NO. 23.

Privileges of Son-ship.

NO. 3.

By a careful study of God's word we will learn that it reveals, very minutely, many privileges that we are apt to overlook if we read hurriedly. Surface reading is of very little real value to the student of God's word. The true child of God is a worker with Christ. What a glorious privilege! When our Saviour was only twelve years old he exclaimed, "Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?" He had a business on this earth. His business was his Father's. He and his Father worked in concert in this business. The Father, Son and Holy Spirit constituted a business firm. This work in this world was the salvation of man. Matt. 1:21.

As our Saviour communed with his Father (John 17:1-4) on the night of His betrayal, He declared that He had finished the work assigned Him on the earth. He had a heaven appointed work to do, and now He had reached the time when His personal labors were soon to cease on the earth, and his Priestly work begin in the Sanctuary above. But we are not to conclude that the work begun by our Saviour reached its end here. No, no. Listen again, as he talks to his Father, "As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I sent them into the world." So then it is easy to see that the work so well begun by our Saviour was now committed to his followers, and that it did not cease at his death.

The Apostle Paul informs us in his second letter to the Corinthians, that unto us is committed the ministry of reconciliation. From this we learn that the business firm, above mentioned, was not broken up, but that it was here enlarged, and thus prepared to do a greater work, (John 14:12) of the same kind. Thus we may see through this son-ship we become a part of this firm, whose business it is to save men and women from sin. It is not a new firm established with a new constitution but the old firm extending facilities. We are said to be workers together with Him. 2 Cor. 6:7. The business is the same as before—that of reconciling man to God.

We are not to suppose that we can carry on this work in our own strength. No, we have heaven appointed agencies whose mission it is to furnish us every necessary means and assistance in our delegated work. Hear the words of our Saviour as He repeated the great commission the last time to His apostles. He prefaced His command by saying, "All power is given to me in heaven and in earth," then he proceeds thus—"Go and teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father Son and Holy Ghost." Then after they were baptized they were to observe all things He had commanded. Following this instruction He assures us, as well as them, that He will be with us always, even unto the end. This assures perfect success, if we see our privileges and make use of the heaven appointed means that await our demand and reception.

Again we are told that if we lack wisdom, for this work, it shall be given us. James 1:5. If we want the Spirit it awaits our demand. Luke 11:13. Then if we are compassed about with such grand and glorious privileges, why should we not be efficient—why should we not be courageous, why should our work be irksome, why should we not be happy? Only one answer can be given:—we should.

W. M. CUBLEY.

Don't Wait To Be Told.

If you would advance rapidly in your position, or get on faster in the world, don't acquire the habit of waiting to be told what to do. Anticipate the wants of your employer. Use your common sense and ingenuity in trying to solve the problems that come up from today. Nobody ever advances who constantly waits for directions. It is the man who decides promptly with precision, without being told what is to be done, and then does it, who gets on in the world.

A habit of doing nothing without orders or directions is paralyzing to one's faculties and death to individuality and originality. Don't labor under the delusion that to imitate the action and methods of those above you is all that your position requires. Original work commands attention, and will be of great service in helping you to advance in your position, or in directing work of your own. The valuable employee is one who anticipates the needs of his position, and attends to them before he is told.

Keep your eyes wide open for the things which need to be done, and do them before you are asked to. You may think that actions which are not prompted by the presence of your employer will never be heard of by him. Put aside this delusion.

There are innumerable ways in which an employee's habits of work are brought to the attention of your employer; and in the near future, the right person will be sure of reward.—Success.

IRA D. Sankey, the great gospel singer, is permanently blind.

THE camp meetings will soon be here. Are you preparing to attend? Prophecy is fast fulfilling around us, and this may be the last opportunity we shall have of meeting under such favorable circumstances. Everyone who loves the message should, therefore, make a great effort to attend this year. Let no light thing keep you away from these services.

Arkansas Department.

Items of Interest.

BROTHER Bender writes from London, Arkansas, where he and Elder Griffin are holding meetings, that the cool, damp weather has hindered the attendance at the meetings, but he hopes from now the interest will increase.

ELDER Sommerville has gone to Pruitt to meet an urgent call for meetings.

