Possessing Keys but Finding No Doors

Having the proper Keys but never using them is quite an absurdity. God intends us to make use of the Keys in opening the kingdom to perishing souls. It is heaven's last call to the inhabitants of this generation. What an account must be rendered if we are recreant to this sacred trust! Note the following:

In the great Judgment-day those who have not worked for Christ, those who have drifted along, carrying no responsibility, thinking of themselves, pleasing themselves, will be placed by the Judge of all the earth with those who did evil. They receive the same condemnation.

Many who profess to be Christians neglect the claims of God, and yet they do not feel that in this there is any wrong. . . . They love to hear the gospel preached, and therefore they think themselves Christians. . . . they will be as much surprised as was the unfaithful servant in the parable to hear the sentence, "Take the talent from him." Like the Jews, they mistake the enjoyment of their blessings for the use they should make of them.—Christ's Object Lessons, p. 365.

Some who are entrusted with the Keys may say: "I do not know the truth well enough so as to be able to impart it to others." If this is the case, then there is something to do. Simply study and go out with what you know, and as you dispense the seed of truth, more will be given. We should also be preparing for the time when "every position of truth" will be reprehended.

Have you that intensity of zeal, that piety, and devotion, which will enable you to stand when opposition is brought upon you? If God has ever spoken by me, the time will come when we shall be brought before counsels, and every position of truth which we hold will be severely criticized. The time that we are now allowing to go to waste should be devoted to the charge God has given us, of preparing for the approaching crisis! Much time should be spent in prayer, that our garments of character may be washed and made white in the blood of the Lamb.—Review and Herald, Extra, December 11, 1888.

This year many will be reading the Bible through. We should do more than read it; we should study the great doctrinal subjects that have made our church the repository of truth.

When you go to your neighbor with the Keys (Bible) in your hand, you will then, with skill, be able to unlock the

An Open Letter to Our Retired Folk

Dear Brethren and Sisters:

Recently while attending meetings at the Navajo Mission School at Holbrook, Arizona, and the Monument Valley Hospital and Mission, I learned that occasionally some of our retired folk are spending time at these two mission compounds helping with the day-to-day work. The administrators are happy to provide board and room for their help. This plan has worked out very nicely and is mutually agreeable.

At the present time both places are in need of help in the following areas:

Carpentry and maintenance work (including plumbing, electrical and painting).
Office work (typing, filing, record-keeping).

Welfare department (sorting, repairing, and distributing welfare clothing).

If you can help, please write to the respective administrators to let them know you would like to come and help. Tell them what you can do, what your trade is, and how long you can stay. Then wait until you hear from them, so they can be sure to have housing accommodations for you during the period you can help.

No one should plan to go without first making arrangements with the administrators, because there is limited housing. If you can bring your own trailer to live in, that would be of much help.

These two mission projects deserve your consideration and are just as needy and worthy of your help as are our mission programs in South America, Inter-America, or in the heart of Africa.

Your help is needed and will be most appreciated. Thanks for giving this your prayerful consideration.

Sincerely your friend and brother,
ALVIN G. MUNSON,
Assistant to the President and Coordinator of Indian Affairs,
Pacific Union Conference.

People of Taiwan on Waiting List for Signs of the Times

The president of the Taiwan Mission, better known as Pastor Carl Currie, finds the Signs of the Times a very useful evangelistic tool. His letter is unique in stating: "We have a long list of people who are interested in the message, and a goodly number of these prime interests are on the waiting list for the Signs."

More Signs means more souls.

Death of Review Editor

Readers of the RECORDER will be saddened to learn of the death on Friday, June 3, of Elder Francis D. Nichol, editor of the Review and Herald.

Francis D. Nichol

Elder Nichol served as editor of the denomination's official journal since 1945. He also authored a number of fully researched books and was editor of the Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary.

A valiant and forthright spokesman of Seventh-day Adventism now rests; a man of God awaits the Master's call to life eternal.

THE EDITOR.

Announcing Western ASI Convention

Coming August 24 to 27

We are happy to announce the coming Western ASI Convention to be held in Seattle, Washington, August 24 to 27. This meeting of the Association of Self-supporting Institutions will be held in the Caribbean Room of the Tropics Motor Hotel in Seattle.

A cordial invitation is extended to you to attend this ASI retreat. There will be wonderful fellowship, and an "action-packed" program. There will be outstanding guest speakers dealing with such subjects as management and the new Medicare program. You will enjoy the symposium on "Our ASI Spiritual Outreach" and a special training feature. The new ASI film will be shown at the fellowship banquet. You don't want to miss this convention! Plan now to attend!

We are announcing the convention early for a purpose. Now is the time when many of you are planning vacations and

Northern California

Welcome, Elder and Mrs. George Elstrom and Tommy

Northern California welcomes Elder and Mrs. George Elstrom and family to its group of workers.

