

Christian Record Braille Foundation Gets New Press

Newest addition in the production department at the Christian Record Braille Foundation is a specially-adapted Heidelberg cylinder press for printing Braille.

This is only the second press of this type which has been converted for printing Braille. The first is at the National Braille Press in Boston.

"The old press, which was engineered and custom made for us 16 years ago in England, has served well," said Manager C. G. Cross. However, as the machine has become worn, the quality of the finished product has decreased. Many wrinkles have appeared in the margins and within the Brailled copy, making reading by less experienced blind readers extremely difficult."

The purchase of the new press was made possible by a special appropriation from the General Conference in the fall of 1970. The balance of funds came from specially-earmarked donations, mostly sacrificially made by blind readers. The total cost was $17,872.59.

Visitors to the Foundation—and there are thousands of them annually—can now see the new Heidelberg press in action. It prints the six Braille magazines and other Braille material published by the Seventh-day Adventist Church for blind people around the world.

SO YOU WILL KNOW...

Sunday, April 18, delegates from Hawaii's 20 churches gathered in the Central Church in Honolulu in a regular constituency meeting. At the close of 1970 there were 2,687 members in the mission and there has been steady growth in the work in the Islands during the past number of years.

The departmental secretaries were asked to continue their work through the next two years. A committee of 13 members will direct the affairs of the mission, and on this committee are four individuals from islands other than the Island of Oahu where the mission office is located.

Castle Memorial Hospital is in a building program that will substantially increase its capacity and enable it to meet more efficiently the needs of the area that it serves. Hawaiian Mission Academy has a staff of 28 and an enrollment of almost 300. Approximately 38 percent of this large number of students are not members of our church and present a continual soul-winning challenge. Cecil O. Roy, who has served as principal, has now accepted an invitation to become an associate in the Department of Education of the Southern California Conference. At this time a new principal is being sought. These two institutions are doing much in Hawaii to enlarge the influence of our churches and to extend the name of Seventh-day Adventists.

It is always a joy to participate in the work in the Islands and to fellowship with the very loyal and faithful constituents. In spite of recent economical trends, their tithe per capita stands close to the top among the conferences in the Pacific Union.

May 8 is almost here, and this Sabbath gives us an opportunity to participate in the Disaster and Famine Relief Offering. The very name brings into our thinking the millions throughout the world who live in situations entirely different from our own. Let us share of our abundance with suffering humanity.

Notice this statement from Testimonies, Volume 7, page 16: "The world will be convinced, not by what the pulpit teaches, but by what the church lives. The minister in the desk announces the theory of the gospel; the practical piety of the church demonstrates its power."

"Be of good cheer. . ."

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE PACIFIC UNION CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

VOL. 70

ANGWIN, CALIFORNIA, MAY 3, 1971

NO. 43

Write to Your Assemblymen; Provide Listen for Schools

RECORDER readers in the April 12 issue were encouraged to write their assemblymen regarding the new Bill No. 1072 which would reduce the legal smoking age from 18 to 15 and permit schools to set aside a room for student smoking. An additional suggestion was that Dr. John Ford, vice president of the State Board of Education, be sent a copy.

Dr. Ford has been deluged with mail, many writers not knowing that he too is a Seventh-day Adventist. A busy practicing physician, he does not have time to answer the volumes of mail which have sought his counsel.

Readers will be pleased to know that the State Board of Education is unanimously opposed to the bill. However, letters to assemblymen are still needed to let them know that YOU too are against this kind of "privilege" for California's youth.

Perhaps what each of the schools needs, instead of a smoking area, is a club of Listen magazines to preserve the health of tomorrow's leaders!

"There needs to be a great reformation on the subject of temperance. The world is filled with self-indulgence of every kind. Because of the benumbing influence of stimulants and narcotics the minds of many are unable to discern between the sacred and the common."

E. E. Wheeler, lay activities leader of the Pakistan Union, helps with clothing distribution to heads of families who brought "orders for supplies" written by Seventh-day Adventist Welfare Service workers who visited from family to family. Pakistan and other disasters have depleted SAWS funds. On May 8 consider these needs as you make your gift to the Disaster and Famine Relief Offering.

Disasters Increase as Christ's Coming Nears

"We are standing on the threshold of the crisis of the ages. In quick succession the judgments of God will follow one another,—fire, and flood, and earthquake, with war and bloodshed. We are not to be surprised at this time by events both great and decisive; for the angel of mercy cannot remain much longer to shelter the impenitent."—Christian Service, page 51.