A BROTHER from Gravette writes that the series of meeting recently held there by Elder Sommerville was well attended, with much interest. Although none have taken a decided stand, some are in the valley of decision. Many are convicted of the truth, and we hope and pray that conviction may lead to conversion ere it is too late. Much missionary work had been previously done there through the faithfulness of the church in scattering literature, and many had allowed themselves to become prejudiced against the truth instead of earnestly seeking the Lord to help them see and accept.

BROTHER Bender, transportation agent for this Conference, will look after rates and announce the same in this paper soon.

PLEASE renew your subscription to the RECORD, only fifty cents.

The special number of the Watchman has been received, and it truly meets the needs of the hour. May seeds be sown for eternity as the result of its circulation.

FOUR dollars and fifty cents have just been received on the camp meeting and tent fund from Brother and Sister Row, of Pruitt. All such favors as this and the others reported this week are gratefully received, and promptly acknowledged, and applied to the purpose for which it was sent. Please remember that it is all in the line of missionary work for the upbuilding of the cause, for the spread of God's eternal truth in this State.

LET as many as possible plan to attend the camp meeting aside from the delegates, for we cannot afford to miss the blessings that these gatherings afford.

AMOUNT of tent fund as previously reported, $30.83

The Election of Delegates.

WITH the time and place of the annual State conference and camp meeting all are familiar. As usual delegates should be chosen, and the names sent to the secretary. Blanks will be sent out in ample time to give opportunity for the choosing of the delegates and returning credentials so that they will reach this office not later than the seventh of August. The delegates should be those who are faithful representatives of the truth, and should be elected when the largest representation of the church is present. The basis of representation is one delegate for the church and one addition for every twenty members. Let us see the importance of promptness in all branches of the Lord's work.

J. A. SOMMERVILLE, President.
F. E. HEERMANN, Secretary.

Notices.

THE seventeenth annual session of the Arkansas Conference of Seventh-day Adventists will be held in connection with the camp meeting at Russellville, Arkansas, August 11-21. Everything from a human standpoint will be done to make this meeting a success, but this of itself can do but little. There must first be a willingness to make a sacrifice to attend, a laying aside of all things of a selfish nature, an earnest seeking after the blessing of God, esteeming others better than ourselves, that love and good will toward each other may have its wonted place in every heart. It is hoped that Elder E. W. Farnsworth and others from abroad will be with us, also Elder N. P. Nelson, president of the Southwestern Union Conference. Let none stay away; you cannot afford to lose the blessing the Lord has in store for those who attend. J. A. SOMNERVILLE, President.

We have nearly cleared up the Arkansas hook this week.

Notice.

WE adopted a resolution at last conference "to deal on a strictly cash basis" with the local tract societies and Sabbath Schools for supplies, thirty days being considered cash. Some of our societies, I am sorry to say, have forgotten that fact; yes, some who were present at the meeting and heard the resolution. (Those who were not present have had the resolution sent them.) We would greatly appreciate it if all such would settle their indebtedness for Sabbath School supplies, periodicals, etc, by the fifteenth of June, and as much earlier as possible, as we are closing our books and do not wish to carry these small accounts over. Aside from this we settle monthly for such supplies, and it is very difficult for us to do when others are careless and neglectful in settling their accounts. We trust that a word to the wise will be sufficient.

Notice.

SABBATH School and church blanks will be sent out with the blank credentials, and we earnestly and kindly beseech you to please fill them out promptly at the close of this quarter and return them to the secretary. Not quite two-thirds of the reports were returned last quarter, and the same delinquency the previous quarter. Now it involves extra expense having to send out duplicates etc. It also makes it very difficult to send in a correct report of the state schools to the general secretary as well as making it almost impossible to keep the books correct at the office. Now this should not be. For example, suppose we had fifty schools in Arkansas, and only twenty-five reported, your secretary could only report that number, so our conference would only get the credit of having twenty-five schools. We know that it is a very easy thing to lay the blanks aside when received, and think they are not worthy of notice, and it does not make any difference. My dear reader they would not be sent out if that was the case. Now while we are grateful to those who have rendered prompt reports heretofore, we would greatly appreciate prompt reports from all in the future.

What are you doing for the RECORD?

Field Reports.

KILDARE AND DOUGLASVILLE—Since my last report, which was two weeks ago, I have organized the three families into a Sabbath School at Kildare, with a membership of sixteen, and left them of good courage rejoicing in the truth. From there I went to Douglasville and began meetings in a school house, where there was a call for a minister. But prejudice was so strong they closed the doors on me. I find as Elder Sommerville said at camp meeting that the keg doctrine is hard to meet. The interest is so great and the desire for meetings so strong that they say they will build an arbor, if they have to build it at night. I will therefore return and resume my work there in the near future. I will go back to Kildare and strengthen the brethren there as they are new in the truth and need more help. Pray for us.

