Missionary Volunteer Goal for Youthful Soul Winners

In his book The Hidden Persuaders, Vance Packard tells how the modern advertisers hire teams of psychologists to probe and prefix the impressionable minds of children and youth. The analytical adult is very much aware of this constant struggle for the minds, motives, and money of our youth. In it we can often see the marks of satanic appeal.

But today when so many are making decisions for eternity, we are most grateful that other influences, and good ones indeed, are being brought to bear upon Adventist youth everywhere. Young people by the thousands are tasting the joys of bringing souls to Christ. The Missionary Volunteer department reports that some 75,000 young men and women brought thousands to Christ last year.

Young people who are willing and who possess even a minimum of talent are participating in this thrilling adventure in evangelism. If you can express yourself in public or private you can be used in this great program.

Discourses are already prepared in handy, useful format. The organizational material necessary in holding MV Voice of Youth services is available. Your pastor, your MV Society leader, and your conference MV secretary will be more than glad to work with you in realizing your part in

Andrews University Sponsors Six Summer Field Schools

Andrews University will continue its program of practical training for ministers in its Theological Seminary this year by sponsoring six field schools. About fifty-four men will participate in evangelistic efforts under the guidance of experienced evangelists.

Field schools will be held from July 23 through August 21, says Elder Edward Banks, associate professor of evangelism and director of field work. They will be located in West Covina, California; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; New York City; Omaha, Nebraska; St. Petersburg, Florida; and Worcester, Massachusetts.

"The purpose of the field schools," says Elder Banks, "is to combine the theory and practice of evangelism in an actual soul winning situation."

In the usual day at field school, students will spend mornings in classes taught by the evangelist directing the campaign. The afternoons will be spent visiting people who have expressed interest in the meetings. After the evening meeting, the entire group meets with the evangelist to discuss the day's events and their own progress.

Directing the West Covina field school will be Elder Clarence L. Duffield, Southern California Conference evangelist.

the great goal of 30,000 baptisms for Missionary Volunteers in 1965.

The prize to be won in this program is the exceeding joy found in winning sincere and inquiring souls to the Lord Jesus; and, moreover, the soul you win may be your own.

Shall I Enlist?

Shall I enlist? Shall I wait for the draft? Or shall I speed up my draft?

These questions are going through the minds of thousands of young men here in the United States as they read the current international news and try to plan for their own future.

There are pressures that push at them from all sides, especially the pressure of what "everyone is doing." Seventh-day Adventist youth need to give sober thought to these matters before coming to a decision.

From the experience of many years the Seventh-day Adventist Church counsels its young men not to enlist voluntarily, but to fulfill military obligations through the draft. The reasons for counseling our young men not to enlist voluntarily are logical and follow the counsel of the military forces. An important exception to this counsel involves the physician or dentist who has a military obligation. Owing to the manner in which a physician or a dentist is involved in command responsibilities in the military service, he cannot be used satisfactorily as a draftee; therefore, the church counsels such men to seek a commission in order to fulfill their military obligations.

The Seventh-day Adventist observes the Sabbath as a day of rest quite differently from the normal manner in which Sunday is observed. After many years of experience with Sabbath observers, the military forces

Urgent Appeal Written to All Sabbath School Members

We wish to write a few earnest words to all our Sabbath school members about their weekly Sabbath school offerings.

Here at the headquarters of our work, our leaders take a very serious view of the present world situation. It appears that we are very rapidly approaching the end. The close of probation and the coming of Jesus must be very near.

And yet there are millions of human beings who are still in heathen darkness, upon whom the light of God's message has never shone. What shall we do about trying to reach them this year?

Jesus has warned us that "the night cometh, when no man can work." Already its deep shadows are gathering. Very soon now our opportunities to save men will be forever past.

Our money is rapidly losing its value. Today the American dollar is worth less than it was a few years ago. And soon it will be worth much less. I have in my possession a Chinese Nationalist bank note for one million dollars. Some years ago, when the exchange rate with the United States was two and a half to one, this bill would have been worth four hundred thousand United States dollars! Now it is just a souvenir.

Years ago those living in the United States were told by God's messenger that one dollar then was worth more than ten dollars would be at some future time. That must mean that monetary values in the United States will continue to decrease. Why not use more of our money for the spreading of God's glorious message of salvation now while currency still has some value?

