Intensive Bible Crusade to Be Held by FFT in Lynwood

A three-week Faith for Today Bible Crusade will be conducted in the Los Angeles area by Elder W. A. Fagal at the Lynwood Auditorium, 4100 Imperial Highway, Lynwood, from March 1 to 23. Associated with him will be Elder Gordon F. Dalrymple, telecast director of field evangelism, Elder Gerald Hardy of the Lynwood Church and a staff of 30 ministers in the area. Co-ordinator for the series is Elder J. Branson Chrispens, lay activities secretary of the Southern California Conference.

The opening night topic at the double session Saturday, March 1, at 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. will be "Race for the Moon." Prior to the meeting, the film, "Alice Princess," Part I, will be shown.

Featured throughout the series will be latest Faith for Today films. A four-color, 16x20" reproduction of "The Last Supper" will be given everyone attending the opening night. Each one present will also receive a copy of Elder Fagal's popular book—Building a Happy Home.

Bible Basics Covered

In his three-week series Dr. Fagal will cover the basics of Bible doctrine and prophecy. He will point to sure signs of our Lord's return, including political unrest, strife in the cities and peace talks around the globe.

The Los Angeles-Lynwood series will be 10th in Faith for Today's decision meetings that have taken place in the last four years. Faith for Today's intriguing Bible marking plan will add interest and color to the meetings. If you live in the Los Angeles area, reserve this time for a wonderful spiritual blessing, and be sure to invite your interested friends.

An Old Bible Contest will be conducted to find the oldest copy of God's Word in the Los Angeles area and also the one with the greatest human interest story. Ask your friends and neighbors to bring their old Bibles.

The series will be a reaping meeting of those who have become interested in our message through seeing the Faith for Today telecast over KCOP on Sundays for the past few years. Current time for the program is 10:30 a.m. on Channel 13.

Last year a Faith for Today decision series was held in the White Memorial church in Los Angeles by Dr. Fagal. Hundreds of decisions for Christ were made with a real revival taking place. Pray for the series.

New Posts Created, Filled in Union by Qualified Men

Three workers of long experience are now at work in recently initiated positions of the Pacific Union Conference. These new assignments are designed to bring added strength to the work of God throughout the field.

Some months ago the Pacific Union Conference Executive Committee voted to begin an Institutional Services office which would, through quantity purchasing, effect considerable savings for our churches, schools, hospitals, and other institutions.

Elder John F. Knipschild, then educational secretary of the Northern California Conference, was asked to direct this important service. Initially, the service was to concentrate its efforts toward bringing savings to our church schools, then to expanding its services as widely as needed.

A worker in the church since 1943, Elder Knipschild has spent much of his denominational service in the educational and youth activities fields, serving as educational leader in North Dakota, Wisconsin, Hawaii, and in the Southern and Northern California conferences. This service has made him keenly aware of areas in the denomination's school system where savings through quantity purchasing may best be effected.

In slightly more than five months of operation, the Institutional Services office has already saved some $90,000 on purchases which would otherwise have been spent by our various institutions. Now, with large, quantity order placement for school buses and other major equipment items just ahead, this office, under Elder Knipschild's direction, is expected to effect even larger savings.

Another recent Pacific Union Conference Committee action invited Elder Byron R. Spears to serve as an evangelist throughout the Pacific Union territory. Elder Spears has accepted the committee's invitation and is already at work with his new duties.

Elder Spears began his denominational service in 1944 in Wichita, Kansas. Since then he has served in Kansas City, Kansas, and he has organized churches in Stockton, Sacramento, Vallejo, Pittsburg, and Oakland in California. He began serving as conference evangelist for the Northern California Conference in 1949, continuing in this service until invited to connect with the Pacific Union Conference.

URGENT!

To help meet the growing demands for temperance films, Five-Day Plans, and classroom demonstrations, we urgently need your 1969 ATS membership dues. A few days ago you received a special letter by mail. If you have not already responded to its message, would you do so immediately? It's urgent! Thank you.