Elder Elstrom is a graduate of Emmanuel Missionary College. His ministry has been in the Michigan Conference, and the last eleven years in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He has served on the Conference Committee and the Maplewood Board for a number of years. As part of his ministerial responsibilities he served as chaplain for Seventh-day Adventist students on the University of Minnesota campus.

Mrs. Elstrom is an elementary school teacher. She has also worked as secretary to the president of the Northern Union Conference.

They have one son, Tommy, who is twelve years of age.

Elder Elstrom is already serving as pastor of the beautiful new Hayward church.

S. R. JAYNE, Assistant to the President.

Lodi Academy Invites You To Apply for School

In light of the action taken at the special constituency meeting May 22, 1966, accepting the gift of the Victor Hoag property for the site of the new Northern California Conference boarding academy, questions have been raised concerning the continuing of Lodi Academy as a boarding school. Lodi will continue to serve the needs of our youth until its services are no longer needed. At present there is no change in the status of operation of Lodi. Send in your application now for the school year 1966-1967. There are work opportunities at the Harris Pine Mills for students.

Contact Lodi Academy, 1215 South Garfield, Lodi, California.

W. R. Foulston Appointed Pastor of St. Helena Church

Newly appointed pastor of the St. Helena church is Elder W. R. Foulston. Elder Foulston succeeds Elder D. E. Venden, who is now engaged in conference evangelistic work. Before going to St. Helena, Elder Foulston was pastor of the Hayward church. During his pastorate at Hayward the membership of the church rose from 309 to 527, Elder Foulston having baptized 270 in his term of service there.

Elder Foulston is married to the former Ada Manuel of Ontario, Canada, and has three children: Dr. Richard Foulston of Los Gatos; Ruth, a recent graduate of Golden Gate Academy; and Wayne, who has recently completed the eighth grade.

Rio Lindo Academy Accepting Applications for Fall Term

Applications for admission to Rio Lindo Academy for the 1966-67 school year are being received. Contrary to rumors, we are not already filled for the ensuing term. Preference will be given to applicants within our conference up to June 15, after which time all will be considered on an equal basis.

There seem to be questions regarding the way in which payment of accounts at Rio Lindo Academy can be handled for the 1966-67 school year. There are four plans and you may choose the plan which best fits your need. These plans are:

- Plan I. Payment in advance for the school year. Allows three percent cash discount. Payment dates: July 15 and September 3.
- Plan II. Payment in advance for each semester. Allows three per cent cash discount. Payment dates: July 15, September 3, January 23.
- Plan III. Monthly payments. Payment dates: July 15 and the first of every month beginning September 1 and ending May 1.
- Plan IV. Education Funds, Inc. Agreements may be written by E.F.I. with parents for any length of time the parents may choose. Three per cent discount is allowed by the school. The parents pay the July 15 payment and thereafter E.F.I. makes the payments to the school. The additional cost to the parents is minimal for the benefits offered by E.F.I.

We will be happy to send a bulletin upon request so that these plans can be studied more in detail.

We are pleased to be getting an industry at Rio Lindo. According to present plans this will be in operation by the time school opens this coming September and will provide work for a number of students. This will enable us to give more work to students who are employed on campus. Students will be paid by check for labor each month. This can either be given to them personally or it can be turned in toward payment of the account.

Please be assured that we will do everything possible to cooperate with you in planning a satisfactory work program for your student. Of necessity some students will require more work than others. We would appreciate knowing of your specific needs.

May God continue to bless you as you plan to provide a Christian education for your sons and daughters.

W. T. WILL, Principal,
Rio Lindo Academy.

Hawaiian Mission

New Administrator of Castle Memorial Hospital Arrives

Marvin C. Midkiff of Texas has been called to serve as administrator of Castle Memorial Hospital, filling the vacancy created by Elder Guthrie's accepting a call to the Central California Conference.

Marvin Midkiff

Brother Midkiff comes to Hawaii with rich experience in the field of hospital administration, having recently served in the Beeville, Texas, hospital as well as other institutions previously. He will arrive in Hawaii on June 29 to take up the responsibilities of this office.

Accompanying Brother Midkiff will be his wife and two daughters, Vini and Viki.

Brother Midkiff comes to Castle Memorial Hospital at a time when the hospital occupancy is at an all time high, and will be gladly received by the staff, employees, community, and the administrative board. He will serve on the Hawaiian Mission Executive Committee, and we are confident that his contribution to the work in the Islands will be outstanding.

We extend to this fine family the warm aloha here in the beautiful Islands of the Pacific.

