

TEAMS RESEARCH BENEFITS OF DIETS

By DR. CLAUDE E. THURSTON, Secretary, International Nutrition Research Foundation

For the past four years a series of Protein Nutrition Research Studies has been conducted by investigators in the Loma Linda University School of Public Health, sponsored in large part by the Pacific Union Conference, Loma Linda Foods, and the Lassen Foundation.

One of these, a Human Feeding Study on the adequacy of a vegetarian diet, has been very successful. Dr. U. D. Register, chairman of the Department of Nutrition of the School of Public Health at Loma Linda University, has just given a formal report on this study to the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology at Atlantic City, New Jersey.

It was first shown that a lacto-ovo-vegetarian diet (vegetarian plus milk and eggs) maintained the subjects in nitrogen balance as well as a typical meat diet, and also lowered serum cholesterol levels significantly.

A four-day diet sequence menu was developed which could be used as a regular diet or weight-reduction diet, and this was published by Loma Linda Foods in a booklet under the title of Magic Menus. It includes recipes and can be used on a lacto-ovo-or full vegetarian program. More than 16,000 of these have been distributed thus far at 25 cents each.

Giving Liberally Will Help Alleviate Tragic Suffering

Rifle fire in the streets, bombers roaring overhead, pathetic lines of refugees with pots and pans tied in old blankets and terrified children tugging their mothers' black trousers, homes swept out to sea by autumn floods—Vietnam has seen them all. The suffering and the needs are staggering.

As emergencies have faced us during these terrible times, we have been reassured to know that our people in more favored lands, through the Disaster and Famine Relief Offering, have provided funds to help.

When we requested a Butler Building for a warehouse to handle relief supplies, the General Conference was able to provide it. When we needed tons of clothing and medicines, the Seventh-day Adventist Welfare Service sent them immediately. Many Vietnamese are healthier and happier today because of this help.

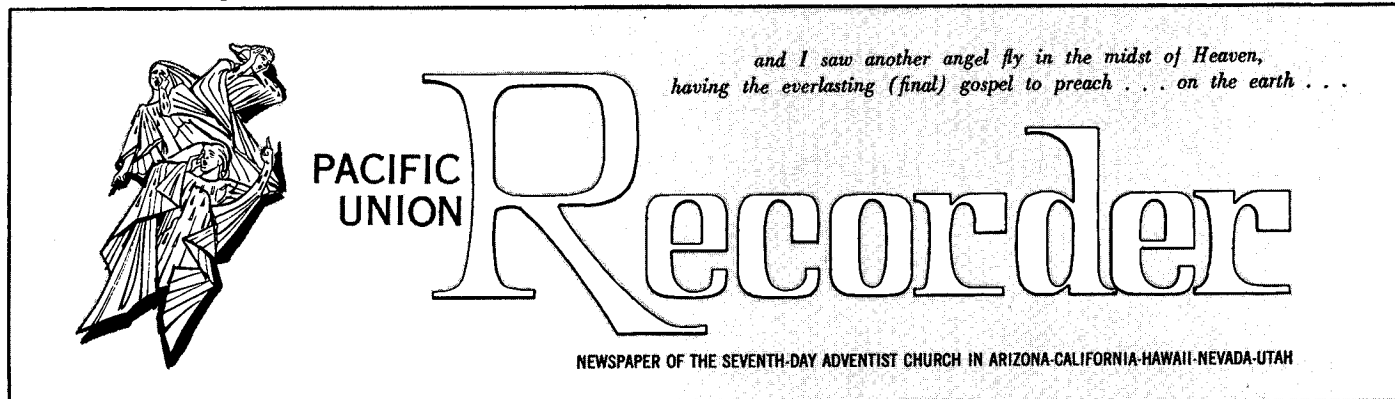

Needs Are Many

The needs, however, are not over. Hundreds of thousands of people must somehow rebuild their lives. Some need medical care; some, education; and some still need food and clothing.

Even as we see the great needs in Vietnam, we realize that there are multiplied thousands throughout the world whose physical and spiritual poverty is just as great as that of the people of Vietnam. The biennial Disaster and Famine Relief Offering helps alleviate this great, world-wide cry for help.

We cannot help everyone, but God expects us to do our part. If you cannot join us in person, will you help with a liberal offering on May 10? Our grateful Vietnamese are counting on you!

RALPH E. NEALL, President, Vietnam Mission.