The frequency and intensity of these painful and frightening experiences are destined to increase as we near the coming of Christ. These times of disaster and distress open avenues of service for the church, not only in the giving of material goods but for a ministry of compassion.

The church through its international organization SAWS (Seventh-day Adventist Welfare Service) has reached needs around the world. Every two years an offering is taken to provide funds for SAWS. The offering received in 1969, amounting to nearly $400,000, has been completely exhausted. On May 8 another offering will be taken to replenish these funds, and it is hoped that this offering can reach at least $800,000 for North America to meet increasing needs. This would allot approximately $225,000 to the Pacific Union.

Astronaut Left Bible on Moon

NEW YORK.—A special fireproof packet containing microfilm copies of the Scriptures was deposited on the highlands of the moon by astronaut Edgar D. Mitchell. The packet was prepared by the American Bible Society. It contained a complete Bible in the Revised Standard Version, 16 different language versions of Genesis 1:1, and other Scripture selections.

Your heartfelt compassion and liberality of funds will bring blessings to you and many others.

LITERATURE IS A GREAT BLESSING—LET'S USE IT

The Signs crusade has begun, and there is an important question we might ask ourselves regarding it. What am I doing with the Signs?

As a people we are extremely blessed of God with a powerful publishing machine that is turning out literature to prepare a people for the times in which we live. These are hectic times, times of fear and frustration, times when minds are being bombarded with pornography and filth. Satan is using every means at his command to captivate mankind.

We have it within our power to war against Satan, using Signs of the Times. There are those who greatly appreciate what we are doing. This is what one man said: "I would be delighted to have some literature like this to read. You can't find anything worthwhile on the newsstands or bookracks these days." The gentleman was very happy for the opportunity of receiving our literature. There are people like this all around us. They are not hard to find, if we would only contact them.

After you have sent Signs to friends and relatives, remember your neighbors. A club subscription coming to your home gives an excellent opportunity for missionary work right in your neighborhood.

Besides giving it to others, you should have Signs yourself. We have this counsel from the Lord's servant: "Let books that are useful, instructive, and elevating, be placed in your libraries and upon your tables, with the Review and Herald, our church paper, and the Signs of the Times, our missionary paper, and the effect upon both parents and children will be good."—Counsels to Writers and Editors, p. 134.

We need the inspiration that comes from reading the Signs ourselves, and it gives us something to talk about when we visit those neighbors with whom we are sharing this good missionary journal.

JAMES FINN, Director,
Lay Activities Department.

News Notes From the Hawaiian Mission

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. G. Murdoch were recent visitors in our Mission office en route to a field school in Singapore. Dr. Murdoch is known throughout our ranks as the dean of the Seventh-day Adventist Seminary which trains our ministers. His wife also holds a doctorate degree in the field of education.

While here Dr. Murdoch gave a brief report on the work of the Seminary to the Mission Executive Committee that happened to be meeting on that day. He also was able to make contact with a number of graduates of the Theological Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Aplington, two of our congenial sustentation workers, were invited to return to Walla Walla College for the alumni homecoming. Mr. Aplington acted as master of ceremonies for the banquet program. He is probably one of our best known men in educational circles.

Both of these fine folk have given a lifetime of service to Christian education and Adventist youth. While on the mainland they are privileged to visit with their many friends and relatives.

A. R. Hall to Assume Diamond Head Church Pastorate Soon

Elder A. R. Hall, at present pastor in our Hilo-Honokaa District, has been invited to fill the vacancy in the Diamond Head Church pastorate. Close to two months ago Elder and Mrs. Frank McMurry left for the mainland after completing almost eight years of service in Hawaii.

The leaving of the McMurrays left the vacancy in that church. During the interim period, it has been thrilling to see the folk rally around Mr. Paul Kravig, the first elder of the church, to keep the program moving forward.

It is anticipated that Elder Hall will arrive in the Diamond Head Church sometime during the month of May. Coming with Elder Hall will be his wife, Alyce, and their four children, three of whom are currently attending the Hilo Church School. The Hall family came to the Islands close to four years ago and have served the Hilo-Honokaa District ever since.

