Advice to Adventists on Military

National Service Organization Gives Counsel

There have been three trends in the United States Armed Forces over the past several months that could have some significance for Seventh-day Adventists. First, the number of those drafted is low—approaching the zero draft scheduled for the middle of the year. Second, there is a sharp increase in the number of those with Seventh-day Adventist background entering the Armed Forces voluntarily. Third, there have been more church members with difficult Sabbath problems in their military duty than there have been for many years.

The trend towards the zero draft is much appreciated by the whole country. The other two trends should cause us as a church to do some serious thinking.

The intensive campaign by the military to get persons to enlist has concentrated chiefly on the salaries that are now competitive with civilian counterparts. When the G.I. benefits are added to these salaries, it naturally attracts many who are trying to find ways of solving the increasing costs of college or higher education.

This includes many with an Adventist background.

The Adventist Church through the years has consistently counseled its members not to enter the military voluntarily if they have conscientious restrictions on the military service they can render. This counsel has the backing of U.S. military authorities. The mission of the military carries on seven days a week, twenty-four hours a day. With the reduction of manpower in each of the Armed Forces every person must be available when needed. Thus it is increasing difficult to release Adventist personnel on a regular basis during the Sabbath hours.

This counsel of the church is directed to those who have personal convictions by which they must abide. Those willing to serve in whatever capacity or time they are needed should certainly be able to enter the Armed Forces under any circumstances they choose. The only way in which the church enters the picture is to point out the facts to those of its members who might not know.

In this connection it would be well to comment on a false rumor frequently repeated among Adventists. This rumor is that the Church, through the National Service Organization, "will get you your Sabbath off in the military." We do not attempt to do this for anyone. The individual must do this for himself. If he runs into difficulty in arranging for Sab-

Nicaragua Quake Victims Aided

With a $5,000 gift from the Swedish Union and another $5,000 from the Euro-Africa Division, Adventist donations to aid Managua earthquake victims have reached some $50,000.

W. E. Phillips reports that the U.S. government flew 100 tents, 500 cots, and 1,000 blankets purchased by SAWS to the disaster area. Some $10,000 was provided by the Adventist church in El Salvador and Honduras. Those who have visited the stricken area say this is the worst they have ever seen.

We at our Watsonville Warehouse have a good supply of clothing, blankets, some tents and cots, just waiting for the order to send them when needed.

SAWS Watsonville.

Large-print Quarterly Is Ready

Sabbath school lessons will be available in a large-print quarterly for the third quarter of 1973, according to word from the Pacific Press.

Titled, "Jesus and His People," the quarterly is printed in 12-point type and will be approximately 7x10 inches in overall size. Unsure of the extent of need, though there have been many requests for such a quarterly, the Press will print only 2,000 of the outsize lesson study guides for third quarter.

To ensure that you have a copy, order today from your Adventist Book Center for $1.50.

D. L. Olsen gives the "certain sound" of liberty for all Pacific Union constituents.

"With honest, sensible leaders there is stability," said Solomon in Proverb 28:2.

Keep LIBERTY before these thought- and nation-directors. It's the magazine bargain at $1.25.

SO YOU WILL KNOW...

We now have the tithe total for 1972 and are rejoicing. The figure is $30,881,018.63 which is a gain of 9.182% over 1971. Sabbath school offerings for 1972 totaled $2,899,391.33 for a gain of 7.352% over the previous year. Additional financial data for you will be available next week. Let me thank you again for your loyal and generous support of the total work of the church the world around.

On Tuesday, January 16, a new television program was released on Channel 5 in Los Angeles. Titled "It's Your World," it was produced by the Southern California Conference. The new telecast is a health approach, and a careful follow-up plan has been developed. The programs are on video tape, and it is planned that one-inch tapes will be made available for use on closed circuits in our medical institutions.

It was a great joy to spend Friday night and Sabbath (Jan. 12 and 13) at Yuba City to join the membership there in the dedication of their beautiful new church which seats 550 people. While there, one of the members talked to me about "Adventures in Faith." He has opened a special savings account and the first deposit of $25 has been entered for January. It is the intention of this brother to deposit the same amount each month until April, 1975, when the total will become part of the "Adventures in Faith" offering to be reported at the General Conference Session. We appreciate this involvement and the example set by this good member in Yuba City. Before long, envelopes will appear in the church pews and an article will appear in the Recorder giving more details.

Tuesday, January 16, I met with the Pacific Press Board. The net billing for 1972 was $9,141,686 which is an increase of $533,000 over the previous year. We were told that the book Desire of Ages was placed in the rooms of a motel in the Mountain View area, and in seven weeks 35 requests for the book have reached the Press. The printing order on the Signs at present is 330,000 per month and on Listen the order is 170,000. The Pacific Press is in need of artists. If there are readers with artistic talents and skills who would be interested in serving at the Pacific Press, please contact Plant Manager Fred Bell at the Pacific Press in Mountain View, California.