MILLER BROCKETT,
Temperance Director.

During his years of evangelism Elder Spears has been blessed of God and scores and hundreds of persons now rejoice in the Advent hope because of his labor.

Shortly after Elder Spears was asked to begin his union-wide evangelistic activities, the Pacific Union Conference Executive Committee also voted to call an evangelist to labor for Spanish-speaking persons in the Pacific Union. To meet this important challenge, the committee called Elder Samuel Weiss of Glendale, California.

Elder Weiss has been in denominational service for some 37 years, beginning as lay activities and publishing secretary of the Lake Titicaca Mission in Peru in 1932. In 1946 he moved from the South American to the Inter-American Division where he served as a mission president, lay activities and Sabbath School secretary until 1952.

Elder Weiss became pastor of the Spanish-American Church in Los Angeles in 1953, and under his leadership this church became a fruitful evangelistic center from which several other churches began. For the past several years

Elder Weiss has been a successful conference evangelist for the Southern California Conference.

It is anticipated that in the near future a third evangelist, whose services will be directed primarily toward aiding the smaller conferences of the Pacific Union, will be invited to join the Pacific Union Conference staff. Although these evangelists will be a part of the union staff, their "offices" will be in the field wherever they are holding evangelistic campaigns.

We feel that the work of these new laborers will help accelerate the work of giving the gospel message in the Pacific Union Conference. In their behalf we solicit the prayers of all RECORDER readers that God will bless their labors with great success.

W. J. BLACKER, President.

Pastors and Members Work as Team in a Busy Program

Currently, the Central Seventh-day Adventist Church of Honolulu is being served by four able and enthusiastic pastors. Elder Don Mulvihill is the senior pastor and has associated with him Pastors Aladen, Caylor and Turner. Normally, the Central Church is served by three in the ministerial staff, but due to the heavy evangelism concentration, an extra man has temporarily been assigned to the staff in the person of Elder Melvin Turner.

The Central Church is also currently engaged in a heavy fund-raising program toward the relocation of the house of worship, in addition to many other projects. Through the recent Ingathering program, this church achieved a new record in 13 nights of raising the major portion of an almost $12,000 Ingathering accomplishment. For Central the Ingathering means funds from non-Seventh-day Adventists and is not merely given by our own church members.

Having established a program of thoroughly covering the territory, the public responds willingly and wholeheartedly to the work of Adventism.

Currently, the Central Church has a membership of 649, but this figure will experience real growth this year as the results of the Field School of Evangelism come in. The busy ministerial staff, and the happy, co-operative congregation are looking forward to additional accomplishments. The dream of the new house of worship is coming close to fulfillment. The productive program of soul winning is being experienced, and spiritual growth accompanies all of these endeavors.

Certainly, as this ministerial staff continues to serve in this multiracial society, the message will reach out to contact many others.

Members Asked to Consider the Conference Trust Plan

How often it happens that a person is impressed that he should do more to further the gospel message among all people. Then, disappointedly, he says: "If only I could go"; or "I would love to go but I am too old"; or "I would go if I could, but my health will not permit."

There is a way you can go now! Through the Revocable Living Trust available to you through your local mission office:

1. You can deposit cash savings and earn as much or more than you now receive and let your savings work for the Lord. The Lord will bless you and, with His blessing, your savings will enable you to extend the gospel work. Thus you can go in answer to God's call, "Go ye into all the world," and you receive the blessing. Your money is available to you on demand and earnings are paid to you quarterly.

2. You can place almost any assets, real estate, stocks, bonds, notes receivable, as well as cash in trust. You have full control over all the assets in the trust and can withdraw any or all at any time.

3. The trust provides for your care if necessary until death, and distributes your estate in harmony with your wishes after death.