As Elder and Mrs. Hall come to Diamond Head, they plan to carry forward the aggressive work of soul winning for which the Diamond Head Church has been known for many years. We wish them every success in their ministry in the Diamond Head Church, upon which they will be entering so very soon.

Mission School Reaches First Place in Valentine Offering

During the past five years, the students of Hawaiian Mission Elementary School have given over $6,000 to the annual Faith for Today Valentine Offering.

In 1970, after having given the second highest amount in the nation for three consecutive years, the school moved into first place in the nation. In 1971, through sacrificial giving, the 328 students of kindergarten through grade eight contributed $1,971 toward this Valentine Offering.

Ethan Mulvihill, of the sixth grade, was the high contributor for the second consecutive year. Ronald Kajiwara, in addition to other contributions, happily gave his cash award received for winning first prize in the yearbook picture contest.

A check for $1,971 has been presented to Elder A. G. Streifling, Hawaiian Mission president, to be sent on to the Faith for Today telecast.

Bishop Members Have Musical Worship Hour at Carson City

Eight musical members of the Bishop, California, Church shared their talents with the Carson City Church during the worship hour on a recent Sabbath. Led by Dr. Willis Schlenker, the group presented a variety of vocal and instrumental sacred numbers with the theme "Let Jesus Into Your Heart Completely."

Accompanied on the piano or accordion by John Zappeia, Dr. Schlenker (saxophone), Ricky Schlenker (trumpet), Bill Curtice (violin), and Vocalists Sandy Nichols, Shirley Curtice (also guitar), Dan Lucas, and Dr. Warren Kanen shared their faith in our Saviour. Expressing their prayer for each of us, the entire group closed the service with the hymn "Let the Lord Lead You."

Organization of the group was the suggestion of Bill Curtice and Pastor Robert Larsen who also recommended that they share their program with other churches such as Fallon and Lone Pine.

Carson City is grateful to the Bishop members for the blessings of their music and fellowship.

Book and Bible House to Have Large Camp Meeting Display

There will be camp meeting at Springville, Utah, this year! The dates are June 30 through July 6.

A CHALLENGE!

DON'T read this, please, if you have done all you possibly can to hasten the coming of Christ by telling of Jesus' love; if you are ready to welcome the return of our Lord, knowing your hands will be free from the blood of all men by your witnessing for Christ to all about you;

Or if you really have completed your portion of the gospel commission as it applies to you.

BUT if you still feel there are honest souls to be won; and if you really want to share in the joy of soul winning; and if you want to be found standing shoulder to shoulder with your brethren in proclaiming the good news of Christ's love;

THEN look again at your Signs commitment for 1971. Now that you have turned in your usual Signs and missionary subscriptions, wouldn't it be especially pleasing to God if you decided to go the second mile, and double your Signs subscriptions? There is still time!

A recent national survey reveals that well over 75 percent of the people are not acquainted with the message of Seventh-day Adventists. Of those who are, twice as many know of God's message through the Signs than through any of our other periodicals.

The printed page should be distributed like "the leaves of autumn." This year we can still send Signs. Shall we go above and beyond anything we've ever done before? For Christ?

Dept. of Lay Activities.

Listen to this: "There are more alcoholics in San Francisco alone than narcotics addicts in the entire country."—Nicholas Johnson, Federal Communications Commission.

Now there's a statement to shock you! Especially since San Francisco is in our conference.

What a formidable task we face in reaching this city, and the more than three million other people in our area, with the message of temperance and the joy of healthful living, with the truth about tobacco, alcohol, and drugs. We have some 18 thousand members committed to reach over four million people—roughly a ratio of one for each 122.

Thus we must have, to be successful, every member involvement.

Have you subscribed to Listen magazine, or covenanted to sponsor subscriptions to influential leaders and public spokesmen? We have some 5,000 clergymen of all faiths eager to receive this publication. Will you help send it to them?

The $2.50 rate is extended through May 15, 1971. Contact your pastor or temperance leader and become a Listen sponsor. Let's up the ratio of Listen sponsors to more adequately meet the temperance challenge of these momentous times.

$150,000 Blaze Destroys Old Mountain View Church

Sunday night, April 18, an estimated $150,000 blaze destroyed the 64-year-old Mountain View Academy Chapel. The building was previously the Mountain View Church home until purchased by the academy five years ago.

The bell tower and walls were left standing, but the building was declared to be a total loss. It is tentatively listed that a malfunctioning gas furnace was the cause of the blaze; however, further investigation is being made. The building and contents were insured.

