Living with Angels

By J. W. TURNER

When the gospel of the kingdom is carried to all the world, then Jesus will come. When He comes all the angels of heaven are coming with Him. Jesus has a work for them to do. In Matthew 24:31 we are told that He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of the earth to the other.

Angels have followed God's children through life. While these angels have been grieved many times by our course in life, yet they have never forsaken God's people. They follow the faithful to the end of their journey on this earth. When Jesus and the angels come, they will gather the saints together, and then we will go to those mansions that Jesus is preparing.

In heaven the saints and the angels will associate together. It will be a thrilling experience to live with angels, and recognize them as the ones who helped us gain eternal life. Never on earth will all the story of angel ministry to the children of men be told. In the earth made new when, through the sacrifice of the Lamb of God, man will be made like the angels, it will then be revealed.

Angels who have followed God's people in life, and who have been in the presence of God, will be the teachers, instructors, friends, and associates of the redeemed saints. They have been with God and they have studied the plan of salvation, and will be real companions to those who have been washed from their sins in the blood of the Lamb.

It is important that we get ready to live with the angels. Every sin must be confessed, and we must be right with God. Our characters must be formed and we must let the angels lead us now in order that they might gather us together at the coming of the heavenly hosts. This old world is getting darker each day. Brethren, let us get our eyes on Jesus and prepare to live with Him and the angels. Soon this world's program will be ended. We are homeward bound.

"Homeward bound! Yes, we are, nearing

The eternal home of rest;
Each day's journey brings us nearer
To the mansions of the blest.

"We have watched and we have waited
For the coming of the day,
When our tears and our heartaches
Will forever pass away.

"Many times we all have fallen
Countless failures mar our past;
But we trust that through our Saviour
We shall overcome at last.

"Rough the road and long the journey;
But the trials of our way
Will but seem to us as trifles
In the final crowning day.

"Homeward bound! Our journey's ending;
Soon comes setting of the sun;
Then with joy we'll meet our Master
Hear the gracious words, 'Well done.'"

A Call to Action

May we share with you the following important communication just received from the General Conference home missionary department:

"After some two years and a half of waiting, we have military permission to ship clothing to Japan and Korea. The conditions in those countries are pitiful in the extreme, as we can well imagine, and now that permission is granted to send clothing, we are urging the unions west of the Mississippi River to deluge our warehouse in San Francisco with packages as was done last fall.

"Very possibly shipments to Europe will be resumed again a little later. We trust that now that In-gathering is out of the way every member of our church may be enlisted in this great welfare effort to relieve need in war-stricken lands.

Very sincerely yours,
HENRY F. BROWN.

"P. S. Please sound the call to renewed action to all Dorcas and welfare societies in your union, asking them to gather clothing giving priority to men's shirts and suits. Send to San Francisco warehouse. We can supply tags in quantities."

The Draft and You

As this is written provisions of the proposed manpower draft are not yet determined or enacted into law.

When the legislation is completed, information regarding these provisions as they relate to Seventh-day Adventist draft-age men will be placed before you.

While we are waiting for the legislation to be completed and its details to become known, it occurs to me that I may be of service to you by discussing some principles of relationship and procedure regarding the coming draft.

It is likely that if you are in the age group of 18 to 30 you will be required to register shortly for the first peace-time draft in American history.

If you are in the age group from 19 to 25 it is possible you may face induction into the armed forces for a period of two years.

When men are faced by such contingencies they react in different ways, according to their differing temperaments and beliefs. Some take one course, some another.

If either information is inaccurate or inadequate their impulses are likely to point them in wrong directions, and they do hurtful things.

So while we are waiting let me talk with you a little and offer you some advice. I do so in order to help you avoid mistakes. I have seen a lot of mistakes made about this matter of the draft.

You see, I have been counseling young men a long time about such matters. And if you will let me help you I want you to seek my help freely. Together we may be able to avoid some wrong courses which have led others into difficulty.