Greatest Efforts

This is intended as an appeal to our Sabbath school members to plan to give much more through the Sabbath school offerings this year than ever before. The year 1965 should be marked by our greatest efforts to reach the nations with the gospel of salvation and the message of Christ's coming.

Already doors are closing. Already many countries are beyond the reach of the foreign missionary, and another year may see this number greatly increased. Now is our day. We have only the present. The future is in God's hands.

I realize that the appeal from the Autumn Council was a call for an increase of fifty per cent or more; however, I am of the opinion that there are many—perhaps very many—in our Sabbath schools who could and should double their offerings this year. Several million dollars beyond any previous year's income are urgently needed this year to meet the needs of our world program so that we may quickly evangelize those who are still within our reach.

And this need can be supplied. In many of the home base lands today God's people are unusually prosperous. God has dealt liberally with us. Shall we not show our deep gratitude for His blessings by reaching out a helping hand now to those who are still lost and dying?

Let us plan for enlarged gifts through the Sabbath school and let us give systematically every Sabbath. Let us do it for God and for lost men for whom our Saviour died.

Candy Strippers of Feather River Sanitarium and Hospital

Recently a special reception was provided for the Candy Strippers of Feather River Sanitarium and Hospital, at which time nine of the eighteen in the group were present. Two of the girls, Lucilda Schnitter, who is a junior from Paradise High School, and Carol Fleming, a freshman at Paradise Junior Academy, have contributed 285 and 245 hours, respectively, in volunteer services as Candy Strippers.

The program, which was designed to acquaint a number of medical and hospital personnel as well as future Strippers and their families with this field of work, was given in part by the Strippers.

The Candy Striper program, under the direction of Mrs. Nadine Lewis, R.N., is a Hospital Volunteer Program designed to give teen-age young ladies an opportunity to assist in various hospital services, bringing them in close contact with the patient medical program, as well as providing an opportunity to give unselfishly of their time to assist and comfort the sick and afflicted.

As the result of these volunteer programs, many of these young ladies have chosen to enter career fields in nursing, medicine, x-ray, and other medically related fields. The program is assisted also by the Committee on Volunteer Services and will be under the direction of Mrs. Betty Hayes, R.N., this coming year.

The administration of the hospital is happy to be able to have a group of young people working with and for them and is glad to encourage such a program. Those who may be interested in the new class soon to begin may contact Mrs. Betty Hayes at the Feather River Sanitarium or at her residence phone number, 877-4004.

Darkness Covers a Hundred Towns and Cities

That's right! One hundred towns and cities in the Nevada-Utah Conference are in spiritual darkness because there is no church or Seventh-day Adventist member living there. Think of it! One hundred communities where the Sabbath truth needs to be proclaimed in its fullness. God has said that there are "Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision."—Joel 3:14. Then He tells us what we are to do: "Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe." "Let the heathen be wakened."—Joel 3:13, 12.

"The crisis is stealing gradually upon us. . . . Confusion fills the world, and a great terror is soon to come upon human beings. The end is very near. We who know the truth should be preparing for what is soon to break upon the world as an overwhelming surprise."—Christian Service, p. 51.

Not only are we to prepare for what is coming upon the world, but we are to help others to be prepared also! Everyone will be able to help bring the Light of Truth to those who live in darkness on Sabbath, July 17. This is the day when we will receive our annual offering for Nevada-Utah Evangelism. We are hoping and praying that the Lord will bless us with $10,000.

The conference workers have already pledged more than $1,200 toward this goal. Won't you join them on Sabbath, July 17, and give as God directs? God bless you as you help to bring the Light of the Gospel to those who sit in darkness in our conference.

HELMUTH C. RETZER, President.

The Dorcas Society which regularly sends more clothing to the West Coast Welfare Depot at Watsonville than any other in the Nevada-Utah Conference is Yerington. Interestingly enough, Nevada-Utah is still leading "head and shoulders" all of the North American conferences in pounds of clothing per member sent to either the east or west coast depots.

Even the achievement of volume production involves the little things as indicated in the picture of the Yerington Dorcas ladies sewing on buttons. Mrs. Carolyn Eaton, the Yerington Dorcas leader, and her workers are to be commended for their devotion and achievements.

