Make World Concern Offering Most Significant in History of Church

by NEAL WILSON, President, North American Division

In writing this simple and earnest appeal in behalf of the special World Concern Offering, I would like to share several solemn thoughts with you. During the past few weeks I have saturated my soul with the challenging insight contained in the book Counsels on Stewardship. Without question, the most difficult sermon to preach and certainly the hardest to practice is self-denial. Marvelous is the liberality of many Seventh-day Adventists, but few of us have really deprived ourselves of needs and sacrificed very much for the work of the gospel. Few of us have ever "gone without" in order that we might be more liberal in meeting the needs of suffering and disadvantaged fellow human beings.

Neal C. Wilson

There are only two places in the universe where we can place our treasures—in God's program to bless and save others, or in Satan's storehouse. God could have sent means from heaven to carry on the work, but we should never forget that He chose rather to place us on trial in this world in order to determine our fitness for the future life. None can enter heaven whose characters are defiled by the foul blot of selfishness. For this reason God

Placing Our Treasures

There are only two places in the universe where we can place our treasures—in God's program to bless and save others, or in Satan's storehouse. God could have sent means from heaven to carry on the work, but we should never forget that He chose rather to place us on trial in this world in order to determine our fitness for the future life. None can enter heaven whose characters are defiled by the foul blot of selfishness. For this reason God

Beyond the stars that guard a fallen world God stands and waits, and counts the sands of time, till written in the clouds the everlasting promise is fulfilled: "Lo, I come."

Still there the challenge waiting for reply: Lord, Here am I tests us here by committing to us temporal possessions that our use of these may show whether we can be entrusted with eternal riches.

It has never been God's plan to come to this world and lay down gold and silver for the advancement of His work. He has a superior way. He supplies men with resources that by their gifts and offerings they may help His work advance. The one purpose above all others for which God's gifts should be used is the sustaining of workers in the harvest field.

Being Christ-like

To those who profess to be one with Christ and yet indulge their selfish desires for rich and expensive clothing, furniture, and food, God has something to say. We are often Christians only in name, for to be a Christian is to be Christ-like. For this reason the Lord permits suffering, calamity, and poverty to come upon men and women to call us out of our selfishness and to awaken in us the attributes of His character—compassion, tenderness, and love.

GIVE FOR WORLD CONCERN AS GOD HAS BLESSED YOU

Of course we are concerned—concerned about many things. The question is, "Are we concerned enough to give a little extra in an offering to be taken in all churches on March 14?" This offering will be used to increase our work of evangelism in all portions of the world field including North America, including the Pacific Union, and including your conference.

W. J. Blacker

The Pacific Union's share of the total $1.5 million goal for the offering which is to be taken in all countries of earth is $271,023.10.

If we all participate as we are able, the goal will be reached. I appeal to you to give for this special World Concern Offering as God has blessed you. Some can give $1,000, and we hope you will! The goal on an average basis is $3 per member. Let us all join in providing additional funds for evangelism. The world field will thank you for this gift to further the evangelistic thrust in every division.

W. J. BLACKER, President, Pacific Union Conference.

"If our people had the love of God in the heart, if every church member were imbued with the spirit of self-sacrifice, there would be no lack of funds for home and foreign missions. Our resources would

In this year of the fifty-first quadrennial World General Conference Session, give in proportion to the urgency of the hour—give for a finished work, give that the world may know Him. World Concern Offering, March 14.

Two thousand years ago, Christ gave the challenge to "Go and Tell." Yet today the commission is unfulfilled. Time runs out as old men and women die without word of the world hereafter. Middle age continues its greedy life without an invitation to "lay up treasures in heaven." Young men and women—tomorrow's leaders to finish the responsibility—seek in their elders a consistency in living which they know must be there. God's children of all ages, all colors, all churches would understand the mysteries of One who created such beauties around them, the sympathy of One who feels the heart-aches about them, the meaning of the voice within them that calls for allegiance to a Higher Being. 'Tis time His church becomes concerned that all ages recognize that Voice within, that longing for a Bigger Power. 'Tis time for World Concern ... and World Concern is Personal Concern.

STUDENT MISSIONARIES MAKE A STRONG IMPACT IN KOREA

"Are these young people that you mention who are willing to pay their own way to Korea to teach English Seventh-day Adventists?"

"Yes, they are. They're from our colleges. We call them 'student missionaries.'"

"Why, you'll conquer the world!"

This exchange took place in the office of Dr. Karl Bartz, Cultural Attache at the U.S. Embassy in Seoul, Korea.

For 15 minutes Dr. Bartz, yellow legal pad in hand, had questioned me about our proposed language center. Thoroughly satisfied that our program was academically sound and capable of meeting a pressing national need, he pledged his support in every way possible as we worked out final legal arrangements with the local government officials.