A. G. STREIFLING, Chairman,
Castle Memorial Hospital Board.

VBS Workshops Prepare for Summer Appointments

Good instruction, fun, and laughter, combined with hard work, brought an enthusiastic response to the seven vacation Bible school workshops held during the month of May by Elders Robert Grady, Varner Leggett, and Frank McMurry in the beautiful Hawaiian Islands.

Fourteen vacation Bible schools will be conducted among the 20 churches in the Islands, with an anticipated enrollment of 1,200 students. With such an army of youth flooding our churches this summer, vacation Bible school directors and staff members have dedicated themselves to doing their best for Christ.

Knowing that effective soul winning must be characterized by cooperative effort and thorough planning, a year round follow up committee will be established in each church before vacation Bible school begins. A goal of each vacation Bible school is to keep the youth active during the entire year in Sabbath school, branch Sabbath schools, story hours, Pathfinder clubs, JMV camps, church school, Voice of Prophecy lessons, church socials, doctrinal classes, public evangelistic efforts, cooking schools, et cetera. With this type of thorough planning, vacation Bible school will be one of the most pleasant ways of winning souls.

It was our Lord who said, "whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth Me."—Matt. 18:5. "We may bring hundreds and thousands of children to Christ, if we will work for them."

ROBERT G. GRADY, JR., Secy.,
Sabbath School Department.

"Tell All Hawaii"

It was announced recently by the Hawaiian Mission evangelistic committee that "Tell All Hawaii" will be the gripping theme for the lay evangelistic thrust that will begin in September 1966.

"Tell All Hawaii" will be introduced at the weekend camp meeting as a mission wide, soul winning endeavor that will involve every layman, pastor, institution, and department of the Hawaiian Mission, so stated President A. G. Streifling.

The words of Christ, recorded in Matthew 28:19, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" certainly speak to each member of the remnant church living in Hawaii today. "We want Christ to come soon, and we rejoice in the privilege of working with the Holy Spirit to hasten our Lord's appearance," were the thought provoking words concluding President Streifling's remarks.

ROBERT B. GRADY, JR.

Mission Plane Visits Hawaii on Its Way to New Guinea

A Cessna 180 (single engine) plane destined for the Coral Sea Union Mission of Seventh-day Adventists in New Guinea was ferried through Hawaii the latter part of April by Wayne and Darrel Fowler of the State of Washington, brothers of Mrs. Dale Lent of Hawaiian Mission Academy.

The new Cessna had five tanks of gas holding a total of 245 gallons. Leaving California on April 21, they arrived in Honolulu International Airport in 21 hours. It took 15 hours to Wake Island and another 13½ hours to Rabaul, where it was necessary to go through customs, and another three hours to Lae, New Guinea. During these many hours, sleep, rest, and relaxation were interspersed.

The Fowler brothers returned to the mainland by way of Australia and Hawaii. Both are pilots of many years' experience, having done mission flying as well as crop dusting and fire fighting in the forests of Washington and Oregon. What a sense of satisfaction they received from flying this plane to the Coral Sea Union where it is to be used in mission activities.

trips to be taken later this summer. Plan now to combine your ASI Convention with a few days of vacation in the Seattle and Vancouver area.

An urgent appeal is made for all regular ASI members in the West to plan to attend this convention. We believe you will be greatly benefitted by the special convention program planned for our Seventh-day Adventist self-supporting institution people. It will be a West Coast convention for the North Pacific Union, the Pacific Union, and Western Canada. Good fellowship is anticipated!

This convention will not be limited to ASI members only, but all who are connected with self-supporting institutions and are interested in the ASI program are invited to attend. Come and get acquainted! All are welcome!

Now is the time to mark the dates of August 24 to 27 on your calendar. Plan a trip to Seattle!

Yerington Baptism

Sabbath, May 28, found a happy group of people assembled on the bank of the East Walker River to witness the baptism of three precious souls.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. McCargar and Mrs. Lola M. Giacometto gave their hearts to Christ during the evangelistic meetings held in Yerington by Elder H. C. Retzer, and expressed their desire to be baptized "like Christ," in a river. These are the first fruits and others who are receiving Bible studies will follow their Lord in baptism later.

The writer conducted the service in the presence of the Yerington church members with visitors from Fallon and Hawthorne present for the happy occasion.

Our hearts were made happy to welcome them into God's remnant church.

Thunderbird Academy Sabbath School Investment on the Go

Sixty-six and one-half feet of dimes were unrolled from a large wooden wheel by Lyle Huff, Mr. Bill Nordrum, and Daryl Booth at a recent Thunderbird Investment program. The dimes were presented to Investment leader, R. W. Rosenquist, M.D.

The money came from sawdust sold to farmers in the immediate vicinity. Thunderbird Mill produces quantities of sawdust that in the past was hauled out from the mill and scattered on the ground and plowed under at additional expense to the furniture factory.

