Junior Academy. Mrs. Wright also accompanied the massed group in their performance.

We congratulate the Santa Cruz constituency for their beautiful and well planned auditorium. We thank Mr. Winston DeHaven, principal of the school, and Elder J. M. Nerness, pastor of the Santa Cruz church, for their kindness and assistance.

The success of this day encouraged us to make this an annual affair, alternating the band and choral groups year by year.

M. C. TORKELSEN,
Superintendent of Education.

Junior academy students of the Central California Conference participate in the Choral Festival held at Santa Cruz recently.

Crowds like this have been packing the Kern County Fair Grounds Auditorium in Bakersfield for twelve weeks to hear the Harris-Hoffman evangelistic team. The straightforward presentation of the truths of the everlasting gospel have brought a great awakening to this city.

Interest Grows Each Week at the Bakersfield Crusade

The Harris-Hoffman-Brooks evangelistic team has been conducting an evangelistic campaign in Bakersfield at the Kern County Fairgrounds Auditorium for twelve weeks, beginning in February. At the time of this writing there have been over 50,000 people who have attended this crusade. To date there have been over 125 baptisms, and the baptisms are continuing every meeting night. There are at least another 100 prospects for baptism in the immediate future.

The pastors and the laity of the Bakersfield churches have given wonderful support to this endeavor. Special mention should be given to the outstanding way that our Christian doctors have supported this work by their attendance, and by bringing their patients.

It has been a marvel to our people to see the huge crowds pouring into the auditorium every night of the meetings. People start filing in about an hour and a half before meeting time to be sure to get a good seat. All of our churches in Bakersfield are thrilled by the overflow crowds attending the Sabbath services. Some of the youth divisions are already overcrowded. The churches are seeing a constant influx of new members every week. The entire city of Bakersfield is in a state of stir. Many feel that we are having a little foretaste of the power of the latter rain. We feel like exclaiming as we witness these things, "What hath God wrought!"

One of the most amazing things about this crusade is that the interest is growing with each succeeding week. During one full week there were torrential rains that turned the parking lot into a lake, but this did not decrease the attendance one bit.

The meetings will soon close because of camp meeting and other appointments, but the Conference Committee has made the wise decision for another series of meetings to be held in the same location next fall. It is anticipated that the next series will result in a bigger interest and a greater harvest than the present one. Again we solicit the prayers of God's people in behalf of this soul winning endeavor.

STANLEY HARRIS, Evangelist.

Philo Camp Meeting Canceled Because of Flood Damage

Due to the floods in northern California which seriously damaged the Philo campgrounds, it is with regret that we have to announce the canceling of the plans for the camp meeting June 7 to 10.

We would suggest that those planning to attend the Philo camp meeting plan to attend either the Hammond Grove meeting held in Fortuna August 4 to 7, or the Oakland meeting which is planned for September 17 and 18 in the Oakland Civic Auditorium.

Other area meetings scheduled for the Northern California Conference are as follows:

Paradise	June 9-12
Lodi	June 16-19
Redding	June 24-26
Auburn	July 29-31

Report of Radio-Television Evangelism in Northern

A word of deep appreciation and thanks is due to all our loyal church members in Northern California for contributing the largest Faith for Today offering in the North American Division. The total for Northern California was $19,458.90 for 1965—$8,000 more than 1964. Brethren, this is a phenomenal offering, indicating a deep interest in radio and television evangelism.

A word of appreciation has come from Gordon F. Dalrymple, public relations director of Faith for Today, expressing his appreciation for this fine effort on the part of Northern California. But, the real thanks belong to those faithful members in our churches who week by week and month by month give to this great phase of our evangelistic thrust.

It does cost money to be on radio and television, but the results are well worth the effort. In the comparative report, The Voice of Prophecy offering in Northern California was $17,948.73. These two figures for radio and television total $37,407.63. This is a large figure when you take into consideration that our church members have contributed this much from their income over and above their tithe and other generous offerings to foreign missions.