The bulk of our teaching staff is made up of student missionaries—young people willing to take a year out of their college program to devote it to the Lord's work in the mission field.

On our staff here in Korea are four young people from Pacific Union College: Nancy and Wesley Follett, Janene Conley, and David Whitaker.

Our school, called the S.D.A. English Language Center, has been selected by the government educational department as a model program and will be featured throughout Korea on educational bulletin boards within the next few weeks.

When classes started last fall we hoped be multiplied, a thousand doors of usefulness would be opened, and we should be invited to enter. Had the purpose of God been carried out in giving the message of mercy to the world, Christ would have come and the saints would have received their welcome into the city of God. If there ever was a time when sacrifices should be made, it is now. My brethren and sisters, practice economy in your homes; put away the idols that you have placed before God; give up your selfish pleasures; do not, I beg of you, spend means in embellishing your houses for your money belongs to God and to Him you must give an account for its use."—Counsels on Stewardship, p. 37.

We have surely come to the time spoken of by the servant of the Lord. The sympathies of God's people should be aroused in every church throughout our land and there should be unselfish action to meet the great opportunities to feed the poor, clothe the naked, heal the sick, and introduce men and women to Christ. We should testify to our interest in the cause of God by giving of our substance. If such an interest were manifest, the bond of Christian brotherhood would exist and increase in strength between all the members of Christ's family.

Focus of Interest

So often the entire focus of our interest is on things and possessions instead of on people and their personal struggles. We seem to develop a love for things to the exclusion of love for the boys and girls, the men and women for whom Christ died. This is why we have named the offering for the General Conference Session—World Concern. Certainly we are people who should have a world vision. We must not neglect our work at home and we must do everything to forward the program overseas. How can we measure real concern? Are we willing to give, to go, and to die, and to live? Have we walked in the steps of Christ so that we are each day living for something bigger than self?

The servant of God tells us, "Brethren in America, in the name of my Master, I beg you to wake up. You that are placing your talents of means in a napkin and hiding them in the earth, who are building houses and adding land to land, God calls upon you, 'Sell that ye have and give alms.' There is a time coming when commandment keepers can neither buy nor sell. Make haste, dig out your buried talents. If God has entrusted you with money, show yourselves faithful to your trust; unwrap your napkin, and send your talents to the exchangers that when Christ shall come, He may receive His own with interest.

"In the last extremity, before this work shall close, thousands will be cheerfully laid upon the altar. Men and women will feel it a blessed privilege to share in the work of preparing souls to stand in the great day of God, and they will give hundreds as readily as dollars are given now."—Counsels on Stewardship, p. 40.

These pointed statements should be incentive enough to swell the World Concern Offering to the most significant in the history of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

ADVERTISERS, NOTE: The local conference office is the address to which all advertisements for the RECORDER should be sent—not to Angwin, California. Be sure all advertisements are also signed by your local church pastor.—The Editor.

General Conference Takes No Position in Search for Ark

Seventh-day Adventists and many others are genuinely enthusiastic about any activity designed to provide archeological or scientific evidence that will substantiate the authenticity of the Bible. An area of the sacred record which has come under special attack is in connection with the story of the Flood. Because of this, there seems to be unusual interest in seeking evidence that will further confirm the Biblical and Spirit of Prophecy description of what transpired during and after the Flood.

Many are aware of the fact that various groups in different parts of the world have been organized for the purpose of doing research and exploration on Mt. Ararat in Turkey. Objectives are to find traces of the Flood and, hopefully, to uncover the remains of the Ark.

Many inquiries in recent weeks have come to us asking for information with regard to these activities and organizations. Since they are privately sponsored and financed, the General Conference has taken no official position and has made no formal statement concerning these groups. Several leaders in the General Conference have been kept apprised of happenings and developments, but they are not involved in any promotion nor any active participation.

While it is certainly the privilege of any individual to encourage this unique type of endeavor, it should be made clear that the denomination is not responsible for statements that are made, conclusions that are reached, nor for the financing of such ventures.

Summer Field Trip to Mexico and Central America Planned

LOMA LINDA—Loma Linda University's second anthropological summer field trip to Mexico and Central America will be held June 14 to July 31, according to Dr. John W. Elick, chairman of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology.

The six-week program is designed to give college students a firsthand opportunity to study pre-Columbian archeology and to observe traditional village and town life.

Following a week of intensive study on the Loma Linda campus, the group will travel by automobile some 8,000 miles into Mexico and Central America.

Three units of upper-division credit will be offered. Previous course work in anthropology or the consent of the instructor to have 300 students. After registering 723 we halted registration and turned away 200 to 300 more hopeful applicants.

Among our students are five non-Adventist ministers, 10 doctors, 34 nurses, eight pharmacists, 53 teachers, 40 merchants, 291 students, and 121 office workers of various types.