Hawaiian Mission

4. Special gifts can be made to the work of your special interest or to the work in general through your trust.

5. This Revocable Trust can be terminated any time at your request and all assets returned to you.

Thousands of our people on the mainland are happy, contented trustees, enjoying the security offered by the denomination through trust agreements. A number of church members in Hawaii Nei have taken this important step.

There are more advantages and rewarding opportunities available to you as a church member that space does not permit explaining here.

"Would you make your property secure? Place it in the hand that bears the nail-print of the crucifixion." Testimonies, Vol. 9, page 51.

Andrews University Professor Busy with Field School Needs

Doctor E. C. Banks, professor in charge of the Andrews University Field School of Evangelism in Honolulu, spent a busy schedule lecturing, counseling and guiding the class comprised of ministers and students.

This was the third extension school conducted in Hawaii within the last three years in which Andrews co-operated. We are grateful for the capable, experienced and seasoned men that Andrews University has sent to Hawaii to be of assistance in keeping a program of advanced training going for the ministry of the Hawaiian Mission.

We certainly are grateful for the presence of Doctor and Mrs. Banks during the recent weeks when the intensive school was conducted.

Clayton Anderson, Kaneohe, Awarded Bronze Star Medal

Clayton (Buzz) Anderson, Specialist Four E4, United States Army, was awarded the Bronze Star Medal with "V" device in the Republic of Vietnam theater. He received this medal for heroism, not involving participation in aerial flight, but in connection with military operations against a hostile force in the Republic of Vietnam.

Specialist Anderson was serving as a medical aidman during a troop-minus counter-insurgency operation near Loc Ninh. The friendly elements suddenly made heavy contact with a well entrenched and numerically superior North Vietnamese army force.

During the battle which followed, one of the vehicles received a direct hit by an enemy rocket-propelled grenade round, and one of the crew was seriously wounded. Specialist Anderson immediately dismounted and advanced through the hail of enemy rounds to aid him. After administering emergency first-aid treatment to his comrade, he again braved the hostile rocket-propelled grenade and automatic weapons fire in order to carry the wounded man to a medical evacuation landing zone.

The courageous determination, medical skill and selfless concern for the welfare of his comrade demonstrated by Specialist Anderson was undoubtedly responsible for saving the wounded man's life. Specialist Four Anderson's outstanding display of aggressiveness, devotion to duty and personal bravery is in keeping with the finest traditions of the military service and reflects great credit upon himself, the Specialist Four Clayton Anderson.

First Infantry Division, and the United States Army.

Clayton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Anderson of Kaneohe. He is the third Seventh-day Adventist soldier of Kaneohe to receive the Bronze Star Medal for bravery, serving in Vietnam within the past year.

We are not only proud of our Kaneohe young men, but of all our Adventist men in the service who are willing to serve their country so faithfully and to uphold the Christian standards. May our prayers continue to be with them, for they surely go through some perilous situations.

HELEN RICE, PR Secy.,

Youth Leaders Challenged to Take Larger Part at Meeting

"Youth do not care for a religion of don'ts. They want to take an active, positive part in the 'Share Your Faith' activities of the church." Such were the challenging ideas presented by guest speaker Elder Kenneth Mittleider to the MV leaders and Pathfinder leaders and their associates who gathered for a youth leader's banquet at the Hawaiian Mission Academy on the evening of January 6.

This is an annual banquet planned by the MV Department of the Hawaiian Mission and was attended by a large representation of those working in these capacities. The gathering included many who have been active leaders for a number of years and others who are accepting the challenge of youth leadership for the first time.

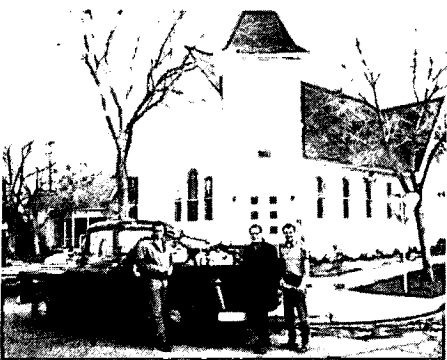

A very delicious meal was prepared and served by a group of Hawaiian Mission Academy cafeteria staff and students under the direction of Mrs. Fortunata Tabura.