Leaders Review Budgets of Conferences and Academies

Your union officers and educational secretary, during the past three months, have been attending the conference and academy audit and budget sessions. At these meetings much time was spent in reviewing the income and expenditures during the past year, to be sure that the workers have been fairly and adequately compensated in harmony with the various union and General Conference policies.

After the audit we spent time studying the trends in income and the costs of operation for the new year and adopted balanced budgets for the current year's operation. This matter of inflation presents very real and difficult problems.

As we operate the various facets of the work of God, we are admonished to be prudent and careful, to be sure that we operate within the available income and accomplish as much as possible with the means provided.

Having now completed these meetings for the most part, it is a pleasure to report to our constituents again that the conferences and academies are operating on uniform and balanced budgets. This should bring a sense of security and satisfaction to all of us.

At this time may I add a word of commendation for the work of the conference administrators and academy principals, all of whom have grappled with real problems and difficult situations in their endeavor to encompass all of the needs. They

Call Is Issued for Return to God and True Religion

A number of years ago Dr. Henry C. Link, one of America's foremost scientists, lost his religious experience when he went to college and became, as he says, "practically a pagan."

Later Dr. Link found his way back to God, and wrote a book entitled Return to Religion. He confessed that "with all the development of modern science the nation is foundering as it has never done before . . . the more we know, the less we know . . . We have become the fools of reason and the dupes of scientific truth."

One of the most telling chapters in his book is entitled "Vice of Education," showing how children and youth are ruined by the spirit of liberalism that has taken hold of the American home, the church, and the school; young people who scorn the religion of their fathers with a liberalism that releases the new generation from the traditions and restraints of the past. Parents are regarded as old-fashioned and behind the times.

Attitudes of Youth

These youth sneer at the religion and the standards of their elders, but are liberal with their parents' money and their automobiles and other property. Their "higher education," however, gives them an aversion to the more manual type of labor. "What is old must be wrong, what is new is right," so young minds reason. And Dr. Link, this noted psychologist, calls for a return to God, to religion, to the commandments, and to the faith of our fathers and the forgotten standards.

Dr. Link's description of youth attitudes in his day was nothing to be compared with what we see today in our public high schools, colleges and universities.

We can be grateful and thank God for the provision made for Christian education for our Seventh-day Adventist children and youth.

We are living in troublous and uncertain times, and according to the Scriptures we can expect them to grow worse and worse as we draw closer to the end of this world's history. "For evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived." 2 Timothy 3:13.

Said the servant of the Lord: "We are on the very verge of the time of trouble, and perplexities that are scarcely dreamed of are before us. A power from beneath is leading men to war against Heaven. Human beings have confederated with satanic satisfactory food value levels for adequate weight-reduction diets. A total of 1,300 calories per day will give at least two pounds per week loss, which is considered a safe level for prolonged programs.

The best results were obtained when the 1,300 calories were distributed as follows: 30 per cent carbohydrate, 45 per cent fat, and 25 per cent protein. This ratio supplied about 100 grams of carbohydrate per day, which has been recommended as a minimum to avoid ketosis, excessive protein breakdown and other metabolic disorders. The diet was well tolerated with few complaints of excessive hunger.

Another study compared results for one group with controlled exercise, and one without such control. The exercise group expended 50 to 150 calories per day by way of exercise and lost about one pound per week more than the non-exercise group.

The polyunsaturated to saturated (P/S) ratio was approximately two for both groups, and it is thus not surprising that there was a significant decrease in blood cholesterol levels.

This is in definite contrast to such diets using meat, as they involved increases in these levels. There was no significant increase in uric acid levels in the blood, as might occur in fasting using a very restricted carbohydrate diet.

Some of the subjects had initially elevated fasting insulin levels or abnormal glucose tolerance tests. In them there was shown definite improvement in glucose tolerance and decreased insulin response to a glucose load. Further studies are in progress on these relationships.

RECORDER readers will be glad to know that research teams at Loma Linda University are obtaining valuable information regarding the benefits of diets designed for better health.

agencies to make void the law of God. The inhabitants of the world . . . in Noah's day, . . . were swept away by the flood, and . . . the inhabitants of Sodom, . . . were consumed by fire from heaven.

"The powers of Satan are at work to keep minds diverted from eternal realities. The enemy has arranged matters to suit his own purposes. Worldly business, sports, the fashions of the day,—these things occupy the minds of men and women. Amusements and unprofitable reading spoil the judgment. In the broad road that leads to eternal ruin there walks a long procession. The world, filled with violence, reveling, and drunkenness, is converting the church. The law of God, the divine standard of righteousness, is declared to be of no effect." Testimonies, Vol. 9, pp. 43, 44.