Opportunity Unlimited

Wouldn't you like to spend your summer vacation in one of the most beautiful recreation areas in all of California? One where the snow capped mountains dip down to nestle cool, clear lakes between them, pine fringed and sunkissed? The rushing streams and waterfalls add music unmatched by man made instruments. The warm days and cool nights invite rest and re-creation. God seems very near in His beautiful handiwork.

There is an opportunity to hold Sabbath services in "Forest Chapel," an outdoor bowl across the footbridge at Twin Lakes, from July through September. We have been holding a story hour in a home each Sabbath afternoon. We would like to see this grow into a branch Sabbath school and then into a church.

Many of you visit here each year and could help to make this a reality. Since Bishop is about 50 miles away we don't see you down there, but with services in Mammoth we know you would feel free to attend, to lend, and gain a blessing by worshipping together.

The need is for someone to come who will enjoy camping for the summer and be willing and able to take charge of the Sabbath serices. There will be help in teaching the various classes. If you feel God needs you in this area and love His great out of doors, please contact Elder Frank Purcell, 210 Meadow Lane, Bishop.

Mammoth is a fast growing community with both summer and winter recreation to support it. Twin Lakes is located about ten miles off Highway 395 going north from Bishop. Mammoth Lakes is in Mono County, a dark county in California. We have no churches and only a few isolated members here. Surely God has a work for us to do in this area. Think about it and pray about it and then act on it. God will give the reward.

Twelve Year Old Witnesses for Her Master

Two years ago Irma Corona invited her friend, Cheryl Casey, to visit Sabbath school, and Cheryl became a faithful member. When Mrs. Mary Briano organized a baptismal class for juniors and earliteens Cheryl joined, and as the call was made, gave her heart to the Lord.

Since Cheryl is just twelve years old, the pastor called on her mother to let her know of Cheryl's wishes. He found that Mrs. Casey was aware of her daughter's plans and had given her permission to be baptized.

Cheryl was one of the candidates for baptism in the Fresno Spanish church April 30. Mrs. Briano has arranged to have Bible studies with Mrs. Casey, and we pray that she will soon join her daughter in this wonderful hope. We pray also for Irma as she continues to witness for her Master at this early age.

Help Wanted!

A favorite expression of Captain Joseph Bates, one of our hardy pioneers, was "The Lord will supply." And how many times I have used this expression during the past year of operation at the Hanford Community Hospital.

Good Seventh-day Adventist help is needed at our hospital, and constantly we are amazed as persons apply for work, just filling the needs we have.

If you have a desire to work in the cause of God, if you wish to live in the country, with the privileges of a fully accredited day academy nearby, and if you have training or experience in the lines of hospital skills, why not write to us for an application blank?

At present we need an R.N. or L.V.N. qualified in pharmacology to serve as a medicine nurse; we need additional L.V.N.'s in "groups," and this fall when the young people head for school we will need two dietetic assistants for the kitchen. Other positions open occasionally, and we would like to have a backlog of applications to which we might turn. Give it some thought and much prayer, and then write to me at Box 121, Hanford, California 93230, for an application.

Delano Sister Is Home Missionary for Half a Century

For 51 years Mrs. Alice Moore has lived in the foothills near Delano. As a rancher's wife she found time to provide a home for 16 homeless children, giving them not only life's necessities but the Word of Life. As they grew up, several of them accepted her faith.

During a recent Voice of Prophecy crusade in Shafter, she took six people to meetings, a 140 mile round trip each evening. A few days later the Harris-Hoffman meetings began in Bakersfield, and she brought a total of 20 to the series, of whom three were baptized.

Though nearly 70 years of age, she travels 50 miles each week to her accustomed pew in the church on Sabbath.

Watsonville Church Progress

Sixteen people were taken into the Watsonville church on Sabbath, May 14, as the first fruits of the twelve week effort conducted by the pastor. This makes a total of 36 people taken into the church by letter and baptism since last September. Another baptism is planned for Sabbath, June 25.

The financial side of the church's activity is also looking brighter. They have paid off all but $900 of a $5,000 obligation to the Virgil Hauselt Gymnasium Fund, put a new $1,200 roof on the church, and have money in hand to do some painting and repair on the church building. The tithe shows a $3,000 increase this year over last, mission funds are up and our Signs subscriptions show an increase.

We appreciate the faithfulness and loyalty of the membership of the Watsonville church, and we want to especially express our appreciation for the good help of our friend, Pastor Henry Brown, who was supposed to have retired in this area some years ago but is still very active in the Lord's work.

DON H. SPILLMAN, Pastor.