Mr. Hugh Winn reminded each one present of their solemn privilege and responsibility with a beautiful rendition of the song, "This is My Task."

As we think of your youth as the ministers, teachers, and workers of tomorrow in many capacities, we realize how necessary that we as leaders be the sort of consistent Christians that they can look up to. Let us do all we can to support and encourage our youth as this year of 1969 brings us one year closer to that heavenly home.

Needs of Flood Victims Met by Hanford Spanish Church

It looks safe enough, doesn't it? Actually, the three men pictured are just leaving the Hanford Spanish church with their pickup loaded with food and clothing for flood relief in Orosi about 40 miles away.

Their trip was deeply appreciated by flood victims as well as by the Red Cross, with whom they worked.

In addition to nearly $200 worth of food and clothing, they distributed many copies of El Centinela, our Spanish Signs.

This is typical of the work of so many of our Dorcas societies as they have gone all out to help those who suffered in recent floods in California.

Conference Constituency Meeting Notice

The eighteenth Biennial Session of the Central California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists (reorganized 1932) will be held at the Central California campground, 1931 Old San Jose Road, Soquel, California, on March 9, 1969, the session opening at 10 a.m.

The purpose of the session is to receive reports; to elect officers, an executive committee, and departmental secretaries; to issue proper credentials and to transact such other business as may properly come before the session.

Each church organization is entitled to one delegate for the church organization and one additional delegate for each fifty (50) members or major portion thereof.

Central Workers Meet in a Farewell to Walde Family

Central California workers met at Soquel January 12 and 13 for promotional and administrative items of importance and, also, to honor Elder and Mrs. E. R. Walde and their daughter, Colleen. Elder Walde, president of our conference for four years, is now the president of the North Pacific Union Conference.

At 6 p.m., January 13, a special banquet dinner was served in the campground dining room. Special decorations of hanging flower baskets, as well as flowers on the tables, and toy moving vans added proper atmosphere. The guest table displayed a typical home setting in miniature of sunny California and rainy Portland.

The program included a short résumé of the Waldes' various places of responsibility in the ministry. We were able to surprise them with some 25-year-old, 8 mm movies of their wedding in Hawaii that they had never seen. Naturally, the recorded "skit" ended with Mrs. Walde getting tired of Portland rain and asking to hear her favorite song, "Do You Know the Way to San Jose?"

We know we speak the thoughts of all workers and members in Central when we express our sincere and deep appreciation for the friendship and leadership of the Waldes. We assure them of our prayers in their larger responsibilities and will always be happier and better because of their influence on our lives.

Private Mike Diaz Awarded Bronze Star for Heroism

Word has been received in Hanford that Private First Class Mike Diaz has been awarded the Bronze Star for heroism. The citation reads as follows:

"Private First Class Diaz distinguished himself by exceptionally valorous action on 28 October 1968 while serving as a medical aidman with Company A, 2nd Battalion (Airmobile) 5th Cavalry during a search and destroy mission near Quang Tri, Republic of Vietnam. When his unit became heavily engaged with a large enemy force and a casualty was sustained, Private Diaz exposed himself to the hostile fire as he moved to a forward position to administer first aid to the wounded soldier, and move him to a safe location. His display of personal bravery and devotion to duty is in keeping with the highest tradition of military service and reflects great credit upon himself, his unit and the United States Army."

Private Diaz is a member of the Hanford Spanish Church.

JOHN WEIDNER FEATURED ARROYO GRANDE SPEAKER

John H. Weidner, the leader of the Dutch-Paris underground during World War II, will be the featured speaker at the Arroyo Grande church on February 22 at 4:30 p.m. All churches in the district are invited to attend and hear the intriguing story of a devout Christian who realized the precious price of liberty.