Four hundred ninety-one of our students profess no religious belief. Never before in the history of our work in Korea has our church had the opportunity of influencing such a group of people.

Prior to entering the classroom our student missionary teachers are given special training in the science of teaching English as a foreign language. Since English is the medium of instruction, the student missionary, using his native language as his principal tool, becomes effective immediately and quickly develops into an excellent teacher.

Tuition fees charged by the school make it possible for the Center to operate completely on a self-supporting basis.

The Pen of Inspiration gives this counsel: "With such an army of workers as our youth, rightly trained, might furnish, how soon the message of a crucified, risen, and soon-coming Saviour might be carried to the whole world!" (Education, page 271.)

The day for the realization of that vision has arrived. We have the army of dedicated young people. Could it be that God has placed this great desire to learn English within the hearts of the peoples of Asia in order to open up another door for the spreading of the gospel? We believe it to be so.

will be required; conversational ease in Spanish will be helpful, though not required, according to Dr. James H. Stirling, associate professor of anthropology, course director.

The class is open to all college students; however, priority will be given to graduate and undergraduate majors in anthropology.

Cost per person, in addition to normal tuition fees, will be about $250, which includes transportation, food, and lodging during the trip. The price does not include living expenses while in Loma Linda.

Class enrollment will be limited to ten students. Applications should be sent by April 1 to the Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Loma Linda University, Loma Linda, Calif. 92354.

Give So That "All May Call Upon the Name of the Lord"

In Romans 10 Paul gives the assurance that "whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Vs. 13) But then he asked some penetrating questions: How shall they call? How shall they believe? How shall they hear? (Vs. 14)

We have the answer. On Sabbath, March 14, you will have the blessed privilege of giving the message that all may have the opportunity of "calling upon the name of the Lord" by participating in the World Concern Offering.

The goal of $3 for each member for the evangelizing of the world field can be achieved by everyone. We challenge you to pray earnestly for this great evangelistic outreach, and may God help you to do your part in meeting the challenge of the hour.

Remember, show your concern by giving $3 or more for the World Concern Offering on March 14.

No Injury Following Accident at New Pacoima Church Site

Sunday morning, February 6, Pastor Glenn Howell and several men from the Pacoima Church were working on the construction of the new church building. They were high up in the rafter area, at least 50 feet above ground. Before beginning the work, they knelt and asked for the Lord's protection.

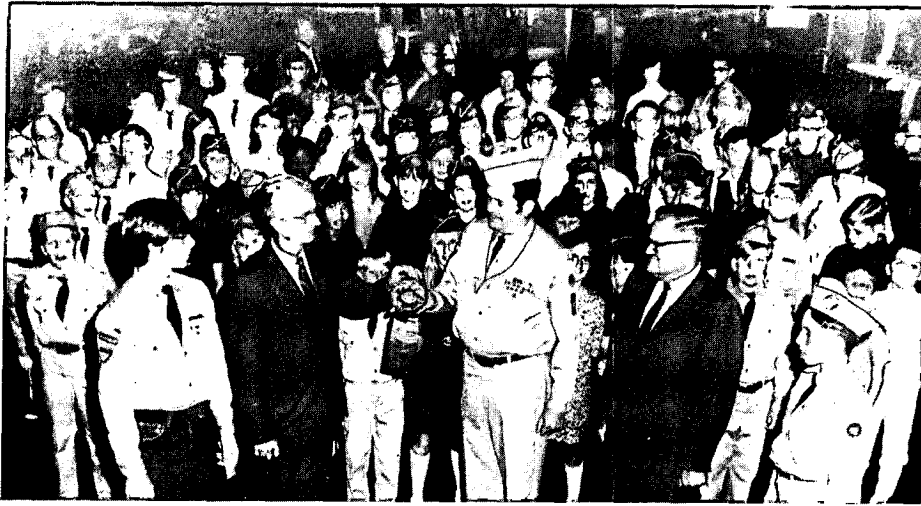

During the afternoon a two by four broke, a large section of the rafters gave way, and Mr. Richard Davis crashed to the ground. Pastor Howell turned from the sight and prayed, "Oh Lord, have mercy." When he looked back, he was surprised to see Mr. Davis still falling through the air.

The man landed on his side across the rostrum steps. The falling two by fours and rafter beams fell all about him, but none landed on top of him. To everyone's astonishment, Mr. Davis got up with no apparent injury—not even a bruise! His only complaint was a splinter in his ear! Mr. Davis commented that he felt as though he were falling slowly, taking an unusually long time to hit the ground.

Let us rejoice for this answered prayer and testimony that the Lord is with us in our building of a house in which to worship Him. We pray that we may be a strong evangelistic witness in the north-eastern section of the San Fernando Valley.