A SPLENDID PUBLIC RELATIONS GESTURE!—Elder H. H. Eslinger presents 22 denominational books to the Hollister Library. Mrs. Frank Lemmon (center), public relations secretary of the church, describes one of the volumes to Miss Kathryn Dooling, library director. The books given were the "Year-book," "Steps to Christ," "Questions on Doctrine," "Drama of the Ages," "The Midnight Cry," "Bible Readings for the Home," "The Everlasting Gospel," "I Love Books," "Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers," "The Conflict of the Ages series," "Daniel and Revelation," "Mount of Blessing," "Ministry of Healing," "Evidence of the Faith," "Evolution, Creation and Science," "Christ's Object Lessons," and "Education." Be sure to write to Central's public relations office for details on how you can make a similar gift to your public library.—R. W. Engstrom.

More Students Accepted at LLU for Fall Term

Sixty-seven more Pacific Union Conference students have been accepted for study at Loma Linda University, according to Dean of Admissions Walter B. Clark.

Thirty-six of the accepted students are among sixty who will enter the School of Dentistry freshman class in September. Twelve students have been accepted for the school's dental hygiene curriculum.

The remaining students have been accepted by the School of Health-Related Professions which consolidates under one administration five of the university's present curriculums: medical record administration, medical technology, occupational therapy, physical therapy, and radiologic technology.

Inglewood Church Children's Chorus Wins Award

The Inglewood Seventh-day Adventist Children's Chorus was presented a mixed choir award at the Annual Adjudication Festival sponsored by the Southern California Vocal Association in Culver City May 26.

The chorus is made up of 30 children from grades five to eight, and sang three numbers, "Panis Angelicus" by Franck, "Balulalow" from the Ceremony of Carols by Britten, and "With a Voice of Singing" by Shaw. The chorus, only Adventist one entered in this festival, received special mention for its high ratio of school choir membership to school enrollment (30 out of 63) and an impressive rating and adjudication from the festival panel of judges.

Elder Sandefur Organizes Church in East Los Angeles

On April 9 Elder Cree Sandefur, conference president, organized 43 members into the Aliso Community Seventh-day Adventist church. James H. Melancon is the pastor.

The church is an outgrowth of the Miramonte Boulevard church and its lay evangelism program. In 1962 a branch Sabbath school was started by Wilbur Fletcher, the local elder of the Miramonte church. These beginnings, coupled with a tent meeting by Pastor Melancon, have resulted in the organization of this fine congregation.

At present the congregation is meeting in the Siloah Presbyterian church at the corner of Humphreys and Dozier streets in East Los Angeles. They are in hopes of purchasing a church home of their own as funds become available.

Sun Village Church Dedicated in April Service

The Sun Village company in Littlerock was organized in December of 1959 and started construction on its church building in 1960. It was dedicated free of debt April 23, 1966. The Sun Village church was taken into the sisterhood of churches in February 1963.

Pastor Walton S. Whaley led in the dedication which started on Friday evening with Elder J. W. Allison of the University church as speaker. Elder Cree Sandefur, conference president, spoke at the Sabbath morning worship service.

In the afternoon the Walter Arties Chorale of Los Angeles gave a sacred concert.

Elder C. E. Moseley, Jr., a field secretary of the General Conference, preached the dedicatory sermon and the dedicatory prayer was given by Elder R. W. Nelson, pastor of the Normandie Avenue church.

The church was started as a result of cottage meetings held by Mrs. Ruth Webb and a branch Sabbath school conducted by Mrs. C. J. Finlayson in the Littlerock area.

The church was constructed for about $12,000 since much labor was donated. C. C. Arbuthnot, a lay preacher, gave much of his time in constructing the building. Plans are already in progress for expanding the church's facilities.

Mojave Ministerial Association Becomes Avenue of Influence

Pastor Marvin Moore of the Mojave church found considerable interest among local ministers for a ministerial association when he first came to Mojave several years ago. Since no steps had been taken toward organization, Pastor Moore took the initiative to arrange a time and place for meeting, and the Mojave Ministerial Association was formed. This has provided an excellent means for public relations in the community by our own church.

When the Mojave church sponsored a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking, the Ministerial Association gave its public endorsement, along with the Kern County Health Department. This proved to be a real asset to the success of the clinic.

Last Christmas season, members of the Mojave church were hosts to the members of the Ministerial Association and their families at a Christmas dinner which was served in one of the Sabbath school rooms of the church.

The Ministerial Association has sponsored a number of community-wide activities in which the Mojave church has participated. Among these are a daily devotional broadcast for which the local radio station has given public service time; an annual community Thanksgiving program including distribution of food baskets to needy families; highway signs listing local churches; and brochures listing local churches, which are placed in motels and service stations.

Marvin Moore (right) confers with two fellow Mojave ministers on plans for the Ministerial Association.

states Pastor Moore, "has been the opportunity to become better acquainted, share our faith with them, and pray with them. At our invitation a number of ministers have visited our services, and at least one has expressed serious interest in our message."