The Home and School Association of Valley View School is pleased to have Herbert Ford, author of Flee the Captor, as a guest at the same meeting. Mr. Ford has portrayed in this book the living faith of a man who realized that he was always in the hands of a loving God even when life was continually uncertain. The four years between 1940 and 1944 are vividly portrayed as John Weidner aided Jews, allied airmen and others who were in danger.

GOAL OF GEM PALS CLUB IS TO ENCOURAGE FAMILY UNITY

The 1969 officers of the Central Valley Seventh-day Adventist Gem Pals Club were elected last November 3. During 1968, the club had many excellent field trips and their finest material and workmanship was displayed in shows throughout the area and to the church members. The main purpose of Gem Pals is being accomplished successfully, and that is to foster family unity. Children and youth of all ages are represented in large numbers. Any Adventist family in the Central Valley can join by contacting Elder Lloyd Stephens, Box 425, Chowchilla, California 93610.

Series in Selma Results in Baptism for Two Churches

The J. J. Millet-Jerry Dill Evangelistic team concluded a successful series of meetings in Selma on December 14. One hundred twenty nonmembers attended to hear the preaching of the third angel's message. The members of the Selma and Caruthers churches loyally supported this campaign in which 18 souls took their stand for Christ and were baptized. Several others are preparing for baptism. We solicit your prayers in behalf of the many interested ones in this area.

MV Convention at Wawona Is Inspiration for the Attendees

Elder Lawrence Nelson, associate world youth leader, was a welcome guest at the MV Convention at Wawona. He inspired the youth leaders present to "work, while it is yet day." The experiences that he shared of youth around the world where he has visited presented a tremendous challenge. It was marvelous to hear of the dedication of our youth and of the sacrifices many are making.

Elder Miller Brockett, Pacific Union youth director, presented a thought-provoking keynote challenge, plus moderating the youth evangelism hour on Sabbath afternoon. Featured at this time were the ACT teams of Central and Southeastern California conferences.

Special thanks go to Fresno Academy and Arlee Torkelsen for furnishing outstanding music during the convention. The choir added an extra-special blessing to the Sabbath worship hour. Also, we appreciate the work of Paul Schmidt, Fresno youth co-ordinator, who was our music co-ordinator and who directed the play, "Were You There?" presented by the Fresno Youth Association.

The thrilling climax took place on Sunday morning when the MV officers, after prayerful consideration, pledged, by the grace of God, 91 projects and 394 souls won for Christ in 1969.

Surely, God is good! After the commitment banquet so beautifully prepared by our food service director, Mrs. Nellie Schultz, all went their separate ways with that extra-good feeling that "POWER—for a FINISHED WORK" would be ours if we "only believe."

W. C. DE HAVEN, Youth Director.

It is estimated that about two million school and college students have had some experience with marijuana.

Hunters and fishers are men who go out with an objective in mind. Their objective is to get something. There is a different kind of hunter and fisherman—the soul-seeking type. Surely he has an objective! He goes out to be a hunter or a fisher of souls.

In the Reno, Nevada, Church we are justly proud of Mrs. Mabel O'Neil who is truly a hunter and fisher of souls as she visits homes in her work as an Avon representative.

Golden West and taught two classes "The Pastor a Writer," and "Improving the Image of Our Church in the Community."

Ray Hixson, Pacific Press Periodical Department, gave helpful suggestions on evangelistic possibilities with our missionary journal, Signs of the Times.

Pacific Union auditor E. R. Sanders, who was auditing the conference books during the workers' meeting, took time to answer various financial questions asked by the pastors during one period.

A few of the topics on the discussion agenda were: pastor-school board relationship, the pastor and church finance, soul-winning our business, the pastor's Bible class, interesting and helpful prayer meetings, teacher-church relationships, school public relations, junior camp, world youth congress, temperance oratorical contest and church and school financial budgets.