Firemen from four cities succeeded in preventing the spread of the flames to the nearby two-story classroom and administration building. The fire destroyed the only assembly area for the 270 students, the improvised band and choir practice rooms, storage rooms, and the only remaining retreat from rain during lunch periods. The Pacific Press Publishing Association has offered its auditorium two days a week for the academy chapel periods.

Last October 22 fire roared through the school gymnasium, completely demolishing it. Although the cause is still listed as "undetermined," arson was strongly suspected in that $230,000 blaze. Construction is scheduled to begin on the new gymnasium this summer.

The 30-member Royal Blues band and 25-member Royalaires choral group had returned Sunday evening from a tour of engagements in southern California and unloaded their gear in the building. Band and choir music, many instruments, as well as some of the choir robes were destroyed. A number of students lost sleeping bags, clothing, and other personal effects.

On Wednesday morning following the fire, a crew of workmen with a large crane

Many Non-Adventists Attend the Central Valley Campaign

The Central Valley Evangelistic Campaign began on April 18 in Reedley with a large attendance. Of the 280 people present, 85 percent were non-Adventist.

A happy crowd welcomed the three evangelists as they were introduced to the community of Reedley by Mr. Ben Gutierrez, popular radio personality in the Central Valley.

We sincerely feel that the response was a result of the Holy Spirit working in the hearts of men and women. We continue to solicit your prayers in the interest of this evangelistic endeavor.

lifted the valuable old bell from the tower. Although it was damaged by the intense heat, efforts are being made to restore it for use as a denominational monument.

In 1887 the bell was sand-cast in San Francisco for the Oakland Seventh-day Adventist Church. It was brought to Mountain View at the time the Pacific Press was moved from Oakland. In 1907 this bell was installed in the then new Mountain View Church. A special tolling clapper was used for funerals, weddings, and other special occasions. For many years another clapper was used to call people together for Sabbath worship services, although it was seldom used in recent years.

REMEMBER FAMINE RELIEF OFFERING SABBATH, MAY 8

Sharing has no age limit! Heidi Haney, 14-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Haney of our Los Altos Church, is putting her money into a Famine Relief Offering bread bank. She is demonstrating the generosity we hope you will show on May 8.

Little Heidi saves money for the May 8 Disaster and Famine Relief Offering.

This once-every-two-years offering is desperately needed this year to replenish the Seventh-day Adventist Welfare Services (SAWS) disaster relief fund. Aid valued at over $4.4 million was given disaster victims by SAWS last year. People in 41 countries including the United States received the aid, with Peru heading the list with aid valued at $1,725,700.

We can be very grateful that we have food, clothing, and shelter—and thus far have been spared tidal waves, cyclones, war, famines, etc. Now we have an opportunity to share with those who have been less fortunate. Let us do so willingly and generously on Sabbath, May 8!

Rebecca Collins Captures Temperance Oratory Trophy

Rebecca C. Collins of Armona Union Academy receives congratulations from Philip B. Knoche, health services secretary of Central.

Rebecca Collins captured the winner's trophy and emerged as the conference representative to the Pacific Union program held in Phoenix, Arizona, April 29 to May 2.

Since we read that "Intemperance lies at the foundation of all the evil in our world" (Temperance, p. 165), how heartening it is to hear young people standing and speaking against these evils.

A program such as this gives hope for the future with noble, stable young people firmly dedicated to the principles of pure actions and healthful, happy living.

Medal Is Awarded to Paradise Serviceman in Vietnam Duty

SP. 5 Stanley E. Russell, a member of the Paradise Church now on active duty in Vietnam, was presented recently the highest medal and award given by the United States Army for heroism in a non-combatant situation. Stanley, serving at present at Chu Lai, is the son of Mrs. Goldie Russell of Paradise.

The experience is as follows:

"Specialist Russell was on a beach at Chu Lai when he observed a fellow soldier pulled under the water by the intense undertow. Reacting immediately to the urgency of the situation, Specialist Russell maneuvered his raft through the five-foot waves to a position near the stricken soldier. With complete disregard for his personal safety he entered the dangerous water and swam to his comrade's location.