During the years since the organization of the Ministerial Association, Pastor Moore has served as president, vice president, secretary-treasurer, public relations secretary, and radio secretary.

Listen to Daily Broadcasts From General Conference Session

Daily live broadcasts of the major events of the 1966 General Conference Session will be transmitted over four stations in California from June 17 through 25.

These four FM stations will be part of a six station network carrying reports to areas of concentrated Adventist populations, reports Don Dick, director for the Christian Radio Network.

Available to Southeastern listeners will be three stations, listed below with the time of release.

Other stations carrying the program will be KANG, Angwin, 88.1 mg at 6 p.m.; KGTS, College Place, Washington, and WGTS, Columbia Union College, Takoma Park, Maryland.

The daily, one hour broadcasts will include on-the-spot news reports and interviews as well as excerpts from sermons and devotionals earlier in the day. There will also be reports from the world divisions, General Conference departments, and the session's nominating and resolutions committees.

Reporters will gather on-the-spot reac-

Quiet Hour Listeners Give Money for Mission Aircraft

A single engine aircraft purchased with the nickels, dimes, and dollars contributed by listeners of The Quiet Hour left Corona Municipal Airport April 18 on the first leg of a trans-Pacific flight to New Guinea.

The new craft joined the only other airplane now serving Seventh-day Adventist missions on the island when it arrived after four full days in flight.

First stop on its route was Half Moon Bay airfield near San Francisco where the plane. Special permits were obtained from the government in order to take the craft out of the country.

At dedication ceremonies for the plane April 18, Elder Tucker reported that in New Guinea missionaries have found that they are accomplishing ten times more now with one aircraft than before. With the additional plane one can now be based in the headwaters of the Sepik River and the other in the highlands.

When Pastor Tucker was in New Guinea ten years ago all travel by missionaries was on foot. "These small planes are virtually revolutionizing religious missionary work in this area," he said.

Although both the Fowler brothers have commercial pilot licenses and Darrel is an airline pilot, the Quiet Hour program staff was intently interested in the longest leg of the trip—from San Francisco to Hawaii. The craft carried only about 250 gallons of gas, just enough for that distance and only a few gallons to spare.

Darrel Fowler took his vacation time to make the trip. Wayne considers the time spent simply a contribution to benefit the church. They returned by regular commercial airlines.

Recreation Complex Planned for Pine Springs Ranch

A short, enthusiastic campaign is now in progress to build a new recreation facility at Pine Springs Ranch.

The recreation complex will provide for tennis, volleyball, basketball, hand ball, roller skating, shuffle board, and for ice skating in the winter. It will be 100 by 115 feet and lighted for night use.

The camp is now used the entire year and the new project will add greatly to the value of the ranch program. The estimated cost of the completed project is $5,000.

1,500 Pathfinders Attend Annual Fair at Del Mar May 1

Long before dawn May 1, scores of Pathfinders and their leaders began arriving at the San Diego County Fairgrounds, Del Mar, in preparation for the annual Pathfinder Fair.

Working through the night, crews from 33 clubs constructed exhibit booths to show activities of their members during the past year.

By 9 a.m. all was in readiness and three judges began observing the results of the hours of preparation. At the same time some 1,500 Pathfinders began to assemble at another part of the fairgrounds for a grand parade and formal opening of the 1966 Pathfinder Fair.

Led by the Escondido Motorcycle Police Drill Team the parade entered the fair arena. Behind the drill team came a color guard from the United States Naval Air Station, Miramar, and then the La Sierra Drum and Bugle Corps.

Interspersed between the 61 clubs which marched in the event were floats, horses, and bicycles. Past the reviewing stand they came and finally stood in grand assembly in the center of the arena where they could be seen by hundreds of spectators as well as other Pathfinder, civic, and naval officials.

They heard the keynote address by Elder Miller Brockett, Pacific Union MV secretary. Lt. C. Wayne Johnson, public relations representative, Miramar Naval Air Station, commended the Pathfinder leaders for their work in youth leadership. Other special guests included Del Mar Vice Mayor Tom Pearson, Elder Walt Blehm, grand marshal of the parade and conference assistant to the president, and Elder H. E. Schneider, conference secretary-treasurer.

Grand award for the best exhibit went to the El Cajon club. Other special awards went to Mentone and Redlands. First place winner clubs for over-all achievement throughout the past year were Escondido, Oceanside, Chula Vista, Paradise Valley, Arlington, Corona, Kansas Avenue, Norco, Mentone, and Yucaipa.

Twenty-three clubs erected food booths or brought trailers in which to sell food during the noon hour. In the afternoon Pathfinders participated in various special

Earn Your School Expenses in San Pasqual's Bindery

San Pasqual Academy's Golden Rule Bindery is progressively looking forward to its eleventh year of business. Under Mr. Clair Barnhart's able leadership, the bindery now handles more than 55,000 books every year.