One More Outlet for Voice of Prophecy Weekly Broadcast

It was good news, indeed, the other day when my phone at the office rang. Dr. Lee Fuller, owner of Radio Station K-ONE, informed me that he had just returned from Los Angeles and while there had visited the Voice of Prophecy and made plans to put on the weekly broadcast every Sunday morning at nine o'clock at his own expense. This will give a second outlet for the Voice of Prophecy program every week in this rapidly growing Reno metropolis. We are grateful to Doctor Fuller for this courtesy.

May we invite you to encourage your friends and loved ones who live in the Reno area to listen to the Voice of Prophecy broadcast every Sunday morning over K-ONE—1450 kc.

Roe Family Arrives in India to Serve as Missionaries

Cyril E. Roe, teacher and principal of the Las Vegas Seventh-day Adventist church school since 1963, has accepted missionary duty in Poona, India, for a five year period, to teach in Spicer Memorial College. The British born instructor and his family arrived in India about July 5.

While in the United States, Mr. Roe attended Pacific Union College and the University of the Pacific. He taught part time at Pacific Union College Preparatory School, at Napa Junior Academy, at Stillwater School for Boys, and at Las Vegas.

The Roe family will be greatly missed in Las Vegas because of their willingness and ability to help out in so many areas of church responsibilities. Brother Roe served as local elder for most of the time they were in Las Vegas. He carried large responsibilities in both the Las Vegas and Boulder City churches. He was also chairman of the building committee and was an MV sponsor.

Oahu Summer Camp Brings Many Decisions for Christ

The annual summer camp on the Island of Oahu was held this year at Ewa Beach Park. Including directors, we had a total attendance of 228. The varied activities such as swimming, crafts, honor classes, and sports, along with the camp counsel and evening programs, all helped to make this a most enjoyable camp.

Elder Miller Brockett from the Pacific Union Conference office was present with us and took an active part in all the camp activities. Elder Varner Leggitt, pastor of the Kaimuki church, was the camp pastor.

During the Sabbath morning service, Mrs. Jean Rinehart and Mr. Alexander Chun were invested as Master Guides.

At our camp counsel period, it was a real inspiration to see many of our young folk express their desire to follow Christ. Elder Brockett made a definite call Sabbath morning and 52 young people responded indicating their desire for baptism. The names of these youth have been passed on to the local pastors for follow-up with these young people.

We are thankful for the fellowship of our summer camp and the influence it has had on our youth.

Youth Director.

Home Missionary Endeavors by the Kailua Church

Dr. Ira Gish, home missionary leader, and Mr. Frank Humphries, assistant home missionary leader for the Kailua Seventh-day Adventist church, recently installed ten magazine racks in the town of Kailua. Installed at places where many people congregate, these racks have been a great source of sharing many of our denominational periodicals with the public in Kailua.

Since June, when the racks were installed, 20 applications have come in for the Signs of the Times. Doctor Gish has announced that Kailua church has gone way over its goal for the Signs of the Times campaign this year.

We do solicit your prayers for these home missionary endeavors in Kailua.

Honolulu Crusade Concludes; Forty-six Are Baptized

The spring evangelistic crusade for the greater Honolulu area has now been largely completed. At the time of this writing a total of 46 persons have been baptized, and many others are presently studying in anticipation of following their Lord into the watery grave.

The meetings were conducted by Elder Philip Knoche, pastor of the Honolulu Central church. He was assisted by Elder Jerry Dill of the Aiea church who acted as singing evangelist and music coordinator. Elder Harold Kono of the Japanese church was treasurer and Elder Varner Leggitt, Kaimuki pastor, was in charge of advertising and publicity.

Six months were spent in preparation for this crusade by airing the Voice of Prophecy radio program daily over station KGU in Honolulu. Now an additional six months of air time has been purchased to use as a means of follow-up.

A typical program during the series began with Mrs. Philip Knoche drawing a black light picture with chalk while people were finding their places in the beautiful 600 seat assembly hall of the Honolulu International Center. Upon completion of the drawing, the house lights were dimmed and a spectacular picture stood out in striking color. Next, the King's Heralds sang "Lift Up the Trumpet" via tape recording and Elder Richards introduced the speaker, singing evangelist, and featured soloist. The featured soloist was Mrs. Betty Lawson. After a short musical program by Elder Dill and Mrs. Lawson, Elder Knoche presented the topic for the evening. This simple format was followed for each of the 20 nights of the series.