D. E. DIRKSEN, President.

Ray Hixson brought elaborate displays to impress workers with "Signs of the Times" soul-winning opportunities.

Nevada-Utah

One day, as she knocked on a door to sell her product to a stranger, she was invited in. She called upon this home with her Avon products several times. Mrs. O'Neil became very anxious to sell her new friend "the real thing"—the blessed gospel message—so she simply asked if she might hold a Bible study with her the following week. The lady consented and thus began a series of Bible studies with Mrs. Anne Workman.

On a recent Sabbath day, Mrs. Workman, with several others, followed her Lord in the sacred rite of baptism in the Reno church.

God bless these "fishers of souls." Certainly it is the cry of every church pastor, who looks upon the vastness of the task, for earnest members to arise and help finish God's work on this earth.

A. M. MATAR, Pastor,

CAMELBACK CHURCH MEMBERS EXCEL IN ACCOMPLISHMENTS

✓ The Ingathering program of 1968 is now history at the Camelback Church, and many thrills and challenges have met those who went from door to door. Our primary concern was to contact people for their dollars to assist in our worldwide program. While in their presence we shared our faith by placing literature in the people's hands and telling them of our worldwide humanitarian program.

Brother Chuck Laspe, wife and triplet sons, Charles, Forrest and William, were an inspiring family and set a strong pace for the entire church. This one family solicited $650 which is 13 per cent of the entire church goal.

The Ingathering leaflets were stuffed with Bible study enrollment cards and a large number of our contacts are now studying the "Go Tell" Bible Course.

The Camelback Church made more contacts and received more money than in any year previous.

✓ The Camelback Dorcas Society exhibited the spirit of brotherhood at the holiday season time by lending a helping hand to dozens of unfortunate folk in the city of Scottsdale.

Mattresses, blankets, and bedding and over 1,500 articles of clothing were given to extremely proud but very poor Indian folk.

With the use of a small van, the ladies of the Dorcas Society went out into the vegetable fields and picked lettuce, carrots, beets, and sweet potatoes and bought other food for over 33 families.

Missionary work to the elderly was not forgotten. Nice hospital gowns were given to these folk in nursing homes.

Mrs. Nita Huff and her co-workers are engaged in doing the work that Seventh-day Adventists believe ought to be done.

CHARLES COOK, Pastor.

MV Officers Hold State-wide Meeting and Set New Goals

The officers of the MV societies in the State of Arizona met January 24 and 25 at the new Central Seventh-day Adventist church in Phoenix.

Under the able leadership of Elder Miller Brockett of the Pacific Union MV Department, and Elder Lawrence Nelson of the General Conference MV Department, our youth leaders were challenged to attempt greater things for God in 1969. The emphasis was placed on youth evangelism as young people work to help save their fellow-youth.

Details of the World Youth Congress were discussed.

Youth leaders returned home with a renewed determination to encourage the youth of Arizona on to greater heights of endeavor for Christ in 1969.

Educational and MV.

Tempe Hosts State Pathfinder Leaders in a Training Course

Pathfinder leaders from all over the state met at the Tempe church and school for a training course in basic Pathfinder leadership January 18 and 19.

Elder Harry Garlick was present to guide into pathways of more efficient service for our Pathfinder aged youth. The ten-hour course is designed to help leaders in the organization and administration of all phases of a Pathfinder club.

Forty-one Arizona Pathfinder leaders completed the course and received their Pathfinder Leaders Training Course Certificate.

Plans for the Arizona Pathfinder Fair to be held at Thunderbird Academy in May were studied.

This fine group of Pathfinder leaders are certainly to be commended on their dedication to the task of saving the youth of Arizona through the Pathfinder clubs.

FUND-RAISING PROJECTS HELP BUY NEEDED SCHOOL SUPPLIES

The La Sierra Home and School Association has had an active and successful program this season.