Some of the bindery's well known customers are the Los Angeles County Law Library, Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation, Loma Linda University, La Sierra College, and the International Nutrition Research Foundation, which is part of Loma Linda Foods. These businesses and schools are continuing to send books every year to be bound at the Golden Rule Bindery.

A new cement block building is being built as an addition to the bindery. It will be used for additional storage space and also to expand the present line of production. The new building will enable students to work under less crowded conditions, especially during the summer months.

The bindery furnishes year round employment for those students who desire steady work. Though the bulk of the book binding is done during the summer, a student can work up to a maximum of 20 hours a week during the school year.

Almost two-thirds of the school bill can be earned at the bindery during the summer and the school year.

The bindery especially needs students more than 18 years of age who may operate the hydraulic and air operated machinery.

events including stilt races, slow bicycle races, kite flying, drill team exhibitions, and parading of decorated bicycles, horses, and floats.

Bands performing for the event came from Escondido Junior Academy and San Diego Academy. Other special performers included the Lakota Indian Dancers, La Sierra College tumbling team, and a women's vocal group, the Sweet Adelines from Del Mar.

Commenting on this year's fair, Elder Brockett said, "This was one of the finest I have ever seen for the arrangement of facilities."

We believe that this fair has helped to bring unity to our Pathfinders and to prepare them for further leadership and for God's kingdom. All the hours spent in preparation were well worth it.

PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

Commencement Exercises Held in Pacific Auditorium June 3 to 5

Commencement exercises at Pacific Union College were held the weekend of June 3 to 5. A total of 154 students received degrees; 11 were awarded the M.A., 104 received the B.A., 35 the B.S., and four students received the two year certificate.

"The Deterioration of the Intellectual Virtues" was the topic presented to the graduating class by Elder L. R. Rasmussen, education secretary of the Pacific Union Conference, at the commencement exercises Sunday morning in Pacific Auditorium. Dr. Walter Utt, chairman of the PUC history department, gave the invocation, and Dr. Donald Warren of the education department offered the benediction.

Dr. Wilbert Schneider, academic dean at PUC, was in charge of the class presentation; and the degrees were conferred by the college president, Dr. F. O. Rittenhouse, and Registrar Edwin C. Walter.

Twentieth Season to Begin at PUC's Biological Field Station

On June 20 the Mendocino Biological Field Station at Albion, Mendocino County, will begin its twentieth season. Begun in the summer of 1947 under the direction of Prof. Harold W. Clark, the work has grown and the facilities have been improved over the years.

Pacific Union College biology department, operating the station, owns ten acres of land in a sheltered valley known as Happy Valley on the edge of the Albion River near its mouth.

Some of the old housing from the Albion Lumber Company is still in use. A new laboratory building and several smaller buildings have been added.

The biggest asset of the station is its ideal location. It has easy access to the ocean, the Albion estuary, and a vast region of redwood forest and coastal plant communities.

The teaching staff consists of Donald V. Hemphill, Ph.D., professor of biology and chairman of the department, who received his training in vertebrate zoology at Oregon State University; Ervil D. Clark, M.A., associate professor of biology, who received his training in plant ecology at Pacific Union College and Stanford University; and Lloyd E. Eighme, Ph.D., associate professor of biology, who received his training in entomology at Oregon State University.

Enrollments the past few years have been from 25 to 35. Approximately half the students are teachers working on degrees and credentials while the remainder are undergraduates. Biology majors at Pacific Union College are required to take at least one course at the biological station. The graduate program has served a large number of students. To date six Master's theses have been written on the coastal flora and fauna. Some graduate students take work at the biological station on a non-thesis program.

The cool, invigorating climate of the coast is conducive to the enjoyment of field biology. With the seashore so close it is possible to keep many live specimens in the salt water aquaria. Trips off-shore on commercial fishing boats add much from the deep sea to supplement the shore life. The sea bluffs and coastal plains abound in flowers during the summer months. Three state parks near the station afford opportunity for study under near-natural conditions.

During the six week session at Albion a camping trip to the high interior coast ranges is made to acquaint the students with a profile of the plant and animal communities inland from the coast and at higher elevations. The Nature Education, Biotic Communities, Flowering Plants, Entomology, and Mammalogy classes enjoy rich collecting in the Mendocino National Forest.

Another high point in the summer's activities is the Wilderness Ecology Pack Trip to the Marble Mountains in the Klamath National Forest. In 1965 there were 54 students and three teachers participating. Following two days of indoctrination, short hikes near PUC, and checking the gear, the pack trip group loaded up and hit the trail for eight days of mountain living amid supreme beauty. Alternate days are spent in hiking so that each area visited may be studied in detail.