If we have strayed from God, it is time to return to true religion. We are in a world of peril, and many have lost their way. Many of our own youth and children are under wrong influences, in worldly environment, and need to be in our own schools. Parents need to think deeply upon this.

"Beware of procrastination. Do not put off the work of forsaking your sins, and seeking purity of heart through Jesus. Here is where thousands upon thousands have erred, to their eternal loss. I will not here dwell upon the shortness and uncertainty of life; but there is a terrible danger—a danger not sufficiently understood—in delaying to yield to the pleading voice of God's Holy Spirit, in choosing to live in sin; for such this delay really is.

"Sin, however small it may be esteemed, can be indulged in only at the peril of infinite loss. What we do not overcome, will overcome us, and work out our destruction." Steps to Christ, p. 37.

Ministers, Doctors Hear a Talk on Mutual Interests

Simi Valley Community Hospital recently hosted a joint breakfast meeting of members of the Simi Valley Ministerial Association and staff physicians. Chaplain Charles Teel of the Loma Linda University Hospital was the guest speaker.

In attendance were clergymen representing a variety of Protestant denominations and Dr. Bernard Cohen, rabbi of the Simi Valley Jewish Congregation. Included in the group of physicians present were some who are not members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Following the fellowship breakfast, Chaplain Teel talked to the group about areas in which physicians and clergymen can properly co-operate for the total welfare of patients. There was a brief question-and-answer period at the end of the meeting.

It was gratifying to receive both group and individual expressions of appreciation for sponsoring the meeting.

Medical Center "Volunteer" assembles guest kits in lobby of hospital building.

A "Volunteer" Serves Others Because of Sincere Interest

The White Memorial Medical Center is experiencing a modern version of the Biblical story of the "Widow's Mite." It is said of the widow that "she gave of her living," but the modern version is that "she is giving of her life."

Once a week a grandmother in a pink smock designating her as a "Volunteer" sits in the lobby of the hospital building of the Medical Center, answering phones, preparing guest kits and other tasks which come her way.

There is really nothing great by which she is known except the fact that she is a former patient of the Medical Center, and she is afflicted with terminal cancer.

An office worker all her life, she came to Mrs. Mabel Jensen, Director of Volunteers, and asked for the privilege of assisting as a volunteer, for "she wanted to do something worth while for others."

With no particular church affiliation, yet with a tremendous desire to help others, this volunteer, who wishes to remain anonymous, truly exemplifies the widow and her giving of her all.

What a tremendous example to all Seventh-day Adventist ladies who should be giving "volunteer" hours helping those in need!

CHW PROGRAMS INFLUENCE MANY

Local Community Health Week programs in Northern California, Central California, the Southeastern area and in every district of Los Angeles County, March 16-22, marked the 25th Anniversary of Community Health Week.

The 23 Los Angeles County Health Department districts put on home, school, and health department programs in basic health education, immunization, tuberculosis, and diabetes testing. Open house was held by schools and health departments showing extensive health exhibits and impressive demonstrations of bandaging, mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, and other first-aid measures.

Health Activities

Throughout the week, Pershing Square in downtown Los Angeles was the scene of chest X-rays by the Los Angeles County Health Department, and of blood testing, and health education programs in the mobile units of the American Cancer Society, the Los Angeles County Heart Association, the Committee for the Eradication of Syphilis, and other voluntary health agencies.

An overflow crowd of students, teachers, parents, and other adults joined the CHW conference and luncheon session held on March 19 in the Biltmore Ballroom and Bowl.

Our Seventh-day Adventist youth, ministers, and teachers were in the very center of the total program. Lynwood Academy teacher Don Vollmer, with Glendale Union Academy student musicians, "The Message Units"; Elder Tom Neslund, teacher at GUA, with his "Mr. Al K. Hall"; Elder Emmett Watts of the Temperance Department; Pastor Walter E. Barber, with Smoking Sam; and Dr. Charles Thomas of Loma Linda University and his physical fitness exercises—all were most popular centers of attraction.

Literature Taken

In less than one hour all of the 300 personal cards and the 500 brochures, plus all other available cards and identifying materials which our Seventh-day Adventist minister could secure, were quickly seized by the eager throngs of public-school students, teachers, and administrators.