Thirty years ago, during World War I, I was secretary of the Seventh-day Adventist War Service Commission.

More recently, during World War II, I filled the same post and carried on the same work.

And now as we face another draft I remain in the same work, available to you for any service in my power to render.

During these years I have learned some things about conscription, about war, about relationship to government, about military service, about officers, about draft-age men, about human nature—and about God and His providences.

I have also learned some things about the mistakes young men are likely to make in relation to the draft and their attitude towards military service and right and wrong procedures regarding it.

Your church wants you to take the right attitude, to proceed on the right course, make the right decisions, act on right principles, and do your full duty to both God and country.

In order to help you your church has established and is maintaining a War Service Commission. Plan to use this in any way it can help. If you are perplexed in doubt, seek its assistance. There is no need to be reluctant or to hesitate to do so.

Let me close this first bit of counsel by emphasizing a basic principle. It is this: The draft is not something to be alarmed about, or to get jittery about, or run away from, or dread. It is rather something about which to seek God's will, about which to look for great opportunities for service, about which to determine to maintain your integrity, your Christian profession, and honor your church and your God.

Look on it not as a calamity to be mourned over, but an opportunity to be seized upon.

God has a plan for you and your life. He has not lost control. He will carry out His plan for you—if you will let Him.

Someone has said that a literal translation of Zephaniah 3:17 would be, "He is silently planning for thee in love; for it matters to Him about you." Take that to your heart with confidence in this uncertain time of waiting.

CARLYLE B. HAYNES.

God's Ten Rules

How do you teach the ten commandments to your child? Too often parents say, "It's hard to make the meaning of God's law clear to our children."

God's Ten Rules, by Ethel M. Neff, is a positive answer to the problem of character education. The author draws upon her own childhood experiences, and the lessons she has taught her own son. God's Ten Rules explains the ten commandments in a simple, interesting, practical manner which even tiny boys and girls can understand. The story revolves around Johnny, the central character, and his entire family, and he learns the reasons for God's ten rules, their meaning, and how to put them into practice. Every chapter will inspire boys and girls to love God's law and treasure it in their hearts. Parents will find this a must in their children's library.

God's Ten Rules will be on display at the book-stand on the campground. It retails for $1.50 but will carry the usual camp meeting discount.

Openings For Country Living

The Commission on Rural Living is preparing another listing of properties, homes, farms, jobs, business opportunities in rural locations for circulating among Adventists who live in cities who are interested. Again we ask that any of our brethren knowing of anything of this nature in their vicinity send the information at once, addressing it to: C. B. Haynes, 6840 Eastern Avenue, Washington 12, D. C.

Notice!

It has been reported to us that an individual giving his name as Mr. Prince has obtained money from some of our churches under the false pretext of needing funds to go to his mother's funeral. It has been established that this man is not a Seventh-day Adventist and that his mother passed away fifteen years ago. This is a note of warning to our churches and church members to guard against solicitation of funds by this individual.

Camp Meeting

Needless to remind camp meeting delegates that it is not quite as easy to reserve rooms, courts, and hotel accommodations as in former years. Therefore, in order to be certain of a comfortable place to stay, it is wise to arrange for such places ahead of time. Our locating committee is anxious to be a help to all who may attend either the full time or for only part time. Elder J. R. Hoffman is chairman of the committee. His address is 3832 Victory Drive, Shreveport, Louisiana—phone 78484. Please write to him for reservations, and in doing so the following information is needed:

1. Your name, address, and length of time you will stay in Shreveport.
2. The church you represent.
3. Who will accompany you? If alone, will you be willing to share your room with someone else? If so, do you have a choice?

4. If there will be children, state ages and number.

5. Will you have a car? If so, will you share your car with others?

6. Do not fail to help us by giving us this information.

The Shreveport Dorcas Society will assist us by preparing meals at a moderate charge.