Following the conclusion of the meetings, the churches in the Honolulu area each held baptismal services. To date there has been a total of seven such services with more to come. In these seven services, 46 precious souls have taken the vital step of following their Saviour all the way.

Other staff members who contributed heavily to the program were Mrs. Phoebe Chang, organist, and Mr. Hugh Winn, pianist. Several Oahu pastors not of the Honolulu area also supported the meetings by their attendance and visitation of interests in their areas. The spirit of harmony which prevailed was certainly a blessing to all who participated.

Please pray for the continued progress of the Lord's work in this beautiful island paradise. Many thousands here know nothing about Christianity. Our dedicated workers and laymen are continually striving to do their part in proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom to the residents of Hawaii while the opportunity is still ours.

VARNER LEGGITT, Pastor,
Kaimuki Church.

Atascadero Welfare Center Opens With Program June 7

Marking the opening of the Atascadero new Community Health and Welfare Center at Atascadero June 7, representatives of the local Red Cross, Salvation Army, County Welfare, and County Sheriff's Department met with local Adventist officers and friends to introduce the new facility to north San Luis Obispo County.

Elder Lawrence Davidson, director of Health and Welfare work for the Central California Conference and the principal speaker on the program, discussed the origin and scope of our welfare work, showing its origin in the early Christian church with Dorcas.

Elder L. A. Wheeler, district pastor of Atascadero, King City, and Paso Robles churches, still on crutches following his six-month's hospitalization from a car-truck collision, gave the welcome speech. He added to the words of Scripture the whimsical appeal made by the famous entertainer Bob Hope, "The person who doesn't have the heart to help the poor has the worst form of heart trouble."

Two supervisors of County Welfare attended, one of whom, Mrs. Catherine Callies, spoke on the program. She welcomed Atascadero to the great family of welfare organizations, pointing out the valuable place volunteers fill before long term aid by public assistance can take over.

Representing the County Sheriff's Department for the north part of the county, Deputy Maurice Lane cut the ribbon, admitting guests to an inspection of the facil-

Adventist Youth Witness by Missing Own Commencements

Four Tucson Adventist youth witnessed in four different high schools to God's Holy Sabbath by missing their own commencement exercises this June.

These seniors told a Tucson newspaper editor that it was not too difficult a decision since they had not attended or participated in any of the school activities on Friday nights, nor had they gone to the football or basketball games on the Sabbath. They had faithfully attended and participated in Terri Dotson's witness was to approximately 800 seniors in her high school, while the other three witnessed to 1,382 fellow seniors. Terri's plans include La Sierra College to begin studies in dental hygiene.

Nellgwin Olson is scheduled to study prenursing at Southwestern Union College in Keene, Texas.

Yolanda Johnson thinks she may have to work a year before entering college as she has no financial backing. She has been offered a job in the Tucson Bread Shop, working with other Adventists.

He is a member of the National Honor Society and winner of the Danforth Foundation Leadership Award. Also, he received the coveted bronze medallion of the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award and won third place in Tucson in the Elks "Most Valuable Student Contest." Last year he was named "Junior Boy of the Year" by the University of Arizona and as a senior he became a National Merit Scholar. David's future plans include La Sierra College this fall where he will work toward a physics major.

Indian Students Graduate From Thunderbird Academy

Those who come to Thunderbird Academy frequently characterize it as a friendly school. The friendly atmosphere is hard to account for, but it may come in part from the wide geographic distribution of students who enroll here: approximately one-third of the student body come from outside the state of Arizona. In fact, this year two of the graduates were from outside the continental United States—from the Virgin Islands and from Puerto Rico. Such a wide geographic range brings students of varied backgrounds and interests who, as they work and study together, develop a respect for the uniqueness of the individual and a friendliness to others.