Elder Harold Calkins, conference executive secretary, rendered the invocation. The Ministers' Chorus sang. Top medical men of the world were there. Present were Dr. Dwight L. Wilbur, president, American Medical Association; Dr. Malcolm Todd, of the California Medical Association; Dr. George Watson, executive director designee, American Dental Association; representatives of Los Angeles City's Mayor Yorty; Los Angeles County Supervisor Frank Bonelli; Dr. Allan Briney, president, Los Angeles County Medical Association; and Dr. J. Takamine, secretary-treasurer, LACMA. All joined in bestowing highest awards of health and honor upon Dr. Ruth Temple, founder and general chairman of Community Health Week.

The importance of this CHW contact cannot be measured. The 2,000 delegated representatives of large groups, such as parent-teacher associations with their 1,000,000 members, the city and county schools, the Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and the California Federation of Women's Clubs, men's service clubs, were representing approximately 3,000,000 members to whom these delegates are responsible to carry back the total health message received at the CHW conference and luncheon.

Already the Health and Temperance departments have had urgent requests for demonstrations of Smoking Sam and for other health programs. Only God can know the ultimate result of this CHW's positive demonstration of God's total health program in action.

Education Received at SPA Helps Students for Future

A recent check on certification of teachers at San Pasqual Academy indicates that all courses of instruction are being taught by certified instructors. The study revealed that 34 percent of the academy staff have master's degrees with the remaining members holding either B.A. or B.S. degrees plus additional graduate-level education.

In addition to the quality preparation of the San Pasqual staff, the academy has the distinction of having received two consecutive terms of accreditation with the Western Association of Schools and Colleges. Each term has been for a full five year period. The academy became a charter member of the organization in 1963. The school also has continued to enjoy an uninterrupted term of accreditation with the Board of Regents, General Conference Department of Education.

The report of the six member Western Association visiting committee commends the school by stating that graduates "are being adequately prepared for subsequent educational careers."

Also observed was the positive achievement being made "in the theoretical and applied aspects of religious instruction." The report continued to compliment the school for "the loyalty and support which the student body generally feels toward the faculty and administration and for the school program."

Beyond the regular compliment of courses required for accreditation, the program of courses also includes an extensive variety of electives such as art, electronics, technical drawing, flight training, and family living.

Educational effort is directed toward self-understanding and the full development of the students' powers so they may assume their share of responsibility for the welfare of others and take their places in a democratic society as intelligent co-operative citizens. It is the goal of the academy to educate our young people in a way that will fit them to meet the momentous issues of these times with intelligent purpose.

Many Go to Camp Meeting; Programs Prepared for All

Nearly 10,000 members from the Riverside-San Bernardino County areas of the conference gathered for a regional camp meeting April 5 at the San Bernardino National Orange Show Grounds.

Regular services were held in the various buildings on the grounds Sabbath morning. Bright-eyed children heard special services planned especially for them by the various division leaders.

An interesting sidelight of the afternoon activities was a survey of San Bernardino conducted by the senior youth. In addition to attempting to determine church preference and interest in Bible study, the youth presented two questions which resulted in a clear-cut indication of the community's attitude.

One of the questions, "Should Narcotic Laws Be Liberalized?" brought these results: Yes—20, No—127. To the other question, "Do you favor the state insuring continuation of classes during campus strikes and demonstrations?" they answered: Yes—115, No—37.

All youth and children's meetings were combined in the afternoon to hear Mrs. Josephine Cunningham Edwards while the adults heard Elder Harold M. S. Richards, Jr., associate speaker for the Voice of Prophecy radio broadcast.

Two more regional meetings will be held this year. One will be held September 20 in Garden Grove for Orange County

Elder James Hayward records another Bible message on the new Code-A-Phone.

Telephones Spread Message in Phoenix; Interest Is Good

The Phoenix Central Church, under the direction of Pastor James Hayward, has just purchased two Code-A-Phones, used for giving Bible studies to those who call in. Each Code-A-Phone is actually a double tape recorder. When the number is dialed, the dialer hears a three-minute Bible message. Following the message, the dialer is invited to leave his name and address and is encouraged to enroll in the "Bible Says" program.

This service is operated under the name "Dial Your Family Bible." A small classified ad appears in the daily newspaper; also, cards are handed out by church members with a small insert tape to be placed on the telephone, giving the title, "Dial Your Family Bible," and the phone number to call.

The Code-A-Phones operate 24 hours a day. During the first three days of operation, over 1,000 calls were received. The number of calls will increase as more people become aware of this service.