The Board of Higher Education is meeting at Pacific Union College in the Dining Commons (January 17, 18). This body is steadily moving forward in planning for and evaluating and consolidating Seventh-day Adventist Higher Education in North America.

Modesto Church Complex Nearly Fills Block

Many changes have taken place at the Modesto Central Church. A little over a year ago a total refurbishment of the church was started. This included the adding of a $70,000 refrigeration and heating plant, a new organ system, and a new office building. The church entered into this project with approximately $120,000 cash on hand; as the project progressed and additional plans were incorporated into it, it was necessary to obtain a loan for a considerable sum of cash.

The church family at Modesto Central is a very loyal and progressive group, and long before the loan due date it was paid off entirely.

Even after the completion of this project the church still had needs; however, since the church is in an area already built up, with property at a premium, it seemed growth might stop. Again God has gone before us, and we have been able to secure the total Methodist Church complex, which includes a parsonage, a 450-seat sanctuary,

This Methodist Church complex has been purchased by the Modesto Central Church.

HANFORD HOSPITAL CONSTITUENCY MEETING

A biennial meeting of the Hanford Community Hospital constituency will be held on Sunday, February 11, 1973, at 12 noon at Monterey Bay Academy, San Andreas Road, Watsonville, California.

Virgil Morris, Administrator

A new office building is also on the block of the new Modesto Central Church complex.

Office Staff Take Red Cross Course

Twenty-two Central California Conference office employees recently earned their American Red Cross Standard First Aid Certificates after taking the new Multimedia First Aid Class at the Red Cross headquarters in San Jose.

Elder B.W. Mattison, Conference Lay Activities and Civil Defense Director, coordinated the program, signing up those interested and arranging for them to have time off to attend class.

an additional house, all in the same city block.

The main sanctuary will become a Youth Fellowship Center. The lower floor will become a Dorcas Welfare Department, and many rooms will be Pathfinder craft rooms. The Modesto Central Church plant now encompasses the entire city block, with the exception of two privately-owned lots and a small city-owned park. The church family rejoices in this, and will soon have a clear deed to this new purchase.

At present, Elder Fordyce Detamore is conducting an evangelistic crusade in Modesto Central, and the church is filled nightly. Souls for the Lord's Kingdom are being reached. Pray for the work in this northern city of our conference area that we shall have done all within our power to serve Him who gave so much for us.

The Chapel Singers, directed by Earl Johnson, will present a sacred concert on Saturday night, January 27, at 7:00 p.m. in the Los Altos Seventh-day Adventist Church in the Woods, 2100 Arboretum Dr. Come and enjoy this inspirational program; invite your friends and neighbors.

Baptisms Mark Year's Close Throughout Central

Baptismal services marked the close of the year in many churches of the conference.

In the Clovis Church Mr. and Mrs. Kim Fong Dang, Bible instructors, and Pastor Stanley Hiten rejoice in the baptism of three men, with whom they have studied and prayed.

Vernon Caylor, Eldon Butterfield, and Mike Bartel received studies from Mr. and Mrs. Kim Fong Dang and Elder Stanley Hiten.

Pastor Robert Nomi, of the Mountain View Japanese Church, introduced seven candidates for baptism. It is interesting to note the different avenues of witness that brought these people to Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rieder sent their three daughters to Adventist church schools. Through this influence they and Mrs. Rieder's mother, Mrs. Gunda Litterer, were baptized. Mrs. Kay Hill was contacted four years ago by two church members out Ingathering. This resulted in Bible studies, and eventually the baptism of Mrs. Hill and her son Marvin. Her daughter Margie was baptized a year ago and is now attending Pacific Union College. Mrs. Hisae Osborn became acquainted with Adventists ten years ago, and Tad Ishikawa is the son of long-time church members.

The Ceres Spanish Church added four members by baptism in a service on December 30. Paula and Baltazar Ibanez were won through the pages of El Centinela. They first saw it in Mexico, and later over the AL DIA television program on Channel 19. Porfirio Diaz was attracted to the church by the change noticed in the life of his wife when she joined the Adventist church, and Maria Martinez is the product of a Christian home.

From the Ceres Church, Mr. and Mrs. Baltazar Ibanez, Porfirio Diaz, and Maria Martinez have been baptized.

SONORA COMMUNITY HOSPITAL BIENNIAL SESSION

Prayer and Assurance Will Be Emphasized

Beginning on Friday evening, February 2, and continuing each evening until February 10, the Lynwood Church will host the ABC Prayer Crusade Team. Meetings will be held each evening at Rupp Auditorium, 11111 Harris Avenue, Lynwood, beginning at 7:30 p.m. and on Sabbath afternoon at 3:30 p.m.

Glenn Coon

Associated with Pastor Glenn Coon are his wife, Ethel, Steve Marshall, David Meeker, and Mr. and Mrs. Evan Danielson. For 25 years Pastor Coon has been developing a new approach to life's problems. From this has come a power and simplicity of prayer known as the "ABC Technique," used by thousands today.