Phase II Is Under Way in Glendale Academy Program

If Adventist education is to survive the seventies at Glendale Academy, redevelopment of the secondary department and enlargement of the elementary facilities is mandatory. The constituency of Glendale Academy has realized this, and an extensive master plan has been developed.

The project is divided into five phases. Phase I is almost completed at a cost of $250,000. It included the building of a shower and locker facility and the purchasing of property.

Phase II will cost $621,000. It includes the erection of a science building and a secondary classroom module. Demolition site clearance and grading have begun. The spring months should see the actual construction of buildings begin.

Rejoice with our constituency as you view this progress.

Girl Sends for Gift Bible; DeAnza Bible Club Results

Sandra Hood, not quite 10 years of age, sat in a non-Adventist doctor's office. She picked up a card for a gift Bible with lessons, and mailed it. Soon it reached the Oxnard Church.

When Mrs. Eldon R. Thompson responded to this request, she did not expect to find a tiny little girl asking for the adult lessons! Sandra was sure she could master the lessons, and she did. In a short time she asked if her friends could join her in a study group and meet at her house. Her mother gladly let them meet each week.

This study group became known as the DeAnza Bible Club. Seven of the children finished their lessons and received the gift Bibles and certificates. Several of the members have enrolled in Voice of Prophecy courses, looking forward to receiving their certificates.

At Christmas time, Mrs. Thompson, who is known as "Our Bible Teacher," presented the children with gift books and gave their parents The Great Controversy. All seem pleased with their books.

Many other members of the Oxnard Church join Mrs. Thompson in finding home visitation very rewarding service for the Master. And who knows how many parents may be won to Christ by a little child leading them?

Temple City Several Hundred Dollars Over Ingathering Goal

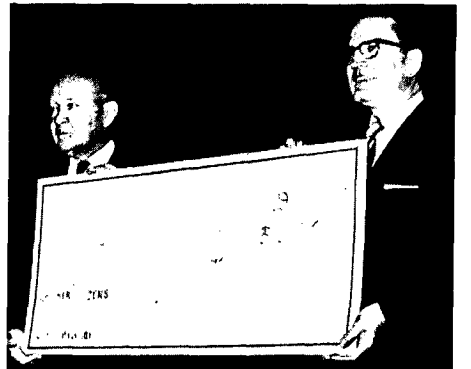

A large replica of a check was presented to Pastor Russel Hagen of the Temple City Church by Ed Brady, the church's Ingathering coordinator.

The check was presented during church services December 27 and represents the conference goal assigned to the church. Since that time the amount has been exceeded by several hundred dollars.

The Temple City Church has always been actively engaged in the Ingathering Campaign, and this dramatic way of showing that the current goal had been reached was well received by church members and the conference president, Helmuth Retzer, who was visiting the church on the last Sabbath of the year.

It is hoped that these funds, coupled with those of other churches, will accomplish much good in the varied phases of the church's activities for which they are designated.

Construction Soon to Begin on Rolling Hills Church Complex

For the past three years, the newly-formed Rolling Hills Church has been working on a permanent church home. Now they have obtained a choice three-acre parcel, and God has blessed in the rezoning of the land and approval of church plans by the city.

Under the leadership of Dr. Charles Tam, chairman of the Rolling Hills Church Building Committee, and Elder Joseph H. Apigian, the pastor, the congregation is looking forward to an outstanding church complex. Elder Apigian states that as soon as blueprints are available, construction will begin.

Join in the Concern for World Evangelism March 14

"Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?" is the question of Lamentations 1:12.

Unconcern was, perhaps, a malady of Old Testament times—just as much as it is of twentieth-century America. Too often we're afraid to become involved—with a passer-by, a community project, a school benefit, a home problem, a church assignment.

On the other hand, we are concerned that our business prosper, our garden seeds come up, our appearance attracts friends.

We in Southeastern's office invite you to join in another concern—a World Concern, an interest in world evangelization for the meeting of Jesus' divine commission to "go and tell." On March 14 we may unite with our churches around the world in bringing a gift to show that it is something to us—as the cry of Lamentations points up. The plight of a dark world is a concern.

The former quadrennial Million Dollar Offering gives us opportunity this year to show our CQ—our Concern Quotient—for World Evangelism. Gifts of only $3 per member on March 14 or divided between March 14 and May 23 will be dedicated in all Southeastern's churches to worldwide concern for the finishing of the work set before us.

Stanley Grube Given Jaycee Distinguished Service Award

Stanley M. Grube, administrator for the Corona Community Hospital, was signally honored recently when he was awarded the Corona Jaycee Distinguished Service Award for 1970.

It is worthy of note to have one of our Adventist young men so heavily involved with the business world to be so honored. It is at best most difficult to be representative of religious convictions and maintain the high standards required to be so selected.

The Jaycee's officers knew that Mr. Grube would not be present for the Presentation Award Banquet on Friday night and therefore arranged a special award meeting for him on Friday afternoon.