"Despite the strong undertow, Russell caught the drowning man and began swimming through the high surf to his raft. Taking immediate action he skillfully administered emergency first aid and quickly returned to shore for additional treatment for his stricken comrade. Through his timely and courageous actions, Specialist Russell was responsible for saving the life of his fellow soldier and served as an inspiration to his entire unit."

We are proud of the service which our Seventh-day Adventist medical soldiers are rendering to their comrades and their country.

Fort Bragg Members Up Investment Goal Twice in 1971

We have something for which to be thankful. It is the Sabbath School Investment.

The goal set for our church in 1970 was $348. Tom Loop was chosen to lead the members to victory. Early in the year he gave the challenge and urged everyone to participate.

One member chose to sell pieces of driftwood picked up on the beach and give all the money to Investment. A piano teacher dedicated a part of her income. Juniors dropped nickels into a special Investment jar in their Sabbath School room.

Fort Bragg Sabbath School Superintendent Lillian Welsh is amazed as Tom Loop, Investment leader, points to the $1,000 mark on the extended goal chart. The goal was $348 but the chart had to be extended twice to keep up with the enthusiasm and the returns.

A firewood salesman dedicated a certain percent of all sales during a period of time and his business was tremendous. Another family saved pennies. Eighty-three percent of the Sabbath School members participated in one project or another.

By the first of June the goal was reached. Enthusiasm was high and the leader challenged members to double the goal. This was done and passed by September 1.

In October Tom announced that the Investment returns were $750. His faith was strong. His enthusiasm was explosive. Dare he suggest going on? He did, and he set a mark of $1,000 to reach by the end of the year. This looked almost presumptuous but when the last Sabbath of the year came the $1,000 mark was reached and passed by seven dollars.

In summing up the ideas and projects for the year he said, "Investment is not a part of your regular income. It is a special project dedicated to Investment. Try it and you'll be surprised at the returns you never believed possible. Results mean you must have faith in the project and do your part. There are rich rewards and blessings for all who work diligently with the Lord."

Colfax Church Dedication Is Realization of a Dream

The dream of several years was realized December 12, 1970, when the new Seventh-day Adventist Church building was dedicated at Colfax. Leading in the dedication were Elder James E. Chase, president, and Elder E. A. Schmidt, treasurer, of the Northern California Conference. These men addressed the crowd of over 230 who packed the sanctuary and foyer of the mountain-top church that is designed to seat 140.

It was early in the spring of 1958 that a small group met in Colfax and, under the leadership of Elder M. E. Loewen, rented the Youth Center, organized as a company, and began holding services.

Later, in April of 1961, Elder Carl Becker organized this company into the Colfax Church.

Two of the brethren started the building fund, by placing a $1 bid on a building the state had up for auction. They were the only ones who bid and netted approximately $300 from the proceeds.

The late Elder C. L. Bauer guided in choosing the hill-top location.

In August of 1967, with only $15,000 in the building fund but with bushels of faith and prayers in their hearts, members of the little church began to level ground for the new edifice.

Although the building has been estimated to be of value exceeding $100,000, the actual cash passing through the church treasurer's hands is estimated to be between $22,000 and $23,000. This of course does not include donations of material and furnishings, such as the electrical system, fixtures, and material given and installed by a brother and sister from the Hanford Church, or the Hammond organ, and an adjoining parcel of land given by a brother and sister from the Bay Area.

The Colfax Church wishes to thank the many friends who helped in many different thoughtful ways to make their dream come true. In a special way they feel deep gratitude for the building inspector for the City of Colfax, Mr. Walter Wooley, for his guidance and friendship.

C. G. RASMUSSEN, Former Pastor.

This new church at Colfax was dedicated in services held recently.

Senior Music Major to Give Voice Recital, Mills College

A voice recital by Miss Madelene Capelle, senior music major at Mills College in Oakland, will be given at the Music Building auditorium May 15 at 8 p.m. on the college campus.

She is presently studying under Professor Darius Milhaud, well-known member of "Les Six," the name given to a group of French composers.

Recently, Miss Capelle was guest entertainer for the Student Association Banquet at PUC. She is soloist for the Mills Collegium Musicum choral organization and will be honored as featured soloist at the baccalaureate service at Mills College.

Miss Capelle will graduate on May 30 with a B.A. in Music, and has been accepted for further study at the Vienna Conservatory in Vienna, Austria.

You are cordially invited to attend. Admission is free, and the reception in honor of the guests will be open to all.