Associates Steve Marshall and David Meeker, who will be working mainly with young people, will be featured each evening. They will tell their story of "Drugland America." The January issue of Signs carries their conversion story and what the ABC Prayer technique has done for them.

All meetings during the first weekend of the Crusade will feature Accordionist Andy Ferrier.

The team will be available for counseling and prayer throughout the entire series. Plan now to attend and better yet, bring a friend to share this experience with you.

"It Is Written" Is Rescheduled

Because of basketball programming on the TV network originating in the East, everything on Channel 7 has been moved back one hour. This change will affect the "IT IS WRITTEN" schedule for approximately 2½ months. It can now be seen at 7 p.m.—one hour earlier than before. We are hoping to be able to present it at a better time beginning this spring.

Sugar Ray Robinson and these three Loma Linda students will share the spotlight on IT'S YOUR WORLD January 30 and February 2 respectively. Sugar Ray, perhaps the greatest boxer pound for pound, and who through life has knocked many other men down is now helping them up. You'll learn how on Tuesday.

On Thursday Dr. John Scharffenberg from Loma Linda's School of Health will discuss America's eating habits as three university students prepare a tasty international dinner.

One Way Singers To Perform

The One Way Singers who have appeared in many concerts during the past year have adopted an official emblem.

Across the red background of the YIELD sign is a black ONE WAY pointer which suggests that the only way one can have true happiness is by yielding his life to God.

It will be on display for the first time when this group of 20 young persons performs in the San Gabriel Academy Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. on February 2. Their concert the following day (Feb. 3) will be during the church service at Eagle Rock.

Indian Hill Project Opened

Sabbath January 20, marked the opening of church services for the Indian Hill Project in Claremont, California.

Sabbath School and worship services are being conducted at 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. weekly, in the St. Luke Lutheran church located at the corner of Indian Hill Blvd. and Baseline Road.

This temporary location is just a short distance from the Indian Hill Church which will become the permanent church home on July 1.

Presently the Indian Hill project is being conducted as an outreach program of the Pomona Seventh-day Adventist church, with Pastors Burton Boundey and W. Bradwell in charge.

South Glendale Effort Is Largest Ever

"Plans for the largest evangelistic effort ever undertaken by the South Glendale church are underway," announced Wilford Goffar, pastor of the church.

Although the campaign in the South Glendale-Atwater district does not officially begin until February 3, church members have been studying ways of better witnessing for Christ in preparation for the crusade. Local members held a week of prayer last November and will soon participate in a day of fasting.

"The success of MISSION '73 largely depends upon the spirit of revival in our churches," the pastor stated. "The Holy Spirit can more effectively work when human instruments have been transformed and are willing to be God's agents for the salvation of others," he added.

Ed Bryan

Ed Bryan, senior chaplain for the Glendale Adventist Hospital will be the speaker for the five-week series starting February 3 and continuing each Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evening at 7:15 p.m. He will also take the pulpit during the 11 o'clock hour on Sabbath mornings.

Elder Bryan's theme—"THE HISTORY OF THE CHURCH IN LIVING COLOR"—will be portrayed on the screen. Chaplain Emeritus Frank Purcell will assist in the lay effort designed to satisfy one's physical needs first as Jesus did when here among men.

Glendale Academy Bible Instructor Tom R. Neslund—music coordinator for the crusade—has arranged for the Academy Choir under the direction of Rochelle La Grone to set the mood before the presentation.

You are encouraged to invite entire families to attend with you since children's meetings will be conducted simultaneously at the same location.

Junior Division members at the Berean Church in Los Angeles plan an extra project every quarter for the 13th Sabbath overflow.

IN A NUTSHELL

✓ A homecoming celebration marking the 45th anniversary of the Bellflower-Lakewood church will be held on Sabbath, February 17. The church—organized January 1, 1927, with E. R. Reynolds as pastor, and 39 members—is working out special plans for the happy occasion. Pastor B. R. Spear, who superintended the building of the first church following World War II, will be the guest speaker. Other former pastors will take part in the services. All former pastors, members and friends are invited to attend.

✓ Three days after the first IT'S YOUR WORLD program was aired, 500 letters found their way to Box 2348, Hollywood, requesting copies of the recipe and cookbook offered on the show. Mail came from as far away as Barstow, Bakersfield, and India, and those writing in expressed that they enjoyed the program.

✓ It was a high day in Zion when colporteurs of Southern gathered for special services at Tamarind Avenue Church in Compton on a December Sabbath. Elder Eric Ward, pastor of the Berean Church, gave a dynamic message to the capacity congregation on the Laodicean state of the church of the last days. Following the sermon, moving testimonies were given by the literature evangelists which included R. Z. Boyce, Edna Collins and Joe Hutchinson.

✓ The Chinese Choral Group recently presented Alfred R. Gaul's "Holy City" at the Chinese Adventist in Alhambra and the Pomona churches. Since March this 32-member group devoted some 1300 hours and traveled over 10,000 miles totally in preparation for this first performance.