Seven Indian students were among the 72 graduated from Thunderbird this year. These students transferred from the Navajo Mission School at Holbrook to Thunderbird Academy for their senior year of academy. Their homes are in the four corners area, in northern Arizona, southern Utah, and northwestern New Mexico. The Indian graduates this year were Anthony Beyer, Andrea Davis, Bud Haycock, Fermina Johnson, Henry Peterson, Perry Preston, and Lewis Zazzie. We have appreciated having these fine students with us this past year and wish them every success as they leave our campus to continue their education elsewhere.

C. B. HARRIS, Principal,
Thunderbird Academy.

Elder Daniel Cotton, instructor in religion at La Sierra College, congratulates Lewis Zazzie for successfully completing his senior year. Lewis is one of seven Indian students who graduated from Thunderbird Academy this year. His first eleven years of schooling were at the Navajo Mission School at Holbrook. Besides his senior diploma, Lewis also received a scholarship from La Sierra College. His special interest is in the field of art. Elder C. B. Harris, principal of Thunderbird Academy, registers his approval.

Conference Educational Superintendent Is Appointed

Dr. E. Stanley Chace, associate professor of education at Andrews University, has accepted a call to be educational superintendent of the Southern California Conference.

E. Stanley Chace

With his past experience as a district pastor, a teacher, professor of education, Elder Chace is well qualified for the challenges of the large Southern California Conference school system.

He was born in New Britain, Connecticut, and was graduated from South Lancaster Academy. He attended Atlantic Union College, and he received his degree from Southern Missionary College. He worked as a press foreman and advertising manager in Massachusetts before becoming a pastor in the Southern New England Conference in 1948. From 1954 to 1956 he taught school in the Southern New England Conference and also in the Florida Conference. Doctor Chace was director of the Laboratory School at Southern Missionary College from 1956 to 1961. Since 1961 he has been associate professor of education at Andrews University and also curriculum coordinator for elementary education.

His graduate work was taken at Boston University, Massachusetts State, University of Miami, and the University of Chattanooga. From the latter institution he received the Master of Education degree in the fields of Psychology and Sociology in 1958. Study was continued at the University of Tennessee in the field of curriculum and instruction, educational psychology, school administration, and teacher education. He received his Doctor of Education degree from this institution in 1960.

Doctor Chace is a member of several professional and educational societies, including the American Association of School Administrators, The American Educational Research Association for Childhood Education, the National Council for Measurement in Education, the Association for Supervision in Curriculum Development, and the National Society for the Study of Education.

Doctor Chace has been in the conference briefly, getting acquainted, and he will arrive here with his family about July 15 to assume his duties.

San Gabriel Valley Crusade Beginning July 23

The Southern California Conference evangelist, Elder C. L. Duffield will begin a one month San Gabriel Valley evangelistic campaign on Friday evening, July 23.

Elder and Mrs. Gordon Henderson of Detroit, Michigan, are uniting with Elder Duffield and will be in charge of the music.

Fifteen or more students from the department of applied theology at Andrews University will join the pastors and workers to strengthen the team. We are fortunate in having Elder E. C. Banks, head of the field of evangelism division of Andrews University, to give daily guidance and instruction to the group.

The city of Baldwin Park has granted permission for the erection of a large tent on a beautiful three acre plot on Puente Avenue near Francisquito. For those desiring to attend the meetings, the San Bernardino Freeway provides easy access. Take either the Puente or Francisquito turnoff south to the tent.

There will be meetings every night with the exception of Sunday and Monday. If you have friends in the area who may be interested, please send them a personal invitation or send their names and addresses to Elder Glenn Goffar, 3323 Virginia Avenue, West Covina, California.

Remember this evangelistic effort in your prayers.