"Tell It Like It Is" Is Title of the Fortuna Youth Meetings

Sunday night, March 21, marked the opening of a special series of youth meetings in the Fortuna Church, which continued for two weeks under the campaign title, "Tell It Like It Is."

Elder Charles Edwards, Northern California Youth Department director, led in the meetings. Youth from the church assisted in music and ushering.

During the first week of the meetings, the Week of Prayer was conducted at Fortuna Junior Academy. Two young people, Bill Truby of Pacific Union College and Jim Edwards of Loma Linda University Medical School, assisted in both the Week of Prayer and the evening evangelistic meetings. These young men gave splendid appeals to the youth and helped in counseling and visiting, as well as with the music.

The Lord greatly blessed these meetings, and many expressions of faith and courage were heard by the youth in special afterglow meetings that were conducted following some of the evening sessions. The youth themselves participated in a strong way.

During the course of the meetings, 19 persons indicated an interest in baptism and further study. Elder James Pogue, pastor of the Fortuna Church, is faithfully following these interests and maintaining and continuing interest in the youth around his church.

CHARLES EDWARDS,
Director, Youth Department.

Watts Service Center Open House Is Slated for May 23

The Watts Adventist Community Service Center will hold Open House on Sunday, May 23, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The Center is located at 958 East 108th Street, Los Angeles, which is just one block west of Central Avenue and four blocks east of Avalon Boulevard. Plans are to have a Health Fair that day, and a program in the afternoon that will draw both the community people and the city and welfare officials.

For the past year and a half the Department of Inner City Programs has been very busy laying the ground work for the programs that are being carried on through the Center. Refurbishing the building, remodeling, redecorating, painting, etc., has made the old factory a presentable place we call the "Center" and has made it possible to carry on the programs for adults, youth, and children.

Bible Class

Recently, after the Wednesday morning Mothers Class and a health luncheon prepared by the ladies of the Normandie Avenue Church, we had nine mothers stay for our first Bible class. The following Sabbath we had 16 children from two families attend church. We look forward to the time when we will have children from each of the core families in church. One Sabbath morning at one o'clock Elder Paytee was awakened by a phone call from one of the teen-agers who lives in a Boys Home, asking if he could go to church that Sabbath.

Not only does the Department of Inner City Programs seek to bring the Christ to the thousands of people who live in the poverty areas of south and east Los Angeles, but it also seeks to communicate the gospel of the kingdom to hundreds of the social service workers who serve the welfare recipients.

One clear-cut objective is to make the name of the Christ and the name of Seventh-day Adventists more prominent as these are associated with programs that will announce to the total populace of our area that Seventh-day Adventists are a people who care about the plight of the poor.

True generosity requires more of us than kindly impulse. Above all it requires imagination—the capacity to see people in all their perplexities and needs and to know how to expend ourselves effectively for them.

The Open House, May 23, seeks to introduce you to the behind-the-scenes activities of the Center, acquaint you with the staff of workers, and to expose you to the church of Christ working in the inner city. We will be looking for you.

Japanese Church Farewells Elder and Mrs. Seikichi Imai

On March 27 Central Japanese American Church had a farewell potluck lunch in honor of Elder and Mrs. Seikichi Imai. As of March 31 Elder Imai retired after 34 years of faithful service in the Lord's work.

The Imais left by plane the next day for Japan. They will be returning to Los Angeles after a visit there.

Elder and Mrs. Seikichi Imai who have recently retired.

They pioneered the Japanese work in Sacramento between 1937 and 1941. World War II years were spent at relocation camps at Tululake, California, and Topaz, Utah.

After the war, again the Imais pioneered Japanese work, this time in Oakland, and continued their service among the Japanese in Sacramento.

In 1954 they moved to Los Angeles. Their field of service included Gardena and West Los Angeles besides Los Angeles. In 1961 a branch of the Central Church was organized as the West Los Angeles Church.

We shall miss them. May the Lord be with them.

Nine Are Baptized Following the La Crescenta Meetings

The La Crescenta Church pastor and members are praising God for the many blessings received during the recent evangelistic meetings. God's presence was evident as nine individuals surrendered their lives to Christ through baptism and determined to follow their Saviour through to the Kingdom. The church welcomes each person into membership.