SDA Horsemen Offer First in Fellowship

The Youth Activities department and the Loma Linda University Equestrian Center have united in offering a new first in Christian fellowship.

Beginning February 18, there will be a monthly opportunity for Seventh-day Adventist horsemen to share their interests.

The initial event will be a four-hour trail ride which will begin at 10 a.m. on February 18 (rain date February 25), leaving from the new La Sierra Equestrian Center. At the half-way point a Chuck Wagon lunch will be served for those who wish to purchase meal tickets. Arrangements for meal tickets should be made in advance.

A drawing for two free breedings will be held for those purchasing meal tickets. The winners may choose from four registered stallions: Arabian, Quarterhorse, Thoroughbred, and Appaloose.

The trail fee is $1.00 or $2.50 for the trail fee, meal and drawing. Coming events include an open Gymkhana on March 18 (rain date March 25) and on April 15 (rain date April 22) an open horse show.

For further information, meal reservations, or to be put on mailing list for further events contact L. W. Roth, Physical Education Department, Loma Linda University—La Sierra Campus, Riverside, California 92505. Phone (714) 792-0636.

Tucker Plans Calexico Series

Evangelist L. E. Tucker, speaker of the "SEARCH" telecast and Quiet Hour radio program, will lead a three-week "Search for Truth" Crusade in Calexico at the Armory, 210 W. Sheridan, beginning Friday night, February 2 at 7 p.m.

"End of the World" is Pastor Tucker's opening topic. Each nightly message will be translated into Spanish by Harvey Miller. These meetings are for the entire Imperial Valley and the 400,000 people of Mexicali, Mexico.

Those having relatives and friends living in this area are encouraged to invite them to attend each evening, February 2-24.

Conference President Melvin Lukens speaks to the new company.

Inner-City Ministry Results in Church Organization

As a result of 18 months of Inner City ministry by the Loma Linda Campus Hill Church the Valley Fellowship Company was organized on January 13. Elders Major White, Melvin Lukens, J. W. Lehman and Pastor Gary Stanhiser led out in the organization of this company of 50 members. Pastor Stanhiser will serve now as full-time pastor of the company which meets in the Greater Canaan Temple at 9282 S. Waterman Avenue in San Bernardino. Over 100 meet each week in this new company.

Elder Major White, associate secretary of the Pacific Union Conference, spoke at the morning worship service. During the afternoon service Elder Lehman, pastor of the Campus Hill Church, baptized eight new members.

This experimental integrated church is carrying on several experiments in the community. A missionary medical clinic, supported by the Campus Hill Church and operated by medical staff who have joined the Valley Fellowship, ministers to 25-30 people weekly. The clinic, directed by Don Melnick and John Duge, provides diagnosis, treatment and referral to Loma Linda Medical Center. Doctors include specialists in orthopedics, internal medicine, physical medicine, obstetrics, and general practice.

A second experiment includes enrolling over 40 children in Loma Linda Elementary School and Academy for the first time. The non-graded elementary program specifically aids underachieving community children. The program is largely financed by the Campus Hill Church, but the Conference and Academy contribute with discounts and subsidies. Most of the children are tutored twice a week by the faculty and students from the Department of Occupational Therapy, Loma Linda University.

The community welfare services housed in Pastor Stanhiser's garage, provides clothes, furniture, appliances and emergency food. During Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays over $1,000 worth of food was given to families bringing warmth of our community work into their homes.

Participants in the organization were Pastor Gary Stanhiser, Elders Melvin Lukens, Major White and J. W. Lehman.

Mentone Community Center Begins with Open House

Formal opening of the newly-constructed Community Services Center at the Mentone Church took place on January 7. Taking part in the ribbon cutting ceremony were Elder Melvin Lukens, Conference President; Carl Himmelberg, representing the Chamber of Commerce; Elder Paul Schooley, pastor of the church and Don Morris, the building contractor.

The first community event to take place in the new facility was a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking which started January 11. Leading out in the program were Dr. John Duge of the Medical School at Loma Linda University and the local pastor.

Other programs that will be held throughout the year in the new facility will deal with Weight Control, Physical Fitness, Cooking School, Drug Scene, Heart Beat and Cholesterol. The membership is organized to sponsor the various programs so that more will be involved in these community affairs.

The new building will also provide additional space for other church activities. Many hours of volunteer labor went into the new building right up to minutes before the opening.

The Open House held all afternoon gave people of the community an opportunity to visit the building and register for the various programs.

The ribbon cutting ceremony included Elder Lukens, Carl Himmelberg, Elder Schooley and Don Morris.

Pastoral Changes Are Made

At a recent meeting of the Conference Committee a number of actions were taken concerning our pastoral staff.

Elder Eddie Card is being asked to serve the Highland Company on a full-time basis.

Pastor Gary Stanhiser will be serving as pastor of the newly-formed Valley Fellowship Company in San Bernardino.