We shall be looking forward to seeing you at the time of the first conference session Wednesday evening, June 9.

President's Notes

A Correction—Our attention has been called to an omission in the Ingathering receipts for the El Reno church which was published in the RECORD of April 14. Through an oversight, the El Reno church was not credited with any Ingathering funds. The records here at the conference office for the close of the month of April show that the El Reno church had raised $196.30. We understand from one of the members of the church that this has been increased and that something over $300 has been raised. We apologize to the El Reno church members for the oversight in not including this for the report in the RECORD.

Ringwood—Elder Lyman gave us an interesting report on the meetings he is holding in the Ringwood church. The attendance has been fair, but regular. Among those attending the meetings are three Protestant ministers. Elder Lyman reports a nice interest developing.

Perry—We understand the members of the Perry church are still conducting their Sunday night meetings with the elder, Brother LaFon, doing the speaking. A number of non-Adventist people are attending the meetings. We are glad to see these lay-efforts being conducted around the field.

Shawnee—Brethren Williams and Bresee report two overflow crowds at their Sunday night meeting, May 16. All seats were taken at both services, the total attendance running over 500. A number of those attending have expressed a deep interest in the subjects being presented.

Vinita—Word comes to us this week that the attendance at the meetings in Vinita is holding up well. A number have already been baptized.

Lawton—The evangelistic campaign in Lawton is rapidly drawing to a close. The brethren are very busy visiting the interested people and preparing for another baptism. The meetings will close this month but Brother Henry will continue to hold Sunday and Wednesday night meetings in the Lawton church.

Youth's Rally—It turned out to be a beautiful day, Sabbath, May 15, and many of our churches throughout the conference were represented at the great Youth Rally held on the campground. In spite of the thunder-shower that came during the Saturday evening service most of those who had been present during the day stayed by and were rewarded. One of the finest musical programs that was ever presented in Oklahoma City, was rendered by the music groups from Union and Southwestern Junior

Camp Meeting Speakers

I am very happy to notify the members of the Texas Conference that Elder Phillip Knox, of Los Angeles, California, is to be at our camp meeting June 4 to 7 to show pictures and lecture on astronomy each evening. It is probably a recognized fact that Elder Knox is one of the outstanding lecturers on astronomy in our denomination. He has some of the most outstanding pictures and will be showing them at camp meeting. It would be worth the expense and your time to come the furthest distances to be there just for one night. We surely hope that our people will make it a point to be there for the opening of camp meeting to enjoy these most wonderful lectures.

The last part of camp meeting, the Voice of Prophecy: Elder Richards and the King's Heralds will be with us.

We will also have Elder Andrea-son, the religious instructor at the Theological Seminary. He is one of the greatest Bible instructors we have. Elder H. O. Olson and Norman Dunn will be with us during camp meeting also.

Really a great feast is in store for our people and may God provide a way for you to be there.

L. L. MCKINLEY.

Texas Education

Another successful school year is drawing to a close. The results of this year will continue to be manifested until the end of time.

Closing school programs and graduation exercises will be held in the schools beginning May 24. This year we expect seventy-five to complete the eighth grade and we anticipate the majority of these graduates going on into the academies in Texas.

In addition to the large class completing the academy at Keene there will be two other groups of graduates. Valley Grande Academy again presents a number of students completing the academic work. Jefferson Rural Academy is rightfully proud of the largest graduation class in the history of the school. To these three classes we extend our congratulations and invite them to attend school next year at Southwestern Junior College.

The success of this school year centers around the teachers. They have done their part. Cooperation between parents, teachers, students and others will always bring success in the school program.

Looking forward we plan for next school year. The call of the hour, the invitation of the Master Teacher is "Prepare to meet thy God."