The taped message is changed every day. Doctrinal messages are given.

The church members have really been inspired by the response that is coming through the Code-A-Phone program. Elder Hayward stated, "This program is a fulfillment of Isaiah 60:11—'Therefore thy gates shall be opened continually; they shall not be shut day nor night.'"

It is surprising how much doctrine can be crowded into a three-minute slot. Interests received through the Code-A-Phone program will develop into Bible studies and eventual church membership.

As one of six winners from the Pacific Union, Vikki spoke at several high schools and churches in Salt Lake City and enjoyed visiting many places of interest.

Camp Meeting Notice

Plan now to attend a "soul-winning" camp meeting at Soquel June 19-28. The theme selected for this ten-day spiritual feast is "Christ in You." Weekend and weekday programs will feature stirring messages from our world and union conference leaders.

The evening meetings will be specifically devoted to the preaching of Christ and the third angel's message by the four conference evangelists from our field. Their presentation will be collated to apply to those not of our faith. What an opportunity to bring those interested in our message to a camp meeting revival! To highlight this evangelistic emphasis, a vesper baptismal service will be conducted on the closing Sabbath.

Give Liberally on May 10 to Famine Relief Offering

You did have lunch today, didn't you? No doubt you thanked God for it, and also for all His many blessings. But did you give a thought about the thousands around the world who did not have lunch, nor breakfast, nor a real meal for days? Or about those thousands—men, women, and children—yes, little boys and girls, who are slowly, but surely, starving to death because of hunger?

No, it is not a pleasant thought. We hate to think of it and hope perhaps to forget it. But it is very real, and the ache and pain of gnawing hunger and starvation just do not go away.

As God's children here, in this land of plenty, we have been doubly blessed with the truth of God and hope for eternity, and also with the material blessings of food, shelter, and the comforts of life.

Are you, as one of God's children, really concerned about the spectre of starvation that stalks so much of our world? If you are, you will have opportunity to show your concern by giving a very liberal offering for Famine Relief, on Sabbath, May 10.

Let us go all-out and really give! This Famine Relief Offering is taken only every second year. The needs are urgent, and the time to give is now! God is counting on His church and on You!

B. W. MATTISON, Secretary, Department of Lay Activities.

Evangelistic Meetings to Be Held in Milpitas by the Pastor

The first public evangelistic meetings in the city of Milpitas will begin May 3 and extend through May 24.

The pastor, Dan Fausset, will be the speaker for the nightly meetings beginning at 7:45. The opening night address, "Is Christianity Relevant?" will focus on the theme of the crusade, "Christ Is the Answer."

All meetings will be held in the conference evangelistic tent located just off Nimitz Freeway (Highway 17) at the Milpitas-Alviso exit and one block east of Denny's Restaurant.

The Lord has blessed wonderfully in making available the best location in Milpitas. Drivers of some 2,000 cars passing the site each day cannot miss seeing the 8x24' sign inviting all to attend.

A number are presently preparing for baptism. Pray for God to lead many others to hear that Christ really is the answer! Members of all South Bay churches are invited to attend.

MILPITAS PR COMMITTEE.

MODESTO AREA TO HEAR A DEDICATED LAYMAN SPEAK

The weekend of May 2 and 3 will see the Modesto area visited by Emilio Knechtle, noted businessman, educator, and lay preacher from the New York area. He was the chairman of the special committee several years ago that made arrangements for Billy Graham's first crusade in New York City. A short time later Mr. Knechtle was a convert to the Seventh-day Adventist Church. At the present time he is the president of St. Luke's School for Boys in New Caanan, Connecticut.

The three meetings scheduled for Emilio Knechtle will be in the Modesto Central church, 725 17th Street, Modesto, and are: Friday, May 2, at 7:30 p.m.; Sabbath, May 3, at 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. The theme for the meetings will center in the belief that an experimental knowledge of the saving grace of Christ in our own hearts will materially help others to accept the Saviour.

All three meetings are open to everyone. The Friday night meeting will feature the youth of the Modesto area with Mr. Knechtle. The Sabbath services will be highlighted by the music of the new Rodgers 990 organ recently installed in the Modesto church.

Progress of Work Is Viewed by Leaders on Recent Trip

D. E. Dirksen, president, and G. C. Lashier, secretary-treasurer, just returned to the office, concluding a 2,000-mile trip to various parts of the Nevada-Utah Conference.