Elder Grant Volsch is being called from the Iowa Conference to reactivate the Clairemont Church in North San Diego.

Pastor Arthur Earll will take up the responsibility of the pastorate of the San Marcos Church.

Elder Roy Brandstater, pastor at Fallbrook, will be retiring for the second time. Pastor John M. Robertson will assume the pastoral duties in Fallbrook.

The new Community Service Center in Mentone.

Faith for Today Rally Slated

Church members in the Inland Empire should make note of the fact that there will be a Faith for Today Rally in San Bernardino on February 24. This Rally will be held at 3:00 p.m. in the San Bernardino Convention Center located at 303 North E Street.

Gordon Dalrymple

This rally is being held to lay plans for the Faith for Today Crusade which will be held in the fall by Elder Gordon Dalrymple.

Pastor Dalrymple will be the principal speaker and the Loma Linda University Chamber Singers will present several musical selections. Trends toward church unity will be analyzed in the sermon by Pastor Dalrymple.

Laymen Show World Work

For the past 17 years Ray Rusthoi and his wife have been visiting our mission fields and observing the work of the laymen in winning souls to Christ. So far they have visited around 111 countries and islands. They have a very graphic picture of our work around the world.

After returning from these trips Brother Rusthoi is willing to give his report during the Sabbath worship service. His messages are a challenge to laymen to give greater service within their own church. Some interesting and encouraging results have been seen from his lay-ministry. There is no charge for his services, and he sponsors no projects. This year he visited Central America by mission plane and has a wonderful message. The title of this challenge is: "How Much Do We Care?"

He is willing to drive to any church within 1½ hours driving time of his home. He may be contacted by Phone: (714) 925-1318; writing: 520 Rainier Way, Hemet, Calif. 92343.

Valley Community Services Center Reports

As I visited the "Valley Community Services Center" on Wednesday, January 10, I saw two men receiving clothes. Upon inquiry I learned from Mrs. Eleanor Clark, welfare director for the Center, these men were from the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center. The lady who brings these persons to us regularly was an alcoholic and a drug addict. Asking about another person, a pregnant lady, I learned that the County Welfare had referred her to us.

We have built a good working relation with the existing community organizations since we opened in April, 1972.

The Center is financed and operated by the ten Phoenix churches and some financial aid from the Arizona Conference. Since opening, 3,371 persons have been helped with over $1,100 in food; 15,000 pieces of clothing, furniture and many other items, from house rent to bus fare.

We have four really large rooms and several small rooms at the Center. The demonstration room is fully carpeted and Several Phoenix churches are united at the Valley Community Services Center.

Another Company Organized

On January 6, 1973, seventy-eight believers from the Phoenix Central and the Glendale churches met for the first time at Maryvale, a southwest suburb of Phoenix.

These members are meeting at 6440 W. Indian School Road in the United Presbyterian church. Plans are to organize a new church on February 17.

This past summer 20 literature evangelists, academy and college students, worked the area, enrolling 3,000 in the Voice of Prophecy Bible courses and selling over $3,000 in literature.

Two Five-Day Plans were conducted in the area during 1972.

January 13 two were baptized who will become members of this new church.

Thirty children were present on the opening Sabbath. Plans are for a strong Sabbath School with emphasis on the children's divisions.

The new church group is in the Glendale district under the leadership of Elder Ken Blanton and Harvey Stephens, Bible instructor. The future looks good for a strong work at Maryvale.

To Be Used of God Servicemen's Privilege

God always places those who have purposed in their hearts to win souls for Him in the right places at the right time. So it worked out when SK-3 Gary Hyman was transferred to another job because of his conscientious convictions against bearing arms.

At his new location, he met David LaChance, who had also been transferred to the same location in the Navy, but because of other reasons. David had turned himself in to the Navy authorities for drug abuse for rehabilitation under the new Navy program of amnesty for those who wish to be rehabilitated.

David, who like Gary had been aboard a Navy submarine, was searching for a better way of life and had found it in Christ before meeting Gary. But David desired to know Christ's way more clearly than he had learned it when he had given his heart to Christ in a downtown Honolulu Youth for Christ meeting. So the Lord directed these two young men to meet and Gary began to give David Bible studies, bringing to him the messages of the Three Angels.

David was baptized into the Aiea Church by Elder Frank Michaelson as a result of this providential meeting of these two Navy men, whom God placed at the right place at the right time. David now has been transferred to the San Diego area, and he is determined to let his light shine for Christ and win others also to Him.

Let us pray that our men in uniform may continue to have the power of the Holy Spirit accompanying them, that there will be a large harvest of souls through their ministry of witnessing while in military service.

Youth Witness 'Sunshine 73'

By 4:30 a.m., January 1, large groups of youth were pressing the gate entrance of the tunnels that led into Diamond Head crater for SUNSHINE 73. Many of these approximately 70,000 had spent all night waiting.