From the radio-TV department we wish to say a big Thank You for your generosity and to encourage you to continue to give as these great mediums of communication are used to spread the gospel and win souls to the Lord Jesus Christ.

These offerings would be of no avail unless they reflected in baptisms. We have a combined interest report from Faith for Today and The Voice of Prophecy, and I am happy to tell you that Northern California is credited with 204 baptisms during 1964. There was only one other conference that exceeded this number, and that was the Michigan Conference with 309 baptisms.

We solicit your prayers and your continued financial support as we launch out into one of the greatest areas of soul winning in the history of the church. We hope that this year we can double our baptisms and have credited to our record 400 souls baptized for the Lord Jesus Christ through these mediums.

W. B. BRISTOW, Director,
Department of Public Affairs.

IT'S PINECREST CAMP TIME!

Flag raising at the Livermore Valley Seventh-day Adventist Church School.

Open House at Livermore Valley Church School

The Livermore Seventh-day Adventist church school held open house in its new building Sunday, March 28. The teachers and students invited all the neighbors along Marina Avenue, as well as the church members. About 80 people came to inspect the school facilities. Mrs. John Perrin, Home and School leader, and the pastor, J. W. Lehman, welcomed the visitors.

The teachers—Mrs. Dorothea Pitts, grades one to four, and Ted Baze, grades five to eight—helped the children in presenting displays of school work in gardening and map making.

An award was made by Mrs. Perrin to the lower grade room for submitting the name chosen for the new school. The name will be "Livermore Valley Seventh-day Adventist Church School." It was turned in by Kathy Trow, third grade, Cynthia Johnson, second grade, and Jennifer Cathey, first grade.

Wayne Martin and Richy Perrin raised the American flag and the California flag over the new school while the children saluted. To finish the ceremonies, Jack Perrin, with his trumpet, led everyone in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

R. A. NIXON, PR Secretary.

Sons Honor Fathers at Banquet

One hundred and twenty-six fathers attended the biyearly Father-Son Banquet held from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Rio Lindo Academy cafeteria Sunday, April 11.

Prior to the supper hour the sons bested the fathers in a double header softball duel. Volleyball and basketball included those fathers and sons who weren't engaged in activities on the ball field.

Leland Yialelis, boys club president, welcomed the dads and guests after which club chaplain, Larry Potts, asked the blessing.

Toasts to dads and deans were made by Doug Ludwig and Thom Juarros. One father commented, "Most of us dads found tears flowing when Doug said, 'Dad, I love you!'" Elder Ludwig and Dean Lovejoy responded to the toasts.

Denis Maddox introduced Bill King, sportscaster for the San Francisco Warriors, as the guest speaker.

Rio Lindo Held Academy Day Activities on April 8

Two hundred prospective academy students from 31 elementary schools and junior academies, chaperoned by 50 teachers and parents, registered for Academy Day activities Thursday, April 8. Student receptionists—Sarah Blackburn, Lorene Turner, Wanda Gibson, Marjorie Pearson, and Doreen Knapp—welcomed each visitor.

Tour guides directed each group through the major divisions of the school. Their first stop was at Principal W. T. Will's office where he presented each student with a Rio Lindo pennant. Exclamations such as "Just think, you can really study chemistry with this lab!" or "I want to take French!" were heard many times by the tour guides.

The visits to the residence halls gave an insight into that facet of school life missed by so many. Deans Delmar Lovejoy and Dickerson greeted the young men; Deans Beverly Paulson and Pessie Pluhoy welcomed the girls.

The academy band and choir were featured in chapel. Mr. Ellsworth Judy directed 82 band members in "Bandolology," "Scandinavian Fantasy," and "Pirate Dance." Mr. William Haynes drew music from the choir such as only youth can sing. Linda Marsh and Wally Schmidt were featured soloists in "The Song of the Open Road" and "Weep O' Willow."

Ed Moore, junior from Fresno, introduced the Speech Club. The speech choir, directed by the club president, Doug Ludwig, playfully presented "In Come the Animals." Leland Yialelis interpreted the poems "Not of School Age" and "Mia Carlotta."