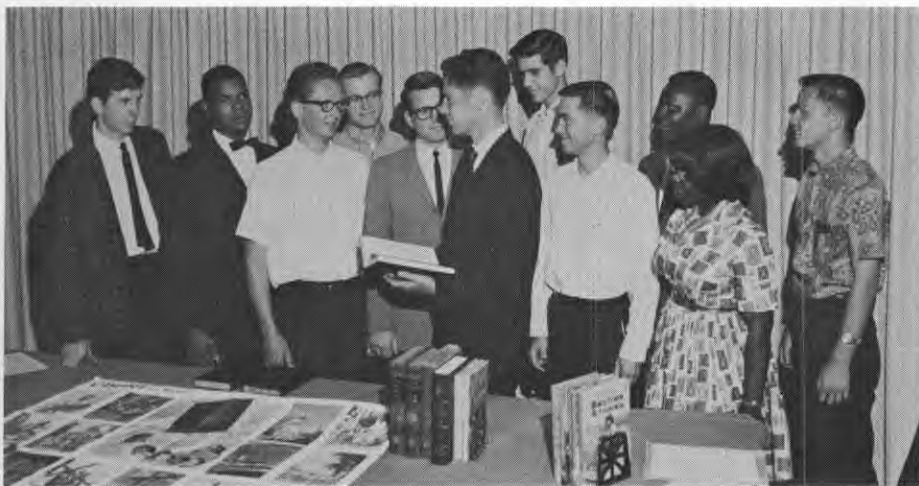

GLENN GOFFAR, Pastor,
Baldwin Park Church.

Training Session Held for Students Now Colporteuring

Fifteen students are canvassing in the Southern California Conference this summer. A number of them met recently at the Southern California Conference office to study plans for their summer work.

These students are consecrated and dedicated individuals who want to do their part this summer in presenting the gospel to needy souls in southern California. Some of these new literature evangelists have been church members for many years. Others are new members. One young man was baptized just two weeks before he entered this work. He is the son of a Presbyterian minister and is anxious to work for God.

The training session was under the direction of Elder A. R. Reisch, associate publishing secretary of the Pacific Union Conference. Assisting in the program were the Southern California Conference publishing secretary, Elder M. T. Johnson, and his associates, Joseph W. Hutchinson, George Gregoroff, P. J. Marsala, and James W. Swayze.

"Could It Be You?"

Many people call the office of the publishing department, expressing their interest in the colporteur work. They state that they would like to "try it out" a little bit and, if successful, enter the work on a full time basis.

We commend these people for their apparent interest in wishing to help spread the gospel. However, we wonder if it might be that the Lord would like to "try you out" in this work.

The Lord has given everyone talents. Sometimes it takes a little experimenting to discover what we can do best.

Would you like a job that affords real "job security"? "As long as probation continues, there will be opportunity for the canvasser to work."—Colporteur Ministry, p. 11.

Could it be you the Lord is calling to this work? MILTON T. JOHNSON, Secy., Publishing Department.

Six It Is Written Contacts Baptized at Central Church

"More than two years have passed since the It Is Written meetings were held in the Sports Arena, but we are still reaping the results of that program in our church."

This testimony from Elder Caesar Bufano, pastor of the Central Los Angeles church, witnesses to the effectiveness of careful follow-up of interests after a major evangelistic thrust.

On June 5 Elder Bufano baptized four sisters from one family, all of whom attended the It Is Written meetings in the Los Angeles Sports Arena in 1963.

To date this year, nine persons have been baptized at Central church. Six of these persons were influenced by the It Is Written program, Pastor Bufano states.

Burbank Church Launches City Wide Missionary Crusade

This summer members of the Burbank Seventh-day Adventist church are seeing fulfilled an earnest desire to be of service to their community. A Missionary Crusade is being launched under the leadership of Mr. David Newman, a senior theological student from La Sierra College. This program will be guided by the Mission Outreach department with Dr. Jan Kuzma as the chairman.

Mr. Newman was born in Cape Town, South Africa, of missionary parents from England. Before coming to this country to continue his education, he attended Newbold College in England where he took theology for two years.

Mr. Newman will carry the difficult task of finding families in the Burbank area who are interested in studying God's Word, and introduce each family to a team of two who will visit them regularly.

Mr. Newman and the team will be alert to notice and fill, if possible, any spiritual or other worthy need. Families who may be interested initially only in becoming acquainted with our church members will be referred to some of the church members for that purpose, while others will be provided with our literature to acquaint them with our work and our beliefs.

Mr. Newman will continue his search

Southeastern California

C. Elwyn Platner of Hinsdale Is Public Relations Secretary

C. Elwyn Platner, recently elected to the post of conference public relations secretary, has now arrived in Southeastern California to assume his new duties.

Brother Platner, with his wife Patsy Jean and infant son, Christopher Wayne, came to us from the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital in Hinsdale, Illinois. This new staff member brings to the conference a rich background in public relations. In addition to serving the Hinsdale Hospital, he previously served in the Georgia-Cumberland Conference and was an instructor at Oshawa Missionary College. He also served as a reporter and later as managing editor on a daily newspaper in Idaho.