The Hawaiian Mission Youth Activities Department sponsored "Wayout," Voice of Prophecy youth outreach, with a community action booth in the crater. Enrolled in the "Wayout" booth in the crater were 1,582.

Elder Norman Matiko, associate director of Wayout, and his son, Duane, joined about 20 local Seventh-day Adventist youth, Elder Alex Hall, pastor of the Diamond Head church, and the writer in manning the booth from 6:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m.

This youth outreach will touch the lives of youth who possibly would never be reached by the love of Christ in any other manner. Please pray that these youth will make decisions for Christ.

C. J. OWENS, Director,
Youth Activities Department.

Hauula's New Choir Presents Cantata

A Christmas cantata, "Behold the King," was presented on Friday evening, December 22, by the Hauula Seventh-day Adventist church as its first public musical program. Under the able direction of Mrs. Marlene Nahoopii, the newly-formed choir of 16 voices blended in a well-rounded program.

The children enjoyed their roles as shepherds, wisemen, angels, and other Biblical characters of the nativity. Soloists were Pastor Don Driver, Sam Plunket, and Christine Roberts, while Mrs. Louise Driver served as narrator. A number of non-Adventist friends from the community were in attendance that evening and voiced their appreciation for a fine program.

Formed just a few months ago, the choir added a new dimension in worship to this "little church in the wildwoods" when it furnished the complete musical portion for worship service on September 9, 1972. Since then, it has alternately furnished the morning worship special music with the Tongan musical group, directed by Brother Asipeli Pouliivaati, a member of the church who was formerly associated with the Voice of Prophecy quartet in Tonga.

The Hauula Seventh-day Adventist church, which has a present membership of 70 members, recently completed a series of evangelistic meetings under the direction of Pastor and Mrs. John Klim. One of the number who were baptized as a result of these meetings was Lohengrin Nahoopii. He has since been married to Marlene Bourke, and is now in the process of formulating a Pathfinder Club in Hauula with the help of Brother Moses "Pops" Kahula.

The Hauula church expresses appreciation to Marlene for her work with the choir, and to "Ingie" for his interest in the youth.

Desert Valley Church Blessed

Tucson Desert Valley experienced a double blessing during a very busy December.

Normally December is a month for Ingathering, but this year an evangelistic series was held along with the Ingathering campaign. Conference Evangelist Lyndon DeWitt conducted a nightly series for two weeks, and God abundantly blessed with 31 souls baptized. There are a number of other interests that have developed as well. This made it possible for the membership to rise to 540.

During this month, also, the Ingathering goal was reached, a total of $6,350.

The Tucson Desert Valley church has experienced excellent growth during the past three years under the leadership and service of Pastor W. G. Zima. When he arrived in late January of 1970 the membership was about 350.

In the past two years, Tucson Desert Valley and Benson, which is in the district, have baptized 143 precious souls.

Calistoga Church Dedicated; Sacrifice Seen

Calistoga Church Dedication services began Sabbath morning December 16, as Pastor C. E. Westphal delivered the morning sermon, followed by a soprano solo by Vera Bristow. That afternoon at 2:30, Elder W. B. Bristow, religious liberty secretary of the Conference, related recent experiences in his field.

At 3:30 the dedication services were held, featuring a history of the church by local elder Floyd Fowler. The following remarks are excerpts of Brother Fowler's history:

"I believe you will understand why I have been asked to give the history of this church when I tell you that the Calistoga Church has been my spiritual home for the past 31 years. The first 29 years I served as first elder, and the last year they have given me the dignified title of Honorary Elder!

History

"But this is not all. My wife has attended this church from the time she was a babe in arms, and her mother became a member here before the turn of the century when the church itself was only six years old. So you see we belong to this church, and the Calistoga Church belongs to us in a very special way.

"We have seen it go through difficult as well as more prosperous times. We have not grown as large as the St. Helena, Elmhaven, Angwin and Napa churches, all of which are our close neighbors. But the church has some marks of distinction. Ellen G. White, W. C. White, Elders Loughborough, Healey, and other ministers who are well-known in the pioneer years of the Adventist work, spoke in the Calistoga Church when it was located on Berry Street. Our Junior Division still uses the pulpit which these distinguished leaders in the denomination used as they brought their messages of love and warning to this congregation.

Practical Preaching

"Many of those who have become prominent in denominational work since the establishment of Pacific Union College received their practice in preaching and teaching—thanks to the forbearance and patience of the Calistoga Church members!

"In more recent years, we have sent out two families as missionaries to foreign fields. The Kenneth Phillips and Roy Peters families both went to Africa.

"The spirit of self-sacrifice has been evident through this period of construction and development. The fact that we can say at this time that the indebtedness has been paid off is proof of this spirit of love and self-denial. Our membership does not consist of the wealthy. Many are students with their families, whose expenses are high, whose incomes are low, but our good Lord has blessed us all."