TABLE EXHIBITS FOR SOUTHEASTERN'S ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

Circulating in Southeastern's elementary schools are eight table exhibits on various health topics and a number of other items such as a breakfast puzzle, a health library, films, film strips, and models.

These are available from the conference Health Department to teachers who sign up for them during Teachers Conventions every fall. Throughout the year they are enjoyed by hundreds of students

San Diego Academy Alumni Set December Reunion Date

A group of former students and teachers enjoyed an afternoon and evening of fellowship at the academy on Sabbath, December 27. Alumni were present from about half of the graduating classes since 1930.

It was decided to plan an afternoon of words and music for 4 p.m. Sabbath, December 26, 1970. The purpose of this meeting is to foster the interests of San Diego Academy and create a bond of fellowship among its former students, alumni, faculty, and board of management.

Elected to plan this program were Clela Fuller Amundsen, Mailing and Membership; Herman Curtis, Publicity; and Dale McBride, Program. See you there.

W. EDWIN NELSON, Principal.

More than 50 members of the Jaycees, Chamber of Commerce, press and hospital officials were present for this special occasion.

Mr. Ross Blandi made the presentation as follows: "Stan, our reason for gathering here today is to present to you the Corona Jaycee Distinguished Service Award for the year 1970. This award is to honor a young man for his contributions to his family, his church, and his community. The Jaycee Motto is that young men of action can change the world and I think that it is appropriate that you receive this award because through your efforts you are certainly helping to change the world."

The Corona Community Hospital, employing more than 300, is a member of the Adventist Self-supporting Institutions of the Southeastern California Conference. Mr. Grube, now in his fourth year as its administrator, is a staunch supporter of this organization.

using them for individual and group studies and as enrichment materials in science, health, and English.

These exhibits make models, microscopes, and other items available to schools which could not buy them or would not need them the whole school year.

Several teachers have asked to have this service extended by having more exhibits available. This is now under consideration. The present exhibits are built around these topics: the nervous system, the circulatory system, the small human torso, the large human torso, magnifying glasses, microscopes, avenues to the brain, and health-related professions.

We invite our elementary school teachers to write to Ruth Berglund, Department of Health Education, to let us know which other topics we should develop for next year.

San Diego Juniors Set Record in the Ingathering Campaign

For the past two years two of our Juniors have achieved a remarkable record during the Ingathering campaign. Last year Kevin and Cindy Palmer solicited about $200 each.

This year Cindy, 11, and Kevin, 13, were again at the top. Cindy turned in $211 and Kevin $156. One evening he received a little more than he expected for his endeavors—a dog bite and a follow-up tetanus shot!

Each year our Pathfinder Club sets a high goal for themselves and they have never been disappointed. This year Mr. Charles Foster, director, presented to Dr. Charles Brinegar, lay activities director, $1,231.20. This was above what the Palmer children turned in.

Gary Trimlett, a new Adventist, solicited $94. Joyce Self, a non-Adventist neighbor of one of the Pathfinder leaders, was next with $69.83. Three more Pathfinders each turned in over $60.

Several of our newly-baptized members were also enthusiastic about Ingathering and the amounts they turned in reflect this. Howard Fleming solicited $140 and Mr. and Mrs. William Balliett turned in about $160 between themselves. These three have joined the church within the past nine months.

Have we lost our zeal for Jesus Christ? Perhaps these youth and new converts will inspire us to do more for Him.

Conference Schools Sponsor Welfare Mission to Mexicali

Children at the Adventist church schools in Mexicali are learning their lessons with better tools as a result of a sharing project by elementary schools in Southeastern California Conference.

On the morning of February 1, Mr. and Mrs. John Lorntz and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. William White, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Slater and family, Roy Bissember, and the writer took a load of school supplies and clothing to Mexicali, Baja California. The school supplies were given to a small one-room school with 30 students taught by the wife of the head elder of the Mexicali Church, a small commercial school taught by a church member, and the Mexicali Church School.

After visiting the schools, the rest of the goods were given to the poor who live along the canal banks just outside of Mexicali.

The supplies donated included pictures, teaching aids, paper, pencils, crayons, and paints.

Donors of materials were the above mentioned people, Mrs. Mary Groome, schools in Southern California Conference, the Earliteen Division at the Arlington Church, Mrs. Amanda Kimball's room at Pine Springs Ranch, Mrs. Betty Ashley's grade two room at Loma Linda, Mrs. Betty Wister's grade one room at Riverside, Mrs. Shirley Goodridge's grade six room at La Sierra, and Mr. Don Watt's grade five and six room at Yucaipa who donated their whole Christmas party and gifts.

Several other schools are collecting supplies for another trip later this spring.

LET US BE CONCERNED MORE THAN $3 WORTH

How concerned are we?
How concerned are we that people live and die without the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ?