The new conference leader received his college education at Walla Walla College in the state of Washington. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Platner of Spokane. For Mrs. Platner, coming to Southeastern California is to return home, for she was born at Loma Linda.

Elwyn Platner is currently completing a book about the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital to be published by the Southern Publishing Association.

Southeastern California is fortunate in securing as its public relations director a man of Brother Platner's ability. Let us pray that through the various media of public communication the image of the church shall be improved in our communities.

LLU Hospital Patient and Two Daughters Are Baptized

"You folk have something here at the Loma Linda Hospital that I wish my family had," said a sincere mother of a lovely Spanish family with five daughters.

When the patient said this to Mrs. Bernice La Rochelle, one of the chaplain's assistants, she invited the mother to visit one of the Adventist churches near her when she was able to attend.

From this small beginning on May 22, this mother and two of the daughters were baptized, and it is felt that it will not be too long before the other three daughters will follow. The father is reading the literature that has been left with the family. We know there is rejoicing in heaven over these conversions.

The Loma Linda University Medical Center now has three chaplains, Charles Teel, Kenneth Perry, and Vernon Rees, and two Bible instructors, Mrs. Bernice La Rochelle and Mrs. Teresa Potter.

New Principal of San Pasqual Academy Is N. C. Sorensen

The Southeastern California Conference extends a hearty welcome to Prof. N. C. Sorensen as principal of San Pasqual Academy. He assumed his responsibilities July 1 following the retirement of Dr. L. M. Stump. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the faithful service rendered by Doctor Stump during the past five years.

Principal Sorensen comes to us from Pacific Union College where he served as principal of the Preparatory School since 1963. He is a graduate of Walla Walla College where he received his B. S. and M. A. degrees. He comes well qualified for the heavy responsibilities of leadership at San Pasqual Academy and we pray for God's richest blessings to rest upon the academy as he and his staff serve the youth of this conference. We are also glad to welcome his wife Betty and their two children, Melvin, seven, and Laura, three.

Principal and Mrs. N. C. Sorensen and their two children, Melvin and Laura, are now at San Pasqual Academy.

We invite any parents and prospective parents to communicate with Principal Sorensen regarding the educational opportunities at the academy. We trust that the pastors of the Southeastern California Conference will invite Professor Sorensen to their church services to afford him the opportunity to become acquainted with the membership of the conference.

New Junior Academy Serves Large Area in Southeastern

Fairview Junior Academy, a completely new school, was finished in September 1964. Fairview is a union school sponsored by the Colton, Fontana, Rialto, and San Bernardino churches. The school operates a fleet of four buses to transport students from the surrounding area.

The new school plant is located in an attractive residential area of Highland.

At present we have finished phase one of the program of building. This includes eleven classrooms, music room, home economics room, and library. There is also an office complex containing a board room-faculty lounge combination, sick bay, faculty restrooms, registrar and principal's offices, and storage space. All the buildings are cooled by refrigerated air conditioning.

As it stands, our land and building investment is approximately $200,000. We consider this school one of the finest in the Pacific Union Conference.

Those moving to our area who wish further information concerning the school may address communications to: Fairview School, Box 3131, San Bernardino, Calif.

Mentone Pathfinders line up at their outing to Painted Canyon.

Mentone Pathfinders Enjoy Weekend at Painted Canyon

The Mentone Pathfinders recently traveled to Painted Canyon near Indio for a weekend of Christian fellowship.

Mr. Ronald McBroom, director, and Mrs. James Yoder, deputy director, their families, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Black, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McBroom, and Mr. Ralph Ward were in charge.

Sabbath began with an early morning hike through some of the canyons. Mr.

Robert Russell, a biologist from the Loma Linda University, told the young people of some of the plants and animals. Mr. James Yoder identified rocks observed.

After breakfast the girls led the boys on a Bible treasure hunt to the place of worship for Sabbath school. By taking Bible texts the girls described different areas around the camp and were able to direct the boys to worship in a short time. Mr. Raymond Black taught the Sabbath school lesson and Duane McBroom acted as superintendent.

A big campfire, stories, apples, popcorn, and other goodies were provided for evening worship and Christian fellowship.