Two of the graduate students are nearing completion of their Master of Arts theses which are entitled "The Plant Communities of the Marble Mountain Wilderness Area" by Philip Lewis and "The Flora of Marble Valley" by Gilbert Muth.

Each summer the pack trip visits a new area and discovers the rugged beauty of these California mountains.

Possessing the Keys

heart and open the kingdom of heaven to the interested one. We absorb more of the message by giving a simple Bible study than by listening to one being given.

Every one may have an understanding of the truth, and exert an influence for good. . . . Gain an experience by working for others. You may make mistakes; but this is not more than the most intelligent, and those in positions of trust, have done again and again. You will not always meet with success; but you can never know the result of humble, disinterested effort to help those who are in darkness. Through the agency of the Holy Spirit, you may win souls from error to truth, and in so doing your own souls will be filled with the love of God. Unaccustomed paths will open before you in your work of ministry. You will often have to step out of the beaten track, and under the Holy Spirit's guidance, do special work for God; but if you make Him your dependence, He will give you wisdom and strength according to your need. . . . We shall receive fresh supplies of grace, as we impart to others that which we already have."—Review and Herald, January 12, 1897.

How wonderful the thought that under the Holy Spirit's guidance we are to do a "special work for God." This wonderful promise will be experienced when we meet the condition: "As the will of man co-operates with the will of God, it becomes omnipotent."—Christ's Object Lessons, p. 333.

What a holy experience it is to see a soul converted to Christ, which in turn brings joy to the host of heaven. May we set a goal for at least one soul for the kingdom in the year 1966.

The repentance of one soul sends, inexpressible joy through all the host of heaven. Melody is called forth from every harp and every voice in glorious anthems because another name is registered in the book of life, another light is kindled to shine amid the moral darkness of this corrupt world. The very same event spreads consternation among the fallen angels and humiliates the great leader in the rebellion against God's holy law. The prince of darkness, seeing a soul whom he has counted his own escaping from under his control as a bird out of the snare of the fowler, and making Christ his refuge, works with hellish intensity to again entrap the one escaped.—Ms. 29, 1900.

In view of the world conditions, we should be seeking for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, which alone will enable us to answer the roll call with the words: "Here, Lord, ready for action."

All who are partakers of this great salvation wrought out by Jesus Christ are under obligation to work as laborers together with God. In the Heavenly courts the roll is called, on which every name is registered, and the heavenly agencies respond to the call. The service given by every human being upon earth is there recorded. If any are negligent, it is recorded; if diligent, the same is reported; if idlers, the fact stands against their names. In all the great mass of humanity, not one is lost sight of. Then let every one be ready to answer the call, saying, "Here, Lord, ready for action."—Review and Herald, August 16, 1898.

(This concludes this series of articles by Miss Mary E. Walsh, the dean of Bible instructors in the Pacific Union Conference.)

thought provoking stories for young people. The latter is a discussion on the state of the dead. Only 30 cents each.

You'll probably want to take something home to the children (or grandchildren?), and what could be more delightful than a new book? The Waldenses, written and illustrated by Joe Maniscalco, should be near the top of your list. Just off the press at Southern Publishing Association, this dramatic book tells a story of courage and faith that will have meaning for every child, regardless of age. Waldensian children grew up in a time when religious freedom was practically nonexistent. Yet they believed in freedom, fought for it, and died for it. Your children will value their own freedom to believe a little more when they've finished reading this book. $2.50.

"The basic facts needed in any biography depend on one factor—namely to show that it is possible to live a life of faith in a world of doubt." So says Blanche Palmer, author of another new Southern Publishing Association release, Pilgrim of the Night. Ruth LaSage is indeed a twentieth century "Pilgrim," and her story is a real epic of personal courage and devotion. Blanche Palmer is a close personal friend of Mrs. LaSage, and this closeness is revealed remarkably in her obvious insight into the heartaches and joys of the Christian journey. $3.75.

The Reference Series has a new addition. Every minister, young or old, will want to add Orley Berg's The Work of the Pastor to his library. A more practical guide for church pastors we have never seen. Elder Berg draws upon years of pastoral and conference experience in compiling this tremendously helpful volume. He'll tell you how to organize your files, suggest the best way of conducting a visitation program, and give you sound advice on publicity methods. That's just the beginning. There are suggestions for working with the church board, the officers, the committees, etc. The evangelistic program of the church is given full treatment also.

And if you haven't already picked up the first two volumes in the Reference Series, 501 Illustrations and What Shall I Speak About? by Robert Pierson, why not get them all at once?

Just briefly, we'd like to list the other attractive new releases, which are coming thick and fast from all three publishing houses.

Two more additions to the Stories That Win Series from Pacific Press are What Stopped the Music? by Lawrence Maxwell, and Destination Life, by George Vandeman. The former is a collection of