How concerned are we that the prophecies proclaiming the extending of the hand "across the gulf," bridging apostate Protestantism to Romanism, are being fulfilled now—before our eyes, portending troublesome times for witnessing just ahead?

How concerned are we that Satan would cause many to rely upon a formal but powerless religious experience while their character foundations of sand are eroded away by worldliness, skepticism, the neglect of prayer and study?

I say it reverently—earnestly—pleadingly—"God give us concern . . . world concern . . . worldwide concern! . . . concern for the cause of soul winning . . . concern for the cause of evangelism NOW."

Our World Concern Offering, to be received in all churches around the world on March 14, is for direct evangelism. Our minimum goal in Northern California Conference is $3 per member. When the offering is called for, we will have opportunity to show how concerned we actually are! I hope it is much more than $3 worth!

To Meet the Challenge of Today, Give on March 14

What a challenge to be living today especially as we view events taking place in the world in the light of prophecy. The Lord is surely leading in His work and He has promised to bless each of us as we do our part.

Every four years a special offering is received in the churches to help meet the needs of a stronger evangelistic program throughout the world field. This offering is known as the World Concern Offering and will be received this year on Sabbath, March 14, and a personal goal of $3 has been suggested.

We are reminded that avenues now open to us may not be open in the future. Now is the time to sacrifice as never before so that the cause of God will continue to advance. May the Lord bless each of you as you plan for this important offering.

Conference Evangelist Holds Series in Yerington Church

On the evening of January 31, Elder A. M. Matar, Nevada-Utah Conference evangelist, began a series of meetings in the Yerington Church. His opening topic was "Palestine and the New Israel." He was assisted by his musician wife and Elder H. Eugene Miller, pastor of the district.

People came from as far as 73 miles to attend this first meeting. Some came from the Scherz Indian Reservation, 30 miles to the east. Others came from Fallon, 60 miles distant, where Elder Matar had concluded meetings in December. Of special interest was the attendance of a local church pastor and a revivalist who had held meetings in another church the previous week.

One of the features of the opening service was the Arabian costumes which the Matars wore and described. Elder Matar was born near Bethlehem of Arabian parents. Color slides of his native Palestine once again proved to be a means of drawing a good attendance. He showed pictures of the places where Jesus lived and taught and then brought a message of the imminent return of Christ to this perplexed, sin-cursed earth.

Preparation for this soul-winning endeavor included newspaper advertising, handbills given from door to door, special letters of invitation to friends, neighbors, and previous interests, as well as patients of the greatly respected Dr. Marvin Beams who has faithfully led in the Yerington Church for many years.

Names and addresses were secured from all wishing to receive a copy of the opening sermon.

Evangelistic services are held in the Yerington Church located at 215 South Main Street each Saturday, Wednesday, and Thursday evening. Pray with us that many persons in this particular area of God's vineyard will attend these meetings and accept the Lord we love.

Fortuna Pathfinders Find Joy in Doing for the Older Folk

The Fortuna Junior Pathfinder Club decided to have a Christmas party this past year that was different and which would bring cheer to the older members of the Fortuna Church. From money contributed by the children, 22 very attractive fruit plates were prepared by some of the lady counselors. These were nicely decorated with holly and a card was enclosed which read, "Just a token of our love."

One of the units of the Junior Pathfinder Club of Fortuna delivers a fruit plate to Mrs. Edna Bradshaw. The Pathfinders are Tammy Fish, Sidney Dyer (holding fruit), Steven Metaxas, and Donna Jordan. In back are Keith Baird and Don Fish, counselors.

The Monday before Christmas each unit went out to call on the older members and make delivery of the fruit plates. Each unit visited three of four persons. Some of the children sang, some played their recorders, but all of them brought cheer and good will to these senior citizens, many of them without families to visit them during this season.

Although the older folk were very pleased at being remembered, it was a wonderful experience for each Junior Pathfinder to learn that "those who bring sunshine into the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves."

Five Are Baptized Following Meetings Held in Middletown

A three-week series of meetings was held last fall in Middletown, California, four nights a week. A local student pastor, Gary Mattingly, took care of organizing the pitching of the tent, building the platform, electrical hook-up, and many other details. Don James, lay activities leader and theology student at PUC, was the nightly speaker.

The youth leader who is also a theology student at PUC, Dick Shadduck, gave the young people's feature each night. Myron Sutton, a college student, was the singing evangelist and arranged all the special music. Another college student, Ron Hoover, played the organ.

Middletown's student pastor, Gary Mattingly, welcomes Reuben Wagner into the church shortly after a tent effort was held.

The entire church participated in the preparation of the meetings. After a month of revival sermons by our student pastor we had a 24-hour prayer season. We feel this unity in prayer counted for all the success of the meetings.