Elder Armen Johnson, pastor, commended Mrs. Betty Glenn, the church

New Lynwood Lay Activities Group Is 'The Ambassadors'

Under the auspices of the Lynwood Church Lay Activities Department, Carlin Kane, the leader, is pleased to announce the formation of another active and enthusiastic arm of the department, "The Ambassadors." This group is composed of a nucleus of approximately 35 people from senior youth up through the older members of the church. The group has just recently been organized under the enthusiastic leadership of Ralph Arnold.

The Ambassadors meet once a week for instruction and prayer. Some of their main activities consist of voluntary prayer bands, house-to-house visitation with Bible studies, home missionary work such as visiting the sick at home or in nursing homes, visiting former church members, entertaining visitors present for church services and afterward inviting them home for lunch.

The formation of this "Ambassadors" group has met with much enthusiasm and it is expected that others will wish to join. The pastoral staff at Lynwood appreciates the dedication and hard work of Carlin Kane, Elder Knittel, Ralph Arnold, and others who are the lay activities officers of the church.

Show Your Christian Concern With Liberal Offering May 8

International disasters during the past 12 months have been of major proportions.

In the southwestern states of America there have been two large hurricanes, Camille and Celia. A large amount of destruction was suffered in Peru, Yugoslavia, Turkey, and southern California in three major earthquakes. In the southern states of Mississippi and Louisiana, the news was viewed on TV of the losses in lives and property during the tornadoes.

A number of us who were in the Los Angeles area at the time of the earthquake of February 9 do not need to be reminded of the impact made during these moments of trembling terra firma.

SAWS (Seventh-day Adventist Welfare Services) sent help to 87 countries. With the gifts of clothing, bedding, food, medical supplies, cash, and other avenues of aid, a total of $6,795,352.27 was given in relief.

Please give prayerful consideration as to the size of your gift for your church May 8 to represent your Christian concern in the future needs that will arise in the fulfilling signs that indicate the end of time.

Summer Work Opportunities Are Good at San Pasqual

Summer work opportunities for students planning to attend San Pasqual Academy for the coming year are excellent. There is a need for a number of students to work in the various campus industries and departments. Both boys and girls are needed with the greatest need being for students who are 16 years of age or older.

By working a period of 10 weeks during the summer, students may earn as much as $640. Board, room, and insurance charges will average $31 per week. An $80 bonus will be given students who satisfactorily fulfill the obligations of their summer labor contract for the 10-week period. This will give students a net credit of $410 for the summer period after board and room charges have been deducted and the bonus added. Total net earnings will be even greater for students working a longer period of time or for those whose basic hourly rate exceeds $1.60.

There will be a need for some help as early as June 6. A number of requests have already been received and plans for the summer crew must be finalized soon. Please make inquiry about summer work opportunities and application for the 1971-1972 school term immediately. Direct your correspondence to:

Holbrook Students Visit the April Federation Meetings

Southeastern Dorcas Welfare Society Federations provided overwhelming support to two urgent requests presented at their April meetings by representatives of the Seventh-day Adventist Indian Mission School at Holbrook.

Coming to the meetings to outline only one of these requests, Norman Edwards, the seventh and eighth grade instructor, and three Indian students received enough pledges from the San Diego and Orange County federations to provide for 17 new beds for the school. The beds are needed to meet state housing standards and cost $83 each.

Three students from the Adventist Mission School in Holbrook show the product of their vocational arts class to Elder Philip Dunham and Mrs. Lois Bastion, San Bernardino County Federation president. The students are, from the left, Raymond Joe, Patty Lopez, and Steve Robinson.

Then at the Riverside-San Bernardino meeting they presented a second need. The school has recently opened 40 acres to cultivation but there is no irrigation supply. Three new wells are needed by the school for both domestic and agricultural use but mostly for irrigation. Each well, Mr. Edwards explained, is expected to cost about $1,500 if drilling equipment is available in the immediate area. A driller will contribute his time.

Again the challenge was met and the third federation's members pledged $3,000 for two wells.

The students who accompanied Mr. Edwards were Steve Robinson, a Hopi, Patty Lopez, a Ute, and Raymond Joe, a Navajo. These youth told of their life at the mission school and sold metal book-ends made in a vocational arts class by the students.

Since none of the three students had been to the West Coast, the San Diego Federation contributed another $60 so that they could visit the San Diego Zoo as well as for some of their school projects. Some 70 students ranging in age from five to 20 attend the Holbrook Indian Mission School.