E. B. HOPKINS.

WEST TEXAS.—We are still at Eula. Our congregations are small, and not much interest is manifested. We had a little increase last night. We hope for favorable developments soon and for some fruit of our labors. We have received several letters from Oplin, of an encouraging nature. The people are calling for us to return and hold more meetings.

N. J. ETHEREDGE.

W. M. CUBLEY.

WEST TEXAS (later).—Our meetings closed at Eula last night without visible results. We will begin at Clyde June 1, and will work in this and other towns along the Texas & Pacific railway until camp meeting.

I am at Clyde now, and have secured the use of the Christian church to hold a series of meetings in. Brother and Sister Cubley will join me to-morrow, (May 31).

N. J. ETHEREDGE.

West Texas Camp Meeting.

THE local camp meeting in the Western District will be held at Buffalo Gap, Taylor county, August 19 to 29. If possible, let every member of the Roby, Coleman, and Santo churches attend this meeting. Also all the isolated Sabbath-keepers in this district, and as many others as can, should come from other parts of the State.

We have a good church house about completed and nearly paid for. Some time during the camp meeting we desire to dedicate it to the Lord. We desire to make this meeting a success and by the help of the Lord we will. It is very desirable that five or six families besides the few that are already here, come here to live. It is a good country, and land is comparatively cheap. A few first class renters can be accommodated. If you are coming, let me know. If you want a tent, say so. If you are going to need a pasture for team, tell how many head. If you want to buy or rent land, mention it. If you hear of any Sabbath-keepers in the the Western District who is not taking the RECORD, please send him a copy containing this notice, also write him a letter and urge him to take the RECORD and to come to this local camp meeting. Until further notice address me as below.

N. J. ETHEREDGE.

Eula, Callahan Co., Texas,

The Camp Meeting at Keene.

THE time is drawing near for our yearly convocation. Let nothing, dear brethren and sisters, hinder you from enjoying the blessings of this feast. It is far better for you to let your business suffer than to neglect the refreshing of your souls. Make no excuse for staying at home, and not enjoying every spiritual advantage possible. From what we can learn this will be a large meeting, and there is no reason why we should not receive a special outpouring of God's Holy Spirit.

I hope the churches will have their delegates duly elected so that they can come and take their proper seats at the beginning of the conference. There should be one delegate to represent the church organization, and one for every fifteen members of the church.

We have secured rates on all the rail roads from any point in Texas, from July 25 to August 9. You pay full fare to Keene, getting a certificate to show that you have done so, and return home for one-third. If you should need to travel on more than one road, be sure to get a certificate each time you change.

The General Conference has promised us good ministerial help for our meeting, but it has not yet been decided who will attend the Southwestern Union Conference camp meetings. This will be announced later.

There will be plenty of tents and provision on the grounds. A boarding-place will be arranged for, to accommodate those who wish to secure their meals at such a place. Everything will be done that can be done for the comfort and accommodation of those who attend this meeting.

N. P. NELSON.

Notes from the Canvassers.

BROTHER and Sister Seat, Brother Mayers, and the writer arrived here Tuesday night, the 24th of May. We pitched our camp just outside the town of Mansfield and began work in the surrounding country Wednesday. Our reports will show the work done. We are in territory where our people and work are well known. The people recognize us everywhere, and we find our books scattered in many homes, yet by the blessing of God we have been able to find some who are ready to obey the truth. While we cannot expect to take as many orders as we could if we were in virgin soil, yet we trust to be able to stay in the field and see the results of our work in the kingdom. We say to all, be of good cheer, press forward, the battle is on,—the last battle,—and praise God, the victory is ours.

“O, brethren, be faithful, soon Jesus will come,

For whom we have waited so long;
O, soon we shall enter the glorious home;

And join in the conqueror's song.”

W. W. EASTMAN.

To the Patrons of the Keene Sanitarium.

I WISH to say to the patrons of the Sanitarium that we are in an emergency that must be met. Dr. Haskell's sickness has made us very heavy expenses, which must be met, and those who expect the Doctor's services in the future must come to the rescue now.