H. W. JEWKES.

A Report From the Valley

At the last lay-preacher's convention, the men from the Valley set as their goal thirty souls for this year. Sabbath, May 1, they witnessed six precious souls buried with their Lord in baptism. Four of these were the result of the labors of Brother Vernon D. Singer and his co-workers. Last year our lay-preachers from the Valley set as their goal twenty souls and they reached the goal. By the Lord's help we believe they will do it again this year. Several are almost ready for baptism. Dr. L. L. Harrop plans to conduct a large effort in the new church at Harlingen soon. Some very thorough ground work has been laid for this effort. We are hoping and praying for good results. Dr. Harrop is putting forth a special effort for those that we sometimes refer to as the "upper group." He is doing a fine job in preparing the way to reach this neglected class.

Good results are also coming from the radio work and the School of the Air. Sister C. Garrett is giving much of her time in correcting lessons and answering the questions that come in. We appreciate this faithful work on the part of Sister Garrett.

Elders W. A. Butler and E. F. Finck met with the Society of Missionary Men and Dorcas Federation at their last meeting. It was a real pleasure to have these brethren with us. We always appreciate the kind suggestions and enthusiastic help Elder Butler gives. Elder Butler helped to organize our Society of Missionary Men here in the Valley about five years ago. We hope that his next trip to the Valley will be soon and his stay long.

Elder K. D. Johnson conducted an Investiture service here recently. There were fifty-three invested. This represents a lot of work on the part of our teachers and Missionary Volunteers. We all appreciate the good work they have done. We also appreciate all the good work that Elder Johnson is doing for our young people. Isn't it strange how we all feel that our program is the most crowded, that we have the hardest job and are doing more than anyone else? We feel that the rest have a snap and we wonder what they do with their time. Well, I believe if we would try and follow Elder Johnson for a few days we would be completely disillusioned on this point. He is

ALUMNI --- ATTENTION!

We Need Your Help

Dear Fellow Alumni of Keene Industrial Academy and Southwestern Junior College:

We are herewith publishing a complete list of all graduates from Keene Industrial Academy and Southwestern Junior College. We sincerely solicit your cooperation in obtaining from this published list a complete-up-to-date list of alumni and their whereabouts at present.

Besides knowing your whereabouts we are sure we would all like to know how many ministers, teachers, accountants, secretaries, doctors, nurses, mechanics, farmers, housewives, etc., our school has turned out for God. In other words what have you been doing after having learned to live in our alma mater?

Then comes the big thing that we hope to be able to do as a result of this list, which is bringing up to date our missionary map and its purple cords. If you have been in foreign service, please send us a brief survey of your mission experience, telling us where you served, how long, and the years.

So sit down right now and check through the list and jot down the whereabouts of all the ones you know, including their addresses; and please don't forget to give us your own.

REGGIE R. MATTISON, President Alumni Association.

May I urge that all work together in this matter of getting an up-to-date record for the Alumni Association of Southwestern Junior College? We are especially anxious that the map of the purple cords be accurate and again be a cause for inspiration to the youth now in college! Truly, the faithful lives of graduates of this school who have gone into service in foreign fields have greatly strengthened the determination of those who have "followed after" in our college.

Will you help us in the following, please? Thanks!

J. V. PETERS, President

1. Indicate if person has been in service outside of the United States.
  - a. Where?
  - b. When? (approximate date of service will suffice)
2. Present location.
3. Give the married name of those for whom we list only the maiden name.

Mail your information to Southwestern Junior College Alumni Association, Keene, Texas.

Texas Conference

just about the busiest man in forty-eight states trying to keep the boys and girls of Texas "corralled." We think he is doing a fine job and are for him.

The Valley has done well in its Signs campaign. Our goal was around four hundred, but so far about eight hundred subscriptions have come in.

We are just in the process of closing a very successful school year. We greatly appreciate the faithful service rendered by all members of the faculty and the splendid cooperation on the part of the students and patrons. We feel that much credit goes to Professor Garrett, our principal. The school has just purchased a new bus. After explaining our work and our great need to the dealer he took $570 off the regular list price, donated $300 worth of accessories and gave us a liberal allowance on our two old buses. Dr. L. L. Harrop donated a $1,000 on the bus so the school feels that it got a pretty good deal. We have all new buses now, for which we are most happy.