As a result, five accepted Christ and joined the church. The average attendance was 37, and 16 of these were not members of the church. This may sound small, but Middletown has a population of only 1,100 and a church membership of only 30.

Since the meetings, Amazing Facts and Signs have been passed out to every home in town, and we hope and pray that other sincere people may be led to Bible studies, through the help of the Holy Spirit, and eventually be joined with the remnant church. May we hasten His coming!

$3 GOAL PER MEMBER FOR WORLD CONCERN OFFERING

In a short time representatives from the world field will assemble in Atlantic City for the General Conference Session. Already indications are clear that this will be no routine session.

Real challenges confront our work on a worldwide basis, and far-reaching decisions must be made.

There can be no doubt about it that the end is approaching, and yet there is much work to be done ere the darkness of night settles down upon our old world and the door of probation is closed.

This is the day to work and to dedicate every talent to finishing this, the greatest work on earth. Each time the General Conference Session is held, it is a real privilege for all of our members to join in bringing a sacrificial offering to extend our worldwide work. This year the appeal is known as the World Concern Offering.

This offering will be received on March 14. Now is the time for us to do something big for God through our Hawaiian Mission. The suggestion is that we should reach a minimum of $3 per member for this great cause. It is on this basis that our Pacific Union quota has been established by the General Conference.

Honolulu Japanese Church Celebrates a Year of Success

Traces of old customs blended with the ways of the present were manifest at the Japanese Church in Honolulu when a year's work ended in December. A year packed by evangelistic crusades, church construction, Vacation Bible School, and a one-week $6,000 Ingathering success was to be duly celebrated by a Mochi Tsuki.

Making mochi from specially selected rice cooked in relatively primitive wood stoves and pounded in stone bowls by crude wooden mallets is an ancient Japanese village custom, used to celebrate the New Year in a social way. Mochi rice cakes are made and eaten by those who gather.

Old and young alike of the Honolulu Japanese Church participated in such a social event December 28 as they prepared for a new year of church duties.

Ross HIATT, PR Secy.

Dr. Leonard Kuninobu, visiting from Los Angeles, pounds the mochi rice as Lay Activities Leader Richard Higa turns the rice target in the bowl.

A. G. Streifling

I appeal to every member in the Hawaiian Islands to plan big because the challenge is big. Remember, the offering is March 14. Together let us make the response from these lovely islands a resounding forward vote through dedicated support toward this World Concern Offering.

Student Makes 'Love Gifts' for Some of Hawaii's Forgotten

Love is the greatest gift of all! Mrs. Raphael Naluai can testify to that, for when she picked up her telephone, she heard the operator say, "This is long distance." Her daughter, Louise, a student at Los Angeles City College in California, told her, "Mom, I have 'love gifts' for the patients at Leahi Hospital."

The "love gifts" were crown plaques made of shiny gold and green paper with cardboard backing, and coasters made of other shiny materials with a candy cane in the center. Each crown plaque had the handwritten words, "Rejoice in hope."

Mrs. Raphael Naluai with "love gifts" made by her daughter for the hospital patients.

Mrs. Naluai opened the box when it arrived in Hawaii to find 450 love gifts for the "Operation Happiness" program which she has been conducting for the past four years on Sabbath afternoons. The wheelchair patients, the majority of them in their sunset years, received the gifts with tears of joy. Many of them have had no relative or friend as a visitor for over a decade until this group of members from the Central Church began their program of music, songs, and visitation known as "Operation Happiness."

Gifts were also distributed to the patients at the Lavada Nursing Home on Nuuanu-Pali Highway near the mission office. The balance of the gifts were forwarded to Mrs. Leilani Davenport, R.N., for distribution on Valentine's Day at the Hawaii State Hospital.

Louise Naluai had worked many long hours, early in the morning before classes and continuing the project after school into the late hours of the night. She had decided on this project to continue "Operation Happiness" in her own way to bring joy to those she had learned to love.

The broad blue Pacific Ocean is no barrier when "love, the greatest of all gifts" is rooted deep in her heart.

Youth Receive Trophies and Awards at Pathfinder Banquet

Beautiful trophies were awarded to Jacqueline Brown, Emma Labatad, Richard Buen, and Fia Faletogo at the Central Church Pathfinder banquet at Miranda Hall January 25.

Jacqueline Brown, a freshman at Hawaiian Mission Academy, was awarded the Outstanding Achievement Trophy. Emma Labatad, a freshman at Farrington High School in Kalihi, received the Pathfinder of the Year Trophy. She is from a non-Seventh-day Adventist home and is a product of the Kalihi Housing Story Hour conducted weekly by Arthur Reese.

Honorable Achievement trophies were awarded to Richard Buen, student at the Hawaiian Mission Elementary School, and to Fia Faletogo, a student of Dole Intermediate School. Fia's father was a former "chief" in Samoa.