The visitors concluded their activities by playing Rio Lindo underclassmen a closely contended basketball game.

Fritz Guy Receives $4,800 Grant for Second Year of Graduate Studies

Fritz Guy, assistant professor of religion at La Sierra College who is on a study leave, has been awarded a $4,800 Danforth Teacher Grant for a second year to continue work toward a doctorate degree.

Professor Guy, on the faculty since 1961, began work on his doctorate in Systematic Theology last June at the University of Chicago. He will remain on leave of absence from teaching duties at the college for another school year.

In addition to the $4,800, the grant covers tuition and fees for eleven months of graduate work.

Professor Guy received his bachelor's degree from La Sierra College in 1952. He was awarded the Master of Arts in 1955 and Bachelor of Divinity in 1961, both magna cum laude, by Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan.

Prior to teaching at LSC, Professor Guy was assistant editor of The Youth's Instructor, published weekly in Washington, D.C., from 1957 to 1960.

He is one of 50 teachers chosen from four year liberal arts colleges throughout the United States to receive Danforth Teacher Grants last year and is one of 42 to receive reappointments for an additional year of study.

The foundation, with headquarters in St. Louis, has made grants to teachers to aid them in obtaining doctorate degrees since 1927. Selection for reappointment to receive the grant a second year was made on the basis of continuing financial need, significant progress during the initial grant, and high quality of work as evaluated by graduate professors and the Danforth Teacher Advisory Council.

Who Are We, and Why Are We Here?

As Adventists we are in a sense the Elijah's of today. Elijah's message, Malachi 4:5 and 6, to rebuild the home, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the hearts of the children to the fathers, is the only answer to juvenile delinquency which today is increasing at five times the rate of the population.

We are to be the mouthpiece of God—to sound the last warning message and to stand in defense of the truth.

In the young people's department we are not content in making just good youth or good citizens, or in teaching youth skills, or teaching how to choose good recreation, programs, or reading material. Our chief objective is to help our youth catch a vision of the urgency of the unfinished task; to kindle in their hearts the flame that burned in Elijah's heart; to activate them for the Cause of God.

Our program for 1965 is designed to encompass every MV Society in every conference, challenging all to conduct one or more major evangelistic project during the year. Many societies already are reporting good results.

Four specific soul winning projects are being emphasized:

1. Evangelistic (Voice of Youth) meetings in which the youth do everything including the preaching.

2. Friendship Teams for which the chief qualifications are the ability to smile and the will to witness.

3. Operation Fireside. Youth give Bible studies in the homes culminating in group evangelistic meetings.

4. Branch Sabbath Schools. It's possible for MV's to spend Sabbath afternoon developing a work that will lead to the organization of a new church. Think of it!

Material is available through the MV department for all of these plans. Let us activate the potential power in our youth for winning souls.

Intercollegiate MV Workshop

cussed—for example, the topic "Is the Catholic Church changing today?" (2) Sending a student missionary to Hong Kong. (3) Foreign missions retreat recently held on the La Sierra campus in which thirty-four college students signed cards indicating their desire to serve as missionaries.

Clark Braman of Loma Linda University reported on: (1) Students engaging in Bible studies. (2) Sending a medical group to Mexico. (3) A weekend retreat at Cedar Falls Camp; theme, "Renewing the Mind." (4) Placing Adventist books in motels.

Chuck Shultz of Pacific Union College pointed out that their one big objective for the school year has been "Operation Vallejo," which was held in the town of Vallejo. This plan laid the ground work for a successful evangelistic effort in which the students participated. Students also provided the music and gave Bible studies. They also assisted in a Five-Day Plan.

Other activities promoted by Pacific Union College MV this year have been Power Hour Prayer Bands, Stereo Hour, Student Week of Prayer, a student missionary, and a Master Guide canoe trip down the Russian River.

All considered the workshop a real success and a must for next spring, again at Wamona.