We solicit your prayers for God's continued blessings here in the Valley.

A Parting Word

Goodbyes and farewells are usually a bit difficult, but it was unusually difficult for us to bid farewell to the conference workers and the laymen of the Texico Conference.

It was a little over three years ago when we accepted the call to enjoy the privilege of working with the constituency of this expansive field and to enjoy its delightful climate. We were well pleased in every sense of the word.

We will always count all of the brethren and sisters of the conference our friends and as we move over to 2632 N. W. Park, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to accept the kind invitation to serve in that field we will welcome mail, or a visit from our Texico friends. The time with you has passed all too soon.

And now as we take up our work in our new field of labor, we are sure that we will enlarge our circle of friends and enjoy the added responsibilities associated with the departmental work in this larger conference.

The loyal group of Texico workers have worked untiringly to bring success to the various phases of the work of the two departments in their districts.

All in all we have had a very enjoyable stay in Texico, and we shall remember you all in prayer that it may be our happy lot to meet you in the kingdom when the grand reunion of the family of God takes place.

MR. AND MRS. J. C. CHRISTENSON AND JACK.

News Notes

★ We rejoice to see the continued gain in Sabbath school offerings. The gain at the end of April was $1,064.76. The Texico Conference leads the union in per capita giving through the Sabbath school. Elder Christenson is happy that this is the case as he prepares to leave for work in his new field of labor.

★ Another new book has been added to the stock of the Texico Book and Bible House. The title is Prayer Stories, and the author is none other than the author of Our Little Friend. It is our newest book for children, and it shows how God honors the faith of children and answers their prayers. It is a character building classic that will be read and re-read. The cost in the cloth binding is only $1.50.

In OFFICE BUILDINGS

Some of the most influential people in any community—doctors, dentists, attorneys, and other professionals—can be found in their offices at regular hours every working day of the week. They are quick to appreciate the value of a good thing and are always financially able to buy. Call on them regularly every month.

Around RAILROAD and BUS TERMINALS

Most travelers want something to read to while away the hours when confined to the train or bus, and they usually have money to spend. Wherever you discover people with leisure time and extra money, you will find plenty of magazine customers. An S. D. A. magazine is good company on any trip.

On the STREETS

In the large crowds around shopping centers or theaters there are many people with money to spend who are looking for something interesting to take home and enjoy at their leisure. This always has been a fruitful field for magazine workers.

Now you can have a waterproof carrying case in dignified black, made especially to hold your magazines, order pads, and pencils. It is neatly sewed, tailored to fit, with square corners and a snap-button flap of generous size to give complete protection to your magazines.

The sale of the magazines will bring you more than enough to pay for the kit, and the carrying case is yours for long and helpful service.

Only a brief canvass is needed to sell LIFE AND HEALTH. This one, of several available, has been used with success:

"Good morning. I am ----- . I want to show you what I'm leaving with the people today. It is the ----- issue of our national health journal—LIFE AND HEALTH. This article ----- is intensely interesting. It is only 25 cents. Thank you."

Your publishing department secretary will show you how LIFE AND HEALTH representatives make a good living, or earn extra money in their spare time. Make arrangements with him for territory. To secure your Magazine Soul-Winning Kit and other supplies

Academy Days—May 2 to 4

Southwestern Junior College is accustomed to the bustle of many students, but there was an unusual amount from May 2 to 5, for it was visitors' days. Our good students from Ozark Academy, Valley Grande Academy, Jefferson Academy, and the other many church schools of our great Southwestern Union, spent three days getting acquainted with our school.