The parade and fair in October was one of its high lights. The parade, with more than 80 entries, attracted a large crowd that lined both sides of Pierce Street. We hope this was the first of what will be an annual parade. The fair that followed, directed by Mrs. Millie Carlson, was very successful and helped purchase several school necessities. Fair-goers enjoyed fun and entertainment provided by the rides, booths and delicious food.

The candy sale, headed by Mrs. Lois Smith, Home and School president, helped purchase much-needed lockers for the 7th and 8th grades.

The next major endeavor will be the pancake breakfast and Fine Arts Fair to be held at the Academy auditorium, Sunday, March 9. Breakfast will be served from 8 to 11 a.m. and, for the modest cost of 50¢, one may have all the pancakes he can eat, plus fruit and a drink.

The Fine Arts Fair will be from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the same building, where after breakfast one may view the arts and crafts display. Everyone living in the community, as well as all students from surrounding schools, is invited to present any artistic endeavor or craft to display at the fair.

Awards will be presented. To enter a craft, contact Mr. R. Weischadle, Principal, 11375 Pierce, Riverside, California 92505.

Youth Focus on Other Young People in Commitment Drive

Focal point of the 1969 Youth Evangelism thrust will be the conference-wide Youth Commitment Day, March 22.

On this day through the combined efforts of all conference youth agencies we have selected a goal of some 500 baptisms. Through the Sabbath schools, Pathfinder clubs and church schools the youth of Southeastern will be appealing to all uncommitted youth to give their hearts to the Lord.

Speaking the sentiments of youth leaders at the January Youth Leaders Convention at Pine Springs Ranch, one young leader remarked, "We, the youth need more responsibilities. We want them."

The facts are that Adventist youth today want a greater part in witnessing. Every opportunity should be given our youth to let them work for their fellow youth in the finishing of the Gospel message.

Also, during the convention, plans were laid for a variety of evangelistic activities this summer: evangelism in our churches, at the beach and resort areas, and other missionary projects.

We have confidence that our youth will contribute significantly to the conference evangelistic thrust when given the opportunity.

W. E. DOPP, Secretary,
Missionary Volunteer.

Youth Enjoy Winter Camp; Witness to Fellow Skiers

Some 60 students and staff members attended the third annual winter camp held this year at Yosemite's Badger Pass.

The Central California Conference was host conference and provided living facilities at Wawona Youth Camp from December 26 to 31.

The camp featured daily skiing with lessons for beginners through advanced skiers. Each day many students took the opportunity of witnessing for Christ as they met other skiers on the slopes and riding on the lifts.

The Bordermen quartet played music for 1½ hours each day in the lodge dining room. Their selections were both religious and secular.

The campers are looking forward to next year's winter camp with equal enthusiasm.

In slalom ski races the following were winners:

Boys: advanced—Ed Dopp; beginners—Randy Szutz; Girls: advanced—Linda Dopp; beginners—Jean Rolls.

Heretofore, Loma Linda's food service unit at the Orange Show has been located within the Commercial and Industrial building.

This year the location is being changed to an outside location at the northwest corner of the Commercial building. We are sure that the large number of people who have patronized this food service during their attendance at the Orange Show will appreciate knowing of this location change.

The Orange Show is scheduled to be held in San Bernardino, March 6 to 16.

Report of Growth Is Given on Orange County Company

Forward strides have been noted in the Orange County Company during the last few months of 1968. Many are the blessings He has brought our way of which we would like to mention a few. For six years our worship place was a rented church but now, after much prayer and hard work, we are now worshipping in our own church home, a church building recently acquired from our Spanish congregations. The generous financial help from our conference and the outstanding liberality of our own members and interested friends made this transaction possible.

Since moving into our own church, several hundred dollars has been expended in refurbishing the interior greatly enhancing its appearance. A complete new heating system has been installed. The exterior will soon receive a complete face-lifting job.