By Sunday morning everyone was ready for the big hike up Ladder Canyon.

Shall I Enlist?

have concluded that personnel who observe the Sabbath after the manner of Seventh-day Adventists are of limited use. Thus there are regulations prohibiting the voluntary enlistment of those who have a limitation on duty to which they can be assigned on a twenty-four hour day; seven days a week. Those already in military service who are limited in the duty to which they can be assigned on the Sabbath cannot re-enlist or extend their period of enlistment.

This Sabbath observance does not keep a man from being drafted, especially under the 1-A-O classification. Ample provision is made for the observance of the Sabbath for the period of military obligation. Beyond that period of time questions are being raised in greater number with each passing year as to whether or not the Sabbath observer may remain in military service. In this the military forces are doing what any prudent businessman would do, in that they are picking personnel who have no limitations in working on the job they are to do.

Adventists Are Noncombatants

In addition, the Seventh-day Adventist Church teaches its members that they should not take human life, or, in other words, that they should be noncombatants. Through many years and many wars the noncombatant principle has been recognized by United States law. Beginning in the War Between the States and continuing to the present time, the limitations of a conscientious belief which prevent a person from taking human life have been honored. Such a person may not voluntarily enlist or seek a commission. The only exceptions are that a chaplain may get a commission as a noncombatant under certain circumstances; and the professional man, especially those with a military obligation under the draft, may get a commission in a medical department of the military forces (except in the Veterinary Corps).

These practical problems are the basis for the church's historic counsel that its members not enlist voluntarily. The various branches of the military forces join in this counsel to Seventh-day Adventists.

The Congress of the United States has made provision for those with conscientious limitations as to the taking of life but who are willing to take their share of the military responsibilities in the upholding of our national existence. This is done through the draft in the 1-A-O (noncombatant) classification. Many thousands of Seventh-day Adventists have served their country with honor, gallantry, courage, and distinction in this way. These men hold their heads high with their fellows after completing their obligated military duties. They are a strength to the church.

For the youth of the Seventh-day Adventist Church the way is clear—he will serve as a 1-A-O. If he wishes for reasons of his own to get his obligated military duty over at a time of his own choice rather than to wait for the draft, this can be done. He merely asks his local draft board to advance his name to the top of the draft list, being certain that he is classified 1-A-O. This may be done at the age of 17 with parents' or guardians' consent.

Further questions regarding military service should be directed to the local conference MV secretary or directly to the National Service Organization section of the MV department of the General Conference.

"Destiny" Books—A Bargain All the Time for $1.50

Do you relish fire sales, bargain basements, and camp meeting specials? Most of us do; first, because we like to feel we have made a smart buy, and, second, because we have to watch our family budgets.

If you are one of us budget-watching, bargain-hunting book lovers, here's great news for you: the new "Destiny" deluxe paperbacks cost only $1.50 apiece. That's not the bargain table price on a remnant of old books. It's the price of the fresh, colorful new books just off the presses at the Pacific Press. Here are the titles available now or in the near future:

That Book in the Attic, by Helen K. Oswald. A colporteur sells a book, which is banished to the attic. Because a girl reads the book in secret, she is called to pass through the fires of affliction to obey God and His Word. A story so good that this book has gone through seven printings, with a total of 30,000 copies.

Heart Cry, by Dorothea Gibson Burrows, as told to Spencer W. Burrows. A courageous young woman's struggle for life against staggering odds. A true story of open heart surgery, sudden stroke, and rehabilitation; of modern hospitals and skilled physicians; of doubt and faith; of trial and trouble and triumph.

Voyage of the Arctic Arrow, by C. S. Cooper. A great adventure with Charles and Virginia Cooper in the Far North, as they build their own boat and sail 1,000 miles from Great Slave Lake down the Mackenzie River to the Arctic Ocean.

Some Rain Must Fall, by Elizabeth Spalding McFadden. The story of a missionary doctor's life in India and Pakistan and of her triumph over loss and tragedy. A book that will tug mightily at your heartstrings till the very last page.

A Brand from the Burning, by Alcyon Ruth Fleck. From priest to Adventist preacher—this fascinating biography, telling of the search for truth by a Roman Catholic priest, is authentic in all details.