The dedication sermon was delivered by Elder Helmuth C. Retzer, Northern's president. Also participating in the ceremonies was E. A. Schmidt, secretary-treasurer, who presented a check on behalf of the Pacific Union.

This act of dedication was by Elder Charles Mellor, ministerial secretary of Northern. Kenneth Plumlee gave the invocation and Elder W. B. Bristow, the benediction. Music was provided by the choir and a male quartet. Mrs. Bernardine Clark was music director and the pianist, Mrs. Alice Halsey.

Calistoga's new church is a tribute to the self-sacrificing membership.

Students Know Blessing and Joy of Giving

This year the admonition, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20: 35) has literally been put into action at Pleasant Hill Junior Academy.

The tenth-grade class under sponsorship of Mr. Harry Woodhouse felt they would prefer helping other teenagers find Christ by contributing nearly $40 to the WAYOUT Program of the Voice of Prophecy. Contributions were accepted from all grades—as many wished to participate.

Under direction of Miss Ardyce Sweem the eighth-grade provided a Christmas

Former White Church Active

The St. Helena, California Church, second oldest Seventh-day Adventist church on the West Coast, spearheaded a church and community drive in the entire Napa Valley to gather clothing, bedding, food, money and blood for the earthquake victims of Managua in the first two weeks of January.

As a result church members and the public at large brought to the church social hall large quantities of material. Some 500 large boxes have been packed and shipped free by government planes to Managua. Over $1,400 and 32 pints of blood have also been sent.

This fine work followed a brief fund raising by the St. Helena church to help gather in souls in Kasa, Africa, where scores of people have requested membership in the Adventist church. Over $5,000 was raised and sent through the regular channels for this work.

Elder J. N. Loughborough's and Sister E. G. White's old church with now over 500 members is still very much alive!

Press Secretary Awarded for 25 Years

Sabbath, October 21, 1972, Mrs. Alberta Lammerding was honored by being presented a plaque commemorating 25 years as Public Relations Secretary of the Sacramento Central Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Mrs. Lammerding was elected to this post in 1947, the only one to hold this position in the Central Church.

In spite of her inability to type, during the early years in this position, she submitted her copy to the newspaper in long-hand. In later years she enrolled in a typing class determined to master the art.

She has used the same manual typewriter for the past 20 years.

Among those she remembers as helping her get started are Don Henry Thomas, Glenn Fillman, Bill Oliphant and W. B. Bristow.

In addition to being vitally involved in Public Relations, Mrs. Lammerding has been a crusader for temperance. In 1969 she was chosen Temperance Woman of the Year for her participation in Five-Day Plans, showing temperance films in public high schools, and the distribution of Listen magazine. She has also been very active at the county fairs with temperance exhibits. Mrs. Lammerding has seen individuals baptized into the church as a result of her work in the temperance field.

In 1971, she was honored by being chosen the first 'Public Relations Secretary of the Year' for the Northern California Conference.

In presenting the award, Pastor Gery Friesen reminded her that her work is not yet finished. "We'll retread you, but never re-tire you," he said. The Central Church is grateful for the work that Mrs. Lammerding has done and that she continues to do. Because of her devotion to the Cause and her godly example, she has the joy of worshipping each Sabbath with her three children, Gerald, a church elder; June Wesner, Sabbath School pianist; and Bonnie Ensminger, a Sabbath School division leader. Her nine grandchildren are all a part of the Central Church as well.

GERY P. FRIESEN, Pastor,

"Strange People" Make Unique Holiday Gift

Not many people receive as many as 90 Christmas presents, but Larry Hayes did—and they all came from people he did not know.

Those "strange people" were students of Pacific Union College who recently donated 90 units of blood to the 30-year-old hemophiliac, following a total hip replacement operation.

The blood donation was made possible through the San Francisco-based Irwin Memorial Blood Bank where the PUC blood donations resulting from a blood drive last spring were being held in reserve.

According to PUC Health Service Director Mrs. Mary Tillay, R.N., the whole project was sparked by a San Francisco Examiner news story crying for help.

"The article explained that Larry Hayes was about to undergo a total hip replacement, and needed a large amount of blood for successful recovery," Mrs. Tillay said. "Since we had over one hundred units of blood in the blood bank, the idea occurred to me that this would be a worthy Christmas project."

Acting on the principle that donating something for a specific person or cause is more personal and meaningful, Mrs. Tillay relayed the information to the student coordinator for campus blood drives, Charles Hilliard.

Arrangements were then made through the blood bank to credit Hayes with 90 units of volunteer blood. The balance left in the reserve is being held for other needy patients.

Soon after Hayes' hip operation, two student representatives, Kathy Curtis and Dave Roth, met in his hospital room to receive his thanks for PUC's life-saving gifts.

PUC students Kathy Curtis and Dave Roth chatted with Larry Hayes, a hemophiliac in San Francisco's Children's Hospital, to whom PUC students donated 90 units of blood. "It was a Christmas present I shall always remember," Hayes told the pair.