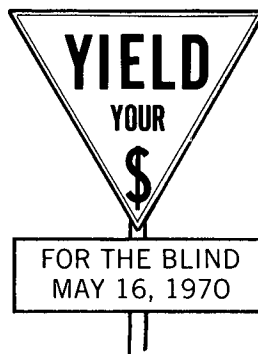

Craft work and other exhibits were on display. Flag semaphore, Morse code, and sign language were demonstrated by the Pathfinders. A surprise was the Central Pathfinder Serenaders, directed by Deputy Director Arthur Reese. This group played the big string bass, guitar, and ukuleles and sang Hawaiian songs during the program.

Merit and honor awards were distributed to the Pathfinder members by Elders Don Mulvihill and Victor Aladen, Director Steve Dalrymple, and Deputy Director Jonah Kumalae. Deputy Director Cynthia Dalrymple spent many hours sewing the Pathfinder sashes so that each Pathfinder could display his honor awards at the banquet.

A Special Sacrificial Gift for World Concern Offering

The date for our Quadrennial General Conference Session has been set for June 11 through 20 of 1970. As we think of the scores and hundreds of Seventh-day Adventists from all over the world who will be joining together to hear reports and plan for advancement of the work of the Lord, we cannot help but feel a certain thrill. With that thrill also comes concern for our fellow man.

M. C. Torkelsen

Our General Conference leaders are planning again for a special, sacrificial gift that will show our concern in a tangible way. They are calling this special offering the "World Concern Offering," and are asking the members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church throughout the world to present to the Lord $1,250,000. Every division, every union, and every conference in this great organization has been given fair share of this amount as an objective. We know that our membership here in Central California will want to do its part.

Won't you begin to plan now for this major offering, which is scheduled to be received on March 14? This World Concern Offering has been tagged specifically for evangelism throughout the world field.

May the Lord bless you and your offering as you present it through your local churches, is our prayer.

M. C. TORKELSEN, President.

May 16  1970

WORLD CONCERN OFFERING IS FOR WORLDWIDE EVANGELISM

"World Concern" is a special effort that is being put forth to salvage a lost planet, doomed to destruction, including the bulk of its population. The only assurance we have of outlasting this present world is our acceptance of Christ's sacrifice, His mercies, and by aligning our lives, desires, and habits in harmony with the laws of life which God has established. Any other avenue will lead to a "dead end."

The laws of life are so ordained that the only manner in which one may be assured life and happiness through eternity is to share the "good news" with our fellow men. We cannot maintain eternal life unless we are sharing it with others.

The combined spring and mid-summer missions offerings for worldwide evangelism will be used locally, and in impoverished foreign fields dark with paganism and ignorance. Churches are being asked to raise a goal based on $3 per member. Obviously some will do less, others can do more. May we each do our best.

Philosda Convention '70 Canceled

The International Philosda Club for single Seventh-day Adventist adults Administrative Committee voted on January 11, 1970, to cancel the Convention '70 that was scheduled for August 5 to 9, 1970, at Asilomar in preference to General Conference being held this year and to conflicting date with the Soquel Camp Meeting.

Those interested in the Philosda Club activities may write to: International Philosda Club, P.O. Box 944, Loma Linda, California 92354.

Andrews University Field School of Evangelism Scheduled for Belfast

An Andrews University Field School of Evangelism will be held in the strife-torn city of Belfast during the month of August. Featured evangelist is George Knowles of Portland, Oregon.

If you have relatives in Belfast, or if you know of persons there who have some knowledge of our message, please send the name, address, and information to: Pastor R. M. A. Smart, 20 Roddens Crescent, Belfast, BT5 7JN, Northern Ireland.

Back numbers of any of our missionary magazines are urgently needed for preparatory work in Belfast in advance of the meetings. Please send literature to Pastor Smart.

Pray for this soul-winning crusade.

ATTENTION

If you plan to attend any of the General Conference Sessions, June 11 to 20 in Atlantic City, and would be willing to help provide music, and would be willing to learn your notes ahead of time (music will be mailed in advance) YOU ARE NEEDED!

Simply send your name, address, and vocal part (S1, S2, A1, A2, T1, T2, B1, or B2) to Paul Hill, Columbia Union College, Takoma Park, Maryland 20012, before April 1, please. You will be contacted after April 1 with music and details.

General Conference Seeks Names of University Students

The General Conference Department of Health on the Loma Linda Campus of Loma Linda University is seeking names and addresses of all Seventh-day Adventist students of medicine or dentistry in all universities throughout the world, other than Loma Linda University.

Our purpose is to establish Christian contact and fellowship among the many Adventist students of these various schools and universities.

If you are one of these students or if you know of such students, we would appreciate the name, address, and the school of attendance.

Please reply to the General Conference Department of Health, Loma Linda University, Loma Linda, California 92354.