Our members have also been faithful in their giving to God's cause. Tithe and mission offerings far exceeded those of 1967. Other offerings also made comparable gains. Our church growth, numerically has kept pace with the progress made along other lines. During the last six months of 1968, 16 have united with our church family—six by baptism—two by rebaptism and eight by letter. Others are in the instructional class awaiting baptism. Our membership at the beginning of the year was 71.

In accordance with the recommendations of the General and local conferences and carefully following the guidelines prepared by the brethren, our church is working very closely with the city government of Santa Ana in the Greater Inner-City Program for the disadvantaged of the community. With the leasing of a portion of our church facilities to the County Community Action Council five days a week from 8:30 to 12:30 a.m. for a Head-Start Program, we are able to co-operate with the city and county in providing a well-rounded program for the children of the community. This has given our church an opportunity to bring before the City Administration of Santa Ana and the general public, the traditional role of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in its active concern for all citizens of our country.

As the New Year progresses our Orange County Company looks forward to greater exploits for God and His church. To this end we have dedicated our lives and we solicit the prayers of all.

RICHARD E. BERRY, Pastor.

Emphasis Placed on Foreign Missions in Recent Programs

"A Week of Foreign Missions Emphasis" has just concluded at Pacific Union College. Arthur Edwin Gibb, associate secretary of the General Conference, and Chris P. Sorensen, former president of the Far Eastern Division, have been on campus during the week to lead out in discussions concerning the Seventh-day Adventist foreign missions program.

Morning assemblies and evening joint worship sessions have enjoyed music of many countries along with the topics of practical interest. Titles, "Why Missions?" "Motivation for Missions," "The Status of Seventh-day Adventist Missions Around the World in 1969," "Qualifications of an Effective Missionary," "Preparation for Mission Service," and "The Mechanics of a Call to Overseas Service" were made clear; and the urgency of a response was stressed.

The College Food Service, under the direction of Miss Esther Ambbs, provided foreign food dishes in the cafeteria during the week, and "Pancit Guisado" (the Philippines), "Tempura" (Japan), and "Inti-puff" (Malaysia) were among the foods served.

Pacific Union College has sent student missionaries to overseas locations for the past six years. This week of missions emphasis has strengthened the purposes of the student missionary program and has helped to cement the ideals inherent in the church's commission, "Go Ye into All the World."

Arizona

Psychiatrist Gives Insight into Reasons for Behavior

Dr. Hoffmann, psychiatrist from Glendale, California, was guest speaker at Glenview Junior Academy on January 16 at the Home and School meeting, Glendale, Arizona.

He opened his talk explaining that often children who are brought to a psychiatrist by their parents, are not necessarily sick, but may be compensating with unusual behavior for unpleasant family situations. So the child may not need treatment, but rather the family situation needs correcting. Attitudes regarding discipline and therapy change from generation to generation as greater insight is gained.

Children, Dr. Hoffmann said, are like volcanoes. They often explode in a burst of emotion. A mature adult is more like a steam generator with pressure controls and relief valves so there is emotional control.

Conscious and Subconscious

There are the two parts of the brain—the conscious and unconscious portion. The unconscious or subconscious part thinks as well as the conscious. In fact, it has a greater effect on our thoughts and actions than our conscious mind.

There may be conflicts between the two parts of the brain which result in symptoms in the body. Most things we do, we don't really think about. Impressions are so deeply embedded in the mind, they simply become habits. It is also true that sometimes when we forget to do something, it is because, in our subconscious mind, we really want to forget—like the woman who always forgets to write to her mother-in-law.

The Apostle Paul described the conflict in him when he said, "For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do." So do we all do and say things that we wish we hadn't, possibly during a heated family discussion. A good text to remember is, "Be still and know that I am God." If we stop and give the other person a chance to express his views, we can usually settle the problem amicably.

Until we can be sure of the long-range effects from the use of marijuana, or until we can find some valid reasons for introducing this drug into our society on a wholesale and unrestricted basis, we would have to ask: Why marijuana at all?