It may be necessary for some to borrow money to pay their bills. If so it will be no greater burden than for us to do so. Another physician has been necessary, and we realize as never before what Dr. Haskell has been doing. We now have an opportunity to find out who our true friends are. To those to whom we have sent out statements, who owe the Sanitarium, we shall expect them to make arrangements to settle them at once.

Hoping this notice will answer to our extreme need, I am sincerely,

World's Fair Home.

AT A meeting of the Central Union Conference held in St.

Louis, Missouri, February 22, 1904, it was decided to rent a house, and grounds on which to erect tents suitable as a home for missionary workers during the summer. It was also suggested that many of our Seventh-day Adventist brethren and sisters would like such a home in which to stop while visiting the World's Fair, and not be obliged to put up at hotels where fabulous prices are charged for accommodations and unhygienic food is served.

You will be glad to know that such a place has been secured just outside of the city where it is quiet, and the weary will find it a restful place after tramping about in the Fair grounds all day. We are located on a hill beyond the smoke and noise of the city where we have an abundance of fresh air, but still quite convenient to the Fair grounds and street cars.

We have a garden in connection with our home, where vegetables for the family will be grown. Those who come to stop with us for a few days, may find it an inviting spot in which to take their morning recreation. Hoes will be provided for this gymnasium free of charge.

As we keep no servants, all who come will be expected to care for their own rooms. It will be well for those who can conveniently do so, to bring their own towels.

Our expenses are exceedingly heavy, house rent very exorbitant, and provision high, but for all this we have arranged to accommodate our friends at a very moderate charge as follows:—

- Lodging for one night only, half a bed, $.75 each person.
- Lodging for two nights or more, half a bed, $.50 each person.
- Breakfast when ordered, $.25 each person.
- Dinner when ordered, $.35 each person.

Terms cash payable in advance. It is our plan to make this home a training school for missionary workers, therefore we trust that all who come to stop with us may plan to spend at least one day in field work among the teeming thousands of St. Louis, thereby gaining an experience in house to house missionary work which may be beneficial in future efforts in telling of Jesus's love.

Will those who wish accommodations at our home please make all arrangements by correspondence two or three weeks in advance, otherwise no accommodations can be promised. Please address all communications to A. D. Gilbert, 7301 Blanche Ave., Ellendale Station St. Louis, Missouri.

Keene Notes.

THE closing exercises of the Academy will be held tonight and tomorrow night at eight o'clock. All are invited, and urged to be there promptly at the hour mentioned.

MRS. J. P. Humphries went to Oklahoma last week to visit her brothers. J. P. Humphries left Thursday morning for South Texas.

ELDER A. W. Jenson is working hard to get the tents and fixtures in good order for the camp meeting.

HENRY Cochran and wife are visiting his father and family this week.

T. R. Blair had his wagon top badly damaged and a lot of berry crates ruined in the storm last Thursday night.

ELDER N. P. Nelson returned Thursday and reports a profitable visit to the workers in Arkansas.

A letter from Doctor Haskell to his father says that he is improving slowly, but was still quite weak.

ELDER H. B. French is at home for a few days recovering from a broken rib, received while caring for his tent during a severe storm. He reports that the tent company at Buffalo have a good attendance and interest.

ELDER T. W. Field came home on Sunday night. Too much rain has seriously interfered with their work at Lone Oak. He will soon return and hopes for some fruit there.

A PRIVATE letter from Elder J. P. Lorenz states that after considerable searching they have found a desirable place to pitch their tent in Caldwell, and they hope to begin meetings early this week.

ELDER N. P. Nelson expects to start next Friday on a trip through the western district of Texas. He will first go to Clyde to visit the tent company at that place.

Through an error this paper is dated June 5th instead of 6th.

Field Reports.

HENNESEY AND McLOUD.—Since my last report I continued the work near Hennesey several weeks longer. The wheat blew out largely, and on account of the extreme dry weather last fall, much more corn than usual was planted. This made it difficult to hold the same congregation. As a result of the work there five souls began the observance of all the commandments. Others are convinced of the truth, and I hope they will yet see their way clear to come out fully.

I am now in connection with Brother Hampton, beginning a meeting at McCloud. Pray for the work.