They began their itinerary by going directly to Monument Valley for the annual full board meeting held April 10. Private planes, bringing board members to the meeting, arrived from Oakland and Riverside, California, and from Phoenix, Arizona, landing on the mission airstrip.

Dr. Lloyd Mason and other mission workers brought encouraging reports. With special interest, board members heard that, for the first time, the large diesel motors that generated power for the compound were silent, since electric lines are now supplying them with power originating from Glenn Canyon and Hoover Dam. We are grateful to the Navajo Tribal Council for making this possible at their great expense.

Stan Martin, new accountant and bookkeeper for the mission, with his family, had just arrived from Pendleton, Oregon, and was introduced to the board.

In connection with the spiritual activities the officers report that a new church has been purchased in Mexican Hat, Utah,

The Bishop, California church photographed after a three-foot snowfall in February.

25 miles from the mission, where services will be conducted by Pastor Keith Mulligan and translator Tom Holiday with the hope of organizing a church.

The next stop by the conference men was at Moab, Utah, where Elder Frank Munsey from Santa Cruz, California, had just completed a one-week series of meetings. Six persons made their decision to be baptized and join the church. The Moab church school was visited and calls made on church leaders.

Sabbath, April 12, was spent with the Wasatch Hills Salt Lake City, Utah, Church where the Pacific Union Conference temperance oratorical winners were spending the weekend speaking in high schools and a number of churches.

The following day a counsel session was held with the Winnemucca, Nevada, building committee where plans are developing for the purchase of land and the erection of a new church.

Back at the office the president brought a progress report from the areas visited.

MRS. HAZEL DIRKSEN, RECORDER Secretary.

Work Advancement Noted in Conference News Items

✓ The Bishop, California, Church welcomes summer vacationers coming to their area to Sabbath services held at the regular time. A friendly welcome will await you at 730 North Home Street.

✓ Elder Earl Simmons began an evangelistic effort in the new Hawthorne, Nevada, church on Saturday night, April 19. Location of the church is Third and C streets. Having traveled in Europe and the Holy Land, the speaker will use to advantage, to help in his evangelism, pictures he took on his three-month tour of various countries.

✓ The Carson City, Nevada, Church is planning to build a new sanctuary. Messrs. Reed and Vannoy met with the conference committee and presented plans for the proposed new Carson City church building. It was stated that the value of the building would be approximately $84,000. Estimated cost of materials is $33,000 and all labor will be donated. The committee voted to approve the building program and financial plan.

✓ Elder John W. Boyd is the new pastor of the Salt Lake City Wasatch Hills Church. The congregation heard his first message on Sabbath, April 19.

✓ The Monument Valley Church has a full-time pastor. Elder Keith Mulligan, from the Southern California Conference, accepted a call and has taken up his duties as missionary to the Navajos.

MBA Students to Sing, Speak at Reno Youth Meeting May 3

On Sabbath, May 3, at 5 p.m., a speech seminar group from Monterey Bay Academy will be speaking and providing special musical numbers for the Missionary Volunteer meeting in the Reno church, 1200 South Arlington.

This speech seminar group consists of six or seven seniors from Monterey Bay Academy who sing and speak for Christ. This group has given its program in a number of churches in California, and we are fortunate that Reno was included in their itinerary.

MRS. JANET HANSON, MV Office Secretary.

Pastor Robert D. McIntyre, converted Methodist minister, who spoke recently at the East Oakland church.

Former Methodist Minister Tells Story of Conversion

Pastor Robert D. McIntyre, converted Methodist minister, spoke at the East Oakland church recently, narrating the story of his conversion to the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

McIntyre pointed to several items as being instrumental in his and his family's conversion. An anonymous believer sent him a subscription to Signs of the Times, a dedicated colporteur called and spent many hours in study with the liberal pastor, and the Adventist people extended a heartfelt warmth and love to his family.

McIntyre drew from his experience several lessons for Adventist soul winners. "We're simply not reaching most liberals today. We're answering questions they're not even asking," McIntyre pointed out that modern liberals don't accept the Bible as being inspired, and merely quoting texts will rarely convert these souls.

"We must talk to them in terms of our own personal experience," the minister contends. "And that experience has to be genuine."

GORDON BIETZ, Associate Pastor, East Oakland Church.

Paradise Hosts an Evangelistic Series by Clifton A. Walter

Clifton A. Walter, Northern California Conference evangelist, began a series of meetings in Paradise April 26 at 7:15 p.m.