Among actions taken by the federations was for the division of the San Bernardino-Riverside Federation. Each county will now have its own federation and officers. Next federation meetings will be held in the fall.

Associate Secretary,

Progress at the Prescott Campground Is Reported

Land exchange with the Forest Service for our campground facilities is progressing in a favorable manner, and we keep hoping that it will soon be finalized.

The new Book and Bible House is nearing completion, providing a big improvement over the former building. It will also be used for storage during the rest of the year between camp meetings. A portion of it will be for departmental displays and exhibits. It is located to the right of the main gate as you enter the campground.

Original plans for the lodge provided for dormitory rooms, kitchen, dining and youth room, and swimming pool. When the bids came in for the construction costs, they turned out to be far more expensive than we had anticipated. Funds on hand were less than our expectation. It was discovered that the kitchen and dining and youth room were too small. The Conference Committee voted to build as funds were available, to avoid debt, and to do

Glendale Series Will Feature Dr. E. Heppenstall May 15

The Glendale Lyceum Lecture and Concert Series continues on the weekend of May 15 with guest speaker Dr. Edward Heppenstall presenting the topic "Christ Our Mediator." The weekend programs will be held at 7:30 Friday night, 11 o'clock Sabbath morning, and 3 o'clock Sabbath afternoon. Following the Sabbath evening vespers there will be a special open discussion with Dr. Heppenstall at the residence of Dr. Starkey.

The 1971 Lyceum Lecture and Concert Series began the evening of April 1 with a sacred concert by the Glendale Community College Choir at the opening services of the new church sanctuary. Programs for the remainder of 1971 include: Dr. Heppenstall, sacred music presented by the Blantons and the Duerksens, Dr. Richard Neis speaking on family relations, and special films.

In keeping with Glendale's great interest in youth, several of these programs have been specifically planned to help young people deepen their love relationship with Christ.

The Glendale Church extends a special invitation to all members in the Phoenix area to join with them on the weekend of May 15.

Safety and finance are areas to be featured in two separate workshops scheduled at PUC this summer. Each will carry three hours of credit.

A workshop in safety education, coordinated by three college departments plus the General Conference Insurance Service, will be August 9 to 19. Emphasis will be on accident prevention, safety education, and psychological factors relating to accident proneness.

The workshop will be of special interest to residence hall deans, hospital supervisory personnel, principals, farm managers, and physical education teachers. The workshop will include guest lecturers and field trips to private businesses and federal institutions where effective safety programs are in operation.

Dr. Ed Anderson, educational secretary for the Northern California Conference, will direct a workshop in school finance and personnel August 2 to 13. Dr. Anderson holds a degree in this area from Arizona State University.

Trustees Give Final Approval for Women's Residence Hall

Groundbreaking for the new $900,000 residence hall at Pacific Union College has taken place following final approval for construction at a recent Board of Trustees meeting. Plans call for the much-needed building to be finished by Thanksgiving of this year.

The 166-occupant highrise dormitory is being built on the southern edge of the campus. The building, to be named Winning Hall for Miss Evabelle Winning, long-time women's dean, is sorely needed, according to Dr. F. O. Rittenhouse, president. Counting the present overcrowding in the three existent women's dormitories plus those now living in the community who would live on campus were space available, 150 of the 166 spaces the new building will have could be filled immediately.

Winning Hall will have an elevator and apartments for two deans (PUC needs one women's dean more than the number of dormitories).

A rise in tuition was also approved for next school year: up $111 to $1,626 for the three quarters. Dr. Rittenhouse, noting the "great reluctance" with which the board took action, mentioned the contributing factors of inflation, higher salaries for faculty in harmony with General Conference wage scale, increased Social Security payments, and new minimum wage laws. The latter, of course, will benefit student workers.

In other board action, Vernon Nye, associate professor of art who has been on leave for two years, will be returning on a half-time basis. Dr. Elton Wallace, head of the Communications Department, was named director of summer school, a post he has held for several years.

The Board of Trustees also voted to increase its membership by one to 25. New members are: Dr. Thomas Cummings, physician from Auburn; Elder Duane Grimstad, pastor at Santa Rosa; Dr. Margaret Godfrey, physician in St. Helena; Richard Malott, attorney, Lafayette; Clarence Miller, administrator, St. Helena Hospital; and Elder A. G. Streiffing, president, Hawaiian Mission.