C. SORENSON.

CHANDLER.—We pitched our tent in Chandler, Oklahoma one block from the main street and opposite the court house. Our first meeting was held Friday evening, May 20. The public school commencement exercises were held that same evening. Our attendance that night was about thirty, the next night there were about fifty, and Sunday night the tent was pretty well filled. We are of good courage, and we expect that God will bless in the presentation of His truth, and that many precious souls will be gathered into the garner.

Obituary.

ISAAC OSCAR WHITE, son of H. I. and Mary White, was drowned May 24, 1904, while seining in the Cimarron River with about ten other men, but no one it seemed could help him. Another man was swimming with him, and it seemed he was trying to help him but went down with him, so they both were drowned. It was a hard shock for Brother and Sister White, but the Lord is giving them strength to bear it.

Isaac was born in Taylor county, Iowa, October 19, 1876. He was therefore 28 years, 7 months, and 5 days old. He was converted and baptized in 1893. He has not always been very faithful in living out the truth during that time, but of late he seemed to be more determined to live nearer the Lord. We hope that he is sleeping in Jesus; and that when Jesus comes, He will raise him up in the first resurrection. Words of comfort were spoken by the undersigned based on Psalms 144:3, 4, and Romans 8:28.

G. F. H.

Notes from the Canvassers.

I AM writing these few lines to the RECORD because it does me good to read reports from others and learn how they are getting along. I am glad to see the success they are having in the work. I have been kept from the work a little over a week by sickness, but have been able to work some the past week again. I find the people generally interested in good reading, and a more friendly, sociable people I never met before. I am convinced that the world is getting ripe for the harvest. God is preparing the hearts of the people for the last message of truth that is to be given to the world. As we place ourselves in the hands of God to offer our books to the people, angels come very near to impress hearts, and our own souls are watered. It is a blessed privilege to be a child of the King and an heir of so rich an inheritance. I enjoy the work. I feel my weakness and unworthiness, but thank the Lord, He has strength and righteousness for me, and my great need recommends me to Him. He says, "Sin shall not have dominion over you." Romans 6:14. Pray for us.

J. B. McCONNELL.

TO-DAY is the Sabbath of the Lord, and I am enjoying its rest very much. The Lord has been with me in sowing the printed pages to this people, and I find honest souls hungering for the truth, who I believe will rise up and give the message to a lost world. The Lord says, "They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever." Now is the time to sow the seed.

The fiftieth Psalm and the fifth verse says, "Gather my saints together; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice." Now if you get lonesome, think what the Lord has done for us, and in times past what others have done that they might receive a better resurrection, and what ought we to do who expect translation.

A. R. HILL.

OH, brethren, if we could only realize the condition the people are in, we as a people would begin to stir. Let us cut loose from this world's goods, let us take up the cross of Jesus, and go out by faith, believing on our God, and carry this wonderful message,—the message the people are hungering and thirsting for. Why, brethren and sisters, everyone should be out in the harvest, which is now ripe. Let us be the remnant people and finish the work, thus hastening our Saviour's coming. Let us call Him our Saviour, and by His help go out into His vineyard, and prepare a people to meet Him when He comes. I am still trying to do my part. Pray for me. I hope we all will do much good for our Master and be faithful to the end.

J. T. MILLER.

I AM glad to send in my report as a laborer in the canvassing work. I am at home at present but expect to return to my field of labor soon, for the harvest is great, and the laborers are few. According to the signs of our times the sheaves will soon be gathered in, and I feel that I cannot do too much in spreading this message. Pray for me as one of the laborers.

W. S. ROY.

It is a great pleasure to receive the RECORD and see the good work being done. How it buoys us up and makes our hearts rejoice each week to receive a letter from those of like precious faith and to realize that we are not alone in the work. Let us all be faithful in reporting. It gives us new courage each week as we go forth in the work. I have had some precious experiences the past week, and the Lord came very near and gave me the victory. How good it is to know that all things work together for good to them that love God. Brethren, the prize is in sight, and we are well able to go up and take it. Let us go forward proclaiming victory and it shall be given us. LEWIS T. HEATON.

A Recommendation.

I had the pleasure of visiting Mr. J. T. Chesnut, the proprietor of the new "Chesnut" Dewberry, and saw the berries on the vines, and can say they were simply matted so thick on the vines that they are much more easily gathered than any I have ever seen. As compared with the Austin Dewberry, it has decidedly four points of excellence above that famous berry, namely: It is much sweeter; It is at least two weeks earlier; It is a better shipper; and the seeds are much smaller.