These meetings will continue each night with the exception of Wednesday and Thursday, and will be held in the Paradise church, 5720 Academy Drive. The closing night will be May 24.

The opening night lecture will be "Inside Russia Today." Those in attendance will travel behind the Iron Curtain with Elder Walter by a color motion picture entitled "The Streets of Leningrad and Moscow."

SUA Students Visit Mexico and Work to Lessen Needs

The Bible Department at Sacramento Union Academy is unique in the fact that they try to give the students the principles of life in the class, and also a chance to put these things to work in the field.

This is exactly what the students did during their recent spring vacation. Twenty of the students, with six sponsors, went to two Mexican towns and helped with our work there.

Ten of the students went to Guadalajara where they helped out in a clinic by cleaning and arranging all the medical shelves and medicines. They also sorted and arranged alphabetically many of the office files.

The students gave the clinic some $2,000 worth of medical supplies that doctors in the Sacramento area donated. Anyone can get medical help at the clinic for just eight pesos or 64 cents American money.

In-service Training

This trip gave the 10 students actual in-service training in the mission field.

The other 10 students went to Coborca. There were two reasons for going to Coborca. One was to provide $200 for the church they are building, and the other was to provide the labor of these 10 students to help finish it.

While at Coborca the students bought and installed the windows and the door. They made a mixture of lime and sand to be used to stucco the inside and outside.

The hardest job they completed was to raise the floor five inches with dirt. All the tools they had to work with were one wheelbarrow, two shovels, and a broken car axle.

The car axle was used to tamp down the floor.

When the students left, the church was but $70 in labor away from completion. The student body at SUA is already working on raising this money.

This is just a sample of the active student body at Sacramento Union Academy.

Outdoor Club Holds Banquet; Enjoys Seeing Nature Slides

On Sunday evening, March 30, in the Santa Rosa church banquet room about 35 members of the Northern California Conference Outdoor Club held their annual banquet.

The banquet was prepared under the sponsorship of the Santa Rosa Pathfinder Club, directed by Wayne Jackson. Following the meal Elder Charles G. Edwards showed color slides of beautiful outdoor scenes in various parts of the world that he has visited. Other pictures were shown of the wilderness pack trip in the summer of 1968 sponsored by the conference Missionary Volunteer Department.

The Outdoor Club is an organization dedicated to encouraging Adventist families to enjoy the beauties of nature and camping. Two campouts a year are planned and promoted, and various local chapters of the club sponsor outdoor hikes and campouts in their own areas.

Soul Winning Is the Theme of Lay Instructors Course

Enthusiasm for winning souls has never burned more intensely in the hearts and lives of nearly 150 delegates who attended a 10-day Lay Instructors Training Institute in Honolulu recently.

"Soul winning—a way of life" was the dynamic theme presented by Elder V. W. Schoen, associate lay activities secretary of the General Conference. Elder Schoen, through outstanding personal soul-winning experiences, conveyed the eternal truth that every person, no matter who he may be, is a candidate for heaven.

Delegates sat spellbound for hours as they listened to thrilling stories of conversions of priests, nuns, clergy, and members of other faiths into the Seventh-day Adventist churches around the world.

Obtaining Decisions

Techniques on obtaining decisions were presented by Elder Dave Olsen, lay activities secretary of the Pacific Union Conference, that will be helpful in wooing others to Christ. "Love is the power that moves the world," stressed Elder Olsen.

The writer joined the two other instructors in giving the background for this growing church that now holds a world membership of 1.85 million.

The laity of the island of Oahu are soon to begin lay instructor institutes of their own in every church, in harmony with the challenge given by President A. G. Streifling.

As the meetings came to a close on Sunday, April 13, some said: "Pentecost has fallen upon us"; "The Holy Spirit has been here. We joyfully go back home to begin Bible studies and lay efforts."

Certainly the church of God will triumph in Hawaii as all experience the thrill of seeing many new souls won to Christ by our laymen.

VBS Workshop Schedule Is Planned to Offer Training

Is your church planning a summer youth program in Vacation Bible School evangelism? If not, many young people in your community will not only be disappointed, but they might not have the opportunity to learn of Jesus and His remnant church.

Every year there are baptisms in Hawaii attributed to Vacation Bible School evangelism. This summer, by the grace of God, will bring about more young people joining our Pathfinder clubs, Sabbath Schools, church schools, and churches than ever before.