The days were packed with a program planned to acquaint the students with our school life from the rising bell, which is early, to "lights out." Sunday night the Sigma Delta Beta and Fidelis Clubs of the Village and the Ta-Wa-Si and Amici Clubs of the dormitories gave our visitors an interesting program. Monday morning the students were up early for a sunrise breakfast in the woods. The fun did not last long enough, however, because visitors accompanied their hosts to seven-thirty classes. A program was arranged whereby most of the visitors were privileged to visit all the college and academy classes.

At eleven o'clock on Monday, our regular chapel time, Elder J. L. Dittberner of Houston, gave an inspiring message on being the right kind of candle and burning for Jesus. At 3:00 p. m. a tour of the campus and the industries was conducted, followed by recreation and a review of our Medical Cadet Corps. An informal banquet was held for our visitors and a musical program was conducted in the chapel by the A Cappella choir, the ladies trio, the men's quartet, and the Hamiltonians.

The highlight of the visit came Tuesday, when the visitors were taken to the Cleburne State Park for games and a picnic dinner. We feel that our visitors learned how we work, how we study, and how we play. Many visiting students expressed their determination to return to Southwestern Junior College next fall to prepare their lives for the Lord's work.

I want to express our appreciation to each student who visited us. We enjoyed having you on our campus and hope that you will be with us next fall.

M. M. WILLIAMS.

Lake Charles District Progressing

"Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward." These words of God seem to ring in our ears, as we plan for advances in the Lake Charles district.

Already results are beginning to come forth as the believers throughout the district respond to God's call to go forward.

A complete Riverside-Ingathering victory among our district churches was the first big result in our progressive endeavors for the Lord our God. Mrs. Dixon and I moved into this new district the first part of February, and one month from the time of our arrival, Lake Charles, Beaumont and Jennings churches were able to announce their victories. We have now set our sights toward an Ingathering of souls for the kingdom.

It was our happy privilege to have Elder W. W. Fordham with us to give impetus to our drive for precious souls. Elder Fordham brought a message from God, vested with power to save. "The Hour Has Come," was the theme of Elder Fordham's message. It was a stirring message, and will be long remembered by all of our members.

A call was made and several came forward to give their hearts to God. One among this group of new believers, is the mother of nine children, a former school teacher, and teacher of the piano. In our weekly prayer services we earnestly besought the Lord to help us find someone who could play the piano for our church services. The acceptance of the truth by this dear mother comes as a definite answer to our united prayers.

Six of the nine children have embraced the message with their mother. These and others are receiving instruction preparatory to full church fellowship. We also hope to have all of these new believers in attendance at our camp meeting in June.

Much more could be written regarding the work and plans throughout our district. We sincerely hope this brief report of doings in this part of our Mission territory will bring encouragement to all of our fellow-believers in the Southwestern Mission.

In addition to the inspiring help rendered by Elder Fordham in our recent district meeting, the writer wishes to express appreciation to Curtis Holloway, Johnnie Williams, Jr. and Berwick Blair for the service they rendered as local leaders, in making the occasion a big success.

We wish to share an interest in the prayers of all of our fellow-believers that we may receive a constant supply of divine grace as we go forward in the Lord's name.

D. J. DIXON.

Voice of Prophecy

"Someday soon I hope to be baptized. I work for some Adventist people and I believe every word of the advent message. I am going to try to persuade my mother, sister, and brother of the true Sabbath and God's word.

"About five years ago many questions used to puzzle me, such as when the world is going to end. I asked many people, but they just told me to forget about it. Now I know the true answer, and I know the Lord is coming very soon. Please pray for me that I may be able to be baptized soon and that the rest of my relatives will accept this wonderful message."—Massachusetts. (From a 16-year-old boy.)

Surprise—"It comes as a surprise to learn that we have been keeping the wrong day. I have wondered about it but never seriously. I would like reading matter that will help me to a better understanding of this subject and I ask your prayers that I may be a true commandment keeper."—Louisiana.