"Of all the Christmas gifts I received," Hayes said, "this is one I won't soon forget. I'm extremely touched by the thoughtfulness and generosity of the students who responded to my need for blood replacements. It's comforting to know that there are many good people in the world who believe in helping one another."

The operation, he noted, will greatly increase his freedom of movement and relieve severe pain in his hip joint.

A news report with a photo concerning the Christmas gifts appeared in the San Francisco Examiner soon after the student visit.

Brass Ensemble Sets Concerts

The sound of a trumpet is kind of nice, isn't it? Or how about a trombone, a French horn or even a tuba?

If brass music is what you like, Monterey Bay Academy or Old Saint Mary's Church in San Francisco are the places you'll hear the combined sounds of four trumpets, four horns, four trombones and one tuba the weekend of February 2-4.

The three-day musical tour of MBA and San Francisco is one of several short tours the Pacific Union College Brass Ensemble will be making this year.

Directed by Dr. Carlyle Manous and accompanied on the organ by Del Case, professors in the PUC music department, the Brass Ensemble will commence their weekend of concerts with a 7:30 p.m. appearance at MBA. The ensemble will also play on Sabbath at 4 p.m.

Concluding the weekend at Old Saint Mary's Roman Catholic Church in San Francisco, the Brass Ensemble will perform a variety of sacred works accompanied by the organ. The concert time is set for 3 p.m. Both performances will be open to the public.

Telecast Deserves Support

Faith for Today is wielding a powerful influence for good in our land. Many people have been put in touch with the message of Truth through this fine family weekly telecast program. How grateful we should be that the Lord has so many avenues that are open to the proclamation of the Advent message.

The annual offering for this important cause comes on Sabbath, February 10. Many plans of a far-reaching nature are being made to increase the effectiveness of Faith for Today, and surely this program will play a very important part in reaching the multitudes with this last message of truth.

Conference Sets Two Records

Members of the Nevada-Utah Conference are to be congratulated on their fine dualistic Ingathering achievement this year. For the first time several of our churches introduced the beautiful colorful Christmas Gift Bible study card when Ingathering door to door, with wonderful success.

In one area a caroling group of adults with the local pastor as the solicitor really illustrated one of the finest ways to gospel Ingather. After making the appeal and receiving an offering, the pastor would introduce his Christmas gift to the householder by saying: "This is our gift to you, and we hope you will find it worthwhile."

A large number of influential people responded and returned the cards. Now the pastor and laymen are busy with the Ingathering for souls. This is a real breakthrough to the upper class of society.

The second outstanding achievement is a constant reminder to us of the goodness of God in the way He brings funds into His treasury.

Nevada-Utah Conference members have raised more funds this year for missions than ever before in the conference history, and funds are still coming in for a good overflow.

May the Holy Spirit water the gospel Ingathering seed sown by the prayers offered in offices, and homes through the happy witness of our dedicated pastors and laymen.

Las Vegas Pastorate Filled

Elder and Mrs. G. D. O'Brien of Arizona have recently come to the Las Vegas district to assume the pastoral responsibilities of the Boulder City and Las Vegas churches. They are joined by their daughter, Kelly, who is a student in the Las Vegas Junior Academy. Prior to coming to the Nevada-Utah Conference the O'Briens had worked in the program of evangelism in the Arizona Conference.

G. D. O'Brien

It is with real joy that we welcome these seasoned workers into our field, and we are confident that the fruitage of their labors will result in real blessings to our field.

Elder O'Brien had served in the Pacific Northwest, in Canada, in the Lake Union Conference and earlier began his ministry in the Southwest.

We bespeak a real interest in the prayers of our people for the O'Briens as they enter upon their ministry in this field.

NSO Gives Counsel

bath observance according to his personal beliefs, National Service Organization personnel will help explain to the commanding officer the whole matter of Sabbath observance by SDA's. This does not guarantee that the serviceman will get his Sabbath free of duty. It may, in fact, result in the military deciding they can no longer use a person who stands staunchly for his Sabbath. They may discharge such a person.

Personal Conviction

The matter of not bearing arms is also a personal conscientious conviction. At the moment one with such a belief cannot voluntarily enter the Armed Forces, except in very special conditions for ordained ministers serving as chaplains and some commissioned medical personnel. There is a persistent rumor around the Pentagon that an enlistment contract in the Army Medical Department may be offered to noncombatants when the draft goes to zero. If that occurs we will inform you through the various avenues of church information.

Noncombatant Application

Personnel who become noncombatants after entering the military service may apply to be assigned to noncombatant duty for the remainder of their obligation, but may not re-enlist or extend their military time. When they apply for a noncombatant assignment, the military will then make a determination as to whether they are sincere, and, if sincere, whether they should be retained in the military.

In view of all these things it is wise counsel of the church for its members not to enter the military service voluntarily if they have personal conscientious restrictions on how or when they can serve. If you wish further information, ask your pastor or the conference youth director for the recently-printed NSO leaflet "Military Service and You."