Vacation Bible School workshops will be held so that all who attend may learn the most effective ways to win the hearts of children and parents, as well as the technical aspects of running a successful two-week Vacation Bible School program. This Vacation Bible School workshop is as follows:

Date	Time	Place	Island
May 12	7 p.m.	Kaunakakai Ch.	Molokai
May 13	7 p.m.	Kahului Ch.	Maui
May 14	7 p.m.	Kona Mis. Sch.	Hawaii
May 15	7 p.m.	Hawaiian Mis. Acad.	Oahu

Be sure to attend the workshop nearest you.

Church and School Renovated by Work of Kona Members

On Sabbath, April 19, it was the privilege of the writer to visit the Kona Church. It was gratifying to see the evidence of much work, planning and sacrifice which have gone into the improving of the church and school campus.

Pastor George Thayer and his willing congregation of believers in Kona are to be highly commended for carrying through the project of re-doing the entire interior of the church, including the furnishings, and placing carpeting throughout the sanctuary and entry ways. The ceiling has also been re-done, and wherever one looks in the Kona church, one is aware of the fact that the church is indeed putting its best foot forward on that beautiful coast.

It also appears to be a first in our church schools in Hawaii to have the floors carpeted. To step into the two classrooms of the Kona Mission School is indeed an experience that makes one wish to once again be a student on the elementary-school level. This school is being taught by Henry Keiper, who also serves as principal, and by Jessie Hauck, who teaches in the lower grades; and both of these teachers have expressed the thought that it is such a thrill to work with the splendid facilities that are to be found in this school.

A large area on the school grounds has also been black-topped for group activities and parking.

The Kona Church is privileged to have many visitors, being situated in one of the beautiful spots in the world, and I am confident each visitor will be impressed with the spirit of unity and love that pervades in this congregation.

Missionary work is being done in preparation for evangelistic meetings which, we trust, will help the Kona Church membership to grow substantially. Our warmest congratulations to the membership and pastor of the Kona Church for a progressive, forward-looking program. Our prayers are that the Kona Church and school will always be a lighthouse that will win and hold many more.

A. G. STREIFLING.

A WEST AFRICAN GIRL TO LIVE A NORMAL LIFE NOW

Loma Linda University Hospital physicians successfully repaired the mitral valve in the heart of a small West African child April 15.

Kadiatu Suma, a nine-year-old girl from Sierra Leone, will be able to live a normal life, thanks to physicians in Africa and America, the United States Government, Pan American World Airways, and Trans World Airlines.

Kadiatu was referred to the American open-heart surgery team by Dr. Samuel L. DeShay, medical secretary of the West African Union of Seventh-day Adventists and 1959 graduate of Loma Linda University.

Through the co-operation of the American ambassador in Freetown, the United States Department of State arranged for the two airlines to bring Kadiatu to America. She was accompanied by David A. Gronert, director of physical therapy at the Masanga Leprosarium in Sierra Leone where she was first examined.

Loma Linda University's open-heart surgery team members donated their services; hospital expenses are being taken care of by friends of the university.

Kadiatu is expected to return to her home in June.

Past, Present Publishing Trends Briefly Summarized

Looking backward isn't always a good idea, but it is sometimes interesting to see where we've been and what we've accomplished. So just for the record, here's a brief summary of denominational publishing for 1968:

The three publishing houses in the United States (Southern Publishing Association, Review and Herald, and Pacific Press) released a grand total of 115 new titles last year. Of this number, more than half (61) were paperbacks. There were 54 hard-bound titles published, and the average price of a hard-bound book was $4.09.

For the sake of comparison, let's take a look at the nation's list of best-sellers. In January, 1969, the average price of a fiction best-seller was $6.81. Nonfiction average was $8.67, which adds up to an overall average of $7.74. That makes $4.09 look pretty economical, doesn't it?

What can we look forward to in 1969? For one thing, the paperback boom will be at an all-time high. Pacific Press already has 40 titles in their Panda-Destiny Series. Southern Publishing Association's new Crown Series currently has 12 titles, with another six scheduled for release by late summer. The new Penguin books from Review and Herald are similar in format and will doubtless give an added boost to paperback popularity.

Starting the new year right is important to any publisher. The 1969 Missionary Book, Though the Winds Blow, by Elder Robert Pierson, is setting the pace for Southern Publishing Association this year. It's an excellent book, but other new releases look equally attractive. Of special interest this month is a brand new collection of stories for juniors, The Walking River, by Mary Branch. Each story has an unusual twist or a unique setting. Clever line drawings by Jim Padgett add special interest. This attractive hardback sells for just $3.95.
